Changing Directions

Who's new this year? What's new? I'm confused!

You need not be worried. We'll help you maneuver through these changes.

Yes, we do have a new Superintendent, Mr. Trout. He has hit the pavement running. Not one to sit back and observe, he's on the fast track to bringing more improvements to M-G.

Yes, we do have new teachers and a new counselor, Mr. Ratliff, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Fugett, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Mealy. Each races to keep up with us students as we challenge their methods and presentations. Yes, we do have new coaches, who race from classroom to the field.

Yes, we do have new technology:

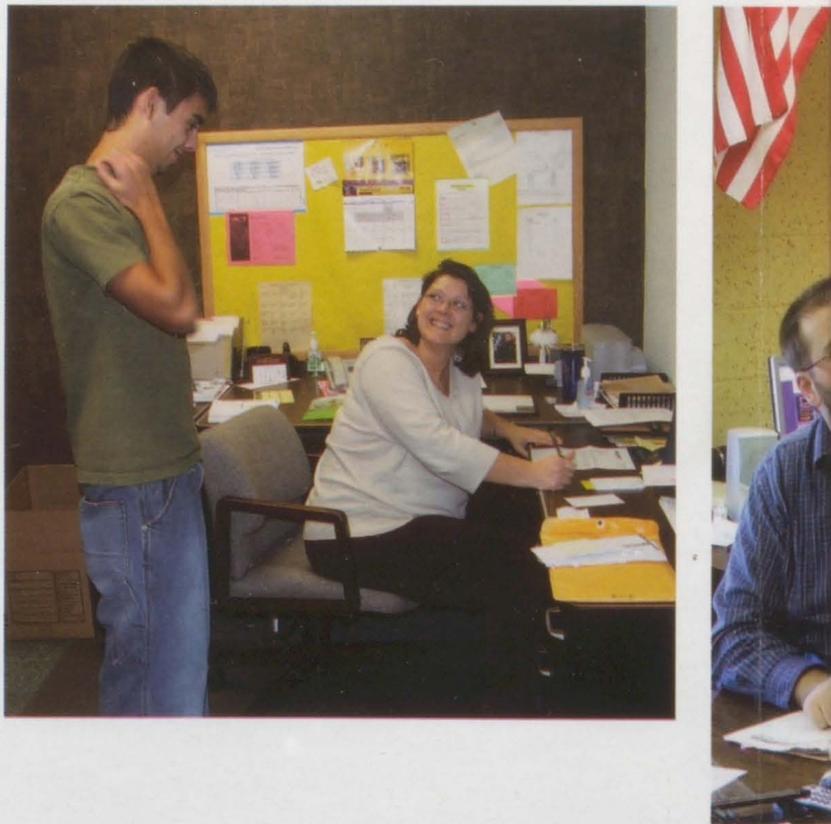

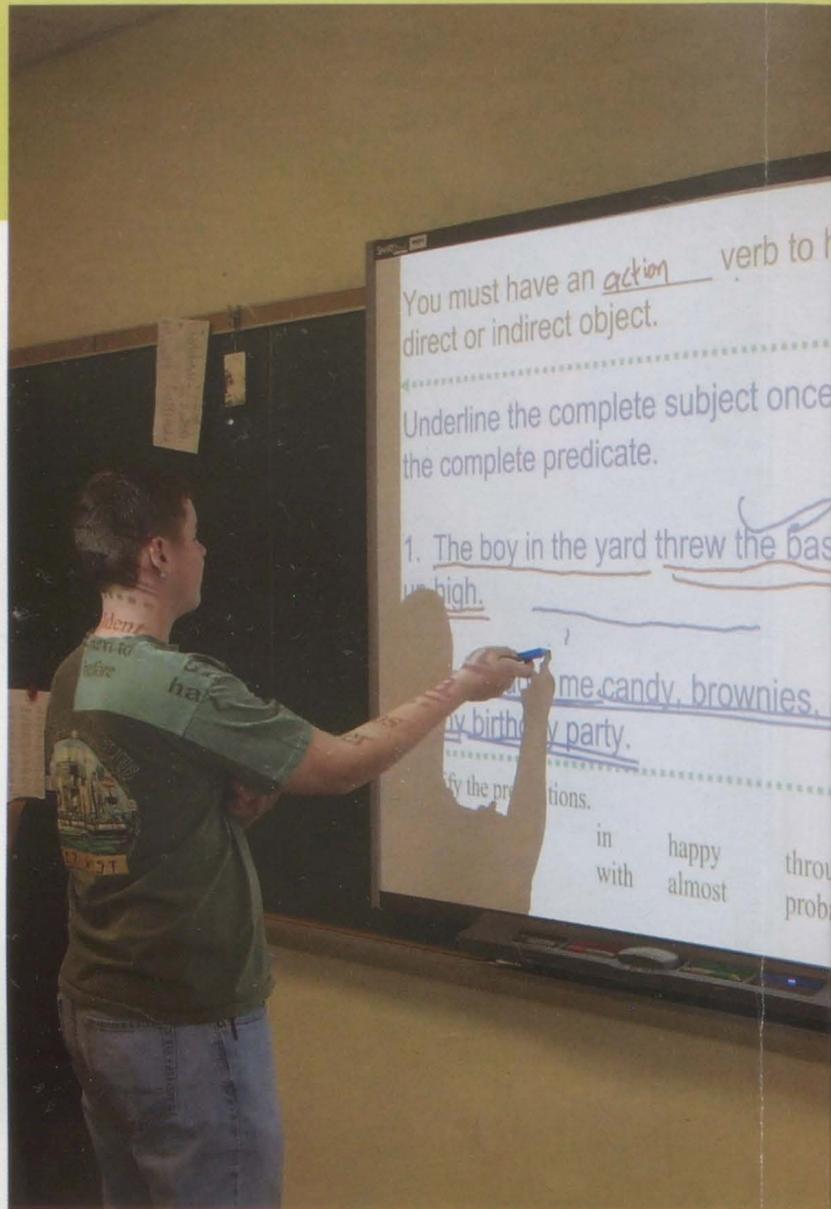

