Days at Frankton High School are ones we'll always remember in some way or another.

The year started out like most other school years. In August, there was confusion among 650 students as they prepared for classes.

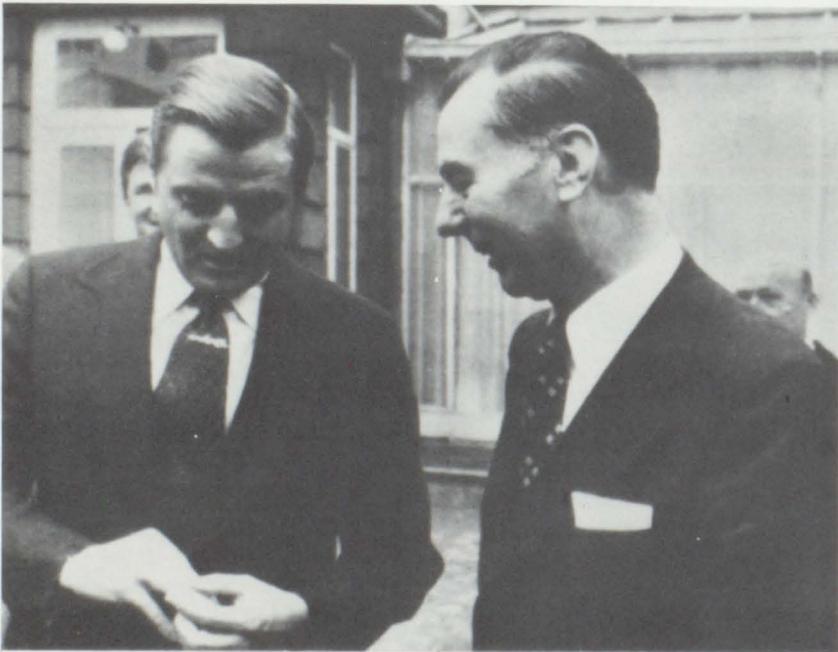

Students were found roaming the halls, trying to find "hidden" classrooms—the shop area, cafeteria, football shed, locker rooms, the portable, and the Ag room. Finding lockers, meeting teachers and friends, adjusting to new schedules and homework after a long summer break, will always be remembered.

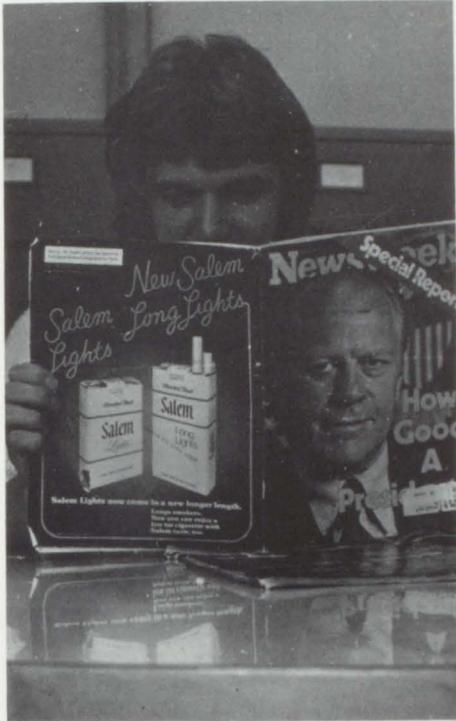

The past year was incredible! It was a bad time to be a legionnaire . . . especially if you wanted to attend a convention. CB'ers searched for people with their "ears on." We had a white Christmas, and a White New Years, and a white February . . . Store clerks had a hard time finding places for $2 bills, while consumers had a hard time believing the prices they paid. Severe weather convinced many to store up on groceries before they were stranded again. Another type of flu popped up. A vaccine was discovered for it, but unfortunately something was also discovered about the vaccine. It was linked to a form of temporary paralysis, but the ban on the vaccine was later dropped.

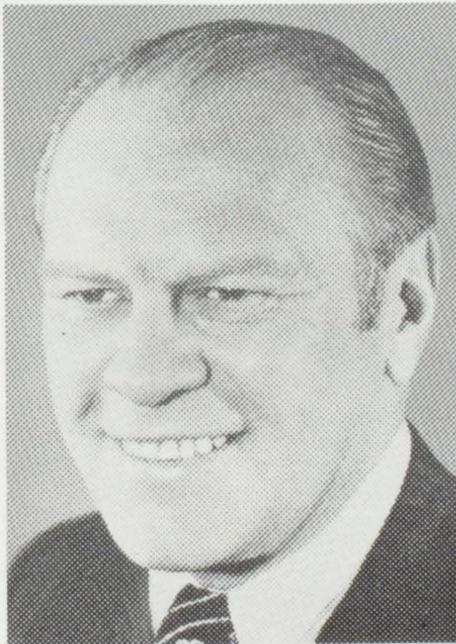

Entertainment as usual, played a vital part in the year—from continuing bicentennial celebrations, to newly popular sports, such as racquetball, to ever popular television and movies, such as "Network", starring Peter Finch. There were bad points, too, in the deaths of old and new favorites, such as Freddie Prinze of "Chico and the Man."

