In this day of routine there is an exception. Every year at F. H. S. is unique. The prom theme "We May Never Pass This Way Again" holds true for this year. We will never be able to relive the events of this year. Homecoming, classes, awards, tears, a smile--- all these reflect the '74-'75 school year.

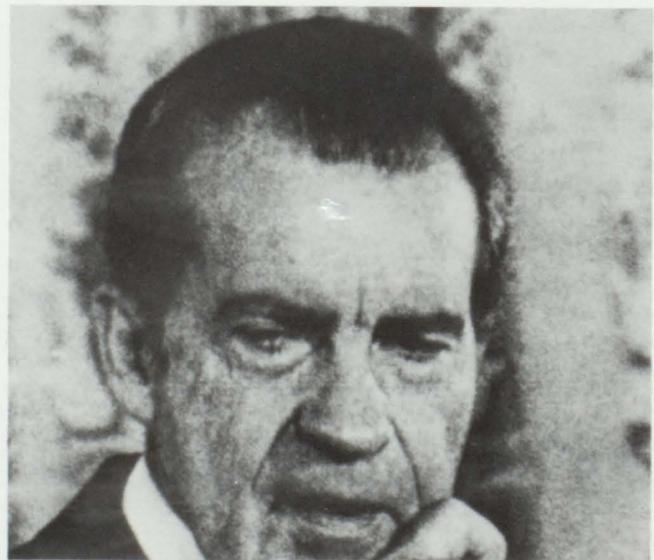

1974-75 Reflect Turmoil, Change

The past year has not only reflected Frankton, Indiana and F. H. S., but a unique panorama of national and world events as well.

1974-1975 was a year of great change in America. For the first time in the history of our democratic government, the President and Vice-President resigned, and a new President and Vice-President were placed in office without being voted in by the people.

Exposed government scandals brought possible corruption even closer to the American citizen. Watergate was of primary interest. A Watergate investigation committee, headed by Senator Sam Ervin, and aided by Judge John Sirica, painstakingly hunted down anyone that could be connected with Watergate or any kind of cover-up. The possible involvement of ex-President Nixon, and the break-in at Dr. Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist's office became of paramount interest to Americans. Ellsberg, who was stealing and selling secret government papers, was brought to trial, but the case was eventually thrown out of court. When Spiro Agnew resigned as Vice-President, Nixon appointed Gerald Ford his successor. Nixon later resigned before any charges were brought against him. Ford became President, and one of his first acts as President was to pardon Richard Nixon. As a result of this pardon, Ford's press secretary, Jerald terHorst, resigned.

Ford nominated Nelson Rockefeller for the Vice-Presidency. He was accepted only after an extensive investigation by Congress. Other scandals included the Watergate instigators, Wilbur Mills and an "exotic dancer", and Patty Hearst.

The Middle East was a great wordly interest this past year. The world saw a great turmoil of continous wars, assassinations, threats, and manipulation of oil prices. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger gradually became a new folk hero with his repeated visits to the troubled Middle East in attempts to help the battle-weary countries.

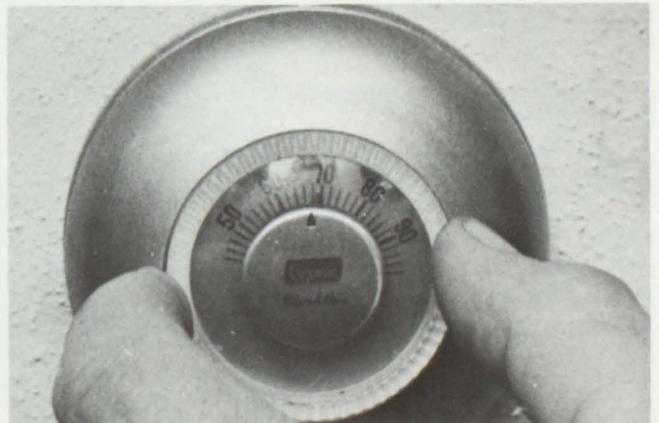

Of special political interest to American women was the Equal Rights Amendment. The amendment was passed by the House two times, and was rejected by the Senate two times. The amendment will not be made valid unless 35 states ratify it and, as of now, only 34 states have done so.

What affected people even more closely was, and is, the economy. The average person first had to contend with astronomical gas prices, and an energy crisis. With ever-increasing unemployment and rising prices, some economists feared not only recession, but depression. Never before, even in the depression of the 30's have Americans had to face inflation AND a recession. The lines at supermarkets resembled those at unemployment offices and gas stations. Americans faced shortages of common products such as sugar, antifreeze, and canning products.

