In recognition of her great skill as a teacher, her untiring energy in helping others, and the manner in which she has endeared herself to hundreds of her students and friends in the community, we, the class of 1953, dedicate this Black and Gold to our beloved teacher, friend, and sponsor, Myrtle Ellen Gilbreath, with the hope that it may, in some small measure, repay the many unrewarded kindnesses which she has so unselfishly bestowed upon us.

F. Stanton Galey

F. Stanton Galey has been a faculty member of Fairmount High School since 1924. In his 29 years at F.H.S., Mr. Galey has served the community well. His friendly manner and warm smile are symbolic of the fraternal bonds which exist in Fairmount High School. Mr. Galey has attained a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Science degree from Purdue University and Indiana University respectively. He has been superintendent of Fairmount Schools for 24 years.

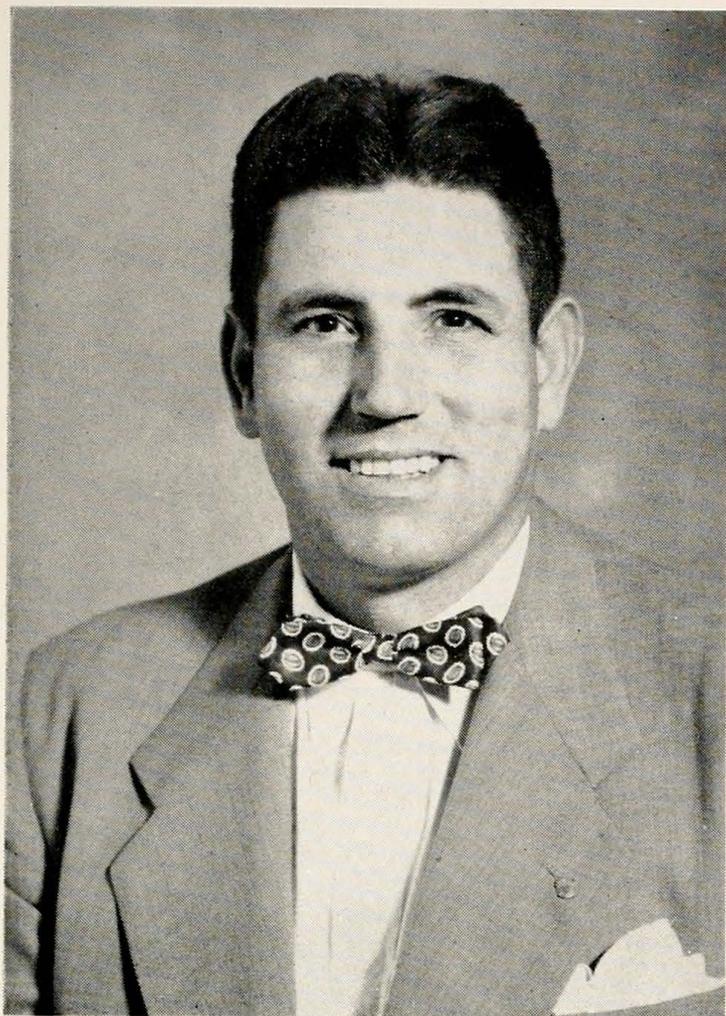

Fairmount

Joe W. Payne

Charles Nicholson

Fairmount's schools have been able to maintain a standard of excellence partly because there have always been men of high caliber willing to serve on the school board. Charles Nicholson, township trustee, is president of the joint

Roland L. DuBois

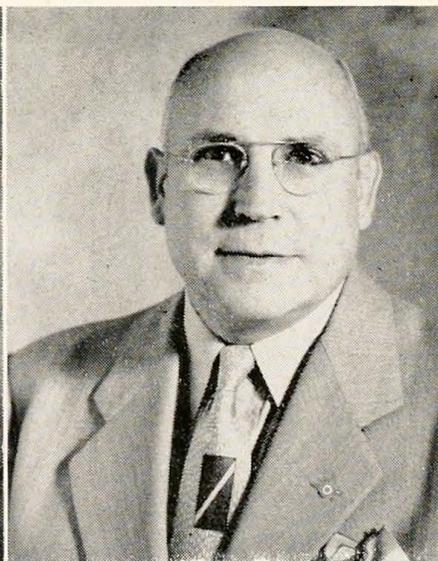

Roland L. DuBois is completing his fifth year as principal of Fairmount High School. Mr. DuBois teaches the senior government classes in addition to his administrative duties. Uncompromising in matters of discipline, his sincere regard for every individual has established absolute confidence and respect among the student body. Mr. DuBois graduated from Manchester College in 1934. He received his Master of Arts degree from Indiana University in 1940.

Senior Class History

In September, 1949 our Freshman year, the class enrollment swelled to 72 with additions from the country schools. Officers elected at the first meeting on September 9, 1949, were Paul Thurston, president; Tom Pulley, vice-president; Bob Cline, secretary; Jim Ellingwood, treasurer; Fred Parrill, historian; Louise Bruner and Dewayne Payne, social chairmen. After being initiated by the seniors, we felt that we finally belonged to F. H. S., though I must say being initiated is the hard way to get to belong. Later in the fall we chose Lora Nell Smith as our Carnival Queen candidate. The class held two skating parties, which provided fun for all and profit for us. A chile supper held in January started off our second semester as high school students on the right foot.

After a summer spent in varied pastimes the class of '53 returned as sophomores. The first business of the year was the election of officers, who were Jim Ellingwood, president; Tom Pulley, vice-president; Lola Small, treasurer; Louise Bruner, secretary; Jill Corn and Dick Grindle, social chairmen; Fred Parrill, historian. The first activity of the year was the Fall Festival. The class elected Jim Ellingwood and Wanda Carr as its candidates for king and queen honors. When the student council was reactivated we chose as our representatives Phyllis Shaver and Bill Payne. The high-light of the year was the arrival of our beautiful maroon and white sweaters in November. During the next few months the class held one regular party and two skating parties. To close our sophomore year we held an autograph dance in conjunction with the distribution of the Black and Golds. This dance became an annual affair which has always met with success.

September 1951 saw us as juniors; boy did we feel proud. But we never had a chance to get conciated. The seniors were always around to put us in our places. The officers for our next-to-the last year in F.H.S. were Bill Payne, president; Paul Thurston, vice-president; Louise Bruner, secretary; Jim Ellingwood, treasurer; Lola Small and Dick Grindle, social chairmen; Fred Parrill historian. Kay Ann Smith and Bernie Joe Lehman were our representatives on the Student Council. At a special meeting shortly after school started, we transacted the annual junior business. We ordered our class rings. They arrived in plenty of time for Christmas and were really beautiful. We held two skating parties, which were very successful both from the entertainment standpoint and the financial standpoint. We chose as our junior play "Men Are Like Streetcars." It was a comedy which everyone enjoyed presenting. Our Candidates at the Fall Festival were Louise Wright and Vernon Harrell. In the spring we gave the seniors their annual prom in the gymnasium. The theme was "It happens Every Spring" and everyone present enjoyed himself greatly. Dancing was to the music of Emil Moss and his orchestra and refreshments were served by girls from the class. Again, as last year, our final activity was the Autograph Dance, which was attended by a good crowd.

When we finally made it, most of us didn't quite know how to act. Seniors at last. It took a little getting used to, but we made it in fine shape. It seemed funny for awhile, not having any older kids than us in school, but it was really a good feeling. Officers elected at our first meeting after the summer vacation were Fred Parrill, president; Bill Payne, vice-president; Louise Bruner, secretary; Lola Small, treasurer; Judy Kesler and Dick Grindle, social chairmen. The student council representatives this year were Kay Ann Smith, Bernie Joe Lehman, and Phil Compton. Bernie was chosen by the council as its president. The class nominated Louise Bruner as its Fall Festival candidate. Our first real business of the year was initiating the freshmen, which we did with gusto. The event took place in the gym, because the auditorium was closed for repairs. A bake sale and a New Year's Eve dance were first semester projects, which occupied some of our time. Selling magazines netted the class treasury some much-needed money and provided a free turkey supper for all. Lola Smith was chosen to represent Fairmount in the county D.A.R. Good Citizen contest. We chose navy blue gowns and white tassles for our graduation garb. Our senior play was "Seventeenth Summer," a production which we all enjoyed greatly.

