Willkie Offers

Wendell L. Willkie High School

Students rush to next class amid crowded halls.

Destinies Unlimited

Willkie offers learning in more than one way.

Another academic year brings us a step closer to our future training, jobs, and way of life. With a sturdy curriculum that trains students for the future, through Guidance Counselors who prepare us for college and courses that adapt to our needs, Willkie points toward --DESTINIES UNLIMITED.

One of the problems that confront Willkie students is the limited locker space.

Throughout These Halls

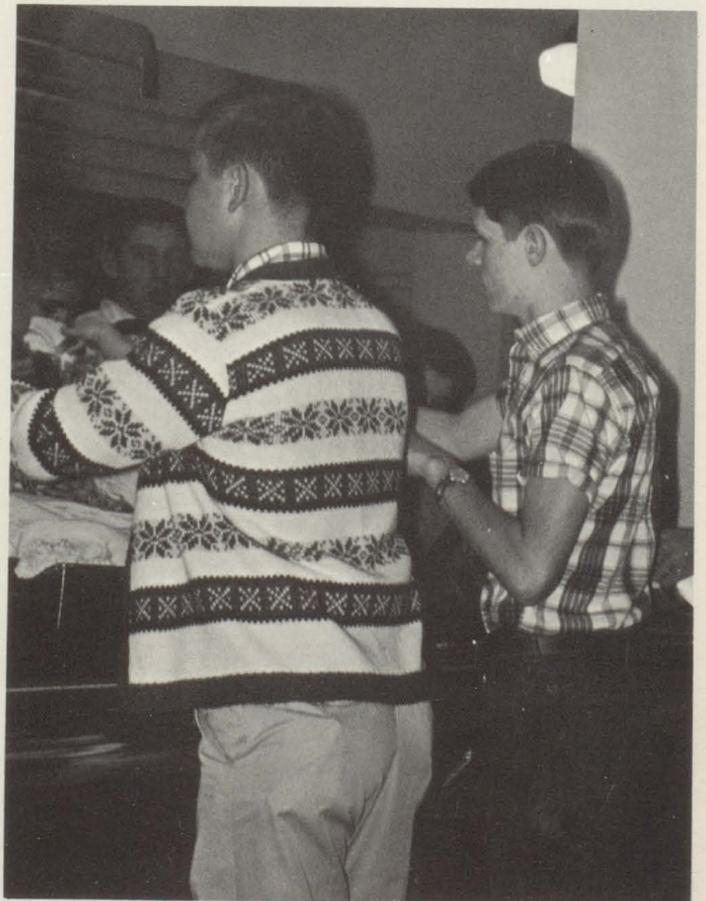

Study hall students use this valuable time to catch-up on disregarded homework.

We Live and Play Together

Senior Tom Yates, center, leads the football team in singing the victory song after the victory over Hartford City in the annual Homecoming game.

Willkie students spend weekends attending sports events.

The place, the people, and the events are all a part of our school associations. The changing times have brought improvements in our school and community. Our school offers outside activities which bring many enjoyed moments and produce individual leadership qualities. We will never forget beating our school's rival in athletics, our band's placing in the top ten at the State Fair, the memories of all the Homecoming activities or the glamour of the Junior-Senior Prom.

"Hey, we want a touchdown!"

Scenes from Around the City

Terry Hicks, a D.C.E. student who works half days at Edgewood Elementary School, reads a story to her class.

To the community, Willkie offers young adults to fill job opportunities and take part in Community Center projects. Through Key Club and Sunshine, Willkie gives aid to the needy. The band performs in parades for community affairs.

Some of the best years of our lives are spent here at Willkie where we share in her Destinies Unlimited.

Junior and Senior Plays Provide Many an

Make-up is an important part of any play. Sally Wimmer and Barb Clouser demonstrate how to apply make-up to Mark Updegraff and Phil Anderson.

On April 29 and 30, 1965, the Junior Class presented evening performances of "The Imaginary Invalid." The play was a French play, written by Moliere in the 17th century. The play was directed by Mrs. Charlotte Barr. Student directors were Susie Pearson and Karen Sanders. The play centered around Argon, who was a hypochondriac. Argon wanted his daughter to marry a doctor so he wouldn't have to pay medical expenses. Of course, his only problem was that Angelica, his daughter, did not love the doctor he had chosen. Angelica's lover, Cleante, disguises himself as her music teacher in order to be near her. The maid, Toinette, devises a scheme to fool Argon and get rid of the young man he has selected. In the end they make Argon a doctor so he can cure himself. Thus Angelica and her lover, Cleante, live happily ever after.

Members of the cast were as follows:

Enjoyed Moment to Willkie High Audiences

Petey--Mark Updegraff, tries his hypnotic powers on Izzy--Kent Justus, Mrs. Livermore--Barb Clouser, and Fife--Jeanne Drake.

"The Able Miss Cain" brought a roar of laughter to the Willkie High Stage. The play was directed by Mrs. Barr. Assisting Mrs. Barr were student directors, Susie Pearson and Greg Goins. The play was presented on November 22 and 23, 1965.

The play satirized the Prescott family. The Prescotts were a typical well-off family. When they learned that their rich Aunt Molly was coming to visit, and that she planned to leave all her money to her poorest nephew, they suddenly had dreadful financial reverses. As the plot unfolded, they were the ones who were deceived. Aunt Molly Cain was a very able person. She deceived them by coming to their home under false pretenses. She sent her secretary to impersonate her. The Prescotts learned their lesson the hard way.

The cast included:

Elinor Prescott	Karen Sanders
Leaper Prescott	Phil Anderson
Cheryl Prescott	Maureen Etchison
Petey Prescott	Mark Updegraff
Mary Jo Jennings	Linda Oliver
Jed Lawford	Steve Wingrove

Beauty and Victory Add to Homecoming Festivities

Barb Clouser demonstrates her ability as a Willkie High varsity cheerleader.

On an impressive but dismal Saturday, September 14, 1965, our mighty Panthers defeated the Hartford City Airdales in a decisive 19-0 victory.

During half-time ceremonies five pretty girls rode onto the field in gaily decorated convertibles for the crowning of the queen. Lovely Miss Ann Webb was crowned by her predecessor, Miss Margaret Wingrove.

Homecoming festivities came to a climax at the annual Homecoming dance where the theme, "September Silhouettes," provided memories meant to last a lifetime.

Lawrence Welk Section Highlights

Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Rick Cannon and Kathy Colcord, introduce one of the many selections presented during the 1965 Panther Band Varieties.

The 1965 Panther Band Variety Show, directed by Mr. Rex Jenkins and Mr. Clifford Brugger, began its evening of color entertainment by playing selections from the musical, "My Fair Lady." During the number Larry Parker, trumpet player, displayed his talent by performing a solo from this medley of tunes.

Other soloists for the night program included Tom Hocker, who played "Slaughter On Tenth Avenue," on the English Horn. Also Margaret Wingrove was featured at the Steinway with "Spellbound Concerto" and Mavis Kintzel performed "Tico, Tico" on the organ.

The combination of Panther Band and majorettes provided interesting numbers with "Tequila" and "The Russian Sailors' Dance" from the "Red Poppy." For the latter, dancers were trained by Mrs. Jan Clark, who taught them traditional dances of her homeland, Poland.

The Honor Choir, conducted by Mr. John Stites, sang four well-known songs from "My Fair Lady."

A popular section of the show was centered around the music of Lawrence Welk. Members of the Panther Band exemplified the Champagne Music Makers and the setting was complemented by a chandelier and bubbles.

The show was brought to a close by the Panther Band playing the patriotic, "America, The Beautiful" and audience and entire cast singing in unison.

Jane Clark leads the majorettes during the performance of "Tequila."

Steve Poole, Junior Class President, crowns lovely Miss Kay Wolff as the 1965 Prom Queen.

On the evening of May 16, 1965, couples strolled through the doors of the Elks Club. Inside they found a "Shangri-La" paradise. The ballroom was floating to the music of the Ray Sutherland orchestra.

The mist of unending happiness whirled out on the lawn and the patio into the night, where glowing volcanoes filled the air with fantasy, and candlelit tables were the scene of romanticism.

In the late twilight of Shangri-La Steve Poole, Junior Class president, presented Miss Kay Wolff with a jeweled crown, a dozen long-stem red roses, and an evening of glorious nobility as she reigned as the 1965

Prom queen in her pagoda made with a beautiful array of living pastel carnations. Miss Wolff and her escort, Mr. Denny Bozell, danced to the theme song while her court, Miss Linda Justice, Miss Linda Elliot, Miss Gail Stiner, Miss Michelle Kennedy, and Miss Cindy Reynolds, shared in her dreamland of paradise.

The service clubs of Elwood provided the prom-goers with excellent food throughout the course of the evening. After a couple of games of bowling and pool in the wee hours of the morning, the couples returned to the Elks wonderland to end the 1965 prom with a tasty breakfast.

Foreign Exchange Students Promote

Val spends an evening at home with her American brother, Steve and sisters, Dianne and Anita.

One of Val's most enjoyable activities was choir.

Val writes home often and also to her sister, who is an exchange student in Michigan.

Willkie High was very proud and honored to have as members of the student body Miss Waltraud Schauble and Mr. Lennart Melander. They were the two foreign exchange students sent to us this year through the Youth For Understanding placement service. They were sponsored by the Willkie High Student Council.

Waltraud came to us from Oldenburg, Germany. She is an honorary member of the Student Council, Thespians, Modern Language Club, and Future Teachers of America.

Her subjects this year included U.S. History, Civics, Sociology, Speech, Choir, Band, Biology, and Drivers Education. Her American parents were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linegar.

Perhaps the biggest and most exciting part of Val's and Lennart's school activities was the International Day held on March 4th. They played host and hostess to students, like themselves from 14 different countries. It was a wonderful time for the foreign exchange students to get together and compare notes and talk of home.

Throughout the year Val and Lennart have visited different groups in the community and presented talks.

Better Understanding of Homelands

Lennart and his American brother, Tom Crimans, and a friend, Paul Willhoite, stop for a soda after school.

As a member of the Panther Band Lennart practices the cymbals.

Lennart's home is in Stockholm, Sweden. His American parents were Mr. and Mrs. William Crimans.

Lennart's subjects this year were: Speech, Sociology, Civics, Advanced Composition, U.S. History, Spanish, Journalism, Band, and Driver's Education.

Lennart kept busy this year by joining the Key Club, Student Council, Crescent staff, and was treasurer of the Modern Language Club. He also participated in Cross Country and Golf.

Their coming to America has helped them understand our customs, the people, and the principles of our country. They have helped all of us to have a better understanding of the people and life in other lands.

In the short year that they have been among us they have worked their way into our hearts. They have contributed so much to our lives, in school and out of school, that we will always remember Val and Lennart as our "pride and joy."

Lennart and Tom relax at home for a quiet evening of reading.

Destinies Unlimited:

At Willkie organizations are a fundamental part of school life. Through organizations we can function in interests which we enjoy and share these interests with other students, who enjoy them also. Willkie offers an unlimited number of organizations. Some of these activities entertain the student body and some aid the community. Still others bring forth individual leadership. Our outside activities are important to the character of the school. Whether in competition with another band, debating, or whatever it may be, we strive to make these activities reflect the true light of our school.

Pleasures afford more delight when shared with others.

Record Events for '66 Crescent

This has been a very busy year for the 1966 Crescent staff, co-editors, and section editors. They have spent many many endless hours planning ladder diagrams, cropping pictures, and finally--meeting deadlines.

Many students fail to realize the work involved in composing this piece of literary work which really serves as three books in one--a memory book to the students, a reference book for faculty and administrators, and an accredited accomplishment for staff members.

