STUDENT LEADERS

We Walked On The Wild Side When We...

- Backed our team with Panther spirit during the Elwood - Tipton basketball duel.
- Advanced two wrestlers to the state tourney held at Market Square Arena.
- Were voted as the best Junior Achievement group in the area for the eighth straight year.
- Advanced 21 choir members for ISSMA solo and ensemble performances held at Lawrence Central High School.
- Received a Division II ranking in the regional band competition.
- Cheered on our Lady Panther basketball players as they completed the most wins in a season in school history.
- Had 32 students earn college credit from Indiana University in Writing 131, Literature 202, and Math 215.
- Advanced six students to the Project XL state finals in the art, music, and performance categories.
- Won first place in the music category with Jason Blackford's musical composition.

"This basketball season has been the greatest ever for me. The hard work and intensity put into this team to make it succeed was great. The spirit and backing of our fans has been greater this year than it has been in the past, and it is very appreciated."

-Dave Acres-

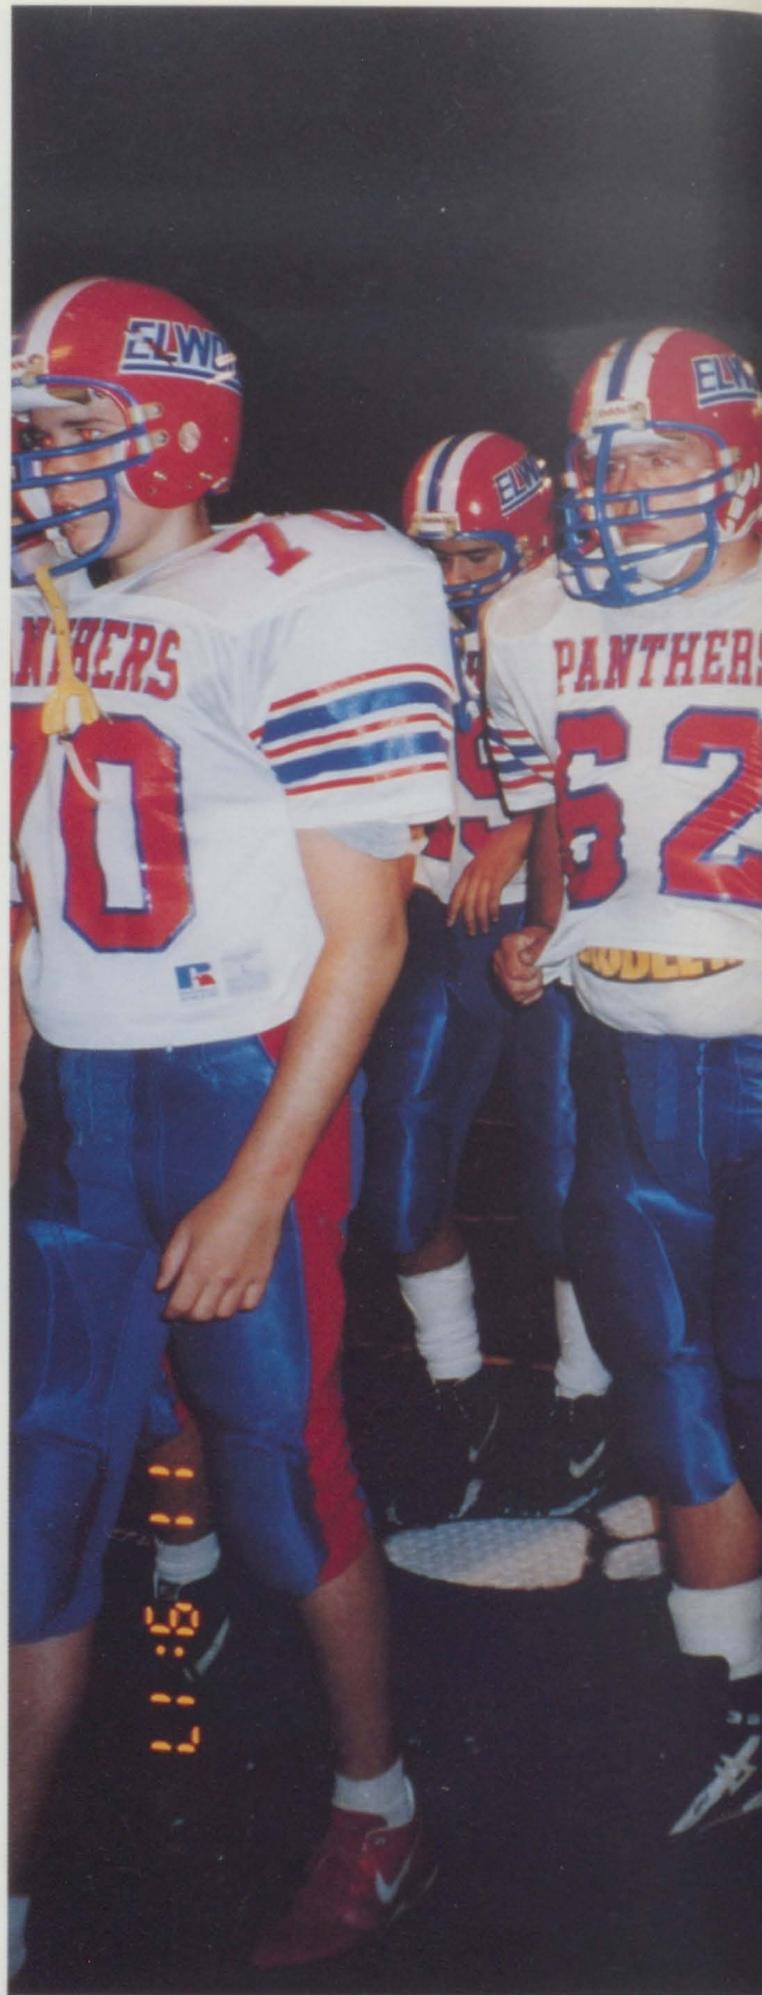

Senior spirit shines with Michele Tunis, Holly Cline, Lindsay Como, and Jessica Etchison's display of signs illustrating their support of varsity basketball senior Dave Acres during the Alexandria game.

Elwood's long standing rivalry against Tipton is displayed as Jimmie Nichols and Andy Yates reflect their spirited humor during the February 4th clash.

The 1993 Homecoming parade was led by senior parade marshals, Amber Loy and Ty Crandall, who were elected by student council members.

During the 1993 Powder Puff game senior players listen intently while their coach, Chad Hibst, explains a play.

As the buzzer rings for halftime, the Elwood Panthers head to the locker room with a 21-0 lead over Blackford.

Two Decades

of Tradition Lives On

The 1993 Homecoming took place during the week of September 20 through September 24. This week was filled with dress up days which included college and sweats day, pajama day, hat and shades day, red and blue day, and hippie day.

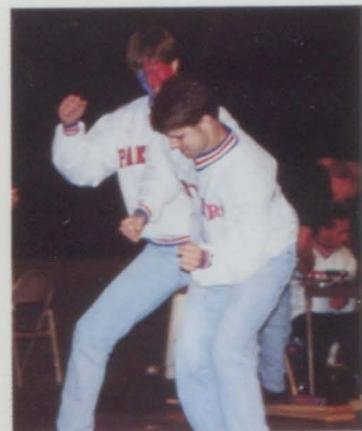

Many students decorated class sheets and halls. The sophomores won the sheet contest with the theme, "Never Gonna Get It."

The annual Homecoming parade took place on the Friday before the varsity football game. Senior parade marshals, Amber Loy and Ty Crandall, led the parade through town. The lineup of the parade included Spanish club, IPC, FBLA, the high school band, and DECA. After the parade the attention was focused on the football game. The team won its 20th consecutive Homecoming victory by defeating Blackford County, 34 to 12. Courtney Casteel was crowned the 1993 Homecoming queen by last year's queen, Jennifer Mason. The other queen candidates were Natalie Huffman, Koby Hare, Michele Tunis, and Jessica Etchison. After the football game many students attended the Homecoming dance held in the cafeteria. During a crowning ceremony, Jack Reese was crowned the 1993 Homecoming king. Other king candidates were Stephen Richardson, Steve Callaway, Eric Baker, and Karl Boyer.

The Powder Puff game was held on September 29. The seniors defeated the juniors, 48 to 8. The class of 1994 remained undefeated after beating the seniors in the 1992 Powder Puff game. During halftime the tug-of-war took place which was introduced last year by Mrs. Tracy Holaday. The freshmen won for the second year in a row. This brought an end to another busy week during Homecoming.

Senior Powder Puff cheerleaders Todd Overdorf and John Justus dance to "The Twist."

Showing their Panther pride and spirit, sophomores participate in the Homecoming parade by riding in a hay wagon.

Cherished Collectibles

Heartfelt Possessions

Since childhood a special china doll has found its way under Michele Tunis' tree for Christmas. Her collection expands every year, and her favorite doll to date is a nun which she received in 1989 from her parents.

A romantic interest sparked Laura Fortner's involvement in the collection of cow memorabilia. The collection, which started in the summer of 1991, contains over 50 different and unique pieces.