Climaxing our high school careers were the Baccalaureate Services and Commencement rites. These occurred on Sunday, May 17, and Monday, May 18, respectively. Somewhat dejected by such an exciting and abrupt end to our high school days we were, nevertheless, eager for the next three days to pass so that we could begin our long anticipated Eastern trip to Washington, D. C., and New York City. Starting on May 21 and returning May 26, we experienced five of the most glorious days of our lives. And so, the class of 1953 returned to their homes exhausted in mind and body, with all bonds with Fairmount High School severed except the bonds of friendship and happy memories.

Class Wills

I, Bobbie Boze, of a frequently sound mind, do hereby declare and will Mr. DuBois the pleasure and privilege of staying home on all school days.

I, Louise Bruner, will my place as secretary of the class for two years to anyone who thinks he can take it for that long.

I, Don Cromer, will to Rock Blair and Don Garner my place on the baseball team and hope they do a good job.

I, Jim Ellingwood, will my position as "end" on the football team to Joe Blake and I hope he hits them harder than I did.

I, Maxine Floyd, will my long ride on the bus to anyone who thinks he can stand it.

I, Richard Gosnell, will my seat in government to any poor sucker who likes government.

I, Dick Grindle, will my ability to have one wreck every four months, three times in one year to anyone who can afford it! I can't.

I, Janet Hollenbeck, will nothing but leave in search of a young handsome bachelor with a nice convertible.

I, Marilyn Harvey, will my ability to change schools to anyone who thinks he wants to.

I, Esther Holloway, will my ability to get out of school after four years to Donna Kind, who hasn't been able to succeed.

I, Judy Kesler, do hereby will my nickname "Hippie" to D.D. and Luigie, and I'm glad to get rid of it.

I, Shirley Kesler, leave no will but plan to marry Vernon after three years of waiting.

I, Bernie Lehman, will my senior cords to Jim Draper, but not my ability to "flub up" on the basketball court.

I, Sarah Powell, will the nickname "Red" to someone that really qualifies for it.

I, Henry Prine, will my ability to do better in track than I have done in the last four years to Jerry Blake.

I, Lee Persinger, will my seat in advanced algebra to anyone crazy enough to want it.

I, Valarie Pace, will my ability to be foot loose and fancy free of the boys to all boy-crazy girls.

I, Wink Payne, will my ability to stay in at night and my good grades in math to Buss Williams.

I, Bob Rogers, will my government book to Larry Behr, who, I hope, can learn more out of it than I did.

I, Jim Reynolds, will my ability to be a big league pitcher to Jim Mitchener.

I, Lois Smith, will to Mr. Monahan the right to throw any student out of bookkeeping that has make up work to do.

I, Phillip Sheets, leave the good times I have had at Fairmount High School to my brothers Bob and Jim.

I, Lloyd Shinholt, will my car keys and insurance to Mary Agnes Partridge.

I, Richard Stinger, will my ability to keep out of trouble to Harold Hearn.

I, Uva Hollenbeck, will my Typing 2 class to Loretta Price and hope she doesn't waste as much paper as I did.

I, Charles Peach, being a democrat will Eisenhower my ability to be president of the dance club.

I, Annette Davidson, will my ability to laugh anytime to anyone who is a sourpuss.

I, James Wallace, being of sound body, will my ability to stay out of trouble to my brothers, Lewis and Charles.

I, Jerry Lewis, do hereby will my ability to keep out of trouble to Junior Dunham.

I, Janet Blair, will my position as President of Booster Club to Linda Roth. Good luck Linda, you'll need it.

I, Margaret Stewart, with many happy memories of my years in dear old F.H.S. will my 12 years of perfect attendance record to Bob Hayes.

I, Paul Thurston, will my ability to have a good car while in school to Audry Wright.

I, Florence VanOsdol will my height to Jayne Ann Elliott, who can certainly use it.

I, Charles Webb, being of unnatural mind, will my unusual driving ability to Richard Broyles.

I, Louise Wright, will my skating ability to John Miller.

I, Carol Sue Dye, will my luck to always be in charge of the foods committee to anyone who is lucky enough to get the job.

I, Dale Titus, will my ability to work nights and stay awake in government to Buck Behr.

I, Gloria Marlene Earnest, will my ability to play an accordion to my brother, Martin Leon.

I, Janice Stroup, will my will to will to any willing junior.

I, Phyllis Shaver, will my seat in government class (in front of Mr. DuBois' desk) to John Leming.

I, Bill Payne, will my fabulous "crew cut" to Marvin Smalley.

I, Margaret Webster, will my three years of cheerleading to Mary Lynn Beck.

I, Wanda Carr, will my 4th period Typing class to anyone who has better nerves than I do.

I, Kay Ann Smith, will my mid-winter tan to anyone who is lucky enough to get to go to Florida during school.

I, Irvin Polk, will my student manager job to anyone who thinks he would like it as much as I did!

I, Charles Dumpert, with sound mind and soul, hereby will my good time in basketball and football to Jack Dunn.

I, Lola Small, will John Leming the rest of my pink litmus paper for his future chemical exploits.

I, William Spaulding, do hereby will my government text to anyone who thinks he will make straight A's in that class.

I, Paul Tolbert, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Larry Gibson.

I, Dick Jones, will Buss Williams my math book in hopes that it will get him better grades.

I, Jill Corn, will my man-hating attitude to Mary Lynn Beck.

I, Don Spahr, will my long talks with Mr. DuBois to anyone who likes to get out of class as well as I did.

I, Junior Pratt, would like to will some advice to the boys that are planning on buying a car: Don't buy a "36" Plymouth, all you will have is trouble.

I, Phillip Compton, will my nickname "Fender Bender" to John Leming.

I, Fred Parrill, being of a questionable state of mind after a year of conducting class meetings, will the senior gavel to next year's senior president.

Masquerade Ball

A new event took place at Fairmount High School this year. A Masquerade Ball was substituted for our Fall Festival. The coronation of the queen was the main event of the evening. Marlene Smalley was crowned Queen by Mr. DuBois. Phil Burton was chosen as her escort. In selecting a queen each class voted for a girl to represent their group. Nominations cost twenty-five cents, and votes could be cast by anyone for one cent. The winner was announced at 9:00 P.M. the night of the Masquerade Ball. Everyone came dressed in clever costumes. Prizes were given to the best-dressed, ugliest, and prettiest. Balloons with numbers on them came floating from the ceiling. The numbers were for dancing partners. A prize was given to the best dancing couple.

On February 11, the F.H.A. girls staged their annual Soc-Hop. This year the choosing of a Valentine Queen was the most important phase of the Hop. Janice Wimmer received the most votes. Her escort was Jim Ellingwood. Lola Small, as M. C., was in charge of the coronation ceremony.