Smart Boards trying to outsmart both teachers and students, and more classroom computer labs to aid in essay writing and research. Joy!

Yes, we even have a college credit English class here in the high school with more college credit classes to follow.

We're on the move, yet we have discovered that "The More Things Change, The More They Stay the Same."

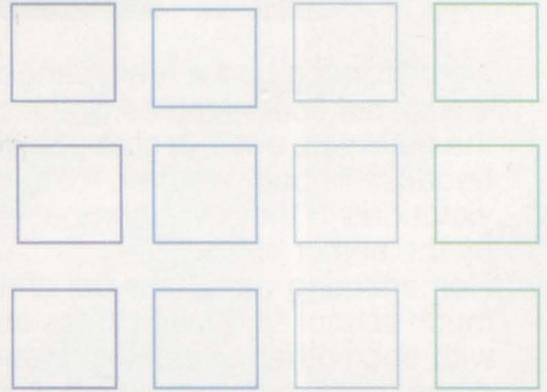

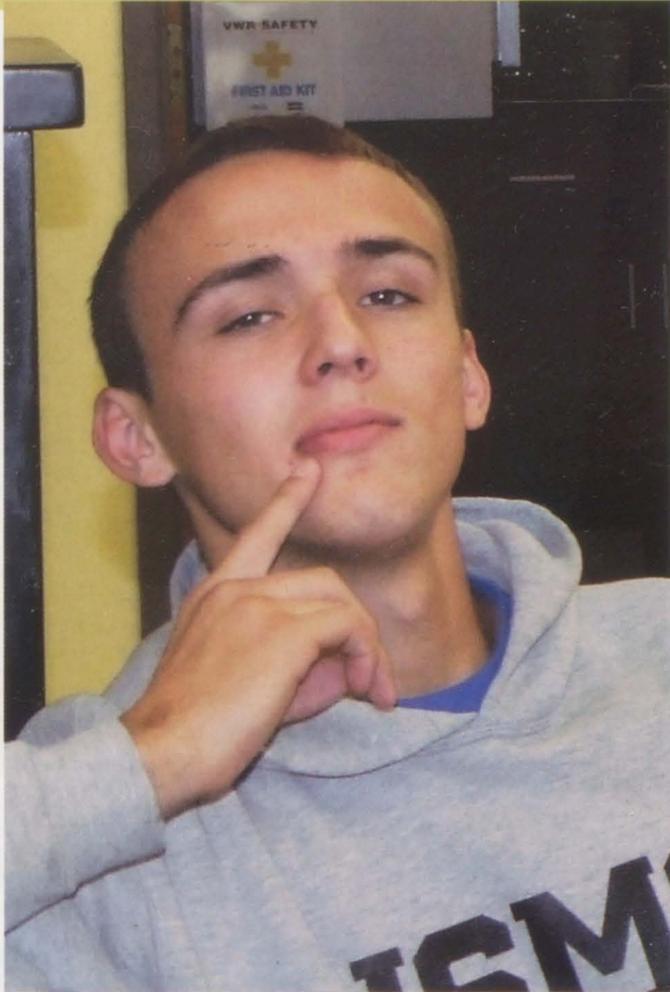

Senior Drew Richards discusses his future plans with the new Junior/Senior Counselor, Mrs. Mealy.

Freshman Seth Wallace shows everyone how to use the Smart Board in Mrs. Brown's freshman English class.

Senior Grant Idlewine contemplates his next excuse for getting out of his assistant period with Mrs. Stitt.

