EDITOR -- SUSIE BRANE

Summitville High School
Summitville, Indiana

Foreword

When construction on our new addition began, many people looked back upon the fond memories of life in the old school. But they have learned that erecting new goals and carrying them through leads to a bigger and better life.

We are building for our future, trying to gain the qualities necessary for a successful life later on. Through our book you can see how we, the students at S. H. S., are laying the foundations for a concrete future.

By Facing New Challenges And Construction

The first of July brought the downfall of the old Oak Grove building.

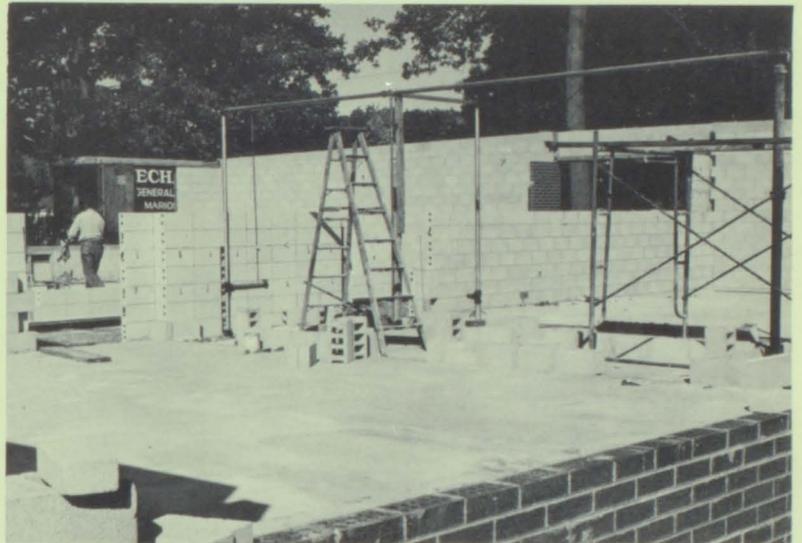

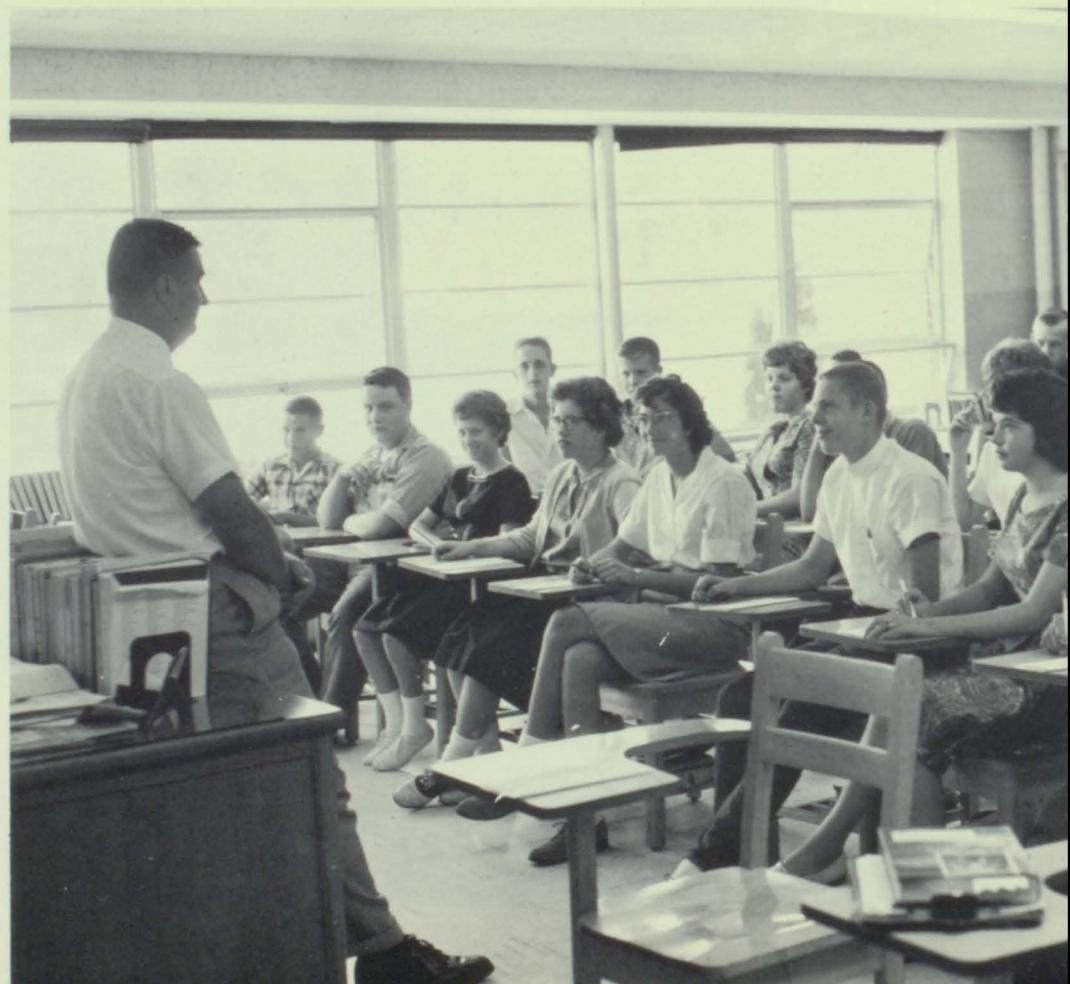

We Progress Toward The Future

Through the fall and winter months the progress was rapid on the construction of the new departments. The elementary students moved into their new rooms on February 7, 1964.

