The journalism staff is proud to present this record of social and academic life at Fairmount High School.

As editor of the yearbook staff, I wish to express my thanks and sincere gratitude to those of the administration and student body who have endeavored to publish the 1958 Black and Gold.

DEDICATION

In recognition of his outstanding leadership and service to the community of Fairmount, the Black and Gold staff wishes to dedicate this annual to the Reverend Xen Harvey.

We wish to pay tribute to Reverend Harvey, not only for his service to the community, but for the guidance he has given many high school students throughout his career as minister of the Fairmount Friends Church.

F.F.A.

The Fairmount Chapter of Future Farmers of America was organized in 1936. There have been many achievements made through these years. The chapter now has 40 active members.

Among their activities, were selling screw-driver sets, magazines, and F.F.A. pencils. They also helped with the F.H.A.-F.F.A. Christmas Ball. The group attended the International Livestock Show in Chicago, December 2, 1957; while here Bruce Baker received second place in his class.

Arlen Hasty is a state farmer and Lindley Comer and Terome Gough are working on their degrees.

F.H.A.

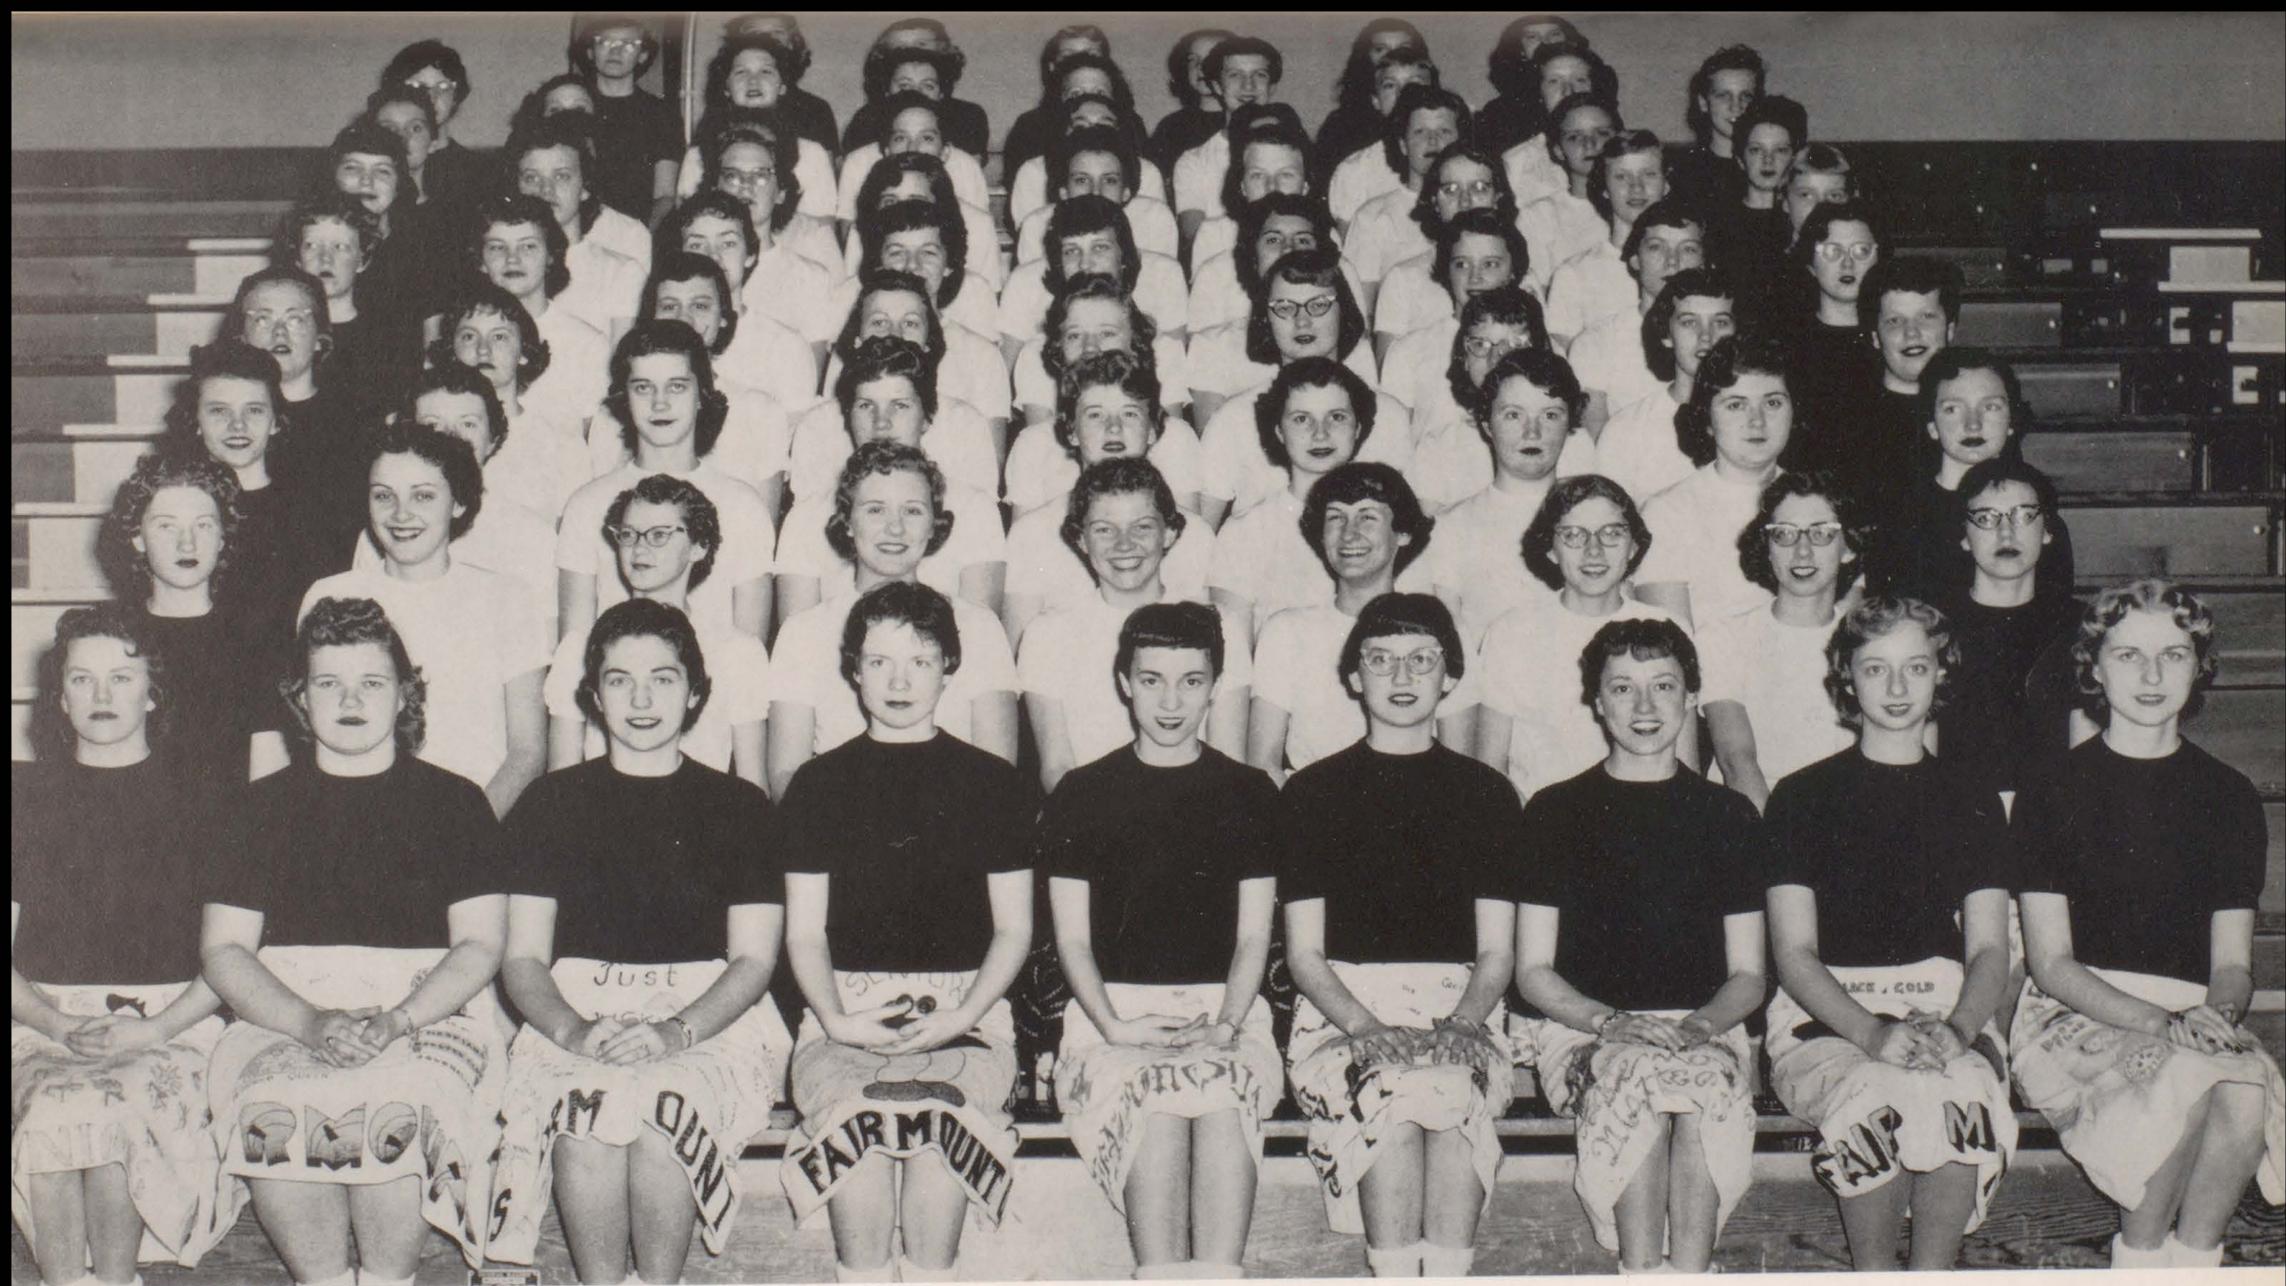

