It used to be you had to follow the crowd to be "cool," but now you find it's fun to be yourself and have your own interests and goals. Each individual is a unique puzzle himself. Together they form the puzzle which is Elwood Community High School, 1975.

April 25, 26, 27, 1974, the Panther Band and choir, under the direction of Mr. Frank Parente presented, "The Showcase of entertainment." This variety show, the first presented in the new school, was a fine start for the music department. For the first time, the performance took place on stage in the cafetorium.

Providing the audience with a collection of different types of entertainment, a Variety Show Board composed of Mr. Parente and choir and band members wrote the script and put the show together. Masters of ceremonies were Jeff Weddell and Tom Long.

Some of the highlights of the show were an amateur talent contest featuring drum solos and the Wala-Wala girls, a Pink Panther number by the majorettes, the choir doing a medley of pop tunes, and the band playing Ragtime Follies. Jeff McDaniel also performed a salute to Al Jolsen, backed by the Invincibles and a team of majorettes.

Somewhere Over the Rainbow

'74 Prom Queen Nancy Whitenack ruled the "Land of Oz" with music by the Invincibles. Shown are G. Van Cleave, J. Poe, Mr. F. Parente.

Promtime '74

Students walked down the black and white path, decorated with scenes of the Kansas farmland. After walking through a giant colorful rainbow, they found themselves in the land of Oz. This was the setting for the 1974 prom "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

The Invincibles, a local group, provided the music, and the couples danced under a ceiling of vines and beautiful flowers. Refreshments were served by freshman girls dressed as Munchkins. A scarecrow tinman and lion served as the doorman.

New Elwood High School

Elwood Community High School saw its first graduation as the class of 1974 walked down the aisle to receive its diplomas. Of the 207 graduates 32 held a grade point average of 3.5 or higher

Dr. John Pruis, President of Ball State University, gave the main address.

Students received their diplomas from Mr. Keith Scott, superintendent, and prepare to leave one phase of their lives and enter another.

ACTIVITIES

Yearbooks, aren't they great! Each year hundreds of students buy yearbooks without realizing that this is the best reference for the history of their good old days of 'readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic. Each year contains all sorts of goodies that you'll always want to look back on. For example, remember the false fire drills, gettin' caught with your shake outside the cafe, activity period pep sessions that no one goes to, and the first place winners of the floats that shocked us all. What about getting stuck in the trash can, all those cute little Child Care kids running the halls, all the big words in SAT, fooling around in the halls, all the snow and snowballs, the long skirts, wild socks, and stilt shoes? This list could go on and on, but the highlights are collected and put all in one to make up the CRESCENT of 1975.

With Mrs. Joanne Sullivan as advisor, this year's staff consists of Dinah Miller, editor in chief; Sheila Hargrave, assistant editor; Robin Fleenor, associate editor. Debbie Rogers and Susan Waymire did lots and lots of typing while Linda Frye and Karen Wilson indexed and stamped pictures for the senior section. Cindy Brewer and Debbie Fanning wrote and edited copy. The male members of the staff, Tod Conway and Nick Papas, sports editors, looked over all the latest basketball and wrestling pictures for the sports section. Vanessa Young, business manager, Debbie Amos, and Rhonda Wilburn planned and prepared ad layouts. And, of course, there's no book without pictures, so we put a big job on Theresa Barrett, photo editor and assistant, Skip Florea.

Crescent

Regardless of what the job is, everyone on the staff helps everyone else. Everybody worked on layouts, write-ups, heads, ads and the many, many jobs that help put together a yearbook.

A Nose for News Makes Good Journalists

Fashions, athletes, clubs, organizations, teachers, and artists were many of the stories published in the school newspaper the "Megaphone".

Mrs. Joanne Sullivan is the advisor of the Megaphone. This year Theresa Barrett is editor of the paper with Debbie Amos and Dawn Perry as assistant editors.