All of these things, --inflation, recession, scandals and resignations--perhaps affected Americans in an even more serious way. With all that has happened, many Americans don't care what happens next. Newsmen began calling this general atmosphere "apathy." This was especially noticeable at election time when many people didn't even bother to go to the polls.

We wonder--what will 1976 reflect?

The student life at F. H. S. reflects the uniqueness of each school year.

UPPER LEFT: Even editor Jeri Hudson takes time out to reflect on the day's thoughts.

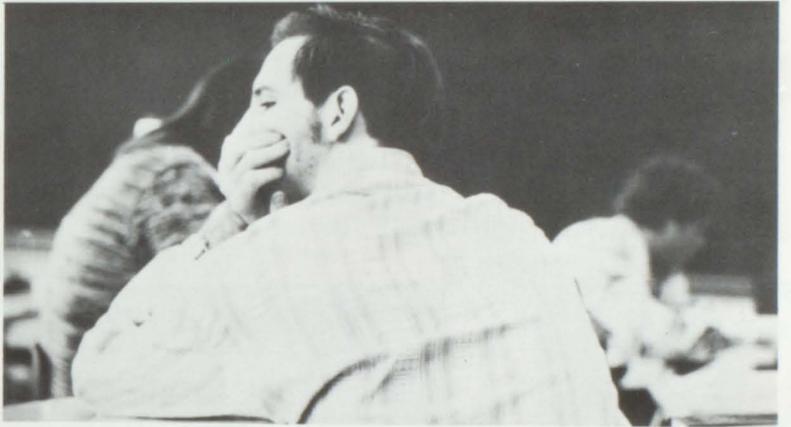

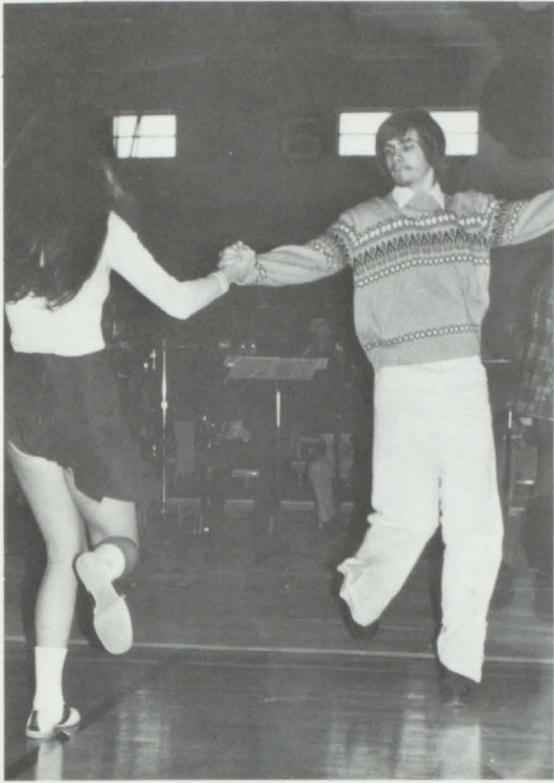

UPPER RIGHT: Two students from the University of New Mexico demonstrate the change in the meaning of the word 'treason' in our history.

LOWER RIGHT: An F. H. S. student takes time out for her own personal reflections.

Each school year is a reflection of special events. 1974-75 was no exception. Sue Neese was elected Homecoming queen, while Kim Beamer was named Frankton's Junior miss. The freshman class took top honors in the float contest during Homecoming. The whole student body enjoyed dress up days during sectional week: "clash day," "insideout," and "red and white day." Other students simply filled their days with lots of studies.

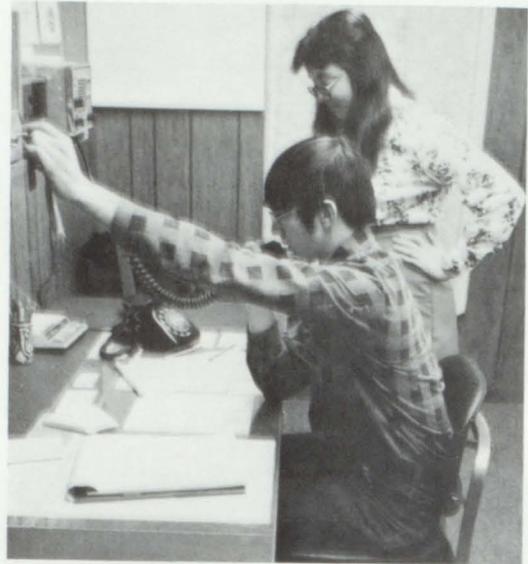

Frankton, Indiana has never been considered a very large or important town. However, Frankton is steadily growing and changing.