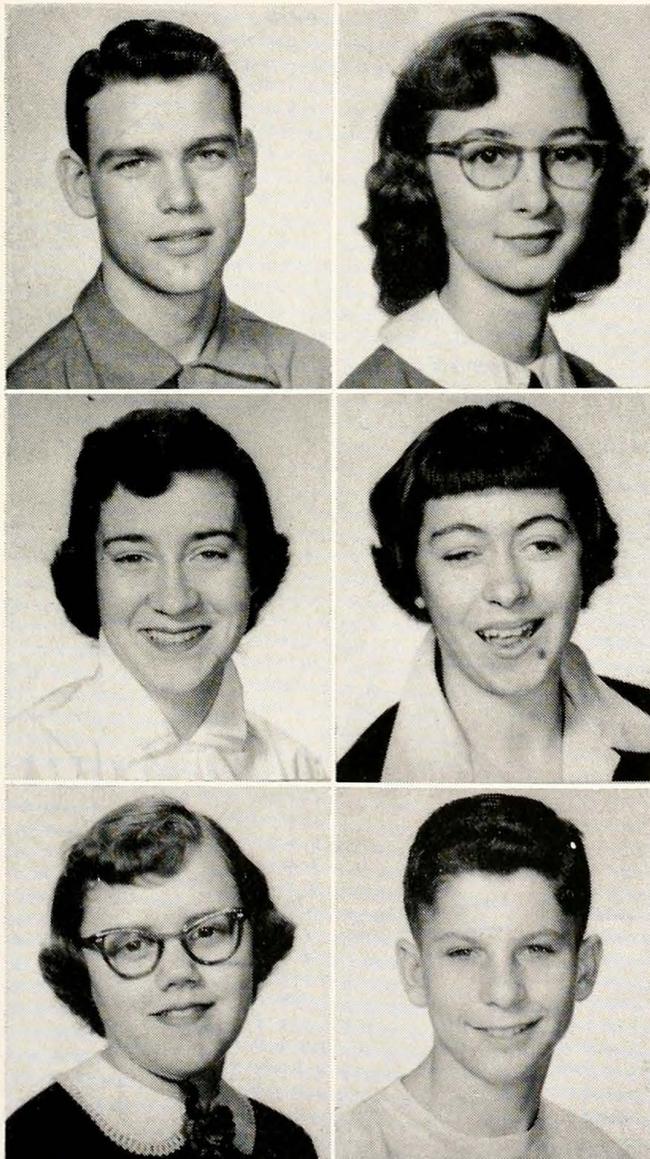

STUDENT COUNCIL

Fairmount's Student Council was headed by Bernie Lehman, president; vice-president, Kay Ann Smith; Phil Compton, secretary-treasurer; and Roland DuBois, faculty adviser.

Standing: Bernie Lehman, Kay Ann Smith, Phil Compton, Dwight Crouch, Connie Maple, Martin Lee Davis, David Dumpert, Eddine Lawson, Roger Pulley, Rex Buller, Marilyn Small, Bob Sheets.

SIX HONORED STUDENTS

This year the Don Rhoads Trophy was presented to James Ellingwood for his performance on the floor, consistent sportsmanship, and fine character. Kenneth Martin made the award.

Lola Small was selected from three girls chosen from the senior class by the faculty to represent F.H.S. in the D.A.R. county contest. She ranked third in county competition.

Linda Roth, Judy Sicks, and Eddine Lawson were chosen this year to attend Hoosier Girls State. The session will be held at Indiana University during the last week in June. The girls are sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, the Bonnet Club, and the Phi Beta Psi Sorority.

Fairmount's American Legion will send Dwight Crouch to Boys State at Indianapolis from June 11 to 13. Similar to Girls State, the boys will meet on the campus of the Indiana School for the Deaf.

F.F.A.

Under Mr. Caughell's direction and with two sets of officers the F.F.A. made a great contribution to the community by providing a map of the township for the new fire truck, which is pictured above with the driver, Paul Horine.

Officers were: president, Phil Compton; vice-president, Jim Reynolds; secretary, Phillip Sheets; treasurer, Charles Dumpert; reporter, Phil Smith; sentinel Bill Gaddis; and assistants respectively: Rex Buller, Harlan Haisley, Joe Comer, Junior Dunham, Richard Stinger, Jerry Lewis

Compliments of Russell's Deer Creek Dairy. P. L. Eastes, Salesman.

CONCERT BAND

Membership in the Concert Band was approximately double the number enrolled last year with a large percentage of eighth graders. A Band Boosters Club was organized early last fall with Roy John as President. An excellent concert was presented in February. Officers this year were Irvin Polk, president; John Leming, vice-president; Eddine Lawson, secretary; Diana Dale, social chairman; Tom Wood, Librarian; Paull McCoy, director.

BEGINNING BAND

The aspiring and ambitious members of the beginning band pictured above will be rewarded next fall by becoming regular members of the concert band. Left to right they are: Sally Ivans; Eilene Ailes; Wendell Hollenbeck; Carmen Dauenhauer; Carolyn Butcher; Loretta Peach; Steve McDaniel; Sandra Nottingham; Paull McCoy, director; James Pace; Jayne Kirkpatrick; Roland Abraham; Carolyn Gross; Buddy Stitt and J. C. Kirk.

JUNIOR DANCE CLUB

The Junior Dance Club was organized this year because there were too many students interested in this activity for one Dance Club. The officers for the first year were: president, Jane Crist; vice-president, Shirley Thompson; secretary-treasurer, Connie Maple. The faculty sponsors for this group were Mrs. Cloud and Mrs. Kessler.

SENIOR DANCE CLUB

Senior Dance Club met the first of the year and chose these officers: president, Charles Peach; vice-president, Orval Meyers; and secretary-treasurer, Linda Roth. The Dance Club has learned several new dance steps this year. The music was furnished by the juke box which was purchased last year. Mrs. Cloud was the faculty sponsor, assisted by Mr. McAnally.

BOOSTER CLUB

Officers for Booster Club for the year of 1952-53 were as follows: Janet Blair, president; Lola Small, vice-president; Marlene Earnest, secretary; Judy Sicks, treasurer; Mrs. Annae Cloud, sponsor. The club was at its largest this year with 85 members as pictured above.

HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

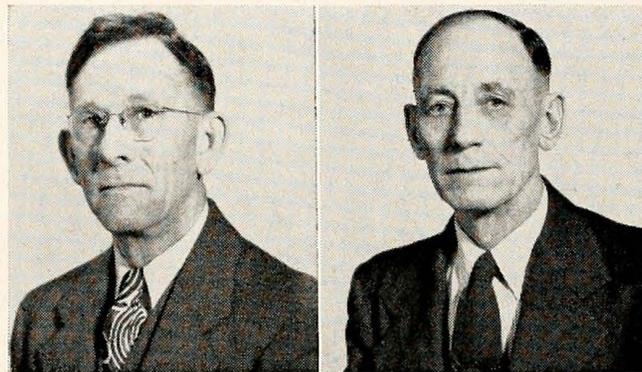

The 1952-53 edition of the school choir was nearly three times as large as last year's. Meeting during the last twenty minutes of the first period and the first twenty of the second, all singing students had an opportunity to participate. Officers were: Lola Small, president; Irvin Polk, secretary-treasurer; Eddine Lawson, librarian; Don Cromer and Bobbie Boze, recreation chairmen; and Paul McCoy, director.

Sponsored By R. M. Hall, Men's and Women's Wear, Shoes.

BUS DRIVERS

Schools like F.H.S. are necessarily dependent upon bus drivers for the transportation of students to and from school. The men who are entrusted with this important responsibility must be physically fit, pass a stiff driving test, and be prompt in all kinds of weather. The school is grateful for their many services, careful driving, and record free of accidents. In the picture above they are left to right: Paul Horine, Bernard Latchaw, Will Hoppes, Lora Hayden, Ernest Harvey, and Lawrence Peterson. Jefferson Titus, who drives in Liberty Township, is not shown.