With their resolution of "changes and ideas unlimited," Susie Pearson and Jane Cornelious spent two very busy weeks during this past summer attending the Journalism Institute at Indiana University. At Indiana University they learned the fundamentals used to produce an authoritative and entertaining yearbook.

A person who deserves unlimited credit is our sponsor, Mrs. Hilda Chapman. Mrs. Chapman has unrelentingly given her time and effort--not to mention her patience--to help anyone and everyone.

A yearbook is the result of the efforts and talents of many people for the pleasure of others. Working to make this yearbook the "best ever" has been a very worthwhile experience for the entire staff, who gave their free time and lunch hours to produce for you the 1966 Crescent.

Co-editors Susie Pearson and Jane Cornelious work diligently to meet the hectic deadlines.

Membership in the National Honor Society is an honor reserved for only those seniors and juniors who have shown a serious interest in their studies as well as in extracurricular activities and are also able to maintain a B or higher average. These students are selected as probationary members by certain members of the faculty. Seniors, at the close of the school year, who have lived up to the given qualifications, are then installed as permanent members.

To be selected for membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor a student can receive in Willkie High and the students chosen must show that they have established well-rounded characters and must exert an eagerness and willingness to work. Those selected must also act as leaders of their class and of the school--not as followers.

All in all, the members of the National Honor Society are very proud of their attainment and they have every reason to be so.

Officers of the National Honor Society this year are: Donita Shepard, vice-president; Hal Julius, president; and Theresa Hicks, secretary.

This year the Megaphone Staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Nina Hiatt, worked diligently to record the events and the activities of the Willkie High students. This data was in turn used to produce the monthly edition of the Willkie High newspaper, the Megaphone. The primary purpose of the Megaphone is to present to the student body a written account of school happenings.

The Megaphone's first semester co-editors were Linda Oliver and Steve Poole. Second semester Linda took over with full stewardship.

Megaphone editors, Linda Oliver and Steve Poole, strive to meet the expectations of Willkie students.

"With the assistance of Mr. Donald Brown, Troupe 58 proudly presents . . ." This speech has been heard many times by the students of Willkie High throughout the years of the Troupe's existence at our school. The club's purpose is to promote the dramatic arts. Every year a series of plays are produced by different groups within the organization. In the spring the whole organization takes on the task of developing a production on a much larger scale.

The club tries to keep its membership limited so as not to have too large a group. The membership now stands at approximately 50 students.

A group of apprentices are selected every fall. To become a full-fledged Thespian, 10 points must be earned. Points may be acquired by acting in a play, directing a play, or by participation in a production through stage crews and make-up committees.

This organization adds to the cultural part of our school society and is very much appreciated and we are proud to have such a group in our school.

Debaters Gain Knowledge Through Research

FRONT ROW: P. Updike, J. Powell, G. Butcher, J. Sharp, J. Scott, L. Murray, C. Lehman. BACK ROW: S. Linegar, S. Han, B. Bishop, M. Winings, T. Floyd, R. Edens, and Mr. Brown.

Under the leadership of Mr. Donald Brown the Debate Club has come to be an outstanding organization in our school. Through hard work, research, time, and extra effort, these boys have built up their store of knowledge so that they might travel throughout the state to compete with other schools.

Every year there is one main debate subject that all the boys work on. This year the subject was stated as thus; "Resolved: That the Federal Government should adopt compulsory arbitration for the settlement of labor management disputes in basic industries."

This year the club, composed of varsity and sub-varsity, have traveled to Ball State University, Butler University, New Castle, Peru, and Kokomo. The varsity competes only with the varsity teams of the other schools and the sub-varsity competes only with the sub-varsity of other schools. The sub-varsity attends the meets in a competing capacity only when an extra judge is able to attend with the boys.

Modern Language Club Enlightens Students

Modern Language Club officers are: Fred Rickabaugh, president; Linda Oliver, secretary; Greg Goins, vice-president; and Lennart Melander, treasurer.

The Modern Foreign Language Club was newly organized this year under the supervision of Mrs. Guerrero and Mr. Herndon. The club is composed of French and Spanish students.

Their first big event was the annual Christmas caroling party. The club sang songs at Mr. Cope-land's home, nursing homes, and Mercy Hospital.

The club caroled through the halls. Each foreign language group also sang two songs for the High School Christmas Party. They also made a tape for the WBMP radio station, which was played throughout the Holiday Season.

The club reorganized the pen pal exchange this year. In March they presented two plays in French and Spanish. They sold concessions at basketball games to earn money to carry on various activities.

Some of the seniors observed classes all day at Ball State University during National Foreign Language Week. The seniors in both French and Spanish took college achievement tests in their respective languages.

The club had its annual banquet in the spring. All awards were presented at this time.

Latin Club Intrigued Many Students

The Latin Club is one of the largest clubs at Willkie High and is sponsored by Mrs. Sharp. It has 87 members and is composed largely of freshmen and sophomores.

Two consuls, a scriptor, and a quaestor were elected to help Mrs. Sharp carry out the duties and responsibilities of the club. Phil Updike and Clifford Lehman were elected to serve as consuls of the club this year. Robin Elston was elected scriptor and Barb Knauer was elected quaestor.

To be a member of this club, a student must have taken Latin for at least one semester.

The purpose of the club is to help the students learn and understand more about Roman cultures and customs.

Meetings were held every third Wednesday of the month and were conducted by one of the consuls.

One of the club's annual projects is singing Christmas carols in the halls of the hospital and in nursing homes throughout the community.

The annual initiation of new "Romans" is held at the close of the first semester when freshmen have completed their required one semester of Latin.

Student government takes shape at Willkie High through the Student Council which strives to form a smooth relationship between the faculty and the student body. This organization enables the students to express their opinions about their school environment. Through the combined efforts of the 1964-65 Council and the now existing one, Willkie High proudly had their own foreign exchange students. They were Miss Waltraud Schauble from Oldenburg, Germany, and Mr. Lennart Melander from Stockholm, Sweden. The program is now in its second year, being started last year.

The Student Council also had charge of many other activities including den activities every Wednesday night, the Morp dance, Homecoming activities, the Halloween party, a Beatnik dance, and the annual International Day program.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization for students enrolled on the business course, or those simply interested in the world of business. Under the direction of Miss Walsh, Mrs. Ottinger, and Mrs. Kintzel, the FBLA, a newly established organization at Willkie High, has made a very successful start.

Willkie's chapter, which is affiliated with the state chapter, has adopted the same motto as the national organization--"Service, Education, Progress." Its colors are royal blue on gold as are those of the state chapter.

The FBLA members pledge themselves to twelve purposes. One of the more important is to develop competent, aggressive leadership; another, to strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work; and probably the most necessary--to encourage business occupations.

The FBLA and its sponsors are busily looking toward the future at which time they hope to establish the FBLA as one of Willkie's most successful and interesting organizations, and to have inspired in the minds of its members the importance of responsibility and the willingness to work.

FBLA officers are: Leslie Loy, reporter; Doug Balsler, treasurer; Mrs. Ottinger, sponsor; Carol Kilgore, recording secretary; Miss Walsh, sponsor; Terry Trimble, vice-president; Mrs. Kintzel, sponsor; Marsha Burton, president; Joy Burton, historian; Christy Kochman, corresponding secretary.

Key Club Builds Citizens of Tomorrow

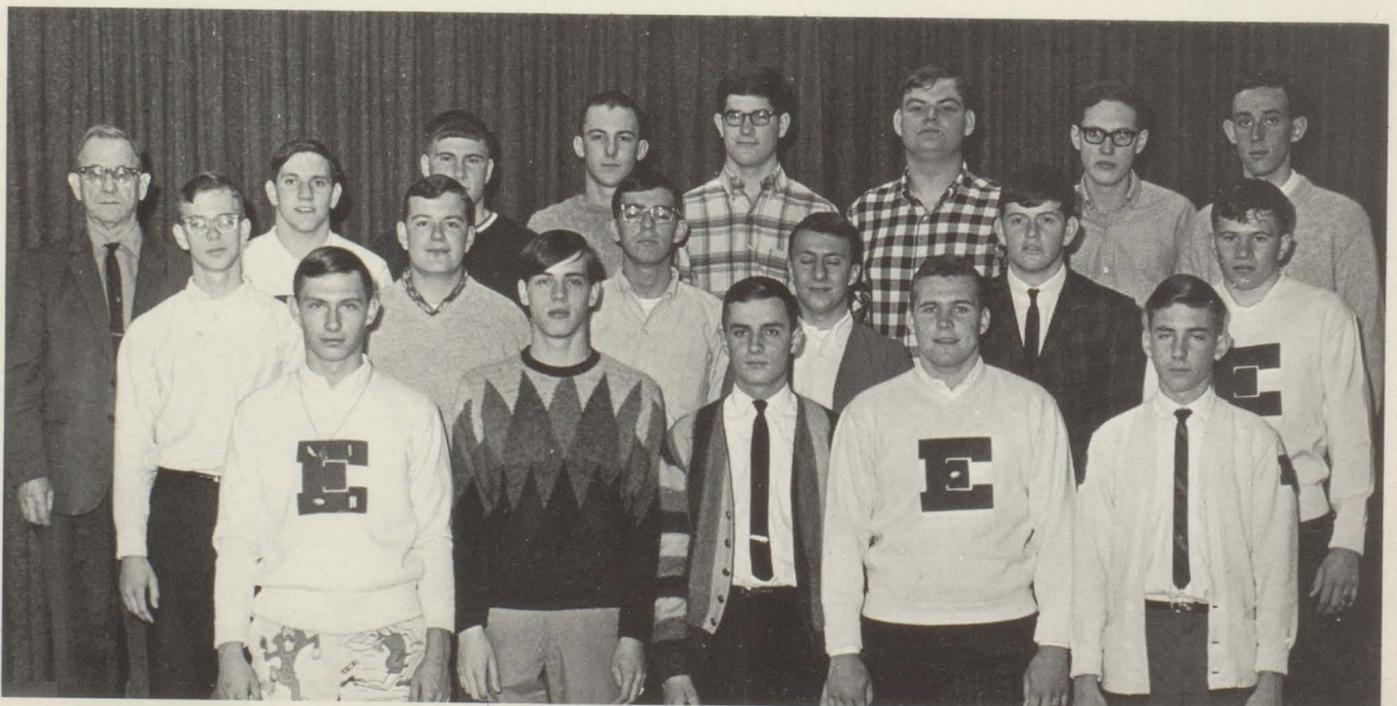

Key Club officers are: Jeff Marcuson, vice-president; Tom Yates, secretary; Phil Anderson, president; and Mr. Snyder, sponsor.

The Key Club is sponsored by the Elwood Kiwanis Club. Leading the club's activities this year as president is Phil Anderson. The other officers are: Jeff Marcuson, vice-president; Tom Yates, secretary; and Charles Shaw, treasurer. Mr. Ralph Snyder is the faculty sponsor. The Key Club is a service club and meets once a week at the Elwood Community Center.

The main project under consideration this year was a paperback book store in our school. Key Club sponsor the Cheer Club which sends flowers to shut-ins and helps rest homes.

The highlight of every year's activities is the Key Club Convention. The club sends delegates to the Claypool Hotel where they meet hundreds of followers from all over the United States and Canada. The purpose of the convention is to compare experiences and to exchange ideas for the betterment of each club.

The goal of the Sunshine Society is well exemplified by their motto, "Others." Some of the activities of the society this year included making Christmas baskets, selling candy, and having a Christmas party.

