Crimson Suite Show Choir Concert Choir Crystal Sonore

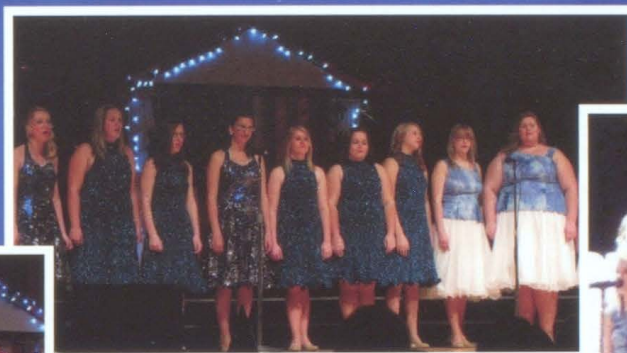

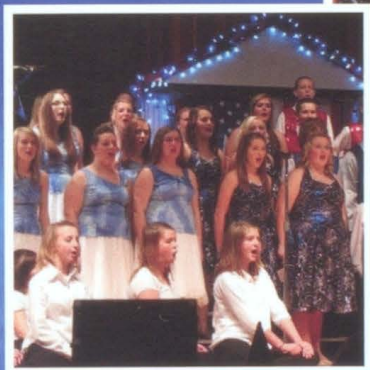

Every year, the choral department performs in a variety of venues and styles. The year is kicked off with a Veterans' Day concert with local veterans and military personnel as the invited VIP's. Christmas season is full of school concerts, a performance at Arts Garden in Indy, and several private shows for groups like the Lion's Club and the Fifty Plus Club. The show choir also performs at the Festival of Trees at the Paramount Theater in Anderson. In February, the choirs attend the ISSMA contest. This year, two ensembles and several soloists made it to the state level, where all of Elwood's entries earned gold ratings. In early March, the EHS Choral Department puts on a combined concert with other Madison County choirs at the Choral Fest.

-Tyler Hoel
"meeting new people and doing what I like--singing"
-Day'mon Johnson

"hanging out and performing with my friends"- Brookelynn Poor

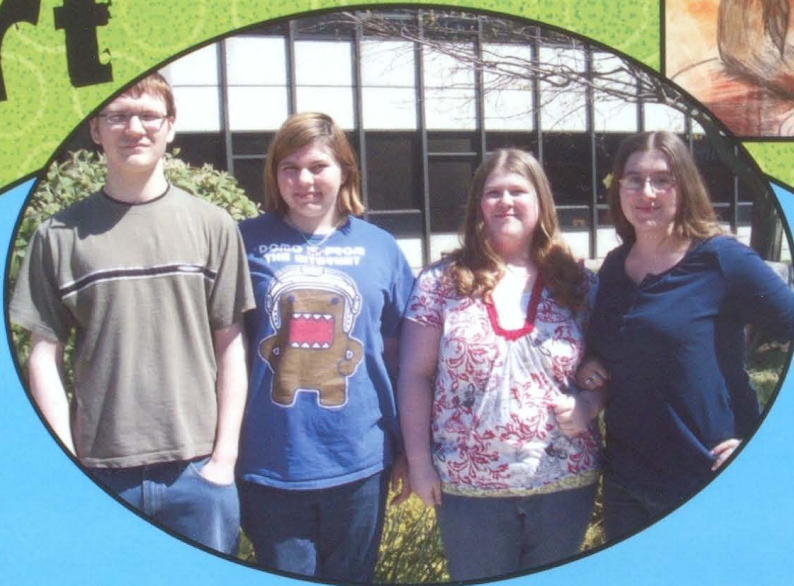

Sophomore Lacy Slayton was chosen through an audition process to be a member of the Indiana All State Honors Choir. 250 choral students from across the state participated in rehearsals throughout the year leading up to their performance in January. Lacy enjoyed "meeting new people and hearing the different styles of voices."

