ELWOOD'S

WESTERN

ANNALS

Every day the citizens of Elwood pass by the many buildings which reflect the heritage of our community. But have you ever noticed "Elwood's Western Angles"? Elwood may not be Dodge City, but if you look closely, you can see a western accent.

SHOWDOWN PANTHER STYLE

Lassoing a homecoming victory of 48-0, the Elwood Panthers galloped away. Judy Kleyla captured the title of homecoming queen and was crowned by Leslie Rebeck, last year's queen, at halftime. Juniors took first place in the float competition. Dan Marley was crowned homecoming king at the powderpuff football game the night before in which the junior girls charged to a 14-0 victory over the seniors.

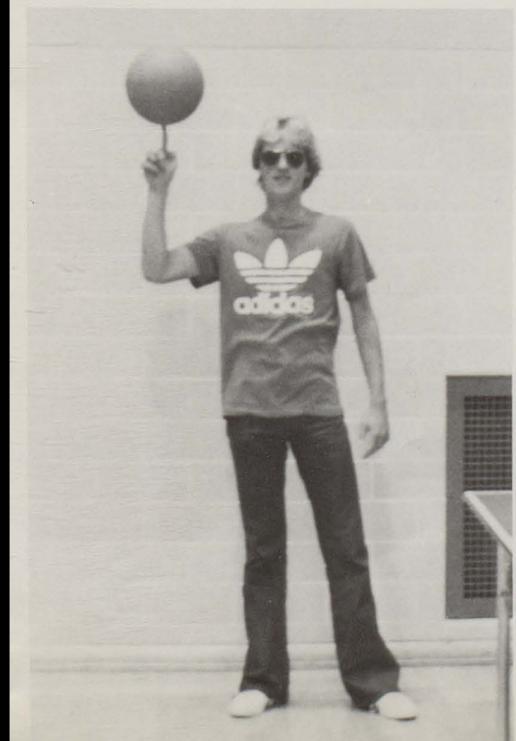

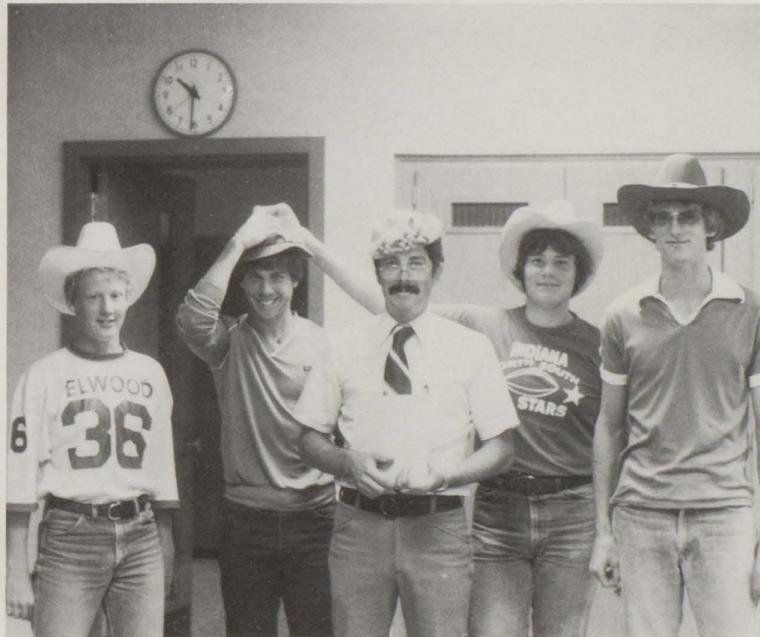

During the third quarter, sophomore Rich Lynch trotted to the end of the field for a 96-yard touchdown.

THE LAST ROUNDUP

Nancy Moore, valedictorian, talks about past activities of the class of 1980.

1. Brenda Barrett and Pat Green comfort a tearful Kim Bake. 2. Anna Ball looks on proudly as she accepts her rose.

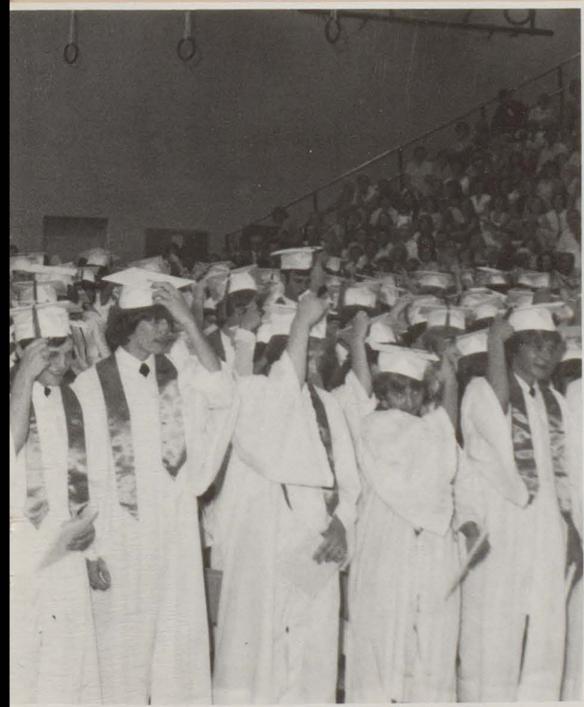

Tom Chemnitz, foreign exchange student from Germany, shakes hands with Dr. Kupisch as he accepts his diploma.

Half Past Three sing "To the Future," their last song together as seniors at Elwood High.

May 28 the Senior Class of 1980 rounded up their school days. Graduation day was very exciting for these 227 students.

Speakers for the evening were Valedictorian Nancy Moore, Salutatorian Pat Green, Class President Phil Morgan, and Vice President Marian Melvin. This was the first time students gave the major addresses at Elwood's graduation.

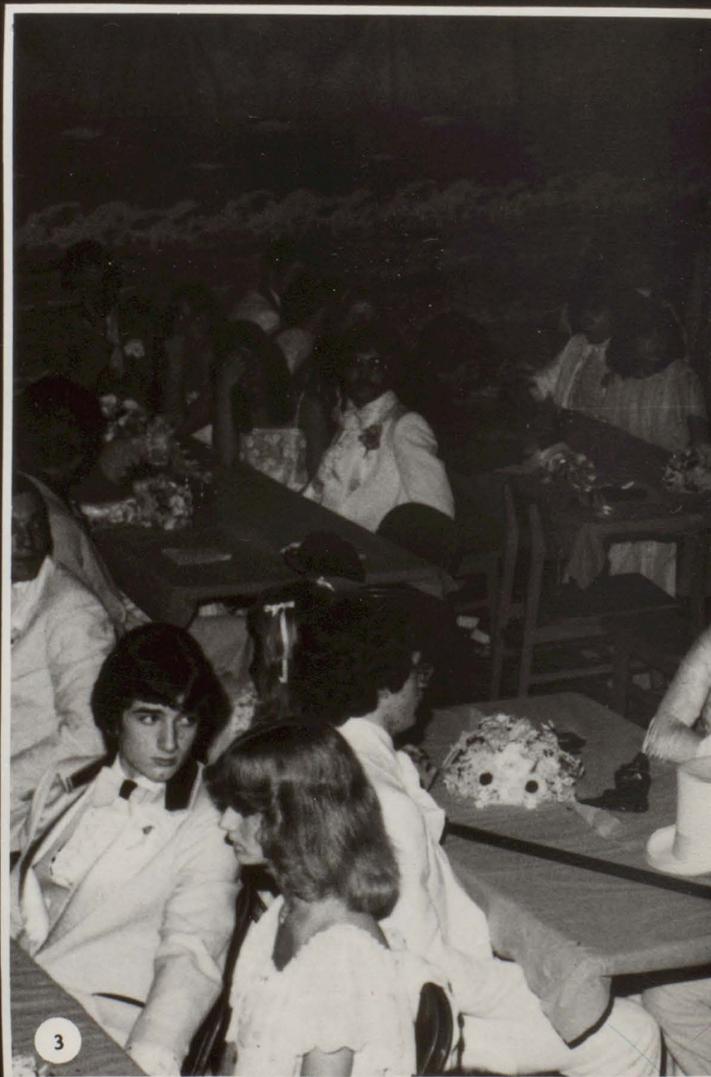

Isle of Tropical Dreams' was the theme chosen for the 1980 Junior-Senior Prom. For the second year it was held in the high school cafeteria. A.M. provided music for the evening, which was enjoyed by approximately 220 couples.