The creed of the society well explains the purpose of their organization. "With love in my heart, forgetting self, and with charity for all, I will make the object of my life helpfulness and kindness to others. I shall try to fit myself to give intelligent service in making my community a safer and more beautiful place in which to live. Thus, will my own life become rich and complete."

The Sunshine Society truly tries to show what can be gained by giving instead of receiving.

This year a new club was added to our list of school organizations. Willkie High is now a member of VICA, a national organization. The VICA has two chapters, Building and Trades and Machine Shop.

The officers of Building and Trades are as follows: Mike Alexander, president; John Wright, vice-president; Tom Martin, secretary; and Tom Courtney, treasurer. Mr. Watson is the faculty sponsor. This club built a garage at the York and Dunnichay Funeral Home and they also built a trailer for storing equipment which they will use this summer to build a house.

The officers of the Machine Shop are as follows: Ray Stover, president; Jack Werline, vice-president; Richard Harris, secretary; Mark Richwine, treasurer; and Fred Mort, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Rayshich is the faculty advisor. The primary concern of this club is to promote better relationships between the employer and employee, who is now a student in vocational training. The club plans to meet the various employers, talk to them and have them visit the machine shop. They also hope to get the public interested in the club.

F.F.A. and Concessions Execute Many Services

One club which brings a lot of enjoyment to the fans of Willkie High athletic events is known as the Concessions Club. This group is overlooked by many and is unknown to some, but it is vital to our school. The main purpose of this organization is to supply refreshments to the sports fans. This club also serves as a storehouse of funds to the other school organizations when they need financial aid. This service is greatly appreciated by everyone. Mr. Phillip Brown is the head sponsor with Mrs. Starkey, Mrs. Spreen, and Mr. Everidge on the committee.

Another important group at Willkie High is the Future Farmers of America. This club has taken great pride in their main project this year. It consisted of a 32-acre plot of corn. This chapter has been very active this year. Members of the group attended the National FFA Convention at Kansas City, and State Convention at Purdue University, and various district meetings. Special events included a Parent-Son Banquet and a camping trip to the Yellow Woods State Forest. This year the boys presented a Thanksgiving basket and a Christmas basket to two needy families. The group is sponsored by Mr. Robert Plunkett.

Small Music Groups Displayed Talent and Enthusiasm

SAFARIS: Carol Yarling; Helen Bouslog; Jeanne Drake; Marilyn Swift, acc.; Vicki Hiatt; Maureen Etchison; and Melody Fouts.

This year four vocal groups performed before various school and civic functions. Three of these groups were composed of members of the Willkie High choir. One of these groups, the Safaris, was a girl's sextet. It consisted of three seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore. These girls were very active and very much in demand throughout the year. Another group was the Trilights, a girl's trio. It consisted of one senior and two juniors. This was a new group at Willkie and was very active in its first year of existence. The final group from the choir was the Boy's Quartet. It consisted of three juniors and one sophomore. This was also a group just formed this year. The boy's specialty was the singing of barbershop music which was well received by the student body and civic functions at which they performed.

Some members of the Glee Club also formed a group. This group was known as the Harmonettes. The group delighted various audiences throughout the year with their singing abilities.

Kwalik, R. Robinson, D. Sherman, J. Claghorn, and Mr. Baker.

This was the second year for the Future Teachers of America. The FTA was originated due to the need for an organization to aid students who play to become teachers. It has proved to be an interesting and enlightening organization for all members.

The purpose of the club is to help students become better acquainted with the teaching profession and to help them decide whether their life's vocation lies in this field. The seven good qualities of a teacher are named in the FTA pledge as follows: "A teacher must have physical vitality, moral discrimination, mental vigor, wholesome personality, helpfulness, knowledge, and leadership." The club holds its regular meetings once a month.

The FTA members served as hosts for Career Day and Open House. They also sent delegates to the state convention in the fall. At the convention Dave Sherman was elected fourth vice-president and Cathy Svendsen was chosen as Miss Future Teacher of America for Area 4.

The state theme for this year is--"The teacher: Will we measure up?"

The International Future Teachers of America's project for this year is to get an FTA chapter started in a school near your own.

With an accent on harmony the choir performed at various school and civic functions. The choir performed before the entire student body at the annual Christmas and Thanksgiving programs.

This year the choir initiated a new and different concept of performing by having various "walk-on" programs. These programs were used mostly at the many civic performances.

The group also performed at the annual Madison County Choral Festival which was held in March.

The officers of this year's choir are as follows: Jane Cornelious, president; Jeff Hoffman, vice-president; Kathy Fetz, secretary; Tammy Fetz, treasurer; and Nancy Garner, scrapbook keeper.

The girls have chosen navy blue, A-line skirts with long-sleeved white blouses as their attire.

For a money-making project they sold tickets to their special musical, held in April.

"A Potpourri of Christmas Songs" was the theme for the club's Christmas program which was held on December 17.

The group also accompanied the choir to the Madison County Choral Festival in March.

Resplendent in flashy new uniforms, our Panther Band is an organization we are most proud of for the many honors it has brought to our school and community. In the short time of six months, $12,000 was raised through the co-operation of many in the community. The uniforms are a rich navy blue, with a scarlet stripe down the sides. The white and scarlet overlays may be removed, thus revealing a concert uniform, complete with scarlet cummerbund and bow ties. White naugahyde hats with white plumes complete the outfit. The band first wore the new uniforms at the "500" parade and pre-race activities.

Last August, following countless hours of hard work, our Mighty Panther Band placed 8th at the Indiana State Fair Band Contest, ahead of both Anderson and Alexandria.

The Panther Band also performed at other events including the Thanksgiving and Christmas chapels, halftime at the football and basketball games, and the annual Variety Show presented in March.

Assisting Director Rex Jenkins and Assistant Director Clifford Brugger as officers were: Steve Wingrove, captain; Jane Cornelious, lieutenant; Dave Sherman, drum major; Vicki Hillard, head majorette; and Cathy Svendsen, assistant head majorette.

Destinies Unlimited

Willkie offers a variety of curricula. No matter what vocation a student plans to pursue, there is a course that will best suit his needs. The academic and technical courses are designed for the college-bound students. For the students entering the business world there is the Business Education course. Industrial Arts and Home Economics give a knowledge of experience in selecting a job and in the role of housewife, respectively. Today, more than ever before, we find a need to learn all that is possible and advance into the world as young adults.

Through English Courses We Achieve the

Tom Farr receives help from Miss Diegel as he compiles reference material.

For one to achieve success in our modern world, he must have a wide knowledge of the usage of his own language.

Nothing is more important to us than being able to communicate intelligently with our fellow man. To gain this ability, three years of English is required. Often many students further their knowledge by taking a fourth year of the English subject.

First semester English is devoted to the grammar and correct usage of the language. With at least three semesters of this, we can help our understanding grow. Second semester English introduces us to the literature of many famous people.

But English is not just grammar and literature. Book reports give us an even wider view of the world, and its happenings in nonfiction and develop our minds with the reading of good fiction.

Many different areas of English are offered at Willkie. These include journalism, speech, advanced composition, and honors English.

As we each take our respective roads of life, our English will play a large part in determining whether we travel a narrow path or a wide super highway.

Larry Frye is shown giving the traditional six weeks book report as Mrs. Starkey listens intently.

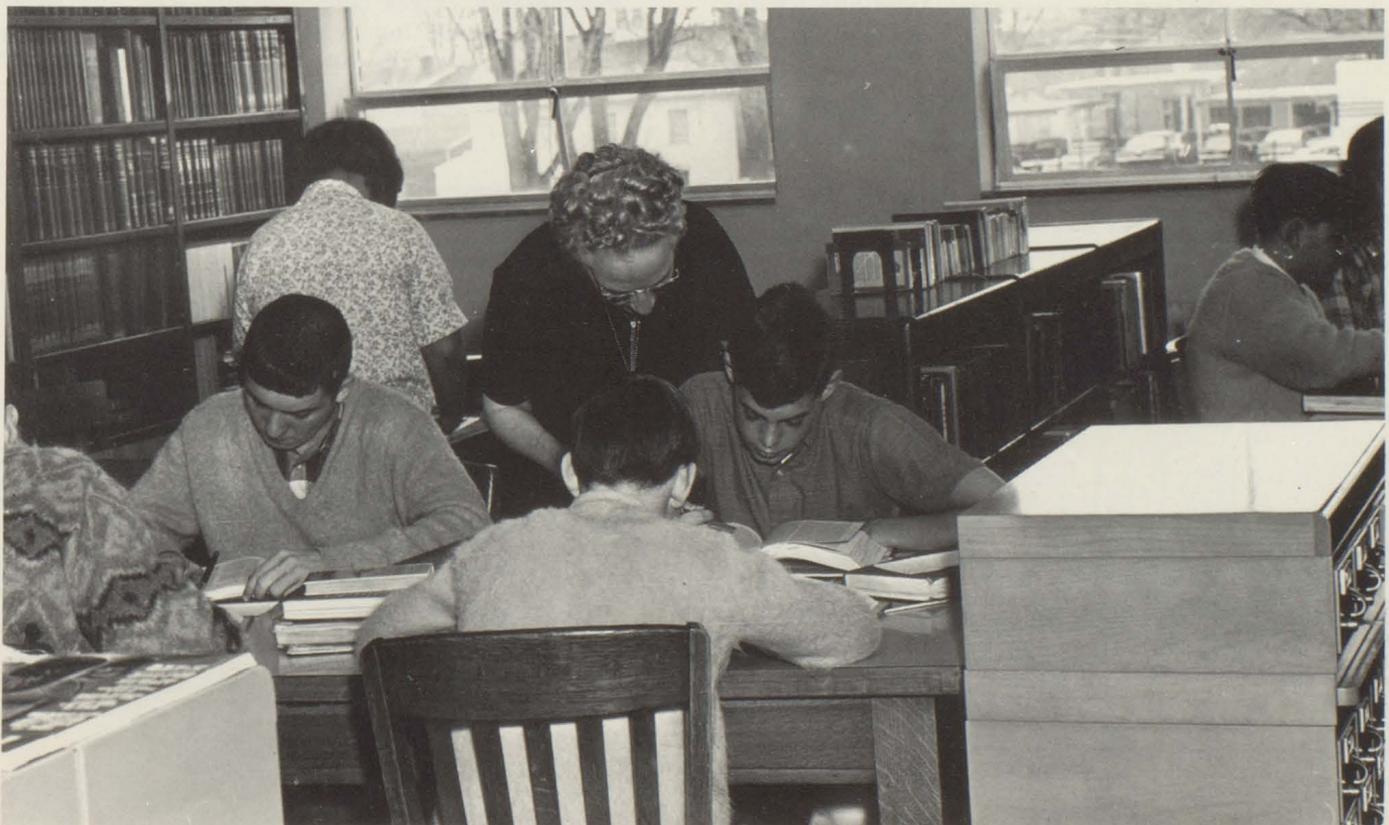

Ability to Communicate with Mankind

Miss Digel helps sophomore Jim Hopper with an English problem in the high school library.

Science and Mathematics Create a

Judy Helping and Tim Shickley measure weights during a physics lab.

Lynn Davies and Bob Baker try out some of the new equipment in chemistry class.

Each new discovery about life, every new drug, and every technical detail mastered in the conquest for space has been based on some field of science. Science has altered civilization drastically over the centuries in communication, industry, medicine, lighting, clothing, and in general understanding of the universe.

Science has been systemized and arranged into categories of the abstract sciences, natural sciences, and human sciences. The science program of Willkie High school offers courses of advanced biology, biology, chemistry, physical science, and physics. The science department enhances these programs by providing field trips, films, and interesting labs.