One of the first much needed changes was the start of a volunteer ambulance service, required due to a change in state laws. A great number of people volunteered to run the dispatch office, to ride in, and drive the ambulance.

Frankton has also grown in numbers. In 1970, the population in Frankton was 1700, and now it is well over 2100. This increase demonstrates that many people have been moving out of the surrounding cities to rural areas like Frankton.

Unfortunately, not all of the changes have been good. Severe water problems forced the school to close temporarily, while there was talk of digging a new well.

UPPER LEFT: Seniors Sue Shetterly and Craig Harrelld are busily at work running the dispatch office for the volunteer service.

LEFT: Bill Weaver poses beside the new ambulance aquired for the volunteer service. Mr. Weaver is Deputy County Coroner, Town Marshall of Frankton, and also an ambulance driver.

The mood created by the tombstone depicts the way many people in Frankton felt about the water situation.

STUDENT LIFE

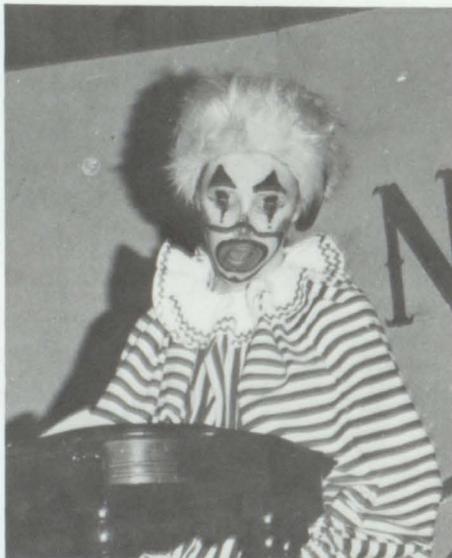

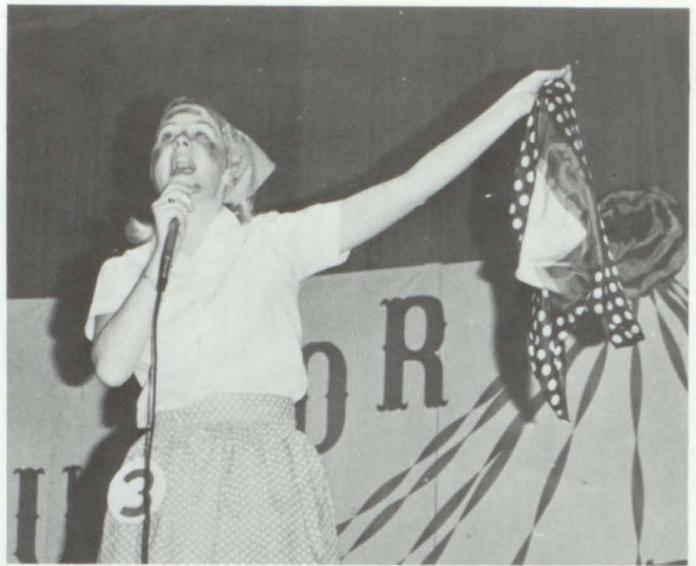

STUDENT LIFE

Activities at F. H. S. are a variety of many different things. The halls often seem deserted, as many students are getting some quick studying done before a test. Other times, the halls are crowded with people who are just enjoying themselves between classes.

There is always some kind of activity going on at Frankton. Whether it might be a convo, a dance, a game, or just plain goofing off, something happens everyday.

Activities reflect the students and how they spent their days at F. H. S. All the different activities hold special meanings as another unique part of the school year.

BELOW: Mark Austin and Ramona Tisdale dance so fast to today's hits that the camera couldn't stop the action.

LOWER LEFT: Alicia McPhearson, Linda Schmink, and Barry Roberts think that Biology is so much fun that they just can't stop smiling.

RIGHT: Eric Hudson demonstrates the skills of using a radial armsaw.