The Fairmount chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is one of the school's most active organizations. The motto of F.H.A. expresses the purpose of the organization—learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow. Some of the highlights of the year were the F.H.A.-F.F.A. Christmas Ball, the Mother-Daughter Banquet, the attending of state and district conventions, sponsoring the March of Dimes, and F.H.A. annual trip. The Fairmount chapter of F.H.A. was one of the few chapters in the state to receive an honor chapter.

In the spring of 1957 Jayne Kirkpatrick was elected president of the Northeast District and she also served as state vice president.

CONCERT BAND

This year's Concert Band, under the direction of Paull McCoy, fulfilled its always busy schedule with great satisfaction to everybody. It provided good music and shows for all manner of activities. In addition to the usual schedule of annual concerts, appearances at the Veteran's Hospital, annual children's concert, student body concerts, appearances at the annual Contest Festivals of the Northern Indiana School Band, Orchestra and Vocal Association and other regularly scheduled activities, the band provided music and shows for all the football and basketball games, many pep sessions and ended the year with their annual appearances at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Four Seniors left the band this year through graduation. They were Jayne Kirkpatrick, Carolyn Gross, Tim Smith, and Jack Craun.

One of the outstanding events of the year was the long-awaited purchase of beautiful new band uniforms. Funds for these uniforms were chiefly raised through the combined efforts of many members of the Band Parent's Association, of which Mr. Jim Ribble is president and Mr. Chick Davis is vice president. A very substantial cash contribution to this fund was made by the Athletic Association of Fairmount High School. The members of the band were also very active in helping raise these funds. It was the realization of many years dreams.

The band officers for this year were Jack Craun, president; Tim Smith, vice president; Jane Langsdon, secretary; Jayne Kirkpatrick, librarian and administrative assistant; Phillip John, administrative assistant; and Jim Tuturow and Judy Langsdon, social chairmen.

The usual band trips to various places rounded out a successful and exciting year.

TWIRLERS

The High School Twirlers were the leaders of a much larger corps of twirlers which put on many excellent shows at ball games this year. In addition to being members of this corps, these High School twirlers are the regular marching twirlers who lead the band in parades and formations. Their teacher, Mrs. Martha Jean Null, produced a variety of routines which were always well received by crowds at games.

A National Baton Association Twirling Contest was held in the early Fall at Fairmount High School, sponsored by the Band Parents Association. Our Twirlers won many prizes at this contest as well as in others at various contest centers.