Everyone waited anxiously until 11 p.m. when Tammy Ozenbaugh was crowned prom queen by 1979 Prom Queen Marina Pappas.

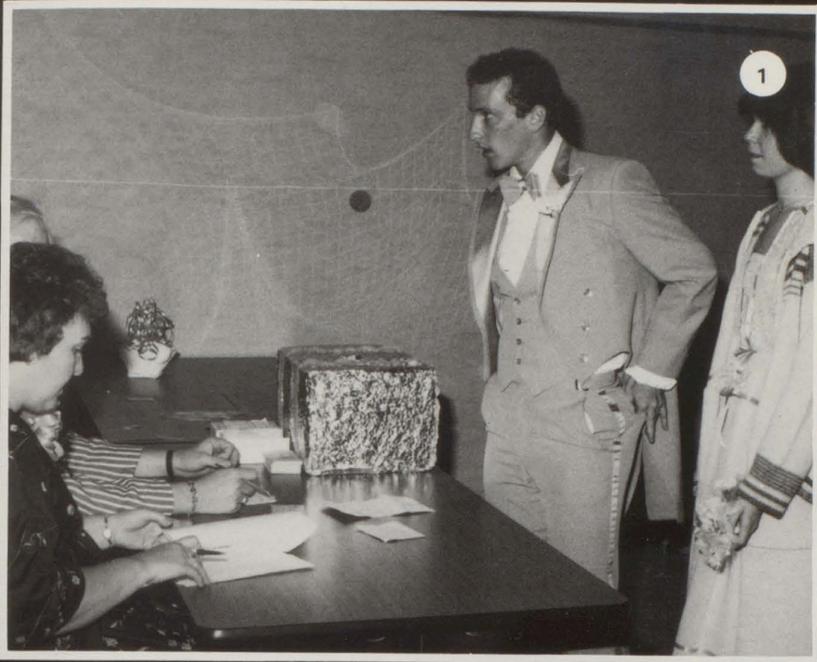

After-prom was hosted by the Elwood merchants at the Elks and was enjoyed by all. Music was provided by Steve Kiefer.

Co-chairmen for the prom were Laura Sizelove and Karen Helping. Other committee heads were Susie Stafford, decorations; flowers, Lois Hawkins; refreshments, Lori Kaiser; pictures, Judy Kleyla and Jeff Cotton; donations, Cheryl McQuitty; invitations and tickets, Kirk Brenner; favors, Kelly Leakey; personnel, Keith Morgan; and head sponsor, Mrs. Vicki Blair.

Isle Of Tropical Dreams

1 Couples dance as they catch the romantic feeling in the air. 2 Prom Queen Tammy Ozenbaugh and her escort Trent Fern dance the night away. 3 Several couples take in the beauty of the 1980 Junior-Senior Prom as they sit on the sidelines.

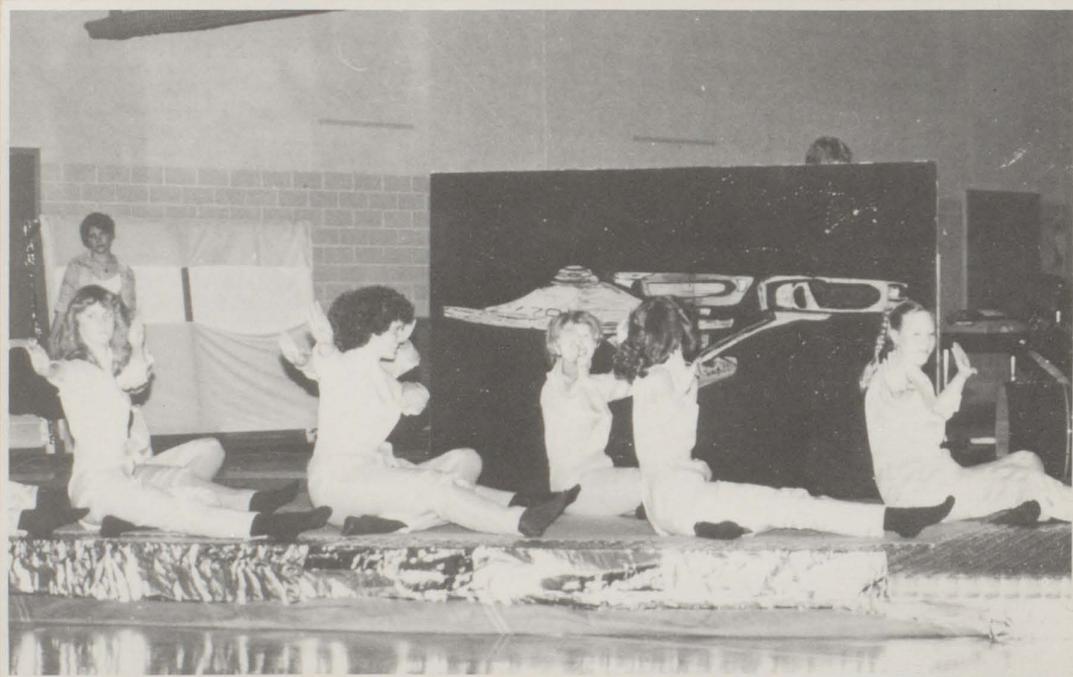

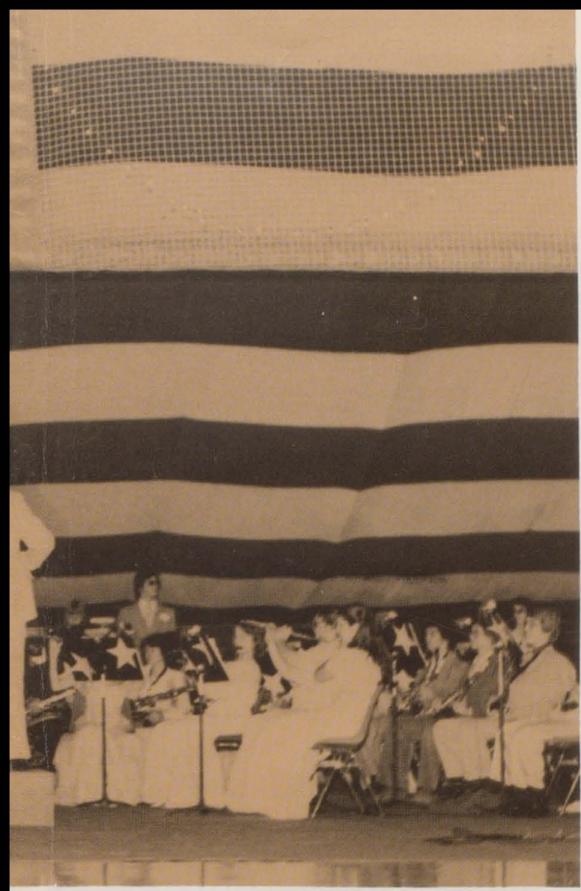

1 Bob Walker and date Tammie Baker prepare to give their tickets to Mrs. VanWagner and Mr. Brown. 2 Freshman Juli Kaiser serves refreshments to prom-goers. 3 The 1980 Prom Queen her court, and their escorts are caught looking good for the photographer. They are Barbara Burns and Tony McCord, Kim Baker and Brian Aldridge, Tammy Ozenbaugh and Trent Fern, Julie Helping and Jerry Mendenhall, Brenda Barrett and Terry Cress.