Innumerable career opportunities await aggressive young scientists skilled in some scientific field. Not many other sources of work can provide progress and the betterment of mankind so wonderfully as science.

Foundation for the Building Blocks of Life

Bill Rebuck and Larry Crouse look on as Phil Anderson explains a difficult trigonometry problem.

A science treating of the exact relations existing between two quantities and operations and of the methods by which quantities sought are deducible from others known or supposed is mathematics.

Mathematics has been hailed as the "Queen of the Sciences" because its various fields affect so many aspects of our daily lives. It is almost impossible to explore and master all of the branches of math in a lifetime.

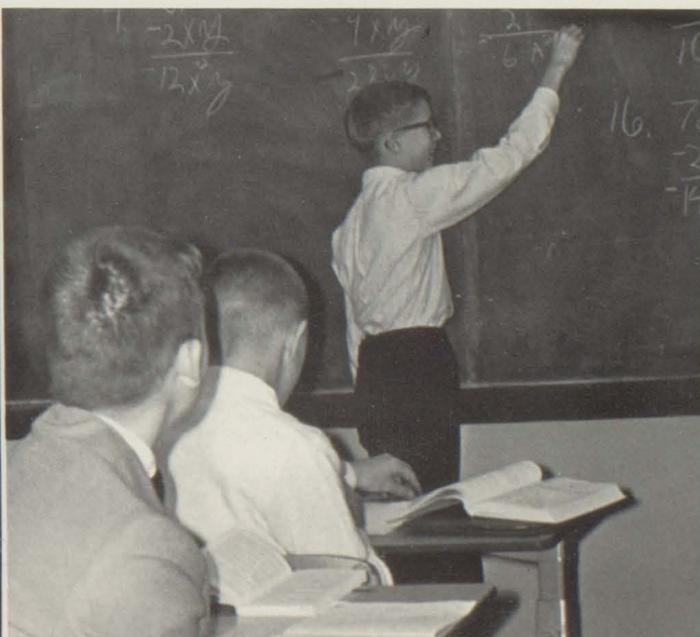

Willkie High tries to offer every student the opportunity to choose the math courses which will prepare him for future advancement. These choices may be made from algebra, plane geometry, trigonometry, advanced algebra, senior math, and general math courses.

Mathematics offer a wide range of vocational opportunities.

Mrs. Spreen shows Leslie Henderson one of the fundamentals of plane geometry.

In Our Ever Demanding World Our

Beginning students learn the basic fundamentals of the French language.

Foreign language plays an important part in the modern world of today. This is one of the reasons why we should feel very pleased that here at Willkie first, second, and third year Latin, French, and Spanish are offered every year.

This year we are continuing to use last year's new equipment; the new language lab tapes and books. These sources are helping us in learning to speak and write the language. We are also learning the culture of the countries where these different languages are now spoken.

Latin, taught by Mrs. Sharp, helps us understand the origin of our modern languages; while Spanish, taught by Mrs. Guerrero, captures the essence of South America and Spain. French, taught by Mr. Herndon, puts us a little closer to France and its different colonies.

In this world of today, foreign language, a means of communication, is a vital part of the curriculum of our schools today.

Mrs. Guerrero aids students in Spanish pronunciation on the portable lab.

Ties Must Be Bound Closer Together

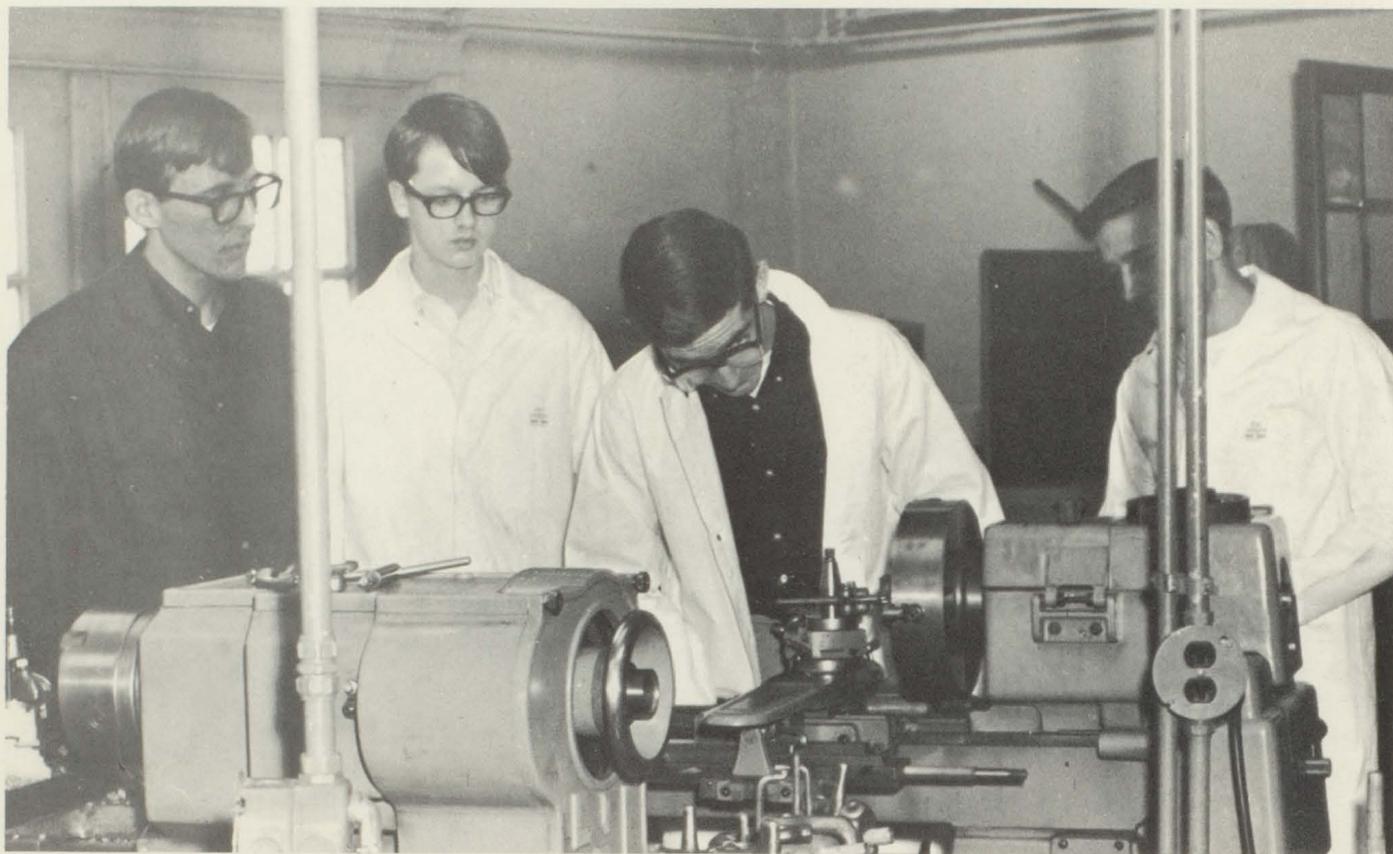

French, Spanish, and Latin students get into the holiday spirit with a Christmas party.

Paula Mitchell and Dana Davies use word cards to show the different verb forms in Latin.

Industrial Arts Provides Needed

Scott Norris, Scott Fry, Dave Kohn, and Richard Harris are shown working on a project in machine shop.

Mr. Largent assists Eldie Wentz in printing class as Dale Bell, Bill Niccum, and Bill Noel set up prints.

Experience for Future Job Opportunities

One of the many subjects offered on the Industrial Arts course is blue-print reading.

The Industrial Arts Department at Willkie High trains today the people who will become the craftsmen of tomorrow. This department becomes more important each year as additional equipment and courses are added. Some graduates of the course seek additional training; others go directly into the work force. Either way, the industrial arts department seeks to provide the best instruction possible.

The courses offered include printing, electricity, mechanical drawing, woodworking, machine shop, and blue print reading. Each is taught by qualified instructors using the latest available equipment. Maximum safety precautions are enforced at all times.

Although the majority of students taking industrial arts courses are boys, a course in Home Mechanics is offered for girls.

Members of the Building Trades are shown as they build a trailer which was used to transport their equipment.

Art and Music Provided Students

Mr. Miller instructs his 6th period art class on the anatomy of man.

One of the main objectives of a good school is to present a curriculum that offers subjects that will enrich our lives as well as increase our knowledge.

The art classes of Willkie offer a wide scope of projects in which one may express himself. In all ages man has expressed himself with paintings and other artistic forms. As life continues, he will still vent his feelings in shapes of art.

All art is divided into two branches; the fine arts, in which emotional expressiveness is the sole objective, and the useful arts, in which utility is the chief objective.

In both branches of art, students here at Willkie High have the opportunity to work. Under the direction of Mr. Miller and Mrs. Guerrero, the students have completed many projects with an enthusiasm only interest and learning can bring out.

Karen Sanders strives to perfect her painting in art class.

with a Form for Expressing Themselves

Mr. Rex Jenkins, band director, leads the band through various numbers during the daily 6th period class.

In this day and age when music and the teenager are mentioned, one usually thinks that all of the younger generation has their minds geared to a loud drum beat and a few guitars. But every school with a music department proves that this statement is incorrect.

Our school offers a very good variety of musical participation in respect to the facilities.

The Girls Glee Club and Choir, under the direction of Mr. Clifford Brugger, work on a variety of medleys for their own pleasure and the pleasure of others. Often they present their talent to the community and county. Within both groups there are various smaller groups.

The Panther Band, directed by Mr. Rex Jenkins, furthers its members' knowledge with many numbers of famous composers as well as modern composers.

With all the enthusiasm shown in the phases of the music department, it is certain that we have gained a wider background for our future lives.

Members of the choir enjoy singing many of the popular songs of today.

The Duty of Becoming a Better Citizen

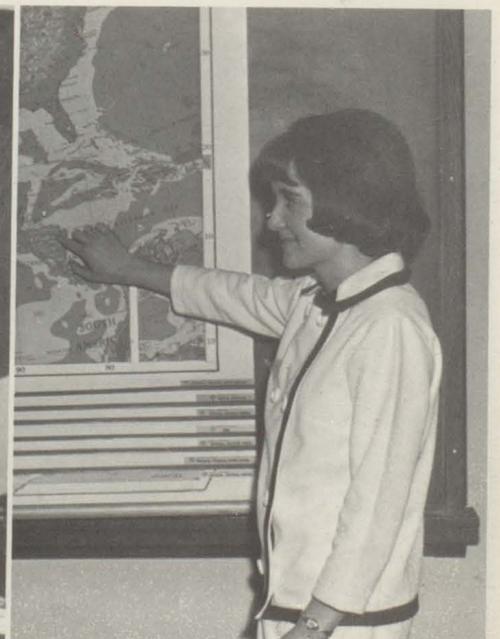

Mrs. Sheridan arouses the interests of students enrolled in her World History class.

It is the duty of every high school student to become a better citizen. Willkie High offers many courses whose aims are to prepare these youths to meet the problems of tomorrow. One learns of past and present cultures in world history, geography, U.S. history, civics, sociology, economics, and psychology. These studies inform us of problems which earlier men incurred. With a knowledge of these problems, we can build a better America in the future when we take our places in our society.

Through courses such as these the students have a clear understanding of their future roles as adult citizens.

Members of Mr. Brown's Geography class proudly display the maps they prepared as a class project. KNEELING are: K. Tharp, L. Winings, B. Clouser, K. Clouser, C. Hasecuster. STANDING are: A. Claghorn, M. Downing, T. Murray, D. Balsler, and Mr. Brown.