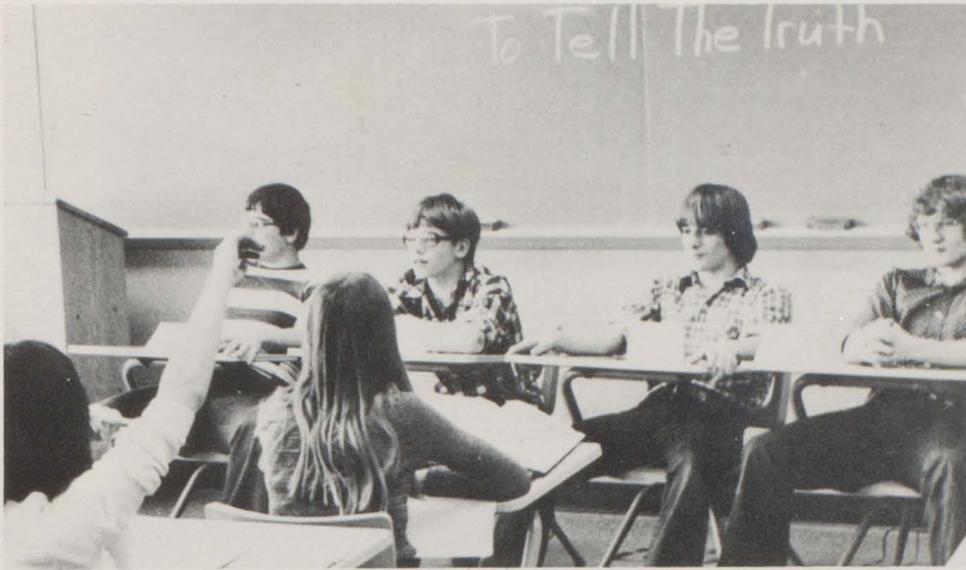

Mary Ellen Kilgore is feature editor assisted by Tim Keifer; Mark Crim is organization editor assisted by Jim Skillman; and Randy Amick is sports editor with Roger Smith helping for all sports news. Marty Leavitt is copy-reading editor and Doug Green is proofreading editor with Scott King as photographer.

Kay Stafford is business manager with Rod Hudson as circulation manager and Emily Gross is advertising manager with Tara Parker as her assistant.