School activities and problems were important to students, but not just on the local level. Many seniors voted this year for the first time. Some students say that it was not a big thrill, but some felt like they got their "two cents" worth by helping to choose what President would be serving the next four years.

Even though the majority of the students backed Ford at the polls, Jimmy Carter and his newly appointed staff won big. And so on inaugural day, January 20, 1977 President Carter and Vice-President Walter Mondale officially took office.

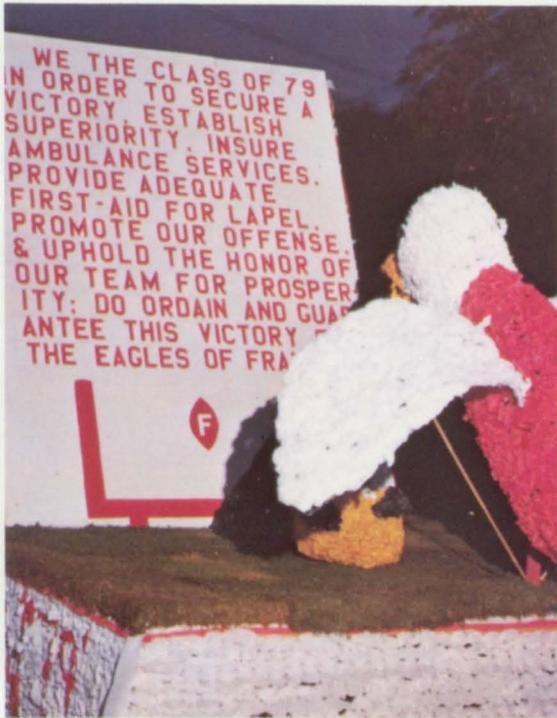

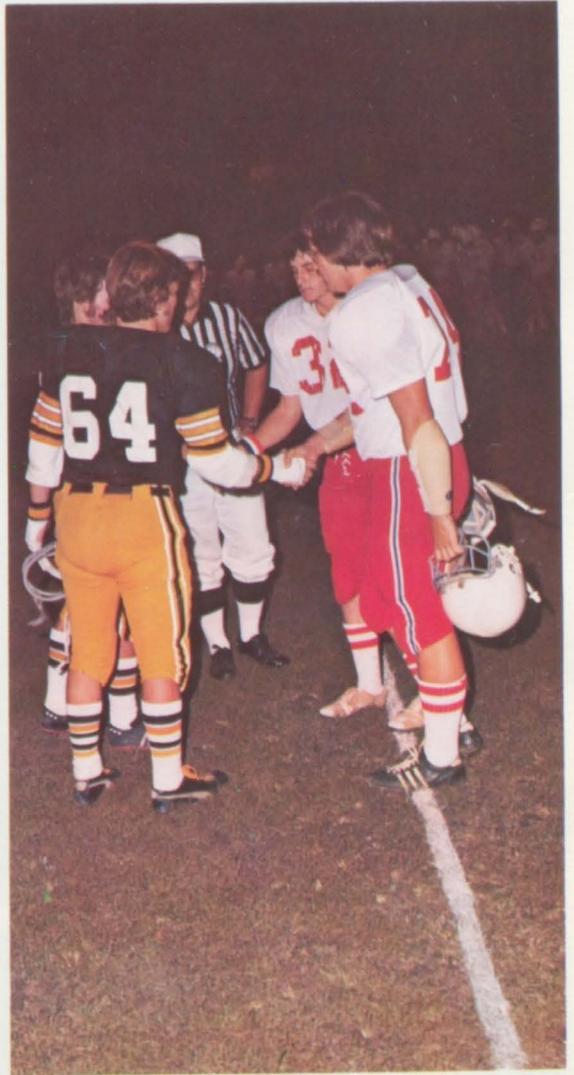

At three o'clock another school day has gone by. Some stay after for athletic practices, special club meetings, rehearsals, cheer-leading or yearbook. This year two special people who had long been associated with Frankton High School and its activities retired from the faculty—Mr. Sterret Nash and Mrs. Francis Sigler. No matter who you are, you will always look back on the Days Gone By.

FHA Completes Active Year

FHA got underway this year with a new sponsor, Mrs. Nancy Johnson. The girls' money making projects for the year included selling stationery and sponsoring a disco dance, "The Funky Feelin'." A field trip took them to Riley Children's Hospital in Indianapolis. At Christmas time, FHA members once again went caroling at Community Hospital and Turtle Creek and Americana nursing homes. Officers were: Lori Strangeway, pres.; Jennifer Brasher, vice-pres.; Gloria Johnson, secretary; and Lisa Kelly, treasurer.

Future Farmers Attend Indy Tractor Pull

Early in the year, FFA attended a soil judging contest and a poultry contest. In October, FFA and FHA had a 'bowling and billiards' night out. Members attended a tractor pull in Indianapolis in February. The annual candy sale was a money making project. Officers were: Myron Wittkamper, pres.; Jeff Horn, vice-pres.; Scott Heaton, secretary; Angel Blaylock, treasurer; Carol Hendricks, reporter; and Steve Marsh, sentinel.