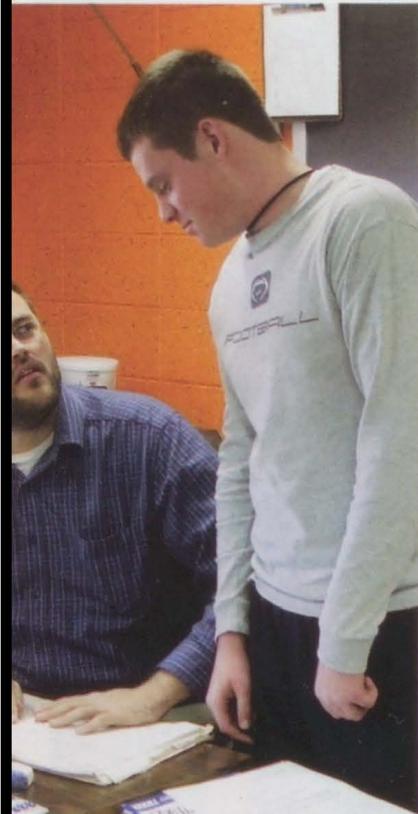

New teacher, Mr. Thomas shows off his neat handwriting in his Trigonometry class.

Junior Brandon Eden shows off the latest dance move from the new Justin Timberlake video in his seventh period class.

Senior Aaron Jarvis is assisted by the new social studies teacher, Mr. Fugett, on a crucial homework assignment.

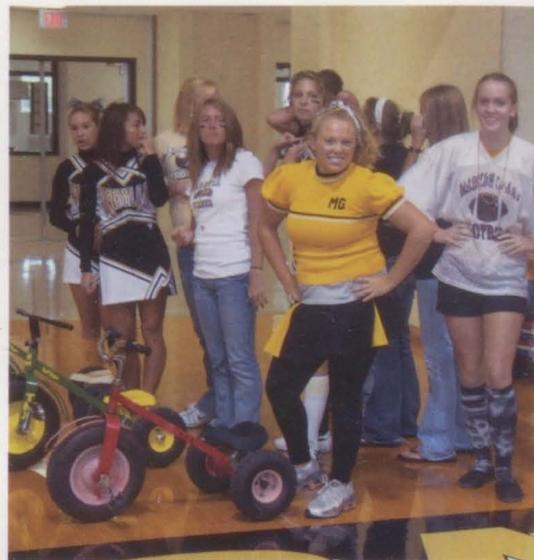

HOMECOMING

Homecoming had a few changes this year. Students decorated floats instead of the traditional decorating of the hallways, and the girls powderpuff game was cancelled because of bad weather. Also, the sophomores were victorious in the class competition that is traditionally won by the senior class.

Homecoming week was full of activities showing off how much school spirit each class obtained. Classes competed with each other all week in a series of events such as dress up days, boys volleyball, float decorating, and a bon fire. These events all led up to the pep session at the end of school on Friday.

Although the football game ended with an Elwood victory and with some students complaining all week about decorating floats, homecoming week turned out to be a success.

Senior Cassi Dodson, junior Alyssa Relfe, and sophomores Bree Stitt and Audrey Niverson line up to start the tricycle race during the pep session.

Freshmen boys Jackson Branson, Josh Mahoney, Wesley Gunning, Dylan Helping, and Jake Gossett sit together in the hallway before school.

Junior girls Betsy Floyd, Alyssa Relfe, Keely McKee, Jennifer Massie, and Kerri Pulley dress as Jane on Disney day during homecoming week.

Seniors Zach Ponder and Matt Jeffries paint their chests to support the boys football team as they play at home against Elwood.

Freshman Genna Carey dresses like a princess on Disney day during homecoming week.

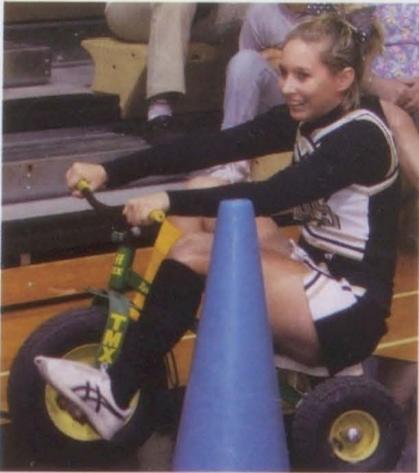

What is your favorite part of homecoming and why?

"I love getting dressed up and having fun with it!"

