Friends

Friends make the world go 'round.
Friends bring you up when you're feeling down.
Friends will lend you a helping hand.
Friends will listen to all your plans.

Friends make me happy to say . . .
We all should have friends to brighten our day.

Friends get together to sign one another's yearbook at the yearbook dance.

Diane Jimenez and Angie Cubel pose for the camera while acting like disc jockeys.

Laura Cunningham, LeAnne Conaway and Kris Bailey discuss their next dance movements.

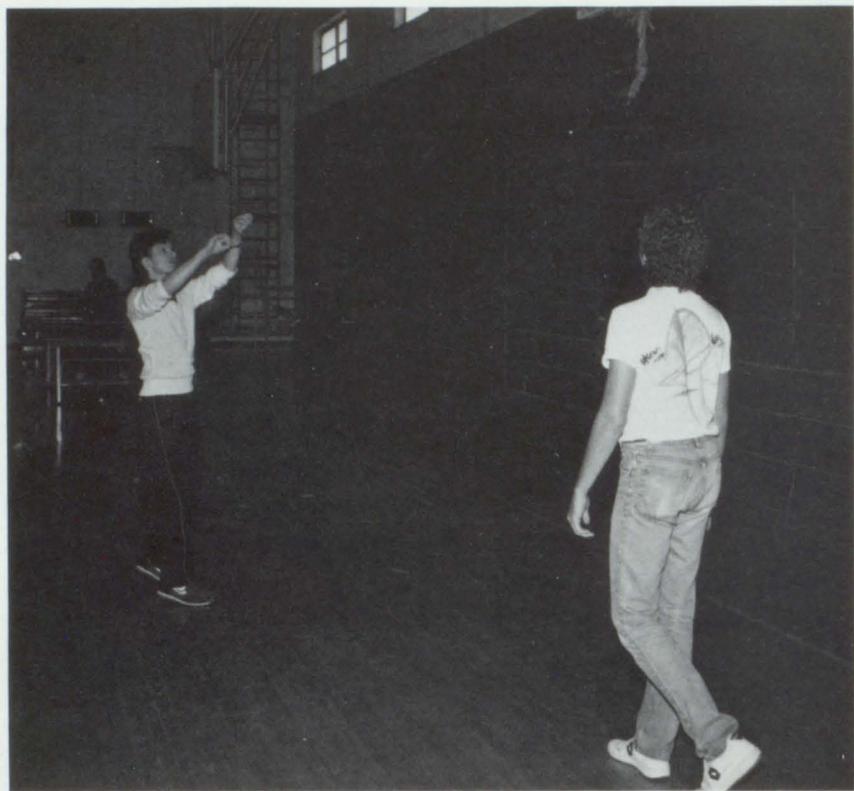

Angi Keirns shows affection to a new born friend.

FRIENDSHIP

close friends give support

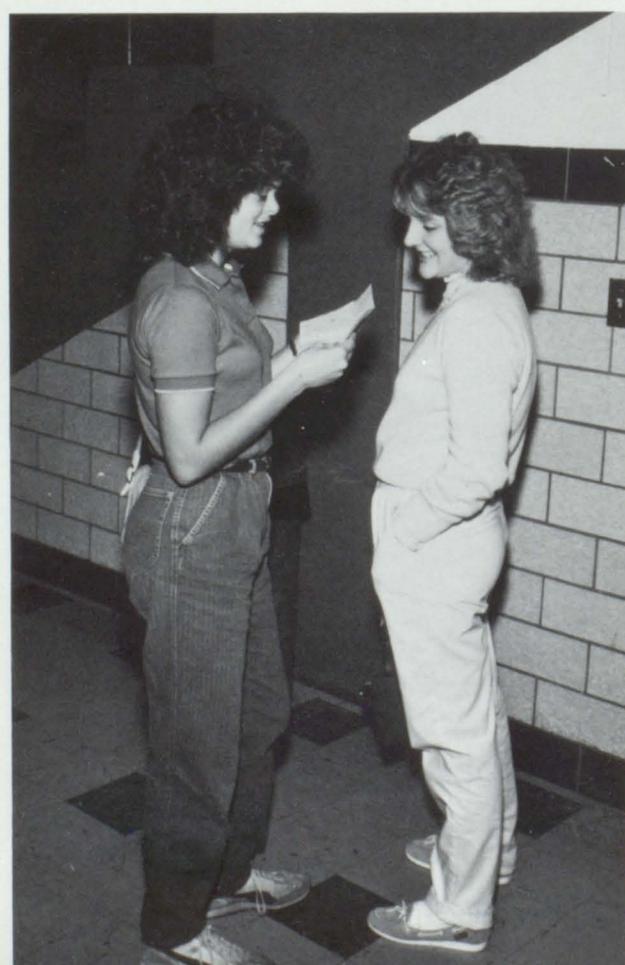

Richard Rich and Todd Hinton enjoy a game of rat ball during their lunch period.

Freshmen Angie Warner and Darrin Whetsel pose as bosom buddies.

Tracy Deshong and Chris Muncy decide to buy their lunch at the concession stand.

Becky Dabney and Annette Storm share a friendly letter from a friend.

Kevin Rogers and Scott Tuttle get a bite to eat in the cafeteria.

Phil Robins and Lisa Walker are partners in a game of ping pong.

The student cadet teachers take a friendly walk while on a field trip.

More Friends

Dea Jackson, Jodie Stevens and Angie Gordon make a happy threesome.

Beverly Boone and Rena Bott pose as me and my shadow.

Kelly Wilson, Tom Patrohay, Yvette Shell and Mike O'Donnell enjoy the lunch period.

April Jones and Kelly Lawson seem to enjoy the company of each other.

Keri Manis and Marjorie Laughlin share a humorous letter.

Kelli Causbie and Karen Robinson get caught in the hall after the bell.

HOMECOMING

Shamrocks win, 28-6

The homecoming tradition was carried on again Sept. 21.

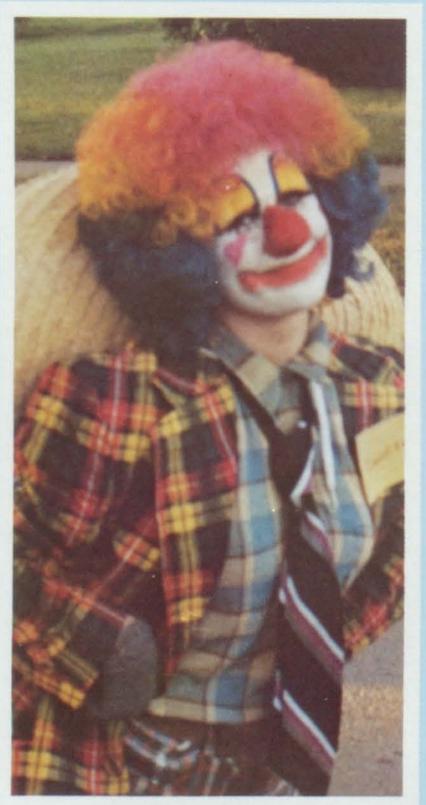

The halftime event was the crowning of the 1984 Homecoming Queen, Shawnā Sumner, escorted by Robert Davis. The royal court consisted of Ronda Browning escorted by Allen Browning, Chrislyn Mast escorted by Ronnie Wiley, Kathy Sheward escorted by Guy Merritt, and Tami Whitehair escorted by Rob Smith.

The Eagles were unable to defeat our homecoming opponents the Westfield Shamrocks. This 28-6 game was the first Homecoming defeat in three years.

Cheerleaders go their traditional way through the homecoming parade.

Time out for a rest and to discuss the next plays.

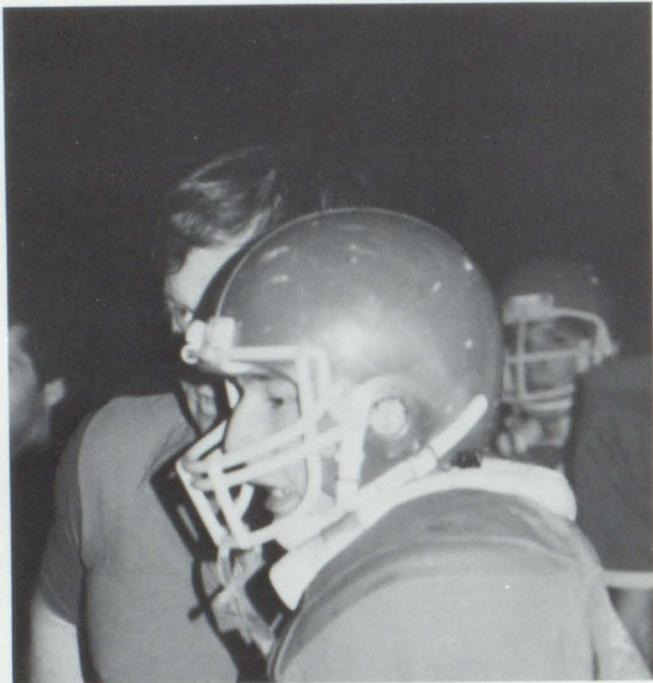

The Spanish Club clown entertains people during the parade.