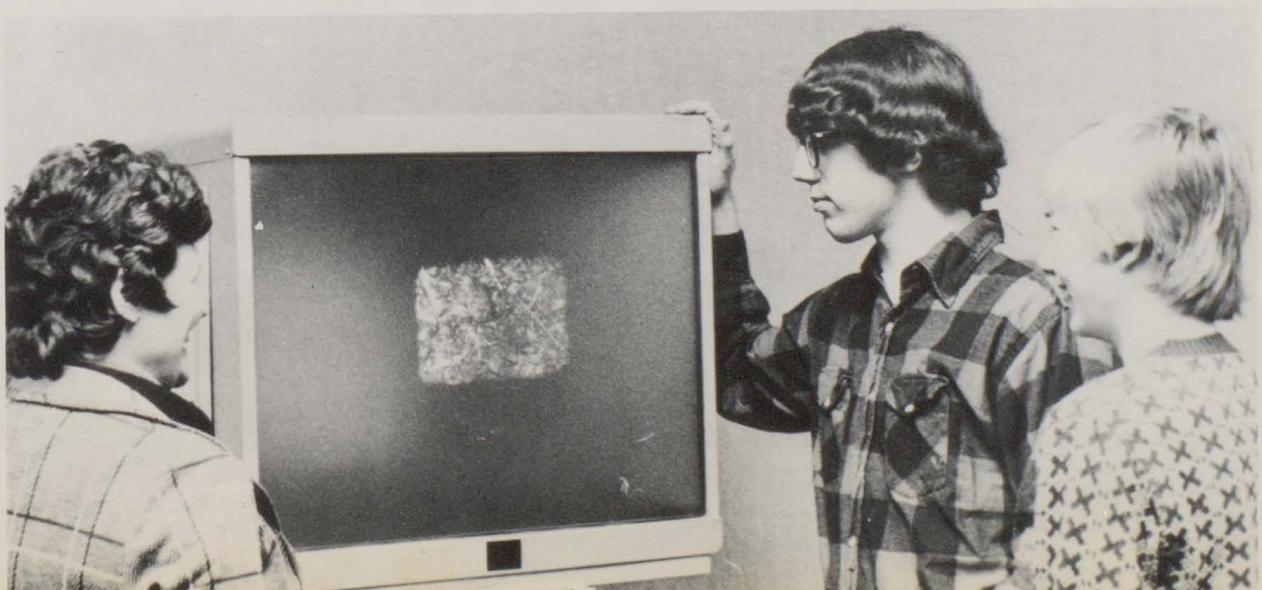

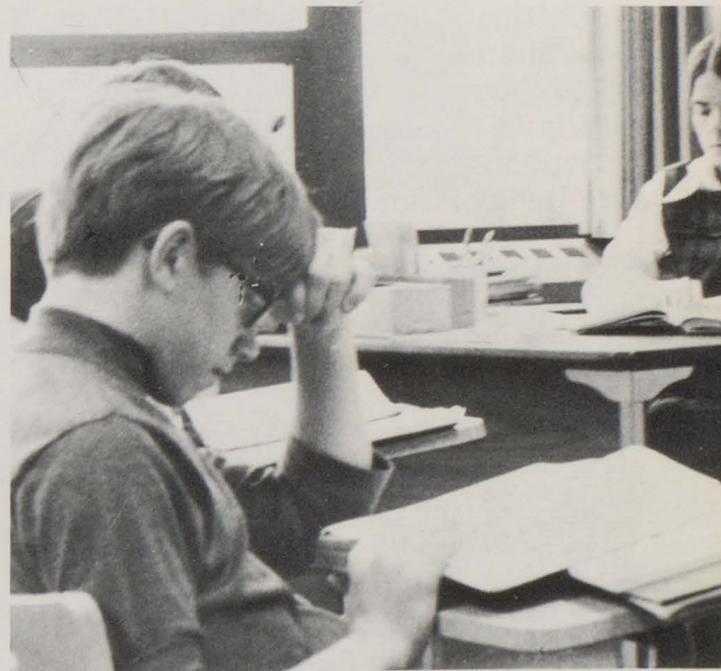

To be able to work on the Megaphone one must have completed a semester of beginning journalism.

Getting acquainted with nature is the purpose of the Adventure Club. Students learn about and from nature around them. Venturing to Washington County for a spelunking trip to Cave River Valley, an overnight bike hike to Mississenewa Reservoir, and a skiing trip to Mt. Wawasee were ways of getting closer to nature. Mr. House is the head sponsor and he is helped by Mr. Santon, Miss Buck and Miss Lucas. Officers elected were Denny Pearson, president; Debbie Wisner, vice-president; Karen Rogers, secretary;

Sherrie Sims, treasurer; and Jeff Compton, photographer.

Group Debates Current Problems

Elwood Debate Club members are Margo Jones, Valeri Brown, Mr. Tom Austin, Mike Monroe, Brian Gerth, and Jim Knoop.

Debating a topic of current national interest is the purpose of the debate team. This year's topic was discussing a method of restructuring the present method of funding election campaigns. The debate team traveled to the Purdue Student Legislative Conference where two members received honorable mention, the highest received in Elwood since 1969. They also went to Ball State for a debate tournament, besides traveling to other high schools around central Indiana to debate with other teams. The team's sponsor is Mr. Austin.

Habla Ingles? Si and Spanish

One of the biggest clubs year after year is Spanish Club. Their group was formed to provide students with the opportunity outside the classroom to learn more about Spanish culture and to have fun doing it. The Spanish Club broke a colorful piñata at their Christmas party this year and travelled to a Mexican restaurant to eat this spring. The club will also be going to Mexico June 2-10 this summer. Mr. Compton is the club's sponsor and the officers are president, Keith Anderson; vice-president, Sheila Hargrave; secretary, Kathy Cole; and treasurer, Sue Scott.

Parlez-Vous Francais?

French Club is another large club of students who want to better acquaint themselves with French culture and have fun doing it. The club held a Christmas party and travelled to Indianapolis, where they ate a French meal at the La Tour restaurant. Miss Buck is the club sponsor, and the officers are Debe Fanning, president; Babette Abner, vice-president; Margaret Noone, secretary; and Chris Kiphart, treasurer.

Latin People Study

Roman Ideas

Latin Club was formed so that students could better understand the culture of Ancient Rome. They did this by holding a Latin Christmas party, and a Roman-style banquet, complete with Roman foods, togas, and a slave sale. The club is also looking forward to the National Latin Club convention, which will be held at a university in Indiana this summer. Mrs. Gardner is the club's sponsor and the officers are Cindy Wilburn and Kevin Magers, co-consuls; Jim Knoop, scriptor; and Molly Idlewine, quaestor.