Captain of the Corps and the High School Twirlers for this year was Sue Hackney. Second in rank was DeLean Thomas. The twirlers' new uniforms, purchased with the band uniforms, were a major addition to the band twirlers effectiveness this year. A good group of twirlers is indispensable to any band—and this was a very good group.

PAULL McCOY

Under the direction of Mr. McCoy, our band has contributed much to the entertainment and musical education at FHS.

The Black and Gold Staff sponsored a Winter Wonderland Dance at the shelterhouse, November 27, 1957. Snowflakes, white trees, blue lights, and tables were decorated to create a snowy winter atmosphere. A band from Indianapolis provided the music for dancing.

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1956-57 was held at Wabash Honeywell Memorial. Decorations were in accordance with the theme "Silhouettes in Silver." Pink teardrops, silver trees, mobiles, and free-formed designs created a dreamy atmosphere. Music was provided by the Varsitians from Elwood.

The second annual Christmas Ball was held on December 21, 1957. The very successful formal dance was co-sponsored by the F.H.A. and F.F.A. The band room was decorated in holiday green with white Christmas bells. A large Christmas tree decorated with white lights and balls was one of the outstanding features. Guests danced beneath a canopy of green and white featuring white Christmas bells. Jane Bayless and Terome Gough reigned as Queen and King of the Christmas Ball.

"New Boy in School" was a three-act play given by the Junior Class on October 22-23.

Phill John, Virginia Salisbury, and Janice Harvey are sitting in front of the Keyes High School.

Sue Payne, Mary Street, Marilyn Holder, Sharon Pernod, and Deborah Wood are seen here rehearsing for "The Modern Cinderella," directed by Miss Eller. "The Valiant" and "N for Nusiance" also are one-act plays, directed by Larry Smith.

CONVOICATIONS AND SCHOOL PRODUCTIONS

SENIORS, THIS IS YOUR LIFE

This is your life, class of '58. Four years ago you started your journey through Fairmount High School. On September 29, 1954, as freshmen, you held your first class meeting and elected Lindley Comer, president; Arlen Hasty, vice president; Virginia Harvey, secretary; Patsy Kierstead, treasurer; Darlene Thompson and Jack Dunn, social chairmen; Nancy Bruner, historian; Benny Payne, Larry Engle, and Linda Hicks, student council. A bake sale was held in order to raise money. Do you remember the day of freshman initiation? Those seniors sure did give you an initiation that shall never be forgotten!

Traveling up the road of education you came to your sophomore year and elected on May 16, 1955, at the last class meeting of your freshman year Lindley Comer, president; Martha Clem, vice president; Sandy Skinner, secretary; Virginia Harvey, treasurer; Dianne Scott, historian; Darlene Thompson, Tim Smith, and Benny Payne, student council; Nancy Bruner and Jack Dunn, social chairmen.

About the first thing that was accomplished in your sophomore year was choosing your class sweaters. You chose mint green and white as your class colors. "Sunday Costs Five Pesos," "If Girls Asked Boys for Dates," and "Three Pills in a Bottle" were the sophomore plays that were given in order to raise money.

At the first sophomore class meeting it was decided to pay $10 per person to the class, so you wouldn't have to have so many money raising projects.

During your junior year of school the class officers elected were Lindley Comer, president; Benny Payne, vice president; Sandy Nottingham, secretary; Wenda Heater, treasurer; Carolyn Gross, historian; Judy Grindle and David Clement, social chairmen; Tim Smith, Mozelle Williams, and Jack Dunn, student council; and W. J. Burton, sergeant-at-arms.

At the very beginning of your year you started working on the junior play, "Magnificent Obsession." With everyone's help it was a successful play. Your beautiful new class rings arrived about Christmas time. This was a wonderful Christmas gift. Throughout the year each classmate took his turn in helping in the concession stand at ball games to add to the money in your treasury.

Soon you were planning for the Junior-Senior prom. The prom was held at Honeywell Memorial in Wabash on May 3. The theme "Silhouettes in Silver" was carried through with silver silhouettes and many beautiful decorations.

Plans for Commencement were then made. Ushers were appointed, and decorations were made and put up.