Carol Kilgore points out an area of national concern during U.S. History class.

Is Learning Business and Government

The students enrolled in Bookkeeping work diligently to keep accurate and up-to-date records.

The business world is all around us, every minute of the day. The Business Education Course at Willkie High allows students to gain the much needed knowledge which is essential when they emerge into this world of business.

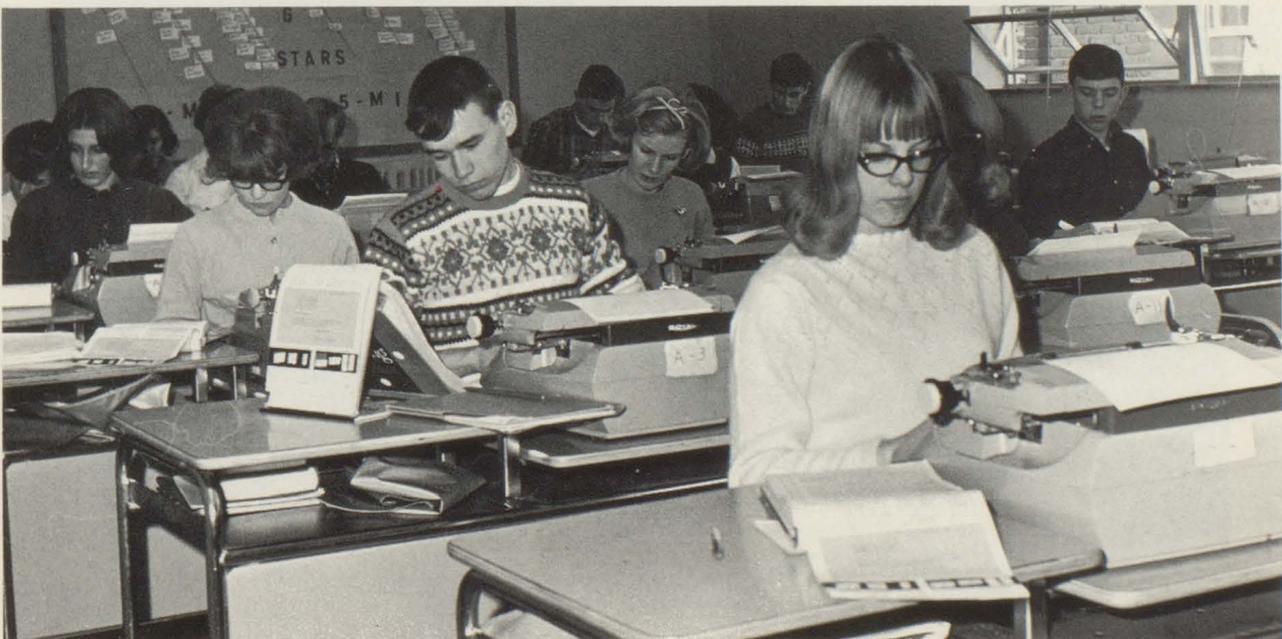

Subjects such as office machines, typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, business law, and business math cover every area of business. Once the fundamentals have been learned, there is almost always an advanced class to further the student's knowledge.

The teaching staff and equipment used on the business course have helped students to understand business and how to apply what they have learned to school and other forms of every day life.

Business is an everyday occurrence that the students of Willkie High's Business Course can take in stride because they are prepared.

In order to complete assignments, students conscientiously use their time in typing class.

Home Economics Stresses Homemaking

Marion Parsons, Cheryl Cook, Beth Morgan, and Bonnie Blackburn work on home projects in beginning sewing after having finished their required projects.

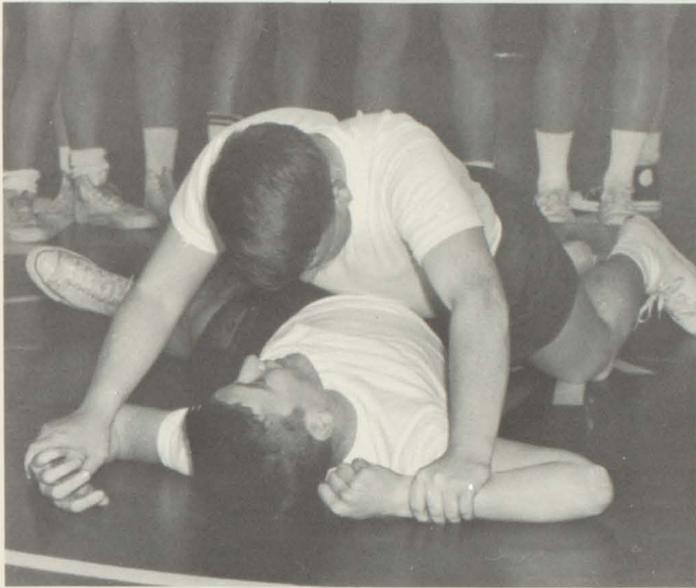

Home Economics prepares girls for the duties of being a good housekeeper, master cook, seamstress, mother, as well as many other jobs which a girl will need to know in the future. This course is enjoyable as well as knowledgeable. There are many beginning and advanced classes from which to choose. A boy's class is also taught. Thanks to Mrs. Tolle and Mrs. Schwear who do their very best to teach the girls as well as the boys the essentials of home economics which are used every day.

In Mrs. Tolle's foods class girls learn the essentials of being a good cook.

Driver Education and Physical Education Develop Skills

Boy's Physical Education classes learn the techniques of wrestling.

Girl's P.E. classes warm up with a game of volley ball.

Every freshman and sophomore in Wilkie High School is aided in becoming a better person both mentally and physically through health and physical education. Physical education develops the body through sports and gymnastics. New sports such as archery have been added to the curriculum over the years.

Driver Education is becoming a more and more popular class every semester. Students are realizing the importance of skillful driving. Through this course they can acquire these skills, and learn the rules of the roads. Knowing you have passed such a course seems to make the driver's test a little easier.

Mr. Shook displays the parts of the automobile to his driver education students.

D.C.E. and N.Y.C. Prepared

Mr. Plunkett answers one of the many questions brought up by students concerning their jobs.

Diversified Cooperation Education is one of the courses in which the student actually has two classrooms. The first classroom is located at school. In this classroom, Mr. Robert Plunkett teaches general and specific related items which the students can apply to their jobs. The second classroom is the establishment where the student works. In this classroom the student learns from actual experience and the employer helps the student during his training. It is here that the student can apply what he has learned from his D.C.E. class at school.

The work experience helps the student decide what kind of vocation he will enter, as well as train him in a certain vocation which he might use later in life.

D.C.E. has grown to be a very popular course to the students of Willkie High.

Donita Shepard hurriedly types some important material for Mr. Hinds, for whom she works on the D.C.E. course.

Students for Future Vocations

N.Y.C. class, under the guidance of Mr. Ray, study during their class time hours.

A new course has been added to the Wendell Willkie curriculum this year. It is known as the Elwood Neighborhood Youth Corps. It is commonly called N.Y.C. We are happy to report that Willkie High is among the first schools to establish N.Y.C. in Indiana. Besides Elwood six other programs have organized in Indiana. This course under the direction of Mr.

George Ray requires three hours of classroom work and three hours of work experience. The student must be from 16 to 21 years of age. N.Y.C. is available for students up to two years and a total of three credits are given per semester. There is a limit of 50 students and this year 43 students are enrolled.