Drama Club Produces Fall & Spring Shows

The two-year old Drama Club had quite a few activities this year. Money was raised by holding a car wash in the school parking lot in the fall and sponsoring a hot dog stand at half of the home basketball games. In the fall, a three-act play, "The Mouse That Roared," was performed and in the spring another threeact play, "The Stuckpot," was presented. The club planned a trip to King's Island as the final activity for the school year. Mike Crowder took over the president's duties, and Judi Hosier acted as secretary. Sponsor Mrs. Carol Galbraith lost at least 10 members to graduation.

Council Expands Activities

Officers for 1976-77 were Mike Sheward (pres.), Lana Canfield (v.-pres.), and Betsy Brown (sec.-treas.). Along with Mike, Jana Sheward, Robyn Truex, and Theresa Weaver attended the state Student Council convention at Delta High School. They brought back many new ideas for money-making projects and raising school spirit.

They also helped to sponsor many activities, including the Homecoming parade and dance, school convocations, and "Parent's Day" at which 27% of the parents attended classes for their children.

The Elwood Elks sponsored "Teenagers of the Month," which the student council helped select, among those named were Mickey Dawson, Theresa Weaver, Bruce Hughes, Robyn Truex, Betsy Brown, Mike Sheward, Jay Claybaugh, and Lana Canfield.

New Honor Society Replaces NHS

An exclusive National Honor Society saw its last year at FHS. Led by pres. Lisa Wittkamper and sec.-treas. Gail Brown, these seniors were chosen for their scholastic achievement, leadership, character, and service. A new organization, simply called 'Honor Society', will automatically include the top 10% of the junior and senior classes.

NHS members hosted the induction ceremony for the new Honor Society members on March 6. Mr. Nash spoke at the meeting and introduced next year's sponsor, Mr. Ivan Lamaster.

Eagles Claim First Homecoming Victory

When the Lapel Bulldogs came to town on Sept. 17, The Frankton Eagles were ready. Although first year coach Bob Scharnowske's team was 1-3 the Eagles dominated the first half and went on to a 30-6 win. The win gave Frankton its first homecoming win ever.

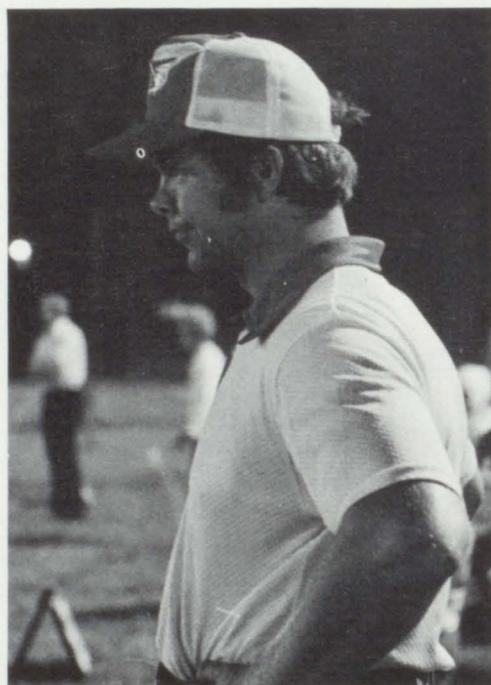

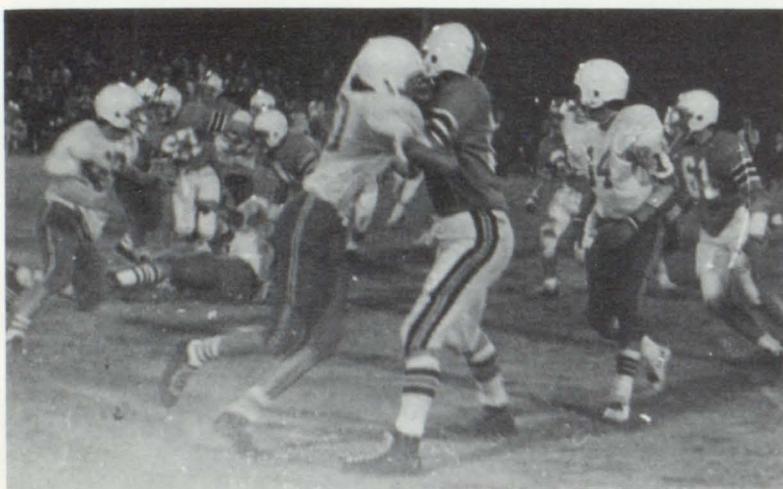

After the homecoming win, bad luck came to town. The Eagles came up on the short end against Highland, Ham. Hts., Wes-Del, and Tri-Central.

First-time opponent Edinburgh came to town. The first half was close, and the Eagles took command in the second half for a 36-22 win. In the Edinburgh game, Steve Fuller rushed for 253 yards to become the first Eagle to rush over a thousand yards.

Cross Country Trudges On

The 1976 edition of the FHS varsity cross country team struggled its way through a mediocre 4-7 season. The team got off to a fast start, winning its first three dual meets. They sandwiched these victories around a third-place finish against Shenandoah, Yorktown, and Mt. Vernon for a 3-2 record. The Eagle harriers won against Alex before hitting a tailspin. They lost to Ham. Hts., dropped a three-way meet to Ham. Hts. and Lapel, then dropped another three-way.