Hobbies and Talents

art

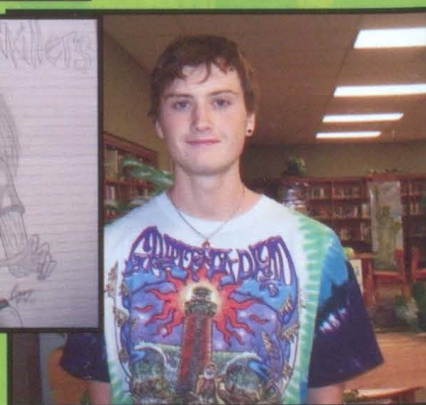

Dakota Howell, Arista Niccum, Savannah Scalf, and Amber Scalf spend free time sketching impressive free handed drawings which are inspired by Manga comics, Japanese comics with anime characters. Dakota focuses on anthropomorphic drawings which combine human and animal characteristics. Arista says meeting Savannah got her interested in drawing again; she also makes costumes. Savannah draws her original characters whenever she gets the chance and wants to draw her own Manga comic strips when she gets older. Amber Scalf also started off drawing characters around the age of five. Now she draws still life and paints landscapes. She plans to study graphic design and work for an advertising company.

Meredith Helping sketches mostly nature--flowers and outdoorsy scenes. She's drawn "since [she] could hold a pencil." She's been working on drawing people as well, such as her charcoal of Sydney Landrum from art class. Meredith is considering going into architecture but will continue to sketch on the side regardless of what she chooses.

Lauren Lamey has been drawing for three years. She's particularly interested in drawing facial expressions and plans to become a graphics designer, creating concepts for characters in video games.

Benton McCorkle has been drawing since as far back as he can remember. He draws mostly "zombies and morbid characters." Benton plans to study graphic design at the Art Institute and to someday design graphics for skateboards.

Unique Interests

A writing assignment sophomore year got Karah McCorkle interested in writing creatively. She writes mostly about life; she says "people interest me." Karah says she writes whenever the mood hits her.

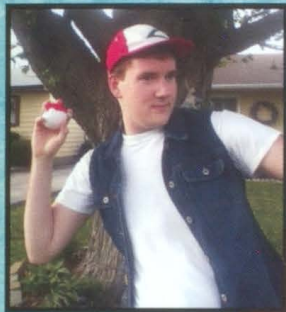

Elli Ferguson started gymnastics at age seven. Now, she can do a standing backflip on the ground (a back tuck for you fellow gymnasts and cheerleaders). Elli cheers and likes being able to tumble during games.

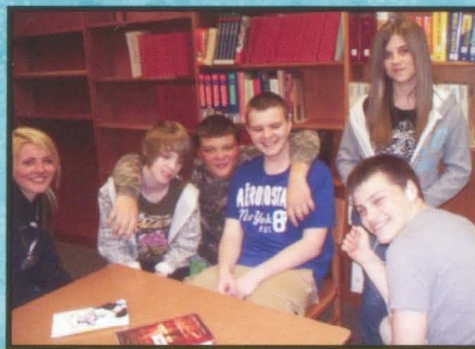

Myra Ousley taught herself to beatbox in middle school, but she admits she hates rap music! She listens to rock, classical, and opera. Her beatboxing skills come in handy when Dylan Downey needs to get pumped for a quiz!

Nicole Jones started baton two years ago when a friend urged her to join. Nicole loved hanging out with the other girls so much that she stayed.

Tyler Harnish says Pokemon is "not a game; it's a lifestyle." Collin Needler claims he is King of Games because he's "always winning."

This 7th period Study Hall crew claims they are the most fun study hall class. Andrew Bly says it's because everyone is "from different cliques," but Cheyenne Hunt says the reason is "We're just loud!"

Music

Jessica Peeper has been playing piano since she was in second grade. She comes from a family of piano players and has participated in twelve piano contests, five of which she won. The most difficult piece she has ever played is Sonata in C Major by Mozart.

Todd Brewster has been singing "for as long as [he] can remember." He was inspired by his father who was also a singer. He says he likes to sing "songs that make people listen to what you're saying."

Libby Ashbaugh started taking piano and voice lessons last summer. She was inspired when she watched Grayson Chance's rise to fame through Youtube videos. Libby likes anything by Lady Gaga.

