Madison-Grant High School

Sophomores Brittany Blanton, Besty Floyd, Jennifer Massey, Kerri Pulley, and Alyssa Relfe dressed up as the Spice Girls during homecoming for one of the dress up days.

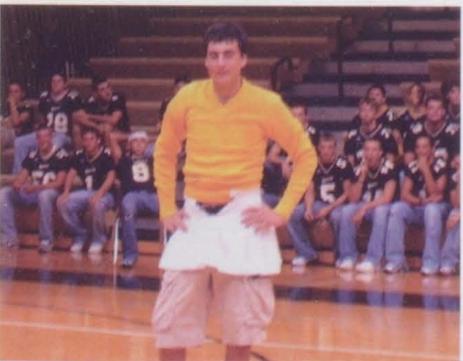

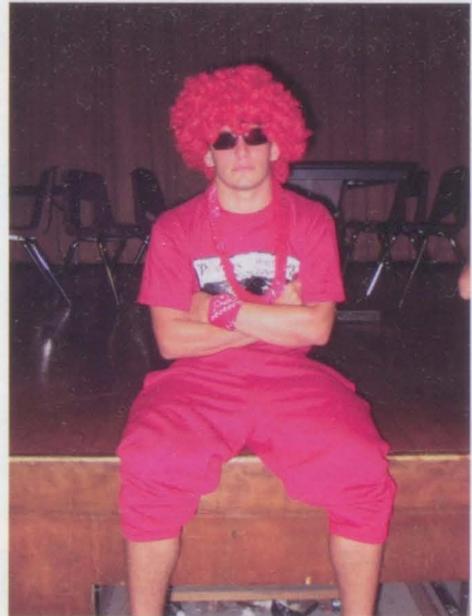

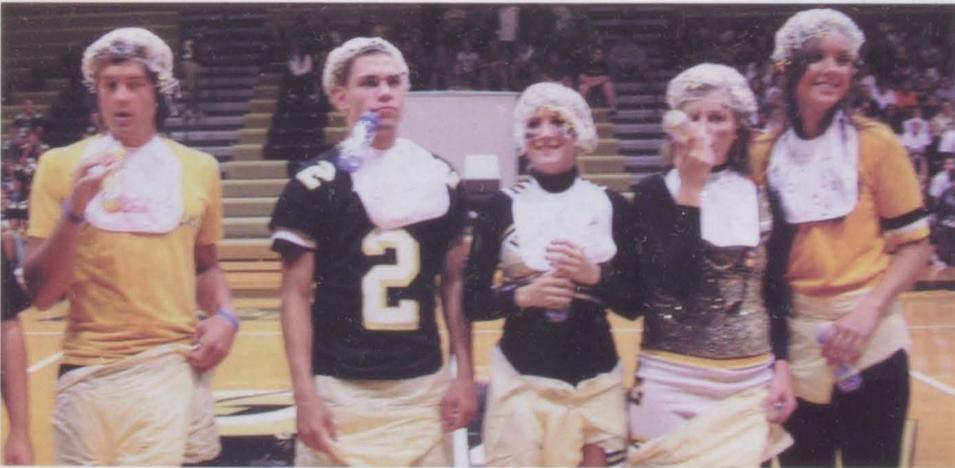

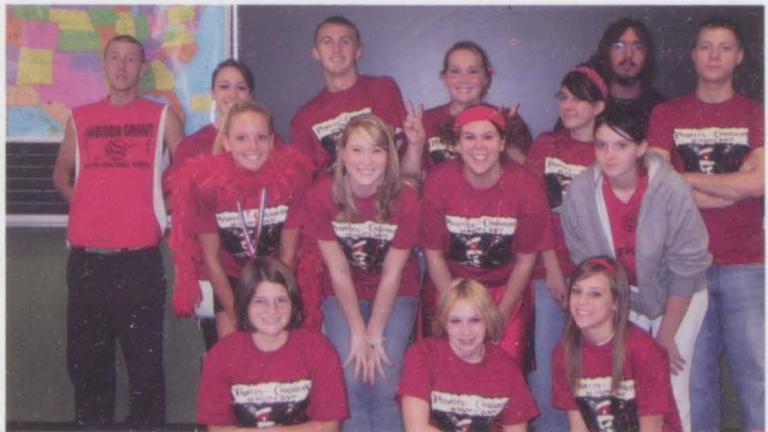

During a normal school day, students head to class after the two-minute warning bell rings at 8:13 a.m. Students head to a variety of classes that range from chemistry, English, gym, foreign language, choir, and so many other classes. Students also have the chance to either be an assistant for a teacher, an assistant to the office, or an assistant to the librarian. Extracurricular activities are also a major part of a normal day at Madison-Grant High School. Sports and clubs are a couple of the most common activities among a student's regular routine. The school day ends at 3:20 p.m. when students head home or to other activities for the day, only to do it all over again the next day.

