Story of Our Year

In These Pages We Attempt

These anxious faces in crowded halls are what our teachers face day in, day out, for nine months!

The students seem very excited about our first game of the basketball season.

To Interpret The Spirit Of F.H.S.

FOREWORD

School spirit at Frankton High School can be found just about anywhere you want to look. From daily activities to our sports, our students express great school spirit. We, on the yearbook staff, have tried to capture this expression in the pages of this, the 1963 Eaglite.

The Spirit Of F.H.S. Is Expressed

Most of our study halls are held in the library. Pictured here is the third period study hall under Mr. Barker.

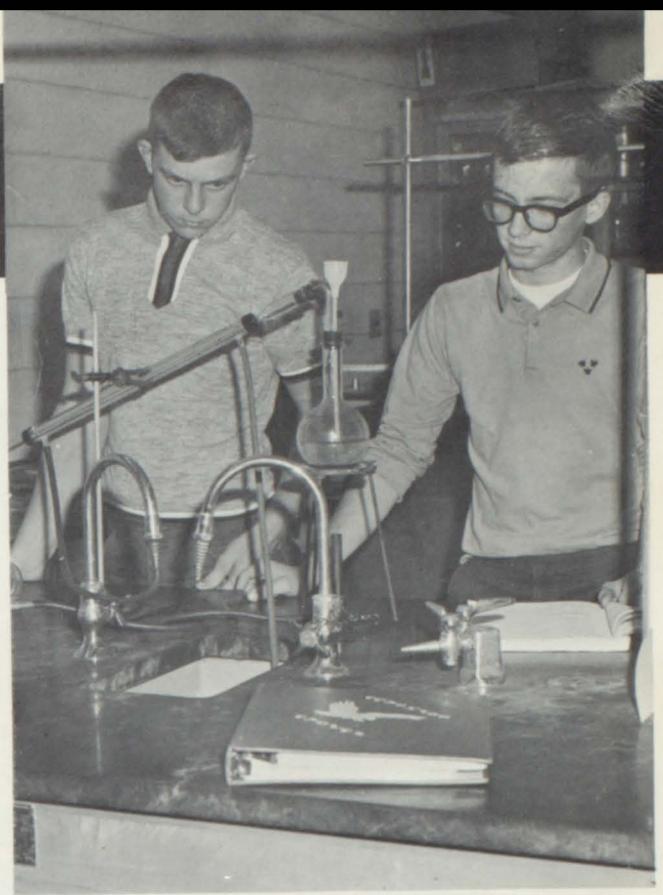

John Truex is busy in shop sharpening an old shovel.

Wilma Jent demonstrates the proper care of cookware in home ec. class.

Through The

Danny Johnson and Jerry Gordon set up a chemistry lab for the annual open house.

Events that happen throughout the year are best remembered by looking back upon the pictures in your yearbook. The times you were caught talking in study hall, the work in shop, the drying of pans in home ec, the mess you made in chemistry and the fun in biology dissecting animals will all be remembered in this book. The students in these pictures are trying to better prepare themselves for their future work. The work you do in school may not seem important now, but you will realize how important it was later on in life.

Dave Granger and Dusty Clarkson examine some specimens in Biology.

Bill Jarret, Kent Ehman, and Jim Allen are working with weights and springs for our physics class.

Week Day Activities

Our daily activities at F.H.S. are many and varied. First period you can find some of our students in art class. John Humphrey, our staff art editor for the yearbook, is always up to his ears in art work. Also academically the trig class is always going off on another tangent during first period under our new math and physics teacher, Mr. Brown.

Our first musical convocation was truly a very unusual one.

John Humphrey sets up one of the many art displays used to brighten up our school building.

Mrs. Waymire shows Lucretia Wells and Terri Alley some interesting figures in Algebra II.

Of The Students And Faculty.

Third period is a very active one for the west end of the building. With the physics working with their high voltage electrical experiments.