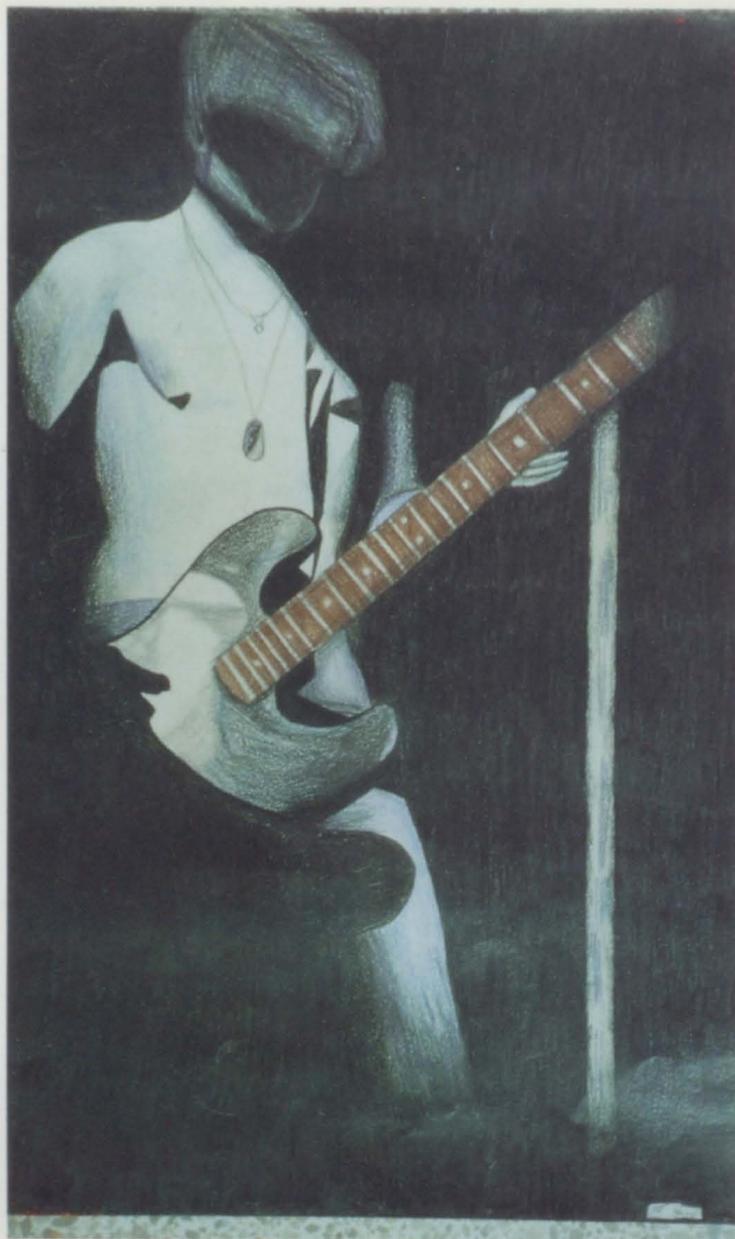

An eager interest in professional football led Brandon Patton to begin his collection of Washington Redskins memorabilia. Among his most prized possessions is an authentic Redskins football helmet which his mother surprised him with as a Christmas present.

An unprecedented collection of arrowheads is the result of many hours of tedious searching performed by Chris Frye and his father. On one expedition Chris found a Stockton Curve which is the only one of its kind in Indiana. Since he began his collection over seven years ago, he has acquired hundreds of Indian artifacts.

Autographs

Would You Sign This Please?

There are many special items which are treasured by various students at Elwood Community High School. Among them are famous autographs of loved and admired stars, ranging from great sports figures of the past to the idols which create excitement in sports today.

Mike Knotts has an autograph of Carl Erskine, a former pitcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, who is employed at Star Financial Bank in Marion, Indiana. Mike's mother had a meeting in Marion and saw Mr. Erskine. She asked him if Mike could come in to get an autograph. Mr. Erskine said that anytime would be fine and that Mike could also take a look at his office which is filled with baseballs, bats, plaques, and other baseball memorabilia. Mike went to his office and received this special autograph.

Matt Shuler has an autograph of Marquis Grissom who plays center field for the Montreal Expos. Matt has been interested in the baseball player for two years. In October of 1993 Matt decided to send a letter to Mr. Grissom to get an autograph. Matt said that Marquis Grissom's autograph is worth approximately $7.00.

Michael Mengelt has an autograph of Michael Jordan, the former basketball player for the Chicago Bulls. Michael received his autograph two years ago when he was the Bulls ball boy for the Bulls' vs. Pistons game. At that game he was given a signed poster of Michael Jordan.

Catherine Robison has an autograph of Mitch Williams. Catherine bought her autograph at the Hulman Center in Terre Haute, Indiana. Mitch Williams played for the Astros but now plays for the Philadelphia Phillies. Catherine purchased her autograph during her eighth grade year.

Helping

Hands

"Peer Helpers is a very positive group of dedicated students who provide a helpful service to both high school and elementary students," quoted Amber Loy, a peer helper.

Peer Helpers, sponsored by Mrs. Donna Lockhart and Mrs. Janet Trowbridge, increased its group to 32 members this year. All 32 continued to speak to and console other students throughout the year. Peer Helpers began the year with an extensive training session at Bradford Woods of Indiana University in late October. Twenty peer helpers began a new tradition of the group as they visited elementary classrooms and interacted with the students as role models and drug free students. Many helpers were involved in voluntary tutoring programs with students. Peer helpers assisted with Just Say No clubs after school and welcomed new students into E.C.H.S. Peer Helpers met weekly to discuss needs and goals and to continue training as to how to deal with family crisis, relaxation techniques, academic achievement, stress, and suicide. They designed programs during graduation and prom to promote an alcohol and drug-free atmosphere.

Janet Trowbridge commented, "Peer helpers are dedicated to providing a "friend" to each student of E.H.S."

Chris Swinefurth and Tony Bollinger practice helping with teenage dilemmas by participating in a role playing activity.

Jennifer Crow and Merrilee Garner practice their stress relaxation techniques during a weekly peer helper training session.

As a classroom pal for Mrs. Brenda Richwine's third grade class, Robyn McCorkle interacts with the students.

The 1993-1994 Peer Helper members display their new sweatshirts.

Students attending the Fall Fantasy Dance enjoy dancing to the songs of the 50's and 60's.

Michele Chaffin does the bus stop dance move at an after-game dance.

Dance

To The Music

There were many fun-filled dances held this year at Elwood High School. Many club and group sponsors helped to make these dances a success. The yearbook advisor, Mrs. Darren Paquin, sponsored the first dance of the year which was the Crescent yearbook dance, and it was held after the Elwood-Tipton football game. At this dance students obtained their 1992-1993 yearbooks, signed yearbooks, talked to friends, and danced to the music provided by D.J. Karl Gregg.

There were many casual dances throughout the football and basketball seasons. These dances were sponsored by the student council advisor, Mrs. Barbara Yates. The dances were after home football and basketball games.

As the year continued the semi-formal Fall Fantasy Dance was conducted by Latin club and sponsored by Mrs. Diana Garner, the Latin club sponsor. The decorations, food, beverages, and music were provided by the Latin club which contributed to a successful evening. The Valentine's Dance was the last semi-formal dance of the year. The dance was sponsored by the Spanish club and sponsor, Mrs. Jane Tracy. The Spanish club provided the karaoke, music, decorations, beverages, and snacks. The dance had a large screen for music videos. The dances this year will be a major part of the 1993-1994 memories.

Nancy Kerrigan won the silver medal for figure skating at the 1994 Olympics after recuperating from an attack on her knee. Jeff Gilloohy, Tonya Harding's former husband, pleaded guilty in the assault case.

Michael Jordan retired from the Chicago Bulls. The former Bulls superstar signed a minor-league contract with the White Sox which will enable him to begin spring training in February 1994 in Sarasota, Florida.

Michael Jackson, the pop superstar, was sued in a civil suit for allegedly sexually molesting a 14-year-old. The suit was dismissed following an out of court settlement.

Spirit Shines

All Around at E.C.H.S.

Schoolspirit is displayed in many unique ways. Both students and faculty participated in the various activities that support the athletic teams. The chance for students and faculty to show their Panther pride and be a little more wild than usual makes spirit days extremely popular with everyone. Some special days used to display school spirit include hat and shade day, button and tie day, and pajama day. Panther pride is also displayed during Homecoming week in the hall and sheet decorating contests and the annual parade. This display of spirit makes the year memorable.

Mrs. Joanna Etchison, Mrs. Melinda Parker, Ms. Julie Johnson, and Mrs. Rhonda Lurrtsema take time out from lunch on a Button and Tie Day.

Carousel of Dreams

Prom Night 1994

On April 30, 1994 at 9:00 "Carousel of Dreams" took place. Students proceeded into the front doors where they were greeted with an outside parkway which led to a beautiful gazebo. This year's array of colors were teal, black, and gold. The dance area contained a life-size carousel and a big screen which showed students dancing. Music was provided by the Heartbreakers. Lindsay Como and Jason Blackford were presented as the 1994 Prom king and queen and participated in a traditional slow dance. As the prom came to a close, couples took part in the annual garter ceremony. Prom-goers were given a souvenir glass while exiting.

Mrs. Trowbridge and Mrs. Austin were the junior class sponsors. "The effort put forth by a small group of juniors provided a beautiful evening for many couples. Those who shared in the preparations for prom night have made memories which will last a lifetime," said Mrs. Trowbridge.

The junior prom committee consisted of Perry Trowbridge, Jenni White, Tony Bollinger, Brooklyn Spangler, Michelle Croy, Courtney Rogers, Dechia Dickey, and Kristin Robinson. Others who helped decorate were Mark Sullivan, Jim Nichols, Sara Peeper, Anna Sattler, Denise Bourff, Andy Dockery, Alicia Richwine, Valerie Russell, Teresa Tate, Amber Beasley, Chris Williams, Crystal Whisler, Jessica Whisler, Brent Scott, Laura McCorkle, Tony Rebuck, Carrie Stewart, and Liz Johnson. Also there were many parents and teachers who assisted.

"This is the eighth prom I've worked with, and it was one of the most beautiful. The committee worked very hard to make this a successful prom," quoted Mrs. Austin.

The after prom was held at the Elks with the theme of "Cruise Time." The people who attended the after prom participated in the Karaoke, won door prizes, and ate pizza. The students made the annual trip to Kings Island the next morning.

Jim Rebuck put the prom theme to life with his beautifully constructed life size carousel.