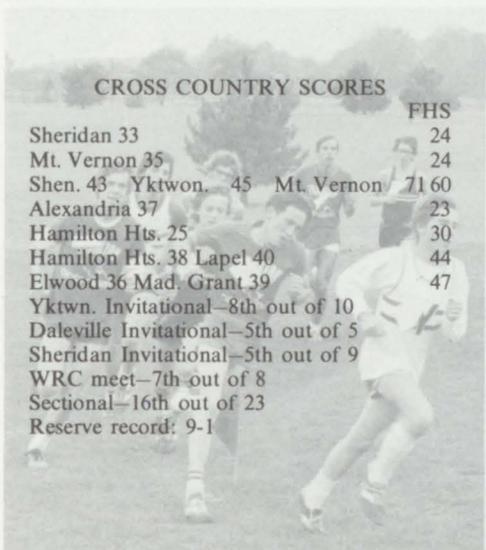

The harriers didn't fare so well in the invitationals. The best they could manage was fifth out of nine at Sheridan. Of the 23 teams in the sectional, the Eagles mustered a 16th place showing.

Kevin Hudson, owner of three class records, was selected 'Most Valuable Runner.' Mike Sheward, owner of the other class record, was elected team captain.

The reserves posted an impressive 9-1 record.

Volleyball "Sets" at 9-7; Reserves 6-8

The varsity volleyball team got off to a fast start this year by beating Hamilton Hts, Elwood, and Noblesville. The Eagles cooled down and won six of their next 13 games to end the season at 9-7.

The Eagles won the first game in the sectional against Lapel, a team who had beaten them, then lost in two games to Highland.

Four girls received WRC recognition. Terrie Couch and Kathy Wade were members of the All-Conference team. Donetta Beaver and Tammy Couch received Honorable Mention.

F-Troop Aides Pep Club

This year the Pep Club and F-Troop added quite a great deal of school spirit even though they were not a large group. F-Troop was a new organization that allowed the FHS boys to show their spirit. Approximately 40 boys and 30 girls made up the two groups. Several schools complimented the groups on their ability to keep cheering even though our team was often far behind.

Another addition this year was the appearance of the Eagle mascot, portrayed by senior Rick Quarles. He helped the cheerleaders with yells and tried to keep the student body enthused.

Pep club was led by Pres. Lana Canfield and V.-Pres. Nancye Marsh, while Mike Sheward and Mickey Dawson were co-leaders of F-Troop.

FCA Sponsors Faculty-Senior B-Ball

The Frankton chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes met twice each month, sponsored by Coach Jim Fletcher and his wife.

In April the Fletchers took ten athletes to the Indiana FCA Weekend Conference at Indiana Central University. These were Bruce Pritchett, Jerry Sheets, Jeff Furnish, Kevin Ault, Rex Van Briggie, Tim Pedro, Dean Riddle, Bill Lennon, and Greg and Jeff Borum. They also sponsored the intra-squad and senior-faculty games.

Eaglite Relives Days Gone By

"Days Gone By" was the theme for the yearbook. Pendleton Heights High School yearbook staff sponsored a meeting and discussed different ideas for the yearbook. Later on during the year the newspaper and Eaglite staff had a Christmas party where the "Roast" was the light of the party. After the first of the year there were many complications because of weather, but the many deadlines were met by the hard working staff.

Preparation began with Teresa Lindzy, Diana Braddick, and Brent Waymire attending Indiana University for workshops on copy editing, photography and the many jobs of being an editor. Diana Braddick won an award for the most improved copy editing at the ending of the workshops. This summer four students from the Eaglite staff of '77-78 will be attending the High School Journalism Institute workshops.

Journ. II Tries 'Wings'

The journalism and printing staffs worked hard this year to produce the first Frankton High School newspaper in two years.

The staff worked hard to get their stories and to meet the deadlines. Despite the weather problems and learning new procedures only one deadline was missed.

Early in the year a drawing was held to name the paper. Hope Marsh suggested "Wings," which was the winning name. Hope received a free yearbook for her idea.

Each paper was special to the staff, but the three most special were the Christmas issue, April Fool's issue and the senior issue, which consisted of sixteen pages.

Grapplers Send Two To Regional

Under new head Coach Otis Cress, the Eagle wrestling team compiled a 3-7 record. The Eagles chalked up their first victory of the year by a Yorktown forfeit.

The second win of the season came against Lapel. Frankton was led by six pins, two decisions and two forfeit to defeat the Bulldogs 54-14. In January, Eagle grapplers defeated Sheridan 36-21 for their third win of the season.