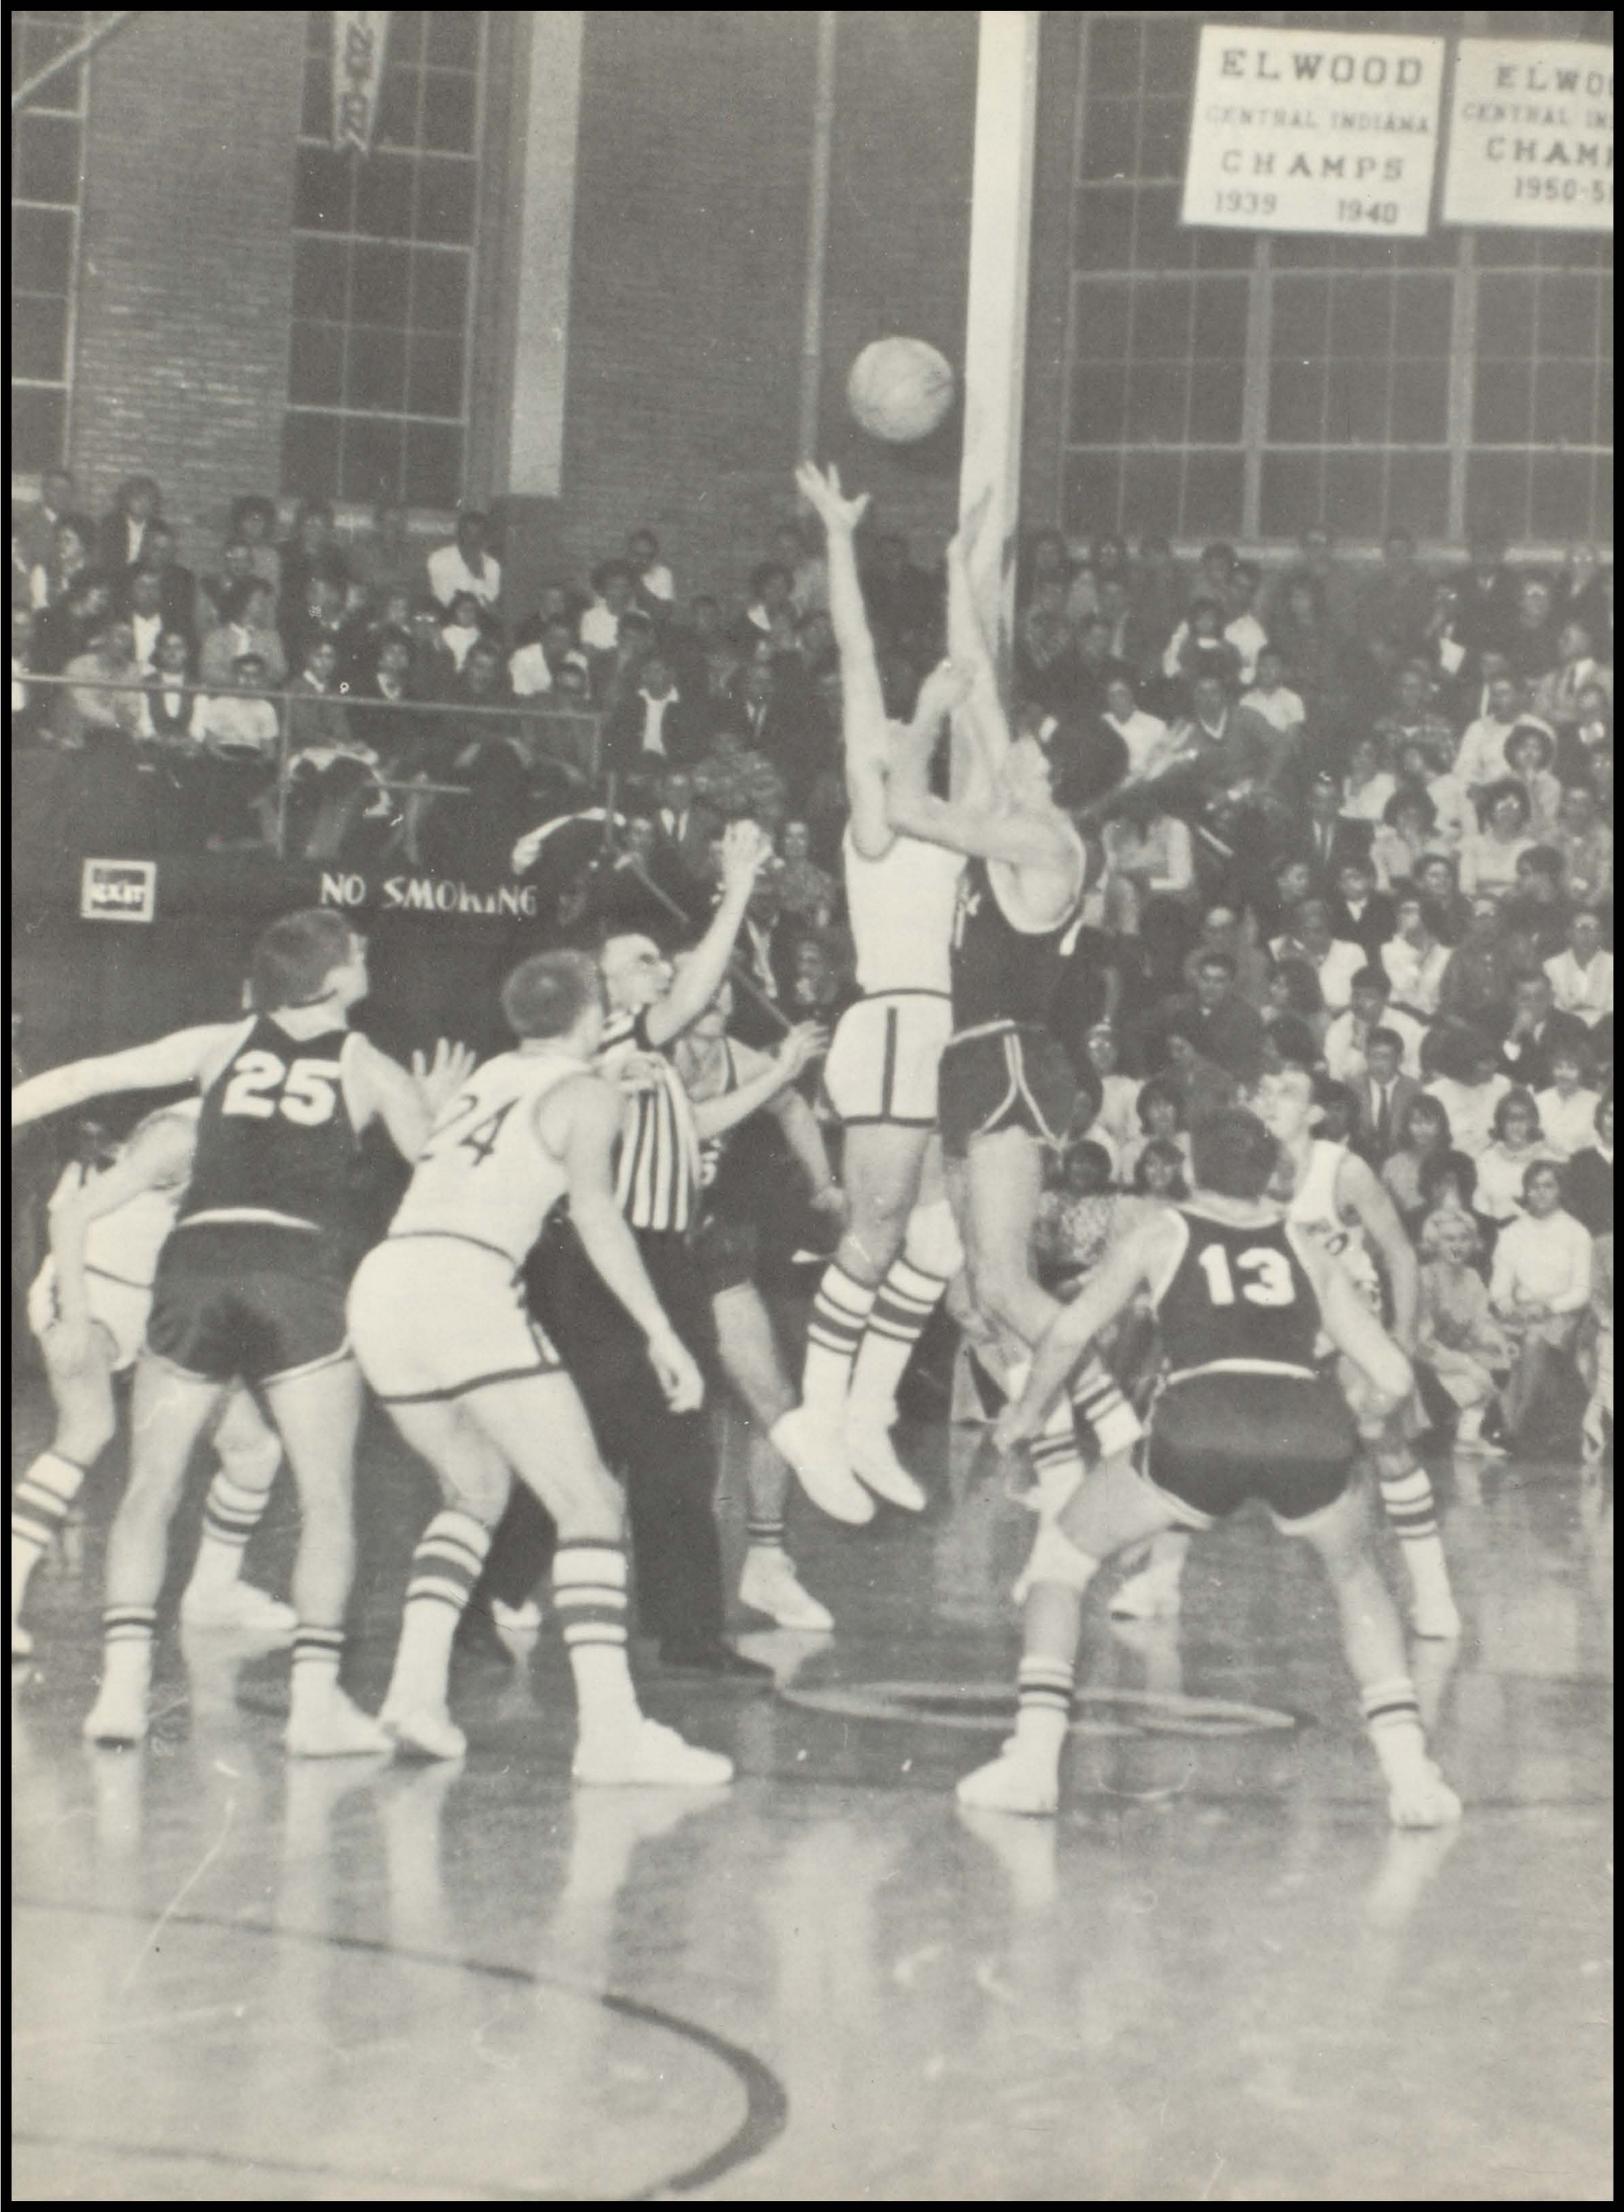

N.Y.C. student Susan Beeman works daily in the high school office.

Destinies Unlimited:

Athletics build strong bodies and sturdy minds. The important aspect of athletics is not in winning, although it does provide impetus in all sports. The true value in athletics comes from the amount of pleasure gained. Another important factor is team co-operation and spirit. Willkie's department of athletics has grown in recent years. This year is added a wrestling team. A vital factor in all competitive sports is school spirit. The success of the team depends largely upon the backing of the student body.

The E-Men under the sponsorship of Mr. Larry Shook performed many useful acts. The lettermen sell concessions at the junior high and freshman games. They, in addition, provide for the printing of the programs which are used for the enjoyment of the fans at each home football and basketball game.

It is indeed an honor to belong to the E-Men Club. To be a member the boys must participate in a sport and earn a letter. The E-Men help to stimulate school spirit and promote interest and enthusiasm.

A very active group at Willkie this year was the 25 members of the Gymnastics Club. Under the direction of Mr. Mike Johnson, the group put on three half-time shows during the basketball season. The first show included the entire group. The next half-time performance featured select members who performed floor exercises. The last half-time show featured the team members, who demonstrated their talents on the side horse and parallel bars.

The purpose of the club is to develop an appreciation of body fitness and gymnastics.

The Gymnastics team, comprised of Doug Balsler, Gary Green, Dick Spitzmesser, Jerry Stiner, Brad Svendsen, Kent Dever, and Steve Willhoite, had a very successful season this year by compiling a 3-1 won-loss record. The victories came at the hands of Portland and Hoagland (2). Their only defeat was to Wabash.

This was a year of marked improvement for the entire club and we are very proud of the recognition the club has brought to Willkie High.

of selling pennants and shakers and also a candy sale.

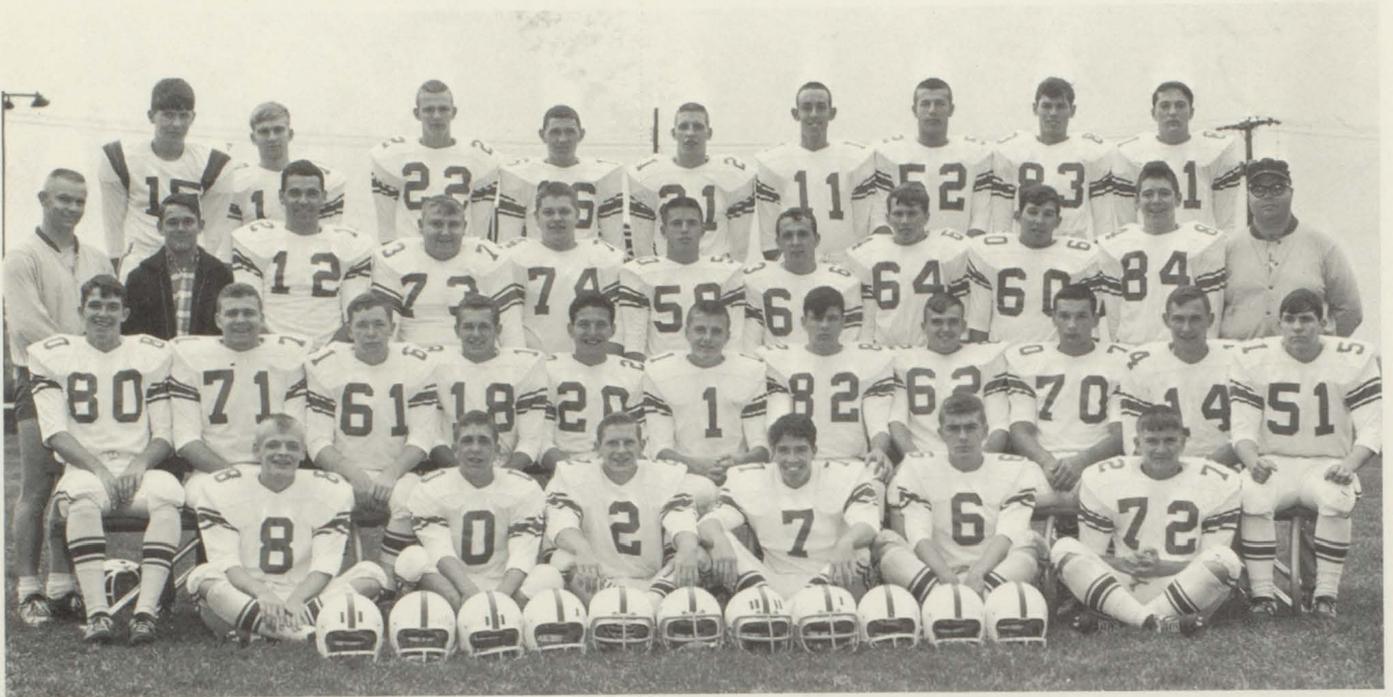

The G.A.A. held an annual installation of officers and members. They also formulated a written constitution.