Chad Hibst assists John Justus by helping him display his cord of gold.

Chasica Shepard attends her special event despite her recent injury.

Graduates

Depart With Class

One hundred forty seniors, dressed in black robes and red and royal blue stoles, received their diplomas at the 103rd commencement ceremony on Sunday, June 5, 1994, at 2:00 p.m. Twenty-five wore the gold which indicates National Honor Society induction with a 3.500+ grade point average, and twenty-seven earned the Academic Honors diploma.

Special music, "Lift Up Your Eyes" and "Closing Prayers," was provided by members of Crimson Suite, swing choir, and concert choir. Changes, preparing for the flight, and the final destination were the thoughts reflected in "Steel Door of Change" by Monica Welcher, "Flight of Life" by Marty Blake, and "Destinations" by Jessica Etchison.

Principal Gordon Paquin recognized valedictorian David Barnett and co-salutatorians John Justus and Erin Vertrees. Mr. Paquin presented the class of 1994 to Superintendent Richard Merritt and the board of trustees as having "successfully completed all of the requirements of the Indiana Department of Education and Elwood Community High School." Mr. Paquin also acknowledged the years of hard work and effort by each student receiving a diploma with "You got here the old-fashioned way-you earned it. But each of you had help along the way. Without the support of your families and encouragement and assistance of your teachers and school staff, you might not be here today."

Diplomas were presented to each graduate by Superintendent Richard Merritt as each name was announced by Principal Gordon Paquin. The tassel ceremony, led by class president Michele Tunis, followed. Multi-colored Silly String and confetti exploded in the air in celebration of their accomplishments.

College Classes for College Credit

College classes for high school and college credits are offered at E. C.H.S. The ACP calculus class is taught by Mr. Donald Garner; L-202, Ms. Joan Mercer; and W-131, Mrs. Darren Paquin.

The ACP calculus class is taught as a college level course. The content covered in this class is the same as at Indiana University. Mr. Garner said, "I enjoy the material and the increased challenges to the students." The enrollment has been in a range from 15-20 students.

Literature 202 is designed to teach students the skills necessary to read literary texts carefully and to apply interpretation skills to that reading. Students learn to analyze and to interpret. It prepares them for college with organizational skills and time management. Critical thinking is vital. Students read poetry, drama, and short and long fiction.

Writing 131 is designed to prepare the students for college level writing assignments across the curriculum using critical thinking skills and emphasizing critical marking, highlighting, and annotating articles; summarizing an author's main points; synthesizing information from several sources; and supporting a thesis in 3-5 page papers using several sources and MLA documentation. Specific papers include summary, synthesis, evaluation, support of a position, and cause and effect. "I love teaching this class because students are really challenged to think critically," commented Mrs. Darren Paquin.

Marty Blake, Stephen Richardson, and Roxann Ennis look for source material for their problem-solution research paper for first semester's W-131 class assigned by Mrs. Darren Paquin.

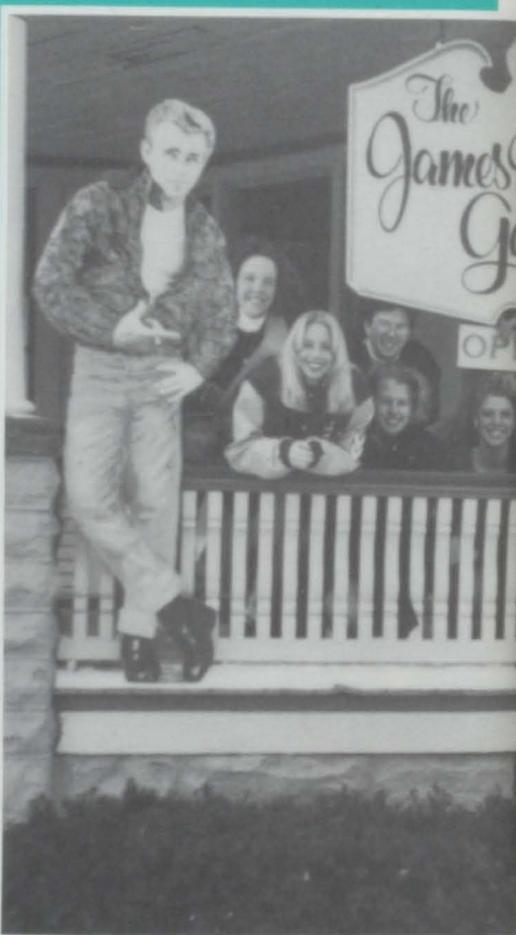

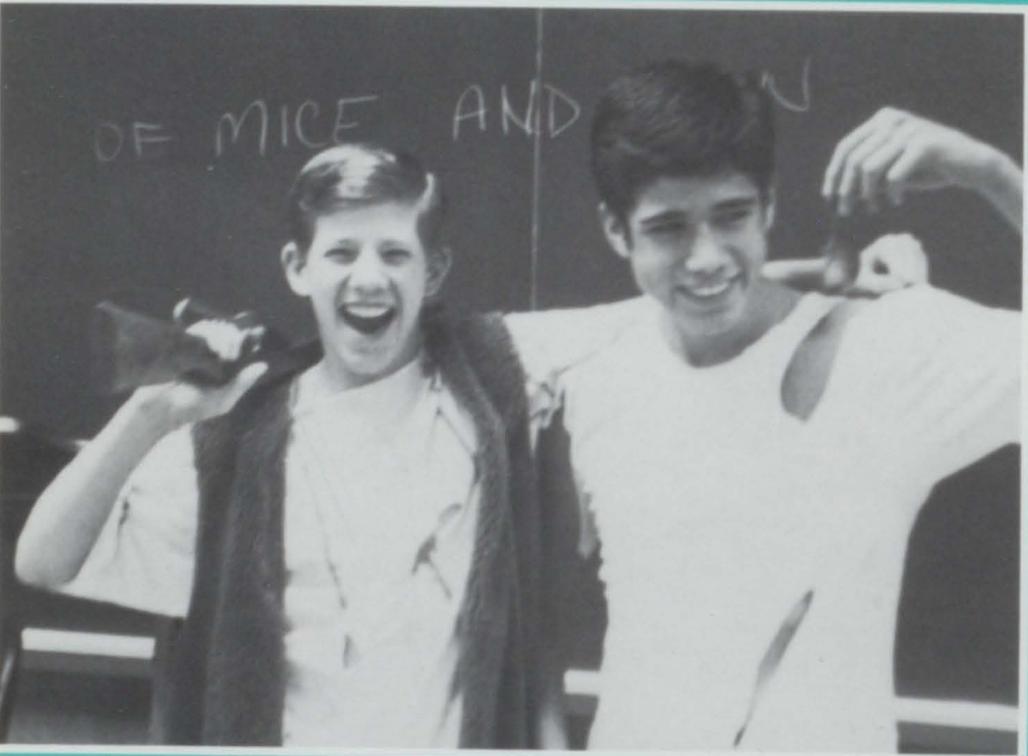

Mr. Donald Garner's M-215 second semester class takes notes for a homework assignment.

Mrs. Darren Paquin's W-131 first semester class relieves their stress after working on notecards for the trend research paper.

John Justus collects insects in the nature center for his first semester biology class taught by Mrs. Barbara Yates.

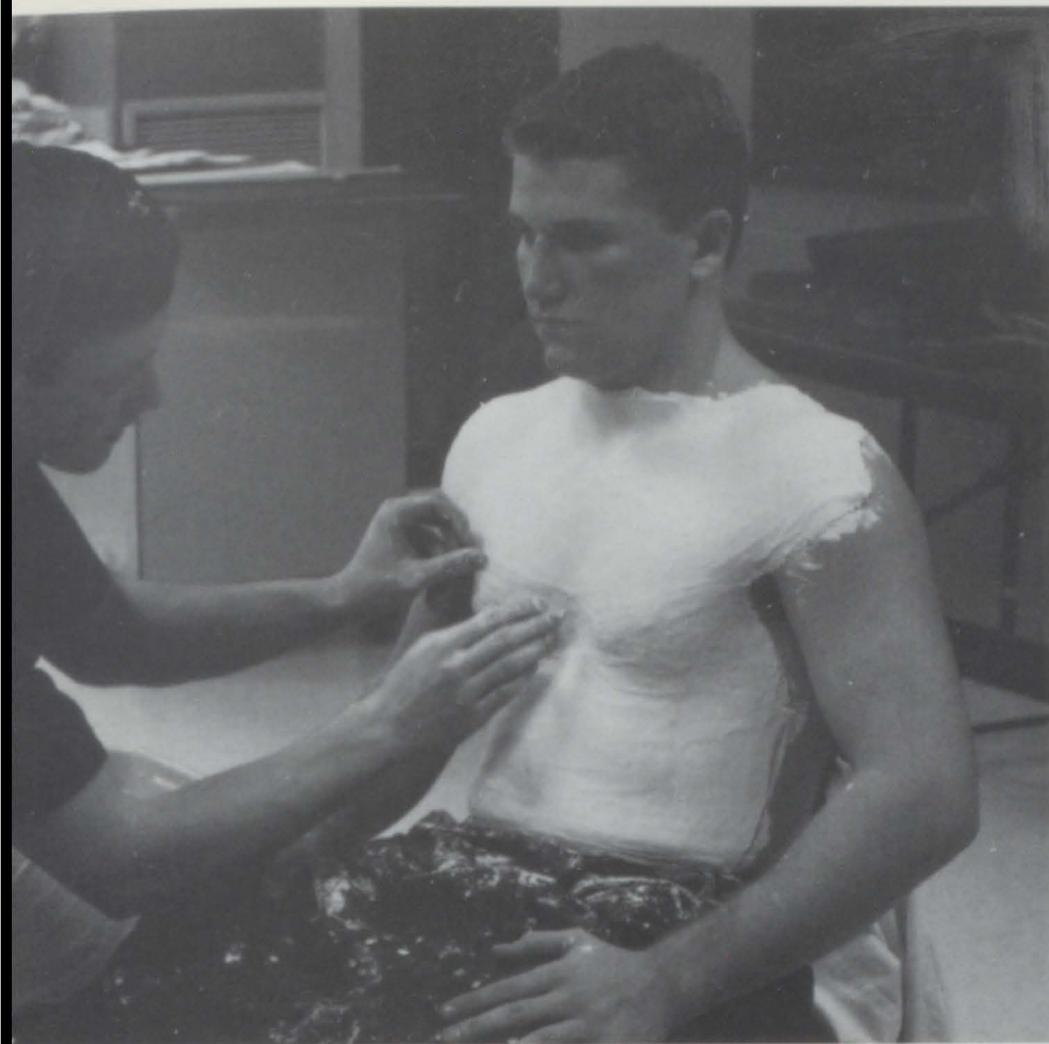

Joyce Hughes, Amber Loy's grandmother, attended Mrs. Raeanna Merritt's sociology class to speak of the consequences of aging.