Senior class candidates: Austin Lee and Cassi Dodson

Senior class candidates: Georgia Smithee and Brock Sizelove

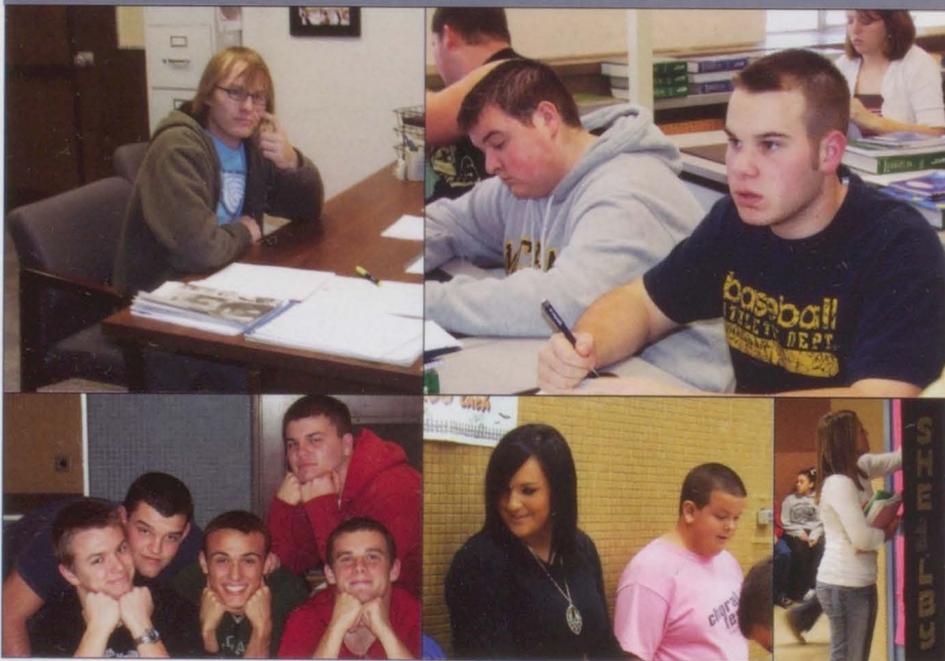

Seniors

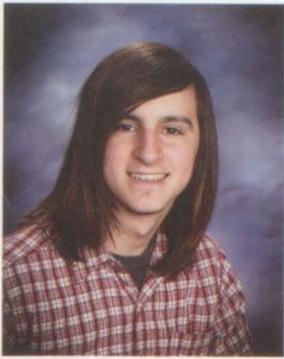

These seniors squash their opponent in the tug-of-war contest at the homecoming pep session.

Senior year is finally here. With this final year of high school, a change of pace has settled in. Not only must we worry about Government and English classes, but we must also fret over college applications and admissions. Although this may be a hectic year, a change of pace may be just what we needed.

Juniors

Juniors Stephanie Paine and Courtney Sizelove excitedly show their school spirit at the pep session.

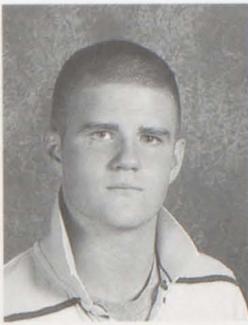

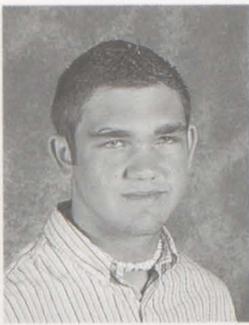

Junior year is exciting and scary all in one. Facing challenging classes and more responsibilities, students still find time for fun. Juniors get to go to Prom and find more freedom in school and in their lives. Finally thought of as upperclassmen, juniors anticipate the final step - that senior year.

Freshmen

Freshman students Kailey Leckron, Maggie Mckinley, and Megan Pollen pose for a quick snapshot during passing period on homecoming week.

Freshman year brings forth many changes. The incoming freshmen must now worry about new teachers, upperclassmen and a bigger school. The beginning may be a little nerve-racking, but by the end of the year most of these changes will become another boring routine that will last for three more years.

Sports

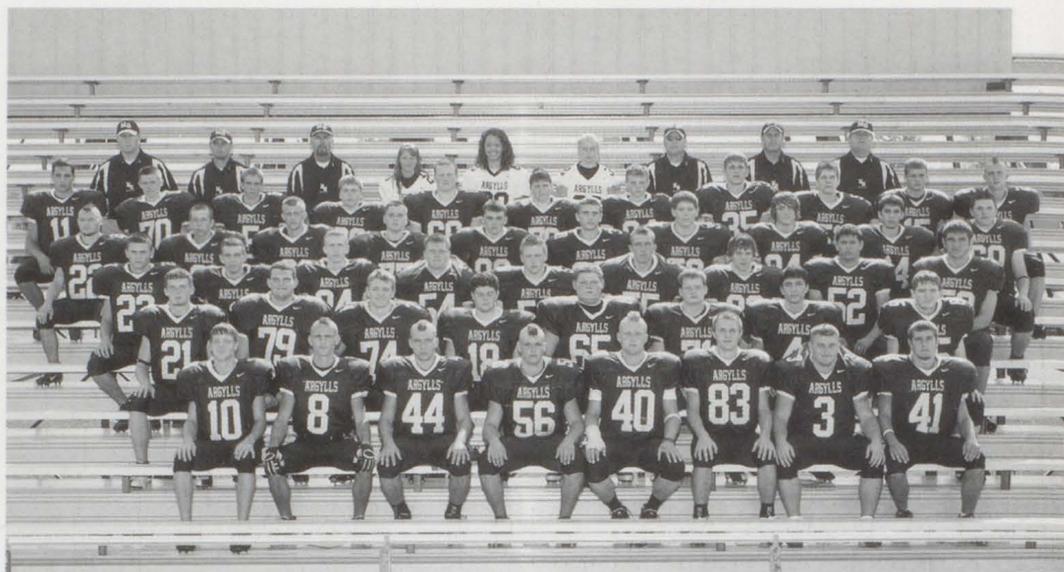

The Madison-Grant football team started out well with a four game win streak. "We caught fire early, which was nice, then when we got into the hard part of our season and lost a couple of close ones. Despite the loss in Sectional, we had a great season," commented Senior Zach Poe. There were four all CIC and two honorable mention on the team this year. The team ended the season with a 6-4 record. Although the team is losing 16 seniors, the underclassmen will hopefully step up.