During one of our many convocations the Spurr team gave us a swinging exhibition of their musical talents.

About once every two weeks the teachers come together to discuss the many problems that always manage to pop up from time to time.

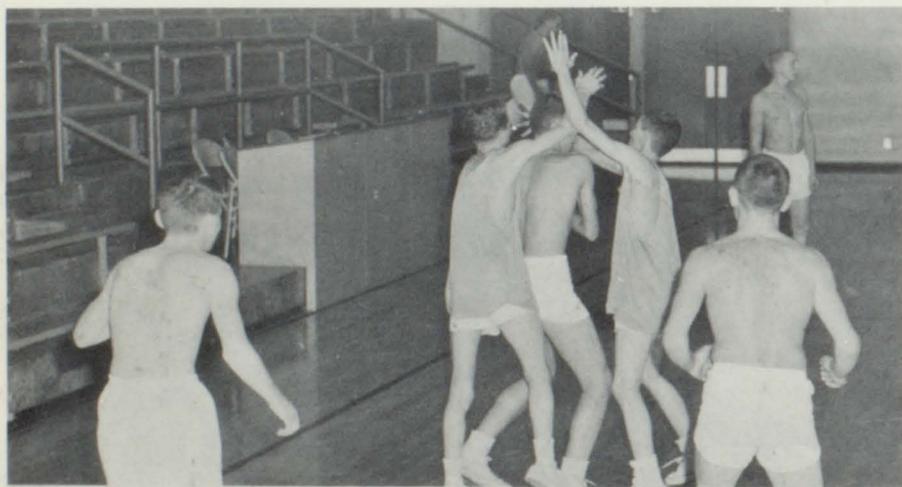

At a township faculty meeting, Mrs. Spannuth, Mr. McNew, Mrs. Head, and Mr. Barker enjoy some refreshments.

Our Students

Girls' gym class warms up for another series of games or sports.

The boys seem to be having a dispute over the possession of the ball but there is always the referee's decision.

And Faculty Play

During noon when the weather is good many of the boys go out and play basketball.

Mrs. Spannuth shows Mr. Harbit, Mr. Davis, and Mr. Heniser her golf swing.

Like most people, our faculty enjoys eating.

Mrs. Miller is kept busy by our students between classes and in the morning.

The lunches served in our cafe are very nourishing.

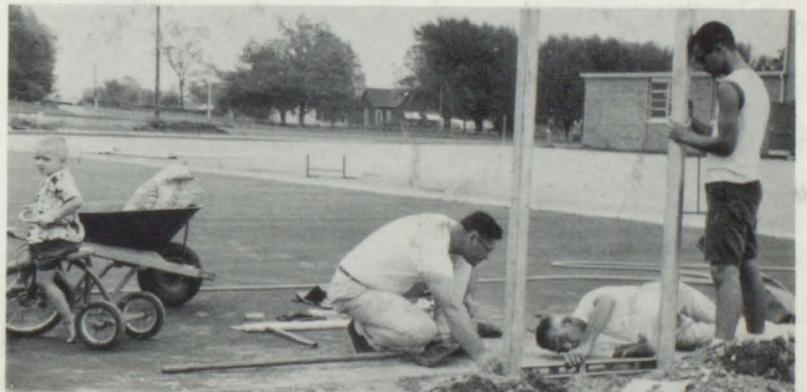

The F.H.S. band worked hard to give us some good music.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson work hard all year to keep our building in good condition.

Stan Davis seems to be really helping his father put up the basketball goals.

Organizations

Reigning over the 1962 Mardi Gras are Max Hoppel, King Rex; and Alma Friend, Queen. The Royal Court is Todd Ash, Gloria Blair, Larry Waltermire, Pam Pierce, Danny Stigall, Debbie Voss, and Phil Horn.

Two Important

Dancing was enjoyed by all at the 1962 Mardi Gras.