Cheerleaders, Missi Ritchie and Paula Mercer, pose for the camera with the Eagle.

Horse power pulls the F.F.A. wagon in the homecoming parade.

Attention . . . time to stand for the national anthem.

Anticipating Victory

It starts at our pep session the kids all excited
the football team's rowdy
everyone's delighted.
The floats are all ready and the fans are waiting it's a victory at our Homecoming
we're anticipating.
It's the half way point
the crowd's to and fro
who will be queen?
whose face will glow?
The Eagles run out
their minds on the game
it's now or never, boys
bring us fortune and fame.
The Eagles were defeated
but no one's let down;
we're proud of our team
they'll never make us frown.

By Tera McAdams

Class trucks follow in the parade line instead of floats.

Player, Tim Sharp, prepares himself for the kick.

Homecoming queen candidates, top to bottom: Tami Whitehair, Kathy Sheward, Chrislyn Mast, Ronda Browning and Shawnā Sumner.

FADS-FASHIONS

Eagles keep up-to-date

Students come to school for various reasons. Most of all to see new fads-n-fashions around school.

The guys are becoming more interested in the new styles, dressing in the latest fashions and caring more about their appearance.

This year almost anything goes from the clean-cut preppie look to the far-out break dancing style. Bright colors tend to be a big fad along with faded jeans that are skin tight and only go to your ankles.

As the time changes so do the fads and fashions around F.H.S.

Tera McAdams displays the style of close fitting jeans with matching pumps.

These students show the latest styles of clothing around F.H.S.

Vikki Whetsel shows an in design by wearing a ribbon in her hair.

Mike Ebert and Tim Brown model the winter look by wearing sweaters.

Laurie Miller and Laura Cunningham show today's new styles of blue jeans.

Shawná Sumner shows the classy new look by wearing a gold finger nail.

Angie Gordon and Melissa Merritt model a variety of today's fashions.

Seniors, Angie Cubel and Jodie Stevens, dress in the new iridescent craze.

More Fads

Shoes are a big part of fashion around F.H.S.

Laura Beth Jent is one of the few students with an earring in the top of her ear.

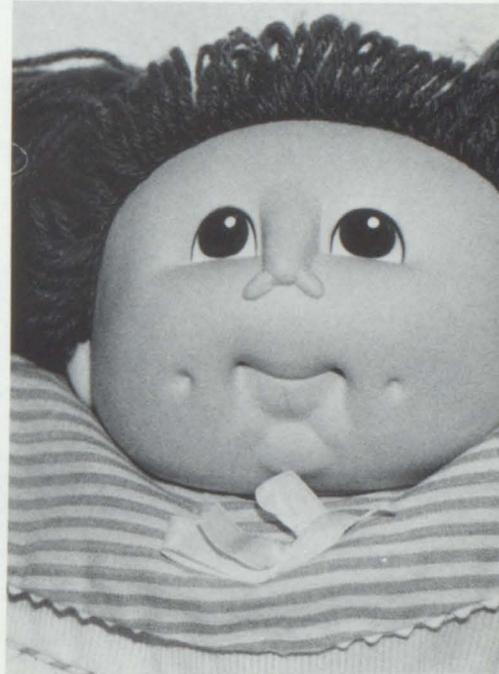

Trivia games have become a hot item on the shelves today.

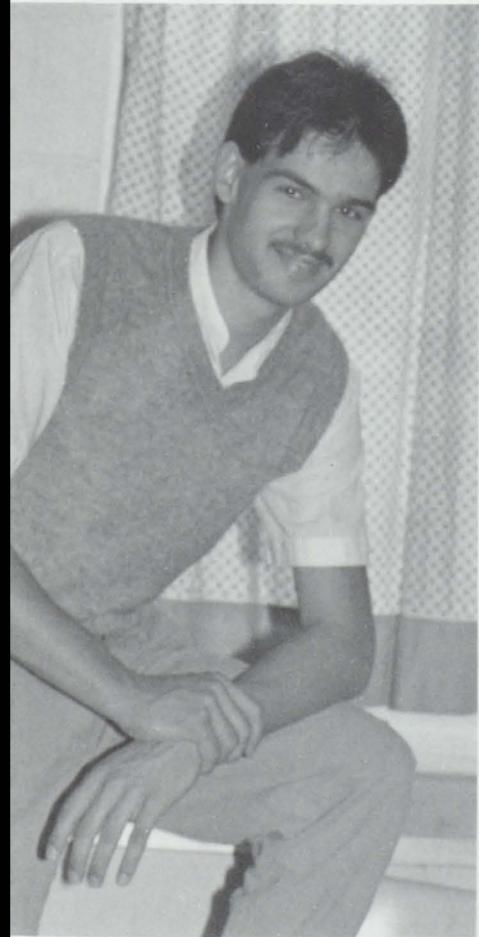

Annette Storm and Kim Lawson show off their hats at a school dance.