CHS MUSIC
DEPT. PRESENTS...

Variations III, our 1980 variety show: Mr. Charles Haskett, band director, directed and performed his final Elwood variety show in the two performances held April 24 and 25.

The show, doing its traditional part in getting the students' talent before the public, featured many students in skits, songs, and dance.

Closing the show was the traditional "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

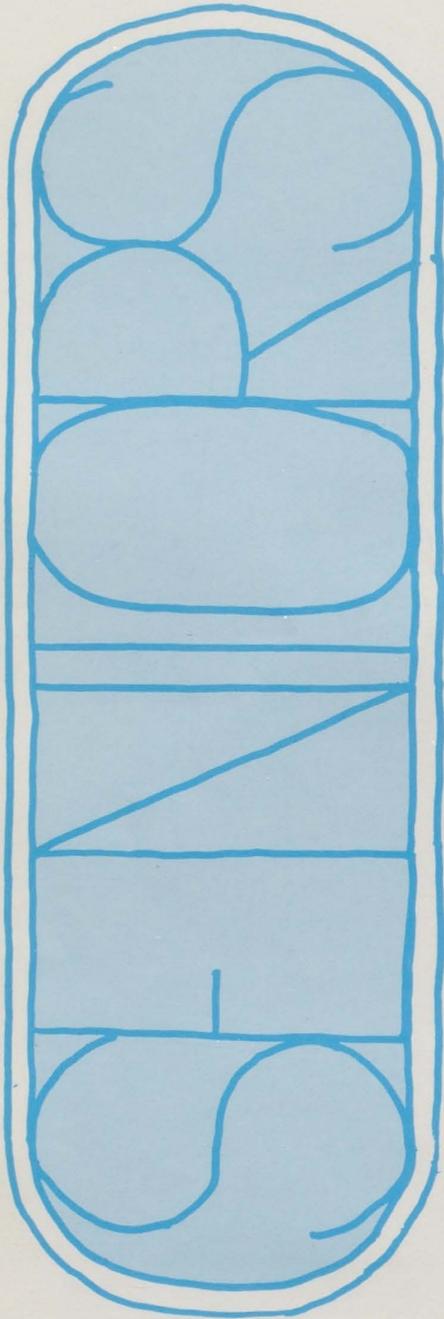

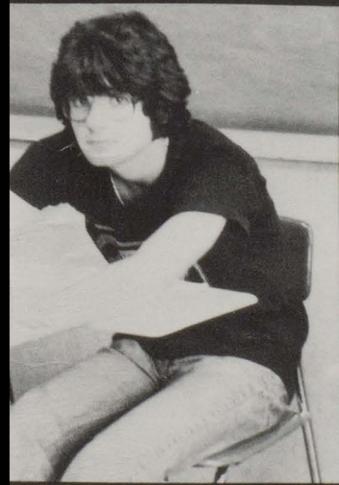

1. Half Past Three lays an egg with "Rockin' Robin." 2. The corp performs one of many dance routines. 3. Panther Band plays the traditional "Battle Hymn of the Republic." 4. Kim Baker is Mistress of Ceremonies. 5. Choir sings "Cherish," directed by Steven Mangold.

Well, this is it. Now's our chance to explore the big corral of life. But we'll always remember all the good times we had on the range of Elwood High. Remember Gus, our freshman float? So what if we got fourth place? We had fun making him.

Our sophomore year was one of indecision for most of us. We weren't the low men on the totem pole, but we weren't the "big guys" either.

Then finally it did happen. We became upperclassmen! Our junior year was great. Our float got second place, but what we'll remember most about that year was all those hours we put in to make the cafeteria an "Isle of Tropical Dreams" for 1980 prom goers.

As our years on the Elwood High range draw to a close, we'll never forget the good friends and good times. There's a time for cowpokes to move on, and now is our time.

Yee-haw! The mighty juniors are riding high! This rowdy class coached to a top-notch victory in this year's float competition with their rendition of a stagecoach.

To raise money for prom, the juniors sold Tom Watt kits, taboggans, and candy. They have conducted special events and raised a lot of money for prom and class activities. It is clear this class is on its way up and will make one of the best senior classes. Good luck next year, class of '82.

The energetic Sophomore Class hasn't put in much time at the Panther Corral. Still they have been busy. Following tradition, their freshman float came in last. But they really showed us this year! Their sophomore float came in second. The sophomores followed tradition again by selling candy.

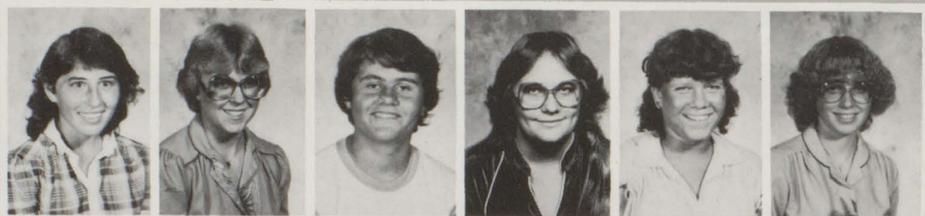

They are looking forward to being upperclassmen next year. They will get to build another float, make more money, and put together a prom.

This year's Freshman Class has proven to everyone that they aren't the "little greenies" as most people think about freshmen. They have sold Panther fan buttons and have had bake sales to raise money for next year's float and sectional decorations.

The Freshman Class made a fine effort in the Homecoming float competition, placing fourth. Be on the lookout for the upcoming Sophomore Class as the Class of '84 is on the move.

1st ANNUAL FOREIGN LANGUAGE OLYMPICS

April 26, 1980 was the date of the First Annual Foreign Language Olympics, which was held at the Elwood High School stadium. Our Latin and Spanish Clubs competed against each other in many different events. The events were a mini-marathon, a softball throw, a running long jump, a fifty-yard dash, a 100-yard dash, an obstacle course, a 440-yard relay, a three-legged race, a 440-yard run, a bike race, an 880-yard relay, and a tug-of-war.

1. The three-legged race brought many laughs. 2. The Olympics get underway after the opening ceremony. 3. John Moore stumbles through the obstacle course. 4. These foreign exchange students were guests of honor: Lena Jyrland, Mami Kimura, Sandra Pena, Jose Pimenta, Alexandre Sales, and Tom Chernnitz. 5. The Spanish Club guys struggle in the tug-of-war. 6. Dodi Nance, Marcie Phillips, and Elisa Abner run the fifty-yard dash. 7. Latin Club gets a hold in the tug-of-war. 8. The foreign exchange students give out ribbons at the awards ceremony.