A Day in the Life of an Athlete

FOOTBALL

Madison-Grant had a great 2006 season finishing with a 7-6 record. This was Randy Sehy's second year coaching the Argylls. The players were used to the Wing-T offense which was shown by their winning season.

The Argylls got revenge on the Eastbrook team because last year they kept the Argylls from going to the sectional championship. This year the Argylls beat Eastbrook and South Adams for the first Madison-Grant Sectional Championship in school history.

Question

What are you going to miss most about football?

Answer

"Conditioning. I just really love to run myself to complete exhaustion after a long, hard day."

Geoffrey Buck
Senior

Seniors Derek Gunning and Derek Stitt hold up high the first ever Madison-Grant sectional championship trophy after defeating the South Adams Starfires.

1. Junior Jacob Morrical prepares to make a move on his foe.

2. Senior Shawn Yeagy gets ready to punt the ball sixty yards.

3. Senior Derek Stitt heads for the touchdown after the kickoff.

4. Junior Zach Poe hustles off the field after a ferocious battle with the opposing line.

5. Sophomore Andrew Stroup goes to the sidelines after a fifty yard touchdown pass.

Volleyball

The Madison-Grant Lady Argyll volleyball team had a new coach, Robert Holloway, for the 2007 season. When asked about the season, coach Holloway said, "One of the highlights of our season was defeating highly ranked Ft. Wayne Dwenger to win the Blackford Invitational." With five returning seniors the team was expected to accomplish many tasks. Even though they didn't accomplish all of their goals, they still finished with a winning season. When asked what was most memorable about the season, coach Holloway said, "The most memorable part of the season was the Class of 2007's contributions to our volleyball program." The underclassmen will have to step up to fill the empty slots next year.

The Lady Argylls join each other and put one foot in for their traditional pep talk before the game.

Question

What is your best memory of playing volleyball?

Answer

"I will always remember playing six lovely years of volleyball with my best friends!"

Allison Holloway

Cross Country

The girls cross country team had to forfeit every race because they didn't have enough girls on the team. Even though they had to forfeit, they still worked hard to improve. When asked about the boys' season, Coach Morgan said, "We only had one veteran runner and he got an injury after the first four meets and had to sit out for a majority of the season, so that really hurt our record." Coach Morgan is looking forward to next season and hopes to have some returning veterans.

Question

What was your motivation to keep running even though you knew you had to forfeit every meet for not having enough girls?

Answer

"I ran for my own personal benefits. I wanted to improve my times from previous years, and I enjoyed spending time with the team and coaches."

Cody Barkdull
Senior

The M-G boys line up on the line and get ready for the start of their race against Frankton.

1. Sophomore Ethan Wallace tries to get a personal best by running as fast as he can to the finish line.

2. Katey Young, sophomore, strides out to get a better finishing time.

3. Senior Courtney Clem runs at the same pace from the beginning of the race to the end.

4. Kirstin Rager, senior, stays focused on the race with the help of the fans.

5. Junior Patrick Hansel keeps his eyes focused on the people ahead rather than worrying about the ones behind him.

TENNIS

The Madison-Grant tennis season was not what people were expecting, but the individual players grew in their experience. The tennis team had two people advance to semi state. Seniors Robert Shull and Andrew Morrical went as the number one doubles. They also went undefeated in C.I.C. "Going to semi-state was a fun experience. We got to play some very tough competition. I just wish we wouldn't have had to play two 6'4" twins from Fort Wayne," commented Robert Shull on going to semi-state. It wasn't only the number one doubles that performed well, but the number two doubles team of seniors Russ Clark and Ryne Brown also went undefeated in C.I.C. Even though the doubles teams were both seniors, there should be rising stars next year.