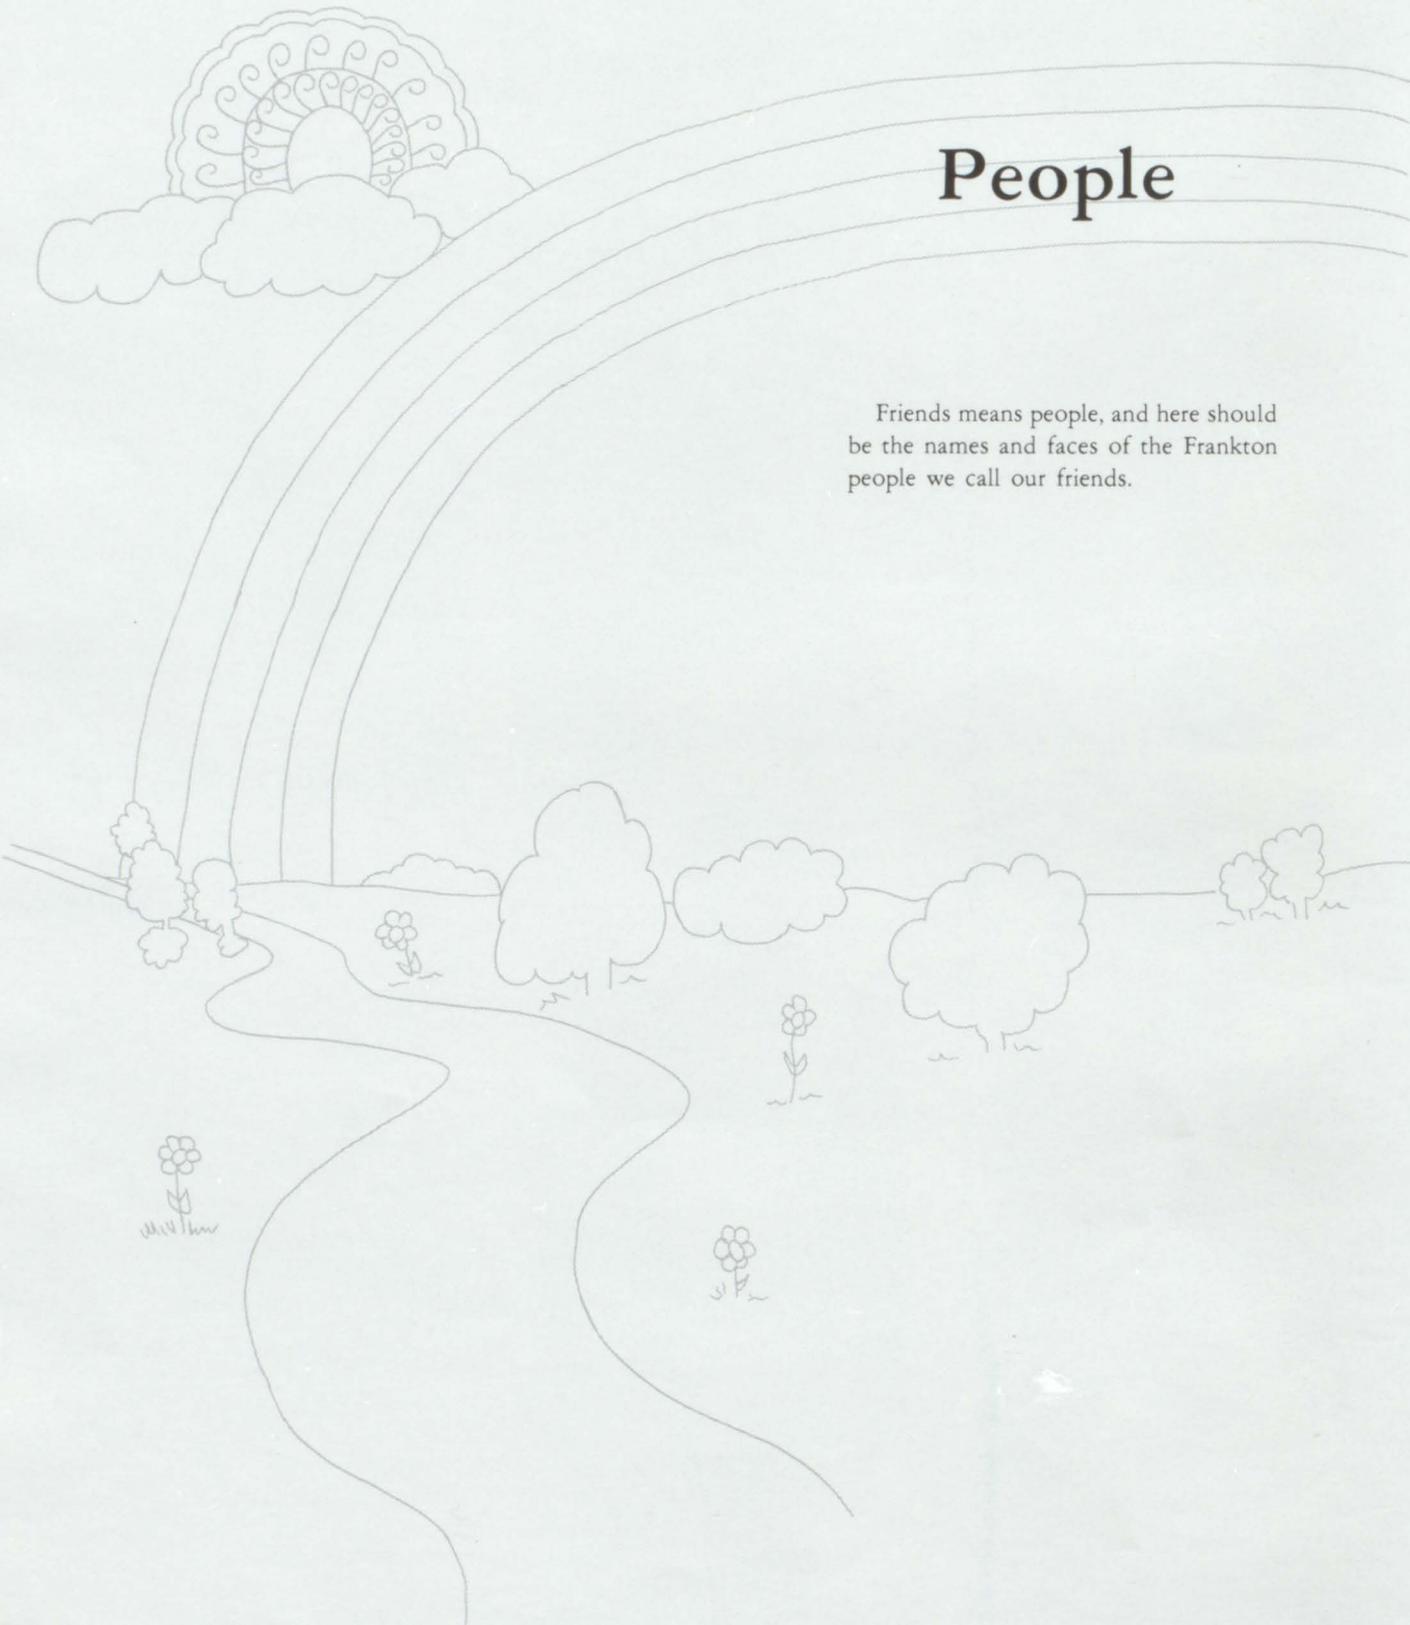

The cabbage patch doll has become quite a fad the last couple of years.

Foreign exchange student, Martijn Hoek, shows the similarity in fashions between Holland and the U.S.A.

F.H.S. teacher, Mr. Abernathy, models the argyle look.

People

Friends means people, and here should be the names and faces of the Frankton people we call our friends.

The Faculty of F.H.S.

What is teaching like as an occupation? This is a difficult question, but after asking some teachers the pro's and con's of their job, it will give the public some idea.

On the positive side of things we find that most of the faculty agree on the enjoyment of seeing the students succeed. But on the negative side they say that some students don't care.

Some students go out of their way to cause trouble and having 35 people in one class that can be a problem.

But when asked if they would advise teaching as future employment, one stated, "It all depends on the person, for a teacher is made up of many things."

Scharnowske Bids Goodbye

November 21 marked the day of Bob Scharnowske's departure from F.H.S. The cause of his leaving was a career move to Delco Remy. Mr. Scharnowske has been working as a security guard at Delco for four summers in the past.

Mr. Scharnowske had several reasons for his move to Delco. First, there were the financial reasons. Second, with the new job he has more time to spend with his family. And finally, after an eight hour day on the job, there is nothing to bring home, unlike teaching where you almost always have papers to grade and lessons to prepare.

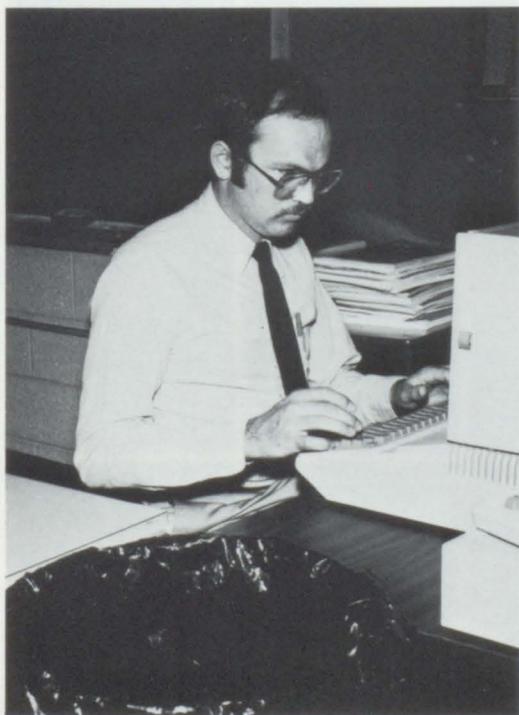

Of course, whenever someone changes employment, there are definite advantages and disadvantages. In the advantage category, there is a two-week paid vacation, more time to be with his daughter Kristine, and he has more time to spend cooking, a favorite hobby.

On the darker side, Mr. Scharnowske says he misses not being with the kids at F.H.S. and the closeness of other coaches.

Every job has its memories and the same is true about Coach Scharnowske's role at Frankton. Some memories that stand out in his mind are, of course, winning the football sectional in 1982. Then there are the athletic teams he has been associated with and all the times they won a game.

When asked what he would do if he had a chance to go back and do it all over again, that is, continue to coach and teach at F.H.S. or go on to be a security guard at Delco, Mr. Scharnowske stated that he wouldn't give up coaching but he would choose not to continue teaching.

Mr. Shipley is busy at the desk monitor during his computer class.

Mrs. Dodd takes time to look over and correct an assignment for her French class.

Juniors On Their Way

The 1984-85 junior class were busy getting ready for their senior year, not only by means of recreation, but also education.

They were offered many new classes to choose from to prepare themselves for college. However, the year was not all work and no play.

When sectional came, the juniors got up and showed their spirit by decorating the halls. Also, at the beginning of the year, 55 percent of the junior class participated in their last major fund raiser of their high school years, the magazine sales' funds intended uses were for the junior prom and senior caps and gowns.

Sophomores started their year by getting their red and white embroidered class jackets.

This year at homecoming the sophomores showed their spirit by decorating a homecoming truck. At sectional they helped decorate the halls in the high school.

This year they had a choice of three levels of English to take.

The sophomore class officers were Nathan Canaday, Laura Rippy, Nannette Barnett, and Laura Beth Jent.

Starting from Scratch

Freshmen have always been thought of as being totally confused. New surroundings, friends and teachers are a big part of high school that many freshmen dread.

This year's freshmen were the first to receive new state requirements. Some of the changes include: a two year math and science course, a four year English course, and a mandatory change from 34 to 38 credits to graduate.

The elected officers were: John Murdock, President; Lana Elder, Vice President; and Tina Sumner, Secretary. Also representing the freshmen class were Sabrina Dietz and Carol Covell. The sponsors were: Larry Canaday and Kevin Sipe.

Bits -n- Pieces

Studying and worrying isn't all that high school has to offer. It is also a place to "hang out" with the people close to you, and to make new friends.

APHORISMS and QUOTES

Aphorism: A terse, pointed statement expressing some wise or clever observation about life. Some writers especially essayists, are known for their aphoristic style; that is, their writing incorporates many aphorisms or memorable statements. Here are some examples of aphorisms and quotes from advanced Junior English classes.

Don't judge me by what you've heard about me, judge me by what I do.

Gossip is when you hear something you like about someone you don't.

Love your enemies and they will become your friends.

Drugs are like quicksand, they pull you out of reality.

Don't make money the idol of your life.

What's done is done don't dwell on the past.

Wind snuffs a candle, but feeds a fire.

Everything has an end; except for a sausage, it has two.

Words are like bees; they have honey and a sting.

A lie is like a crack in the sidewalk, after a short period of time they both start to grow.

Don't dwell on yesterday, live for today dream for tomorrow.

