Change: 2001

Change is all around us. Think-where we would be without it? We would wear fig leaves, drive chariots, and only white men who own property would be able to vote. Without change we would not be where we are today.

In this year we have new Olympic medal holders. After what seems years of debate and controversy we have changed our president. We have changed to a Republican run Democracy.

Change has also affected us here at home. We have a new four-way stop by the newly-remodeled Ricker's. A new Maucky's ice cream shop opened. The town also said good-bye to Frankton General Merchandise store after 23 years of service. Inexpensive Things (IT) had been down sized to screen printing and embroidering from Mrs. Paschal's home. Every Frankton citizen remembers where they were and how they found out about the fire. Our newly remodeled offices and school were caught in a devastating 2 million dollar fire. Students spent two and a half weeks at Lapel High School. Our school has a Change of principal and vice principal. We no longer will accept students from Leach Elementary it, along with the old Frankton Elementary have been torn down. We are also now sharing teachers with our sister school Lapel. We have a change in our fashion and fads as we do every year. The biggest change is our attitude. Frankton Junior/Senior High School students will no longer accept second place as good enough. Over 300 students signed our "I Will Pledge" committing to be more considerate of others. We invite you to come and see, in the year 2001 we are Change.

Lunch is a good time to feed the heart and stomach. Some 7th grade girls enjoy the break from studying.

Friends Forever

My New Best Friend

Today I met a great new friend
Who knew me right away
It was funny how she understood
All I had to say

She listened to my problems
She listened to my dreams
We talked about love and life
She'd been there, too, it seems

I never once felt judged by her
She knew just how I felt
She seemed to just accept me
And all the problems I'd been dealt

She didn't interrupt me
Or need to have her say
She just listened very patiently
And didn't go away

I wanted her to understand
How much this meant to me
But as I went to hug her
Something startled me

I put my arms in front of me
And went to pull her near
And realized that my new best friend
Was nothing but a mirror

~Chicken Soup Teenage Soul II

Friends since eighth grade, Jennifer Veach, Alicia Bever, Ashley Alford, Heather Davis, and Betsy Busby enjoy one last lunch together.

Friends Forever

You crept into our lives and were the greatest friend you're graduating now, I wish it were pretend.
Every time I saw you, you always wore a smile
and you would always go that extra mile!
You made basketball easier, and could never be replaced
you were always there for us, no matter what we faced
You would put up with us through it all
And with your help we could survive a fall
You weren't only mgr. Veach to me, but a great friend too!
You're not gonna be here next year, what will I do?
You would help me out with everything it didn't really matter
School, grades, and those things that caused my heart to shatter.
I will never forget the memories that were made or how much you helped at the game that was being played.
We don't want you to leave us, we don't want things to change.
Basketball practice next year will definitely rearrange!
All we will have are the memories of the past.
I can't believe you're graduating, the season went too fast!
Well, all I ask of you is to make the best of each new day,
and don't ever let our friendships fade away!

We build more than just strong minds at school, as Zach Kiphart and David Hobbs show here.

Homecoming Day

SENIORS! Sophomores Claire Jenness, Sara Rodewald, Jessica Benefiel, Baylee Engle, Jesse Beardsley, Whitney Harrison, Jacole Mattingly, Kelsey Schmink, and Tara Holt show their support for the senior girl's powder puff team.

The traditional Homecoming and Powder Puff games were during school on Friday, October 13.

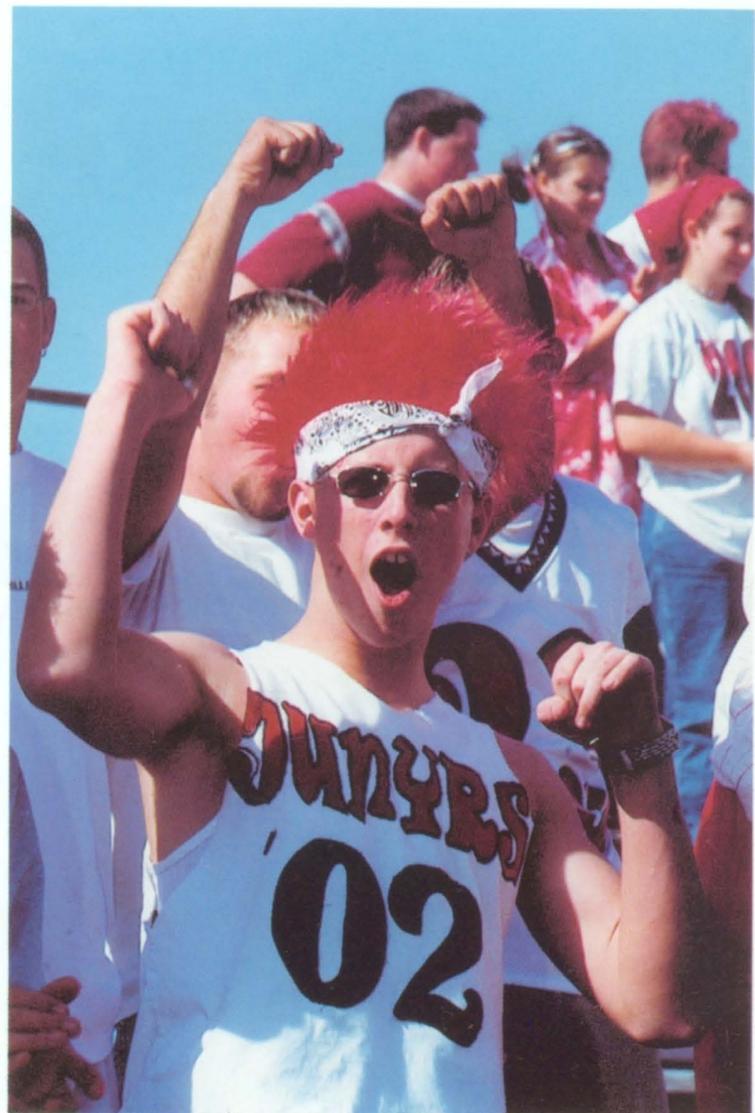

Directly after the Powder Puff came the annual Homecoming class games. Games this year included: the balloon shave, life saver pass, dizzy run, musical chairs, and the amoeba race. The seniors won the overall events, Juniors placed second, Sophomores placed third and Freshmen placed fourth and last.

The Freshmen placed first place in the Hallway decorations followed by Seniors, then Sophomores, and finally the Juniors. The Float competition was won by the Sophomores followed by the Seniors. Eighth grade defeated the seventh in their separate competition.

Seventh graders Morgan Summers and Teaira Graves sit in the stands and enjoy the festivities.

AWWW..Who is That? Oh..that is just Matt Quear supporting the Junior girls from the crowd. Matt decided to go all out for red and white day.

The senior girls Powder Puff team: row one: Rachel Courtney, Katie Jones, Desiree McPhearson, Heather Davis, Casey Clutch, Victoria Davis, Amber Sheward, Jamie Moon, and Amber Turner.
 Row Two: Jennifer Veach, Kaci Harrison, Lindsey Dollar, Betsy Busby, Sandra Edgell, Lea Crawford, Lauren Flanders, Nikkie Bressler, Kylie Schmink, Jilayne Willhoite.

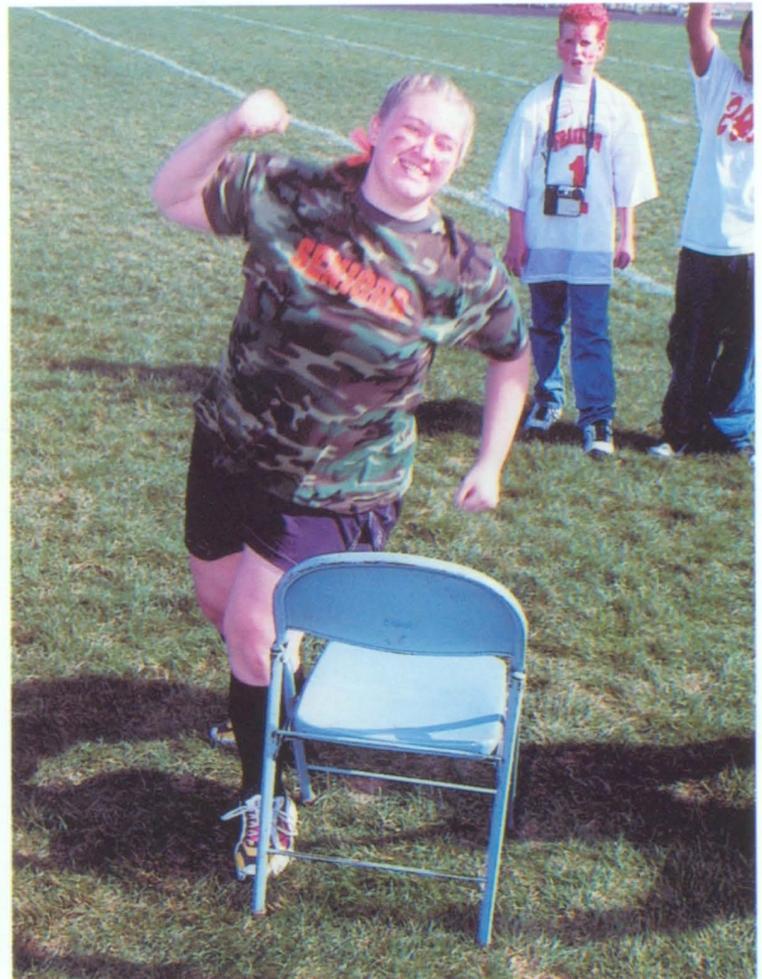

The seniors were the favored to win the annual Powder Puff game, but I guess that didn't affect the juniors.