The 1962 Mardi Gras, as with tradition, was sponsored by the Student Council and was held at the Junior High School gym. "Coronation Ball" was the theme for the big formal dance for the entire student body.

The 1962 Prom's King and Queen are Bob Jarrett and Carole Shirley.

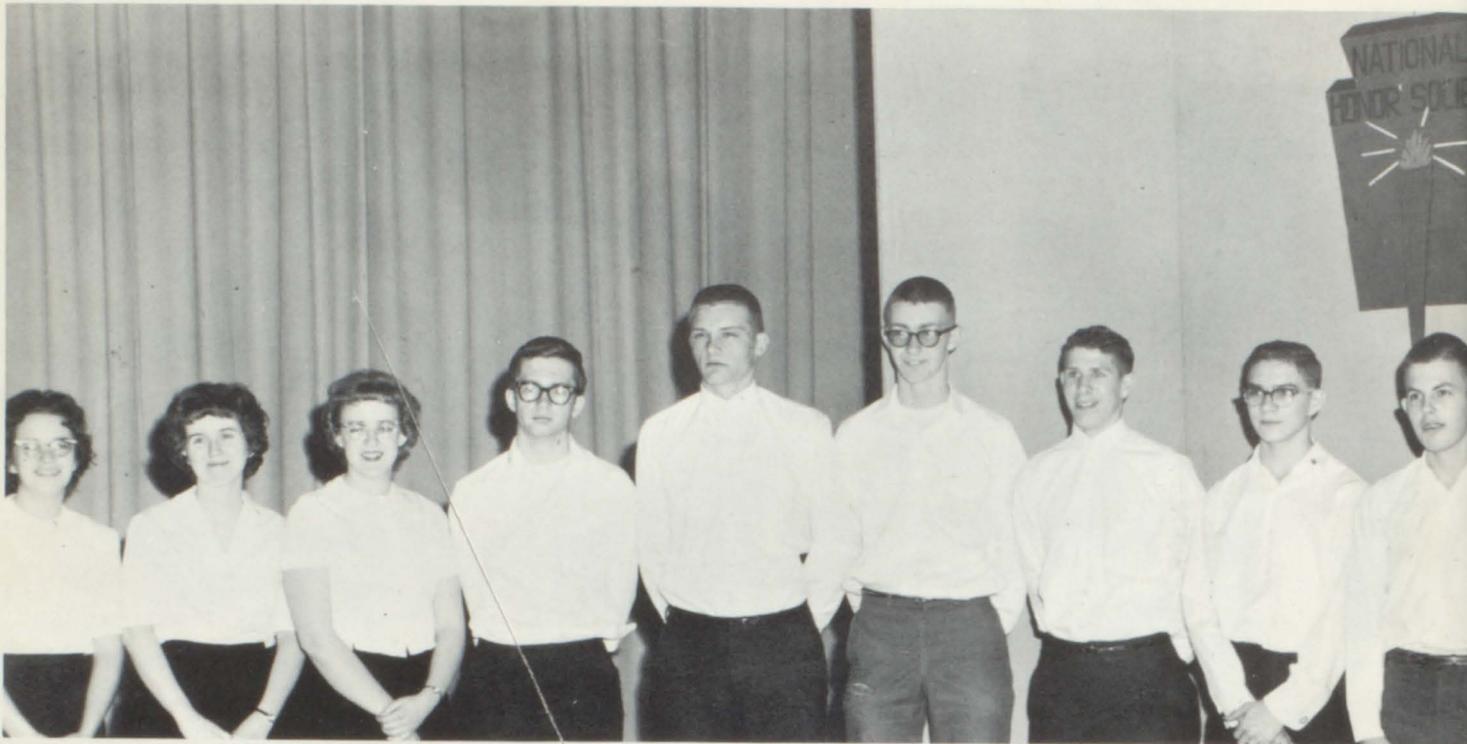

Dixie talks constantly while waiting for her meal.