Academic Teams

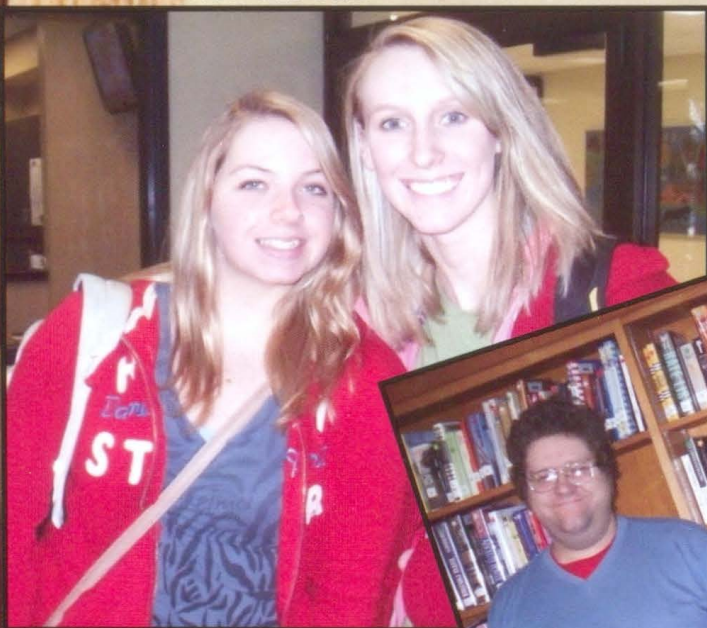

The interdisciplinary team made it to the state competition with the highest score in the regional. They accomplished fifth place at state.

Senior Justin Wiand and juniors Angela and Ben Church take notes during Mrs. Riser's history lecture.

Junior Tanner Hobbs has golfed for the school team for five years. His favorite perk of being a member of the golf team is the chance to travel to and play on nice courses in the area.

Senior Drake Mengelt has golfed all seven years through middle and high school. His favorite part about being on the team is the sense of teamwork and working through Coach Hobbs's difficult practices.

Junior Bobby Harrell has been a panther golfer for six years. According to Bobby, the best part about golfing for the school is trying to hit Coach Hobbs while he picks up balls on the driving range!

Couple Drew Wells and Hope Fred stop dancing for a picture.

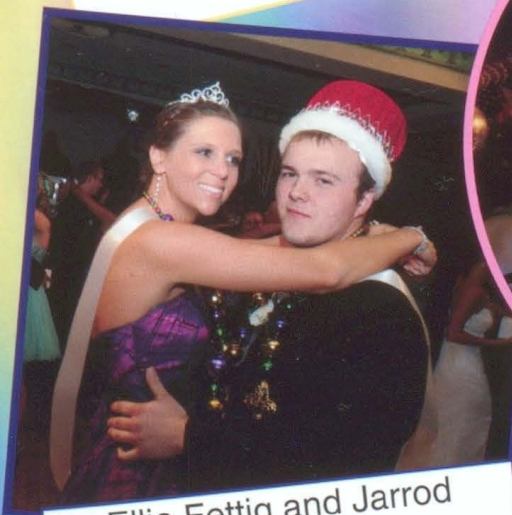

Matt Manship, Erica Harpel, and Chase Arbuckle dance with each other.

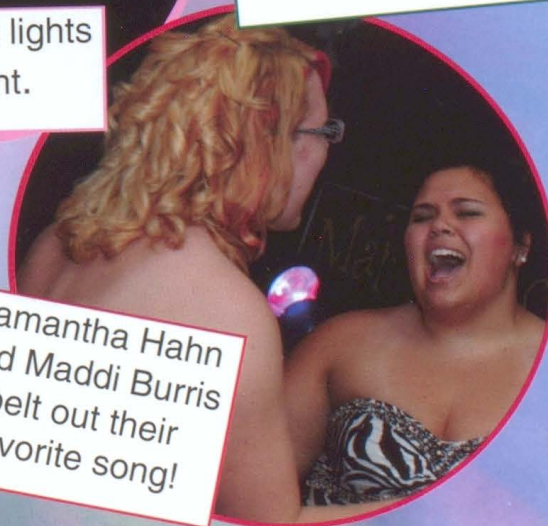

Forrest Wright lights up the night.