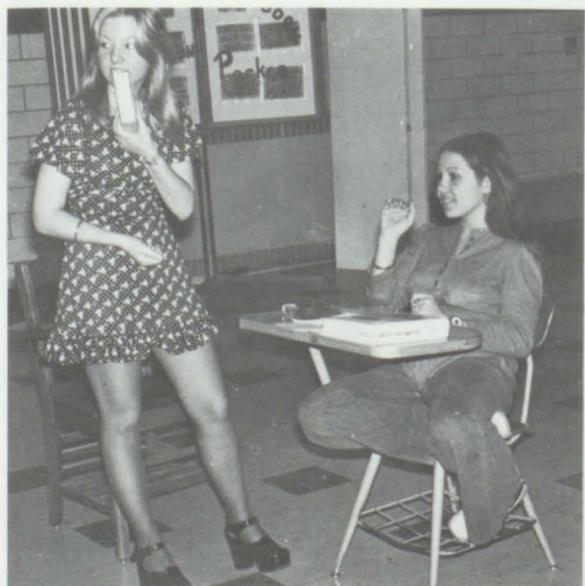

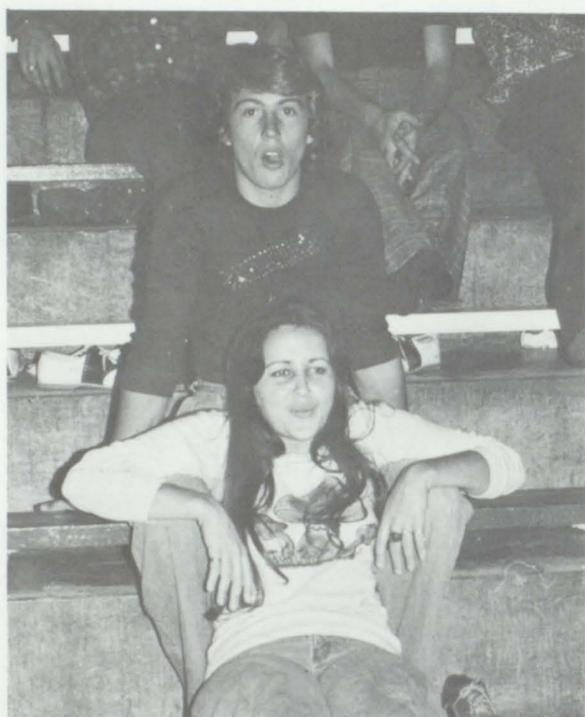

RIGHT CENTER: Patty Pickering finds that it is possible to sit comfortably on the gym's benches.

BELOW: Oakie Mitchell and Pam Couch prove that break is more fun than it's cracked up to be.

LOWER RIGHT: Lori Hughes and Debbie Almquist keep an eye on all hall activities.

Student life and moods are what make the school days at F. H. S. so interesting. The many moods of the students reflect the good times and the bad times that occur throughout the year.

UPPER LEFT: Peggy Wiseman sits back and gives the photographer a good example of a relaxed mood.

Eagles Set New Records for '74-'75

At the start of the football season, the fighting Eagles were in a good position to win the White River Conference. Due to injuries sustained by Mike Cooper, Dennis Johnson, and Eric Alexander, the team's success streak slowed down.

The two player's with the highest yardage records were Mike Cooper, with 841 yards gained, and Jeff Sizelove with an equally impressive total of 639 yards. Mike was also Most Valuable Player and team captain.

Several players from the Eagle team made All-Conference. They were Mark Cox, Tony Strangeway, Derek Wilbur, Ron Qualls, and Mike Cooper, with Dennis Johnson and Mark Benefiel receiving Honorable Mention.

Although the varsity basketball team didn't excel themselves as everyone hoped for, the team's spirit was high; and they really showed a lot of enthusiasm and hard work.

One of the star players, Tim Hendricks, was voted All-Conference, MVP, and a member of the All-Area basketball team named by the Elwood Call-Leader. Hendricks and Eugene Boswell were the co-rebounding leaders. Harry Schmink won the trophy for the most free throws scored.

This year was Jim Fletcher's first at coaching the Eagles, and although the final scores weren't impressive, he felt that the effort put out by the team and the fans served to make the games more exciting. "The greatest support was from the fans. The hard work and great performance by the team appealed to the fans," stated Mr. Fletcher. Fletcher felt that the team's average would have been better if three of the best players had not been forced to drop out at the beginning of the year.

The reserve team also suffered this year with an unimpressive record of 3-16.

Several reserve players did exceptionally well, including Jerry Emmons in rebounds. Randy Marlow and Allen Hall scored high in free throws and field goal percentages, with Randy Parker totaling the most points scored.

As for next year, Coach Huntsinger stated, "They could really be a good team if they wanted to and if they would work harder."

The freshman basketball squad posted a win-loss record of 2-13 in "A" team games, while the "B" team had a 2-10 season.

Although the records were not impressive, several of the games were lost by close margins and these freshman players could go on to form an impressive varsity team.