Awards are given to the girls on the basis of a point system.

When the future stars of Willkie High School reported for football practice last fall, the days of practice sessions were filled with workouts. The squad was small but aggressive. The Panthers were definitely hurt by the graduation of 13 seniors from last year's squad. With this as a constant reminder, Coaches Shook and Sheridan, commonly known as the S & S boys, concentrated on the nine returning lettermen. Two of these returning lettermen, Bob Frye and Jeff Marcuson, were chosen as co-captains. The wins this year were few but important. The Panthers defeated three teams; Muncie South, a new team on the schedule, Hartford City at the annual Homecoming game, and Tipton, a revenge game of last year's 40-0 outcome.

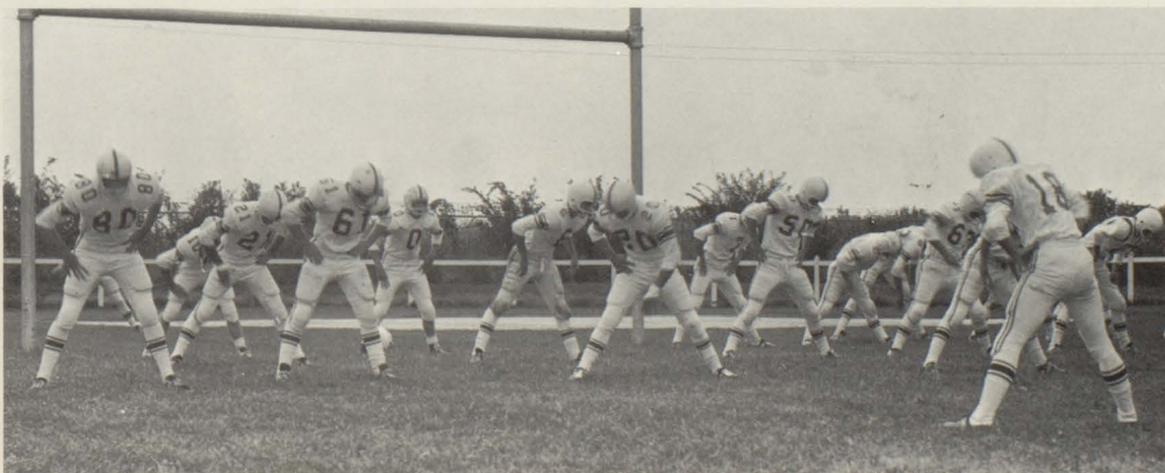

Throughout the season nothing meant more to the team than the defeat of the school's arch rival, Tipton. This year, the Student Council initiated a lasting tradition of awarding the losing team in the annual battle between Elwood and Tipton a silver spike mounted on a wooden plaque.

In the seniors last home showing, the mighty Panthers fought Wabash to a 13-13 tie. Almost every opponent of the Panthers were much bigger. The 1965 squad was also hampered by injuries throughout the entire season.

This grid season marked the final high school grid-iron performances of 18 seniors. Willkie High will long remember these boys for their outstanding athletic achievements.

Junior Varsity Football Team: FRONT ROW--M. Coston, D. Fakes, L. Frye, R. Edgell, G. Green, M. Lewis. SECOND ROW--D. Baxter, C. Lucas, B. Kelly, K. Dever, P. Fahy, B. Juday, S. Tam. THIRD ROW--D. Smith, B. Alexander, T. McQuitty, J. Fletcher, E. Smith, S. Stage, B. Johns, Coach Herndon.

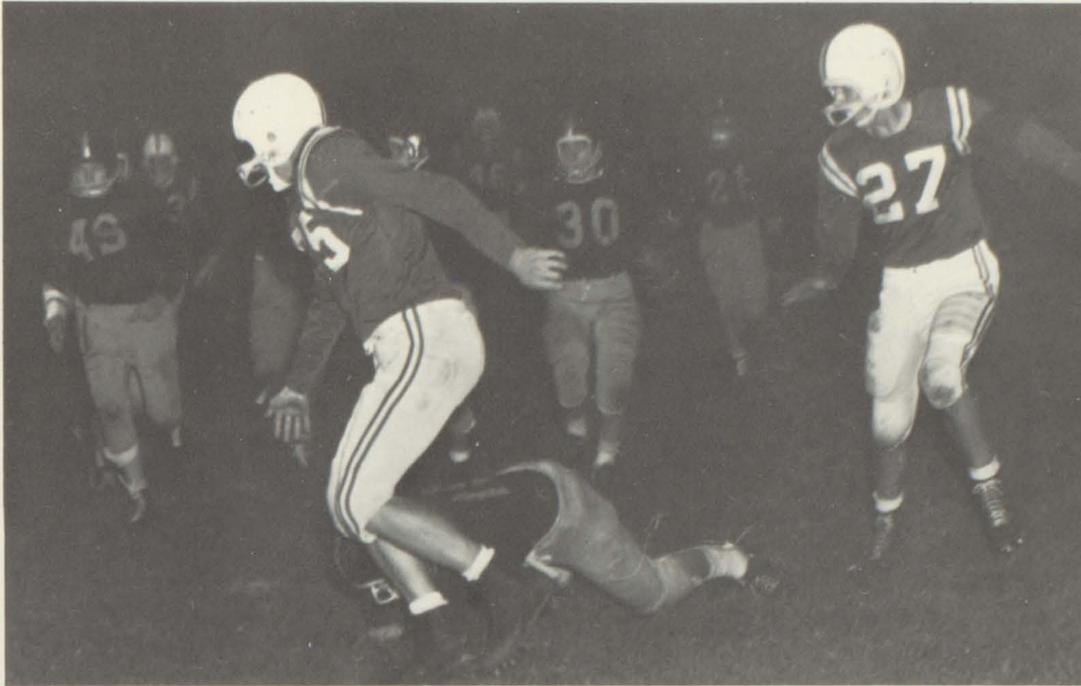

Jr. Varsity Captures 6—1 Season Record.

Kevin Blankenship snares pass needed for a first down.

The 1965 Junior Varsity Football Team, under the leadership of Coach Herndon, captured six out of seven grid victories. The team's achievements were due to unlimited desire and stamina. These boys sacrificed their time and effort to combine their talents and make the squad one of the most successful in recent years. They displayed an ability to work together for the benefit of the entire squad. The team was composed of many outstanding junior and sophomore boys. With high hopes for a future varsity role, these boys worked many strenuous hours toward the goal of perfection.

Most of the young Panthers' six victories were by sizeable margins. Their only defeat of the year came in the season finale, at the hands of the Tipton Blue Devils. The Devils upset the Panthers by just one lone point.

Freshmen Train for Future Varsity Roles

This year the Freshmen took on a new look. They were coached by Mr. Joe Heath. This was Mr. Heath's first year at Willkie High. Under Coach Heath's guidance and through team co-operation and the desire to win, the young gridgers achieved a record of five wins, two losses, and one tie. Their only defeats of the season were to Anderson South and Mississinewa.

In the young clubs first debut as high school gridgers, they struggled to a nothing to nothing tie with Anderson Madison Heights.

All of the training and sportsmanship that the young cubs acquired will be carried over to future years when they will have a berth on the varsity.

Panther Club Uses Talents for '65 Season

Peters, B. Stage. BACK ROW--C. Shaw, G. McDaniels, K. Kleinbub, K. Justus, J. Bourff, J. Stiner, Coach Moore.

This year's Willkie High Baseball team was composed of 11 seniors and 7 juniors. The Panther's won-lost record was 12 wins and 4 losses. The boys worked together as a team, which accounts for their outstanding record. This year's squad was exceptionally gifted with individual talents. Terry Murray and Gilly McDaniel led the team in pitching honors. Four members of the squad place in the top ten in the Mid-Central Conference standings. At the Mid-Central Conference Tourney at Sheridan the Panthers defeated Westfield and Sheridan before losing the final game to Madison Heights of Anderson.

Coach Bob Moore led the Panthers in their '65 season agression.

Cross Country Maintained Even Season

This year the cross country team, coached by Mr. Gerald Burton, had a good season. The team won two of five dual meets and placed second and third at two triangular meets. They brought home fifth place at the Burris Invitational. They also captured sixth place in the Central Indiana Conference and would up the season by placing ninth at the Sectional meet.

A well-rounded '66 season is expected, for the team will only lose the services of one member through graduation. The team will regain the services of Juniors; Kenny Croy, Randy Robinson, and Dennis Green; Sophomores; Tom Austin, and Tom Sparks will also be back to add their talents.

Swinging Golfers Have Very Successful Year

Willkie High golfers climaxed their season of 1965 with the winning of the Central Indiana Conference at Peru. This victory helped our school achieve the goal of getting the long awaited All Sports Trophy. Senior Ed Alley was also awarded the All Sports Award at the annual Central Indiana Conference Awards Banquet held in the high school cafeteria.

Coach Larry Shook, in his initial year as sponsor of the golf team, assisted the boys in gaining an overall record of five wins and six defeats. On the varsity team for the season were: Seniors--Ed Alley and David Kincaid, Sophomores--Kent Williams and Russell Wilson, and Freshmen--Tom Austin and Joe Scott. The B-Team consisted of Seniors--Greg Drake, Junior--Chuck Frazier, Sophomore--Kenny Jones, and Freshmen--Richie Brunnemer and Roger Mays.

Racketeers Were on Upswing with Good Season

This Year's tennis team showed marked improvement with a record of three wins and four defeats. Under the able instruction of Coach Ray Manis, the tennis team also placed fourth in the Central Indiana Conference. One of the three victories was an upset over a very good Anderson team. This same victory held even more significance. It was the first time an Elwood tennis team had ever beaten an Anderson tennis team.

Senior veteran Jerry Vickery fought a hard battle against the eventual conference champion before going down to defeat. Jerry came the closest to beating the eventual champion for his other wins were by sizeable margins.

The 1965 version of the Panther "Cindermen," under the coaching ability of Mr. Jerry Burton, completed their season with an average record. The team, composed mostly of underclassmen, finished fifth in the C.I.C. meet and eighth in the sectional.

Senior John Burton broke his own high school pole vault record and set a new mark of 13' 4 3/4". He was also voted Outstanding Athlete by the C.I.C. sports writers.

The success of this year's track team was due to the efforts of many individuals. These efforts combined to produce a season which will be long remembered by many fans.

Coach Joe Heath leaves the bench for a few seconds as he appears a little upset with a certain play.

This year's Panther squad took on a new look. Not only was there a new coach but a new crew. The Panthers, under the stewardship of Joe Heath, advanced to a season win-loss record of 7-13. The inexperienced Panthers faced bigger and powerful opponents.

The Panthers changed their Holiday

Tourney sight to Lafayette, Indiana. The Panther wins came at the expense of Sheridan, Noblesville, New Castle, Oak Hill, Wabash, Highland, and Peru.

Due to graduation the Panthers will lose Dan Hinds, Kent Justus, Kreig Kleinbub, Eldie Wentz and Larry Chinn.

Steve Linegar cans two for Elwood during the Highland Jr. Varsity game, won by Elwood.

This year the Junior Varsity, under the tutorship of Coach Larry Shook, advanced to a 6-12 won-lost record. The young cubs faced many formidable opponents. Their season wins came at the expense of Sheridan, Muncie South Side, Muncie Burris, Tipton, Highland, and Alexandria. The game which highlighted the season took place on January 21, when the future Panthers blemished the perfect record of the Alexandria Tigers B-Team.

