Homecoming 2007

Homecoming week is always a great week to raise our school spirit. There are so many fun and exciting events that occur during the week. One of the main events that take place is the annual Powder Puff game. This year the seniors took charge and beat the juniors ending with a final score of 28-8. There were also other games, like the wheelbarrow races, 3-legged races, water balloon toss, dizzy bat races, limbo, musical chairs, and tug-of-war. Each class took part in competing to design the best float for the Homecoming parade. Floats: 1st place-Seniors, 2nd place-Sophomores, 3rd place- Juniors and 4th place Freshmen. The final outcome: 1st place- Juniors, 2nd place- Seniors, 3rd place- Sophomores, and 4th place- Freshmen.

This group of students, at the pep rally, tries hard to get the crowd excited and the teams pumped up for the Homecoming games.

These sophomore girls are determined to "Lock up those Golden Eagles" as they show off their class float.

Seniors, Kirsty Hancher and Jaleon Munger compete for the win in the 3-legged race.

Juniors, Brandon Gore and Joel Hudson take the lead during the wheelbarrow races.

Jordan Murrell, Jordyn Bott, Olivia Isaacs, Tyler Long, and Drew Rogers compete for a chair, but the seniors dominate and take the win.

Jobs

Jobs are a good way to earn a little extra cash. At some point in our lives we have to learn to be independent and a job is one of the first steps, plus you can't mooch off your parents forever! Some jobs are the worst and depressing to drag yourself to while others are great, with good money and amazing experiences!

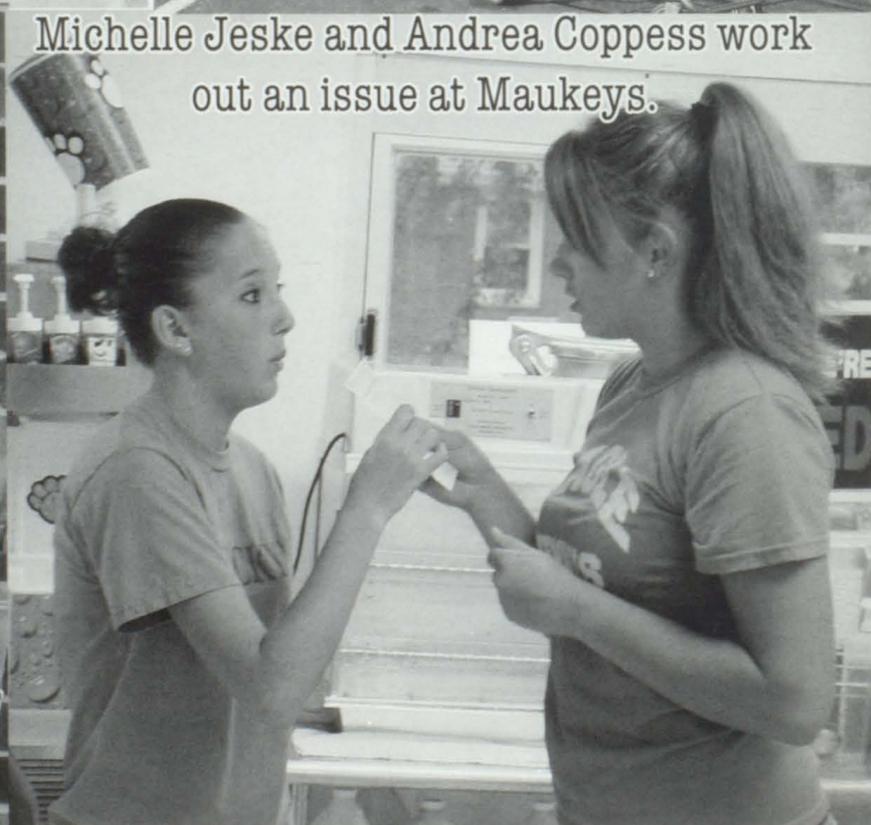

Matt Denniston works in the meat department at Bauer's.