Social Events Of 1962

The Frankton High School Junior-Senior Prom was held May 11, 1962, at the Elks Club in Elwood, Indiana. Everyone enjoyed the evening meal, the program, and dancing. This year's Prom had something new in that a King and Queen were crowned. This change seemed to be for the good.

What are the kids looking for?

Your Honor Society

young men and women are chosen for Scholarship, Character, Leadership and service.

Advisor, Mr. Sterrett L. Nash

President, Jim Allen

Vice-president, Larry Litsey

Secretary-Treasurer, Jennie Frazier

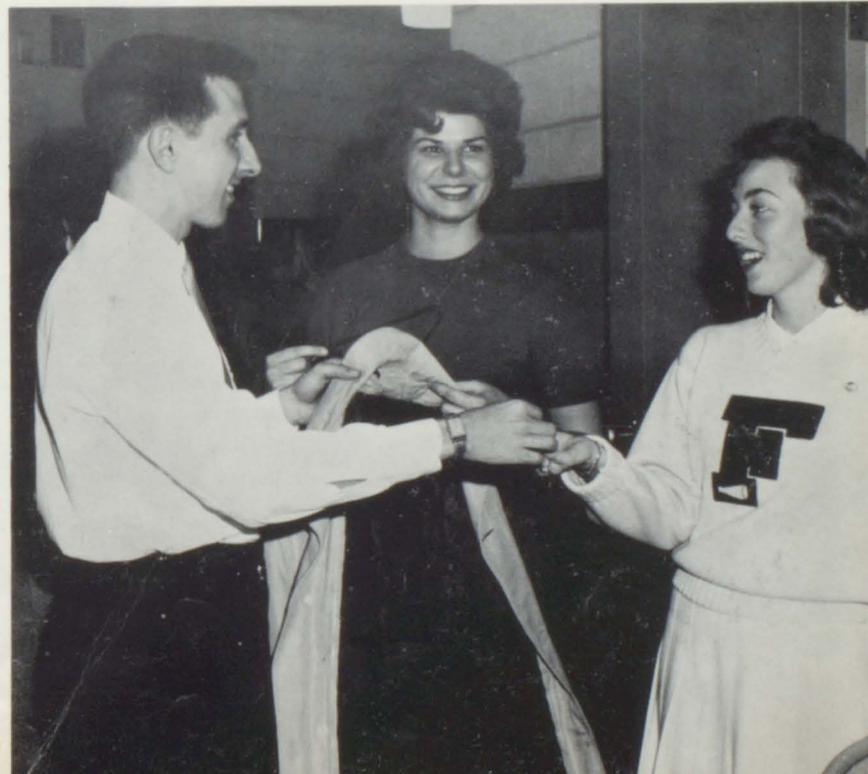

To be a member of the Eureka Chapter of the National Honor Society is the highest honor that can be given to any student at Frankton High School. Each year every student carrying an average of a "B" or above is eligible for membership. From these a committee from members of the faculty choose the new inductees using the other three qualities of this organization's motto as a basis for their selection.

This year the Eureka Chapter served as hosts to the annual open house at F.H.S. This organization also operated the coat check at the home basketball games besides decorating our school building in Christmas attire during the Christmas season.

This year's Honor Society members are Kathy Lee, Susan Brown, Carol Tomey, Jerry Gordon, Stan Busby, Jim Allen, Tom Sigler, Larry Litsey, Gary Nash, Ginger Welborn, Sandra Hart, and Dixie Heaton, with Tom Singer and Jennie Frazier being absent at the time the picture was taken.

Jennie Frazier and Sandra Hart checked Mr. Bartlow's coat at one of F.H.S.'s home games.

This is our Student Council

Sponsored by Mr. Bartlow, the Student Council worked on several projects. One of the activities was the decorating and sponsoring the Halloween Festival. This group took charge of decorating the cars of the loyal followers of the Frankton Eagles.