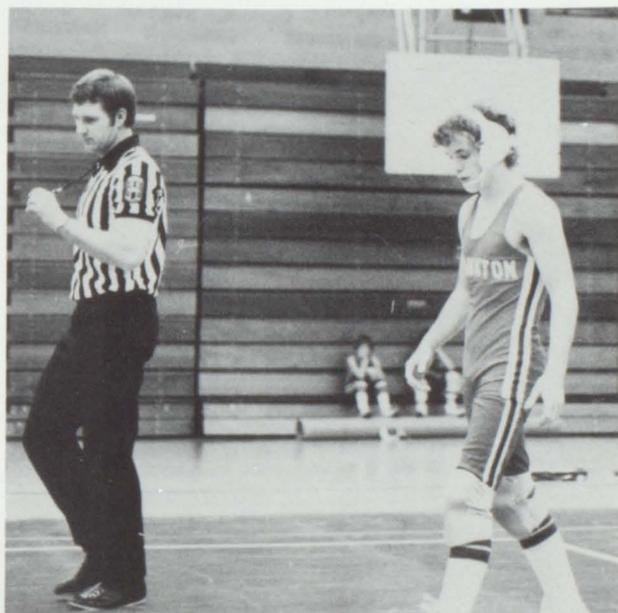

Steve Marsh and Scott Haney led the team with 9-7 and 7-6 records, respectively. By second place finishes in sectional matches, Marsh and Eric Hudson both went on to regional matches. Neither advanced past the regional.

Eric Hudson was named team Captain and Steve Marsh was named MVP of the squad.

Girls Advance In Sectional. . .

FHS' '76-'77 basketball season provided plenty of ups and downs, with the girls' team providing most of the ups.

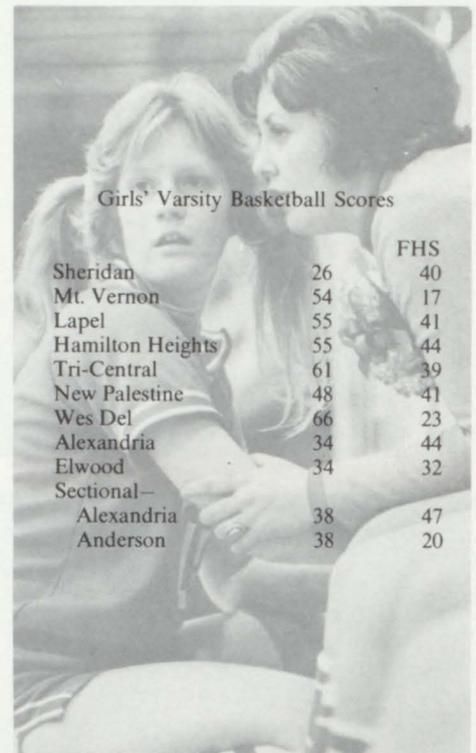

The boys' team suffered through a 0-20 season, the second in three years. The Eagles played well on occasions but couldn't put together four good quarters. Dane Whetsel paced the club in scoring and rebounding while Brad Samuals led the way in assists.

The reserves didn't fair much better, as they could muster only one win. They dropped their first five games before downing Sheridan 45-37 for their only win. Bob Stanley emerged as the team's leading scorer and rebounder.

The freshmen posted a better season than their elders; the 'A' team posting a 5-7 record with the 'B' team finishing 1-7. The 'A' team had a good chance of finishing over .500, but three games were cancelled due to poor weather. Dean Riddle was the leading scorer, Ben Hall the leading rebounder, and Tom Gish the leader in assists.

The girls had a much better year than the boys as the varsity posted a 3-6 mark and the reserves a 4-5 record. The girls bombed Alex in the sectional only to receive the same treatment from regional champs Anderson. Captain Donnetta Beaver was named MVP while Diane Rehmel was the leading scorer. Both received honorable mention all-WRC. Terrie Couch paced the club in rebounding.

Cheerleaders Cheer On

Varsity and reserve cheerleading elections are held in the spring of the school year, and the girls are elected by an all-school vote of the student body.

During the summer months the varsity and reserve squads attend a one-week cheerleading camp and compete in various competitive events. Last summer both squads attended a UCA Summer Clinic in Columbus, Ohio, and competed in the following cheerleading contests: 4-H Fair, Tipton County Fair, and the Indiana State Fair.

Last fall, after the election of the freshman cheerleaders, all three squads attended a cheerleading clinic at Ball State. The all-day clinic provided new cheers, chants, side line yells, and pep session ideas.

Scheduled practices are held once a week during football season and twice a week during basketball season. The girls are expected to support ALL athletic events and teams, although attendance may not be mandatory for all games. Keeping the players' morales high, getting the fans enthused, making posters and signs, and planning pep sessions are additional activities and responsibilities of an FHS cheerleader.

Class of '78 "Wins" with Homecoming & Prom

A junior year is always considered a busy year and the '76-'77 school year was no exception. Not only did they win the Homecoming float contest with their float entitled "Pound Em Eagles," they also did exceptionally well with the annual junior magazine sales. The winners of the sales were Julie Closser, Carol Henricks, and Steve Parker. The theme for the prom was "With One More Look at You." It took place at the Senior Citizens Building on May 7th. The Prom Queen candidates and their escorts were: Betsy Brown and Tom Beeman, Cheryl Ball and Mike Crowder, Julie Brashear and Levi Cox, Nancye Marsh and Jeff Dodd, and Becky Underriner and Paul Munson.

Sophomores Select Class Color and Jackets

Many people feel that the sophomore year is the least exciting of all high school years. This may very well be so but some activity does go on. The first thing that happens is the election of class officers. This year's sophomore officers were: David Haney, president and Lori Strangeway, vice president. In September the sophomores got ready for the homecoming by building a float. Next on the agenda was the selection of class colors and jackets. The sophomores may not have been very busy but they were proud of six members of the class. These were the reserve cheerleaders, Denise Etchison, Jenean Hartz, Lisa Chambers and Jana Sheward, and two sophomore members of the varsity basketball team, Brad Samuels and Bruce Pritchett. Sophomores also had many representatives on the reserve basketball team and other activities.