Junior Katie Bodkin scored the first touchdown of the day. The second was made by Mary Graham and the third by Ashley Hymes. Mary Graham made two extra points and Katie Bodkin made one. Junior Kaci Brummet kept the seniors scoreless with her interception in the second half.

The seniors were unable to score a touchdown. The effort was there, but the victory came to the Juniors with a score of 22-0.

Watch out! Senior Nikkie Bressler loses her balance as she falls over Junior Katie Bodkin. This was an attempt to stop the juniors from scoring a touchdown in the Powder Puff game.

Senior Victoria Davis celebrates another victory in the musical chairs event. This is Victoria's fourth year to win the musical chairs event.

Homecoming Night

Homecoming night began with the traditional Homecoming Parade with Mr. VanBuskirk and family as Grand Marshals.

The King and Queen candidates followed: Kylie Schmink, Katie Jones, Desiree McPhearson, Casey Clutch, Lauren Flanders, John Collier, Brandon Sanders, Andrew Rodewald, Riley Alexander, and Matt Boyland. The 2000 Homecoming King and Queen were Lauren Flanders and Matt Boyland. The game between the Frankton Eagles and Mississinewa Indians began at seven o'clock on the new 2000 football field.

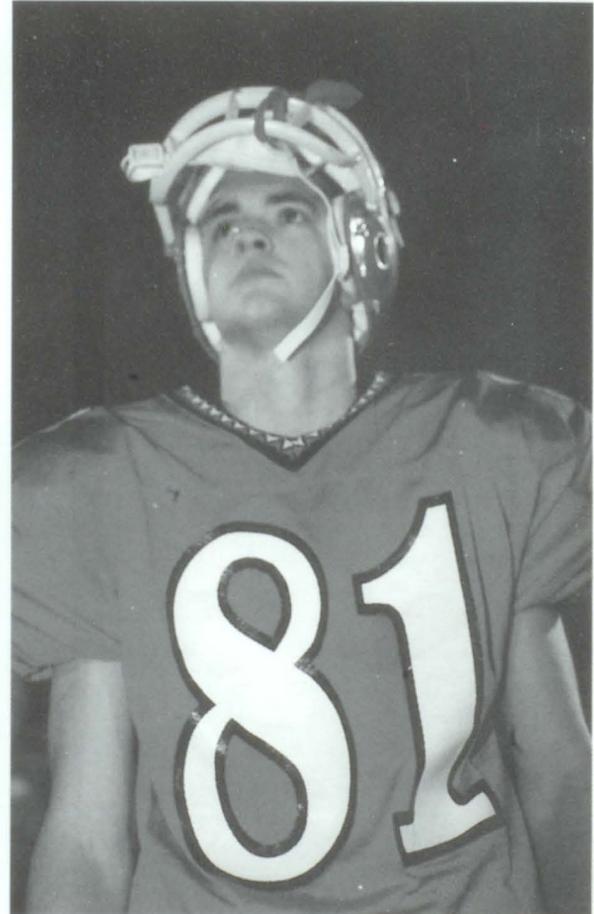

The Eagles won 41-32 with an offense controlled by Joey Mahoney, John Collier, Arik Flanders and Matt Boyland.

Steve Ulery, Jeremy Idlewine, and Cory Boyland defend Arik Flanders as he runs the ball against Mississinewa.

Who is that crazy kid? That is just Scott Morgan showing his Red and White pride at the Homecoming game.

Is that a real bird? No, it is just Tiffany Johnson in the annual Homecoming Parade. She was the 2000 football team mascot.

Homecoming Queen Lauren Flanders and King Matt Boyland make their traditional walk onto the field at half time.

Coach Cress and Coach Johnson show little emotion while watching their players on the field. Coach Cress has been coaching football for sixteen years.

Frankton Fire

On March 12, 2001 Frankton Jr. Sr. High School suffered a seven alarm fire. Fire departments from most neighboring towns rushed to the rescue in the early morning hours. The fire was the result of the second burglary this year at FJSHS. The severe fire was contained to the newly-remodeled main office. After smoke and water damage, the result was a bill of 2,300,000 dollars. The next month was spent with over a hundred persons working long hours to clean and repair our school. The hallways closest to the office were carpeted along with the library. They also replaced the ceiling and installed new lighting. There were 1100 gallons of fresh paint used to help cover the smell and water damage.

Because of damages to the intercom and fire detector systems students were relocated. High school students were moved to Lapel until spring break. Lapel students went to school from 7:50 a.m. to noon. Then, at noon Frankton students used the empty class rooms to learn until 4:30 P.M.. Mr. Speicher sent a

In efforts to quickly extinguish the fire, Anderson Fire Department used this aerial platform.

This is the view of what most saw on Monday during the fire. Security was not allowing the public in for a closer look.

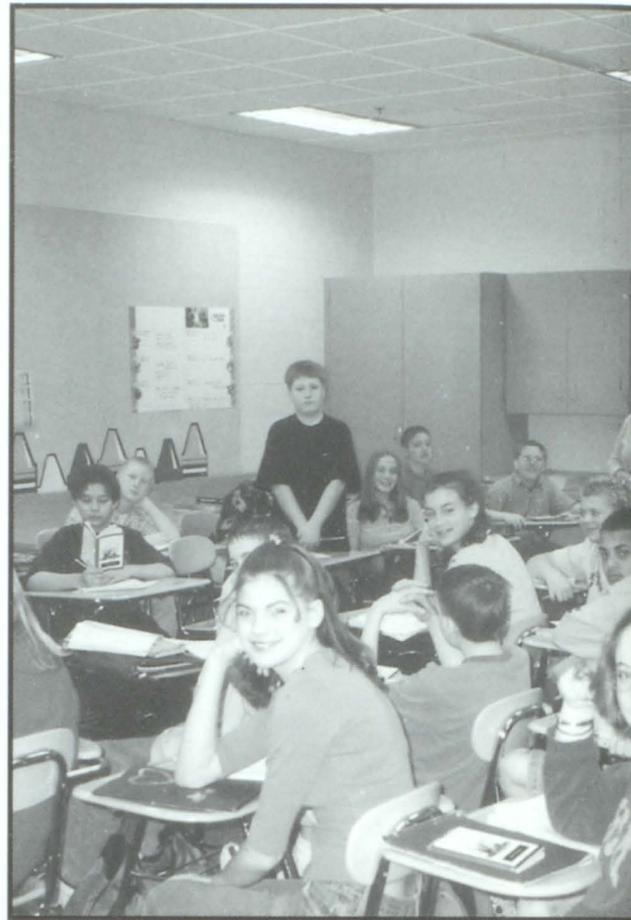

Some of the school's historical memorabilia was damaged or destroyed.

Fire fighters had to face the heat. Because of the many layers of roofing, the fire was even more difficult to fight.

Amber Turner should have had her "Baby Think It Over" at Frankton, but because of the fire she is at Lapel.

memo out the last week at the "home away from home". The memo expressed heartfelt gratitude to the students for their behavior. Although a few incidents occurred, most went well. The Junior high was sent to Frankton Elementary for class. Mrs. Coryell expressed her graciousness to the elementary teachers and the students for their excellent behavior. Many of the faculty and staff members had to shuffle back and forth between the schools.

One of the biggest complications faced was where and when to have the play. Mr. Flewelling faced a little more stress, but commented, "The play must go on". He also was very relieved for his pets. Mr. Flew had two Geckos in his classroom. Rob Amick told fire fighters so that the pets could be rescued. "At first he thought it was a joke, but they did check it out ." On Tuesday (March 14) Mr. Flew picked up his pets.