Overall, Coach Phil Abernathy felt that these players gained some much needed experience and that they could be very instrumental in helping the future FHS basketball program for the better.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM - (L. to R.) Row 1-Chuck Covell (mgr.), Leslie Hiatt, Bruce Hughes, Tom Beeman, Dennis Wellman, Levi Cox, Tim Wade, Allan Brown, Steve Parker, Rick Pardue Row 2-Scott Taylor (mgr.), Don Knotts (mgr.), Dean Cheetham, Greg Karr, Larry Shively, Dan Etchison, Jim Wright, Dane Whetsel, Mark Schultz, Kevin Sumner, Ass't. Harriers Put in 'Trying' Season

Frankton's 1974 Cross Country team won only two meets out of 13, but at the end of the season, both teams placed high in the Sheridan and Shenandoah Invationals.

Kevin Hudson set a new record in the two-mile run with a time of 13:26 seconds.

Steve Belokopitsky received recognition as the 'Most Valuable Player', and was also named team captain.

Frankton's wrestling record wasn't as high as everyone hoped for, but it did help the personal records of a couple of the boys.

Robin Marsh won the White River Conference and the Mt. Vernon Invitational, placed second in the Sectional, went to the Regionals, and held a record of 22-2. He was also MVP, and team captain.

Scott Haney won the Mt. Vernon Invitational, placed second in the WRC, and held a record of 18-5.

Track Concludes Outstanding Season

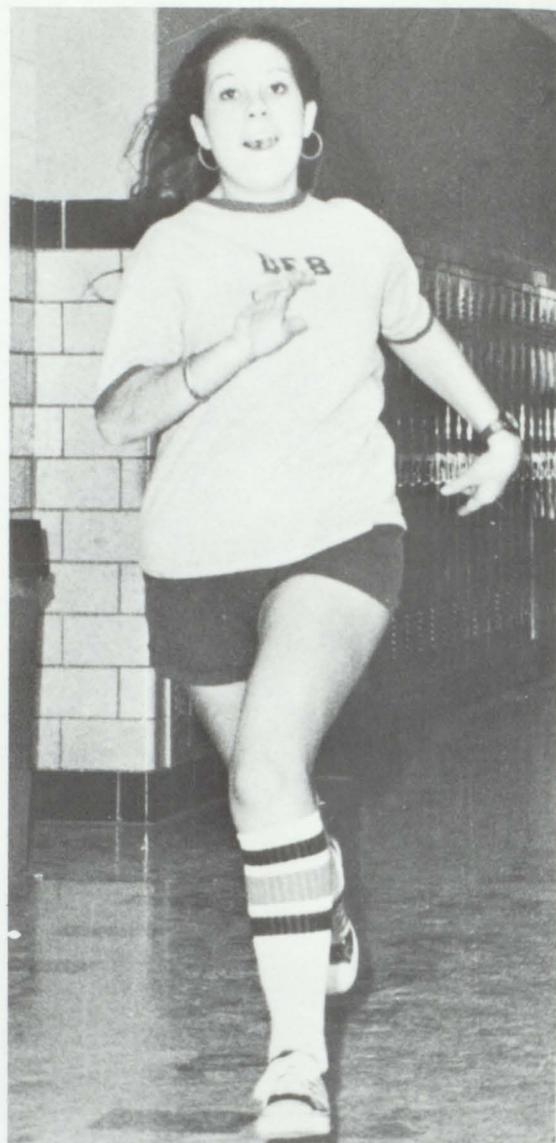

The 1974-'75 track team season proved to be a very profitable one as all three mens' teams finished with winning records: varsity, 9-2; reserve, 6-2; freshmen, 1-0. The varsity team broke seven records and placed five men on the All-Conference team. They enjoyed their best finish in the White River Conference Track Meet since 1965. Mark Benefiel and Ned Hart led the conference with firsts in the 100 and 220, and the long jump, respectively. Hart's jump broke the oldest school record, set in 1949. The half-mile relay team of Mike Cooper, Rick Hamilton, Mike Baker and Benefiel also led the conference with a record time of 1:32.3 and went on to place third in the sectional behind Muncie Central and Muncie South.

The girls' track program at FHS is growing and improving. The '74-'75 season witnessed an overall mark of four wins and four losses, and new school records in all events but two. Kathy Valentine bettered the 4'10" high jump mark with a 5'2" effort. The 880-medley relay team, made up of Brenda Chubb, Kerry Hockema, Donnetta Beaver and Marsha Busby, erased 13 seconds from the old record with a time of 2:05.9. Other outstanding performers were Terrie Couch, who was defeated only once during the season in the shot put, and Kathy Wade, who, in the first year of the mile-run, set the school record at 6:30.0.