Class of '80 Numbers Record 191

Frankton High School had their largest enrolling class ever this year of 191 freshmen. They were led by Pres. Kevin Ault, Vice Pres. Tim Pedro, Sec. Penny Pickering and Treas. Laura Windlan.

Although freshman year is made up mostly of school work, on November 8 Mr. Lamater, freshman sponsor, gave the freshmen classes a test called TASK. It consisted of basic skills such as reading, writing, and arithmetic. The test was given during the English period and took three days to complete. Each student received their results on the test by seeing Mr. Lamaster.

SPRING

Food, Travel, Fun Keep Members Busy

This year a few lucky members got to try the "real thing" as eight students, accompanied by Mrs. Dodd and her husband, travelled to France for five exciting days.

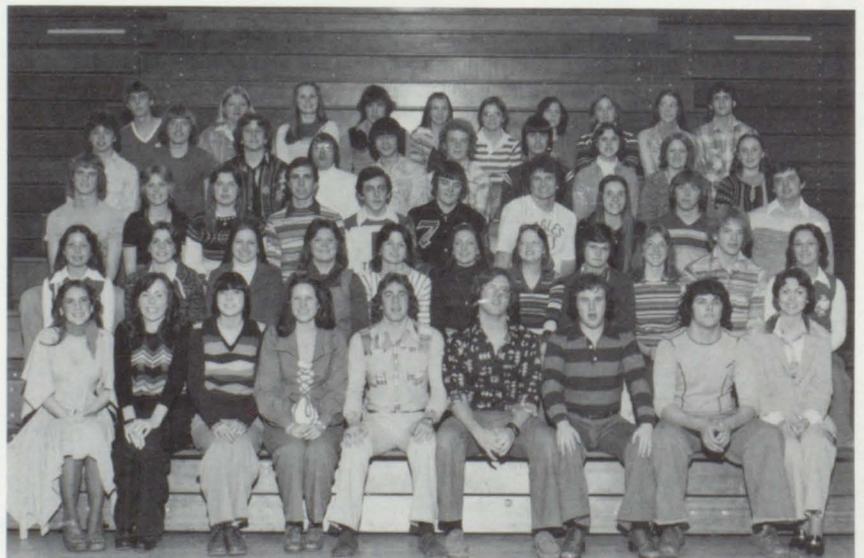

Many activities filled the year: in Nov. the second annual Sadie Hawkins Dance was held; a party and caroling filled the Christmas calendar; in Feb. over 50 students and chaperones enjoyed the food at La Tour, high atop the Indianapolis, Indiana National Bank Tower; in March another dance, "Blue Jeans On" helped raise money. During sectional week, the French Honor Society sponsored a "Crazy, Hairy, Sexy Legs Contest." Mr. Hubbartt took top honors.

Honor Society members were initiated in the spring and led throughout the year by officers Donna Claybaugh (pres.), Judy Hosier (v.-pres.), and Mike Sheward (sec.-treas.)

Fourteen Take 2nd Annual Mexico Tour

More chili suppers and another Mexico trip kept the members of Spanish Club busy. The profits from the chili and spaghetti suppers went into the treasury for a cook-out, a Christmas party, and a dinner at La Paz restaurant in Indianapolis. Fourteen members, including Mrs. Culp, went on a trip to Mexico City, Acapulco and Taxco in June.

FBLA Visits ABC; Host Parties

Early in the year FBLA visited the Frankton branch of the Anderson Banking Company and later they had a speaker, Mrs. Marilyn Brown, who provided information on job interviews. Club officers—Pres. Sheri Bever, V.-Pres. Donna Storm and Sec.-Treas. Donna Claybaugh—and members helped plan a Christmas party and a going-away party for graduating seniors and the sponsor, Mrs. Sigler, who retired this year.

Art Club Travels

The art club elected Karla Montgomery as its president, Mel White as v.-president and Linda Bagley as secretary and treasurer. This year's involvement consisted of field trips to the Sinclair Shops in Hartford City and the Indianapolis Museum of Art, and the designing of trash barrels for the school grounds.