On Monday April 9, 2001 all students returned to Frankton Jr. Sr. High School. Although there was still an odor of smoke and paint fumes, we understood, there is no place like home.

Through this tragedy everyone has remained light hearted and in good spirits.

Mrs. Shipley sits in the office reception area of Frankton Elementary with her stenographers pad as she tries to recall what supplies and loose items were in the FJSHS office when the fire occurred.

Magical Prom Night

Cinderella becomes a queen! Ashley Alford (queen 2000) crowns Rachel Woodard (Cinderella 2001) for the prom queen.

Some promises are hard to keep, but we rose to the challenge. After facing many factors, including the fire, prom was magical as always.

Tony Marshall and Rachel Woodard, partners in many drama club activities, were named King and Queen. Every year a group of the junior class steps forward and represents their classes the prom committee. After months of work, the blue and silver theme of I Promise You the Stars, a song by *NSYNC, became magic.

When the night rolled into the next day, all had gone spectacularly.

Please just one more dance honey! Lindsey Dollar and Greg Barr seem to enjoy their senior prom.

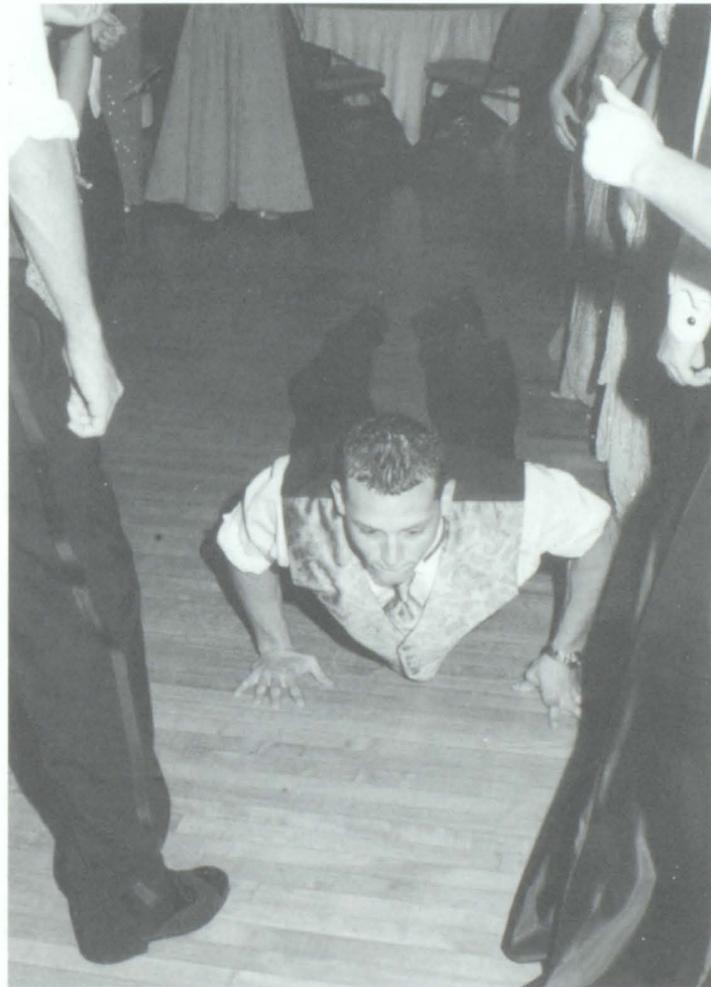

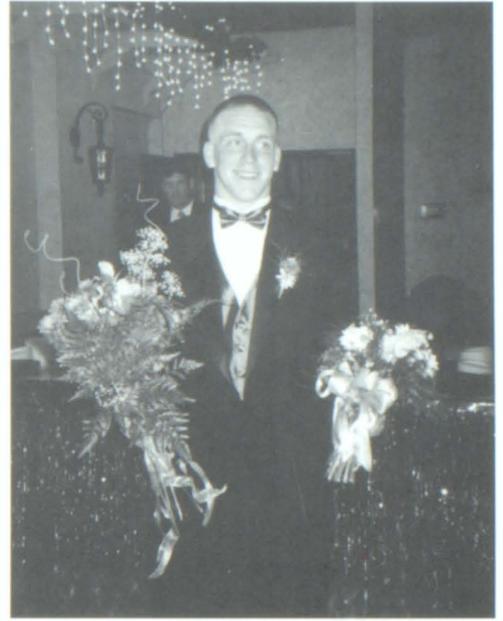

The 2001 Prom queen and king stop for a moment for a royal pose. Rachel Woodard and Tony Marshall.

Sarah Brunzman and Raymond White are welcomed into prom by Mr. Flewelling on their special night.

Mike Norviel and Devin Brown look sharp all dressed up and ready to go.

It went on and on...

Frankton Prom, "I promise you the stars," is a big deal not only to prom goers, but to friends and family who gather outside.

Prom returned to the Paramount after a one year hiatus. The ballroom works well for many reasons: parking, more room, classy design, the need for few decorations and other things.

Future proms will be there unless the junior class in charge chooses to raise much more money for a full decoration prom at another location.

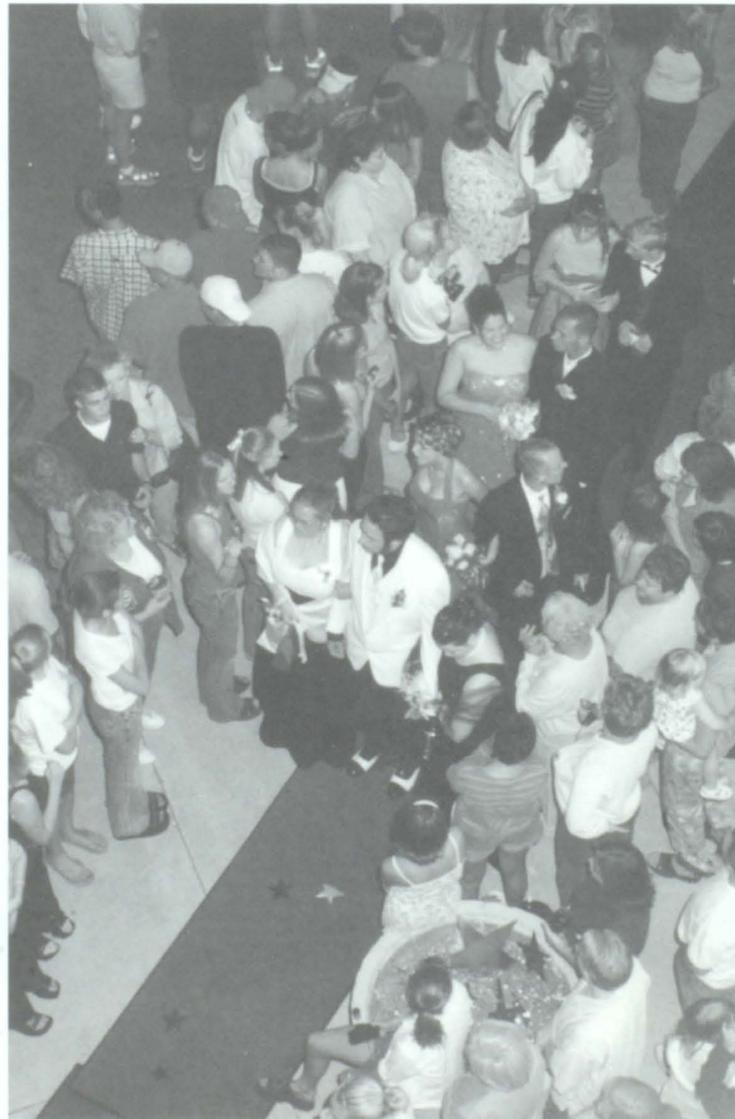

Having art teacher, Mrs. Clark, and technology teacher, Mr. Scholl, for sponsors always pays when it's time for colors, designs, placement, and mountings to be planned.

This year's blue and silver prom was an example of how planning equals success.

Off to Washington D. C.

Last May the class of 2005 went on the annual four-day Washington D.C. trip and stayed at the National 4-H Center.

While on their trip they visited Mount Vernon, Gettysburg and the Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson, and Roosevelt memorials.