Football

How was the transition from Oak Hill football to Madison-Grant football?

"I had to adjust to playing a bigger role, but it was easy with all my friends support."

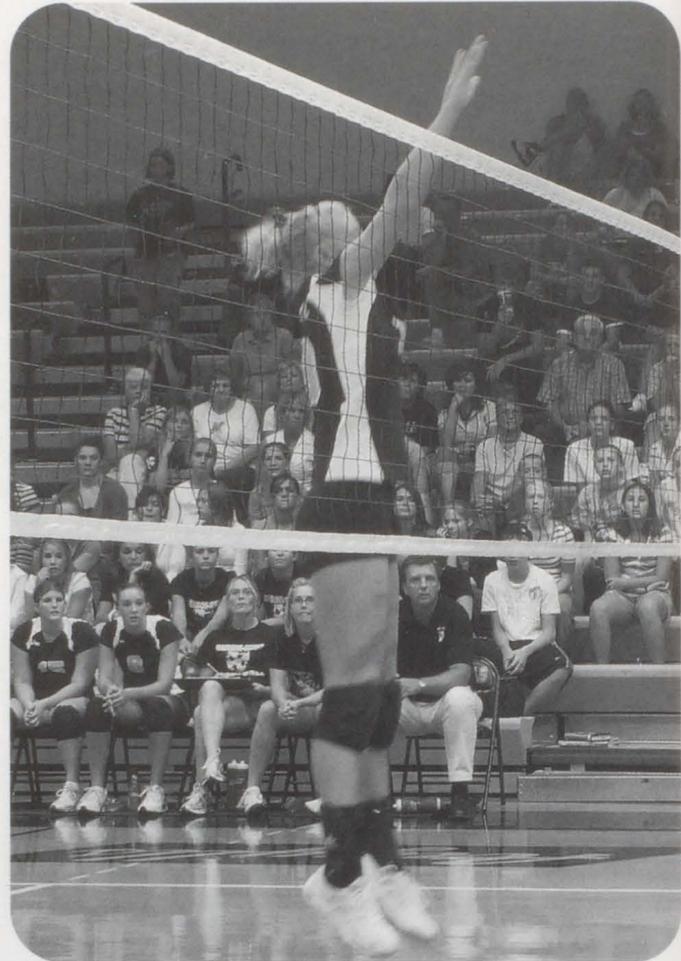

Zack Nolder
Senior

Senior Austin Lee makes a spectacular catch against Mississinewa for a Madison-Grant first down!

Volleyball

Senior Georgia Smithee prepares to block the Oak Hill spike.

What was your favorite thing about this season?

"My favorite thing about this season was in between the sectional game when we came back to the school and ate at Fazoli's."

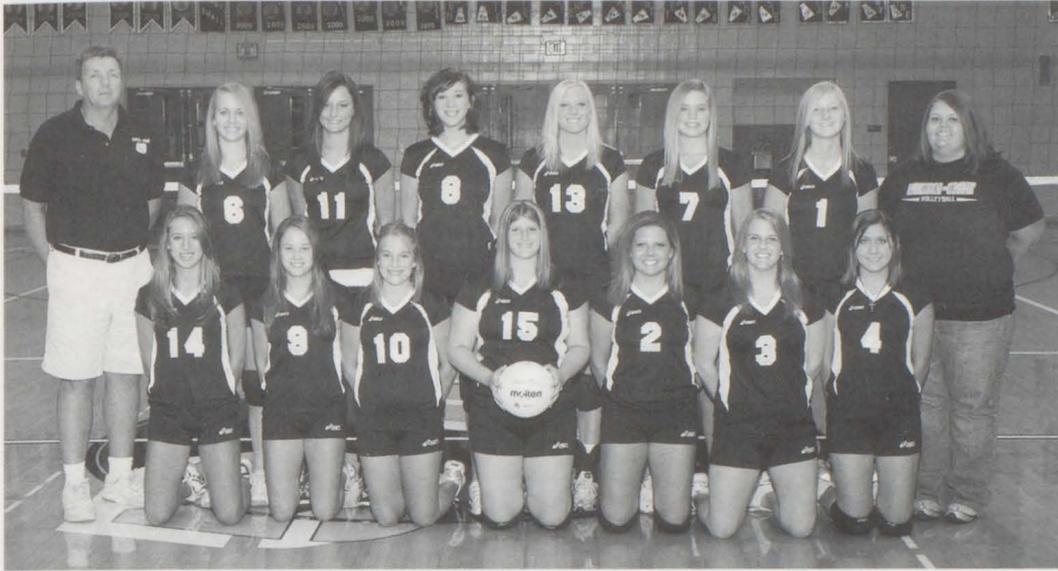

Sydney Holland
Sophomore

The varsity team prepares to throw their mini volleyballs into the stands.