SCHOOL CUSTODIANS

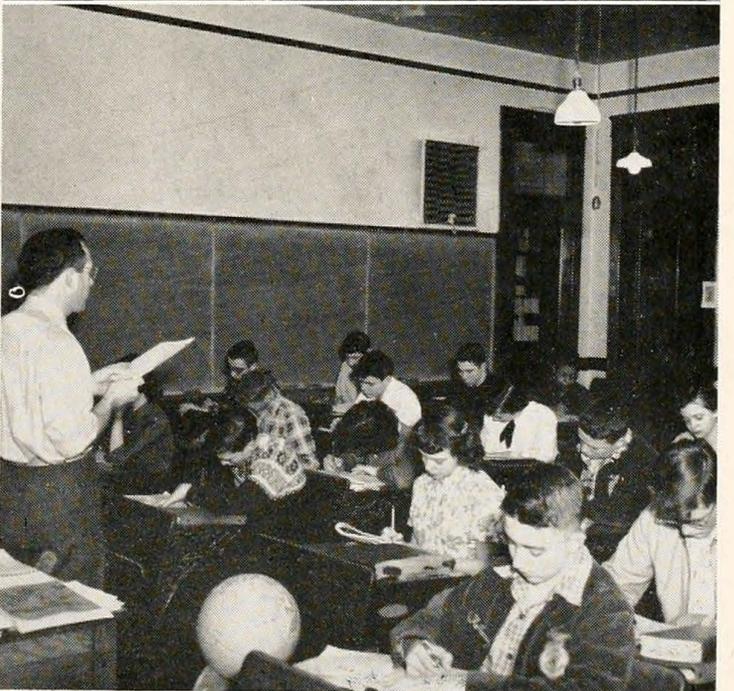

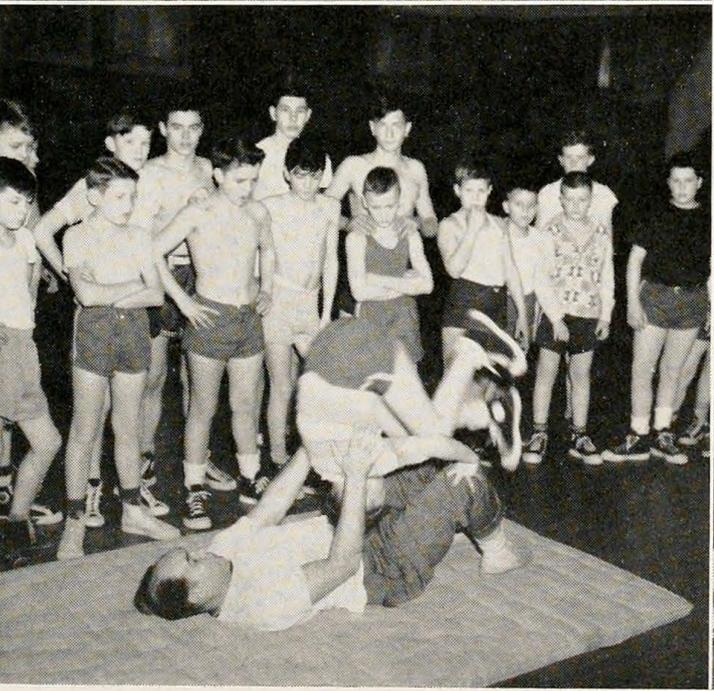

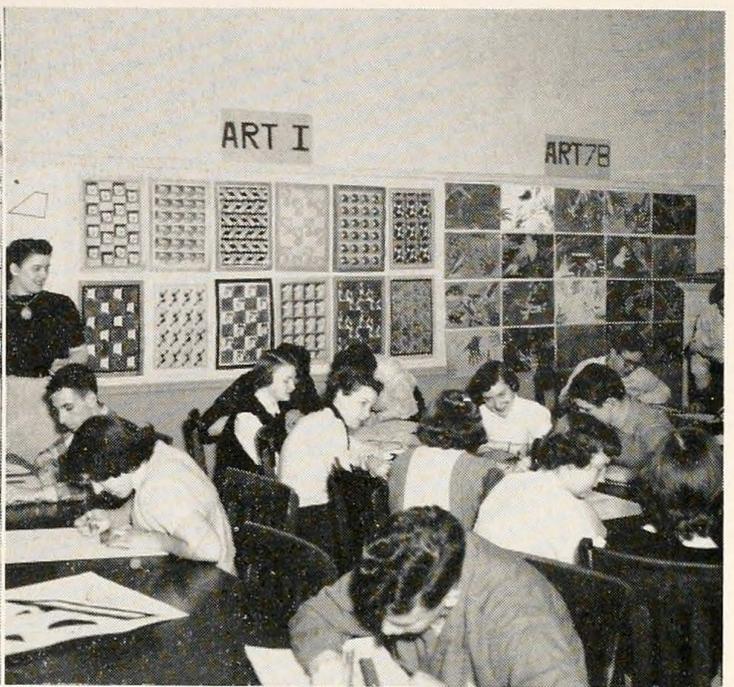

Clarence Clifford and Ace Sellers have been caring for our school buildings for a good many years. Mr. Clifford is completing 23 years of service and Mr. Sellers, 11. Although it is easy for students and teachers to overlook the many services these two men do for them, their work is greatly appreciated. It is no easy job to satisfy over 400 people daily. What's more, Ace and Cliff are just good fellows to have around.

SENIOR PLAY

"Seventeenth Summer," the senior class play, was the high light of this year's theatrical work. It was under the direction of Mrs. Adline Mart Nall and Janet Blair, student director.

The cast was made up of the following seniors: Angie, Jill Corn; Jack, Jim Ellingwood; Kitty, Lola Small; Margaret, Margaret Webster; Lorraine, Janet Hollenbeck; Mrs. Morrow, Wanda Carr; Mr. Morrow, Fred Parrill; Art, Bernie Lehman, Martin, Bill Payne, Margie, Annette Davidson; Jane, Kay Ann Smith; Fitz, Irvin Polk; and Tony, Dick Grindle.

Carol Sue Dye and Marlene Earnest were prompters. Phil Compton was the stage manager and the designer was Don Spahr. Bill Payne acted as business manager and was assisted by Janice Stroup, Uva Hollenbeck, and Marlene Earnest. Maxine Floyd was call girl; Valarie Pace had charge of props; and Margaret Ann Stewart looked after costumes.

The play was a light, refreshing comedy of adolescence, cleverly staged and artistically produced. It will be remembered as one of the outstanding comedies ever to be produced at Fairmount High School.

JUNIOR PLAY

As the auditorium was closed for repairs from the time school started until December, fall programs took place in the gym. This situation created an excellent opportunity to experiment with some "theatre in the round." Accordingly under Mrs. Nall's direction the junior class produced "Meet Corliss Archer" in the center of the gym floor with the spectators sitting intimately on all four sides of the acting area. Although most of the spectators would prefer the conventional stage arrangement, the production was acclaimed universally as a successful and delightful experiment. Phil Compton deserved a lot of credit for lighting effects.

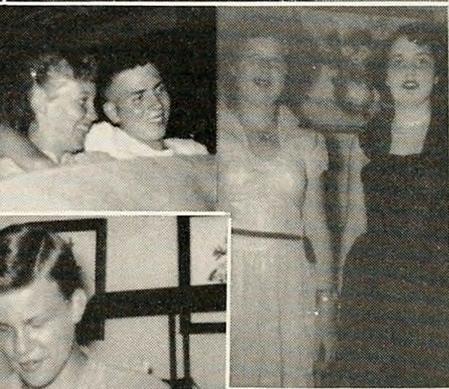

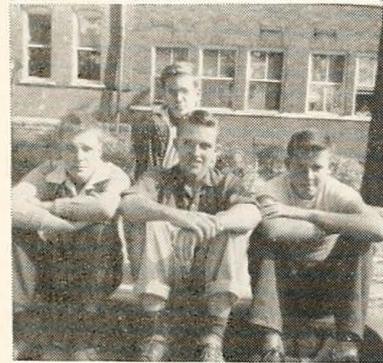

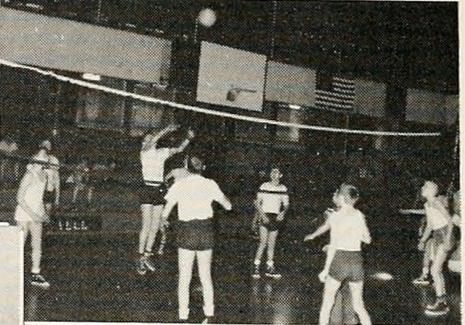

The play, which revolved around Corliss' endless troubles and ridiculous predicaments, held audience attention from beginning to end. Corliss's diary, Cousin Agnes, and Dexter's concern during Corliss's appendicitis will long be remembered.