At a later date, an open house was held for the public upon completion of the new Summitville school.

Through

Home, Education,
And Religion

Well-Planned Schedules Promote

A collection of leaves is one of the Freshman's biology projects.

Junior High band members find that practice is essential for perfection.

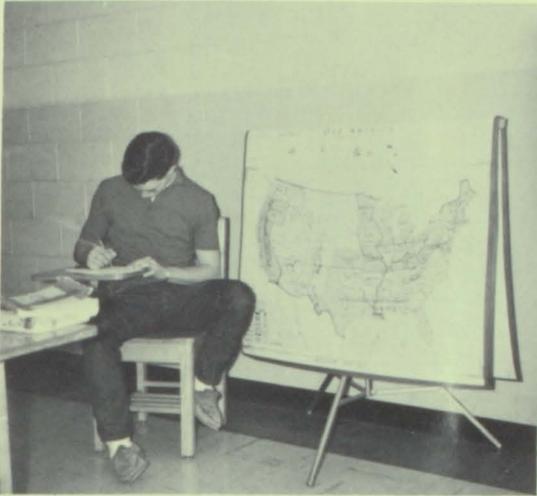

Librarians work hard to keep our library ready for the students' use.

To the fourth graders, division is a new and different type of math problem.

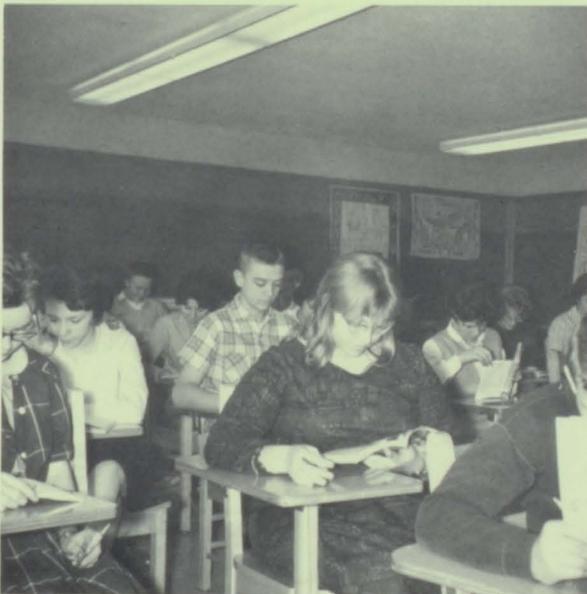

A Successful High School Career

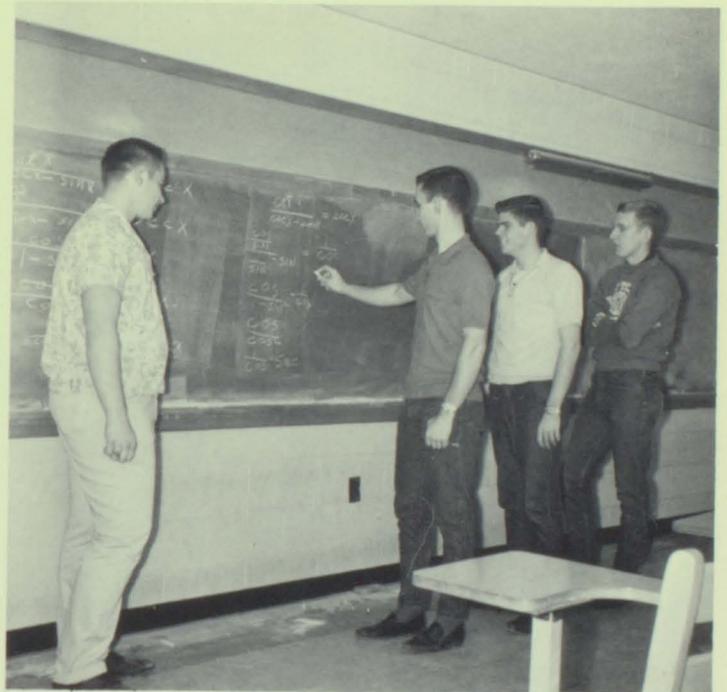

Monte and U. S. History prove to be good pals through the Junior year.

Jim and Steve are proud of their latest "dragsters" that they made in Art.