Senior Ryne Brown tries to hit a harmless bird during a match against Tipton. Ryne, in his second year, received all C.I.C. honors.

Question

What was your favorite thing about tennis this year?

Answer

“The bus rides to and from the matches, and how annoying we were with our jungle noises.”

Andrew Morrical
Senior

Senior Robert Shull gets ready to serve the ball. Robert, in his fourth year, went to semi-state with his double partner Andrew Morrical.

Girls Tennis

The girls tennis team had a great year. They were supported by five seniors and one French foreign exchange student which helped lead the team to many victories. This was coach Pitt's second year as they went 10-7, the most wins since 1977 when they went 9-3. It wasn't just the most wins in the season, but they also won the first Elwood Invitational in school history. Even though the team is losing six varsity players, the future still looks bright for the Madison-Grant girls tennis team.

2. Senior Casi Beal prepares to hit a powerful serve.

3. Senior Hollie Wright does a curtsy after she hit the ball back to the opposing player.

4. Senior Traci Morgan gets ready to spike the ball into her oppositions face.

5. Foreign exchange student ,Amandine Lustremant, shows her French power as she returns a serve.

BASKETBALL

The Madison-Grant Basketball team started off with only four losses in the first eleven games. The team had four seniors with three of them starting. Braden Zirkle played this year and was a dominant force in the paint. The Varsity won Grant Four and played in the final game of the Sectional championship. "It felt good being on the floor and making a difference in the game instead of paying five bucks to watch and try to make a difference yelling at the refs from the crowd," Shawn Yeagy states about his fourth year of basketball at Madison-Grant. The team ended with an even record and high hopes for next season.

Girls Basketball

The varsity girl's basketball team had the talent to do well this season but struggled in the win/loss column. The JV had a very good season, winning the Grant Four and finishing with a 18-1 record. When asked about the season, Coach Zeigler said, "It was a frustrating season with so many close games. We proved that we could play with some of the best teams in the state." Maybe next season will bring a better record.

WRESTLING

This season the Argyll wrestling team was extremely young and had only the support of one senior. The Argylls improved individually having five wrestlers with ten or more pins, the most in school history. "We had a great season this year, with some underclassmen filling in and stepping up in key spots. We really improved a lot, especially with the losses of some key seniors," junior Raymond Gibson states about the 2006-2007 season. The underclassmen have made great strides to better themselves and next season looks to be the best yet.

Track

The boys track team had an average season and are looking forward to improving next year. The girls track team had a good season with third place finishes in the Argyll Relays and CIC. The girls got eighth place in the Sectional, but they did have some individuals advance to the Regional. Brennen Ricks advanced to the Regional in the one hundred and three hundred meter hurdles. She was a part of the sixteen hundred meter relay team that advanced to the Regional along with juniors Kayla Wilkins and Georgia Smithee and sophomore Betsy Floyd. Brennen advanced to the State Finals in the one and three hundred meter hurdles. It was a great finish for the senior and the Lady Argyll track team.

Golf

The girls golf team didn't have a good record, but they performed well individually. Sophomore Dana Runyan was first team all conference and junior Natalie Chapel, sophomores Bonnie Parker, Sam Yeagy, and Danielle Smith all made second team all conference. Natalie Chapel had the lowest score average on the team. The most improved was Danielle Smith, and Bree Stitt received the mental attitude award.

The boys golf team, like the girls, didn't have a good record but improved greatly. They didn't have any seniors but were led by junior Tyler Small and sophomore Preston Poore. Every returning player stepped up their game and showed that next year will be successful.

First Row: Breanne Stitt, Danielle Smith
Second Row: Coach Small, Dana Runyan, Samantha Yeagy, Natalie Chapel, Bonnie Parker

Q What do you like about golf?

A. "I like that it is way more relaxed than other sports. You can talk while playing and usually the other people you play with are nice. Plus, this year's team was a really fun group, and we had fun at practices too."

Dana Runyan
Sophomore

Sophomore Sam Yeagy and fellow teammate Natalie Chapel take time out of their game to refresh themselves.

Junior Tyler Small putts twenty feet away from the hole.

Q. What do you like about golf?

A. "I like crushing drives and watching newcomer teammates improve during the season."

Preston Poore

Baseball

The Madison-Grant Argyll baseball team had a great year with a twenty and five record. This year was the first year that the team won the Argyll classic. The Argylls also got to the sectional semi final round before being stopped by the number one seed team, Northwestern. The team is hopeful for an even better season next year.