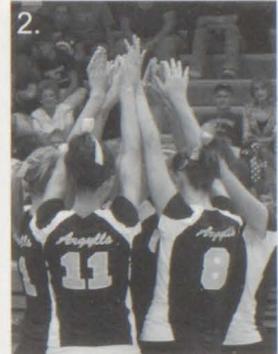

The Madison-Grant volleyball team did pretty well considering they lost five seniors from last year. They started off winning two of three games. The team was led by seniors Georgia Smithee and Breezey Melton and by sophomore Sydnie Holland. "We had a lot of fun this year. The bus rides of course were crazy. We also had a lot of fun coming back to the school in between sectional games running around the school," stated senior Megan Fitzjarrald. Megan has been a volleyball manager all four years of high school. The team did really well this year and hope to do even better next year.

2. The varsity squad gets together to find a way to defeat Eastbrook.
3. Sophomores Holly Jarvis and Maria Ellingwood jump up to block an Elwood players ferocious spike.

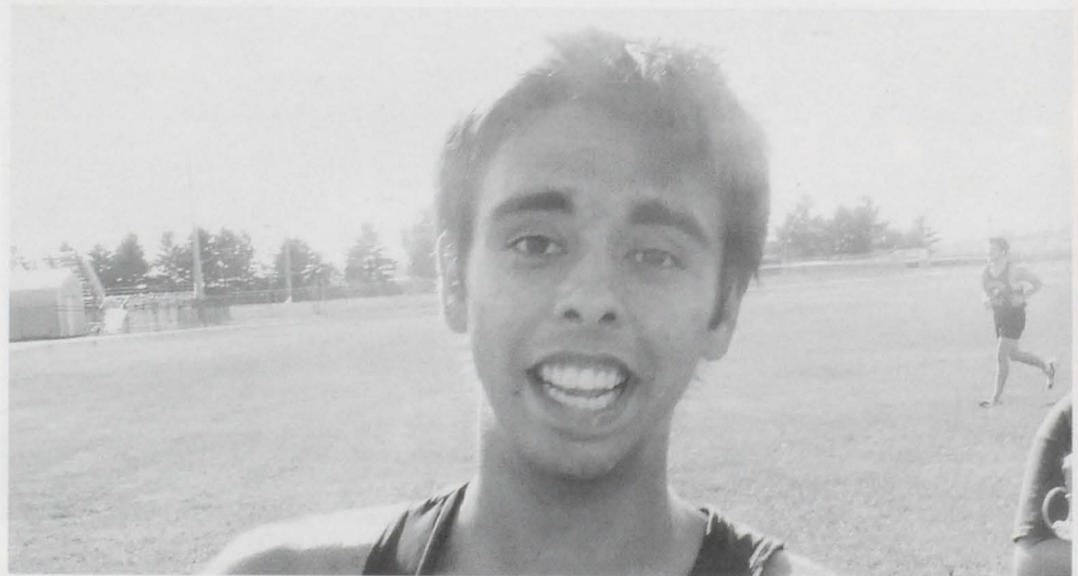

The cross country team had an improved season compared to last season. Senior Drew Richards said, "Our times gradually improved throughout the season. However, we had a disappointing finish in sectionals." Amanda Seward the only girl on the team had to step up and run the 3.1k just the same as the boys for the first time ever. Even though they had a bad end to their season, it was an improved year for the team.

1. Senior Chase Glancy runs hard to the finish line in the first home meet against Whites.
2. Freshman Matt Drown sprints onward to finish with his best time of the year over a win against Alexandria.
3. Junior Jake Fields looks towards the finish line as his opponent wins the race.

Cross Country

Senior Patrick Hansel has a look of anticipation as he is about to pass an opponent.

What did it feel like to be the only girl on the team?

"It felt a little weird. I didn't have anyone to really talk to on the bus. I was totally surrounded by all the guys. But in its own small way it was really cool!"