For their semester exam Jeremy Yates and Justin Coston imitate Robinsone Crusoe and Friday in Miss Joan Mercer's freshman honors' English class.

Academic Projects

Andrew Yates plasters Mark Sullivan's chest after school in the art room for his Gifted and Talented art class.

During fifth hour biology class, Mr. Tony Boley attempts to feed his snake a mouse while the students watch in amazement.

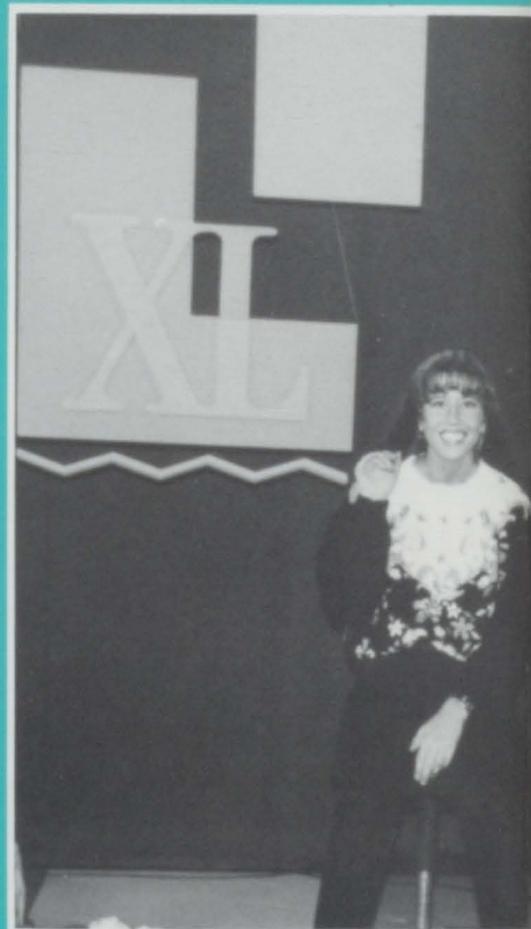

Jake Skinner, who won first place in his drawing class, puts some finishing touches on his sidewalk chalk sketch.

During Law Week Mrs. Angie O'Donnell, Trooper Keith O'Donnell, and Sgt. Mike Burns talk to the government classes about the duties of a state trooper.

Jason Blackford participates in the taping of the channel 4 production of the Project XL competition.

Cara Linsmeyer performs her speech on the American family in the IUPUI auditorium while the judges tally her score.

Robbie Leavitt, Jennifer White, Kaori Nogimura, Matt Baer, Mike Retherford, Cara Linsmeyer, Jeremy Hood, and Jason Blackford advance as top 10 state finalists.

Jennifer White prepares a Project XL commercial which was aired on Channel 4 during halftime of the Purdue vs. Indiana game.

Project XL Competition

Project XL is a competition that rewards students for their academic and creative excellence. It gives students the chance to display their talents in six categories: writing, video art, poster design, original music, fine art, and performance which includes speech, skit, dance, drama, stand-up comedy, magic, and pantomime.

For a student to advance to the state competition, one must experience a four step process. Level one is the step in which individual schools choose the entries that will represent the school at level two. The students who win at level two move on to the third level. At regionals they choose ten entries in each category for the state finals, level four.

There was a total of 2,776 entries at level one. There were sixty finalists at the state competition. Out of the sixty finalists ten percent of the entries were Elwood High School students. Elwood has had great success in Project XL by advancing at least three entries to the state finals in speech each of the last three years.

This year the six finalists were Kaori Nogimura (Fine Art), Cara Linsmeyer, Jennifer White, Robbie Leavitt (Performance), and a group consisting of Jeremy Hood, Guy Wolfe, Matt Baer, and Mike Retherford (Music). Also in music was Jason Blackford, the state champion in the music category, was awarded a one-thousand dollar scholarship for his keyboard competition, "Hold My Hand." Project XL is an opportunity for students to display their talents and receive well deserved recognition.

Kaori Nogimura was interviewed by a panel of judges while standing by Mark Patrick, the "Hoosier Lottery" and "Sport's Locker" host.

George McGinnis, spokesperson for Project XL and former Indiana Pacer player, assisted Jeremy Hood in making his Project XL commercial.

Language Activities

The Latin and Spanish clubs have had a very busy year involved in various activities. The Latin club attended the annual International Festival in the fall. A bake sale was sponsored by the Latin club for Alecia Reynolds, a senior suffering from cancer. They also sponsored the Fall Fantasy Dance on November 19. Both the Latin club and Spanish club visited the Glenbrook Mall in Fort Wayne for a day of shopping and ice skating. Rome's birthday was celebrated by the Latin students on April 21. Elwood's Mayor Denny Robinson signed a document giving special recognition to Latin week in Elwood during the week of January 23-29. Latin club members also attended the State Convention at Purdue University and the Hoosier and Indiana Certamen Invitationals at Jay County. The students also attended an Indianapolis Ice hockey game. Also, President's Day was celebrated in October as well as the Ides of March party.

The Spanish club also had a very busy year full of activities. The Spanish club members visited an Indianapolis Ice Hockey game in the fall. They also joined the Latin club when they visited the International Festival in October. They took a trip to Don Pablo's Mexican Restaurant to eat and joined the Latin club when they traveled to the Glenbrook Mall in Fort Wayne. Many Spanish club students attended a Christmas party full of food and games. The annual Valentine's Dance was held on February 19 in the cafetorium which was sponsored by the Spanish club. Last, one hundred dollars was donated to the Elwood Mercy Hospital Heliport Fund.

The year was very full for Latin and Spanish club members. Many students are given the opportunity to enjoy many activities.

Prior to the meet Perry Trowbridge concentrates on his notes pertaining to his area of competition.

Era of Man and Moon

"The Era of Man and the Moon: 1957-1972" was the topic for the academic super bowl team. The team consisted of 19 students who shared seven categories which were science, fine arts, social studies, mathematics, English, and interdisciplinary. This type of competition requires much research and intense study. The following students were involved in the following areas: Tony Bollinger, David Barnett, and Jason Blackford, fine arts; Laura Fortner, Roxann Ennis, Jennifer Faulstich, Tadd Miller, and Amber Lynn, social studies; Merrilee Garner, Roxann Ennis, Perry Trowbridge, Nekki Retherford, and Shannon Thompson, mathematics; Chris Swinefurth, Tony Bollinger, Cathy Robison,

Brandon Seastrand, and David McNeal, English; Kristin Robinson, Brooklyn Spangler, and Rachel Johnson, Interdisciplinary; David Barnett, Tony Bollinger, Chris Swinefurth, Roxann Ennis, Perry Trowbridge, Laura Fortner, and Tadd Miller. The coaches for these teams were Rhonda Smuck, Beverly Austin, Anna May McQuitty, and Rhonda Luurtsema.

Not only did the Super Bowl teams compete in the district and state meets, the members also held a Panther Den night which was in memory of the sock hops held every Wednesday night during the 50's era. The team and its coaches hoped that this sock hop would support the theme of this year's competition by experiencing an activity from a past era.

Choral Groups

Sing Out Strong

This year the high school choir decreased its size from 75 students to 55 students. "Even though the choir is smaller, the sound is much greater," said Miss Paula Simmons, choir director. The Crimson Suite consisted of 19 girls, and the newly formed swing choir consisted of 18 students. They were all selected from auditions held at the end of 1993 school year. They performed at Union Station with the choir and at Paramount "Festival of Trees" in Anderson.

The choir, Crimson Suite, and swing choir began the year with a Veterans' Day program on November eleventh. Elwood invited the Pendelton Heights Emerald Suite, Pendeltones, and director LaMont Kuskey. The middle school was also featured in this show.

The Christmas program was held on December 12. The choral members performed "One Magic Christmas," "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen," "Christmas in Your Eyes," and "Rock 'N' Roll Christmas."

Thirty-one students participated in the annual solo and ensemble contest. There were thirteen Division I ratings and four Division II ratings. Seven singers advanced to the state contest at Lawrence Central. Four out of seven received Division I ratings. Eight hundred students attended the Madison County Choral Festival which was held at Pendelton Heights this year. Sandy Patti, gospel singer from Anderson, was the performer at this event. The students practiced all day and then performed later that night for the whole community.

Guest performer, Sandi Patti, entertains both the audience and the choral singers at the Madison County Choral Festival in Pendelton.