The 1963 Mardi Gras was sponsored by the Student Council as had been done in the past.

A new addition to the social events of the school year was the 1962 Homecoming. The Homecoming Queen was Vickie Beck. There was a nice dance for students and alumni following the game.

Phil seems to be teasing Bobbie with a roll of paper.

Is Mr. Bartlow disgusted with the council, or not? yes is busy at work.

Jerry Gordon, Gary Nash, and Bob Anderson obtain new ideas while at the National Scholastic Press Association Convention in Chicago.

Mr. Nash and Tom Sigler confer with each other on a layout for the yearbook.

We the staff of the 1963 Eaglite wish to take this space to express our appreciation to Sterrett L. Nash for the time and energy he has put forth to make this yearbook a success.

Some of the staff who have worked hard but have not received credit until now are Gary Nash and Bert Jarrett, photographers, and Sandra Hart and Janet McCarty, typists.

Golden Eagle

This year's Golden Eagle staff was formed late in the first semester. Since none of the staff had any past experience in newspaper work they had some trouble getting organized but things finally got rolling. Under the direction of Mr. Sterrett L. Nash, Jerry Gordon, Editor-in-chief, and Brenda Freeman, Junior editor, with the help of several section editors and reporters, issued 4 papers during the school year.

Jerry Gordon, editor, runs over an issue of the Golden Eagle with section editors Carolyn Hook, Lucrezia Wells, Clea Mathews, Tom Singer, Karla Ehman, Gary Nash, and Brenda Freeman.

F. T. A.

This year Future Teachers include 4 Seniors and 6 Juniors who worked diligently preparing themselves for the future. Each of the members spent time at the Junior High and Elementary School observing and teaching classes.

The Usher's Club

The Usher's Club under the direction of Mr. Bartlow worked hard during our home basketball games keeping every thing under control. This year's members are Raymond Beach, Bill Anderson, Larry Litsey, Jim Cloud, and David Shetterly.

The officers of the Magliabecchi, Larry Litsey, Susan Brown, and Dixie Heaton study the use of the Reader's Guide.

Magliabecchi

Miss Alspaugh helps Tim Marsh with the dictionary.

Miss Alspaugh's student librarians changed the name of their club this year to Magliabecchi in honor of a great French librarian. Their elected officers are President, Larry Litsey; Vice-president, Dixie Heaton; and Secretary, Susan Brown. Like most of the other clubs at F.H.S. they meet once every two weeks.

Susan Brown takes roll call during one of the clubs regular stated meetings.

F. F. A. President, Dick Gross, looks over the results of his annual project.

Phil Spears and Mike Jarvis enjoy working with their project.

F.F.A.

The Frankton F. F. A. Chapter had a good group of officers consisting of President, Dick Gross; Vice-President, Mike Jarvis; Secretary, Phil Spears; Treasurer, Dennis Hutson; Reporter, Tom Sigler; and Sentinel, Steve Cox.

Future Scientists Of America

John Johnson, Tom Singer, Bob Anderson, and Jerry Gordon studied the effects of strong electric current being passed through a tube of inert gas.

Our science club this year became affiliated with the Future Scientists of America under the sponsorship of Mr. Brown.

The club's officers are: Tom Singer, President; Jerry Gordon, Vice-President; Jennie Frazier, Secretary; Kathy Lee, Treasurer.

The club directed a tour of the science labs during the annual homecoming. They have been using two bulletin boards in the front hall for science displays to advance interest in science.