Amanda Seward
Freshman

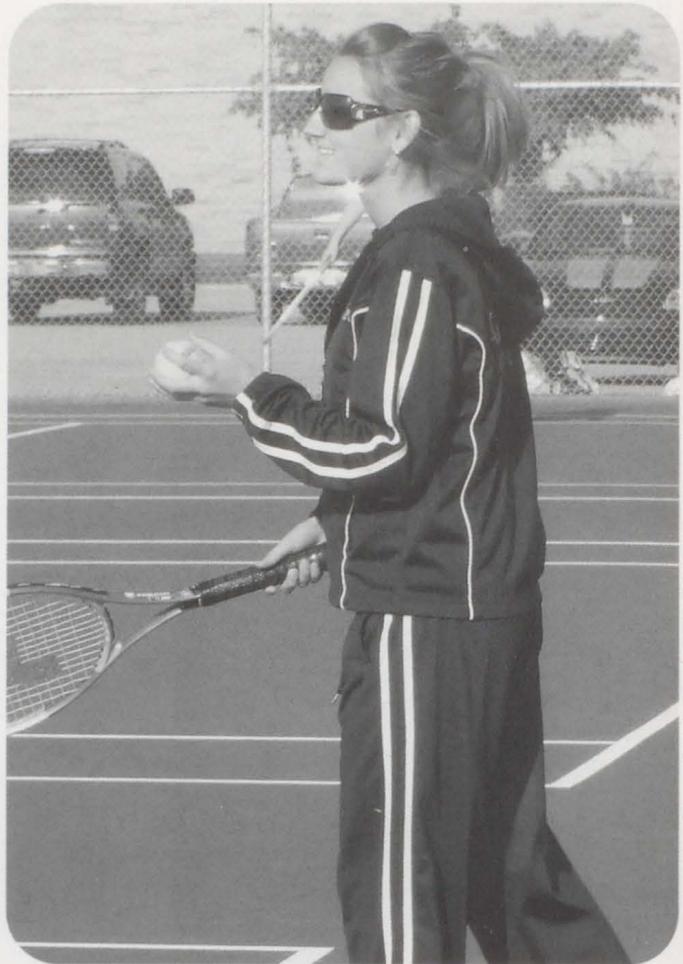

The Madison-Grant cross country team bursts off the starting line to leave their opponents in the dust.

Girls Tennis

The Madison-Grant girls tennis team did well this season after losing six starters from last year. They ended up winning four matches, but the ones they lost were close. "This season, being my senior year, was really fun. We had a lot of fun times making fun of Pitt, riding the bus home, and going all the way to Sectional championships," stated Steffanie Powell. The team is looking forward to next year.

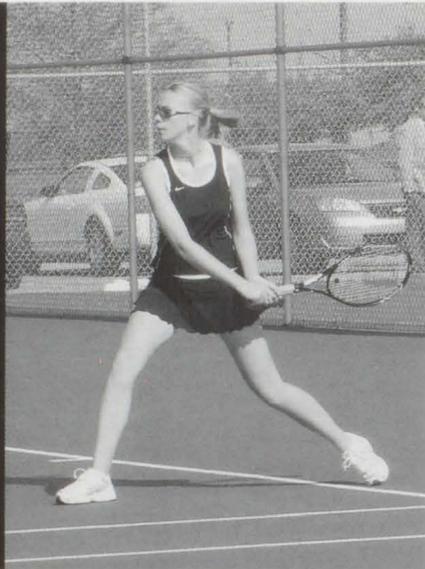

Sophomore Monica Johnston prepares to serve the ball to a Southwood opponent.

What was the highlight of this year?

"Going from number two doubles last year to number one singles this year."

Ashley Robinson
Junior

Junior Danielle Smith gets some words of wisdom from Papa Pitt.

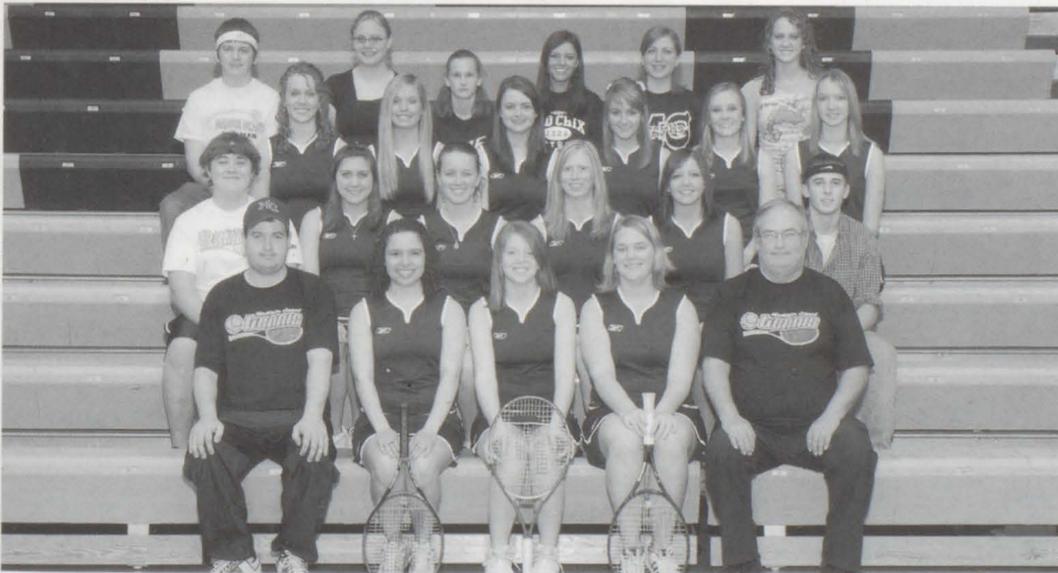

Boys Tennis

The Madison-Grant tennis team had more success than last year, despite losing five seniors from last year. "This season was fun and interesting. I feel like this season was a building block for next season. I hope next year will be just as fun, but a little more successful. I hope I will own the court like my apprentice Brock Sizelove," says sophomore Tyler Clevenger about this season. This year the team was led by three varsity players and one junior varsity player. They ended up with more wins than last year.