Ellie Fettig and Jarrod Clouser were crowned prom royalty for the night.

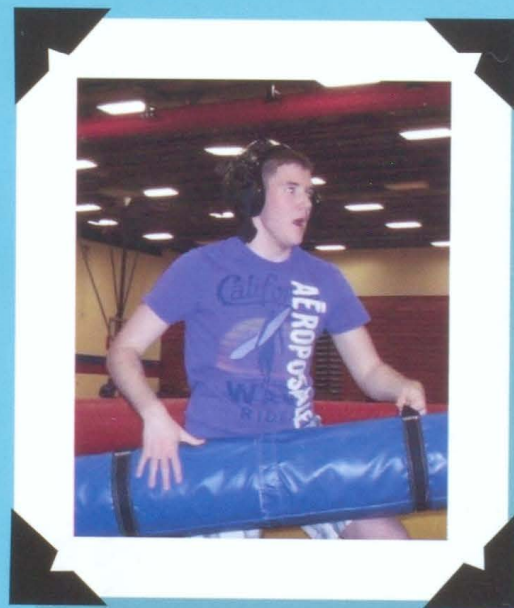

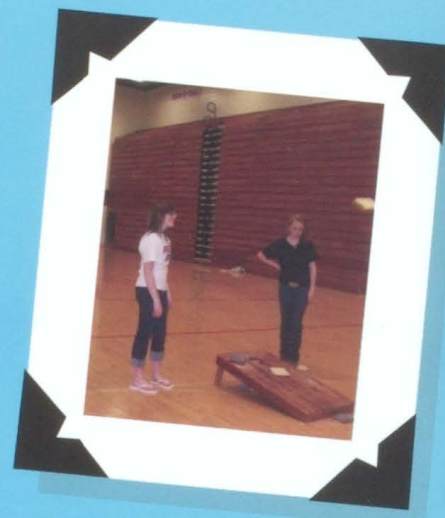

Samantha Hahn and Maddi Burris belt out their favorite song!

Morgan Caldwell and Bobby Harrell show off their inner super heroes.

It may have been one in the morning, but those who attended after prom were up for a battle. From battering rams to wrecking balls to corn hole, there were plenty of opportunities to get competitive.

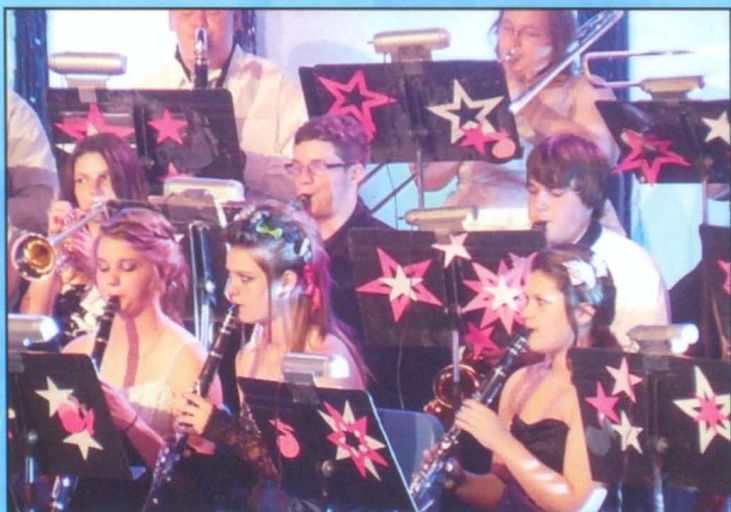

AFTER PROM

Andrew Plummer and Maddy Smith put a unique and clever spin on their matching clothes.

VARIETY SHOW

"DANCING IN THE STREET"

The band played their arrangement from marching season along with several pieces that have become variety show tradition. They spiced up the evening with everything from Lady Gaga to Journey.

The Crimson Suite Show Choir opens the show with "Dancing in the Street".

The guard performs the marching season routine that brought the band so much success this year.

The concert choir harmonizes a catchy version of "Johnny Angel".

The choirs combine for a groovy flashback with "Disco Survives".

The choirs honor graduating seniors with "Until We Sing Again."

Show choir members get sophisticated for "Wall Street Rhythm"

Choir members join together for an energetic performance of "Footloose".