3. Sophomore Shawn Smith walks off the field after a sweet action play at second.

4. Senior Andrew Morrical rips a power shot to right center for a triple.

5. Senior Ryne Brown almost breaks his arm with a blistering fastball.

Softball

The softball team had a really good season this year. The junior varsity finished with an undefeated season, and the varsity won twenty six games and only lost three. The team won Grant Four, CIC, and Sectionals. They went to Regionals and beat Garret to go on to the championship game and face Lewis Cass. It was a close battle between the two teams the entire game, but Lewis Cass was the victor winning one to zero. When asked what she will remember most about softball her senior year, Amanda Pollen said, "A Woo-Wee with a hip thrust!" The Lady Argyll softball team will definitely be a team to look for next year.

sum it UP!

When getting to high school, students have more choices to make than when in jr. high. One of the major choices that a student has to make is what classes to take. Students have the choice of several classes such as science classes, social study classes, and multiple electives.

Some students like to take art classes while some people prefer to take physical education. Students have the freedom of choice that prepare them for the future.

Senior Russ Clark tries to remember what he had for breakfast that morning as he works on another assignment.

Sophomore Audrey Birkla is feverishly doing her assignment in Mr. Badger's history class.

Seniors Courtney Clem and Brittany Hiers help each other on their economics homework.

Social Studies

Q. How are your classes different here?

A.

“We have to study classes that are usually set up by the government, so we don't get to choose classes. Our study materials are pre-historic books from Soviet Union times! They are extremely boring without colored illustrations. Even though I had to study eighteen classes my last year, Kyrgyz schools don't offer such a variety of classes like M-G.”

Junior, Munara Akmatova

Art

TEACHER PROFILE:

Mrs. Solms is the high school art teacher. She teaches drawing, painting, stained glass, computer graphics, and ceramics. She has been teaching for ten years at Madison-Grant. Her mission in teaching is to instill a love for art that will allow students to express themselves creatively. Mrs. Solms has painted many different murals for the school corporation and businesses. She painted the mural on the gym wall, a mural for the baseball and softball teams, and she painted a mural for the pediatrics center at Marion General Hospital. Mrs. Solms is liked by her students and makes art fun for all of her students.

It's All About Fashion!!

At Madison-Grant students wear a variety of different styles. Some wear Hollister and American Eagle, the name brand clothes, but a lot of students do not care about brand names. Another trend is the skinny jeans and Vans. Some students just like to be comfortable and wear sweat pants or basketball shorts with a sweatshirt and head band. There is also a variety of shoes that are worn by the students, such as Nike Shox, Vans, flip flops, boots, and many more. Another look is the all black clothes or the classic cowboy look, minus the cowboy hat. "Most days I dress how I feel, usually you'll be able to tell my mood by my outfit for the day. On a good day I will dress in a lot of color and it usually never matches. On a bad day, I will wear basketball shorts and a t-shirt," comments senior Brittany Hiers. It seems the consensus is comfortable clothing is the way to dress for school.

Twins

Wouldn't you like to know what it is like to be a twin? Well, at Madison-Grant there are nine sets of twins and one set of triplets that you could ask. One twin, Chelsie Morrical, was asked on how she views being a twin. "Being a twin has its up and downs, but I wouldn't change it for the world," commented Morrical. There are also two other sets of twins Megan and Marta Hensley and Macy and Molly Lighty that were unavailable to get their pictures taken.

Seniors Traci and Staci Morgan still manage to smile for the camera while trying to choke each other.

he said

What is it like to be a twin?

"Lots of caring, lots of sharing, lots of stuff."

Patrick Hansel
Junior

she said

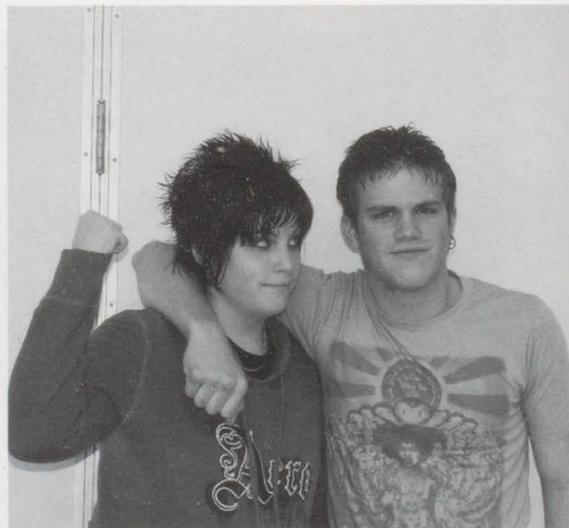

What is it like to be a twin?