Concessions Provide Many Services

Concession Club members are Mr. Tom Austin, John Svendson, Rick McDaniel, Kevin Poor, Mr. Brown.

One of our smallest, but hardest working clubs, is the Concession Club. This group is a community service club whose funds provide money for many projects around school. They buy trees, paintings, typewriters and supplies of paper or do anything they feel will benefit the school or community in any way. Club president is Rick McDaniel and club sponsors are Mr. Brown, Mr. Austin, and Mrs. Starkey.

Welcome to the Business World;

Be Prepared for Anything!

Future Business Leaders of America were very active this past year. The Panther pages containing phone numbers of all high school and junior high students were printed by the club. Students also typed for the blood donations last fall and again in February. They were busy with the campaigning and election of state officers. FBLA won the Gold Chapter Award at the National convention in San Francisco last June. Officers elected this year were Joni Weaver, president; Phil Juday, vice-president; Vanessa Young, secretary; Ruth Cannon, treasurer; Cindy Brewer, historian; Jeff Compton, photographer; and Regina Gibson, assistant photographer. The sponsors of FBLA are Mrs. Juday, Mr. Hoppel, and Mrs. Barnett.

Drugs, Alcohol, Tobacco — Good or Bad?

Narcotics class concerns an important controversial subject in today's world. The students are taught by Mrs. Watson that drugs, when used properly can save lives, but when misused, can be deadly. They study physical effects of alcohol, cigarettes, drugs on the body, and side effects on the mind. Students ended the semester by making visual projects and participating in class discussions.

"This year's band has been in my mind one of the most outgoing organizations within the school. The year 1974 marked the first time for the band to perform out of state in the Chicago Christmas parade December 15. The band was praised by TV commentators as one of /if not the/ sharpest dressed and best spirited band in the parade which consisted of 99 units. Also this year, thanks to the sponsorship of A & W Root Beer, Coast to Coast Hardware, and Bob's Auto Parts, the band performed a half hour musical program on WBMP radio once a week for twelve consecutive weeks. These are just two of the many outstanding activities the band participated in this year.

"Unlike sports activities where only the most talented perform, band offers everyone a chance to perform and to be recognized; regardless of whether or not they are the most talented." -- Jeff Poe, 1974-75 band captain

"The Chicago parade was probably the biggest and definitely the most exciting performance that we did the past year, but it made one realize the Panther band is just like a great big family. Through, band, we've learned to work together and to always keep trying and never think of giving up.

"I can honestly say, I am proud to be a member of the great and mighty Panther band."--Tina Reichart, head majorette.

Choir

With pant suits and pop music Elwood's High School Choir has taken on a new look and sound. The choir under the direction of Mr. Frank Parente, music director, has been getting involved with the rest of the music department, school, and community.

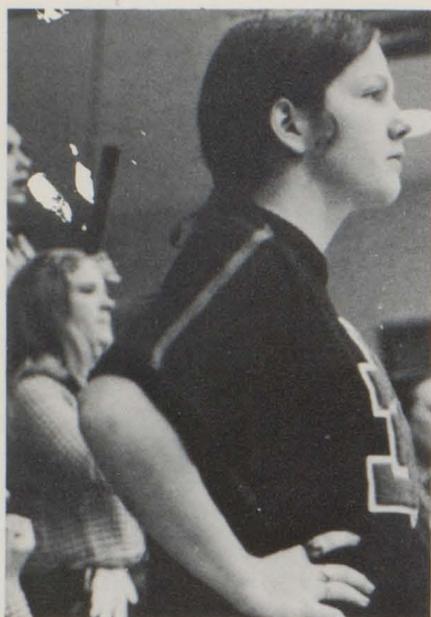

This year the choir performed at the Elks Memorial Service, various convocations, and the variety show. As a special project the choir put on its own fashion show in May with help from local merchants.

One group has also evolved from the choir called Friends, Inc. which performs for various clubs and organizations.

Team Supporters Boost Spirit

Leading the way with cheers at basketball games this year is the Pep Club. Brightly dressed in their red and white checked shirts with blue bandanas, they help raise spirit and encourage good sportsmanship among the fans and the team. This year Mrs. McQuitty is pep club sponsor and officers include president, Cindy Myers; vice president, Cindy Wilburn; secretary-treasurer, Margret Drake; and sergeant at arms is Jodi Clouser.