Of the six girls who competed in the sectional, two-Kathy Valentine and Pam Waymire-represented FHS in the regional.

Winning the award for 'most points scores' was Terrie Couch while Pam Waymire was named the 'Most Valuable Track Member.'

This Spring 1975 baseball season saw a 5-7 record from the Frankton Eagles following an 8-6 performance during the summer of '74 and a second place finish in the White River Conference in a superb effort.

The 1975 Spring play was, as Coach Urban tagged it, "up and down." A late start, and pitching and defense problems hampered the team early in the season. Leading hitters of the team included Mike Cooper (.325), Tim Hendricks (.325), Mark Cox (.323), Ron Qualls (.323), Toby Truex (.315), and Randy Parker (.290). The two leading pitchers were Jerry Emmons and Harry Schmink. Following a sectional loss to Madison Heights (8-1), fourteen games remained on the summer schedule.

The Eaglite staff started off the year with many new ideas and designs, and a great many more problems.

One of the first problems was the loss of the advisor, Mr. Rady. Miss Lake, the current advisor, was appointed later, but after much production time had been lost.

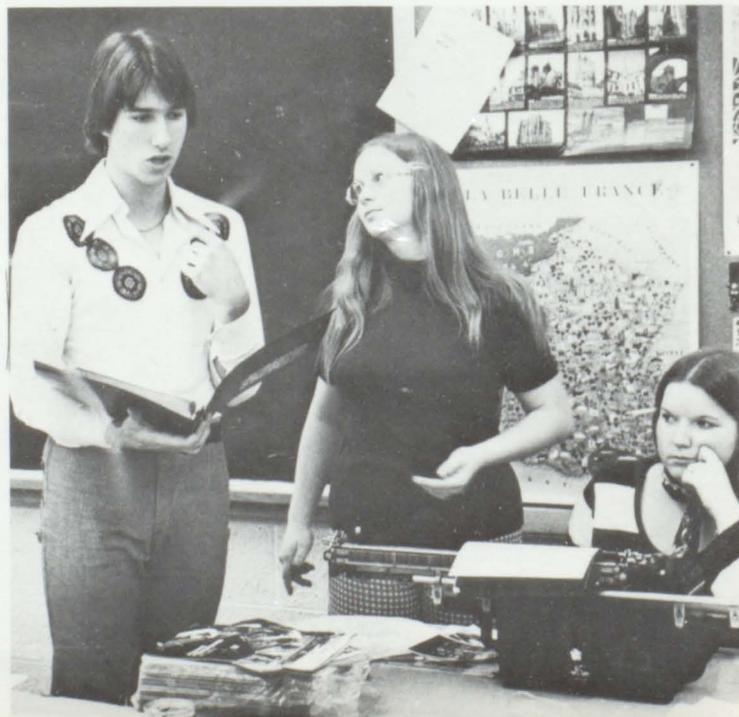

Despite the late start and many delays, the staff managed to meet their deadlines, and continued work on the annual. Several changes were also made this year. The staff voted for a smaller sized book to allow for more pages, and color pages.

The Beak 'N' Eye published four newspapers during the 1974-'75 school year despite many little problems that held up production. The staff faced a constant struggle to capture current news and get it written up and published on schedule. Under the guidance of Sponsor Jane Lee, Alicia McPhearson and Jada Morin served as co-editors.

The Art Club's main goal was to stimulate the pride of the students in their school. The art club had several projects this year to fulfill their goal as well as a few money raising projects. The club members work towards winning an award from Mrs. Lucas in the spring.

The highlight of the year for some of the National Honor Society members was a tour of Washington D. C. and New York during the spring vacation of '75. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nash and by Mr. and Mrs. McClain.

The Honor Society swore in 17 new members on Nov. 3, 1974. This gave the organization a total of 25 members. The officers of the Honor Society were, Pres., Jerry Sheward; Vice Pres., Steve Belokopitsky; and Sec. - Treas. Brenda Morgan.

There were 16 members of the FHS student council whose job it was to pick convocations and to schedule pep sessions. Under the leadership of president Jerry Sheward, the council scheduled eight convocations during the 1974-'75 school year. They also met every two weeks during the first period to discuss money-making projects.

The student librarians, alias Magliabecis, were very busy throughout the '74-'75 school year. Their duties included such things as getting books ready for circulation, planning and setting up displays, typing up lists, letters, and library cards, and keeping the library clean.