School may not be enjoyable but the outcome is rewarding.

Say what you think, but think before you say.

Success is the sum of willingness and hard work.

Someone's junk is someone else's treasure.

Treasure what you have, not what you want.

You dislike yourself more than anyone else dislikes you.

Nothing is free, its zero-priced.

Life is a dream.

Jay Pace and Melenda Moore play ping pong together in gym class.

John Gentry takes his time sanding down his woods project.

Exciting but Disappointing

Tony Warner puts up a shot as Jeff Whitcomb and Don Hiatt look on.

This season's sectional game against the Anderson Indians was one of the most exciting in recent years. Our Eagles walked away from the Wigwam with everything but the most important thing, a victory.

If there was any luck involved in the game the Indians had all of it by squeaking by the Eagles by the score of 54-53 in overtime.

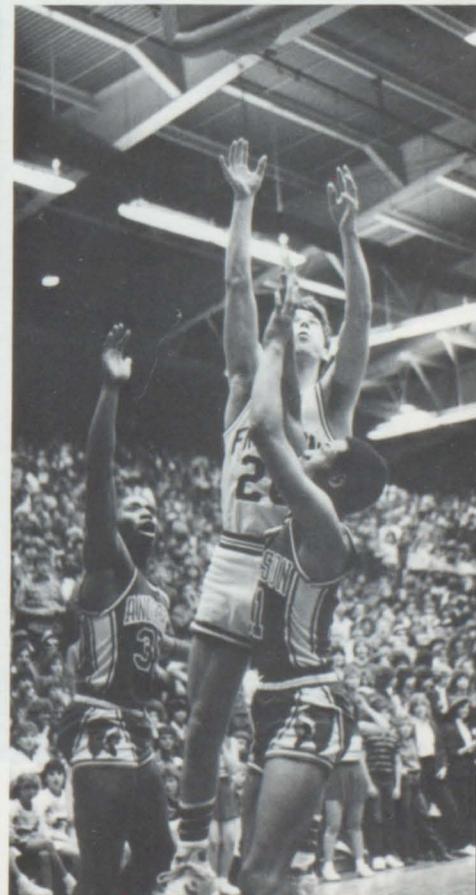

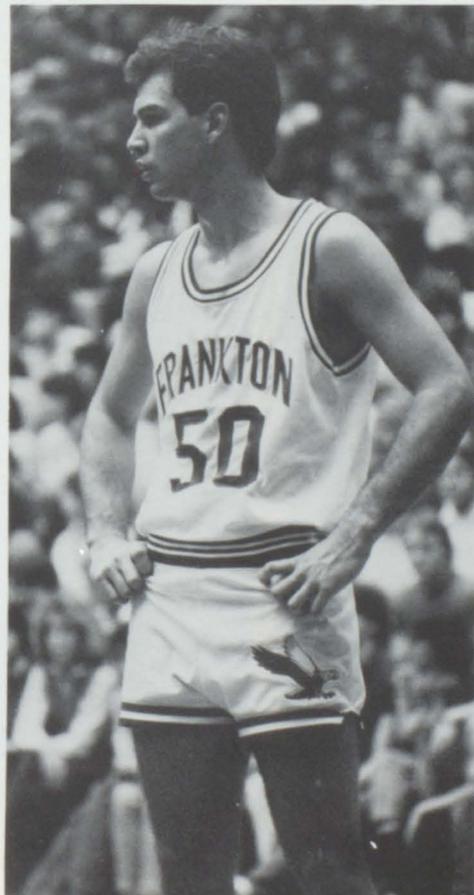

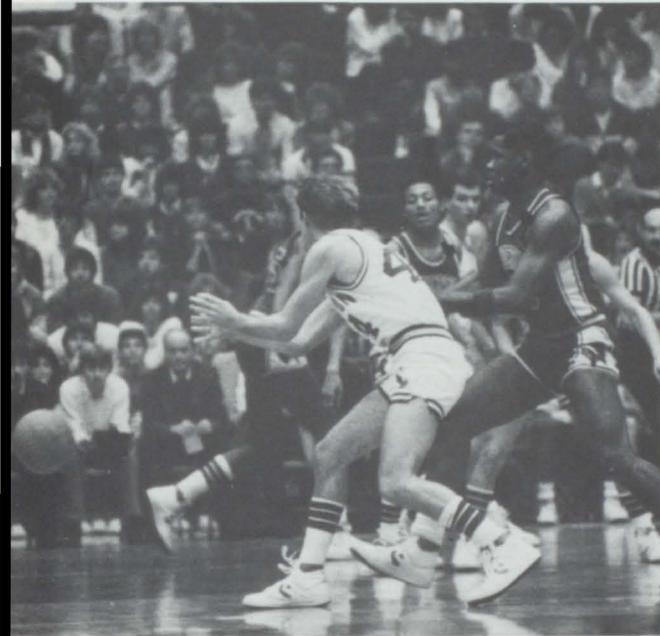

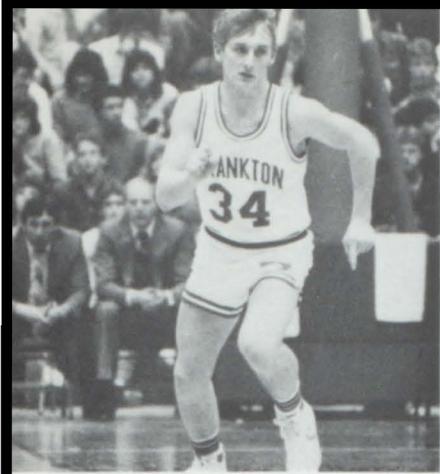

There was much controversy in the game as the Indians were awarded two four-point plays. The Eagles had the final chance to win the game as Senior, Don Hiatt let one go from midcourt. It bounced off the front of the rim.

With this game, it looks as Frankton has made their presence known to all city schools as a prime basketball contender. To the people of Frankton our Eagles really won.

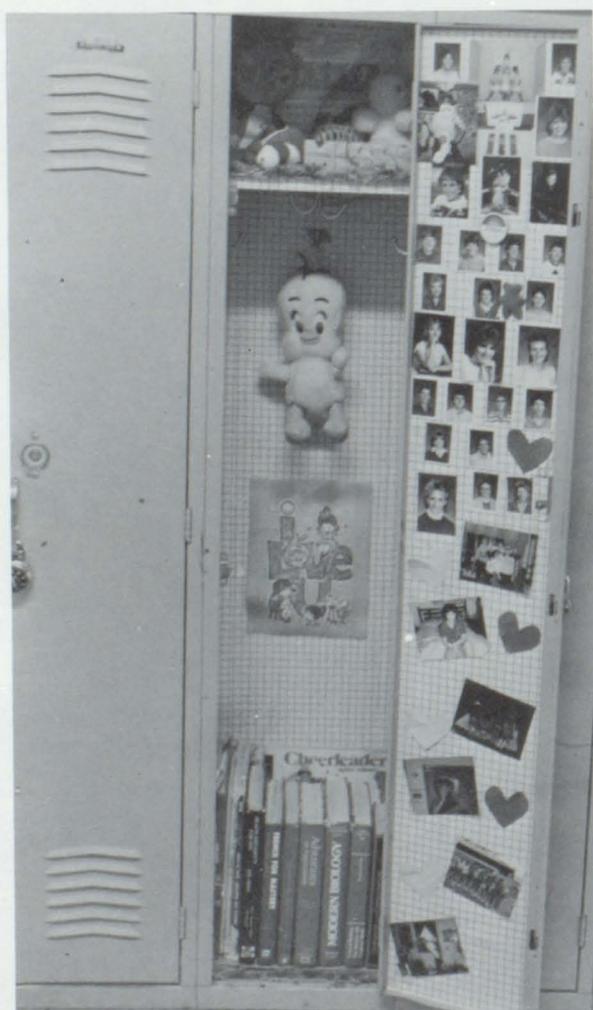

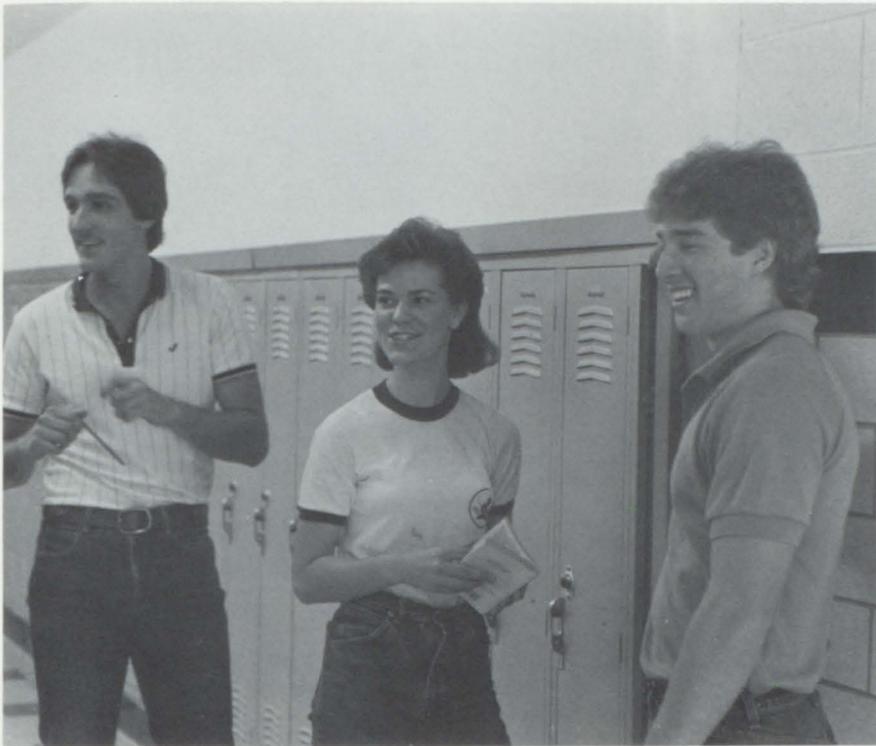

Eagles fans express their feelings toward the referee's call.