Varsity and JV cheerleaders went to camp at Ball State University for three days last summer. In those days while they had loads of fun, they actually learned a lot. The varsity received many ribbons and the JV squad received one excellent rating, plus two superior, and one most improved ratings.

Captains for the squads are Varsity, Karen Helpling; JV, Jane Kleyla; and Freshman, Kim Reeves.

Coach Mike Bomholt's Panther Baseball Team lassoed another winning record in 1980 finishing regular season play with a 14-11 standing while the junior varsity team had a 3-2 mark. The team which had previously won three straight Anderson sectional titles advanced to the championship game for the fourth straight year before losing to a strong Anderson Highland Club.

Ken Hofer and Matt Wood each batted .365 to lead the club in hitting. Leading pitchers for the Panthers were Tony Dauenhauer and Jeff Boruff. Baseball fans can expect to see another good varsity and junior varsity team in 1981.

GOLFERS WIN C.I.C.

The Elwood Golf Team walked away with first place honors in the Central Indiana Conference title in 1980. Mark Worsley and Steve Hembree led the golfers with 39.2 and 39.5 averages, respectively. The golfers participated in the sectional and finished a strong sixth place. Coach Howard Huffman expects great success from his team in 1981, mainly because he has an abundance of lettermen back.

1. Greg Leever shows concentration and good technique as he tries to make that all-important shot. 2. Kevin Knotts demonstrates a good driving style that is essential for all golfers. 3. Coach Huffman gives Kirk Brenner some helpful golfing tips.

GIRLS' TRACK TEAM

The girls track team: kneeling, Pam Williams, Lena Jyrland, Terry Himmelrick, Juli Kaiser, Debbie Poynter, Pennie Whisler, Trish Watson, Stephanie Dellinger; Row 2: Jo Hinds, Sherry Mitchell, Marlene Craney, Lisa Jackman, Debbie Molden, Lynn Pedro, Kim Lawson, Tammy Ozenbaugh, Linda McDermit, Mrs. Blair; Row 3: Coach Yates, Kasia Rider, Jeri McQuitty, Bev Butcher, Laura Sizelove, Cheryl McQuitty, Karen Helping, Rosie Kelich, Stella Fisher, Tammy Alumbaugh.

Panther girl trackers wound up their season with 2 wins and 8 losses.

Sectional people were Maria Bourff and Tammy Alumbaugh, discus; Trish Watson, 100-yard dash; and Cheryl McQuitty and Laura Sizelove, high jump. This year's 880-yard relay girls were Trish Watson, Karen Helping, Jeri McQuitty, and Pennie Whisler.

Top players of the season were Maria Bourff, top person in discus; Karen Helping, top person in hurdles; Sherry Mitchell, top person in 880-yard run; Rae Ann Huffman, top person in mile; and Trish Watson, top person in the 100-yard dash.

The Panther girls finished a fine season. Coach Yates has a team to be proud of.

1. Panther Kasia Rider coming in for the kill. 2. A team member shows fine skill in the long jump. 3. A fine finish by Tammy Alumbaugh. 4. Coach Yates psyching the girls up before a meet.

PANTHERS TROT

Putting forth a tremendous amount of effort, the Panther Trackmen produced an unblemished 10-0 record in dual and triangular meets. The Panthers also participated in three relays, placing second at Pendleton, second in our own Elwood Relays, and third in the conference.

Jeff Cotton, who placed sixth in the high hurdles as Elwood's only regional qualifier, broke the high jump record during the regular season with a leap of 6- $\frac{3}{4}$  inches. Also Ted Melvin set a new 330-yard low hurdles mark with a time of 40.0.

Trent Fern, who had a good season throwing the discus and shot put, won the service award.

TO WINNING SEASON

1. Up, up and over the bar! 2. The coaches discuss the great season. 3. Jeff Cotton and Ted Melvin easily outdistance an opponent. 4. Kevin Bogard gets off to a good leap in the long jump.

PANTHERS BRAND

The 1980 Elwood Panthers finished season play with a fine 7-3 record, while facing a very tough schedule. The Panthers opened season action with a big victory over class AAA foe Hammond Bishop Noll. The following two games saw the Panthers lose hard-fought battles to West Lafayette and state ranked Blackford County. The mighty Panthers quickly rebounded and responded with a 48-0 route over the Mississinewa Indians in the big Homecoming game. The following game saw the hard-nosed Panther defense hand the Alexandria Tigers their first and only loss of the season, 14-0. Elwood traveled to Madison-Grant and lost a tough conference battle to the Argyls by a score of 12-7.

BIG 7-3 MARK

The Panthers finished the year in style by winning all of their next four ball games to wrap up another winning season for the strong Elwood football program. The Panthers had several players who received post-season honors. The Panthers named to the All-CIC team were Jeff Cotton, Todd Downham, Dan Marley, Ted Melvin, Keith Morgan, and Mark Vinson. All-county members were Jeff Cotton, Dan