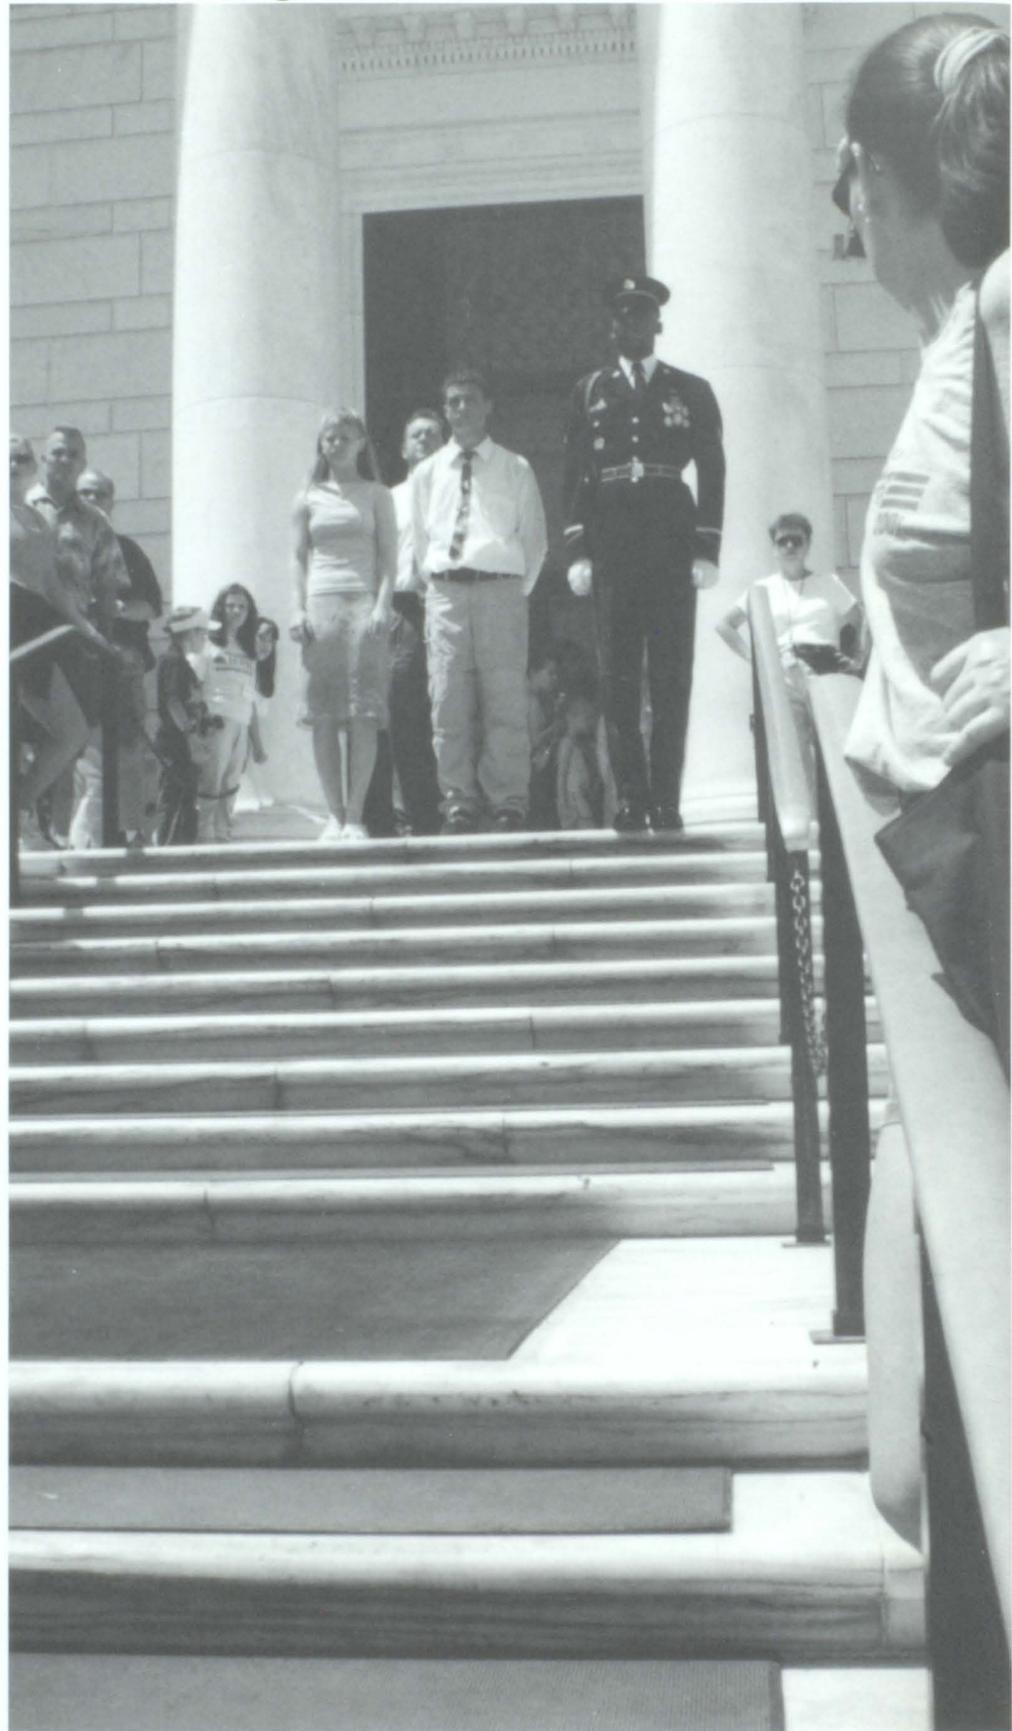

The class also visited Arlington National Cemetery where Katie Betz and Joel Beardsley presented a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

While in Washington, the students talked to Mike Pence, who is the U.S. Representative for our district.