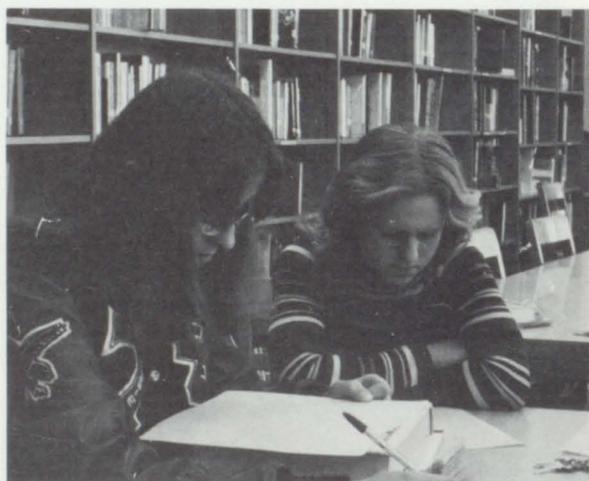

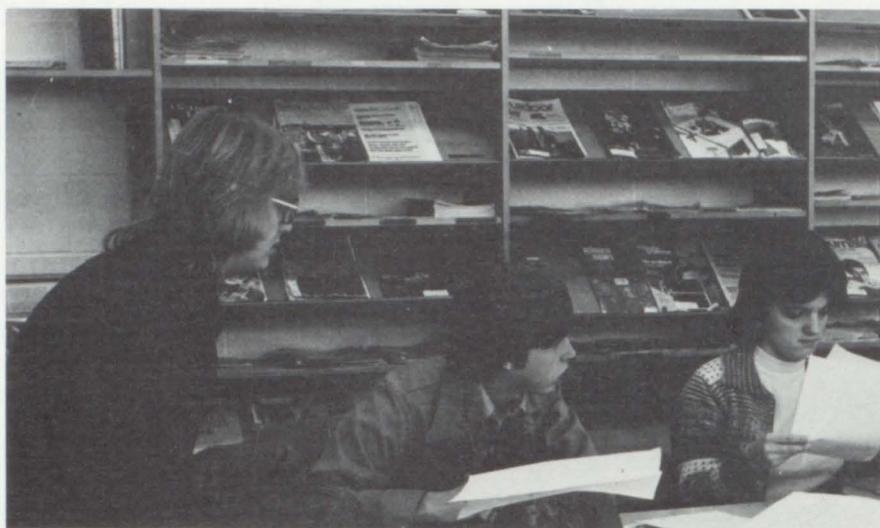

Hopefully funds will be used to send one or two students to a workshop at Ball State.

Assistants Form Active Library Club

The purpose of Future Educators is to prepare those who may be interested in a teaching career. Besides studying different colleges, some members worked an hour a day at the elementary to gain actual experience in the classroom. An after-school tea was also planned for teachers to help honor Miss Linda Fox, elementary teacher, who was named "West Central Teacher of the Year." Club officers were: Pres. Rick Quarles, V.-Pres. Barb Bibb, and Sec.-Treas. Liz McNamee.

FEA Members Gain Classroom Experience

For the first time in two years library assistants formed a library club. The main fund raising project was the four day book fair. There were 11 student assistants this year. Their main task was to take care of circulation of materials. They were also responsible for bulletin boards and display cards. During National Library Week, April 17-23, each assistant provided a publicity idea.

The Health Club, for those interested in health careers, got underway this year for the first time since 1973. They heard guest speakers, such as school nurse Ruth Bahler, visited Riley Children's Hospital, collected money for the March of Dimes on March 17, and put forth an effort to help the Easter Seals program by stuffing envelopes for patrons in Madison County. The seals provide money for the care of crippled children in this area.

Band, Majorettes Spend Active Year

Frankton's band and Majorettes were as busy as in any other year. They performed during games, at half time, including Homecoming. At Christmas time they had a concert and sold band calendars. The spring variety show was based on the theme "How the West Was Won." Senior band members came out with high honors in contests, with Rick Quarles placing first in clarinet and Denise Hays placing second in drums. They both qualified for state entries.

The Choirs Keep Busy

The choral department's schedule was full this year, not only with some of their routine projects, but with some new and interesting ones. The Concert Choir and Glee Club participated in selling popcorn to raise funds; they presented their annual Christmas program; and, they attended the Madison County Choral Festival at Alexandria High School on Mar. 17. The Concert Choir presented as their "special number" at the festival "Row, row, row your boat," with special effects, and were highly praised. To top off the year they presented a very successful version of Meredith Wilson's "Music Man." As the school year came to an end, they prepared to sing at graduation.

Swing Choir Takes Fifth Annual Tour

UNITED's fifth annual tour was one of the best. Jennings County, Crothersville, and Edgewood in Ellettsville were the schools treated in southern Indiana.

Earlier in the year, the Frankton Lions's club and Frankton Junior High teachers were among many groups that United delighted. Then all of Frankton was invited to the pre-tour show. The FHS student body was next on the list. Finally, the two junior highs caught sight of the show which included songs of a fast, quick pace. "That Song is a Driving Me Crazy," "Life Is A Worth Singing," "Rhythm of Life," and "George M." highlighted this year's tour.

Girls' Track Fells Eight Records in '77

In traditional style, the girls' track team ended the year with a winning season at a 5-4 mark. Eight school records fell as the girls put forth their best efforts. The broken records included: Tammy Couch, 880 yard run; Janet Johnson, mile run; Marcia Knepp, Tammy Hall, Mel White, Donnetta Beaver, 440 relay; Tammy Hall, Mel White, Donnetta Beaver, Tammy Couch, 880 relay; Kerry Hockema, Tammy Hall, Mel White, Tammy Couch, 880 medley relay; Tammy Couch, softball throw; Donnetta Beaver, long jump; and Terrie Couch, shot put.