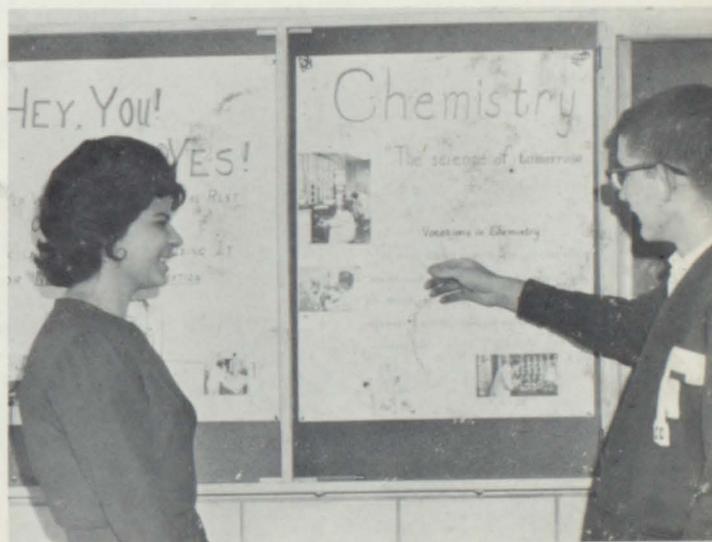

Mr. Brown is the science club's new advisor.

Kathy Lee, treasurer, and Jerry Gordon, vice-president, weigh some chemicals for another experiment.

Jennie Frazier, secretary, and Tom Singer, president, look over the exhibit some of the members had put up in the front hall.

Latin Club

This year's officers are Nancy Dietzer, Treasurer; Sue Cawthorn, Secretary; Kathy Orbaugh, Vice President; Gary Benefiel, President; Jeff Bauer, Historian; Larry Litsey, Sergeant-at-arms; and Mrs. Owens, sponsor.

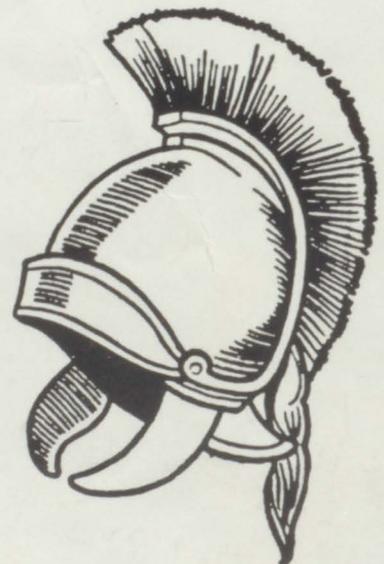

Under the guidance of Mrs. Owens the Latin Club has been very active. As a club project, the club has been selling sandwiches, cookies, and coffee at the home basketball games. They also sponsored a record hop after one home game.

The club meets once every two weeks during activity period at which they learn of Roman customs by special reports. The club also had a Christmas party and went caroling. Another party is put on in the spring at which a full course meal, Roman style, is served.

Tom Singer, Peggy Heath, and Jerry Gordon model some Latin costumes for the man with the little black box.

Tom, are you going to be able to do much caroling with Larry on your back??

French Club

This year's officers were Lynn Welborn, Sergeant-at-arms; Mike Lewellen, President; Jan Ehman, Secretary-Treasurer; Sandy Hart, Vice-President, and Mrs. Spannuth, Sponsor.

The members seem to be talking over the financial status of the club.

The French Club is composed of students that are taking French I or have taken French who like to get together to discuss subjects related to France and her people. French is sometimes spoken and French games are played at their meetings. They held a Christmas party at the home of Mike Lewellen. The club sold mints for one of their projects, and had a bake sale also. This April the club plans a trip to Ball State to observe the French Department.

Home Ec. Club

Sponsor Mrs. Davis and the Home Ec. Club get together for a little fun before a meeting. Officers of the club are Pat Delaplaine, treasurer; Jean Chambers, sergeant-at-arms; Phyllis Stottlemyer, secretary; Janet McCarty, vice-president; and Wanda Jones, president.

The Home Ec. Club has helped the girls learn more about homemaking in preparing for their future. At their meetings different members gave demonstrations to show the others the best way to do things around the home.

The newly organized Girls Athletic Association had a successful year. They held meetings every two weeks during home room. They also held a few night meetings at which they enjoyed playing basketball, ping-pong and volley ball.