The cast for the play was as follows: Corliss, Linda Roth and Mary Lynn Beck; Mr. Archer, Marvin Small; Mrs. Archer, Shirley Bright; Louise, Phyllis Scott; Mildred, Judy Sicks; Dexter, Dwight Crouch; Mr. Franklin, Rex Buller; Mrs. Franklin, Diana Dale; Cousin Agnes, Eddine Lawson; Doctor, John Leming; Betty, Alice Keller; Nurse, Dale Richards and Loretta Price.

CHRISTMAS PLAYS

The seventh graders put on a Christmas Play, December 24, in the high school auditorium. It was entitled "Softy the Snowman." Mrs. Nall was the director, aided by Ronnie Wood the student director. The cast consisted of: Softy, Timmy Smith; Santa Claus, Benny Payne; Mrs. Santa Claus, Sandy Skinner; punky, Jim Pace; Six store santas, Stevie McDaniel, David McGlynn, Bobbie Shockney, Dan Garner, John Rogers, and Jerry Turschman; Committee of three girls, Lora Lawson, Judy Thomas, and Darlene Thompson.

Members of the Dramatics Club also staged a Christmas play, "The Case of the Silent Caroler". It was unfortunate that the good acting and the superb plot were marred by inadequate stage equipment. The cast of characters included: Anna, Janet Hollenbeck; Hans, Fred Parrill; Maria, Eddine Lawson; Papa, Phil Compton; Mama, Dorothy Nelson; Celeste, Mary Ellen Baker; Pierre, Don Spahr; Bruce, Dick Grindle; others, Marilyn Small, Carolyn Small, and David Blair.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"It happens every spring" was the theme used to honor the 1952 graduates at the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The elaborate decorations represented a spring garden with all its beautiful flowers beneath the deep blue of a starlit sky and enclosed by an old stone wall. The refreshments were served buffet style, with the juniors acting as hosts and hostesses. The welcome was given by Bill Payne, junior class president, with the senior class president, Larry Hughes responding. Music for dancing was provided by a small out-of-town orchestra.

The picture at the top of the page was taken the following Monday after everyone was rested up. It shows the then juniors or the now seniors with their class sponsors, Mrs. Gilbreath and Mr. Sullivan.

The prom of 1953 was held at the Marion Spencer Hotel ballroom on Saturday, April 18. The juniors created an unusual atmosphere with novel and entirely different decorations. Loretta Price was chairman of the decorating committee. Invitations to the affair were selected and prepared under the supervision of Judith Sicks.

Dancing was from nine until twelve. Music was furnished by Tommy Phillips and his six-piece orchestra. For refreshments punch and cookies were served by members of the sophomore class.

The prom was a semi-formal party with a small planned program. John Leming had charge of this part of the evening's entertainment. The junior class president, Marvin Smalley, gave the welcome with Fred Parrill, senior president, responding. These talks were followed by a short talent program given by members of the two classes. Junior prom chairmen were Lynn Beck and Dwight Crouch.