Triumphant Times

The mighty marching Panther band and guard worked very hard to ensure a most satisfying marching season. Under the field direction of drum majors, Wendy Eaton and Patricia Nickles, the band performed Tchaikovsky's "Dance of the Comedians," "Night of the Capricorn Moon," "Someone Like You" from the musical "Jeckyl and Hyde," and a percussion break entitled "Jike" written by Jason Blackford and Mike Goins. While playing these selections, the band marched a complex curvilinear drill. On its first weekend out the band captured fifth place out of ten at Bluffton High School's "On the Banks of the Wabash" contest. After a meal at the Olive Garden, the band received sixth place out of thirteen at Plainfield. Due to heavy rain storms the band stood in the gymnasium of Ben Davis High School and performed its four selections which rewarded them second place out of three bands, two of which were previous state finalists. The Panther band advanced out of the ISSMA district competition held at Muncie Central High School, and from there the band competed at Elkhart on a very rainy day. This was the only time the band had given a performance on a parking lot. The band received a Division II at the regional competition. Overall, the band had an outstanding marching season.

Serving as officers for the 1993-1994 year were Jason Blackford, captain; Roxann Ennis and Chris Swinefurth, co-lieutenants; and Kathy Ritchie, secretary. Featured as soloists this season were Matt Baer, Erin Vertrees, Wendy Eaton, Eric Reese, and Marty Blake.

A Nose For News

The journalism staffs of the Crescent yearbook and the Megaphone newspaper were very busy this year producing treasured memories of the 1993-94 school year. Each staff successfully met their deadlines and responsibilities for both publications.

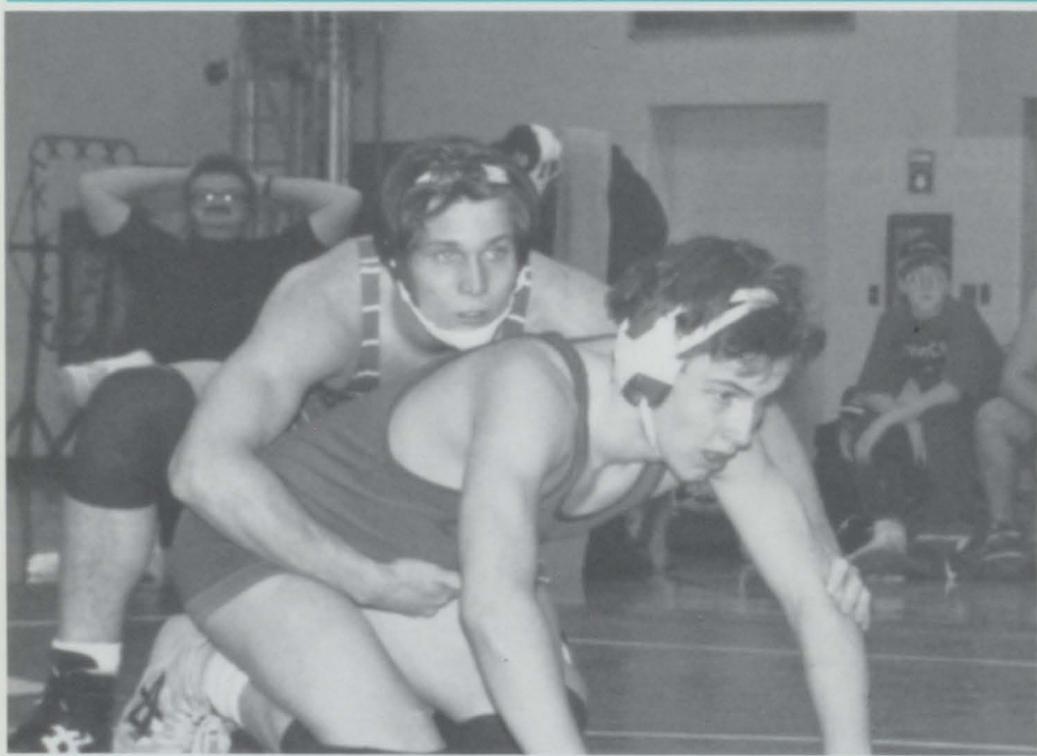

The yearbook staff, sponsored by Mrs. Darren Paquin, consisted of 18 members. The staff was guided by co-editors Robyn McCorkle and Natalie Huffman. Inputting material on the computers were Brandon Patton, computer editor, Lora Jones, and Jamie Wilson. Elizabeth Alley and Carrie Stewart designed and completed the advertising section of the yearbook. Photography editor was Julie Connors assisted by Koby Hare and Jenny Bastain.

Every year members of the yearbook staff attend camps to design and improve the skills used throughout the year. The editors and computer inputters traveled to DePauw University for yearbook camp, and the photographers attended Ball State University's photography camp.

The Megaphone Staff, sponsored by Mrs. Tracy Holaday, published eight issues. Monica Welcher held a first time position as editor of the Megaphone. News editor was Todd Adams while the feature editor position was shared by Robyn McCorkle and Justin Finton. The sports editor was Chris Frye, and the photography editor was Ty Crandall. Hard work and dedication helped to produce visual memories of the 1993-94 school year.

Friends From Afar

This year Elwood welcomed three exchange students from Germany, Denmark, and Brazil. Henner Preuschhof, Thomas Rasmussen, and Suzi Anne Da Silva experienced life in the United States.

Henner Preschhof is a 17 year-old from Germany. He felt that the school courses here are easier and more interesting. He liked having more choices when choosing subjects. Everything is less expensive here. Henner's hobbies were sports, music, and spending time with friends. His favorite American food is steak, and he dislikes spinach. He participated in tennis, j.v. wrestling, and track. Henner resided with Gary, Sue, and Mike Knotts.

Thomas Rasmussen is from Denmark. His hobbies are working with computers, playing Dungeons and Dragons, and watching television. Thomas stated that the U.S. school system includes grades K-12 while the schools in Denmark only reach the 9th grade. His favorite American food is steak, and he doesn't care for corn. He liked our television programs, but he didn't like all the commercials. Thomas is 17 years old and lived with Jerry and Theresa Niccum.

Suzi Anne Da Silva is a 16 year-old Brazilian whose American parents were Fred and Joanne Tyner. During her stay here she competed on the girls' swim team and made many new friends. Other sports that she enjoys are volleyball, basketball and soccer. Going shopping and parties are just some favorite pastimes.

Thomas relaxes at the conclusion of Mrs. Raeanna Merritt's world history class.

The 1993-94 foreign exchange students are Thomas Rasmussen, Denmark; Henner Preuschhof, Germany; and Suzi Anne Da Silva, Brazil.

Go For The Gold

The gold tassels adorned at graduation, the recognition given by faculty and friends, the satisfaction felt for a job well done...becoming a member of National Honor Society is truly a distinguished accomplishment. As a member of N.H.S. one must uphold certain criteria, among them a minimum 3.5 G.P.A., active community involvement, and a dedicated effort in extracurricular activities. Several individuals met these standards as the 1993-94 school year saw 23 senior members graduate while 20 junior prospects waited in the wings for their moment to shine.

A new twist to the annual "Tap Day" occurred this year as the electees were given a choice as to how they wished to be "tapped" on February 14th.

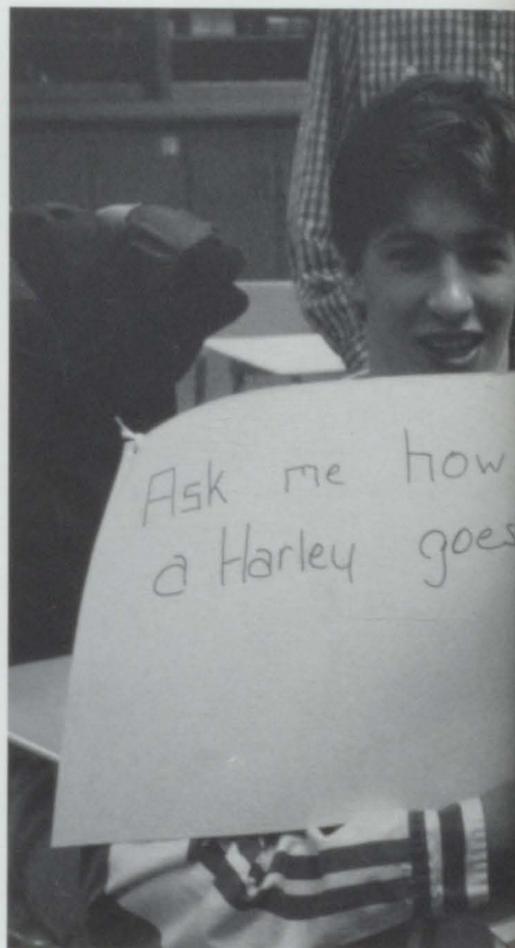

While many chose to continue the Tap Day tradition, some opted for either the formal tap or the informal tap.

The N.H.S. banquet was held March 15 and was sponsored by the local Lions Club. Mrs. Raeanna Merritt, the sponsor for 15 years, led the introductions with a speech entitled, "Things They Are A Changin,'" and officially announced that this year would be her last as the organization's sponsor. All members and their parents were recognized, and a candle ceremony was held in the auditorium following dinner. The senior members were officially inducted into the honored organization, and the president, Jessica Etchison, presented Mr. Paquin with a plaque given to N.H.S. by Riley Hospital for a donation raised by a spring bake sale.

Romance sparkles during Brooklyn Spangler and Perry Trowbridge's 3rd hour speech class as the beloved characters Carmine and Shirley exchange intimate words as part of their Tap Day duties.

A Hard Act To Follow

The Elwood Thespian Troupe #58, directed by Mrs. Sherry Drummond, produced two plays You Can't Take It With You and One Acts of Teenage Times during the 1993-94 school year.

The play You Can't Take It With You was presented to the public on November 6 & 7. It included three acts and involved 18 cast members. Other members were also involved in the music, set crew, lightening and sound crew, props manager, make-up crew, and prompters.

The play One Acts of Teenage Times was presented to the public on March 19 & 20. In this performance there were 12 different one act plays that involved many members. The student directors were Erin Vertrees, Chris Rice, Carrie Bordeau, and Cathy Robison. Many long hours were spent studying lines to produce these two plays.