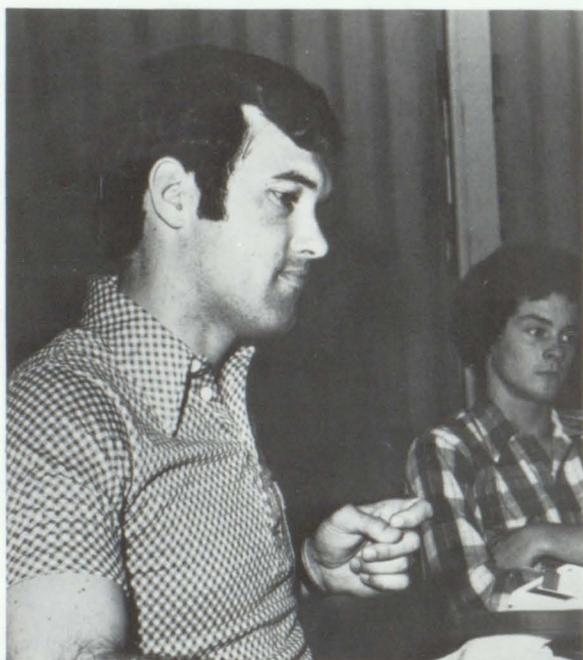

Besides getting one-half credit for their work, other rewards, according to the advisor Mrs. Copeland, were: "broadening one's experience, having early access to new library materials, and developing one's special abilities."

Besides adding to football and basketball seasons with their performances, the band presented a Variety show in April called "Sounds of America '75." Nine-hundred people attended the program which was presented two different nights.

Some of the band students also went to regional contest at Ball State University. There were eight people to attend and five received firsts: Rick Quarles, Kandy Hall, Denise Granger, Denise Hays, and Curt Granger.

The choral department includes three glee clubs and a concert choir. Anyone may join the glee clubs, but students must audition for concert choir.

During the '74-'75 school year the choir had many performances. Concerts included a Christmas Concert, the County Choral Festival, Commencement, and two public performances by concert choir.

Choirs provide a chance for anyone to participate in a singing group--including 155 students who participated this past year. Mrs. Whitmer strives to teach correct singing procedures, as well as giving students something they can learn to enjoy for the rest of their lives.

'United' They Sing! . . . and Perform

The school year began with a lot of preparation and practice for "United"--alias, the Swing Choir. All the hard work led to many performances--before social organizations, nursing homes, surrounding high schools and the Frankton community. Much was sacrificed to make this outstanding group successful. Time and energy were the two most exhausted resources.

As tour time got closer and closer, practices got longer and harder. The special efforts of Mrs. Whitmer, dancers, accompanists, seamstresses, carpenters and parents added to the 'final' success.

The Swing Choir Hits the Road

Although it was 7 a.m. and "United" has just finished many, many weeks of long, exhausting practices, a thrill ran through each person in anticipation of the four day tour to Rockville, Edgewood, Aurora and Southwestern High Schools and Ellettsville Jr. High School.

After all of their packing, unpacking, and re-packing, "United" finally started rolling. Although trapped on a bus at times on trails of 100 miles, the spirit was held high by Carl, a fantastic bus driver, and the stories of last-night's stay with students from the schools visited.

Class of '75 the Greatest Class Alive

Reflecting on the past year, 1974-75 held many good memories, and a few bad ones.

Out of one hundred and thirty-seven seniors, several excelled themselves in sports, academics, and local activities.

Sue Neese was crowned Homecoming Queen while Kim Beamer won the Junior Miss Pageant. Jada Morin received the DAR Citizenship Award, by vote of the faculty.

Locally, Tresa Carpenter won the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award, and Robin Marsh represented Frankton in the wrestling Regionals.

Academically, Gay Valentine and Jerry Sheward led the class. Both were recommended for the National Merit Scholarship.

The 163 juniors passed a goal of $5,000 in their magazine sales.

Everyone won a prize if they sold $25 worth of subscriptions. Prizes ranged from posters to radios. The top sales people were Amy Pritchett, Debbie Braddick and Bob Hook.

The PSAT test was given on Oct. 22, 1974 to all juniors who wished to take it. This helped them prepare for the SAT test which was given later during the year.

The Jrs. also prepared for the Jr. -Sr. prom in the spring. This is where the $5467 from the magazine sales came in handy.

Straight From Heaven?

"Straight from Heaven." That is the opinion many sophomores had of themselves. All though the sophomore year wasn't always the most exciting, they did get some things done.