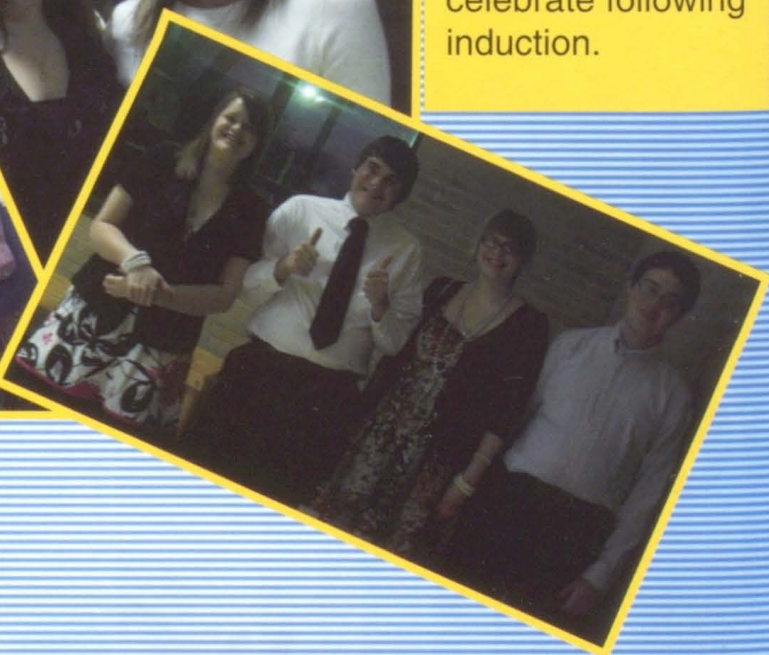

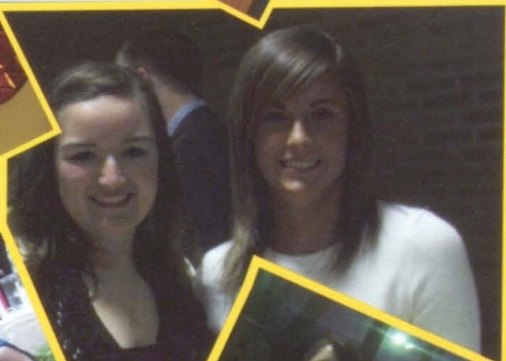

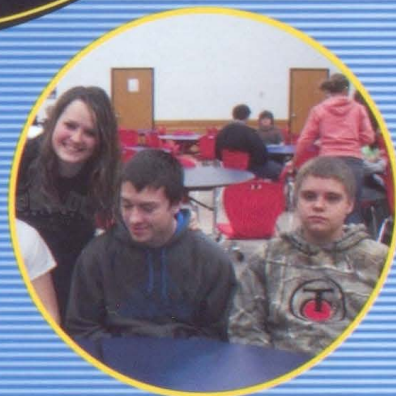

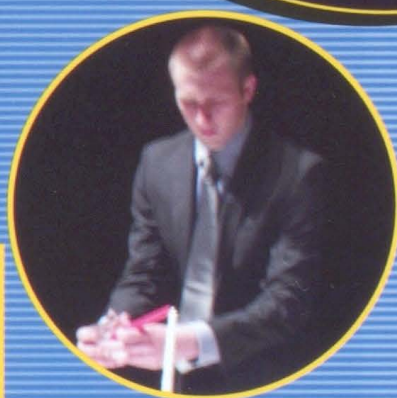

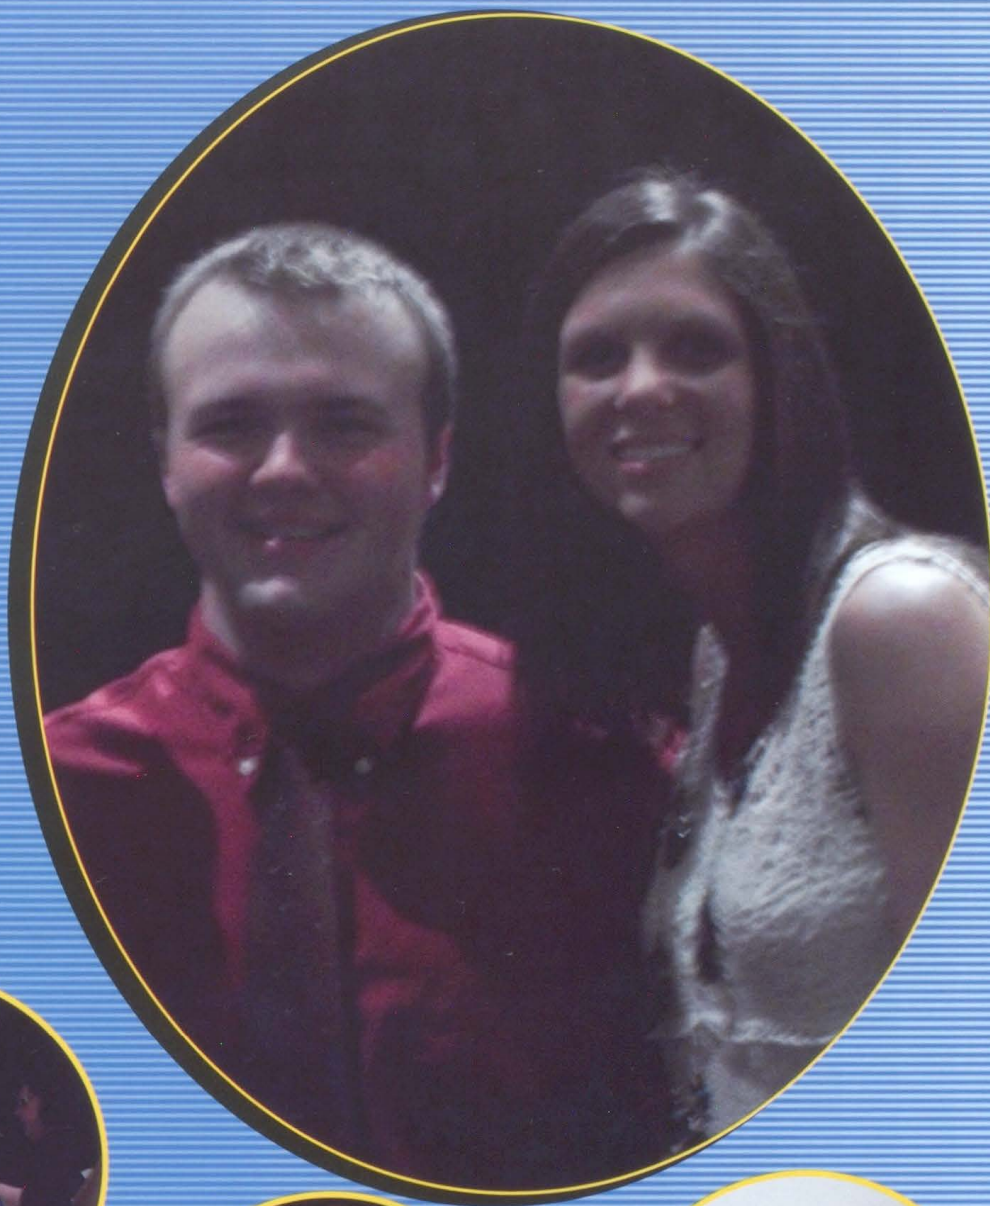

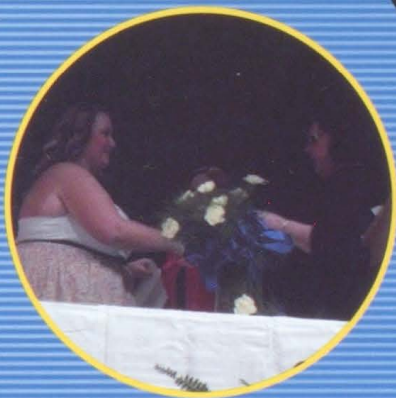

Tap Day!

The seniors surprised the juniors with a fiesta-themed tap day, complete with a pinata, a taco bar, pin the tail on the donkey, and Mexican hat dancing. The senior officers sported sombreros for the event.

Friends and family celebrate following induction.