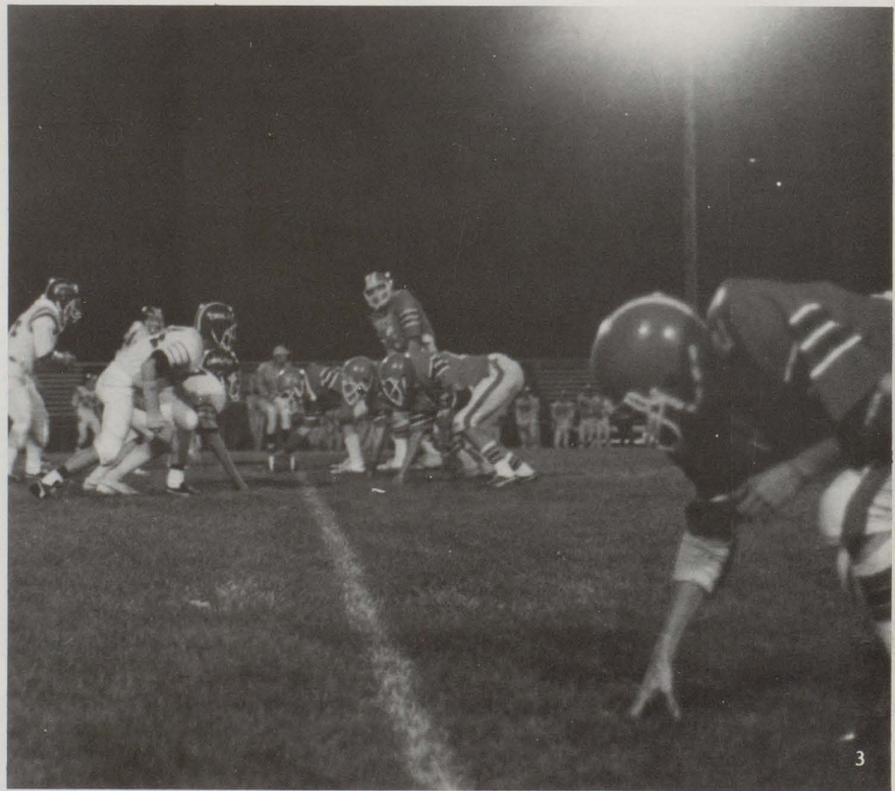

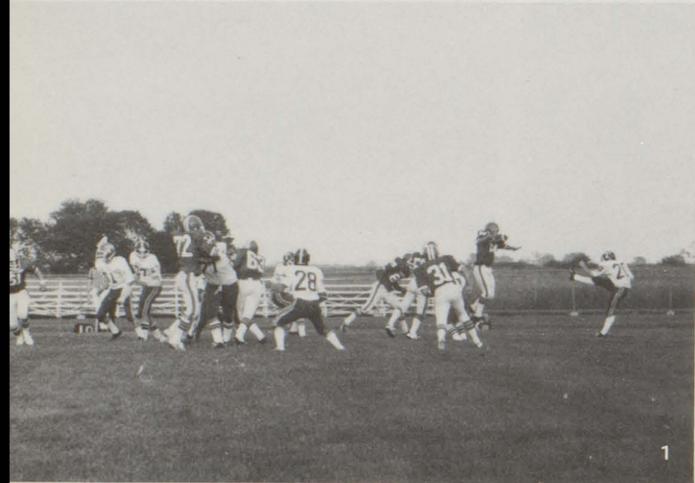

Marley, Ted Melvin, Nick Ray, John Landrum, Keith Morgan, and Mark Vinson. Junior Ted Melvin became the third player in Elwood history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season while Head Coach Steve Demuth ran his overall record to 30 wins and 10 losses as his fourth year at Elwood ended. Gridiron fans can expect to see another exciting Panther team in 1981.

1. The Varsity Cheerleaders lead the crowd in a yell. 2. Coach Hawk and Coach Demuth watch from the sidelines. 3. Q.B. Bob Walker looks for someone to hand-off to. 4. Jeff Boruff attempts a field goal. 5. Jeff Cotton dives for a pass. 6. Landrum receives the call. 7. Cotton runs for a T.D. against Tipton. 8. #40 steps high. 9. Melvin turns it on. 10. The offense and defense are ready.

J.V.

The 1980 junior varsity football team finished the season with a strong 5 wins and 2 losses. Coach Hughes and Coach Williams herded the team past some tough opponents. Look for these underclassmen on the gridiron next season.

1. An Elwood player blocks the Devils' punt to set up another Panther touchdown. 2. George Skeen breaks around end for a big gain. 3. The offensive team is ready to go!

FROSH

This year's freshman football team posted a promising 5-2 record to finish out the 1980 season. The offense rounded up a total of 122 points while the defense allowed only 54 points. Nick Long paced the frosh with 10 touchdowns while Rodger Runyan led the team in pass receptions and scored five times. Injuries hampered the depth of this year's team, but the squad gave 100% in practice and on the field.

A few freshman players dressed for varsity games and even saw some action. Look for these youngsters in the future.

1. Kelly Walker records statistics for his teammates and coaches. 2. Nick Long turns the corner to pick up some important yardage.

The Elwood cross country team finished with a 9-13 season, winning against Highland, Hamilton Heights, and outrunning Mississinewa, Madison Grant, and Tipton twice in the regular season and in the C.I.C. meet. The long distance runners lost to such tough teams as Blackford County, Taylor, Peru, Shenandoah, Mount Vernon, Pendleton Heights, and Wabash.

The team went to the Blackford County, Western, Jay County, and Tipton invitations. They grabbed 6th place at the Blackford and Western Invitationals and 5th place at the Tipton Invitational. In the C.I.C. meet the team placed a strong 4th with senior Danny Harris finishing 9th, the best for the Elwood runners. In the sectional competition Elwood failed to qualify in the top three to advance to the regional; however, junior Tom Clark finished 6th allowing him to advance to the regional. At the regional Clark finished a respectable 24th out of a field of 74.

One of the top runners for the Panthers was senior Danny Harris. With four first places and a new Peru course record of 17:13, Harris also placed top on the team eight out of ten times. Other top runners adding to the team's depth were Tom Clark, Jeff Wiand, and Chris Farley.

Only four seniors will be lost by the cross country team. They are Danny Harris, Jeff Wiand, George Dauenhauer, and Hector Alvarez. Returning for the Panthers are the talents of juniors Tom Clark, Nick Kiefer, Mike Lane, and Tina Cox. Also back will be sophomores Brian Shallenberger, Fred Flowers, Dave Wright, and Tom Phillips. Among the returning freshmen will be Keith McCool, Troy Saulmon, Brian Phillips, and Mike Gross.

The Elwood cross country team, should have a bright future ahead with return of the underclass runners and the addition of runners from the Junior High School. They will have to work hard but as Coach Dockery says, "It takes a whole lot of dedication, no glory, and only ribbons go to the winners, but the youngsters enjoy it. After all, they wouldn't be out here if they didn't, would they?"

CROSS COUNTRY

TENNIS

Despite much effort and determination Elwood's tennis team failed to break into the win column for the fourth year in a row. The team played top-flite schools such as Highland, Yorktown, Mississinewa, and Anderson throughout the year. The big moment for the netmen this year came as senior John Scircle and sophomore Rich Welcher took Alexandria's No. 2 doubles team 7-6, 6-3.

Losing seniors Alan Gerth, Larry Weaver, John Scircle, and foreign exchange student Jan Ombudstvedt to graduation this year, the Panthers will have plenty of returning sophomores in Rich Welcher, Evan Theoharris, Neal Rebeck, Jerry Reeves, Scott Carroll, and Jane Copher coming back to lead the team next year.

Coach Brian Courtney is helping build for the future with Junior High tennis clinics this summer. "We want to get Junior High kids interested in tennis as early as possible," said Coach Courtney.

Finishing 10-12, the Panther volleyball team ended an exciting year which included a victory over powerhouse Tipton and a sectional drubbing of CIC champ Madison-Grant. Finishing third in the conference, the girls also defeated Blackford, Wabash, and Peru while non-conference victories came over Taylor, Westfield, Mt. Vernon, and a good Marion club.

Losing to Madison-Grant in regular season play, the girls bounced back to win convincingly by scores of 6-15, 15-7, and a shut-out of 15-0 in the first game of the sectional. In their second match they beat Mississinewa 9-7, 15-12, but then fell to Eastbrook in their games in the championship to complete a successful season.

Debbie Molden was selected to the sectional team while CIC honors went to Tammy Alumbaugh, first team; Lori Kaiser, second team, and Karen Helping, honorable mention.

The junior varsity completed its season with a 5-12 record with several members moving up to varsity for the sectional to provide a strong nucleus for next year.

GALS

"This year Elwood was prone to much sickness and injury," stated Coach Darrell McQuitty. Although it was a disappointing season for both the varsity and JV squads in girls' basketball (winning 2 games each), experience was gained and much improvement was shown over last year.

Leading rebounder for the varsity squad was Tina Cox, with Rae Ann Huffman listed as most valuable player. Several junior varsity players showed great signs of basketball skill and some of these girls will make up next year's varsity team.

The Panther bench watches the game intently.

The Elwood Panthers were under the new leadership of Stan Daugherty. The Panthers ended up the year with a 3-17 record, reigning victoriously over Mississinewa, Mount Vernon, and Marion Bennett. The team will be losing all but four players to graduation which will make for a tough rebuilding job next year.

The Panthers lost many close games this year with the main problem being that they would jump out to the lead in the first half only to be overtaken in the third or fourth quarter.

The Panthers were guided by the leadership of seniors Jeff Cotton, Kirk Brenner, and Matt Wood. In addition the team has benefitted from the accurate shooting of Steve Hembree and Steve Pelletrino and the rebounding of Jeff Boruff, Joe Maley, and Todd Downham.

The Elwood Panthers will be back next year with the talents of Steve Hembree, Joe Maley, Brad Reynolds, and Kevin Knotts to face the onslaught of their tough opponents and try to outdo their predecessors.