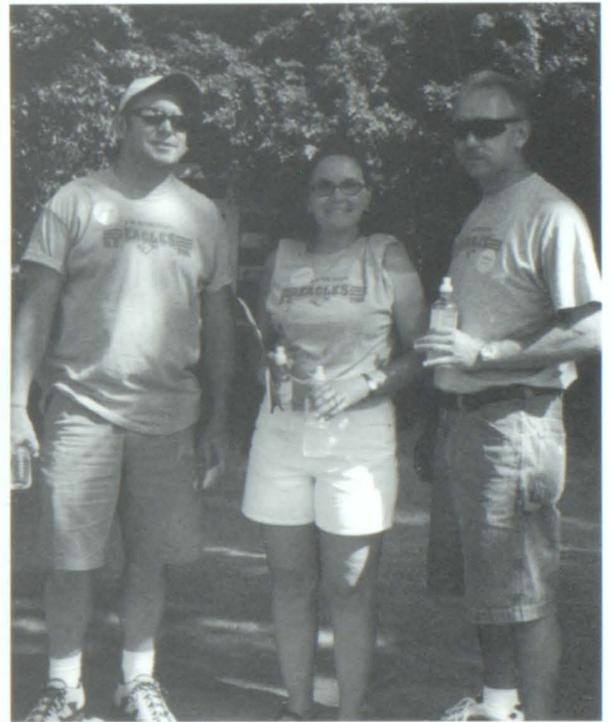

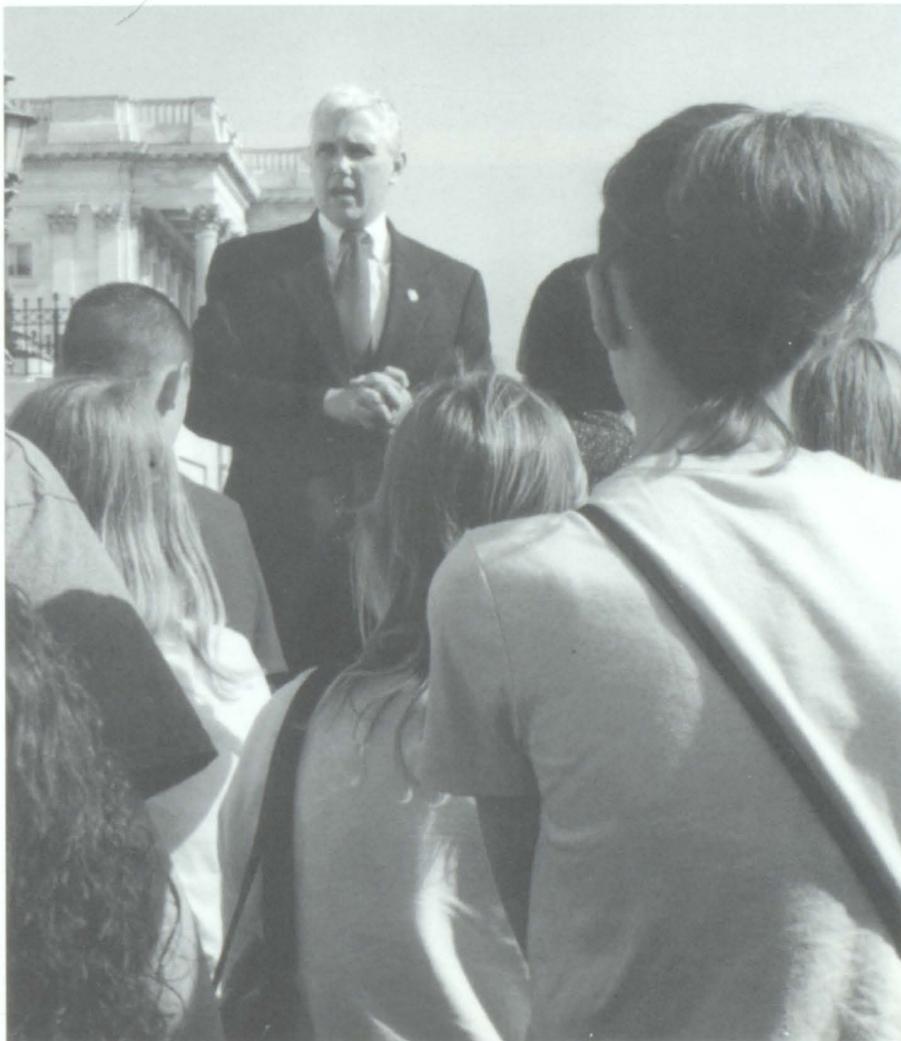

Good friends, Kristen Kuntz and Chelsea Smith sport their tricorn hats at Mount Vernon.

Katey Betz and Joel Beardsley represented the class of 2005, placing a wreath at the Tombs of the Unknown Soldiers in Arlington National Cemetery.

Principal, Mr. Morton poses with parents, Mike and Sharon Campbell, while they show their school spirit by wearing their Frankton D.C shirts. Mr. Morton because of his busy schedule at school, flew in for the day.

Students listen closely as congressmen Mike Pence talks to them on the steps of the Capital Building.

Going outside of the Box

Our students don't always spend their time at school. In fact students spend a lot of time doing things outside of the box.

Students participate in many activities such as Campus Life, spring break, and prom. There are other things to do outside of school such as, hanging out with friends, watching movies, going out to eat, and playing video games.

Another event is spring break. Some go on vacation to places such as Florida and Hawaii. Most spend their time hanging out with friends, going shopping in Muncie or Indianapolis, or taking in all that Madison County has to offer.

Students, friends and family members wait to see their favorite prom-goers enter the prom outside the Paramount Theater

Shawn and Jonathon Nelson eat with their dad at the Madison Christian Church for senior men's night out sponsored by the Frankton area churches.

Sophomores, Kelsey Schmink, Tara Holt, Ashley Smith, and Bailee Engle at the Bubble Room in Fort Myers, Florida

Having just finished early morning breakfast at Campus Life, Erin Hendricks, Tiffany Johnson, Rachel Woodard, and Briana McLaughlin sit and talk.

Graduation- A Night to Remember

The gym stage is all dress-up for the ceremony.

After all the years of hard work, graduation finally came for the class of 2001. Thirteen years were all over and now it was time for change once again. This year was Mr. Morton's first graduation ceremony. The Valedictorian was Alicia Bever and the Salutatorian was Ashley Alford. They gave a tag-team speech based on the Simon and Garfunkel song "Turn, Turn, Turn." They talked about the changes the class of 2001 had gone through over the years and how they managed to overcome them. After speeches were made, the class of 2001 walked out of the gym celebrating their achievements.

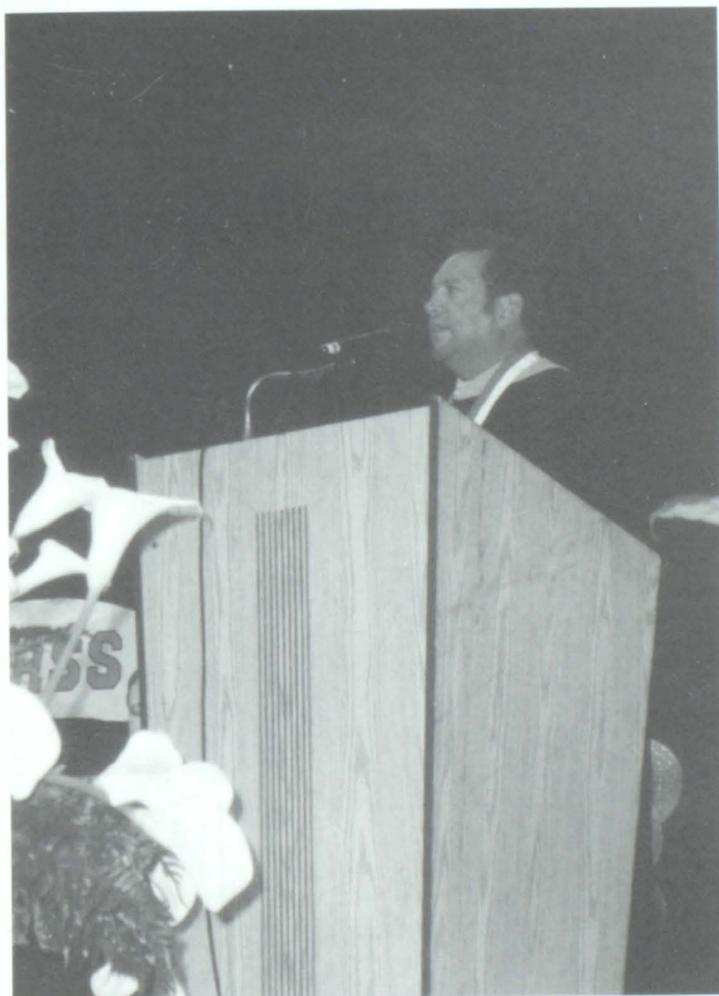

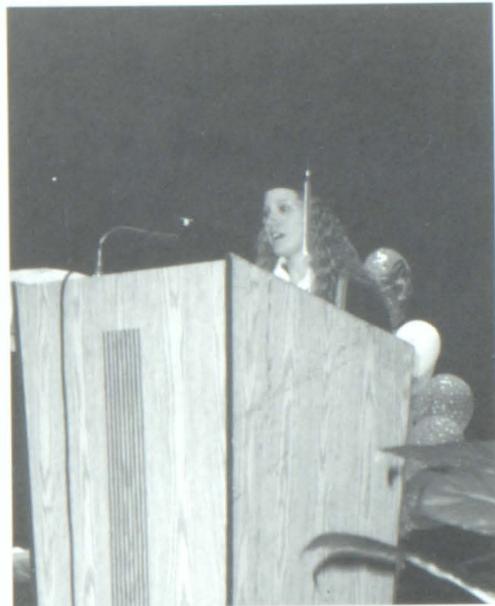

Alicia Bever, Jilayne Willhoite, and Kacia Harrison smile for the camera on their big day.

John Konkle and his parents relax and celebrate after the graduation ceremony.

Valedictorian of the Class of 2001, Alicia Bever, presents her speech.

Mr. Morton shares comments, including, how proud he is of the Class of 2001 and their accomplishments.

Mrs. Coryell is happy to see that her former 7th grade English students are graduating.

Scott Morgan and Thomas Neese hang out after graduation.

More Memories....

Jacob, graduating, and his brother Sam Juday sing a song for the ceremony.

Aaron Tomlinson looks at his diploma while Tosha Hudson looks at a card she received.

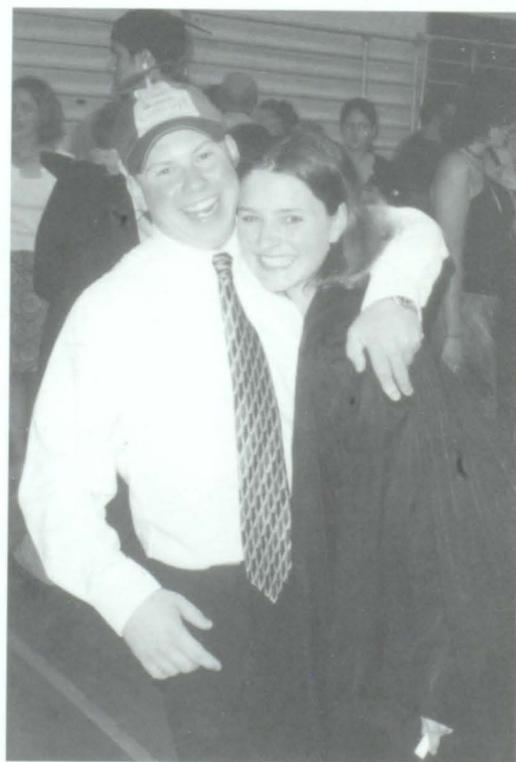

Rachel Courtney walks down the aisle smiling as the music plays.