Candace DeLong puts in her time at Marsh Supermarkets.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The girls basketball team put in an incredible amount of effort this year. Brent Brobston, in his first year as a coach at Frankton, contributed to this effort immensely. From the end of the 2006-2007 school year when the girls first found out that they were getting a new coach to the last game of the '08 season the improvement was tremendous. The team was led by seniors Danielle Jeske and Lexi Seager, who are both three sport athletes. The team along with new Coach Brobston has bright things in their future returning many key players.

Frankton Christian Church is a nondenominational church patterned after the church of the New Testament whose purpose is to serve Christ in this community. We believe Jesus called His church into being as a unified body. In order to promote this unity, we have determined to preach, teach, and live the gospel contained in the Bible.

Frankton Christian Church is known for its warm, friendly spirit and Biblical preaching. We invite you to be part of our fellowship, but more importantly, Jesus invites you to become a Christian. Let us introduce you to Him and to the joy of being a part of the family of God.

Your college years will be some of the most rewarding times as you immerse in a world with new friends, new experiences, and a new feeling of independence. We pride ourselves on an atmosphere that fosters academic and personal growth, and we look forward to sharing these experiences with you as you embark on your journey toward higher learning and self-discovery.

"My experience at AU has been a chance of a lifetime. By participating in the Wind Ensemble, I've become a well-rounded person, made several friends, and participated in the annual Candles and Carols Christmas celebration."

Curtis Gaddis, Class of 2008

"Since 7th grade I thought about being an orthodontist when I grew up, but I wasn't sure. What I did know after my first visit day at AU was that I loved walking through the valley met by so many smiling faces. I am really enjoying classes, especially my biology courses and lab work. My professors are all fun and interesting. I may end up being an orthodontist after all."

Danielle Ward, Class of 2008

"Among the faculty of AU, I have discovered examples of how to live with integrity and how to be a teacher of integrity. The faculty I've come in to contact with really exemplify how to be a Christian, how to be a teacher, and how to be a Christian teacher. They are very effective models for me as a future teacher."

Letter From the Editor...

So we're finished, completely done, I never thought I'd be able to say the 2008 yearbook is done. When we walked in at the beginning of this year only two of the eight on the yearbook staff even knew how to work the InDesign program we used. And then we had a late start, not even finishing our first set of pages until second semester, I have to admit I was worried, but we did it, finally.

It has been quite interesting being the yearbook editor. I have lost sleep at night for the past three years worrying about deadlines and wondering how I am ever going to get those pages done, but what I felt was nothing like this year, being in charge of people your own age is tough, especially at the age we are now. We had some rougher times, however my staff pulled through and I'd like to thank them for all their hard work.

In particular I'd like to thank Candace DeLong (Sports Editor) who not only finished her section, but sacrificed her summer to help me finish other people's pages. Between her and I, we finished over 80 pages counting up to over half the book!

Next I'd like to thank Trent Fuller who not only finished the Academic section of the yearbook when he had enough to do as Newspaper Editor-In-Chief, but also kept me sane and put up with me for two periods a day. Also to the rest of my staff, who sacrificed lunches and came in during other classes to meet deadlines, Kirsty Hancher, Kaitlin Clark, John King, Megan Clark and Ivan Cole. And a final thanks to Mr. Sipe who has probably put more time into this book than the rest of us, all while dealing with our frustrations and still supporting us throughout the year.

I am very proud of this yearbook, we put in a lot of time into designing the cover to fit our town. I hope this book represents Frankton well for that was our basis, and that everyone's story can be told by looking through the pages. However, to the few who have complaints about the book I urge you to get involved and become part of the yearbook staff. It has been a great opportunity for me these past three years to be involved and has really connected me to the school. The time you spend is worth it all when you see the final product!

Thanks Again,

Anna Neese

2008 Eaglite Editor-In-Chief