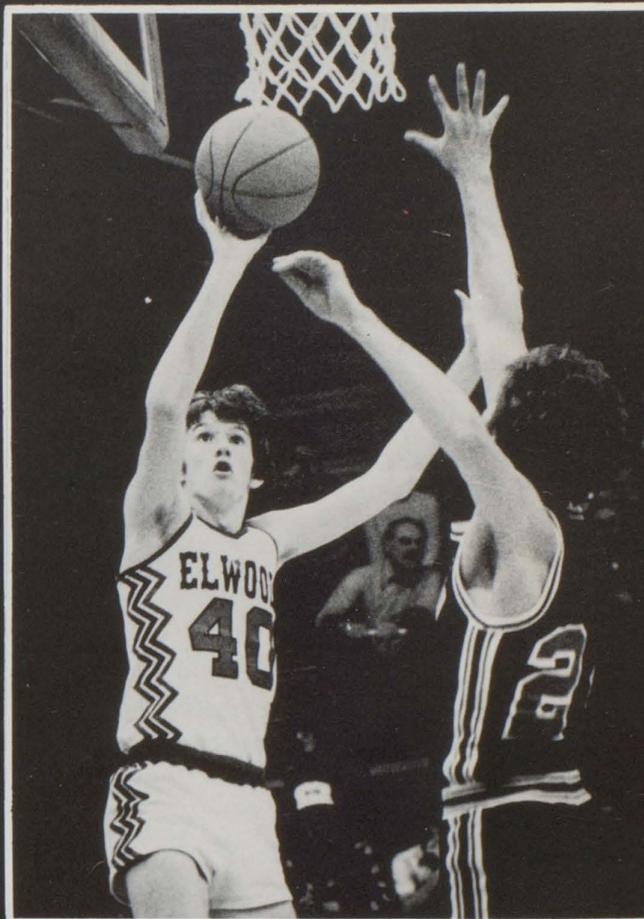

Kirk Brenner shoots over his opponents.

JV GOES 10-10

The 1980-81 edition of the junior varsity basketball team had a fine season with a 10-10 record. With a lot of hard work and determination the Panthers were a competitive ball team. Several Panthers turned in outstanding performances during the season. Tim Morgan and Brad Reynolds were the top scorers while Jeff Becker and Kevin Knotts were the leading rebounders. Mark Worsley, David Wills, and Todd McGuire finished off the well balanced attack of the junior varsity. The JV also provided good competition in preparing the varsity for their ballgames. Coach Phil Huffman stated, "The key to this team's success was good defense and team quickness."

FROSH EARN 11-4 MARK

1. Frank Gosnell plays tough defense for the Panthers. 2. Coach Bomholt, Shaun Stephens, and Bryan House proudly exhibit the Tipton Tourney trophy. 3. Coach Bomholt talks game strategy during a timeout. 4. Shaun Stephens shows his leaping ability on this inbounds play.

The freshman A and B teams turned in many great performances this season. The A-team finished with an 11-4 record while the B-team turned in a 2-7 mark.

The highlight of the season was the A-team's conquest of the Tipton Tourney. This was the first team from Elwood to ever win the tourney championship.

Coach Bomholt stated, "The key to this team's success has been desire and a lot of hard work." The future of Panther basketball is counting on these talented freshmen.

POUNDRING IRON

Strength is the key to Elwood's athletic program. These young men meet every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. This program is open to any student that wishes to increase his mental and physical strength, and the activity is well supervised by Coach Demuth, Coach Howk, and Coach Hughes.

WRESTLERS' STRENGTH IN

With a 4-5 record, a great improvement over last year, the varsity wrestling team had what Coach Mark Hughes felt was a successful season. Mike Burdsall, wrestling at 167, had a terrific year posting an overall record of 17-4 which included first in the sectional, CIC, Wes-Del Tourney, and second in the county. Nick Ray at 177 wrestled his way to an outstanding 15-6 record and heavyweight Keith Morgan was 13-7. Don Lee was the varsity wrestler at 185 with nine wins and Dennis Scott and Kevin Bogard split time at 155.

Though the upper weights grabbed a combined total of 63 wins, Coach had high praise for the lower weights stating, "Our lower weights were in a rebuilding stage and Coach Howk and I were really proud of the hard work and improvement of Jerry Reeves, Mike Gross, Mark Harney, Lonnie Scholl, and Andy Davis."

UPPER WEIGHTS

1. Keith Morgan following a good match. 2. Andy Davis on his way to a CIC win. 3. Mike Burdsall capturing the sectional crown. 4. Warming up for a meet. 5. Don Lee finds himself in a precarious position. 6. Randy Hoel battling his opponent.

Joni VanBuskirk shows her grace as she practices on the small beam. 5. Lisa Jackman "reaches for the sky" as she begins her exercise.

The gymnastics team finished the year with a 2-5 record. Coach Yates states that all the routines are new this year, but the girls lack depth on the uneven bars and balance beam due to the difficulty of the two events.