Foreign Exchange student, Martijn Hoek experiences a part of Hoosier Hysteria.

Lockers . . . hidden treasure chests

At school, where do students keep little treasures such as stuffed animals, posters of rock stars, pictures of friends, or even chewed gum collections left behind by graduates? Lockers.

The lockers at Frankton not only serve their conventional purpose of holding books but they also serve as a kind of museum for nicnacs and other kinds of assorted memorabilia.

Students sometimes decide to share their lockers with close friends so that meeting between classes is assured.

The majority of students also decide to decorate the interior to match their own unique personality. Different types of, sometimes bizarre, contact paper are often used to complete this task.

The items inside may be those mentioned above, but may also include such things as bumper stickers, license plates or friendly reminders of vacations of the past.

Different sports not only affect the students, but also alter the exterior of the lockers of the athletes involved.

During the basketball sectional in particular, the outside of the lockers are decked out in red and white to show our support for the Eagles.

By serving all of these purposes plus many more, it is needless to say that lockers will remain a necessity to the students of FHS for many years to come.

As MC of the talent show, Mr. Shipley wastes extra time by telling jokes.

A VARIETY OF TALENT

The annual Variety Show was Saturday, April 27, 1985 and this year it was just a little bit different. It was a variety show and a talent contest.

The contest was divided into three categories: Music, comedy, and potpourri, a miscellaneous category.

Students wanting to participate in the show had to try out for a part and then wait for the results to be listed in the main office. Some of the students who were given the chance to show off their talents were Alice Hutchinson, Butch Brown, Dale Crabtree, and Michelle Ryan. The band and show choir also got in on the fun by performing in the second, non-competitive half of the show.

The winners were Julie Fettig in the potpourri category, Michelle Ryan in the music category, and Craig Green, Bryan Granger, and Scott Davidson in the comedy category.

Pat Plummer received Honorable mention in the music category.

Julie Fettig shows her dancing ability to the song "Hard To Say I'm Sorry."

Martijn enjoys stay

Martijn Hoek was Frankton's exchange student for the '84-85 school year.

If you had a chance to talk to Martijn, you would have found out some fascinating things about life in a foreign country.

Martijn is from Brielle, Holland, a town that is near the size of Anderson, and is sixty miles from Amsterdam, Holland's capital.

Martijn said some of his best times were when he went to Florida for Christmas vacation and when he got to play in the basketball sectional. He said, "My best souvenir is my letterman's jacket that Mr. Bayley gave me."

Martijn said this of his stay here. "I made a lot of friends here, the people in Frankton are real nice, I enjoyed the sports too." Martijn participated in basketball and track.

Martijn's comments on leaving were, "I will miss this place and all my new friends, the hardest thing will be saying goodbye to them all." He also said he would like to thank the Kinsers for their hospitality.

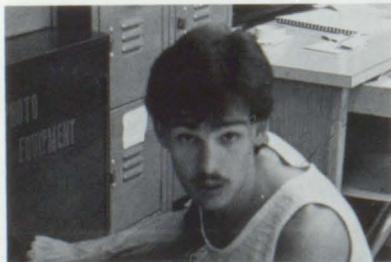

Martijn was here until July. He left us with the feeling of love and a special friendship to those who knew him.

COUPLES . . .

Who's with who at FHS

Looking back to your high school days, one of the first things to come to mind for most people is the people you dated. Even more prominent in your memory than the people you dated, is your high school sweetheart.

Many steady relationships begin as just one date, then build up to more frequent and less formal dates. Soon, the couple begins to feel comfortable with each other. Before long, you consider your "steady" to be your best friend, sharing many intimate thoughts and secrets.

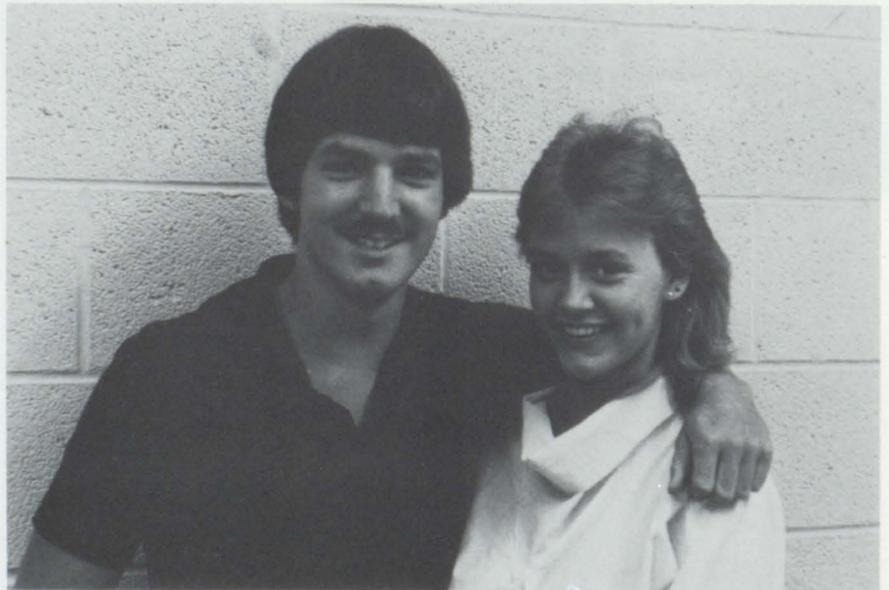

Whether you and your "steady" last forever or just become one of those passing relationships, the memory is there for eternity.

Here are some couples from F.H.S. who have enjoyed each other's friendship and company while being in high school. Having a "steady" doesn't necessarily mean it will last forever, so who knows how many of these couples will still be together by the time this yearbook is distributed.

All Fun No Work

1984-85 The ## Opinion

News

Keeping tradition with years gone by, the 1984-85 school year showed great patriotism and personal achievement, but was also darkened somewhat by the shadows of death and despair.

The first sign of unity in our nation showed through as president, Ronald Reagan, announced his candidacy for a second term in the White House. President Reagan went on to victory in the November 6, election when he captured all but one state in his landslide victory over Democrat Walter Mondale.

A major breakthrough was made by women when Geraldine Ferraro ran for vice president on the democratic ticket.

Also in politics, the great controversy was battled out in Indiana's eighth district congressional race when Democrat Frank McClosky and Republican Rick McIntyre squared off for that office. Eventually McClosky was seated in that position.

Notorious criminals were trailed and apprehended also. Alton Coleman and his female accomplice Debra Brown went on a Bonnie and Clyde type murder spree that also included felonies such as confinement and child molesting.

The search for missing children began a powerful offensive sparked by the, made for T.V. movie, "Adam," by using milk containers to post the pictures of missing youths. Within the first few weeks of this operation, many children were located.

In medicine, William Schroeder became the second recipient of an artificial heart, following the precedent set, by Barney Clark, the Jasper, Indiana, native was described as one "tough old nut."

Medical procedures brought much controversy followed by death when a baby girl known to the nation as Baby Fae, struggled to survive for three weeks on the power of a baboon's heart.

ENTERTAINMENT

The biggest thing on the tube were the movies that exploited mistakes. That's right, Dick Clark and Ed McMahon became Monday night regulars by hosting a television bloopers show.

Breakdancing remained very popular throughout the year with movies like "Breakin'" and "Breakin II — Electric Bogaloo"

However, the Academy Awards dwelled most on the more traditional motion pictures such as the movie "Amedeus." "Purple Rain", Prince's film debut which proved very strong at the box office, received only one award at the presentations.

Debuting in films was just one more thing that Prince does so fine, we found out. Although he was America's hottest musician, Lionel Richie was successful at the Grammy Awards.

Entwining politics and music, USA for Africa was a band of over forty American musicians that pulled together to send to famine-stricken Ethiopians.

Year In Review

SPORTS

The Olympics dominated the sports scene in 1984 as the United States dominated nearly every event. Although the Olympics were boycotted by countries in the Communist block, the games moved successfully.