Comprehending what you read is important in learning English.

Trigonometry sure is rough, but it's worth it all.

School Days Are Highlighted

Lots of strikes bring bowling trophy to S.H.S. to stay.

Care of "Old Glory" becomes sixth grade's privilege.

Short legs just don't pay off!

By Varying Activities

Student teachers take over elementary classes to try their hand at teaching.

Mrs. Phelps supervises Senior play tryouts.

Hey Charlie, do they melt in your hand?

Enthusiasm Of Students Backs

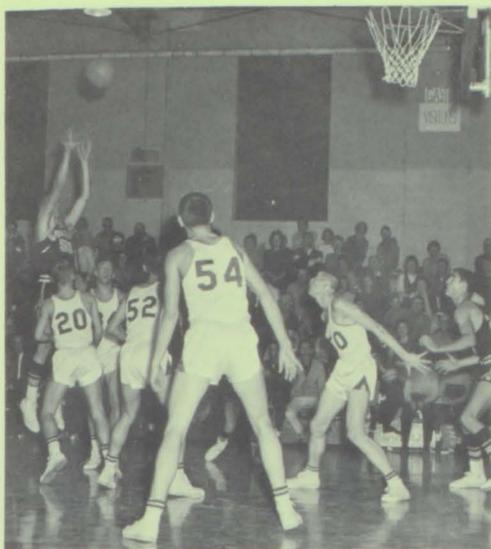

An anxious moment brings painful expressions to the faces of our cheerleaders.

Margaret Wilson and Rick Runyan get everyone's approval as they capture the title of Miss Gold and Mr. Black for 1963.

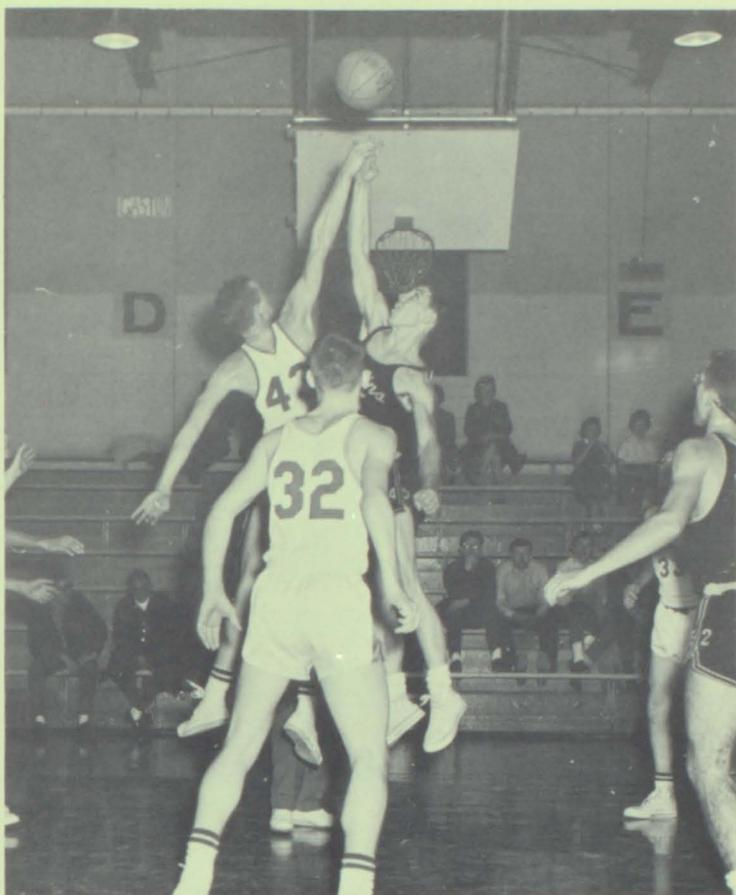

The Goblins never give up the battle as they fight to bring victory to S. H. S.

Up Determination To Win

Ron Slain battles for Summitville while surrounded by opponents.

Bill Reding awaits the tip ball from Monte Rudy.

Not all ball players have four legs!

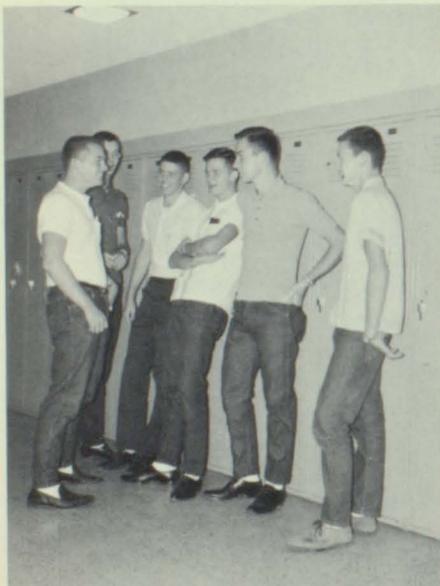

A graceful touch adds two points.