Several boys also formed a pep block to add their support to the teams this year, yelling at some of the home games for the mighty Panthers.

E-men are He-men

E-men is a group of Elwood athletes who have received a letter in any sport. This organization of high school letterman had several activities throughout the school year. The club collected canned goods for the Salvation Army, helped sell basketball pamphlets, saw a Racers game, sold ads, and organized home game programs. Officers elected were Mike Wilson, president; Jamie Runyan, vice-president; and Phil Leisure, secretary-treasurer. Sponsor of E-Men is Mr. Bailey.

F.C.A. Attends National Conference With Goals Promoting Christian Way

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a small but important club around school. They try to follow Christ and learn about God through their sports. This year they worked at athletic events to earn money in order to send athletes to the national conference during the summer. Mr. Burton and Mr. McQuitty are sponsors of the club, and officers include president, Phil Leisure; vice-president, Brad McQuitty; secretary, Steve Boyer; and treasurer, Mike Wilson.

CRUNCH IT'S DRIVER ED...

Learning how to operate a car and learning about safety in driving is really quite important when you think about it, especially if you plan on driving sometime in your life.

Drivers education offers the training needed in learning to handle a "Mean Machine" (properly handle that is.) Besides teaching the basics, driver ed is good for a credit toward graduation and is recognized by the state as experience in driving.

Learning to Be Craftsmen

The Industrial Arts Club was formed for the purpose of promoting worthy activities which encourage craftsmanship and pride in one's work. They do this by participating in school and civic activities, some of which this year included basketball games and a model contest.

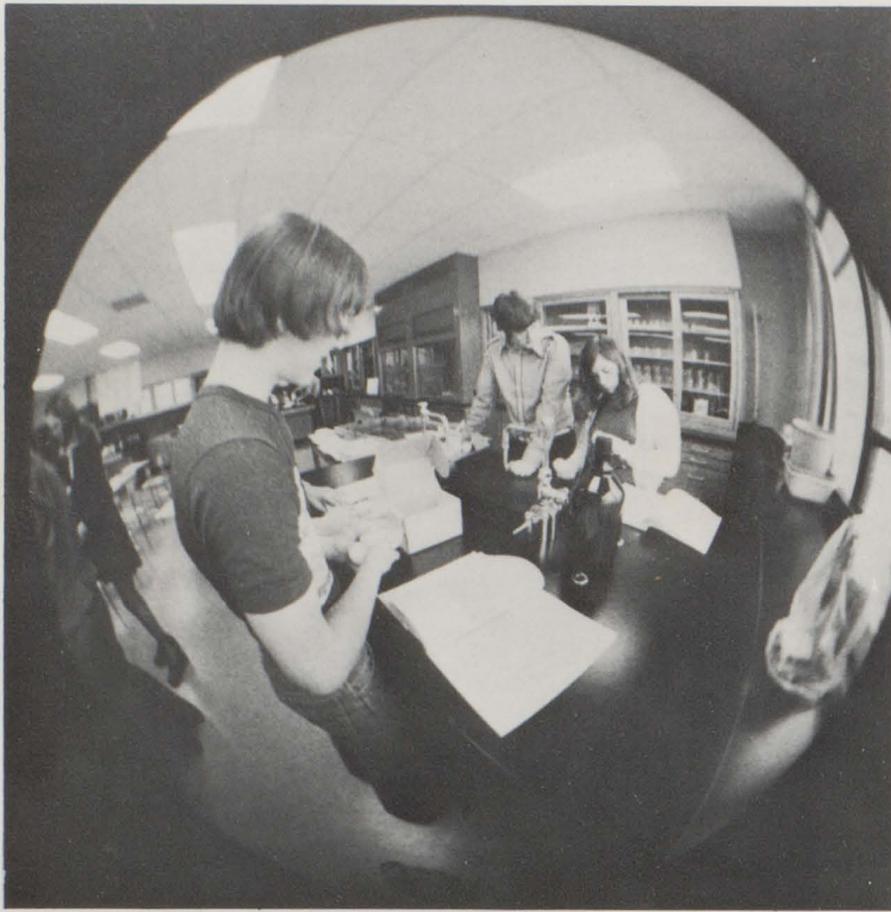

Mr. Williams and Mr. Ritchie sponsor the club and the officers for the year were president, Joe Clouser; vice-president, Jeremy Updegraff; secretary, Mark Taylor; treasurer, Sonny Ray; sergeant at arms, Jeff McQuitty; and reporter, Chris Pace.