FAIRMOUNT'S 1952-53

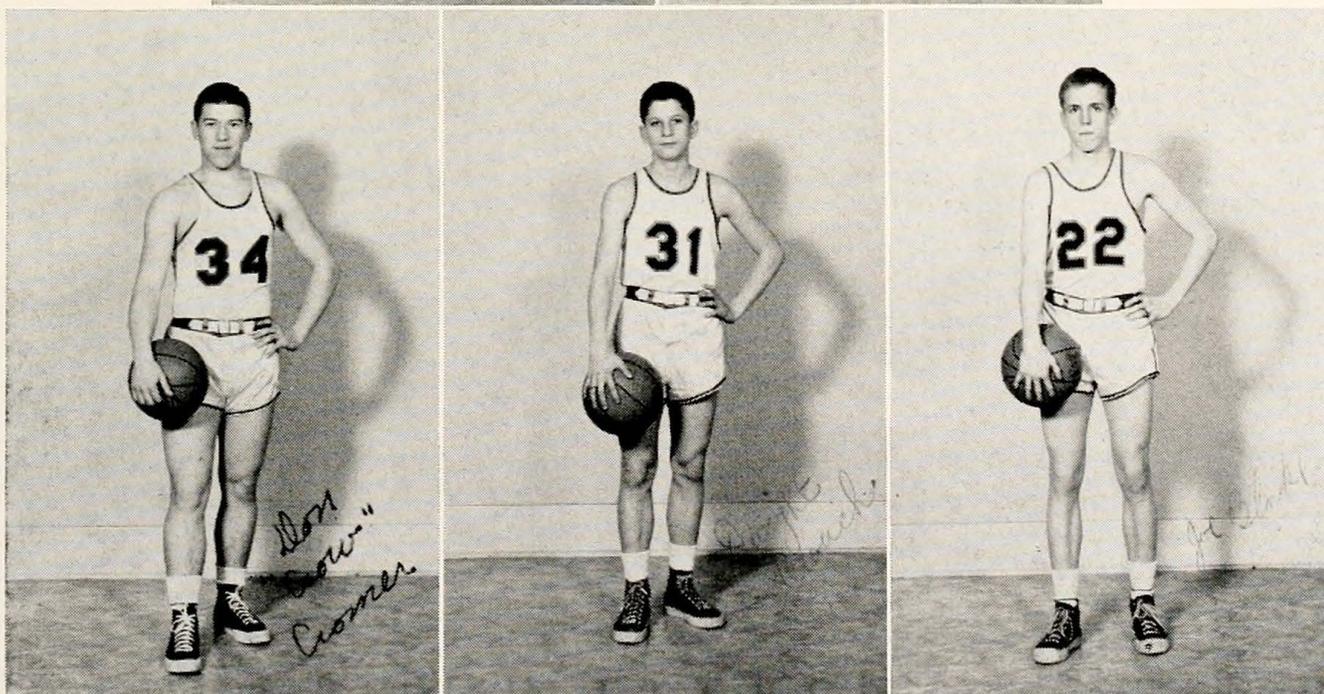

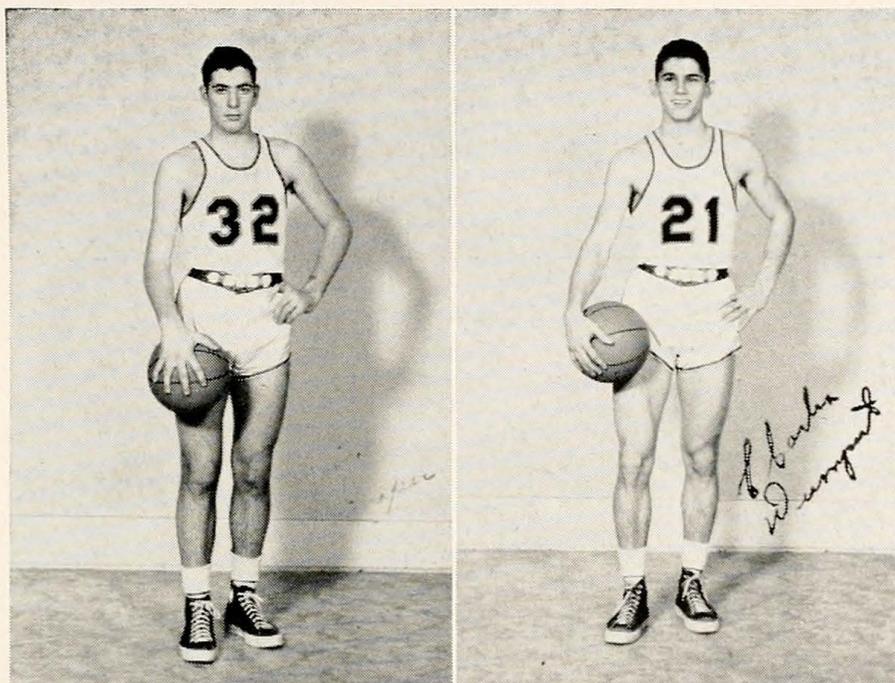

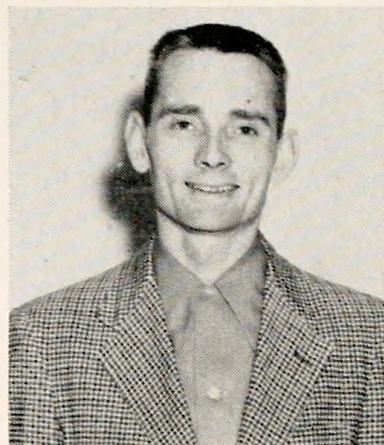

James Roth was named head basketball coach at F.H.S. last September. Following Paul Weaver, he thereby became the second former Quaker athlete of distinction to supervise local basketball activities. Besides being the runner-up in the sectional tourney, his team won 13 of their 18 scheduled games.

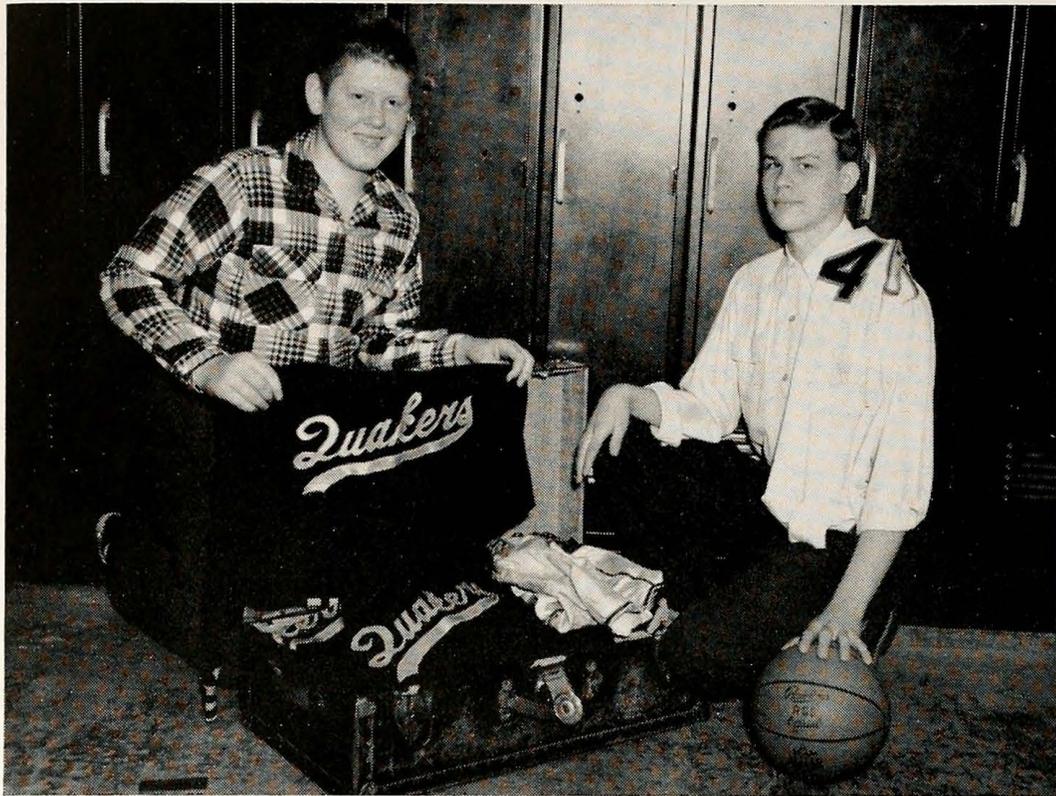

Compliments of Ralph Riley, Your Standard Oil Agent

BASKETBALL TEAM

Earl McNally aided Mr. Roth as assistant basketball coach. Mr. McNally also had the full responsibility of the aspiring freshmen heroes of the hardwood. An ardent Quaker fan. Mr. McNally is a real sport enthusiast, with track and cross-country as his main interests.

STUDENT MANAGERS

Pictured above are the two student managers. Irvin Polk and Bob Moore getting the boys' suits ready for a ball game. Irvin was senior manager with Bob acting as first lieutenant. Irvin will graduate this year, but Bob is only an eighth grader with several years left to serve Quaker ball players. Both boys performed their duties well, even though they were both new on the job last fall.

Quaker Sketches

Mitchener: Clearing the boards and leading his team in scoring, "Mitch" proved of great value to his team. This 6 ft. 2 in. junior will return next year.

Payne: "Wink" proved to be capable of playing every position. Standing 5 ft. 11 in., this senior grabbed his share of rebounds, was second in scoring, and was the team's top defensive man.

Ellingwood: 6 ft. 0 in. Jim served two years by helping on the boards and contributing to the scoring columns. His usual positions were at the pivot and forward.

Cromer: Hitting long over-the-head set shots, this 5 ft. 8 in. senior guard helped pull out the opponents' defense so that the big boys could go to work under the nets.

Dumpert: Coming late but playing well. Charley, a hustling senior guard, developed a good set shot. Although only 5 ft. 10 in., he excelled in defensive play.

