Argyll Not Just a Pattern a Litestyle.

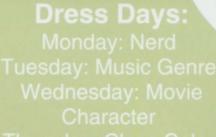

Because we've grown up among bean stalks and cornfields, some people might think we're as boring as the land that surrounds us. However, here at M-S, we're anything but ordinary. De're the one and only traylls. Being an Argyll means many things to many people, like being a softball state champion, playing an instrument in the school band, or performing in Arguys and Sals. Every student who has walked these halls feels a sense of pride upon seeing our mascot or hearing our school song. All students at Madison-Grant High School are living the Argyll lifestyle.

SENIORS

Attention Seniors! The finish line is in sight! Our days of roaming the halls of Madison-Grant are numbered. After twelve years of playing sports, cramming for tests, taking pictures, making memories, and learning the meaning of being an Argyll, the time has finally come for us to go our separate ways. Let us not forget the lessons we have learned together as we strike out into the world alone. Congratulations on making it this far class of 2010! The best is yet to come, but never forget

Freshmen

Expectations go both ways! Freshmen arrive full of hope- for more fun, bigger and better classes, more friends, and more activities. However, teachers are waiting behind those classroom doors expecting freshmen to buckle down, to become organized, to giggle less, and to take their work seriously. Although most of these freshmen have always been Argylls, they now have to take on a new lifestyle and merge their expectations with those of their teachers.

Faculty

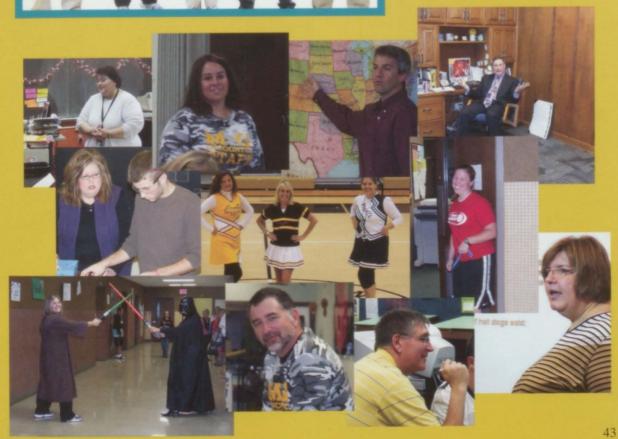

Students aren't the only people at Madison-Grant High School who live the Argyll lifestyle. Faculty members also exemplify being Argylls in their everyday lives. Through the way they dress, how they teach their classes, and how they spend their time after school, faculty members are living the Argyll lifestyle.

Coaches Engle, Holloway,
Hegelein, Smedley, and Fugett

A Fond Farewell...

After 32 years of dedicated instruction at Madison-Grant High School, Mr. Martin retired this year. Through his teaching biology, microbiology, and zoology, Mr. Martin has inspired a love for science in many students. His years of teaching will be fondly remembered, and he will be greatly missed by many students. His newfound free time will be greatly enjoyed and, hopefully, he'll stay out of the slammer!

Goodbye to Mrs. Giselbach

After spending 18 years monitoring study hall at Madison-Grant High School, Mrs. Giselbach retired this year. It was a difficult decision, but Mrs. Giselbach ultimately decided to leave her position as study hall supervisor. She plans to spend her days playing with her grandchildren and revelling in the fact that she doesn't have to spend every day at school anymore.

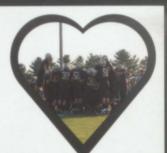

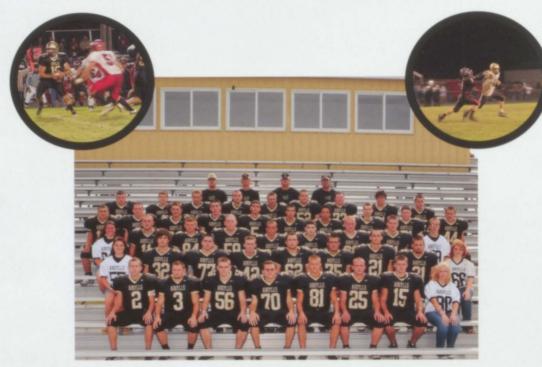

Football

Starting the 2009 season, Madison-Grant was not expected to excel. Having a new quarterback and a sufficiently smaller line, it looked to be a tough season. The boys played well throughout the season and made it into the second round of sectionals. The team finished with an 8-3 record.

The Madison-Grant Cross Country team had full varsity teams for both the boys and girls with some newcomers and some returning runners. The top runners this year were Lindsay Christensen, Elaina Fick, Shelby Wells, Patrick Howard, Matt Drown, and Adam Bush. The Argylls only had four home meets this year, but they also participated in many bigs meets such as the Oak Hill Invitational, the Jay County Invitational and many others.

The girls finished with an 8-13 record; however, it doesn't reflect the amount of effort they gave throughout the year, and the county record was 2-1. They were 4-3 in conference. The girls did have a couple games go into overtime with rivals. Eastern and Highland. The junior varsity also had a successful year, ending with a winning record.

M-GX-treme

Looking back at the M-G X-treme's dance season, one may say many things. The girls made a major impact on the Grant County community. They had a successful competitive season, placing first in the novice jazz division and second in the novice hip hop division at the Indiana High School Dance Team Association State Competition. Along with that accomplishment, the girls danced at a home football game, James Dean Days, every home basketball game, and made a special appearance at a nursing home. During football season, the dance team hosted a camp for over ninety young aspiring dancers consisting of girls between kindergarten and sixth grade. The girls also had a special guest perform at the sectional pep rally; our very own Mr. Nikirk performed Beyonce's "Single Ladies."

Prom Court

Forever in the Twilight

The Prom Court of 2010 was made up of Jordon Cornelious, Tyler Clevenger, Tanner Relfe, Ande Vogel, Sydnie Holland, Monica Johnston, Shelby Wells, and Holly Jarvis.

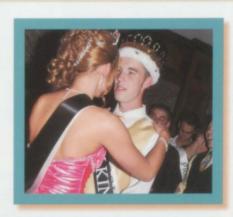

Prom Queen and King, Monica Johnston and Tanner Relfe danced to the song "Then" by Brad Paisley.

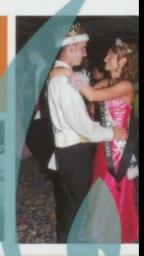

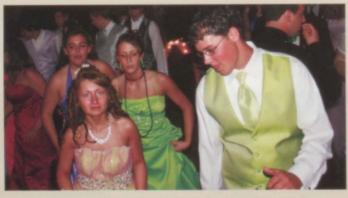

PR.OM

Though the weather was cold and windy outside, the atmosphere inside of this year's prom was bright and electric. Meshingomesia was full of laughter and crazy dancing. Prom 2010 was a success!

Like your grandfather's, Success depends onyour backbone, not your wish bone. Good luck at the University of North Western Ohio!

Love Dad and Mom

Justyn Price

The last 18 years have gone by way too fast - I miss them every day. I know you are not certain where to go from here, but I also know you will find whatever it is you are looking for in time. You are an amazing individual Justyn and I am so proud to call you mine. Congratulations, Good luck, and I love you!