Fun And Friends Are Not Forgotten

A cookout wouldn't be a cookout without good food and our four-legged friends.

Girls gossip!

When you have a car, look at the friends.

In Our Daily School Routine

What other time of day would beat the time when we go home?

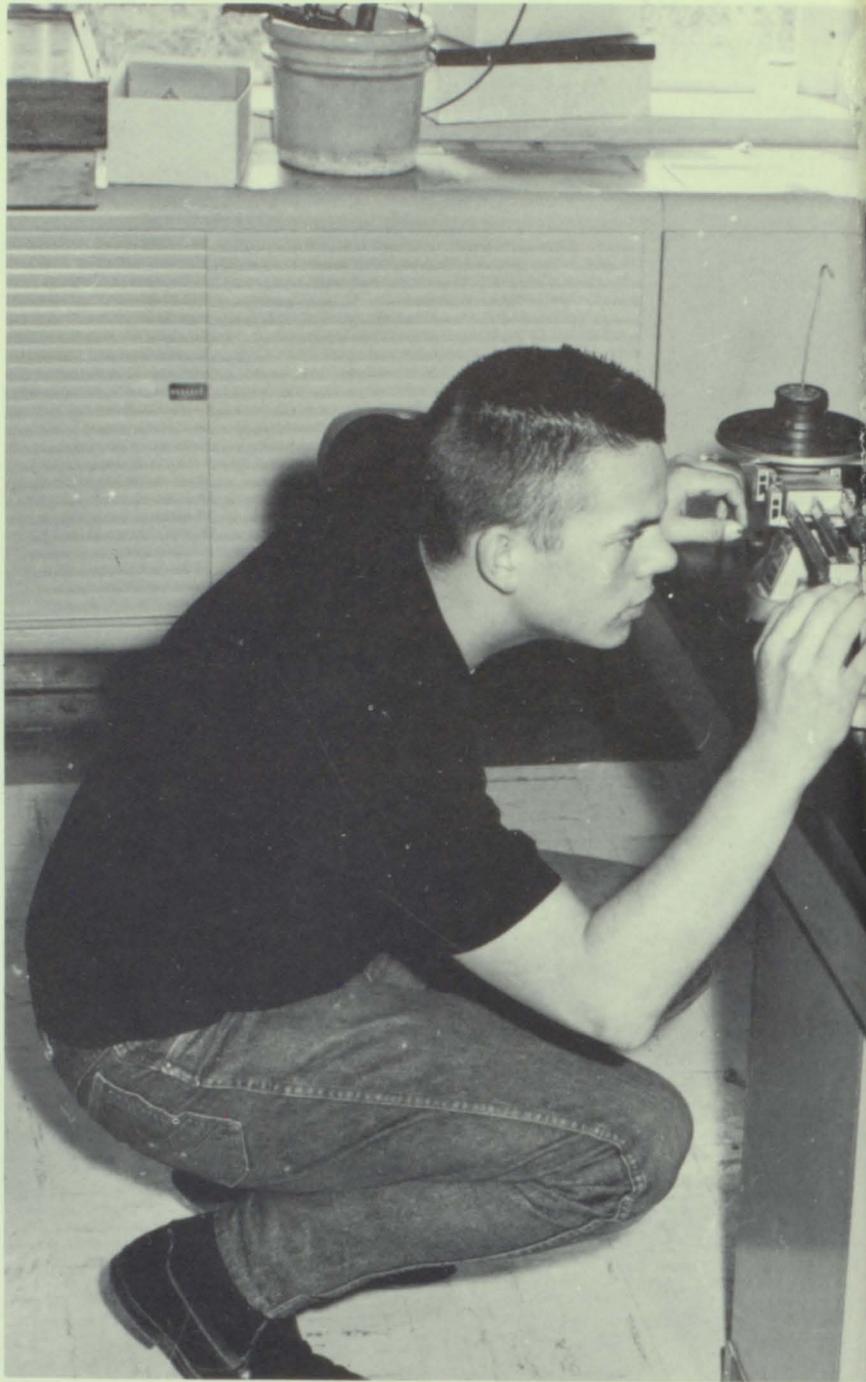

Freshman girls take time between bites to talk with their classmates.