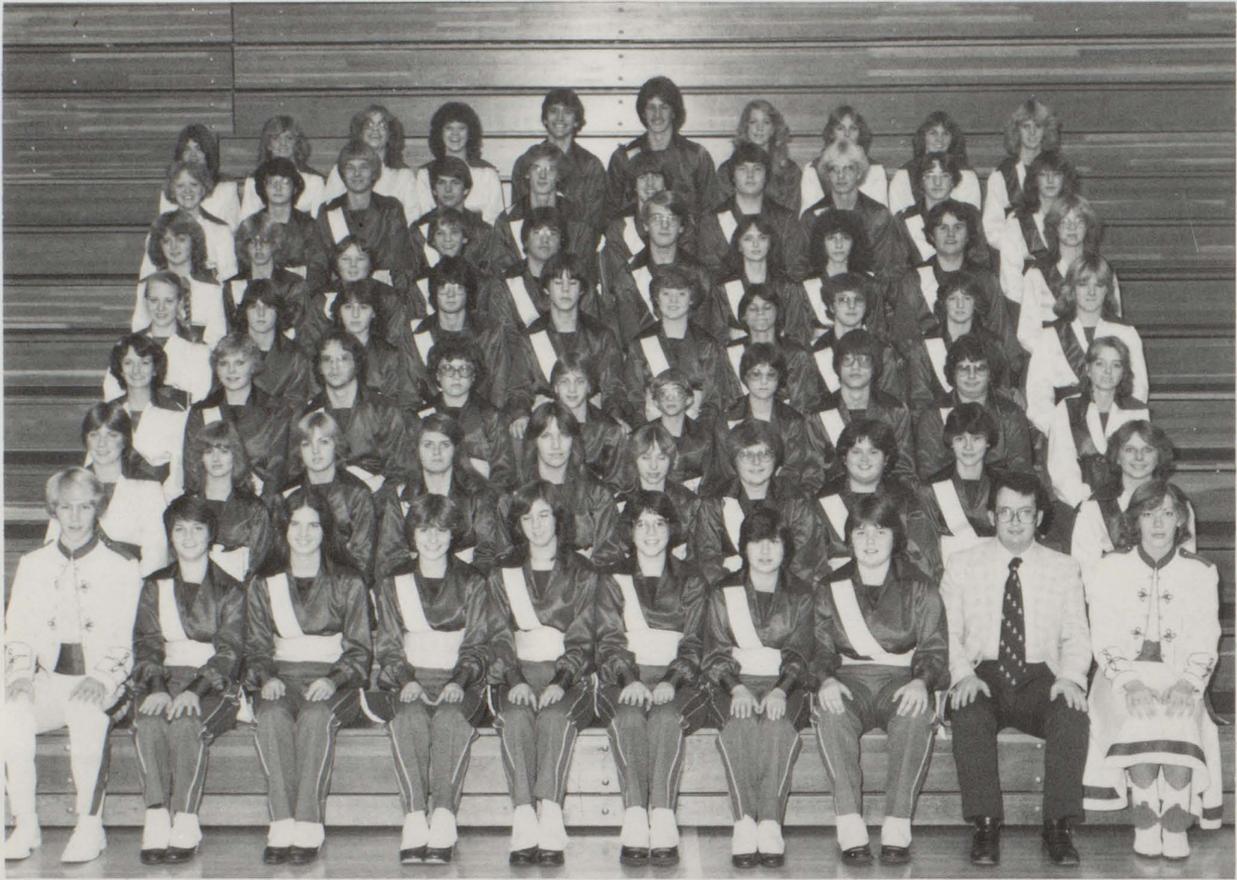

The top performers in the uneven area are Judy Kleyla, who usually places first or second, and Lori Kaiser. Top gymnasts on the beam are Joni VanBuskirk and Tobey Diehl, who turned in fine performances this year.

Floor exercise and vaulting were the best areas of this year's team. The girls placing most in floor exercise were Debbie Collins, Karen Helpling, and Tobey Diehl. Coach Yates stated that these girls were consistent in placing all season long.

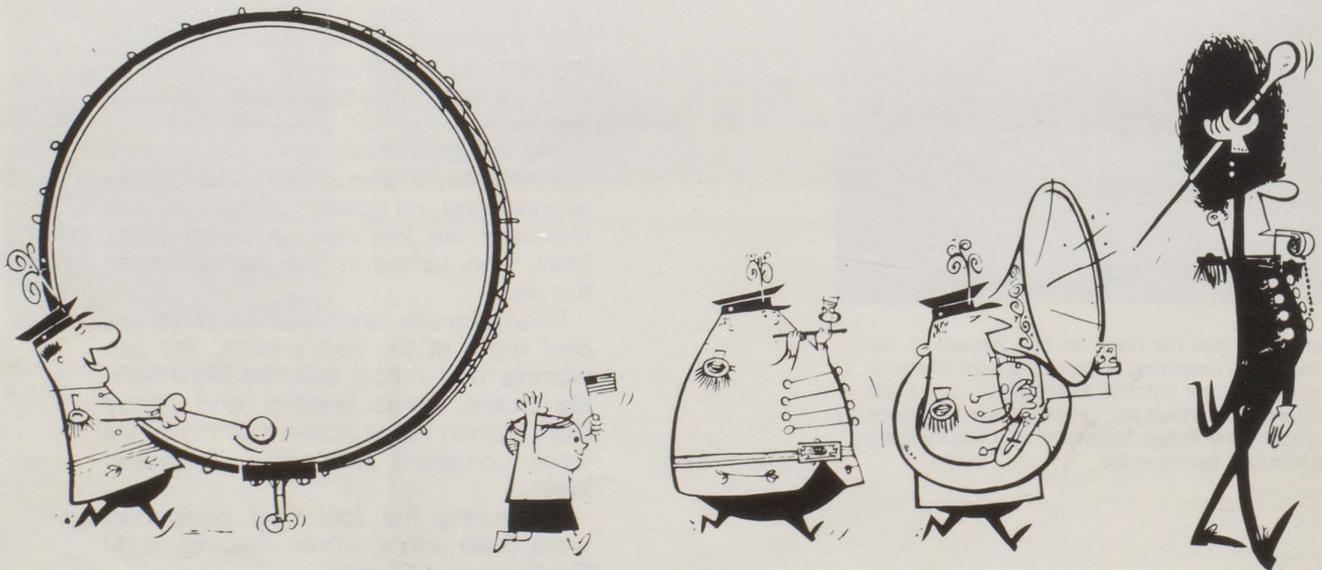

In vaulting the four best performers were Susie Johns, Karen Helpling, Judy Kleyla, and Lori Kaiser.

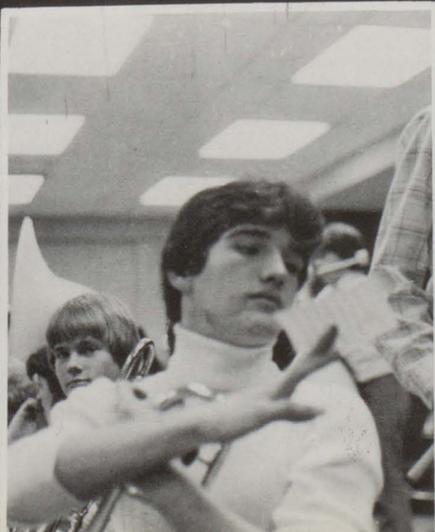

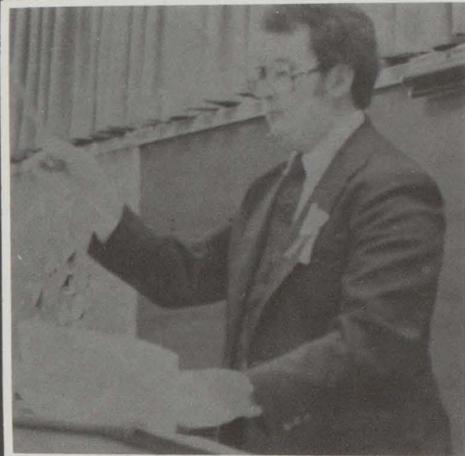

Coach Yates is losing six seniors this year but is looking forward to next season with her other lettermen returning.

Mr. Hoffman seems to be enjoying the camping trip.

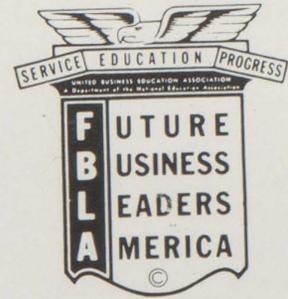

The Math-Science Club at ECHS has been quite active this year, as they travelled to many places on field trips. The club visited Delco Remy, the Ball State Planetarium, and many other places. They also went camping.

This year's officers are Chip Morris, president; Matt Wood, vice-president; and Jeff Boruff, secretary/treasurer. This club's popularity is on the rise as there is an increasing membership each year.

The Future Business Leaders of America have been quite busy this year, with their largest membership ever. The 60 members have sold Dial-A-Panthers and candy, had parties, went Christmas caroling, and many other activities.

This year's FBLA officers are Elisa Abner, president; Jill Hoose, vice-president; Marla Wells, secretary; Beth Mathys, treasurer; Jamie Whisler, reporter; Angie Carron, parliamentarian; and Lynnette Etchison, historian.

An honor of Elwood's FBLA chapter was the election of Elisa Abner to be the 1980 state historian. She received this at the State Leadership Conference which is held each spring at Ball State.

LEADER IN BUSINESS

We look at going to school like taking the bull by the horns.
We look at the World's Toughest Rodeo like one of the roughest days at school.
We look at cowboys with determination like students with determination. Cowboys rope their calves; students get their diplomas.
We look at the skill and ability of the cowboy and see it also takes skill and ability to learn in school.
We look at cowboys not giving up like students taking the bull by the horns.