The sophomores started the year by electing class officers Lisa Whittkamper, Rae Jean Gill, Kathy Sagarsee and Tame Leisure, and by building a class float. The theme of their float was 'Flush 'em Eagles.' Sophomores also chose and ordered class jackets this fall. All in all it was a pretty good year that was straight from heaven.

Class of '78

"Eagles, Eagles you'll be great because you'll be backed by the class of '78."

On September 6th, 171 freshmen came to FHS making them the largest class ever.

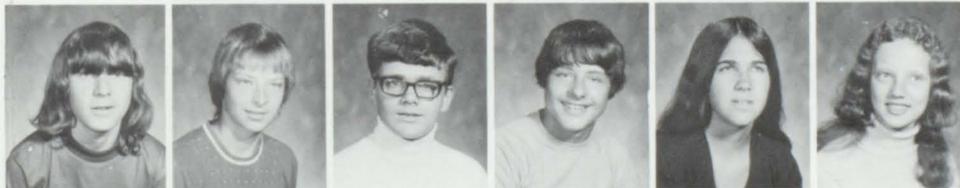

The first project was to make a class float with the theme "Scalp 'Em Eagles." The float won first prize in the Homecoming Contest.

In October, freshmen placed their orders for class rings which were received later on in the year.

The freshmen athletes gave a good showing as they prepared to move up to the reserve and varsity teams. They were backed by spirited cheerleaders Regina Wright, Linda Shmink and Julie Brashear.

in Love with Life

(Ed Note: Although perhaps through no fault of their own, three members of the graduating class of 1975 have been lost as traffic fatalities, and too many other FHS students have been injured during the past year. The Eaglite staff feels it is time that more drivers, not just students, take driving as a serious responsibility. Think, before you die.)

Agony claws my mind. I am a statistic. When I first got here I felt very much alone. I was overwhelmed with grief and I expected to find sympathy. I found no sympathy. I saw only thousands of others whose bodies were as badly mangled as mine. I was given a number and placed in a category. The category was called "Traffic Fatalities."

The day I died was an ordinary school day. How I wish I had taken the bus! But I was too cool for the bus! I remember how I wheedled the car out of mom. "Special favor," I pleaded. "All the kids drive." When the 2:50 bell rang I threw my books in the locker. I was free until 8:40 tomorrow morning! I ran to the parking lot--excited at the thought of driving a car and being my own boss. Free!

It doesn't matter how the accident happened. I was goofing off--going too fast. Taking crazy chances. But I was enjoying my freedom and having fun. The last thing I remember was passing an old lady who seemed to be going awfully slow.

I heard a deafening crash and felt a terrific jolt. Glass and steel flew everywhere. My whole body seemed to be burning inside out. I heard myself scream.

SUDDENLY I AWAKENED. It was very quiet. A police officer was standing over me. Then I saw a doctor. My body was mangled. I was saturated with blood. Pieces of jagged glass were sticking out all over. Strange that I couldn't feel anything. Hey, don't pull that sheet over my head. I can't be dead. I'm only 17. I've got a date tonight. I'm supposed to grow up and have a wonderful life. I haven't lived yet. I can't be dead.

Later, I was placed in a drawer. My parents had to identify me. Why did they have to see me like this? Why did I have to look at mom's eye's when she faced the most terrible ordeal of her life? Dad suddenly looked like an old man. He told the man in charge, "Yes--he is our son."

THE FUNERAL was a weird experience. I saw all my friends and relatives walk toward the casket. They passed by, one by one, and looked at me with the saddest eyes I've ever seen. Some of my buddies were crying. A few of the girls touched my hand and sobbed as they walked away.

Please--somebody--wake me up! Get me out of here. I can't bear to see my mom and dad so broken up. My grandparents are so wracked up with grief they can hardly walk. My brother and sister are like zombies. They move like robots in a daze. Everybody. No one can believe this. And I don't believe it either.

PLEASE DON'T BURY ME! I'm not dead! I have a lot of living to do! I want to laugh and run again. I want to sing and dance. Please don't put me in the ground. I promise if You give me just one more chance, God, I'll be the most careful driver in the whole world. All I want is one more chance. Please, God, I'm only 17.

DEPARTURE

My true love from her pillow rose and wandered down the summer lane,
 She left her house to the winds carouse and her chamber wide to the rain.
 She did not stop to don her coat,
 She did not stop to smooth her bed-
 But, out she went in glad content
 There where the bright path led.
 She did not feel the beating storm,
 But fled like a sun beam white and frail.
 To the sea, to the air, somewhere, somewhere-
 I have not found her trail. Hermann Hagedorn