New hopes emerged through the games also. Mary Lou Retton suddenly became a household name and America's sweetheart almost overnight. Carl Lewis proved to be the best all around athlete when he won four gold medals in the same events as his idol Jesse Owens.

The Detroit Tigers won the World Series, and the San Francisco 49ers captured the Super Bowl in style with their victory over Dan Marino and his fantastic Dolphins.

Villanova won an upset victory over the Georgetown Hoyas and Patrick Ewing, while the Boston Celtics captured yet another Championship banner by defeating the Los Angeles Lakers in professional basketball.

DEATHS

The Soviet Union found itself in search of another leader when Soviet Premier Konstantin Chernenko stricken with illness died. Chernenko was replaced by Mikhail Gorbachev who showed a younger and new generation's view of communism.

Jim Fixx, the author of the book, "The Complete Book of Running," fell dead with a heart attack while jogging.

Truman Capote, famous poet and author of great works, such as "In Cold Blood," also passed away in 1984.

The mystery of Anastasia was finally laid to rest when Anna Anderson Manahau, the woman who claimed to be the Russian Princess died.

LOCAL

Locally, consolidation was once again the most talked about subject. Consolidation was eventually voted down to make way for major renovation that will begin on the schools in the West Central corporation in 1986.

We also saw a few strange faces wandering through the halls of Frankton this year, those belonging to members of the North Central Evaluation Board who evaluated our school as a whole.

Architects were also brought in the latter part of the year to discuss the changes to be made.

Community members discussing the North Central evaluation over tea.

"Friends Forever"

A ring is round and has no end,
That's how long you will be my friend.

We will always be friends without an end,
It will never break, it will never bend.

You are so nice and sweet to me,
I am so glad our friendship could come to be.

Even though you're miles away,
I will always think of you day by day.

By Alice Hutchinson

Mom,

You gave birth to me to start my life
Just you and dad, as husband and wife.
As I grew older, you chose to part go on your own, let a new life start.
With your decision there was one for me too
I love you both — What could I do?
There are times for a mother and daughter to share
Though you may not think so, you were always there!
And though I didn't share all my problems and such
There were few and they weren't much.
Now as I'm older, almost on my own
I hope you realize with you I have grown.
You may no longer live here, not see much of me
Love isn't always the kind you can see.
Though we're miles apart, one thing is true:
There isn't a day I don't think of you!

By Karen Robinson

"Cyndi Lauper"

Cyndi Lauper is unique, she's one of a kind,
Her style and music nearly blow your mind.

Her hair is wild, her clothes are neat,
Cyndi Lauper has always been hard to beat.

"She Bops" into thousands of hearts,
To be everyone's true sweetheart.

Her bright orange hair and second hand clothes,
"She's so unusual" everyone knows.

"Time after Time" we hear her song,
We never get enough, it's never too long.

We all know "Girls Just Want to Have Fun,"
Cyndi Lauper is second to none.

By Alice Hutchinson

Smile if you can
Grin when you can
Think happy thoughts
All day long
In your heart
Keep a song
For today is yours
Forever
By L.W.B.

Love is like a flower
which blooms at different seasons
You're mixing me up inside
now I want a reason.

One minute you love me
the next you want out
give one good reason,
what this is all about?

I know that you're confused and you need some time to think but if you and me could work together we might find the missing link.

I'm running out of patience
I'm running out of time
I'm not going to live the rest of my life your way instead of mine.

You're gonna have to make up your mind and tell me what to do cause babe, I can't hold on much longer;
NOT EVEN FOR YOU.
By Tera McAdams

I love you, I need you
I really do care
I see your arms
How I long to be there.

Safe in your arms
Free from all fear
I need you, babe
To always be near.

Hang on to me
Don't let me stray
Keep me next to you
Promise you'll stay.

Don't leave me, please
Not ever alone
I just couldn't make it
On my own.

You came along
You took my heart
I love you much
To ever part.
By Karen Robinson

For Arty . . .

Your smile always
brightened my day,
You seemed to have
the right things to say.
Your smile always
cheered me up,
I guess that's why
I loved you so much.
Your smile could've
made me cry,
and I'll never really
Know why.
Your smile had a special meaning
I never figured out what.
But your smile held secrets and I wondered
quite a lot.
Now your smile
is fading
as a tear comes from your eye
I know your smile
said "I love you"
But it's time to say
Good-bye
By Teresa Harper

A chance to start anew
How often we wish for another chance
To make a fresh beginning,
A chance to blot out our mistakes
And change failure into winning —
And it does not take a new year
To make a brand-new start,
It only takes a deep desire
To try with all your heart
To live a little better
And to always be forgiving
And to add a little "sunshine"
To the world in which we're living —
So never give up in despair
And think that you are through,
For there's always a tomorrow
And a chance to start anew!

"Fads"
I pledge allegiance to Jordache.
Like, they're totally Awesome! and
To the gator for which it stands,

Clubs

Things that one enjoys are often shared by many. Clubs are school organizations in which friends can share interests.

Student Council: Working hard & having fun

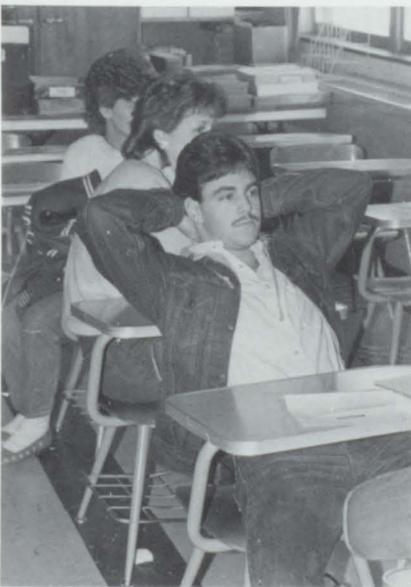

Student Council is a group of people whose goals are to be helpful for the students and faculty of F.H.S.

Their biggest accomplishment this year, was the Homecoming dance and parade, which raised over $400.00. Some of the money was for Christmas cards and corsages for the teachers and cooks.

Student Council also sponsored a Blood Drive in March and helped purchase a new sound system for dances.

Honor Society Leads the way

Honor Society members are juniors and seniors who rank among the top 10% of their class. The club started off the year with the annual induction ceremony for all the new members.

For initiation into the club, the new members were expected to wear togas to school, and those who didn't participate had to pay a five dollar fee.

To raise money for club activities, the Honor Society had a coat check at all the boys junior varsity and varsity home basketball games. The club also sponsored a Sweetheart Dance in February.

For a group activity the members went on a skiing trip in Wawasee, IN.

Vocational Students — Preparing for their future

Many students want to get more acquainted with their desired field of occupation, but can't find the particular class or course in their regular high school. This is why Frankton High School, along with many other schools, offer their juniors and seniors the opportunity to attend Vo-ccational schools in the Anderson and Elwood area.

Vocation computer courses. These classes have the appropriate equipment and facilities to give the student an education through an on-the-job situation.

Students attending these schools receive three credits per semester. The students have the choice to go either in the morning, which accounts for the first three periods of school, or to go in the afternoon, which accounts for the last three periods of the school day.

The Future Homemakers of America started the year out under new leadership.

Mrs. Marilyn Davis, who previously taught at the junior high school, heard about the opening to teach home-ec at the high school. She then applied for the job and was chosen as our new home-ec teacher and FHA sponsor.

The largest FHA club yet, thirty members strong, was led by president Angi Keirns, Vice presidents Sherri Chambers and Holly Burwell, secretary Jodi Stevens, and treasurer Tracy Galbreath.

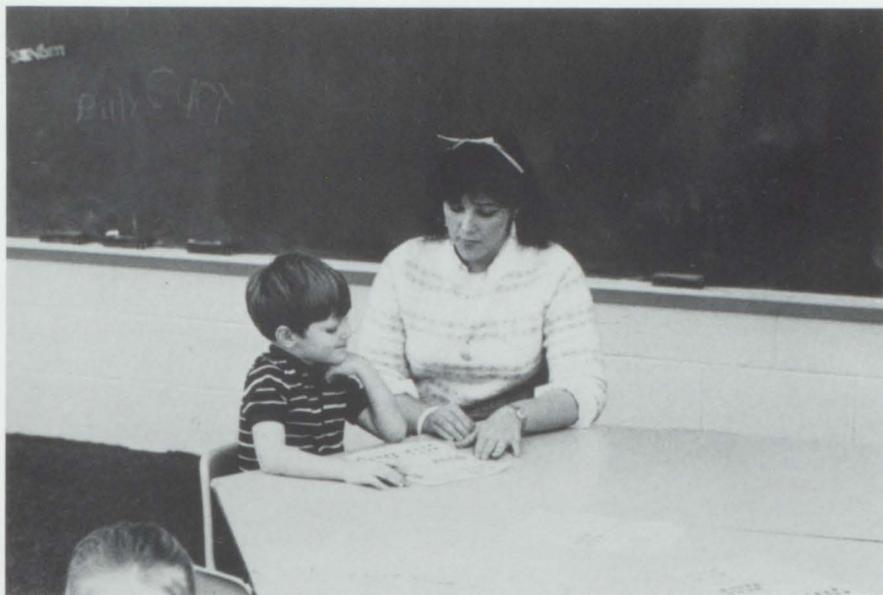

The club started off with a pizza party welcoming new members, and ended with a party to elect new officers for the 85-86 school year. In between FHA had a Halloween party, where they wore costumes to school, an evening out at Chi-Chi's, and the traditional Special Lady dinner.