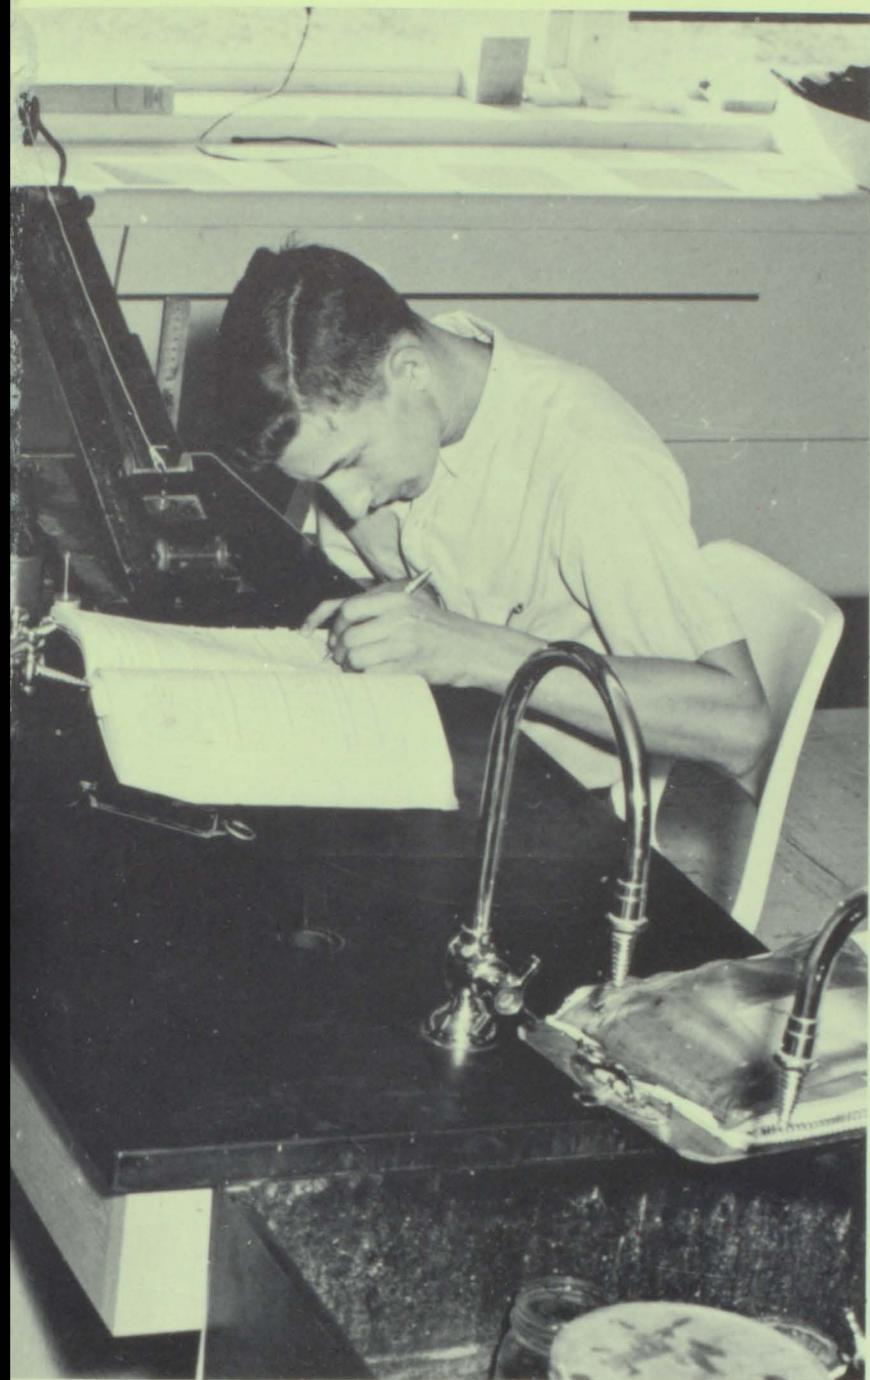

It is the little monitors that you have to watch.

Mr. Gossett shows the Seventh and Eighth Grade boys how to play dominoes.