Eagles Tie for 2nd in Track WRC Tourney

The Eagles wrapped up their '77 season with an excellent 8-3 record. They seemed to be a strong 'second' as they grabbed second place finishes in both the Pendleton Heights and Hamilton Heights Invitationals, as well as coming in second in 3-way meets with Ham. Hts. and Mad. Grant. They also tied for second in the White River Conference meet. In that tourney, Mike Baker and Mick Dawson grabbed firsts for the Eagles in the 100 and 220, and the shot put, respectively. The two were named All-conference for those performances. Another outstanding performer for the Eagles was Marc DeBonis who set a new school record in the discus.

Golfers Paced by Young Squad

Although the 1977 Frankton golf team struggled to only a 2-6 season, the desire and concentration were still there. Junior Jeff Munger led the Eagles in all eight of their matches and the squad lost only two seniors this year, Eric Hudson and Jon Risk. The team's wins came early and at the end of the season. They first beat Mt. Vernon and later beat Wes Del. The last game of the season with Shenandoah and an earlier match with Sheridan were cancelled. The reserves added a 3-5 record with victories against Mt. Vernon, Wapahani, and Wes Del.

Anderson Victory Highlights Spring Season

The '76 summer conference proved to be a disappointing campaign for the FHS baseball team. The Eagles tried for fourth place with a 6-8 record. Harry Schmink led the FHS hitting attack and also led the league in runs while being named honorable mention in the WRC, along with Steve Fuller. Jerry Emmons was named All-WRC and received co-MVP honors with Schmink. Mark Cox was named captain, while Steve Mundell received the 'Most Improved Player' award.

In the spring of '77, 11 lettermen returned from a team that won 11 ballgames and finished 4th in the WRC. Six senior lettermen will be lost after this year, including four-year man Randy Parker and All-WRC player Jerry Emmons.

The Eagles won their first game, but an early season hitting slump caused some problems. A highlight of the season was a 6-5 victory over Anderson on the strong pitching of Emmons. Poor weather put the spring season in a balk, but the Eagles looked forward to a fine summer program. Freshman Dean Riddle was the first freshman to make the varsity since Parker did so.

Busy Times for Class of '77

Seniors started the year off by working on the Homecoming festivities. The nominating of queen candidates Robyn Truex, Lana Canfield, Jane Leathers, and Tammy Bailey was conducted by senior boys in September. Busy and tedious work completed the homecoming float with the slogan, "Eat 'em Up Eagles."

On October 23, 1976, twelve girls competed for the title of "Frankton's Jr. Miss." Although all of the girls won in the way of friends and experience, Lisa Wit-tkamper won the crown; Theresa Weaver was first runner up and Gail Brown was awarded the "Spirit of Jr. Miss."

By April, seniors were ready for graduation, although there were still six weeks of school left. The first week of May saw seniors receiving their caps and gowns. On May 7th the seniors were honored at the prom given by the junior class.

On May 22, 1977 the senior class at Frankton became men and women of the world.

BOTTOM RIGHT—Steve Bardonner and Cindy Clay seem interested in what the rest of the school is doing for fifties day while Diana Anport seems very bored.

We made the crank a classic. By getting rid of it.

We're Delco Remy. The automotive electrical people.

In the years that have passed since we turned the crank into a relic, we've been busy.

Building Delco batteries.

Delcotron charging systems.

Electric starters.

Ignition systems.

And just about everything else in your car that's electric.

As a matter of fact, today we're the world's largest producer of electrical systems for cars, trucks, buses, farm tractors, construction vehicles, boats, garden tractors . . . well, you name it.

Big deal, you say. Who thinks about electrical systems?

Hardly anybody. We build them to work so well nobody has to.

Memories are in everyone and even schools have them. This year a dedication was made for sidewalks on the streets surrounding the school. Teachers are a part of a school's memories and two of those were Mr. Nash and Mrs. Sigler who resigned this year. The National Honor Society presented Mr. Nash with a plaque for sponsoring them for many years.

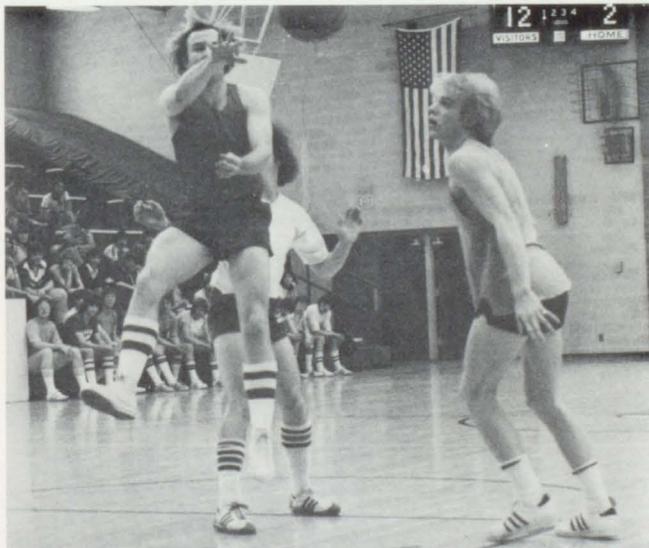

Each year the seniors get excited around the last two months they're in school. Prom, graduation and grad night are among the most important times. After they graduate it's a happy time, but sometimes sadness comes when they look back on the times and know they can never relive them again except by memories of days gone by.

In "DAYS GONE BY" we will remember . . .