"Having a twin is like having a regular brother or sister. You love them, you hate them, your're ready to see them, then your're ready to kill them."

Shannon Hansel
Junior

Sophomore Brandon Watson thought he was just posing for the camera, while his sister Elizabeth was planning to beat him up.

Sophomores Jordan, Riley, and Kyle Turner show their triplet telepathy by dressing the same.

Juniors Jacob and Chelsie Morrical laugh hysterically as they play around in the hallway.

CLUBS

Sophomores Katey Young and Preston Poore laugh after Katey blind sides Preston on the head with an egg. The two were participating in Cinco de Mayo activities with the Spanish Club.

Senior Courtney Clem tries to snowboard during the annual Christmas auction put on by the National Honor Society.

Senior Nick Brobst and junior Kyle Clem wish upon the magical Genie to protect them from Iago, senior Darin Conrad, as they participate in the play Aladdin.

Graduation

The class of 2007 was honored at graduation ceremonies on May 25th. The seniors took their last walk down the gym floor as they realized how much the last four years at Madison-Grant High School had contributed to their lives.

Jerica Yingling received the Valedictorian honors while Katie Croaff received the Salutatorian honors.

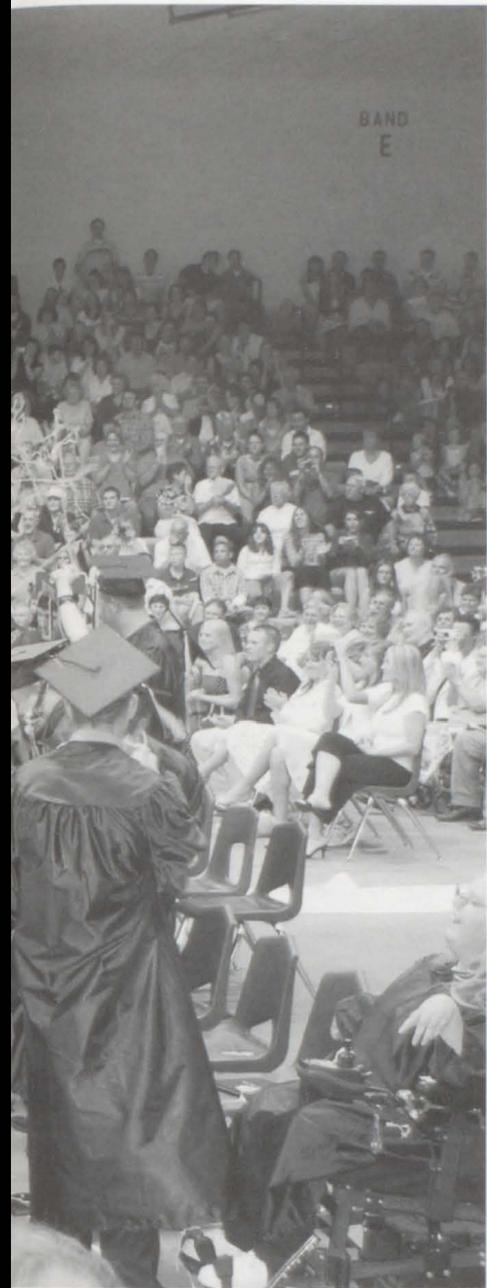

The senior class celebrates after being declared the 2007 graduates of Madison-Grant High School.

Junior National Honor Society Member, Austin Lee, assists senior Rebecca Kierstead on the stage to receive her diploma. Seniors Jacob Landis and Samantha Lowe await their turn to take the stage.

Marissa Shumaker, Rebekah Snyder, Jared Sousa, Cory Stephens, and Derek Stitt listen intently to the speaker during the graduation ceremony.

*Salutatorian
Katie Croaff delivers the salutatory at