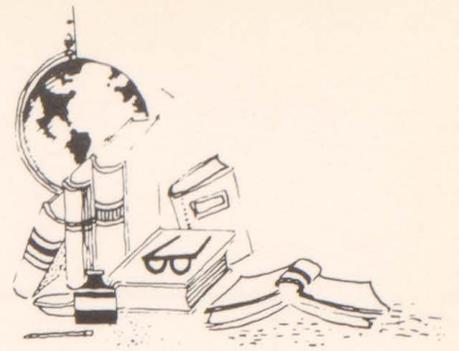

Last but certainly not least was a junior class party held at the school. It was combined with a going-away party for Dianne Scott who left for Florida.

Your senior year was really a big year. During the first two weeks in August, senior pictures were taken at McKeevers in Marion. The first big event was initiating the freshmen. The initiation took place in the auditorium, and the freshmen suffered considerably before they were considered members of Fairmount High School. Class officers for your senior year were Lindley Comer, president; John R. Bowen, vice president; Sandy Nottingham, secretary; Wenda Heater, treasurer; Jayne Kirkpatrick, historian; Jack Dunn, Janet Hill, Benny Payne, student council; and Barbara Strait and David Kendall, social chairmen.

Carolyn Gross was chosen to represent Fairmount in the D.A.R. Good Citizenship contest. In order to raise money for the senior trip you sponsored all the dances after the football games, a chili supper, a candy sale, the senior class play, and the sale of magazine subscriptions, among other things. The high salesman of magazine subscriptions for the senior class and in the high schools of Indiana was Jayne Kirkpatrick.

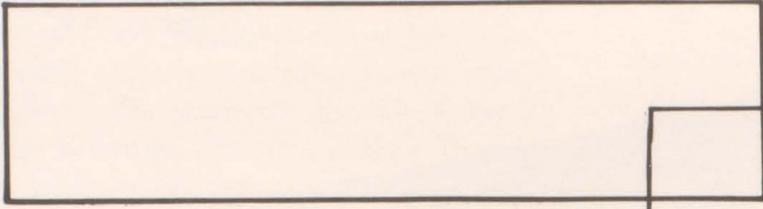

Name cards and invitations were ordered, Seniorama was chosen as your tour for the senior trip, caps and gowns were ordered, and the senior motto "To Live Each Day for Whatever Life May Bring" was chosen.

With all your goals accomplished and thanks to your wonderful class sponsors, Mrs. Nall, Mr. Byers, and Mr. Long, your Baccalaureate was held on May 18, and Commencement was held on May 19. This is your life, class of '58.

COACH COX SAYS:

CLEMENTS—This senior giant has helped the team with his rebounding. Dave has developed a fine fake and shot and could be depended upon to do his best at all times.

HASTY—Considered by all coaches as one of the best guards in the area. Arlen has thrilled everyone with his sensational two-hand shooting and his terrific drive. He was the third leading scorer in the county.

FRYE—The third leading scorer on the team whose role in the latter part of the year was that of pulling the team together with his rebounding and shooting. His desire was outstanding, as was his play in the Royerton game where he came off the bench to score 17 points.

GOUGH—A senior who has come through in the early stages of the season with some important points. Hard work, determination, and a fine attitude toward the game has made Terome important to the team.

KENDALL—A slow starter whose hustle has given him a starting role. A good rebounder, team spirit, and a will to win are his best points.

CRAUN—Used mostly as a substitute, Jack has provided us with humor and hard work which made him liked by all and an important member of the team.

GAITHER—The leading scorer in the county averaging about 20 points a game. He combined with Hasty to give Fairmount the best guards in the area. His one-hand jump shots are a thing of beauty.

RICKS—This junior has come from nowhere to be one of the best defensive men we have. After gaining some valuable experience on the second team, Dave has proved himself a very important man. His scrap and desire will be valuable to the team next year.

STROUP—After losing out with a broken collar bone for six games, Denny has had an up-hill struggle to get back in shape. The two free throws he made with five seconds left in the finals of the county tourney endeared him to all. Who could want more RIBBLE—A junior who has played on the second team and varsity. Dan is improving with age and should be an asset to future plans at FHS.

COMER—Playing guard on both first and second teams, Dave has been a fine rebounder and playmaker. He has developed into an aggressive ball hawk and fits into the plans for next year.

CHAPEL—The only freshman on the team, moved up from the second to the varsity at county tourney time. Paul's six points in the final game was an important factor in our winning the county. A hard worker, good rebounder, and a good shooter makes for a fine player.