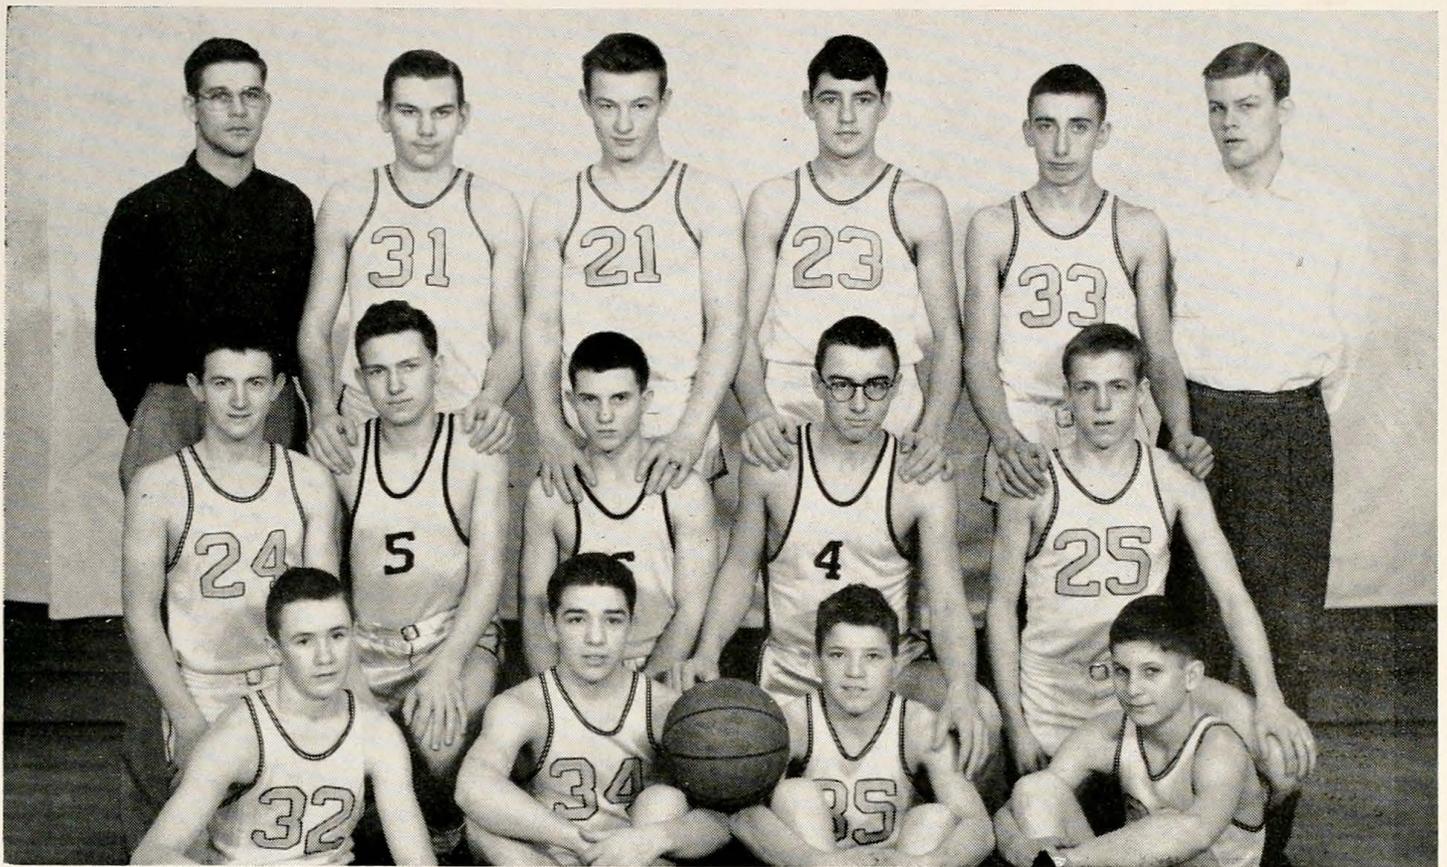

Williams: Contributing offensively and defensively, this 6 ft. 1 in. forward and center got a late start and was hampered by illness. Buss, however, is only a junior with another year to go.

Reynolds: Although lacking experience, Jim played equally well at either forward or guard. A 5 ft. 10 in. senior, he added a lot of hustle to the team.

Draper: Shooting long set shots, instilling much spirit in his teammates, playing at guard, and standing 5 ft. 8 in., Jim should be of great value next year.

Crouch: Moving up to the first team late in the season, Crouchie, a 5ft. 6 in. guard, possessed shooting technique and lots of spirit. He has one more year to play.

Blake: Moving up from the second team in February, Joe, a 5 ft. 10 in. junior, proved capable of first team ball by hitting from the side and driving hard for delayed lay-up shots.

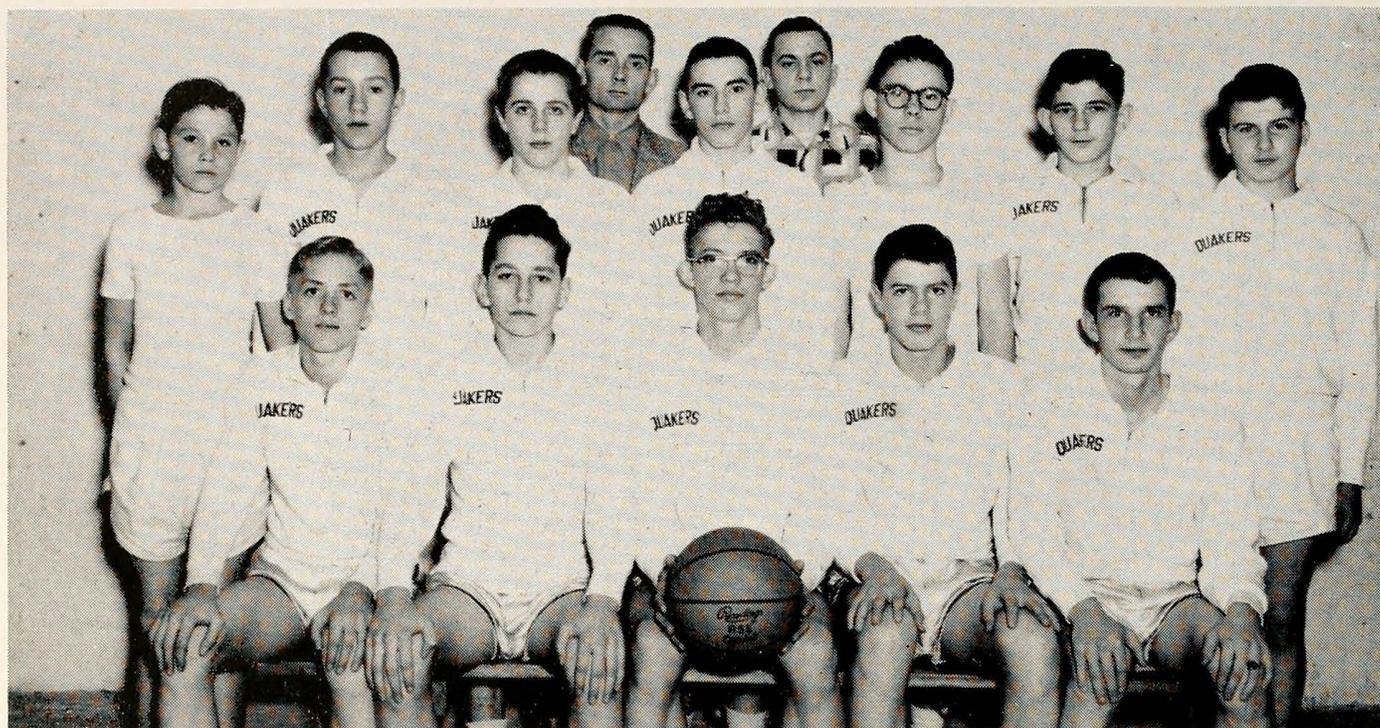

QUAKER SECONDS

If records mean anything, next year's Quakers should win most of their games, for the second string boys managed to win 15 of their 18 games during the regular season. Seated: Jim Dunn, Jim Cromer, George Miller, Dwight Crouch. Second row: Bob Blair, Don Garner, Charles Himelick, Larry Stookey, Joe Blake. Standing Coach Roth, Fred Barnhart, Bill Gaddis, Dick Stroup, Bob Allen, Irvin Polk, student manager.

FRESHMEN AND JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL TEAMS

Seated: Lloyd Howard, Bob Penrod, Phil Mitchener, Larry Wood, Phil Burton.

Standing: Kenneth Eccles, Jack Skinner, Jerry Blake, Coach McNally, Martin Lee Davis; student manager, Bill Clem; Mike Karnes, David Dumpert, John Jones.

The ninth graders had a fairly successful season under Mr. McNally's guidance winning 10 and losing four. The bitterest defeat was at the hands of Swayzee in their county tournament.

Standing: Bert Bush, Jim Smithson, Richard Payne, Larry Engle, Charles Woodruff, Benny Payne, W. J. Burton, Kenneth Hoke.

During the 1953 season the junior high team won seven and lost eight games. Two games were played in the annual junior high tourney played in Van Buren. Mr. Monahan coached the boys but Mr. Roth supervised their games.

1952 TRACK TEAM

First row: Bill Vctor, Orval Meyers, Bob Dockery.

Second row: Bob Allen, Bill Wilson, Henry Prine, Joe Blake, Rex Buller.