The induction ceremony included the traditional lighting of candles, a speech by president Alexa Middlesworth, and readings by several members. Senior members spent the year giving advice to, tutoring, and having fun getting to know freshman mentor groups.

Ellie Fettig lights the candles for the induction.

Seniors Alexa Middlesworth, Ellie Fettig, Kelsey Crabtree, and Taylor Hembree take a celebratory photo after the induction.

NATIONAL TECHNICAL HONOR SOCIETY

All of the inductees take a picture with their awards.

Jarrod Clouser receives his induction medal.

Casey Tishner lights one of several candles.

Cecily Swinford receives her award.

Java Paws

Interview with Mr. Andy Smith:

Q: How did the idea for Java Paws come about?

A: The class was assigned a persuasive writing prompt about what they would like in a new school.

Q: How long did the process from idea to reality take?

A: The idea started in February, and the cafe opened on April 23rd.

Q: What are some obstacles you had to overcome?

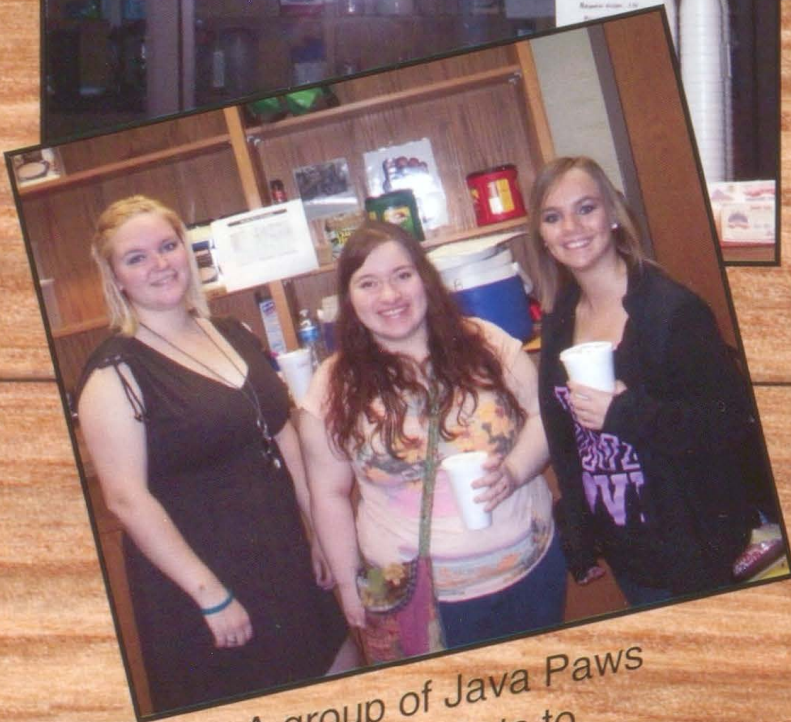

A: state laws, funding, administration approval

Q: How much money did you make this year?

A: A little over $1,000. However, we are only open 30 minutes each day.

Q: Any new ideas for Java Paws next year?

A: Possibly expanding our current menu to include a variety of beverages and possibly opening during the day.

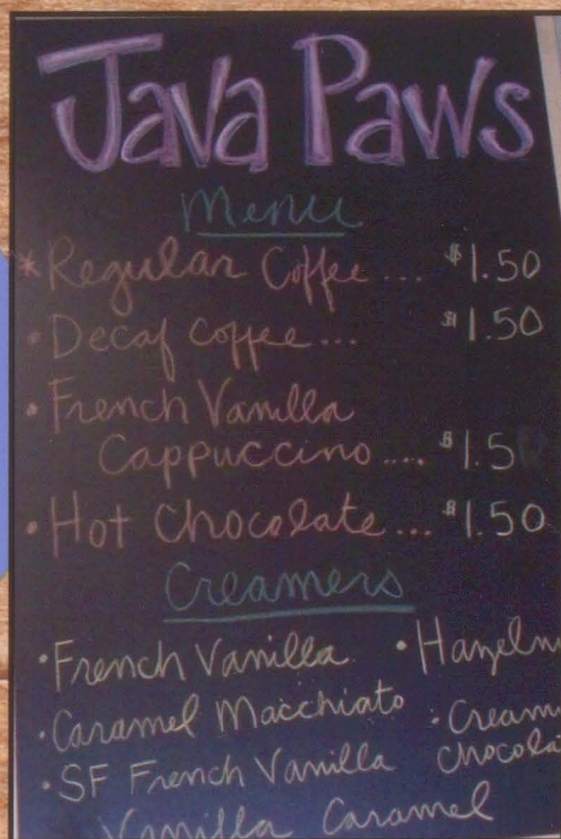

A group of Java Paws employees gets to school early to meet the morning crowd.