The Freshman squad, coached by Mr. Jerry Burton, made its high school debut by compiling a 10-7 won-lost record. The club consisted of two teams--the Freshman "A" and the Freshman "B" teams. The young Cubs won their home tourney with a 39-24 victory over Tipton in the afternoon game and a 49-23 defeat of arch rival Alexandria in the championship game.

The Ushers this year included: FRONT ROW: J. Bragg, C. Jones, J. Niccum, B. Burton, J. Stafford, E. Childress. BACK ROW: R. Peatt, T. Sanders, C. Jackson, L. Willkie, A. Mottweiler, and B. Galbreath.

The Pep Club

Cheerleader Senior members are: Barb Clouser, Marsha Burton, and Marilyn Bambrough.

Under the capable sponsorship of Mrs. Reanna Sheridan, the five varsity and the four Junior Varsity cheerleaders successfully led our Panthers to many victories and kept school spirit alive during the 1965-1966 Sports Season. Leading the Panthers this year were pretty Varsity Cheerleaders: Marsha Burton, Marilyn Bambrough, Barb Clouser, Sherri Gillison, and Debby Beasley. The peppy and enthusiastic girls leading the Panther Cubs were: Kris Oldag, Kanda Kane, Dianne Rogers, and Polly Forst.

Accepting the responsibility of being cheerleaders for the Freshman were: Pat Shepard--head, Cathy Tyner, Joanne Cassidy, and Susan Sites. The sponsor of these girls was Mrs. Deardorff.

The Pep Club this year was really tremendous and quite outstanding. New this year, the block had red gloves which were used for hand motions and red and blue shakers which were used for letter formations. The officers that worked and produced this fine club were: Maureen Etchison--President, Mary Fettig--Vice-president, Joy Burton--Sophomore representative, Janet Meyerly--Freshman representative, and Sponsor--Mrs. Reanna Sheridan.

BACK ROW: Coach Hans Sheridan, Mgr. D. Yates, Mgr. F. Mort, B. Juday, S. Tam, J. Pace, S. Williams, D. Smith, and B. Skinner.

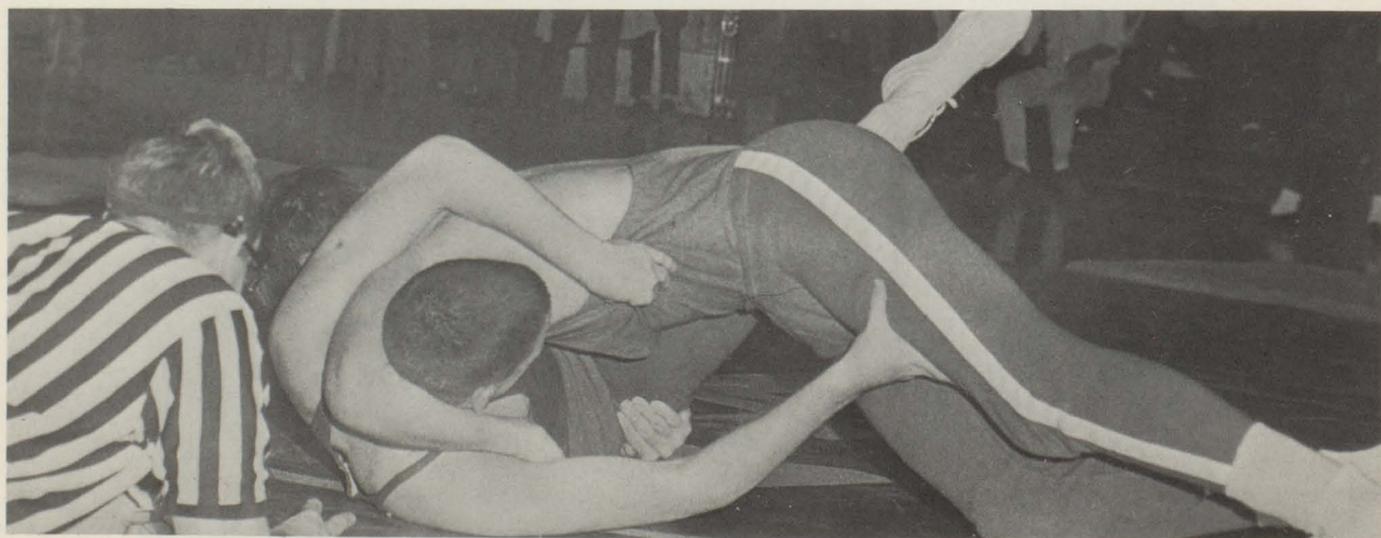

For the first year Elwood High School has added wrestling to their many other athletic activities. This 28-member team was very successful with the competent help from coach, Mr. Hans Sheridan, and assistant coach, Mr. Larry Ottinger.

During the regular season, the varsity squad won four of six meets. The reserve squad, not as successful as the varsity, lost two of two matches by very close margins. The teams placed 2nd in the Tourney at Fairmount and came in last at the Indianapolis sectional.

This sport has been very interesting and enjoyable to many and we hope that it will continue to be one of the athletic events in Willie's well-rounded sports curriculum.

Tourney time came to Willkie with great enthusiasm. King Red and Blue, Jeff Marcuson, led the festivities. The Pep Committee and cheerleaders sponsored a sign contest. Miss Betty Green was the winner. In the Panthers opening game of the '66 Sectional they defeated the Pendleton Irish. The Panthers fell victim to Markleville in an 81-79 over-time win in the second game.

"WE'RE PROUD OF OUR TEAM"

Destinies Unlimited:

Willkie High is people. Each administrator, teacher, and student destinates what our school will be. All the personalities combine to formulate what we call Wendell L. Willkie High School. In the crowded halls, den at noon, or meetings after school, we come in contact with all sorts of personalities. Some will become life-long friends. Juniors and Sophomores Display Officership

Junior Class Steering Committee members are: FRONT ROW: R. Wilson, B. Badger, M. Stevens, G. Connor, M. Winings, M. Rogers, J. Hood, A. Sullivan, Mr. Ottinger. BACK ROW: D. Wittkamper, L. Murray, J. Graham, K. Cannon, B. Bishop, M. Fettig, K. Cassidy, D. Linegar, D. Gilson, and K. Tharp.

This year the Junior Class stepped into the long-awaited role of upperclassmen. Upon achieving this role, they received their long-awaited class rings. They also presented the annual Junior class play. Under the direction of their officers, sponsors, and steering committee, the class was successful on many class projects. They sold tea towels and passed out Christmas catalogues for a local store. The money from these projects was used to finance the Junior-Senior Prom at which the juniors served as hosts.

The class also initiated a new tradition for Willkie High to follow. This tradition was an agreement with our arch rival Tipton that whoever would lose the annual Tipton-Elwood gridiron classic would receive a silver spike. This spike was presented to the Student Council by the junior class president Mark Winings.

This has been a busy and most successful year for the juniors and they are looking optimistically toward their ultimate goal of next year--that of being SENIORS.

and Leadership in Performing Class Functions

Sophomore class officers are: Richie Brunnemer--President, Paula Mitchell--Treasurer, Julie McGill--Secretary, Polly Forst--Vice-president.

High scholastic and athletic ability, and hard-working well describe the Class of '68.

They gave away their freshman cords and adopted the traditional colors of red and blue. With a lot of stored-up energy left from a particularly unproductive freshman year they made plans to make the Class of '68 great. At a few varsity basketball games they sold concessions to help the Foreign Exchange Fund. Toward the end of their first year of high school, they elected their first set of class officers. To lead the class they chose: Richie Brunnemer--President, Polly Forst--vice-president, Julie McGill--Secretary, Paula Mitchell--Treasurer.

With determination and enthusiasm they attacked the first class project--the candy sale. It was a very successful enterprise. This was only the first of many projects in which the class plans to earn money for their Junior-Senior Prom. Near the end of their sophomore year they took great pride in ordering class sweaters and rings.

Senior Officers, Steering Committee, Sponsors

On September 2, 1962, Wendell L. Willkie High School began to unfold a new page of her history, as the Class of 1966 entered her already crowded halls.

As freshmen, we quickly became accustomed to the new routine and the daily problems. We chose Jeff Marcuson, Don Klein, Maureen Etchison, and Marsha Burton to represent us and to voice our opinions in the Student Council.

After a vacation, during which most of us took gym and other classes in summer school, we assumed our status as sophomores. To organize our class for the first time, we elected our class officers who were as follows: Steve Poole, president; Susan Pearson, vice-president; Linda Oliver, secretary; and Susan Forst, treasurer. During the year we entered the business world by passing circulars and holding bake sales. At the close of our sophomore year we chose our class rings and our class sweaters which were a royal blue.

As the 1964-65 school year began, we finally had attained the long-awaited role of upperclassmen. We elected Steve Poole as president; Jeff Marcuson as vice-president; Jane Cornelious as secretary; and Christie Carlile as treasurer.

To raise money for the annual Junior-Senior Prom, we had more bake sales and a successful car wash, and sold athletic boosters and name pennants. Following the tradition of presenting a Junior Class Play, we chose to do Moliere's comedy, "The Imaginary Invalid."

To close our Junior year, we worked very diligently for our prom, "Shangri-La," which was held Friday, May 15, at the Elks Club.

At last we are Seniors! The last page of our memory book has come to an end. We elected our last set of class officers who were: Kent Justus, president; Hal Julius, vice-president; Jane Cornelious, secretary; and Susan Forst, treasurer. Events have come and gone, but we will long remember ordering our commencement announcements, measuring for our caps and gowns, attending the Homecoming and Sadie Hawkins dances, and being the honored guests at our final Junior-Senior prom. During our senior year we brought laughter to the Willkie High stage with our Senior Class play, "The Able Miss Cain." On May 26, 1966, we officially finished our high school careers at the commencement exercises, held in the gym.

As we go on to college and into work, we will often look back with affection and appreciation to the important four years of training and pleasurable times we experienced at Wendell L. Willkie High School.

Terminate Activities of the Class of 1966

Members of the Senior Class Steering Committee are: Hal Julius, Fred Rickabaugh, Maureen Etchison, Don Klein, Barb Clouser, Susan Forst, Steve Wingrove, Don Butler, Ellery Mangas, Jane Cornelious, and Marsha Burton.

Sponsors of the Senior Class are: Mr. Burton, Mr. Brown, Miss Digel, Mr. Miller, Mrs. Barr, and Mr. Peebles.

work a 60-hour week for 25 cents an hour?

That was the going rate at the turn of the century when almost all work was done by hand. Youth began their working careers at 14, there was no such thing as retirement and living standards were very low.

Today, the average U.S. worker has tripled his production and buying power and has cut his work week by one-third.

What changed all this? Machines, automation and modern production and business methods.

Automation creates more jobs than it destroys. It's the free enterprise way and has given us the highest standard of living in the world and the greatest degree of individual freedom.

At I&M automated methods have enabled us to provide many more new jobs, improve our methods of generating and delivering electricity and provide our customers with improved, low-cost electric service in the bargain.

IN APPRECIATION

We would sincerely like to express our thanks to those persons who made possible the '66 Crescent: to the staff and committees who supplied the book with copy and pictures; to the administration and faculty for their assistance and understanding; to the American Yearbook Company and Bob Cavanagh, who helped and encouraged us; to Reid's Studio for their co-operation, including the photography of the album section and groups; and to the business men of the community for their financial assistance. A special thanks goes to Mrs. Hilda E. Chapman for her patience and guidance throughout the year.