Cheerleading

What was it like to be the captain of the squad?

"Being the captain of the varsity cheerleading squad is pretty much a title.

Every girl is as important to the squad as I am. It was fun leading the girls."

Cassi Dodson

Senior

FIRST ROW: Jessica Ashcraft, Kelsey Fitzgerald, Tiasia Skeens.
SECOND ROW: Stephanie Brobst, Autumn Stewart.

Boys Basketball

Senior Bruce Moore posts up against an Oak Hill defender so he can break away and dunk it.

What are you going to miss most about basketball?

"Coming in every day hanging out with my friends and playing the game of basketball that I love."

Zach Ponder
Senior

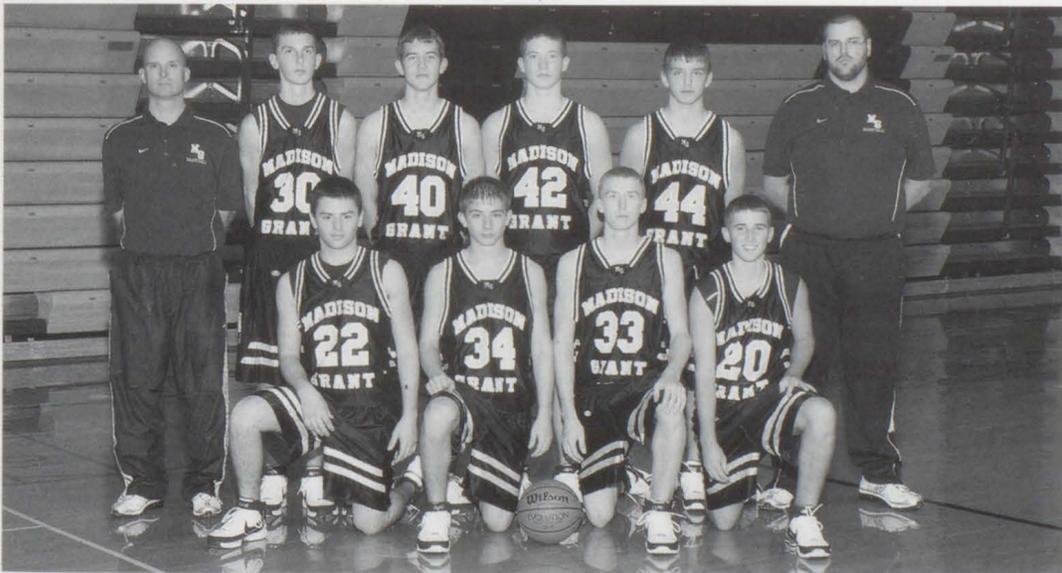

The team gets together to plot their next play on Oak Hill.

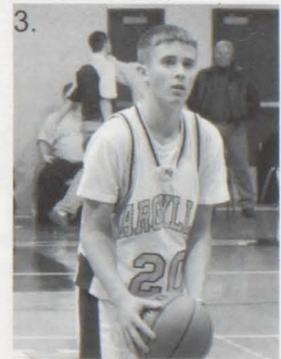

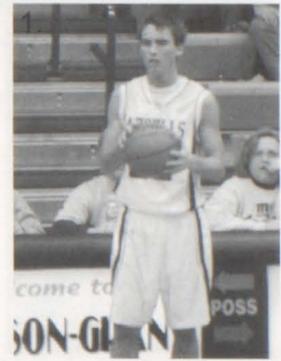

The Madison-Grant basketball team had a good start as they won seven of their first twelve games. Struggling with injuries, they lost two of their leading seniors. Without these two seniors, they still had three seniors who led the team to a 14-7 season. Tim Herniak stated, "It was nice to have a good season being our senior year. It was fun to see the younger guys step up in the absence of two of our teammates." Next year should be even better.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Senior Lilit Manukyan from Armenia becomes American for a moment.

Every year Madison-Grant High School is privileged to be able to share our culture with a few foreign exchange students. This year we were able to share that with two girls. Shorena Megrelishvili is from Georgia, and Lilet Manukyan is from Armenia. They were able to experience high school, games, prom, and were able to enjoy life as an American teenager.

Lilit Manukyan poses in front of the school sign before she leaves our school to return home.

Lilit beams as she says good-bye to one of her favorite teachers, Madame Harrold.

Best friends while in the United States, Lilit and Shorena had side-by-side lockers.

Senior Shorena Megrelishvili from Georgia demonstrates her support of America.

Double take: no, it's Shorena and Madame on this side.

Flip sides and it's Shorena enjoying the spotlight.

DOCTORS? TEACHERS? ASTRONAUTS? LAWYERS?

What do your children or grandchildren want to be when they grow up?

We all have dreams for our children. Don't let the cost of a higher education stand in the way of a child's future.

A 529 college savings plan offers you:

- Earnings that are not taxed as they grow
- Generous contribution limits
- Control over the assets*
- Tax-free withdrawals for qualified higher education expenses

Call or stop by today to learn more.

*Withdrawals for non-qualified purposes will trigger a 10% penalty on your earnings.