Zack Kiphart and Jaime Moon pose for a photo while hugging.

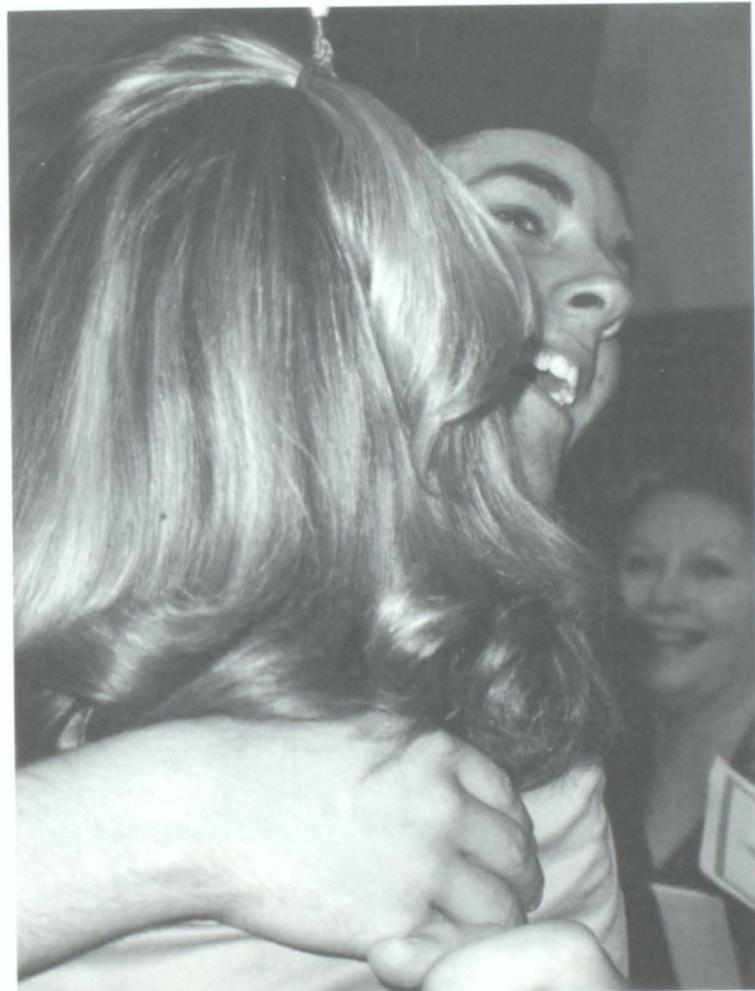

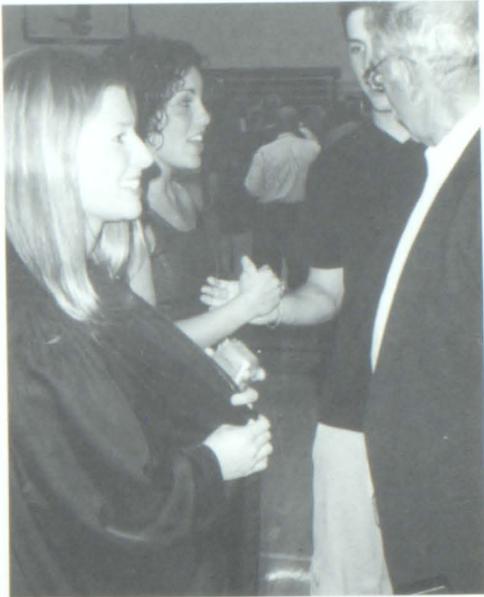

Maggi Downham, Willard Mott, and Ashley Alford take a moment to hug each other and pose for a picture.

Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Hagan listen to the choir sing at graduation.

Lauren Flanders and Kylie Schmink shake congratulatory hands.

Kaci Clutch and Wes McCord give each other a big hug.

Mr. Morton accepts another diploma from Mr. Speicher to hand off to another member of the class of 2001.

LOOKING BACK

The class of 2001 has seen its share of events since the beginning in 1988. Its high school years have been defined by school shootings, the millennium, the death of Princess Diana, and a school fire its senior year.

The entire class has matured since their beginning. When they began, their books were recycled paper. Now, they strain their backs carrying the bulk of their Literature book. Their writing utensils were crayons. Today, they are Bic pens in "blue or black ink only".

Style has changed dramatically. Hair was an array of teasing and crimping in the 1980's. Now, it is soft for girls and spiky for boys.

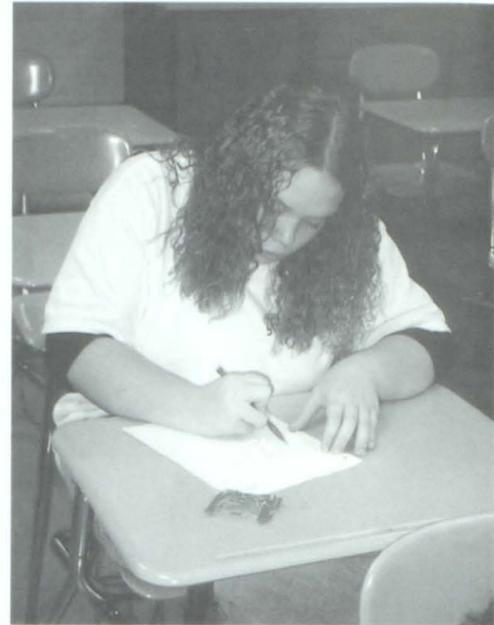

As the years passed, the class of '01 became a gymnasium full of bright, young leaders. It has seen so much history and has plenty of history to make in the years to come. They definitely left their mark at Frankton High School. Good luck to the class of 2001!

The Class of 2002 started their Junior year very well. They placed second in the Homecoming Games, which is an improvement from the previous year. They also beat the Seniors, 22-0, in the annual Powder Puff game. The Junior prince and princess were Kyle Lacey and Mary Graham.

The Junior class is also holding their prom at the Paramount Theatre. The 2001 theme was, "I Promise You the Stars." Prom was held on Friday May 4, 2001, from 9-12 p.m. The prom Queen Candidates were Kaci Brummett, Mary Graham, Chelsea Masterson, Briana McLaughlin, and Rachel Woodard. The prom King Candidates were Nate Ashby, Arik Flanders, Joey Mahoney, Scott Morgan, and Tony Marshall. The King and Queen were Tony Marshall and Rachel Woodard.

Post Prom was held at Cooper's Bowling Alley. Some activities included: bungee run, joust, bowling, getting married, and magic.

The Sophomore Class of 2003 is getting smaller. They started the year off well. For the second year in a row, they won the Homecoming float contest, and also placed third in the hallway contest. While having a blast at the Homecoming Games, they only managed to grab third. The Homecoming Prince and Princess were Todd Campbell and Whitney Harrison.

This year the class party was cancelled due to the fire. In place of the class party to raise money for prom, they had a successful car wash at Ricker's on May 19.

The Sophomore Class was also involved in an AIDS panel that related to what they had studied in Health 10.