Students on the Move

They walk, they talk, and they keep the community and school truckin' ahead. Student Council has worked extra hard this year to keep the school alive in the community. With a lot of cooperation they have achieved such things as helping with the Salvation Army Christmas Food Drive and running their own Muscular Dystrophy Drive. They arranged the homecoming dance, helped with sectional activities, and sponsored the much appreciated school dances.

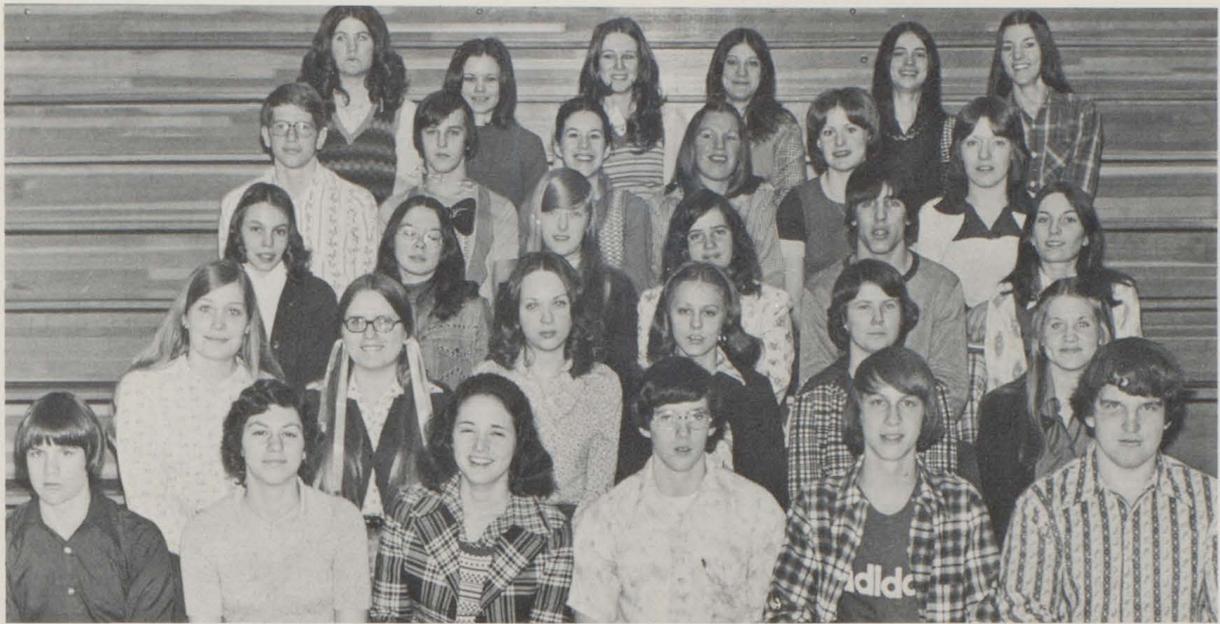

This year's moving ahead Student Council leaders are Mike Wilson, president; Jude Bourff, vice president; and Don Etchison, secretary-treasurer.

Flowers for Algernon

Larry Watson and Jeff Thompson are in charge of the spot lighting.

This year the dramatics department produced the three-act play "Flowers for Algernon". The play concerned a young retarded man who, with the help of a new operation, finds himself becoming a genius. With his new-found intelligence he finds he must now cope with some severe emotional problems, and he must also face the fact that his intelligence is gradually decreasing again. The play was directed by Mr. Schwachenwald and student directors Cindy Piirto and Debe Fanning. The "Good Man Award," a special award given to a member of the cast, was presented to Carol Wittkamper.