2012 GRADUATION

Speeches by: Joel Moser

Cecily Swinford

Alexa Middlesworth

Class Song: No Such Thing

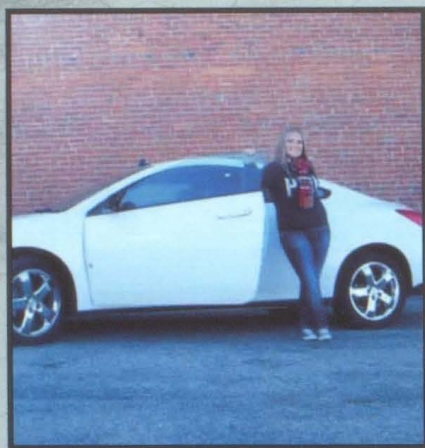

Performed by: Simple Solution: Justin, Nick, and Derek Wland, Dillon Bogard, Austin Charlton

"Pomp and Circumstance" and "The Star-Spangled Banner" performed by the Elwood Panther Band

"Pure Imagination" and "Until We Sing Again" performed by all graduating choir members and the Crimson Suite Show Choir

What will the seniors do next?

Taylor Hembree, with an awesome car and her own business, could travel the world, right?

Cecily Swinford has always had a great personality, beautiful eyes, and has stayed the same. A successful future seems to be in store for her!

Shelby Stokes is artistic, musical, unique, and she is the class clown. Which way will she go?

Amber Scalf could be a politician, but will she?

Heather Manship is very talkative! Maybe she will have her own talk show.

Lyndsey Mays might cruise the "L" until marriage, but who will be the lucky guy?

Jessica Peeper has amazing hair and she's always dressed to impress. Will she be a model?

Ellie Fetting has a great smile, sense of humor, and is very outgoing. Perhaps she will be famous!

Kathleen Stiner will most likely marry her highschool sweet heart, but will she live with him or stay with her parents?

Lauren Lamey is a huge techie, so will she be a hired hacker?

Maciah Faucett is the best looking and biggest flirt. Will she star in a romance movie?

Taylor Ables is a big daredevil, what daring thing will she do next?

Sara Phillips has changed so much and she is very athletic. Will she be a star athlete?

You can always tell Morgan Cook's laugh, she has killer dance moves, and a rocking tattoo! Perhaps she will make a good racecar driver.

Andrew Plummer is always talking, sometimes about his opinion. Other times he is such a clown! Will he always be so talkative and humorous?

Anthony Hickman has great hair. Will he cut it again?

David Leonard will most likely be a racecar driver and cruise the "L" until he is ready for marriage.

Collin Needler is a unique couch potato; who knows what he will do?!

Dakota Shallenberger's eyes could dazzle anyone, so who will he dazzle?

Kevin Rodriguez is very artistic, so will he be a famous artist?

Nick Wiand dresses nicely and is very musical with a guitar. Will he play for a band one day?

Zack Hartman will most likely marry his high school sweet heart, but what will he do after that?

Tyler Harnish is very outgoing. So would he make a good entertainer?

Everyone knows Dillon Bogard is a genius with computers, so will he be a hired hacker?

Austin Charlton is a daredevil with no fear of tattoos. Will he stay out of trouble?

Ricky Philips has changed alot, devolving a great personality and sense of humor. Would he make a good comedian?

Jarrod Clouser has the car people love and the laugh everyone knows.

Kurtis Hussong has the looks and the smile to be a model, so will he be one?

Justin Wiand really can dance, but would he make a good politician?

Korbin Buster is super athletic. Will he be a star basketball player?