Dressing up for the Halloween party was only part of the fun for FHA members Lisa Miller, Missi Ritchie, and Brendie Hiatt.

Cadet Teaching — The New Addition

A new addition to the senior class curriculum was cadet teaching. This class was designed for the student who planned to enter the education field, and to prepare that student with classroom experience. The student presented materials, tutored slow students, and graded papers. There were nearly twenty students who participated in this program, teaching in grades ranging from Kindergarten through the ninth grade. All of these things gave the student a chance to see if he or she wanted to pursue a career in the education field.

Let's hear it for the band

The sixty-two members of the FHS band had an impressive year. They first started in July with many hard practices every day. In August, the band traveled to Ball State University where they attended one week of band camp.

Throughout the year the band participated in many contests. On September 29, they traveled to Winchester for the ISSMA Band Contest earning a first division rating along with placing first for best music, marching and general effects.

On October 13, they traveled to Kokomo for the ISSMA Regional Contest where they also earned a first division rating, and won fourth place in class D.

Their placings at the Regional Contest gave them the opportunity to compete in the ISSMA State Contest at the Hoosier Dome placing eighth in the state for class D.

The band had nine people participate in the Solo and Ensemble Contest. Out of the nine, five of them placed first in the district. They were Karen Faust flute, Kristine Hall alto sax, Julie Mast clarinet, Jeff Hartman trumpet, and Becky Faust flute, Scott Hoover placed second for his performance on the clarinet. Melinda Amick, and Monette Bardonner placed third in the clarinet trio. Karen Faust and Kristine Hall went on to place first in the state.

Majorettes Jazz It Up!

The twenty-three members of the majorettes, ranging from freshmen to seniors, faced a few changes during the year. Under the new direction of Miss Sugden, the members changed their tune from rock to jazz. Although they competed in the AA division in the preceding year, judges of the contests revised divisions. Frankton ended up competing in the A division, a grueling step higher, in the competition. The girls competed in five contests where they placed very well.

Friends working for success

Who did it? Drama club and Thespians that's who!

"Done to Death" was this year's fall play. This mystery-comedy took a satirical look at the old films and characters of the thirties. In this story of comical intrigue, eight, has-been, mystery writers are gathered together to collaborate for a television show. This adds up to a lot of laughter and murder.

"Frankie's Hide-away" an Italian dinner featuring lasagna and spaghetti, was held by the club before the play was presented. Candlelight and musical entertainment added an authentic quality to the remodeled cafeteria.

Drama grams, similar to a singing telegram, was a source of fun and money to the club. These special messages were given to people for all occasions, birthdays, Christmas, and even anniversaries.

During the Christmas season, Thespians accompanied by the Speech and Drama class performed a short play for the students at Leach and Frankton junior high schools. The play was a fight between good and bad, Santa and Jack Frost. The winner was decided by a vote from the students.

Also during the holidays, Drama club went ice skating on the circle in Indianapolis.

Once again the Thespians followed the tradition by hiding Easter eggs for the younger children of the community. Kids of all ages arrived for the hunt at the band building.

"V.D." was here again! Back by popular demand was the video dance. April 13, students were able to watch their favorite videos, see their friends and dance to the music.

"Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat"

The 1985 musical presentation, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, was performed by the F.H.S. choral department Thursday and Friday night, March 28th and the 29th.

The story tells of Joseph's (Dale Crabtree) rise to an Egyptian Prince after being sold into slavery by his own brother. Later they came to him begging for food, not realizing just who he was.

Sound confusing? Thanks to narrator, Michelle Ryan, the audience was eased through each scene with her singing. However, it takes more than one person to put on a musical. Other characters in the musical were: Tom Harper (Jacob), Scott Davidson (Pharaoh), Marty Gates (Potiphar), Amy Clark (Mrs. Potiphar), and, of course, all twelve of Joseph's brothers.

There were a few changes this year in Mass Media, the biggest one being the move from the portable to room 18.

The move inside made them more visible, and able to promote the newspaper's new format monthly instead of bi-weekly.

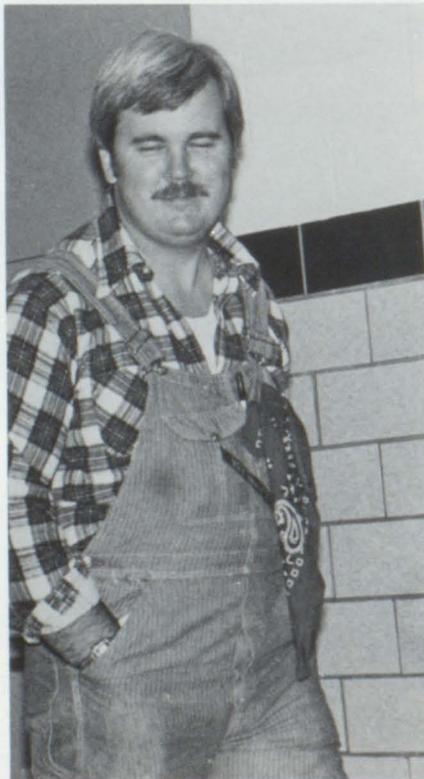

To promote yearbook sales all members dressed up as unusual characters to inform students of their chance to purchase a book.

Show Choir Sings Out

The choirs started off their year at Christmas time by selling chocolate santa's to help support the musical. They went to the Frankton, Leach, and Jackson elementaries to perform their Christmas programs.

March 21, they attended Alexandria High School for the 41st annual choral festival.

This year's musical "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" was performed on March 28 and 29. Lots of time and energy was put into this, and it proved to be a big success.

FFA Around for 60 years

Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, and living to serve. That's what the Future Farmers of America are all about.

Organized in 1928, the FFA has been a part of agriculture/agribusiness departments in public schools for nearly 60 years.

Under the leadership of Tom Mitchell, the future farmers started the year by judging soil and poultry. Next, eight members, accompanied by Diane Brad-dick and Mr. Mitchell, went to Kansas City to attend the National FFA Convention. After a few more judgings, the club held an awards banquet to recognize their outstanding members.

Il la façon de français

The French Club had an array of activities this year. They had several hot dog stands at the boys basketball games, and a dance in early spring. For their annual trip, they again attended La Tour for dinner.

The trip to France planned for the summer of '85 was cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.

The French Honor Society went to Indianapolis to dine and the new members participated in initiation day.

Español es Muy Magnífico

The Spanish Club had many activities this year. They sponsored the annual pre-homecoming chili supper. This drew a large crowd and was hailed a success. They also sponsored numerous hot dog stands at the boys basketball games.

Now the excitement of the year came around spring break. This is when a number of Spanish students went to Mexico. Through the year, these students did many activities such as sponsoring a second chili supper, and selling Valentine suckers to help finance their trip.

The '84-'85 school year proved to be a big success for the Spanish Club.

Spreading sunshine the Health Club way

Again this year, the Health club spread sunshine throughout their community. They sponsored ten handicapped youth skating parties. They went caroling at several different nursing homes to show their Christmas spirit. After the skating, the club members went to Pizza Hut for dinner with the club paying all expenses.

Showing their club and school spirit, the club sold Eagle pops. As a final treat to its members, they went bowling with expenses paid by the club treasury.

Friends in the Library

Lending a helping hand in the library is Media Club's job.

For the past three years Media Club has worked hard to earn money to buy a computer for the library. While the club remained short, they didn't give up. Fund raisers such as selling posters, stationery, and M&M's are helping the club reach their goal.

Don't be misled this club wasn't all work and no play. On Dec. 4, the club had a Christmas party to celebrate the festive season.

The end of the year meant extra work for the club. This was the time for the annual inventory. Making sure everything was in its right place for next year, the club checked the books and cleaned the library. After the work was done they treated themselves to refreshments.

Tough Season For Eagles

Members of the 1984 Football Team

Our 1984 football team had a hard time playing the bigger schools in their division. A lot of good games were played but the Eagles could never get away with a win, ending their season at 0-10.

They started against Lapel, losing 34-14, then falling to the Tigers of Northwestern in their second game.

The homecoming for the Eagles got spoiled by losing to the Westfield Shamrocks 28-6.

Making the all-county team for the Eagles were Bill Covell and Brent Parker, with Tom Patrohay and Tony Warner receiving honorable mention.

Girls Finish 4-16

The Lady Eagles had a tough season this year. With a varsity record of 4-16, you can see that the season didn't go as well as they had hoped.

Each year the team votes for the Most Improved Player. This year the team chose, senior Laura Welborn and, sophomore, Michelle Hellmann as co-MVP's. Tami Whitehair was voted the most improved. Other categories given special attention were best server, spiker and passer. These were received by, junior, Karen Robinson for best server; sophomore, Michelle Hellmann for best spiker; and, senior, Laura Welborn for best passer.