The officers of the club were Nancy Whitcomb, president; Ernestine Kennedy, secretary-treasurer; Karen Jarvis, vice-president; and sponsor, Mrs. Ingram.

Eaglettes

The Frankton High School Eaglettes work with the band but are not a part of it. Try outs are held in the fall of the year for students who are interested in becoming a member of this group. After a final screening, the corps begin to drill in preparing for their various appearances at ball games during the year. Marina Harper Cox, a former student and majorette of F.H.S., was chosen to train the girls properly. There were 13 members consisting of Vickie Porter, Linda Roby, Marsha Rinker, Judy Thomas, Sandra Masters, Diana Fouse, Dottie Goldsberry, Marsha Jarvis, Karen Jarvis, Kathy Lee, Carolyn Wright, Ella Kay Rigsby and Leila Harper.

Dance Band

The Dance Band is in its third year at F.H.S. The group is comprised of 16 students from the four grades. The band was organized to provide "pep" music for in and out of school activities. The band gives the student an opportunity to develop their abilities in the field of music. Any money earned by the band is turned over to the music department, which furnishes the music and a part of the equipment. We hope the band receives as much support as it has in the past. Our "music man" Robert Barker is in charge of the group.

The Talon Club is composed of boys who have earned a letter in one of the various sports. They sold individual and group pictures of the basketball team. Some of the new members bought Talon Club jackets, but no money was made here. The club tries to sponsor a project each year such as a trip to a college basketball game or the purchase of something the club needs.

"A struggle from start to finish but worth every minute of it!" This is the comment of the boys as they bring the 1962-63 Basketball Season to a close. Four senior boys and four junior boys worked together with the fine direction of a dedicated coach to make this season one to be long remembered in F. H. S.

Davismen Close Coaching Careers at Frankton High

A combined total of more than 25 years of service to those in the field of coaching, with an average in the state of Indiana of 5 years, should not be allowed to pass without attention of the yearbook staff.

Mulford Davis and Paul Davis will retire from the coaching staff in the Frankton High School with the close of the school year. Their years of service in Frankton H.S. speak well of them both as gentlemen and coaches. Their example of clean living has been a source of inspiration to the boys.

We wish for them the very best as they leave the coaching field to devote full time to classroom teaching.

Hoosier Hysteria Hits High-flying Heagles

Basketball, the sport that stands most popular in Hoosierland, made its mark at Frankton again this year.

In the photo at the left Larry Waltermire is temporarily surrounded by "Laddies", but he dribbles out of trouble as Stan Busby comes to his rescue.

Doug Drake is seen driving between two men in the Jackson Central game in his attempt at a two-pointer.

Dave Huth leaps high in one of the many shots he hit during the season.

Defense is an important part of the game as Kent Ehman tries to get his man into position so he and Frank Gosnell can take the ball away and score.

Sectional Upset Comes to Eagles

The Eagles after taking two seasonal losses and one win from the Pendleton Irish went into the Sectional with a desire to win; however, the final score showed the Eagles had nested only 57 "eggs" to the Irish's 70 "potatoes."

The Eagles offer no "excuses" except that when the "eggs" were laid, they just rolled out of the nets. The first quarter was close with the Eagles holding a slim 15-14 lead; this slipped at the half to Eagles, 26, "Irish" 32.

Readers several years from now will be glad to be reminded that it was in this tourney that Summitville defeated Elwood.

The snap caught by cameraman shows Jerry Waltermire and Stan Busby trying to block Irish Mike Smith from getting a shot, but their effort failed.

An unidentified cheerleader does her best to win the game but needs help.

The shot at the right shows Larry Waltermire, Butch Condon, and Dave Huth tangling with Irish Allan Baker in an attempt to get the ball.