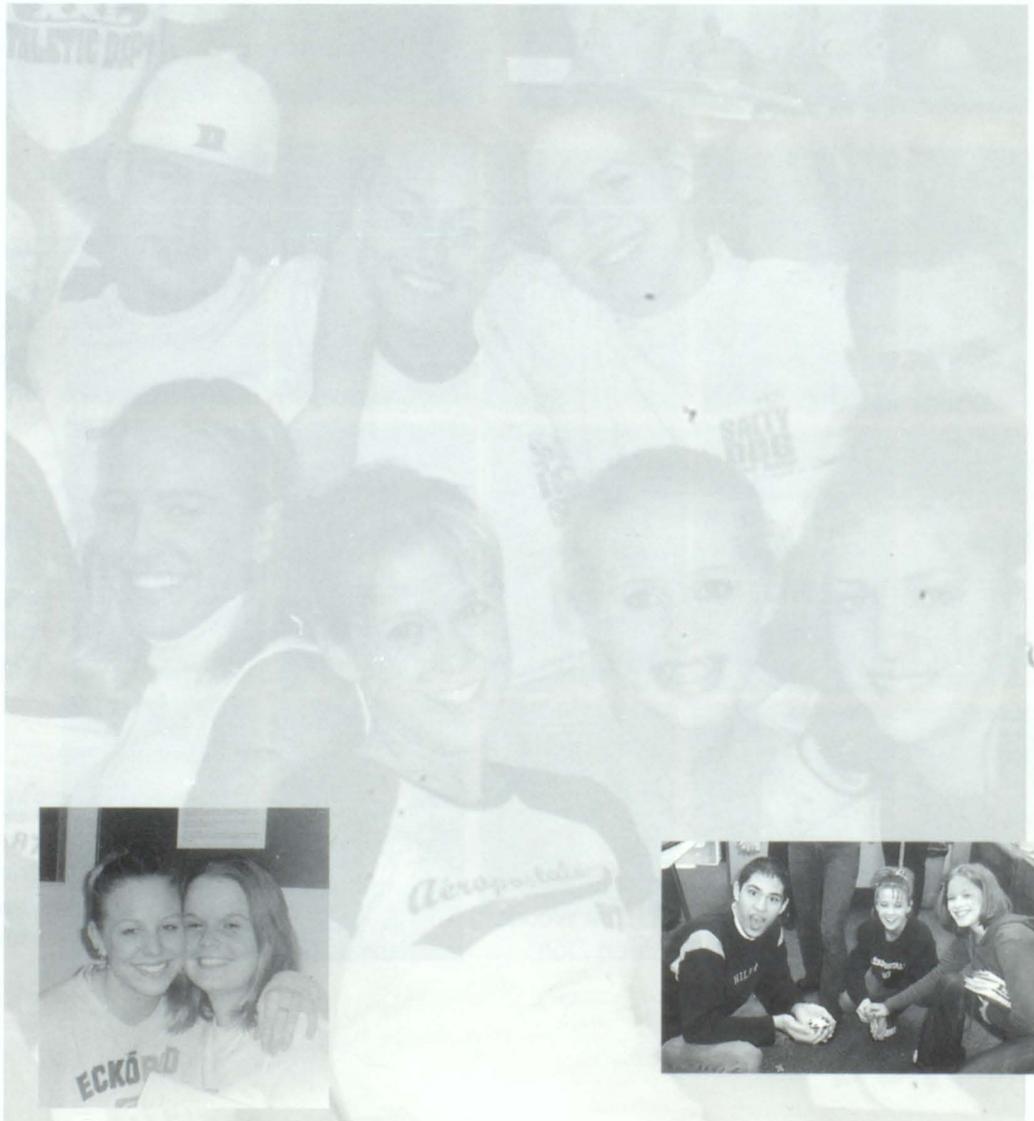

The Class Officers were: President, Corrie Goshert; Vice-President, Emily Barr; Secretary, Erin McLaughlin; Treasurer, Ashley Clevenger.

The Freshmen survived the change into high school! They started their year by winning first place in the Homecoming Hallway contest, with their theme of "disco". The Freshmen class also placed last out of three floats entered in the contest. The Freshmen Prince and Princess were Ryan McClintick and Kristen Johnson.

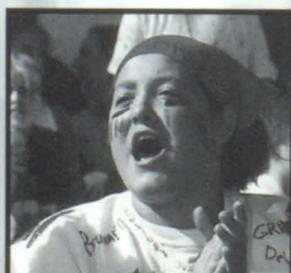

The Freshmen class experienced many new things. They studied poetry, grammar, and short stories in English 9, which is a mandatory class. After studying the stories, they took a field trip to the Circle Theatre, in Indianapolis.

Brittany Kunce, the Freshmen class president was very active in student council. She said, "Student Council is a great experience, and I hope to do it all through high school." Another Freshmen, Jarren Mattingly said, "This year has been a very new experience for myself and the rest of my class!"

The Class 2005 has had a memorable 2000-2001 school year to end their Junior High careers. Who could forget the Halloween Dance complete with costumes or the Valentine's Dance called "Wish Upon a Cloud"? The athletic teams gave them lots to cheer about as all of them had successful seasons. Also, many friends came together for fun and games at Activities Night.

Probably the two most memorable events that stood out were the school fire and the 8th grade class trip to Washington, D.C. Because of the fire, the junior high experienced life at the new Frankton Elementary School. Their classes were moved to the state-of-the-art elementary for nearly three weeks until the fire clean-up was completed after Spring Break. The fondest memories came near the end of the year during their class trip. From May 9-12, students visited historical sites they'll remember for the rest of their lives. But the best has yet to come!

The Seventh Graders thought that coming from elementary to junior high was a big change, but they found out it wasn't so bad after all. Some of the many changes included a lot more homework, and the teachers expect a lot more out of the students.

In elementary, they mostly stayed in one room and had one major teacher. Now they had many different teachers and classes. The first few days were scary for some, because they were afraid about moving room to room, not being able to find their classes, and meeting new classmates from both Frankton and Leach Elementary Schools. It took many of the students awhile for them to catch onto the block scheduling. Now many of the students are worried about the new trimester scheduling and switching back to the original 7 classes-a-day schedule next year.

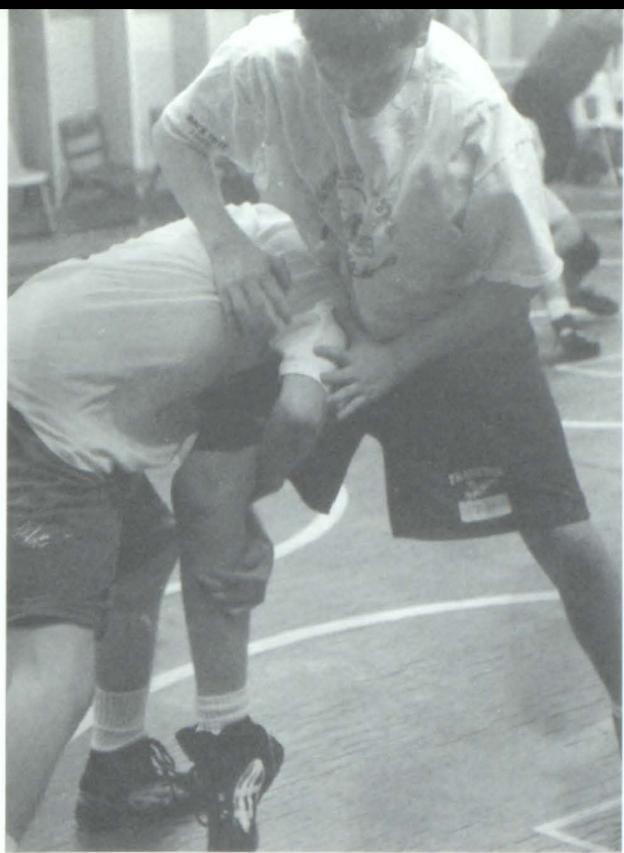

The Seventh Grade class officers were President- Elizabeth Riddle, Vice-President- Devin Clark, Secretary-Kristen Truex, and Treasurer- Allen Schmelzel.

FACULTY

Our faculty and staff have a job that most people could not do. They devote their time, energy and efforts into making us stronger, more intelligent people. Our faculty's commitment was realized most in March when, because of the fire, they went to Lapel or Frankton Elementary to continue the educational process. Many traveled back and forth between Frankton and Lapel to continue their duties. It was a trying time for everyone, but the faculty managed to overcome the difficulties.

The year started with eight new faces to know. Phyllis Blanton and Karla Hunt L.D. Resource Aides, Lisa Hagan- replaced Stacey Cawley in Speech/English 10, Andy Lamaster-PRT/Essential Skills replaced Vicki Hobbs, Dea Norman- replaced Diane Savin in Resource, Carey Aubry- replaced Paul Maish in Agriculture and Beth Jacobs- replaced Tami Davis in Business. The new assistant principal Brian VanBuskirk, took over the position when Bill Morton was promoted to Principal to replace Stan Warner.

At the end of the year, many other positions were vacated: Phil Davis left the Athletic Director position to return to the classroom. Larry Canaday retired after 40 years of service to this school corporation and Barbara Browning, secretary, retired concluding 33 years of service. Also choosing to leave were Don Housholder, Dixie Shipley, Jerome Flewelling, Brian VanBuskirk, and Emily Bonecutter.

HEALTH CLUB

With a new leader, Mr. Andy Lamaster, brought the Health Club new and creative ideas for the year.

Some new events for the club were the Great American Smokeout, "Hat Day" to raise money for Riley Hospital and the Frankton Diary.

The group also did the traditional Easter Egg hunt, held at the elementary school and the Food Drive.

Health Club set a goal of collecting 2,000 pop tabs, but instead collected 30,000 pop tabs, passing their goal by far.

During the Christmas season the group went to local nursing homes and sang Christmas carols to the residents.

SADD

Seniors Cody Linville and Danny Wilson begin a traditional SADD meeting in the cafeteria.

Sadd began the year with 81 members, with Cody Linville as president and Dan Wilson as vice president. SADD stands for the statement: Students Against Destructive Decisions. Some projects that the group has accomplished include: the Chains of Life and Jar Wars. The group also participated in and sponsored yellow ribbon week which gives awareness for teen suicide.