The Quaker trackmen wound up the 1952 season with six wins and two losses. They also placed well in three relays, the Marion Relays, Muncie Relays, and Converse Relays. The schedule and points were as follows:

Opponents		Fairmount
Windfall	20½	88½	W
Alexandria	55½	53½	L
Royerton	63	72	W
Van Buren	3½ (Three-way meet)	74⅓	W
Jefferson	29 1/6
Wabash	54	55	W
Mississinewa	49	60	W
Mississinewa	65 (Three-way meet)	55½	L
Montpelier	14½
Sweetser	40 5/6	68 1/6	L

Marion Relays: Four firsts, two seconds, and three thirds.

Muncie Relays: One first, two seconds, and three fourths.

Converse Relays: Three firsts, one second, two thirds, and two fifths.

QUAKER FOOTBALL SQUAD

Football returned to Fairmount High School in the fall of 1952 after an intermission of approximately 40 years. This gridiron sport was taken in stride by the athletes of the school.

Coach James Barrett arrived in August from Alexandria and began the season with a squad of very green boys for this rugged sport. Between 25 and 30 boys turned out for the first practices, and the majority remained on the squad.

For their first year the Quakers won two games and lost three. The schedule and scores were as follows:

Alexandria	13	Fairmount	0
Royerton "B"	0	Fairmount	26
Whites Institute	0	Fairmount	21
Mississinewa	13	Fairmount	7
Royerton "A"	16	Fairmount	0

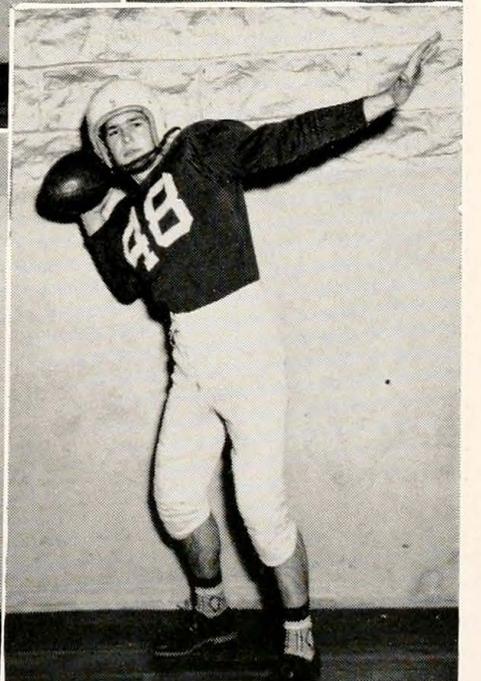

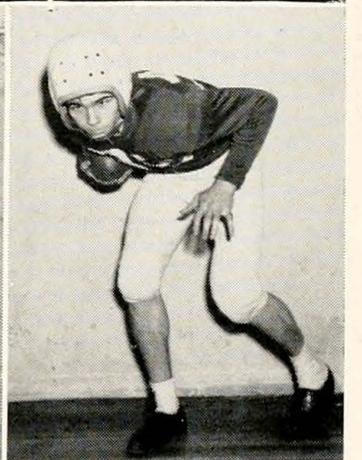

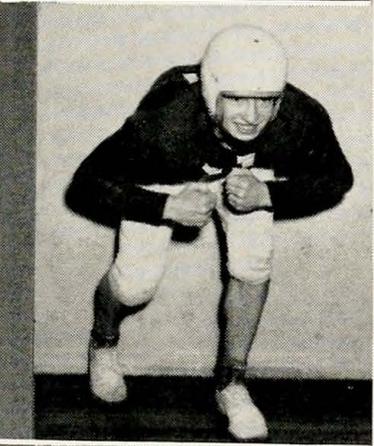

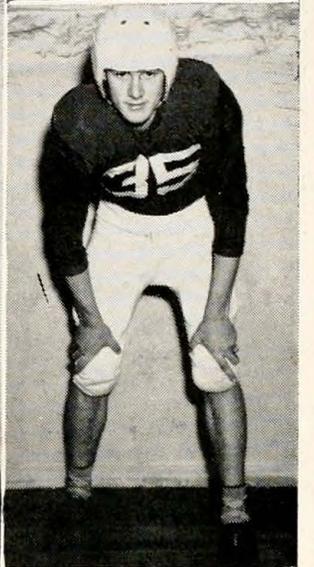

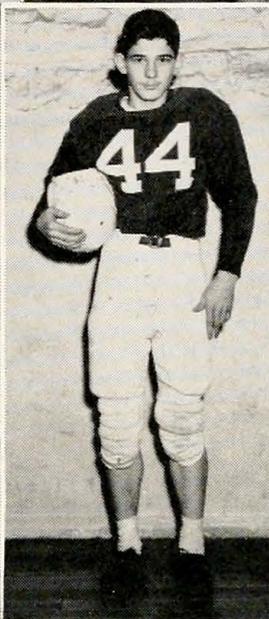

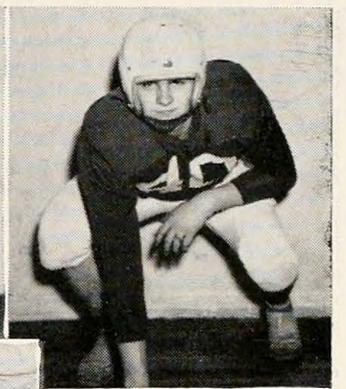

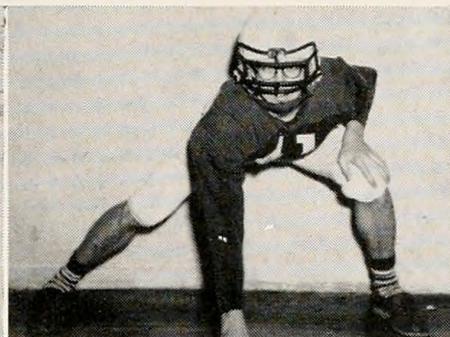

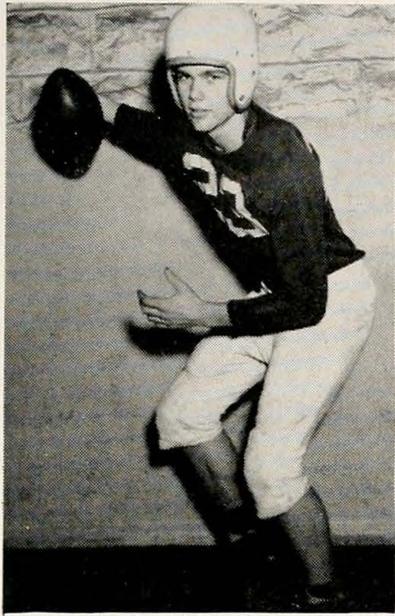

Seated: Jim Pettiford, Martin Lee Davis, Bert Bush, Milo Brown, Lloyd Howard, Ronald Kierstead, Jim Smithson, John Jones, David Dumpert.

Second row: Dwight Crouch, Jim Dunn, Earl Cruca, Orval Meyers, Jim Wallace, Joe Blake, David Moore, Joe Cromer, Charles Dumpert, Frank Jarvis, Robert Moore, David Blair

BASEBALL CHAMPS

This is a picture of the Chronicle Tribune Traveling Trophy that the Quaker Baseball team won this year. To win this trophy a team had to be county champs for three straight years. In 1950 the Quaker's record was 13 wins and 0 defeats. Also in 1951 they had a perfect record. In 1952 the team was defeated by Sweetser, but the Quakers avenged themselves in the play-off game, becoming the county champs for the third consecutive year and permanent possessor of the Chronicle Tribune Trophy.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach McAnally's Cross Country team had a successful season during the fall of 1952, winning six dual meets out of 11, placing third in a three-way meet, fifth in the Marion invitational, and eighth in the sectional at Anderson.

Bob Allen was one of the better runners for the Quakers, taking several firsts. Henry Prine was next in line for honors; other lettermen were Larry Stockey, Lowell Kierstead, Jerry Blake, Phil Mitchener, and Jack Skinner. All these runners will return next fall except Prine, who will graduate.