Latin Club is really moving along this year with its many activities. The club started off with a fall party and weiner roast. Latin Week was observed in December with "Toga Day" and Roman pizzas. In March Julius Caesar was remembered by a banquet with all students wearing sheets and using the first year students as slaves! The students and Mrs. Garner celebrated Rome's birthday April 21 with an outing for pizza. The club has also been busy with money-making projects like the sale of Drix Soap, Current stationery, and candy bars. A trip to Italy highlighted spring vacation for some of the students. Latin Club is really moving along and still going!

1. Julius Caesar? No. It's Bernard Barcio, organizer of the chariot race in Indianapolis. 2. Foreign exchange student Martin Floret enjoys the Latin Club Christmas Party. 3. In togas the students are pictured during the parade lap at the chariot race. 4. Here's Santa's little helper, Keith Morgan!

As usual the Spanish Club has been busy this year. Once again they participated in Homecoming parade with their own float, visited One Accord, a Mexican restaurant, and held their annual Christmas party in the cafetorium. A trip to the Yucatan highlighted last summer for some members, and plans are being made for a trip to Mexico this year. Going with full force are the officers, co-presidents, Jeff Cotton, Lori Kaiser; vice-president, Karen Helpling; treasurer, Kevin Riley; secretary, Cheryl McQuitty; and sponsor, Mrs. Ginny Disosway.

This year's Thespian Troupe presented the play "The Glass Menagerie" November 14 and 15. The play was about a family, the Wingfields, and the troubles they have among themselves. The setting is the Wingfield apartment in the 1930's.

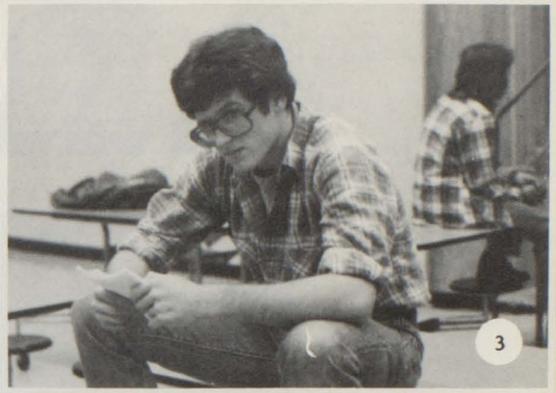

Amanda Wingfield was played by Kim Edens. Amanda is the mother, a woman who lives in a dream world of Southern belles and gentleman callers. Tom Wingfield was played by Steve Whitehead. Tom is unhappy being the breadwinner of the family and constantly quarrels with his mother. Laura Wingfield was played by Penny Holtsclaw. Laura is crippled and lives in her own world of little glass animals. Jim O'Conner was played by Craig Baugher. Jim is the gentleman caller. He represents the common man in the everyday working world.

Mrs. Sharon Johnson was the director for the play, and Mr. Jeff Wallace was the technical director.

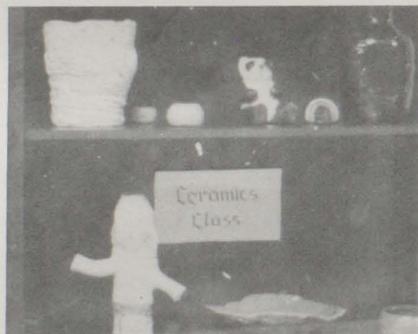

1. Steve Whitehead narrates to the audience from the fire escape.
2. Penny Holtsclaw and Craig Baugher talk by candlelight.
3. Steve Whitehead studies his lines.
4. Amanda and Tom are seen during an emotional moment.
5. Mr. Wallace works on the set.
6. The actors get much applause during curtain call.
7. Amanda (Kim Edens) entertains the gentleman caller.
8. Brad Mathys, stage crew, and Mary Harris, assistant director, do some planning during a practice.

Art Club officers and members have met interesting people and done interesting things this year. They funded a professional potter, Rogier Donker, who visited the ceramics and art classes and gave demonstrations. They also helped to fund the "Bevy of Beasts" art display, which contained a Picasso print. Before Christmas the club held a sale of hand-crafted items and a raffle of a portrait by Phyllis Hayward and a sketch by Mrs. McQuitty. The Art Club also refinished old elementary school desks which they sold.

Officers for the 1980-'81 Art Club are Paulette Elsworth, president; Debbie Molden, vice-president; Jeri McQuitty, treasurer; Andrea Hoppenrath, secretary; and Nick Kiefer, activities chairman.

The Industrial Arts Club is a very active and hardworking club. The club meets every day with freshmen meeting Monday, sophomores on Tuesday, juniors on Wednesday, seniors on Thursday and representatives and officers meeting on Friday. The club has done various activities throughout the year. Just a few are framing mirrors with silk-screening and framed mirror manufacturing. The club planned a field trip in May.

DECA is a very active group. The class presented a new idea this year called The Santa Secret Shop to which children came to buy Christmas present for parents, brothers, and sisters. Parents were not allowed. This is why it was called a secret shop. The shop went very well and there was even a little profit made. This was something new for the DE students and it will be tried again in the future.

MEGAPHONE

Newspaper staff members worked very hard to let other students in our school know what's going on, how students feel, and the accomplishments of others.

This year the staff published six issues of the Megaphone. The members of this class sell the ads, get the stories and information, write the articles you read in the paper, take the pictures and write the heads.

The newspaper staff this year did a very good job getting the news out to the other students and filling them in on just what is going on.

The staff members have special assignments. Pictured below are 1. Feature editors, 2. Photographers, 3. Editors, 4. Sales and Ad Managers, and 5. Sports Editors.

CRESCENT

Six of the staff members went to a yearbook workshop at Hanover College, last summer. They gained knowledge in layout design, copywriting, and photography to aid in producing a higher quality yearbook.

OFFICE EDUCATION

O. E. A.

Morning officers are seated, Carol Gerard, secretary; Shelley Runyan, president; standing, Jamie Whisler, treasurer; Julie Harting, historian; Beth Mathys, vice-president.

The Office Education Association (OEA) was established in 1966 as an independent youth organization for students enrolled in high school and office education programs. It is a co-curricular activity that is a part of the educational program which is designed to develop leadership abilities, interest in the American business system, and competency in office occupations.

The local chapter functions as part of the instructional program. Through its varied programs of planned youth activities, members serve as leaders in fun as well as learning experiences.

Crescent Staff

With the close of our 1981 Crescent we end one of our most enjoyable fantasies. For the past school year we have lived in a "Western" playground, dreaming, wishing, and fantasizing our wildest ambitions. Hopefully as you leafed through the pages, we were able to bring some of that rustic western heritage into your life.

We staff members have worked from sunrise to sunset trying to produce the best western Crescent ever. Our many thanks to the following businesses and people whose help was invaluable to us during the year: Reid's Studios, Elwood Call-Leader, Julie Barrett, Science Dept., Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. McQuitty, Mrs. Disosway, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Warner, Mr. Compton, Mr. Fortner, Christie Herniak, and our special thanks to Kim Ash, our yearbook representative, and Mrs. Joanne Sullivan, our advisor.

The 1981 Crescent staff members were as follows: Editors-Tammie Baker, Susie Stafford; Sr. Editors-Alan Gerth, Marcie Phillips, Allyson McPhearson; Underclass Editors-Lisa McIntyre, Tracey Maish, Ron Arnold, Jill Hoose; Sports Editors-Steve Pelletrino, Mark Vinson; Business Mgr.-Bob Walker; Asst. Business Mgr.-Dee Wills; Art Editor-Amy Israel; Photography Editor-Lori Buster.