"I like to keep them busy over the summer," said Mrs. June VanWagner when asked what the cheerleaders did during vacation. The J.V. and Varsity squads attended the All-American Camp at Taylor University. Varsity also placed twenty-second out of approximately 200 schools in the State Fair contest. Varsity cheerleaders pictured above are, Left to Right, Cricket Williams, Kay Widmeyer, and Jan Heiser, Front Row; Lori Wood, Middle; and Adrienne Etchison, Diana Huff, Back Row. The reserves placed twenty-fifth out of 187 schools in the State Fair. They are below, Left to Right, Lisa McQuitty, Ellen Bond, Lea Ann French (Kneeling), Brenda Brewer, Lisa Brenner. These summer contests prepare the girls for their real job of boosting school spirit during the school year.

This year's freshman cheerleaders, competing in two contests, had their fine efforts rewarded by a first in the Madison County contest and a fourth at Kokomo.

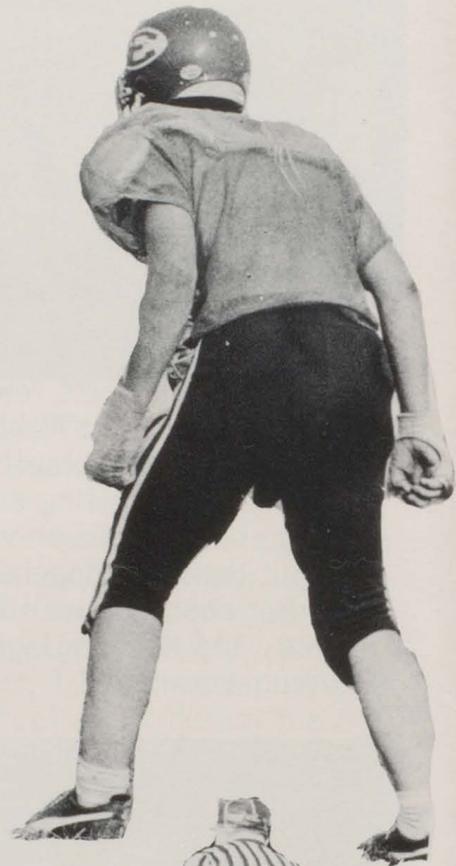

Polly Panthers really helped the cheerleaders boost the spirit during games, yelling and cheering right along side of them.

The behind-the-scenes men in most sports are the managers. Without them the coaches would be kept so busy that they probably wouldn't coach as well as they do now. Taping, filming, carrying towels, and carrying equipment are just a few of the jobs involved in being a manager.

Elwood Community High School has a faculty they can be proud of. Besides our fine teachers out there plugging Spanish and history, there are several men and women behind the scenes who keep the ball rolling. They are back there keeping records, handling money, and making sure things run smoothly.

Believe it or not teachers are human too! They eat and dance and even go to parties, as you can see by the pictures below of the annual faculty dinner-dance.

Senior Class Shows Great Spirit

We are now seniors, and it's the end of something old, the beginning of something new. It's sad because we've been together since grade school, laughing in the halls, trading secrets, and holding hands. It's been fun these last four years. We won the homecoming spirit stick four years in a row and plenty of times besides that. We didn't do so great with our floats, but this year we finally got a second with "Conjure Up a Victory." Remember our junior year when we had so much fun decorating for the prom with the theme "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." High school has been good to us, and as we graduate and leave, we look around us, and wish we didn't have to go. But if there's one thing they'll say about us after we're gone, it's this: The class of '75 had SPIRIT!

Look at the days fly! Juniors already! It seems like only yesterday we were Freshmen. We worked hard on our homecoming float; it was good, and we were sure disappointed with third. This year it was our turn to decorate for prom, and we did a great job.

There were also the PSAT and SAT to be taken for those of us going to college. Our class has a lot of spirit, so look out senior year; here we come!

Sophomores Chug Along

Well, we're Sophomores now. It sure feels good to be able to walk the halls without being called a Freshman. Candy sales, and ordering class rings have sure kept us hopping. We didn't do so well with our float, but we had fun trying. Graduation still seems far away, but we're getting there.

We are now freshmen and have started our long journey through high school. We sure set them back on their heels when we walked away with first place for our homecoming float called "Happiness is Homecoming," complete with Snoopy and his dog house. It's been a great year! We've got a long way to go, but we've made a good start.

Education is a gas.

It lights up dark places.

It lifts your sights.

It inflates the ego.

Not everybody likes it.

But nobody goes far without it.

And the more you have,
the farther you can go.

We hope you'll keep going with your education. And, when the time comes, you'll think about Delco-Remy as a good place to work.