The drama club attended the regional conference and the state conference where members participated in workshops and competitions. Also, members viewed and critiqued approximately 24 different types of plays. This year monthly meetings were held.

Mrs. Sherry Drummond stated, "It's extremely difficult to see the seniors leave. They were freshmen when I started teaching here, so we have shared a lot of memories. I'll never forget the eagerness of this group. Marty Blake said during his freshman year that he would play a curtain if I would just give him a part in the play."

Second Semester's Applied Economics Class- Second Period.

Applied Economics

The applied economics class is defined as a study of economics enhanced by the experience of the organization and operation of a student company; however, it is much more. Mr. Mike Bomholt's classes were involved in many activities, fund raisers, and plans to successfully run a student company. First semester's class, SHOCK Enterprises, participated in the aid of Elwood, Kansas, from the recovery of the flood and a phone-a-thon to raise money for the reconstruction of the heliport at Mercy Hospital. SHOCK Enterprises sold koozies for $3.95 each. They reached their goal by selling 350 koozies. Students were successful and contributed to important goals for the community and another community far away.

The second semester applied economics class, STAR Enterprises, was also involved in activities to meet its goals. They participated in the aid of the homeless and needy families of Elwood, and the company donated a share of its profits to senior classmate Alecia Reynolds for medical expenses. They sold flannel, plaid, boxer shorts with Panther logos for $13.00 each. The class visited Mercy Hospital to attend a presentation given by the department heads of the hospital to discuss how a hospital administration functions. The class members also held a car wash at Railroadmen's and collected a total of $257.00. The first and second semester classes participated in many activities to make both the applied economics class and its student companies a success as well as providing hands on learning.

Toby Warner and Mr. Mike Bomholt wash a car in the parking lot of Railroadmen's for the applied economics class car wash.

the local Beta Chapter, the second chapter founded in the history of Delta Theta Tau. This chapter provides funds for many worthwhile causes such as the "Dogs for the Deaf" program and grants used to pursue graduate degrees in social work and counseling.

Mrs. Austin will be elected to her position during the Delta Theta Tau national convention held in St. Louis, Missouri, in July, 1994. She will then oversee all business on a national level for the length of her term in office and will preside at the convention in Indianapolis in July, 1995.

“ I consider it a privilege and honor to serve as national president of Delta Theta Tau sorority. The five young ladies in Muncie, Indiana in 1903 had no idea their club would grow into thousands of women across the United States who would continue helping others and attain distinction with their philanthropic endeavors.
-Mrs. Beverly Austin- ”

Mrs. Beverly Austin, a member of Delta Theta Tau, will soon be elected as the national president of the philanthropic organization. Mrs. Austin has served several other national positions before becoming president as she was a member of the board of trustees for three years, national treasurer for two years, and was the 1993 national vice-president. The portrait of Wendell L. Wilkie, which has been a part of Elwood High School for more than 50 years, was recently restored by the Indianapolis Museum of Art. Heading the project was Mrs. Anna May McQuitty, who led the fund raising activities which included over $2000 in donations. The restoration consisted of the repair of cracks and discoloration of the lower section while the surface was cleaned and yellowed varnish was removed. The finished project was presented on September 25, 1993.

Professional Accomplishments

The year 1994 will mark the final year in which Mr. Earl Watson will represent John H. Hinds Area Vocational School as its director. After 35 years in education Mr. Watson has chosen to retire as an employee of the Elwood Community School Corporation. His retirement comes after a career full of prosperous ventures, and the many services that he has given to the school during his 31 years here are apparent to all. After beginning his teaching career at Jackson Central High School in 1959, he later moved to Elwood and accepted a position as an industrial arts teacher in 1963. Thereafter he was given the opportunity to initiate a building trades program which he successfully accomplished in the fall of 1965.

In 1972 Watson returned to college to receive his counselor's license and was employed as a counselor at the vocational school. He then received his administrative license and became the assistant director of the vocational school. In 1982, following Mr. Delbert Lewis' departure as the director of the vocational school, Watson was hired for the position which he has held for the past 12 years.

Mr. Watson has a long list of activities in which to occupy his time after retirement. "I'll have plenty to keep me busy. I plan to first build a home for Gretchen and me and then help my daughter and son-in-law build their home. I also plan to get involved in the Habitat for Humanity project. I love construction. If I have time, I may do a little woodworking, too, but I've never had any trouble keeping busy."

Mr. Watson has contributed a great deal to both the vocational school and to the entire community throughout his career. Many of his successes, such as the building trades program, are still in existence today and give students the opportunity to receive hands-on experience while performing occupational tasks. His dedication to educating Elwood's youth has been tremendous, making his shoes a difficult pair to fill for future leaders. Thank you, Mr. Watson, for your ever-lasting contributions and your many efforts toward improving vocational education in Elwood.

"Elwood has been great to me and my family. I have no regrets in staying in the Elwood Community School Corporation for 21 years. My major concern is the rapid decline in the social structure of our nation with the decline of the family and the lack of positive parenting skills in many young parents."

-Earl Watson-

Mr. Earl Watson, director of John H. Hinds Area Vocational School, retires in 1994 after over 31 years in education.

Performing his daily duties, Mr. Watson phones substitutes needed for vocational classes.

We Walked On The WILD Side When...

- Amber Loy tripped while running through the team hoop before a home basketball game.
- During an out-of-town girls basketball game, Abby Vehikite forgot her shoes and had to sit the bench during the entire game.
- Stephanie Bailey wore the wrong cheerleading uniform to a game, and the bus driver drove her to her house to change.
- The football team bus broke down while driving to the Wabash game.
- Karl Boyer hit a homerun during the Elwood-Madison Heights baseball game which hit and shattered the windshield of Lindsey Como's car.

"It was a good swimming season overall. We started out with about 14 girls and ended up with about eight plus we had quite a few injuries. You can't look at the win-loss record and determine how good our team was. There were four school records broken and tremendous improvement. That's all you can ask for!"

Coach Tony Boley has been the head coach at Elwood during the past two seasons where he has already led the Panthers to a conference title. # Young Surprise

Plays With Heart and Emotion

It was a season of countless positives for the Elwood junior varsity football team. The young Panther squad, which consisted mostly of freshmen and sophomores, began the season with a very limited number of players. This lack of players was added to with the promotion of many starters to the varsity level and a variety of injuries to key players. Despite the loss of many quality starters, the young squad continually won games against opponents who not only outnumbered them, but who were considerably larger than the Panthers. Sophomore quarterback and defensive back Monte McCorkle showed tremendous heart and leadership throughout the season and led the Panther offense in passing. Leading the running game was freshman Bryan Watters, who consistently improved and developed into a very talented ballcarrier. The defense of the Panthers was anchored by linemen Michael Dutton and Justin Coston. The young team not only lived up to the expectations of the fans and coaches but far surpassed them. Their 4-4 record wasn't indicative of the achievements of the Panthers who won their final game against Blackford despite dressing only 12 players. This success was only a preview of their future success.

Rough Road

Panthers Suffer Rocky Season

The Elwood Panthers suffered many ups and downs throughout the 1993 season. The season began with the Panthers losing four straight, including two games to ranked opponents in Franklin County and Tipton. The fifth game of the season ended the disappointment for the Panthers as they overcame the pressure of a 19-year Homecoming win streak and defeated Blackford County. The Panthers kept their winning ways going the following week and beat an excellent Madison-Grant squad. The momentum of the Panthers came to a screeching halt as the next four games, including a one-point heartbreaker to Yorktown in the sectional, all ended in a loss.

The Panther defense was led by outside linebackers Mark Sullivan (39 tackles) and Jack Reese (54 tackles), linemen A.J. Nash and Bryan Boston, and anchored in the defensive backfield by strong safety Matt Lane (54 tackles). The young offensive line was led by seniors Steve Callaway and Greg Dutton. Quarterback Jim Nichols completed 35 of 98 passes for 456 yards and 5 touchdowns. Nichols had an outstanding backfield behind him in fullback Jeremy Meador, who carried the ball 28 times for 130 yards and C.I.C. standout Jack Reese (155 carries for 1002 yards) at tailback.

Spotting a receiver downfield, quarterback Jim Nichols fires a pass over a Peru defender.

Young Team Listens and Learns

"We were a young team, always learning, and still had time to improve." quoted Eric Ball. The Elwood Panther tennis team finished its hard fought season with a record of 7 wins and 8 losses. "The team's success was due to the players' dedication of time during the summer and the willingness of the players to listen to the coaches. Rich Welcher gave much of his time to help coach the team, and his time was invaluable." stated Coach Leavitt.

The goal of the team was to win at least half of its meets and place in the upper half in the conference tournament. They achieved this goal by winning 7 of 14 meets and placing second in the conference.

Robbie Leavitt was the most valuable player for the second year with 40 varsity wins in three years. Paul Richardson had a record of 8 wins and 0 losses on the junior varsity team, and 2 wins and 3 losses on the varsity team. Paul Richardson, Mike Cogill, and Brent Robison all received varsity letters as freshmen. The varsity level consisted of Danny DeBethune, Eric Ball, Andy Yates, and Jason Keene. Coach Leavitt concluded, "It was a pleasure coaching this group. They were willing to listen and learn." That attitude was a major reason for an outstanding season.

Firing a powerful serve, Robbie Leavitt aces another opponent.

Running

Proud

The girls' cross country team had a total of six runners this year. Four of them returned from last year, and two are newcomers. The number one runner was Adrienne Gough with a time of 16:22. Other team members' time were Jenny Cain, 20:10, and Heather Chandler, 18:10.

"Our major goal was to improve ties with each meet and complete each meet. Our goal was met after placing 5th in the sectional and being the first cross country team to do so," said Coach Brian Kirkwood. "Jenny Cain supplied the positive influence needed, and Adrienne Gough provided the leadership."