Building For The

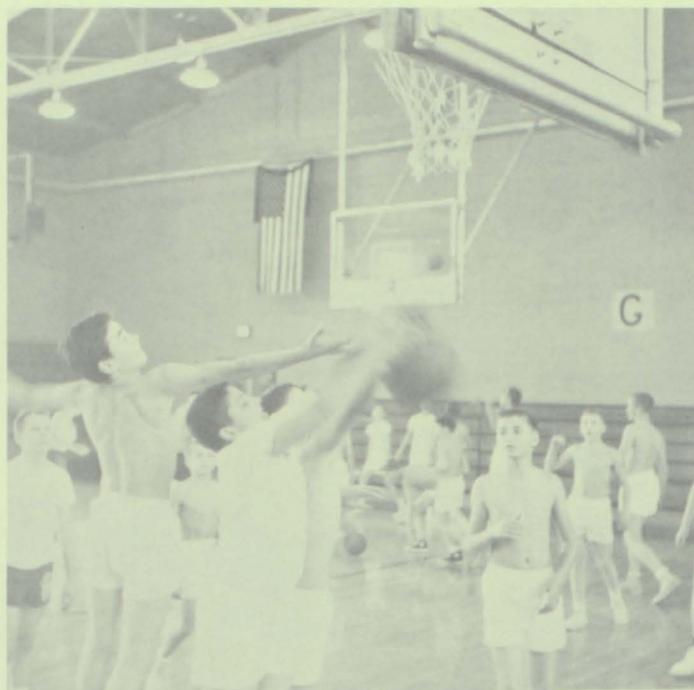

Future Through Classes

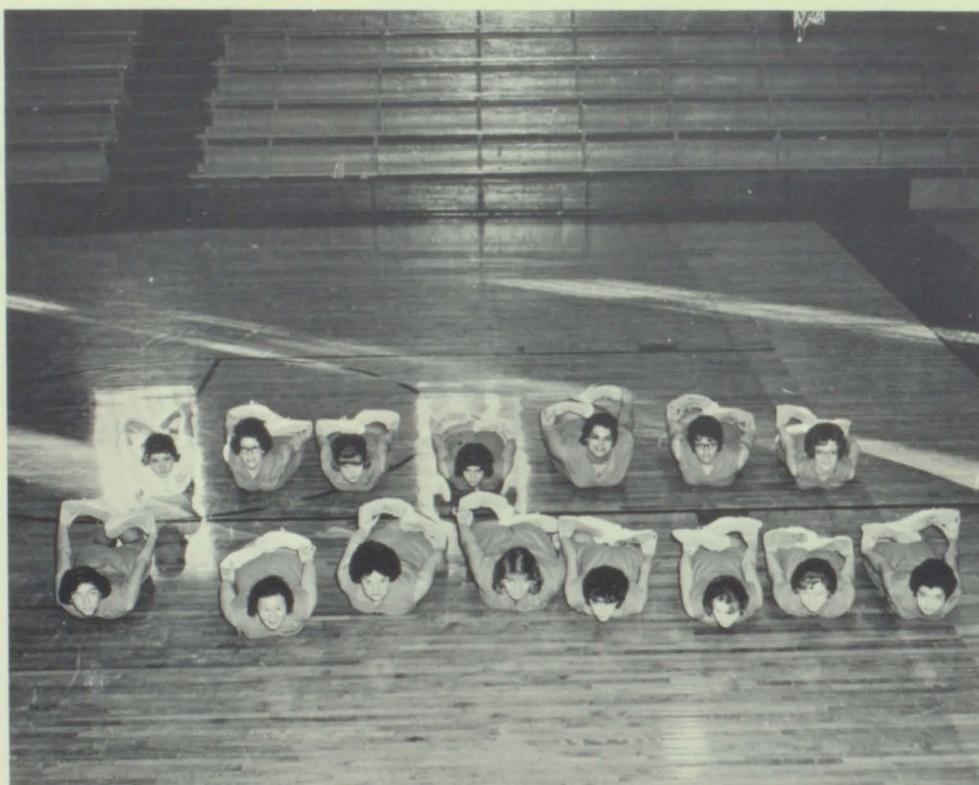

Physical Education Proves Popular Course To Students

Becoming a young lady takes practice.