Batting Practice Pays Off With 20 Win Season

The Eagles compiled one of the finest records in the history of F.H.S. baseball winning 20 and dropping a mere 4 games in 1962 season play under the capable direction of Coach Paul Davis. The team won the fall White-River Conference crown with an undefeated mark.

Administration

Frankton High School has been fortunate in having the very best in administration. Waldo E. Canaday began his tenure in the office of trustee of Pipecreek Township in 1942, and except for the time when his wife Millicent served in the official capacity, he has given of his time to serve the people as trustee. The efforts of both Mr. and Mrs. Canaday have been a contributing factor to the success of F.H.S.

Gene Heniser came to Frankton High School after having served one year as administrator of the Frankton Junior High - Elementary School. Although Mr. Heniser is very busy with those problems of administration, he is never too busy to take time to consider the problem of the student or faculty. He has a friendly smile and a good word for any one he meets. Through his efforts, Frankton High School is one of the best schools in Madison County.

Both of these men, our superiors, have made definite contributions to the betterment of the school and community of which they are a very great part.

OUR PRINCIPAL -

Mr. Gene Heniser

OUR DEAN OF MEN -
Gordon F. Kerkhoff

is one of the most versatile personalities of the F.H.S. faculty. He graduated from Purdue with the degree B.S.A. and from Ball State Teachers College with the M.S. In addition to his duties as Dean of Men, he teaches classes in agriculture and in Chemistry. He devotes more than half of his time to counselling.

and Guidance

OUR CLERK - REGISTRAR -
Mrs. Marguerite Miller

OUR DEAN OF WOMEN - GUIDANCE DIRECTOR -
Mrs. Marjorie Andrew

Mrs. Miller has served F.H.S. for the past ten years as clerk-registrar serving faithfully every minute of the time. Her duties are many and include helping both administration and students.

Mrs. Andrew, a very responsible and helpful person on our faculty, is Dean of Women and Guidance Counsellor. She keeps very busy helping students with their problems. Too, she is responsible for the meals served in the cafeteria.

Five class favorites were responsible for the transaction of class business. These worked with Mr. Ted Harbit on the financial phase of raising funds for the Junior-Senior activities, the Class Trip, and Graduation activities. Senior officers were Shirley Fletcher who seems to be a bit 'backward', business manager; Susan Brown, treasurer; Steve Sumner, vice-president; Melanie Paddock, secretary; and Bill Jarrett, president.

Seventy-five F. H. S. Seniors

Senior sponsors Ted M. Harbit and Marilyn B. Davis pause for the 'shutter-bug.'

The 1963 Class is happy to be both a first and a last. This way they feel they are a part of history in the making. In the fall of 1959 some one-hundred timid freshmen entered the halls of Frankton High School resplendent in all of its newness, the odor of fresh paint, new furniture, new everything. We were in the new building for the first time . . . Four years later this same group . . . larger in size but smaller in number will be the first class to have spent the full four years in the new building . . . The last . . . the last class to take a Senior Class Trip . . . With classes so large it is becoming too difficult to raise the needed funds for the trip . . . therefore, by County adoption we are the last to take a trip . . . our years have been interesting . . . the time too short . . . but it has been worth every moment we have spent . . .

It isn't just any old day that one is a junior and has the privilege of receiving a new class jacket or sweater as the case may be. Danny Hughes and John Johnson proudly wear (and rightly so) their jackets as Clea Mathews and Sally John with as much pride display their new sweaters.

Sandra Cunningham, absent on the day pictures were snapped, poses with Paula Starr, Karla Ehman, and Nila Huth to discuss an item in the FRANKTON SCHOOLS news column in the Call-Leader. These four assisted Mr. Nash with news writing throughout the school year. The four also were section editors for the EAGLITE.

Cooperation among team-mates is important in a track meet. F.H.S. graduate Steve Hudson could never have received the baton properly had not running-mate Stan Busby, 1963 F.H.S. senior, handed it to him properly. But for cooperation they would have lost the race.