The girls completed the season with a seven - four record. The team finished fourth out of seven teams competing in the CIC meet.

In the sectional meet the girls placed 5th out of twelve teams and advanced to the regionals where they placed 8th out of nine teams. Adrienne Gough placed 20th in the regional after placing 10th in the sectional meet. Sara McFall placed 35th in the sectional. Although the girls' cross country team was a team without seniors, they ended with a lot of pride. Coach Kirkwood said, "Leadership, hard work, dedication, and ability as well as teamwork was responsible for this year's success."

Jenny Cain, Shawna Duffitt, Heather Chandler, and Carrie Dockery pace themselves at a home meet against Madison Grant and Frankton.

Running...

to the Finish!

The boys' cross country team had a total of seven runners this year; five of the seven returned from last year. With no seniors on the team the boys had a young program.

The number one runner was Jerrico Planalp with a time of 17:49. Other best times were Andy Dockery, 18:41; Andy Jones, 18:24; Todd Jones, 20:59; Matt McGuire, 19:17; Billy Phillips, 24: 0; and Clint Trice, 20: 12.

"The guys just have to understand that in order to have success, one has to pay a price," said Coach Brian Kirkwood. "You must have leadership, hard work, dedication, ability as well as teamwork to have a successful season."

The boys' cross country team completed a season record of one win and ten losses. The team placed sixth out of seven teams in the CIC meet. In the sectional they placed ten out of twelve teams. In individual standings Jerrico Planalp placed 22nd; Andy Dockery, 42nd; and Matt McGuire 52nd. Finishing the season with a record of one win and ten losses is not a winning season, but the boys' team was taught to never give up. Even though the boys were short in the win column, they experienced many individual accomplishments which taught them that dedication brings rewards.

Off the Blocks

and Into the Pool

The girls' swim team had to go through some rough waters this year, ending the year with 4 wins and 10 losses.

"It's always hard to take over a swim team that has started the season with a different coach. I had a great time getting to know the girls and accomplishing all the hard work that comes with the sport," commented Elwood's new swim coach Michelle Barnett. Her main goal for the season was to win more meets than last year and to set some new records, and the swimmers did just that!

There were no seniors on the team this year; therefore, junior Jenni White stepped in as the captain and set an excellent example with her attitude and accomplishments. The team was hurt by a lack of swimmers. There was only one diver this year, Carolyn Myers. "Being a first year diver and not having a diving coach, she had to accomplish a lot on her own," said Coach Barnett.

Injuries were also a problem this season. There were ankle and shoulder injuries, two broken fingers, and other illnesses that slowed down the team's accomplishments. The girls had to step in and swim in events that they had never swum before in order to fill in the gaps which, according to Coach Barnett, "was the strength of the team."

Record Breaking Season

The girls' basketball team had a record breaking season with 9 wins and 7 losses. The Lady Panthers improved, and it was evident in their stats. They had the most total points scored in a season and the highest percentage of field goals made. Amber Loy helped with 43.6 percent. The Lady Panthers beat the last free throw percentage by 4.8 percent with the help of Alicia Richwine who had 72.2 percent. Tammy Himmelrick had the most assists and steals for the Panther team. The Lady Panthers out did their opponents with the most rebounds and least turnovers.

This year's seniors were known as the "Fab Five" consisting of Lindsay Como, Jaimie Burris, Tammy Himmelrick, Amber Loy, and Jessica Etchison. "They are a great bunch of seniors. They had the attitude, desire, and maturity to have a great season," stated Mr. Huffman.

The junior varsity followed the varsity with a winning record of 11-7. This was the first year Mr. Bomholt has coached the girls' basketball team.

"We had to work twice as hard to compete," said Mr. Huffman. "The teams that beat us had AAU programs for the younger kids." This year Mr. Huffman is starting his own AAU program in Elwood.

Explosive Panthers Have Winning Year

The 1993-94 campaign began on a positive note as the Panthers, who posted a disappointing 3-18 mark just a year before, won two of their first three. But despite the early momentum the Panthers soon ran into some adversity. A four-game losing streak carried the disappointed Panthers into Christmas break with a 2-5 record. Things turned around beginning with an upset victory over county powerhouse Madison Heights. The Madison Heights victory ignited the Panthers as they took five of their next seven. Even a close loss to arch-rival Tipton wasn't enough to hold back the Panthers who won five straight going into the sectional. A victory over Madison Grant enabled the Panthers to take control of the C.I.C. horse-shoe. In the sectional the Panthers lost a close battle to Frankton on a last-second tip-in. The 12-8 Panthers were an extremely balanced squad. Junior center Chris Williams was a force in the middle, averaging 17.2 points and 6.0 rebounds per game while being named to the All-C.I.C. team. Guard Thad Perkins averaged 15.9 points and 4.7 rebounds per contest. Forward Dave Acres tallied 12.5 points a game and hit 42 three-point field goals. Free throw shooting was also a strength as senior Eric Baker and freshman Michael Cogill shot 72% and 68%, respectively.

Show Steady Improvement

A season of streaks is probably the way most fans would describe the 1993-94 campaign for the Elwood junior varsity basketball squad. After enduring a 1-19 season a year before, the Panthers looked very promising, returning every regular from last year's team. Despite the early season optimism, the Panthers got out of the gate slowly, losing their first two and then bounced back to drub an outmanned Lapel club by 43 points. Disappointment struck the Panthers after the Lapel game in the form of a five-game losing streak, including one point losses to both Frankton and Sheridan. A victory at Yorktown temporarily stopped the Panthers' slide, but they soon ran into another losing streak of four games. At the end of the season the Panthers picked up four straight victories and won five of their last seven. Center Tadd Miller and forward Perry Trowbridge both showed tremendous leadership and keyed the late season resurgence of the young squad. Miller led the team in both points and rebounds per game. Trowbridge and Tarrik Wilson contributed rebounding help and inside scoring. Sophomore guards Eric Ball and Shawn Lineberry did an outstanding job handling the ball for the Panthers and applied defensive pressure on the opposition.

Grapplers Pin To Win

Many goals were set and accomplished by the Elwood Panther grapplers. The Panthers ended with a record of 21-1-1 which is the best record in the school's history. They were the Madison County champions for the third time, the Elwood Triple Dual champions, Madison Grant Triple Dual champions, and Adams Central Dual champions for the first time. The Panthers won the C.I.C. for the sixth straight year which ties the record for the conference championship.

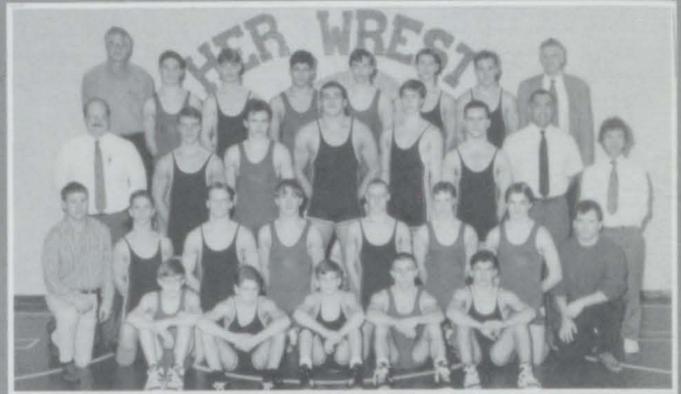

"We are very proud of these young men as they represented our school and community with class and sportsmanship," commented Coach Tony Boley.

Great accomplishments by the seniors were John Justus, 1st team Academic All State; John and Jack Reese, "Triple Crown" by winning individual championships in the Madison County, C.I.C., and the sectional tournaments. John and Jack along with Andy Miller advanced to the State Meet for the second year in a row. Jack's record was 32-5 and John's 25-6. Andy Foor and Andy Miller also won individual conference championships. Foor's record was 18-8, and Andy's was 30-7. Contributing to the success of the team was junior Robbie Leavitt who advanced to the semi-state and placed 2nd. He then placed 4th in the state finals.

Quality Athletes Not Quantity

The boys' swim team had a disappointing 1993-94 swim season, losing all but one meet when Elwood beat Westfield-Washington, 78-59. Elwood's new coach, Michelle Barnett, said that the 1-13 record was because of the lack of swimmers and divers (a total of eight members). The swimmers had to swim back to back events which often physically drained them.

There were two seniors on the team this year, David Barnett and Nick Smith. David was chosen Academic All American, and Nick's humor contributed to the unity of the team.

"The strength of the team was that they didn't let themselves get down. Instead of group scores the swimmers' individual success counted more. Another strength of the team was the ability to compete in diving, yet having only one diver hurt in scoring. Eric Reese worked hard and showed much improvement," said Coach Barnett. David Barnett had his own success story. He broke his record in the 500 yard free-style at the sectional by knocking off nine seconds. Coach Barnett said, "By looking at overall records for the season, the statistics may not look successful, but individually, each person improved greatly."

Expectations

High For Panthers

Preseason expectations by both coaches and fans were extremely high for the 1994 edition of the Elwood baseball team. Five returning regulars from last year's successful squad provided the nucleus for the promising Panthers. The season began just as expected as the Panthers dominated opponents with a line-up full of great hitting and won six of their first seven contests. Over that stretch of games the Panther offense battered opposing pitching for a total of 88 runs. The team's hot bats finally cooled off, however, and offensive inconsistency and a lack of solid pitching caused the Panthers to drop five of their next six. The squad managed to put the pieces back together and win their next four, but inconsistency struck again as they ran into three losses to wrap up the regular season with a record of 11-9. The potent offense of the Panthers was led at the plate by shortstop Andy Yates, first baseman Adrian Heim, and catcher Karl Boyer. Jack Reese led the Panthers in E.R.A. and was joined by Heim and Scott Trueblood in the Elwood pitching rotation. Second baseman Matt Lane and Yates anchored an outstanding infield, and Steve Leisure and Brent Scott joined Reese to make up a solid outfield. It was this abundance of talent that led to the Panthers' success.