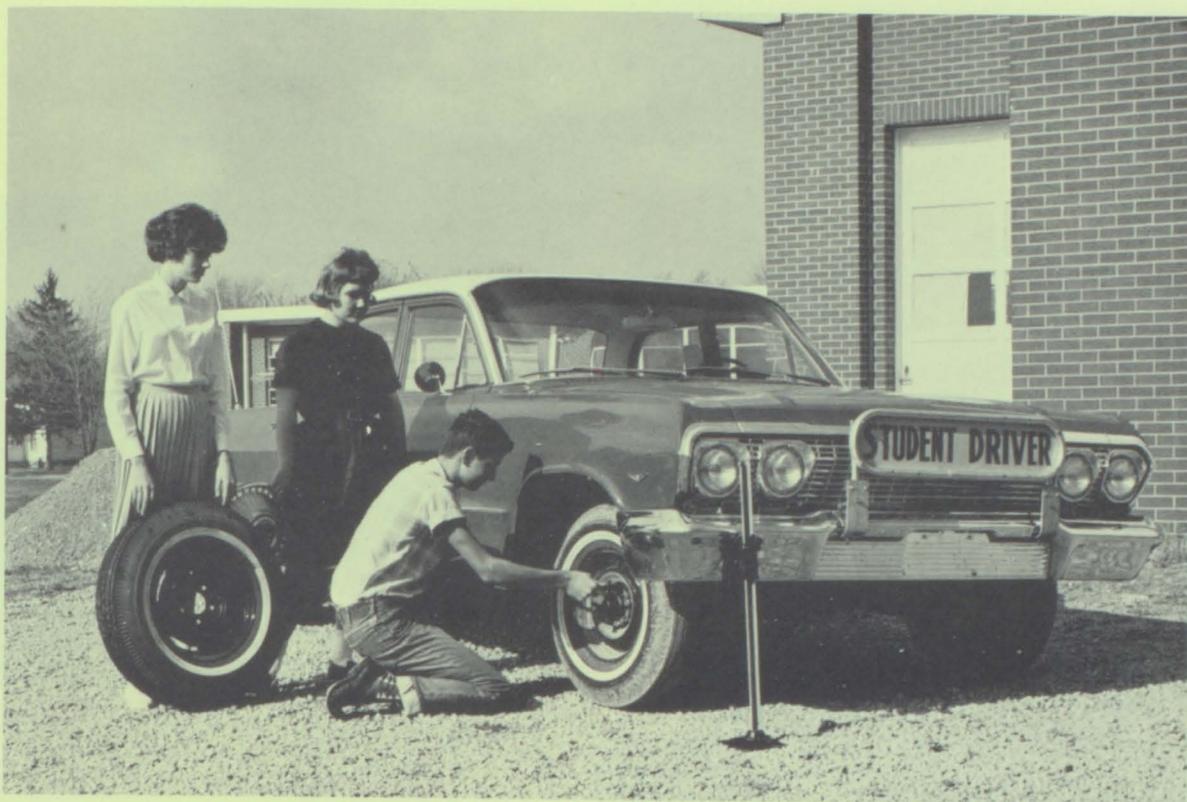

Basketball is a favorite sport for boys of all ages.

In the Sophomore Physical Education class, it takes more than just two to "tangle."

Applying Knowledge To Basic Skills

"Don't just stand there, help!"

- and this little worm got pinned. The Freshman Biology students study dissection.

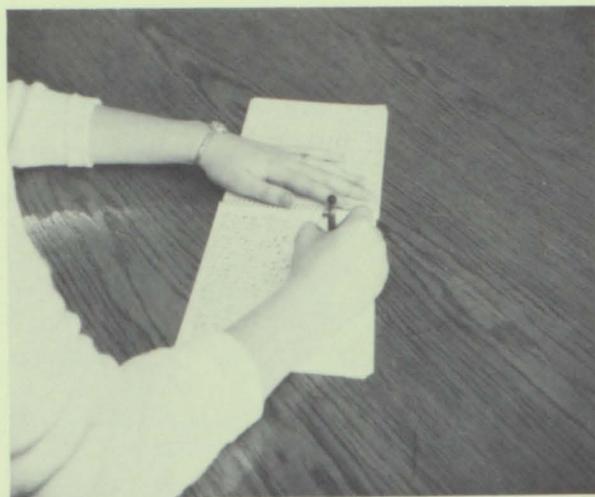

Mr. Mattingly overlooks the steady hands of the Introductory Art students.

Students Receive Training In Business Methods

Cheryl Watts applies practical business methods during office practice.

By learning shorthand, this student prepares herself for future life.

Speed and accuracy are the biggest aims of the Typing I students.

Students Explore Through Participation

The past weaves a tale of adventure for the eighth grade students.

Mr. Felts must not only know how to direct music but to repair the instruments that produce it.

The seventh graders find that the best way to watch science work is through experimentation.

Things On The Homefront Are Just So-So

Among other things, the students in Home Nursing study child care.

Care of the Home Ec Department becomes Nancy DeLong and Elaine Allen's responsibility.

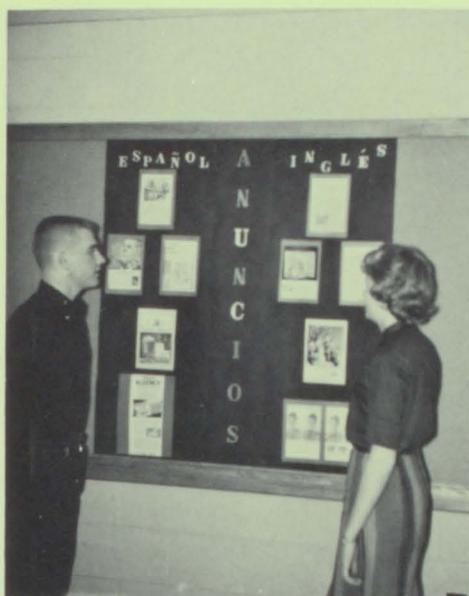

Knowing how to prepare exotic dishes comes under being a good cook!

Selective Courses Provide Schedule Variator

Algebra students find the second year more complicated.

Steve Walker and Cheryl Watts dream of life south of the border.

Land judging is one of the many fields of vocational agriculture.

Robert Absher Principal

The True Foundation Of SHS

Agnes Moyer's smile is an example of the patience and kindness she displays as school secretary.

The capable supervision of Don Gossett, our trustee, has made SHS a school of which we can be proud.

People Whose Work Is Never Done

Our reliable bus drivers, Ralph Thurston, Betty Bogue, Tom Bair, Wilma Joyner, and Leon Armstrong, chat while waiting for the 3:15 bell.

With a smile on their face and a desire to serve, Mr. and Mrs. Ward are willing to help in any way possible.

Appetizing and hot meals were prepared for us by our cooks: Belva Forrest, Margaret Leachman, and Doris Frazier.

Building For The

Future Through Activities

Leadership And Responsibility Go

Girls' And Boys' State Representatives And Alternates

Well Sharon, you just can't take everything to Girls' State.

"Too bad alternates can't go too, Jim."