SECOND TEAM

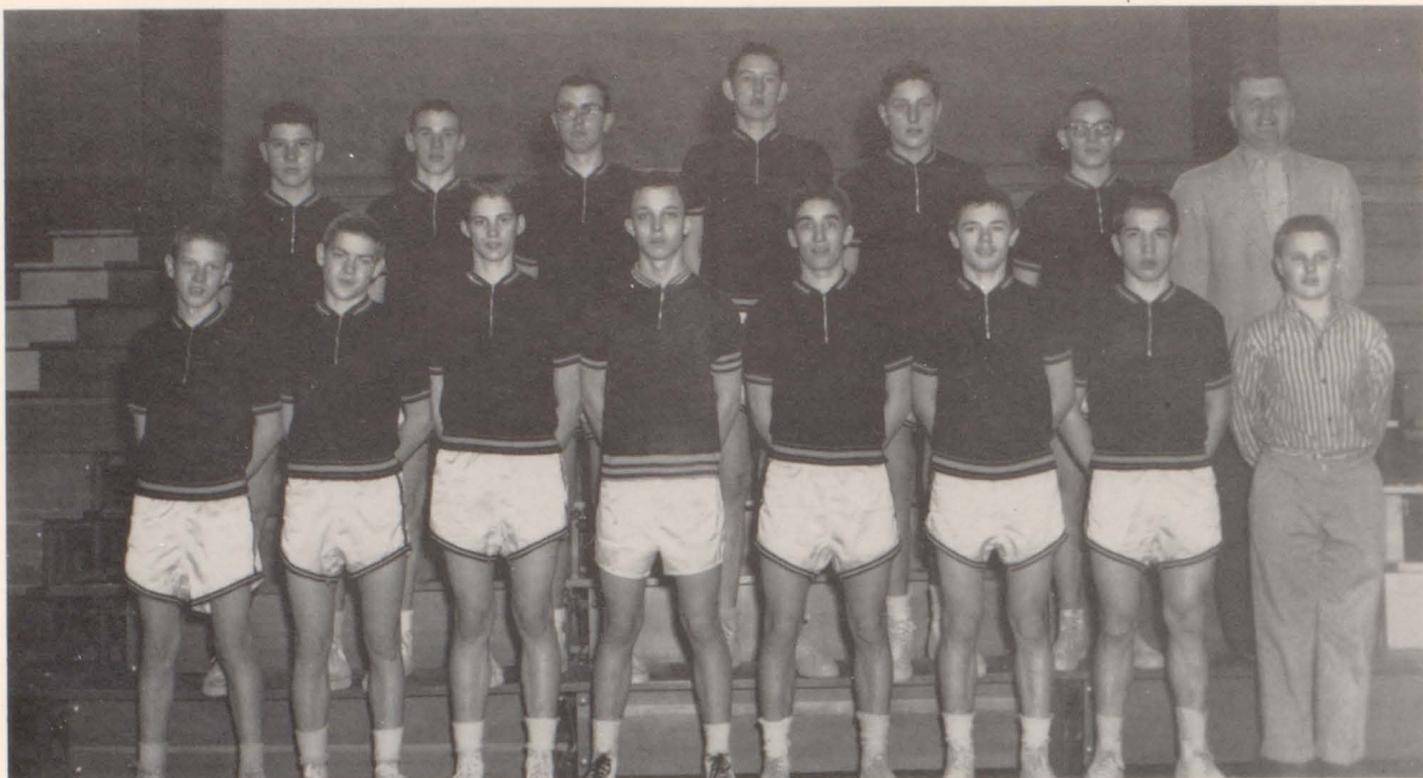

The second team had a good season with a 13-7 record. They were runners-up in the Portland Tourney.

First row: Huston, Rhoades, Campbell, and Wayne. Second row: Bayless, Liestenfelt, Dailey, Kindburg, and Pernod.

JUNIOR HIGH

The Junior High had an excellent season with 15 wins and 2 losses, but lost in the first round of the County Tourney.

First row: Nottingham, Kendall, Engle, Crist, Crooks, McDermott. Second row: Hamilton, Parsons, Hoke, Wood, Craven, Casner.

BASEBALL

F.H.S. participated in the High School Summer League and ended the season with a 10-4 record.