Swing

Batter, Batter, Swing!

The 1994 girls' softball team ended its season with a 6-9 record. This year's team was very young and inexperienced and consisted of only one senior, Jaimie Burris. The team showed a lot of heart when Burris was forced to sit out half of the season because of an injury. By the end of the season the girls had learned a lot about working through the inexperience. "We continued to improve toward the end of the season rather than dropping our level of play," stated Coach Kronk. The team members showed heart and determination this year when they were down 9-2 in the fourth inning against Peru and came back to win the game 17-16 in extra innings.

Junior Alicia Richwine stepped in this year as team leader and strengthened the infield play. Kelly Everling, the freshman pitcher, is expected to lead the team to higher levels in the next few years. Cassie Blockson stepped in to fill the short-stop position for Jaimie Burris.

There were four awards presented. Jennifer Smith received the Most Runs Batted In award with 14, and Kristen Cooper earned the award for Most Improved Player. Cassie Blockson was awarded the Best Batting Average award with .410 and also shared the Most Valuable Player award with Jaimie Burris.

Ladies, Smash It

The 1994 girls' tennis team ended its season with a record of 5-5. They placed second in the C.I.C which was held at Peru. "This is a very special group that exceeded expectations," commented Coach Max Hoppel.

The girls were very inexperienced at the varsity level at the beginning of the season. With the steadiness of the doubles teams and the improvements from Traci Baxter and Jessica Armstrong, the varsity was able to compete. "Our number one goal is always to improve as the year progresses and enjoy the game of tennis," stated Coach Max Hoppel.

Natalie Huffman and Tammy Himmelrick were number one doubles partners until Tammy Himmelrick sustained an injury. Huffman teamed up with Jessica Etchison and won the C.I.C and then proceeded to the third round in the sectional. "Being conference champs was a great feeling since we were not suppose to win according to a rival team, and winning with my best bud our senior year made it twice as special!" stated Jessica Etchison.

Underclassman Traci Baxter played #1 singles while Brooklyn Spangler and Kristen Robinson held the #2 and #3 positions. The #2 doubles position was played by Jessica Armstrong and Holly Huffman.

And Drive For The Win

The Elwood golf team consisted of six members who were Jeff Brunner, Todd Overdorf, Robbie Leavitt, Todd Jones, Dusty Teachnor, and Tim Brunner. Todd Overdorf was the only senior team member. He was the number two player and had the second best stroke average, 41.2.

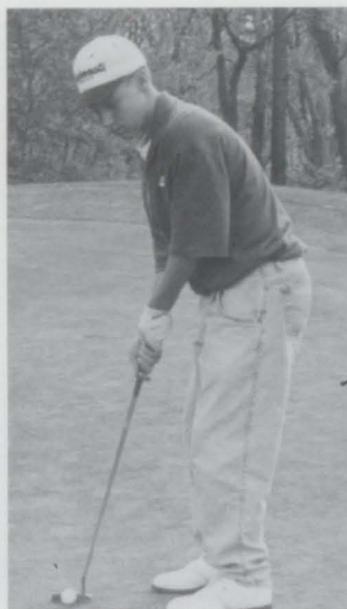

"We were up and down all season as a team, but in the end I thought it was a great learning experience for us all," said Overdorf.

As a young team they suffered from the inexperience of the younger players. The team ended its season with a 16-19 record. The most outstanding event as a team was shooting a 153 in nine holes against Hamilton Heights.

Todd Jones' comments about the 1994 golf season. "Our season was one big roller coaster ride with the highlight of shooting our best score of all time (153 in nine holes)." Coach Tod Windlan replied about the future by saying, "We have five out of six players coming back next year."

Jeff Brunner, a sophomore, was a big strength for the team. As number one man, Jeff made All-Conference for the second year in a row. According to Jeff, "Even though I used Robbie Leavitt's clubs and Todd Jones' shoes, I played better than I thought I would."

Take Your Mark

The 1994 girls' track team season was successful. The girls began their season by participating in the Tipton Invitational where they returned with a first place trophy after competing against six other teams. As the season continued, the team improved its scores and personal times and gained respect. They competed in the Oak Hill relays and placed 2nd. Amber Loy beat her school record in the discus for the third time with a throw of 120'9". She also was the C.I.C. champion for the fourth year in a row. Abby Vehikite shattered the school record in the shotput with a throw of 35'8". Amber Beasley broke her own school record in the 300 meter low hurdles with a time of 49.7. Adrienne Gough also broke the school record in the 1600 meter run in a time of 5:37.8. The team placed third in the C.I.C, missing first place by only five points. Darcie Courtney was the C.I.C. champion in the 400 meter dash. The team placed fourth out of twelve teams in the sectional competition. Ten members of the team qualified for the regional competition. These members were Amber Beasley, Courtney Casteel, Darcie Courtney, Shawna Duffitt, Adrienne Gough, Jennifer Leisure, Amber Loy, and Abby Vehikite. The girls gained the respect they deserved.

Amber Beasley steps over a hurdle as she sprints in the 100 meter low hurdles against Madison Grant and Oak Hill.

Gentlemen, Start Your Engines

The 1994 boys' track team ended its season with a record of 1 - 7; however, they had many positive outcomes during the season. Greg Dutton won the sectional in the shotput. This is the first time in twenty years for a sectional shotput win. Thad Perkins was M.V.P. this year. He led the Panthers in the 400 meter dash, the 1600 meter relay, and the 200 meter dash. The team improved its times throughout the season. Their best performances were in the conference and in the sectional.

"We need to improve the number of participants for next year's track squad. To compete, we must have 30 to 35 members," commented

Coach Kevin Frye. The team had only 25 athletes participating this season. "David Rose had a great attitude and was the hardest worker on the team," said Coach Frye.

Rob Frazee, Jeremy Morrisett, Chad Hibst, Greg Dutton, David Rose, and Thad Perkins were the seniors this year and will be greatly missed. The team has many good athletes returning. Many of them had personal records this season.

Coach Kevin Frye said, "This team was very hard working and fun but never really reached its potential." This track team will continue working hard to succeed.

CHEERLEADERS STRIVE FOR PRIDE

The 1993-94 cheerleading season was a busy one. The girls began their season with cheerleading camp at Purdue University in June. They entered many competitions including Madison County and Clinton County.

The junior varsity squad participated at the State Fair and received the spirit award, attended Nashville, Tennessee, during Christmas vacation and participated in the ICF nationals. The girls who were involved in the national competition were Devin Fuller, Adrienne Gough, Amy Beeman, Holly Sullivan, Heidi Humphrey, Darcie Courtney, Donita Downey, Mindy Mottweiler, Amber Boston, and Jennifer Leisure. Their routine consisted of cheers, tumblers, mounts, and a dance routine combined into one.

Courtney Casteel and Natalie Huffman were chosen UCA All-Stars. They traveled to London, England, during Christmas vacation to participate in the Lord of Westminster's New Year's Day parade. The try-out for London consisted of a dance and a cheer learned during camp. They were chosen by the UCA staff. At the end of the week they performed a dance routine in London. There were 1500 girls from all over the United States attending.

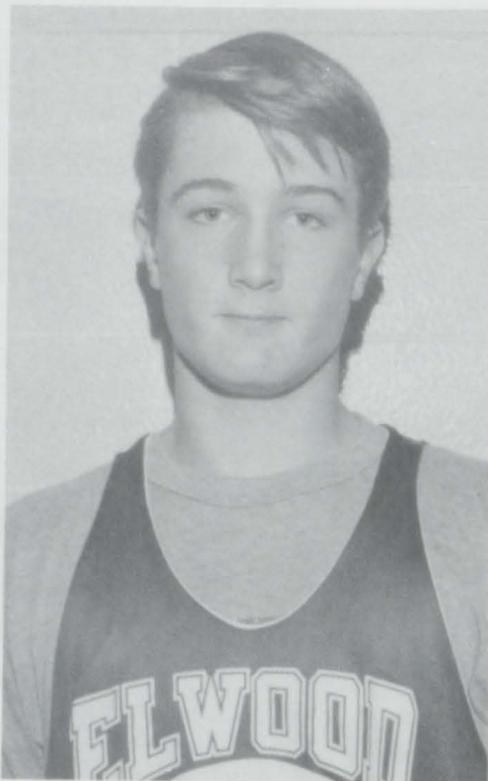

The junior varsity members and Mrs. Kay Marcuson watch the finals of the ICF national competition.

Remembering Alecia

Alecia was one of my closest and dearest friends. I have so many memories of the times we shared while growing up together. I remember confusing our teachers in grade school, setting off firecrackers in mailboxes in Alabama, and all of the other crazy things that we did. Alecia was a special and unique person and one of the few who really understood me. She was always there to listen when I needed a friend; she was like a sister to me. In her short time with us, Alecia touched the lives of so many people with her courage and strength and will be missed by everyone. I only wish I could have had more time to be with her and to grow into adulthood together. My memories of her are the most priceless things that I have. Alecia was and forever will be my best friend.

Erin Vertrees

The class of 1994 has learned that death does not spare the young, that flowers can be for birthdays, proms, and for funerals, and that suffering a great loss is just a reality of life.

Alecia Reynolds was my best friend. She was also a friend to many and a hero to others. Alecia had deep within her soul a tremendous inspiration that touched our lives in one way or another. Her battle with cancer was a long, hard fought battle, but she never gave up the possibility that one day she would return to her normal, teenage life. This battle raged on for two years, but in that time she took a deep spiritual grasp and believed that soon this would all be over. Alecia gave us the inspiration to never give up, no matter what the circumstances, to fight, even though the battle we fight may be a losing one. The senior class of 1994 will not be the same without Alecia. Her presence and memories will live on in the hearts of many as she will be sadly missed forever. Rest in peace, Alecia.

Your forever friend, Juan Garcia