Mrs. Hagan, one of the high school English teachers, organized and supported and sponsored the club. The group set up a mock crash for students to see as they walked in and out of school. They also had a promise for students to sign stating that they would not drink on prom night.

ACADEMIC QUIZ BOWL

- Quiz Bowl had one goal this year, which was to win their meets.
- They accomplished their goal by winning two meets against Alexandria and Delta.
- Plans for the future:
 "Get started early fall, recruit new members."
- They went to a carnival held at Ball State, which also sponsored an academic tournament.
- They also challenged other teams at a tournament in Noblesville.

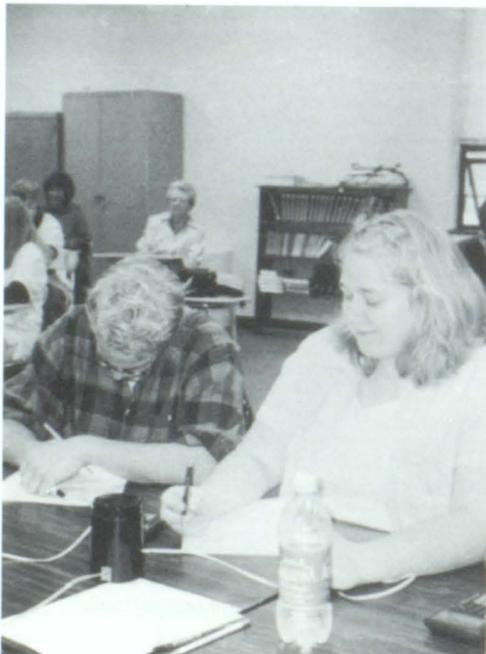

Becky Welker and Ashley Clevenger discuss their answers.

Senior varsity team players, Karli Cook, Amber Turner, and Michael Norviel, get ready for their tourney in Noblesville.

Justin Pruitt checks out his buzzer at the meet in Alexandria.

After being asked a question at a quiz bowl meet, Jed Baker and Victoria Davis smile as they quickly write down the answer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Mr. Gordy, the National Honor Society sponsor, helps a parent at one of many school meetings.

- Members of the National Honor Society are the top ten percent of their class, invited into the society by the faculty advisory council.

- Not only does intelligence count, but a member should have citizenship, leadership and some experience with serving their community.

- The sponsor of National Honor Society was Mr. Gordy.

- The induction ceremony for new members took place November 9, 2000.

- The new members were: Mary Graham, Erin Hendricks, Ashley Hymes, Joey Mahoney, Jared Odle, Claire Parker, Rebecca Welker, and Rachel Woodard.

- Returning members, Riley Alexander, Ashley Alford, Alicia Bever, Casey Clutch, John Collier, Karli Cook, Kacia Harrison, Thomas Neese, Justin Pruitt, and Andrew Rodewald all wore gold tassels in addition to a school tassel during graduation to represent their membership.

- The President of NHS is Andrew Rodewald, Vice-President: Ashley Alford, Secretary: Kacia Harrison, and Treasurer: John Collier.

- Some activities that the National Honor Society were involved in included Fund Raisers and recycling newspapers within the school.

DRAMA CLUB

- Had an ice cream social for all the members to celebrate the grand opening
- Roger and Hamerstein's Cinderella was chosen for the musical
- Had three set dates dedicated to auditions judged by Miss Bonecutter and Mr. Flewelling
- Mr. Scholl and some of his students built and designed the Cinderella set
- The musical was scheduled for April 19, 20, and 22, but due to the school fire, the musical was rescheduled and performed on March 22, 23 and 25
- Mr. Flewelling was the director with the help of Ms. Bonecutter
- As a reward, the members went to Beef 'n' Boards and saw the musical Grease

On stage, Rachel Woodard (a.k.a. Cinderella) always seems to be the highlight of every show as she acts out her part perfectly each time.

Some of the drama club crew members make some last and final preparations before the big night.

With Kayla Peterson having but little time to prepare herself for her act, Megan Sharp, one of the backstage make-up crew members, helps the actors get ready.

The musical consisted of a orchestra pit, located in front of the stage, to set a more realistic "Cinderella-like" ballroom atmosphere.

Briana Butcher hurries as she puts on her make-up for her leading role in the musical.

Kila Peterson, Devin Brown and Rachel Woodard entertain the audience by re-enacting the musical Cinderella.

SHOWSTOPPERS

Greg Barr and Raymond White pick up the end-zone markers after a home game.

The football team, despite having an injury-filled season, finished 8-4. This was Frankton's third year in the Central Indiana Conference (CIC). Being the smallest school of the conference, they still overcame the larger schools. This year's team was quite young, consisting of only seven seniors. Those seniors will be followed by outstanding juniors. Frankton had an opportunity to play in the RCA Dome against Madison-Grant. This was a great experience as well as confidence builder for the team. Frankton defeated Madison-Grant by a wide margin. "This was a total team effort," said John Konkle.

Girls Basketball

8th Grade Girls Basketball:
Maggi Campbell, Chelsea Smith, Amy Huntsinger, Coach Dennis Huntsinger, Abby Justice, Jennifer Gohn, and Katie Betz

Coach Dennis Huntsinger led the 8th grade Lady Eagles to a successful season with a record of 11 wins and 6 losses. Returning from the 7th grade team this year were Maggie Campbell, Kassie Humphries, Amy Huntsinger, Abby Justice, and Chelsea Smith. Thanks to Katey Betz and Jennifer Gohn moving into the Frankton district, there were enough girls to make a team. To top off having only 7 players, Kassie Humphries broke her arm before the first game was even played. The team was limited to having only one sub from the bench. Although small in number the 8th grade team played with a lot of heart. They surprised many by winning their first five games including a tournament at Wes-del. The girls defeated Knightstown 34-30 in the championship game of the Wes-Del Tourney despite playing at times with only four players due to foul trouble and illness. The 8th grade team worked hard on the court and in the classroom. All seven teammates were either on the A-Honor Roll or on the A-B-Honor Roll throughout the season. The future looks bright for these Lady Eagles!

7th Grade Girls Results

Wins- 13
Losses- 5

The 7th grade, 2000-2001 girls basketball season finished with a 13-5 record. They won a tourney and were runner-up in two other tourneys, including the Madison County Tourney. The team was led by three top scorers. Liz Riddle, Kelsey Davis, and Teairra Graves. The two other starters were Mandy Moore and Sarah Kelich. Since they had eleven players, they substituted in and out a lot. Many times the bench players bailed them out. The coach was Larry Shively. According to the team Larry was a great coach. This season was a success. Hopefully next year will be even better!

Amy Huntsinger, Chelsea Smith, Maggie Campbell, Abby Justice, Jennifer Gohn, Katie Betz, and Kassie Humphries show the 7th grade how to act for next year's season.

The Change Continues

What can we say, better late than never. Due to complications with the fire we were set back almost a month and a half. It seemed like we were never going to get back on our schedule. After many months of work we finally got the yearbook done. We hope this yearbook will be as good as the effort put in it.

Every year the Eaglite last page has been the letter from the editor. Frankton is one of the few schools to carry this tradition. This page is here to recognize all of the people who put hard work and dedication into this yearbook. So, here we go!

First and foremost I would like to thank Mr. Sipe. With out his knowledge and experience the Eaglite would have never come this far. He has put in endless hours and gave up much personal time to help work on this book. He has also taken his time to keep personal contact with the students to reach beyond teaching duties. A special thanks goes out to the journalism class who put in tons of efforts to get the clubs pages done and then some. We came into this book accepting no less than the best and with the challenges laid in front of us we accomplished a lot.

Our staff this year consisted of a lot of first year students, but they are on a good track to a great yearbook next year. Thank you to Kaci, Briana, and Wendy. They were on the ball with getting their pages done and helping out with others. Celliena, Rachel, and Adam were truly team players as they not only gave the yearbook full attention, but also put out eleven issues of the Eagles Wings. Clint got out there in the community and sold many ads to help pay for the book cost. He also was the handy man of the class and kept out computers and scanner up and running. Mary was our Photo Editor and with the photographers put out all of the pictures for us and the paper. Thank you both kindly. I feel I must thank my lunch table and my friends for putting up with me when things got rough and it was hard to stay smiling, I love you all. There are so many faculty members and students who helped us make this a great yearbook. We could never thank them all. My last thanks goes out to Lynn Pickett and Herff Jones. They really worked with us through the fire and got us on schedule. It is a long time coming, finally I can say we are ready to move on to our next change in life.

The eventual completion of the book took place during the 2001-02 school year. Special thanks to Zach Whitesel, Paul Clausen, Amanda O'dell Sara Rodewald, Whitney Lewis and Krystal Courtney.