Extra Activities Brighten

Let's make this one a strike, Sarah.

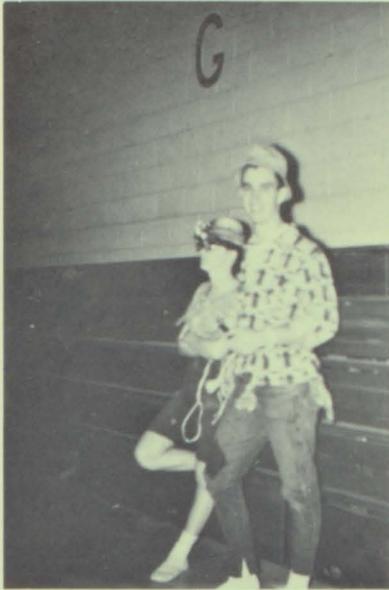

"I'll never hit those pins."

Cords give a variety to Seniors' apparel.

Our School Days

"She sure can run."

"I got my man," says Alice.

Joe really hammed up this picture.

Last minute adjustments before the big chase.

That "Mountain Dew" sure quenches your thirst.

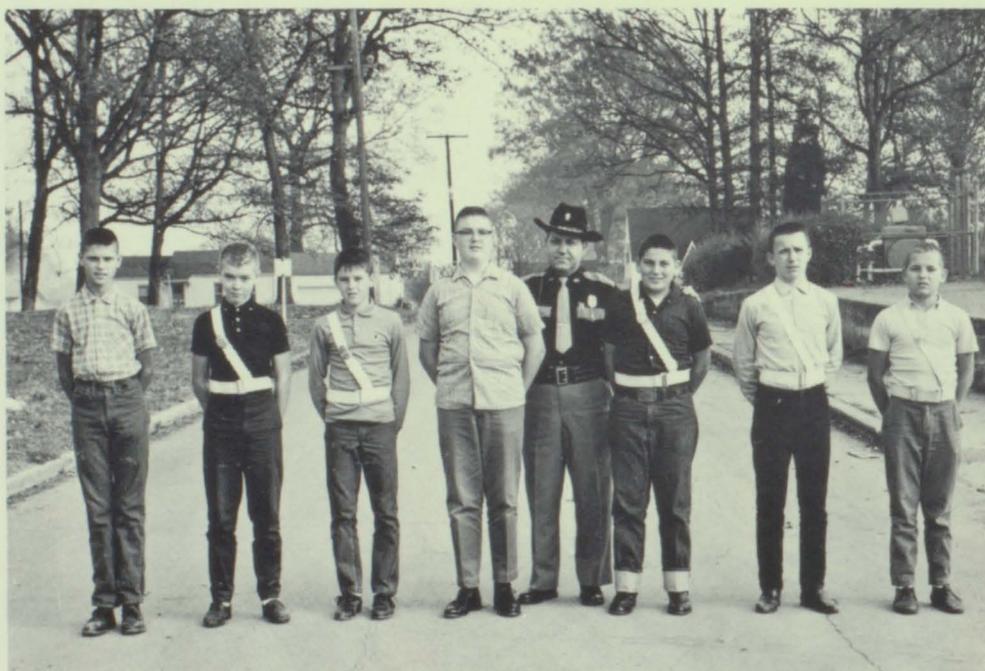

Safety Measures Check Possible School Hazards

Quick evacuation of the school building is practiced with every fire drill.

Patrol boys direct elementary children across a busy intersection after school.

SAFETY PATROL BOYS: Roger Byrd, Mike Webb, Steve Byrd, Ted Williams,

A Variety Of Memories Makes Each Year Complete

The Sophomores had a difficult time choosing the style of ring they wanted to buy.

That final moment becomes a reality to the Seniors as they are measured for their caps and gowns.

The Freshmen ordered class jackets and sweaters that can be worn as Seniors, too!

Out Of Trouble

Dinner is served.

Does she or doesn't she?

A sheep among wolves?

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"

Into A Stew

Back to the good old days.

“ONIONS IN THE STEW”

Is this a family reunion or trouble?

This is just fate folks!

Sure you do. (You just did.) You're curious. You have an inquiring mind. You're very fortunate. Inquiring minds have a lot more fun than if-it-was-good-enough-for-my-father-it's-good-enough-for-me-type minds. ■ Take a look at the young scientists at Delco-Remy's Research and Engineering Center in Anderson. They solve problems using everything from an electron microscope that can magnify the diameter of a human hair to a width of 150 feet to an instrument that can cut an inch of material into a million parts. They work side by side with other scientists who are developing things like electronic ignition systems for cars and control devices for missiles and rockets. ■ Beginning to think research can be fun? You're right. If you enjoyed your high school science courses, perhaps you should think about making a career in research. Don't get the idea that it'll be a snap, though. You'll need to tackle a lot of preparatory study and hard work in college. But if you've got what it takes, maybe we can get together sometime and play around with a new discovery or two.