The Junior Varsity had a tough season also. They finished with a record of 11-7.

Grapplers finish above .500

The '84-'85 wrestling team did extremely well after losing several seniors from last year's squad. The Eagle grapplers finished at 10-8 this season.

Kevin Rogers, who wrestled at 155, and Jerry Jenkins, at 119, held the County Champion titles in their weight class.

Also this season, the Eagles finished third in the sectional following Wes-Del and Elwood.

Frankton had five individual wrestlers qualify for the Muncie regional. Seniors Duane Young, Jerry Jenkins, and Kevin Rogers, and juniors, Glen Workman and Mike LeVeque, wrestled well enough in the sectional to advance to regional action.

Jerry Jenkins was the only Frankton wrestler to advance to the semi-state tour-

Disappointing season for girls

The girl's varsity basketball team had an overall record of 5 wins and 12 losses.

This year the girls played Pendleton Heights in the sectional. The girls' nerves seemed to play an important role during the game. The team didn't go as far this year as they had hoped.

This year at the athletic banquet the awards were given as follows: Most Valuable Player was given to Diane Jimenez. Most Improved was given to Karen Bott. The Hustle Award was awarded to Karen Bott. The player with the most assists was Beth Robinson. There was a tie for the Most Rebounds. It was awarded to Diane Jimenez and Michelle Hellmann.

This year's captains were Diane Jimenez, Karen Bott, and Beth Robinson.

The junior varsity record was 8-8.

Building Tradition

This year's junior varsity compiled a 15-4 record under coach Doug Drake. The Eagles lost three of their first four games but rebounded to win fourteen of their last fifteen games. The Eagles defeated Lapel, Sheridan, Daleville, Elwood, Eastern Hancock, Muncie Burris, Cowan, Randolph Southern, Shenandoah, Wapahani, Monroe Central, Taylor, Hamilton Southeastern and Madison-Grant. They lost to Wes-Del, Hamilton Heights, Union and Alexandria.

The freshman, under first-year head coach Brad Samuels, finished with 12-3 (A team) and 10-0 (B team) records.

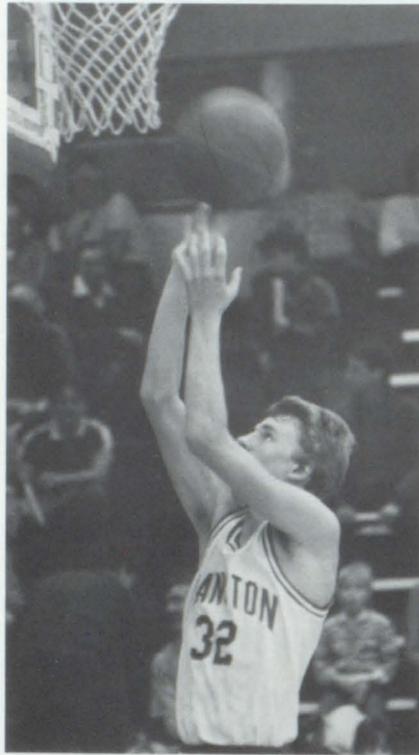

The "A" team defeated Daleville, Shenandoah, Sheridan, Elwood, Yorktown, Westfield, Hamilton Southeastern, Wapahani, Marion Bennett, Hamilton Heights, Lapel and Wes-Del. The Eagles lost to Madison-Grant, Alexandria and Mount Vernon.

The "B" team defeated Sheridan, Elwood, Yorktown, Westfield, Hamilton Southeastern, Hamilton Heights, Lapel, Madison-Grant, Alexandria and Mount Vernon.

The Eagle fans should be prepared for more excitement in the future.

Golf Team has a Balanced Season

Ty Hays and Lee Ballinger discuss their next putt.

The Frankton Eagle golf team got off to a good start winning 4 out of their first 5 meets. Unfortunately, a mid-season slump caused the team to drop the next four meets. The Eagles finished the season 6-7, placing third in the MEC, and finishing twelfth in the Sectional.

Boys track still dominates Sport

Track is a sport that requires a lot of work, but it gives you a tremendous amount of pride. This year's track team had another great year winning a good percentage of their meets. Frankton placed well in all of their invitationals, finishing third at Pendleton, second at Eastern, and second at Elwood. The Eagles won the Mid-Eastern Conference meet for the third year in a row.

All conference honors went to Dennis Shively, shotput; Tracey DeShong, Pole vault; and Rich Davidson in the 800 and 1600.

Setting new school records were Brett Lennon in the High Hurdles with a time of 10.09 and Rich Davidson in the 1600 with a time of 4:33.55.

Brett Lennon and Rich Davidson were given awards for most valuable sprinter and distance runners respectively. Senior, Tracey DeShong was voted most valuable field events man.

Keeping up the Tradition

The girls track team kept up their tradition with another successful season with a record of 10-2 and an overall record of 18-3. This is the third year that the girls have finished second in the MEC.

The team has been in existence for 11 years and has had 10 winning seasons.

This year there were four records broken. Rena Bott broke the 100m hurdle record with a time of :16.4. Donnessa Beaver previously held this record in 1982 with a :16.7. Pam Rodriguez's mile record of 5:58 from 1982 was also demolished by freshman Jennifer Phillips with a time of 5:44. Stacie Summitt cracked her 1984 300m hurdle record of :53.1 to :51.0. Kelly Wilson previously held the 800m Run with a time of 2:32 and she smashed this to a 2:25.

Kelly Wilson and Michelle Hellmann advanced to the Regional. Kelly participated in the 800m run and Michelle participated in the high jump.

Winning season for Urban

Senior, Joe Storm takes a good cut as Tim Brown and Coach Urban look on.

The Eagle Baseball team finished the season at 14-10 for their first winning season under coach Tom Urban.

The Eagles started off their season by winning eight out of their first twelve games, but later lost three one-run games to Pendleton Heights, Anderson, and Monroe Central.

Frankton finished 6-3 in the MEC. A win over Monroe Central would have caused a four-way tie for first place, but the Eagles lost a close ballgame 4-3 in 10 innings.

The Eagles then moved into the Anderson Sectional where they brought in the only winning record. Frankton got superb pitching from Senior Tim Brown, who only gave up two hits and two unearned runs. Unfortunately, the Eagles could only squeak out one run on one hit.

Most valuable player honors went to Don Hiatt. The co-captains were Tim Brown and Joe Storm.

Most RBI's went to Tim Sharp and to Tracy Rhodes. Don Hiatt who had the highest batting average and most hits was also named best defensive player.

Graduation 1985

The memories that close the doors of the past; Make way for the dreams; that open the doors to our future. If you can dream it, you can become it. The senior class of 1985 used this as their class motto.

The May 19th graduation was a time for many mixed emotions. For most seniors it was a time to celebrate a new beginning. For others it was a time of sadness, because of their leaving many friends that they have met through the years.

As all the seniors go their separate ways they can look back on all the memories of their high school years. Such as sectional, prom, and senior skip day at Rax when they were caught.

Giving last words of advice to the graduating class were valedictorian, Tom Ousley, and Salutatorian, Michelle Etchison. Third and fourth ranking seniors Jan Mills and Rob Smith gave the Benediction and Invocation, respectively.

The graduating class of 1985, finds reason to applaud.

Dennis Shively and Scott Davidson await nervously for the final moment.

The top-ranking seniors: Rob Smith, Jan Mills, Michelle Etchison and Tom Ousley.

"You're The Inspiration"

Prom Queen Laurie Miller

The prom, "You're The Inspiration" was May 4th from nine to twelve with approximately 175 students and faculty present.

The theme was developed using the colors lavender, blue and silver, and decorated with balloons, streamers, an arch, a fountain, and colored lights.

Eric Smith was the disc jockey as he has been for the past three years, playing both slow and fast songs.

At 11 p.m. junior Rich Davidson announced the crowning of the queen. Melissa Merritt, the resigning queen, escorted by Don Hiatt, crowned the new 1985 prom queen, Laurie Miller, escorted by Brent Parker. The other candidates and their escorts were Yvette Shell & Dave Davidson, Rena Bott & Brent Turner, Shelly Crouch & Joe Gossett, and Brendie Hiatt & Rod Partlow.

Kathy Grimme, Marsha Edwards, and Barbie Brashear went to girls state in the summer of '85.

Dale Johnson models his $87.00 haircut given by twin brother David.

Acknowledgements

We'd like to thank all faculty, staff or students of FHS and anyone else who in anyway helped us complete the '85 Eagle. Special thanks to contract photographers Reid's Studio for mug shots, club group shots, prom, sports and other candid shots. Also thanks to Elwood Call Leader, Sir Holmes Studio and Julie Barrett for athletic group shots. We'd like to make a special thanks to Larry Glaze, our Herff Jones representative.

Tony Warner, Rich Davidson, Mike O'Donnell, and Steve Ferguson were to attend boys state in the summer.
