The Natural Way is the Frankton Way! Not so much the wheat germ and sunflower seeds; but the way we do things: Naturally.

The Natural Way at Frankton is taking time out to be wild and crazy like Scott Carpenter did one day in Speech and Drama class.

The unity between players on a team is a natural feeling here. The unity was there when we beat unbeaten Triton Central and also when the Cross Country team won the Sheridan Invitational.

It would be very unnatural for our clubs not to get involved with the activities outside the school along with the activities inside the school. For the second year, the Health Club sold Tootsie Roll banks to benefit the Kidney Foundation. The group made no money themselves. All proceeds went to the Kidney organization. The Pep Club, whose members were not as great in number as last year, tried very hard to spread their enthusiasm throughout the school. These same members, along with most of the crowd, went home very hoarse after cheering on a fantastic Eagle basketball team in a close loss to rival Lapel at the Anderson Sectional.

A natural happening every year is picture day. This day comes and goes just as Awards Day and semester test days do. Some are just dreaded, others are just nerve racking.

There is a natural relationship between willing students and teachers. Our faculty spent many hours helping us in the classroom and in our outside endeavors.

BETWEEN CLASSES

Lunch hours and between classes are times for "get togethers" in the halls and the gym. It's a time of freedom for the students, away from the classroom and teachers. The following two pages show some of the typical and unusual sights you may see, between classes.

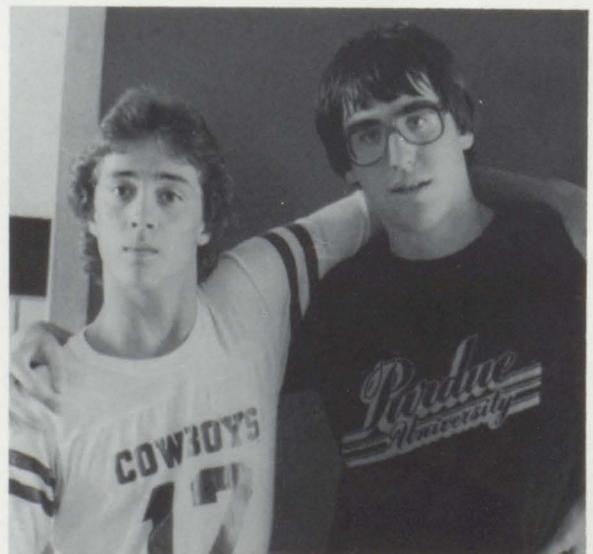

Kim Smith and Peggy Clark share some gossip on their lunch hour.

Future model, Billy Sheets, flaunts his amazing beauty.

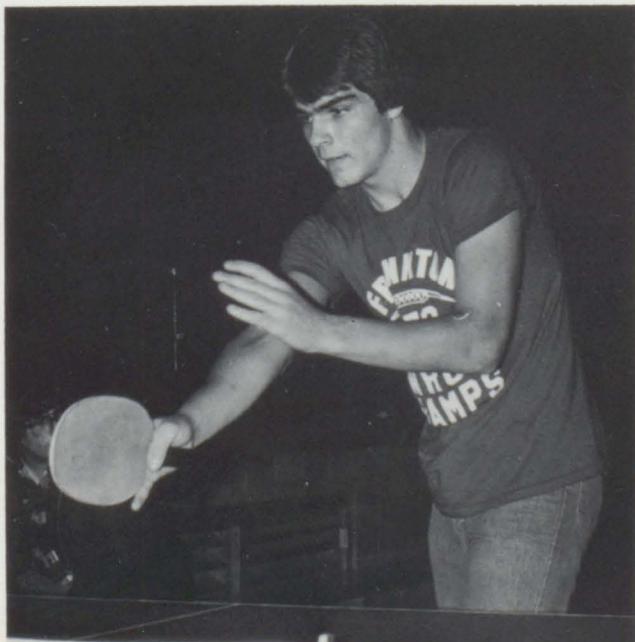

Pals, Charlie Munger and Blaine Vandersnick are together, wherever they go.

With the hostage crisis in Iran now, some of our own Frankton students decided to show their stand on the issue. The students in Iran protested the United States by burning an American flag, so our Frankton students, along with many other students across our country, protested Iran by burning an Iranian flag.

Other activities during lunch besides flag burning, was ping pong, here played by Kevin Scott.

Frankton's

On October 27, 1979, eight senior girls competed in Frankton's thirteenth Junior Miss Pageant. The contestants were: Laura Small, Misty Jackson, Marsha Shively, Doreen Bartlow, Linda Bunch, Eran Hall, Lecia Folsom, and Lisa Alexander.

Eran Hall was crowned Frankton's 1980 Junior Miss. She won three awards which were Youth Fitness, Scholastic, and Poise and Appearance. Laura Small was the first runner up. Marsha Shively won the Spirit of Junior Miss award and Misty Jackson received the Creative and Performing Arts award. Eran received a $300 scholarship for the college of her choice and competed in the state pageant at Frankfort High School. There she won a Scholastic Achievement Award which included a $100 cash scholarship.

AQUIRING A SKILL ; PREPARING FOR

Is Vocational School just a chance to get away from Frankton? True, there is more freedom and the students are more on their own. Even though, there is more responsibility. Missing just one day at the Vocational School is like missing three days and most work cannot be made up.

This year there was a total of 68 students from Frankton attending the two different schools. 23 at Anderson Area Vocational-Technical School, and 45 at John H. Hinds Area Vocational School.

There is not definite placement service in either school. Some students go on to further their education. Some students are placed in jobs by their instructor.

Even though the attendance has increased every year, the gas shortage is a major factor to all affiliated with the vocational schools.

THE FUTURE

The classes with the largest enrollment are: Welding and Merchandising and Sales, but those are only two out of the fourteen possible classes that are offered. One thing that's a little difficult to figure out is during vacations. Even though most all schools in the area have different vacation breaks, Vocational students are expected to be in school whenever their Vocational School is in session and whenever their home school is in session.

The Natural Look at F.H.S.

We really have a variety of sights here at Frankton High School! A special holiday is not necessary to bring out the "natural" look. Some days, you may never quite know what to expect! By the time you have attended this school for four years, you have many memories of some of these crazy days.

These two pages will show some of the "typical" days at F.H.S.

Fun Times at Heritage Days

The fourth annual Heritage Days at Frankton proved to be a fun success. The event took place from September 13th to the 16th. Skydivers performed on three of these days. There were also a series of entertaining groups throughout the days. Various organizations sponsored meals along with a parade which took place on the morning of the 15th. The Frankton Heritage Days certainly proved to be an exciting and fun time for everyone.

Team Records	won	lost
Cross-country	11	1
Basketball	11	10
Football	7	3
Wrestling	6	5
Volleyball	9	9

The sports program at F.H.S. saw more winning records during the '79-'80 season than it has in a very long time. Five teams in the Fall and Winter sports program had a .500 season or better.

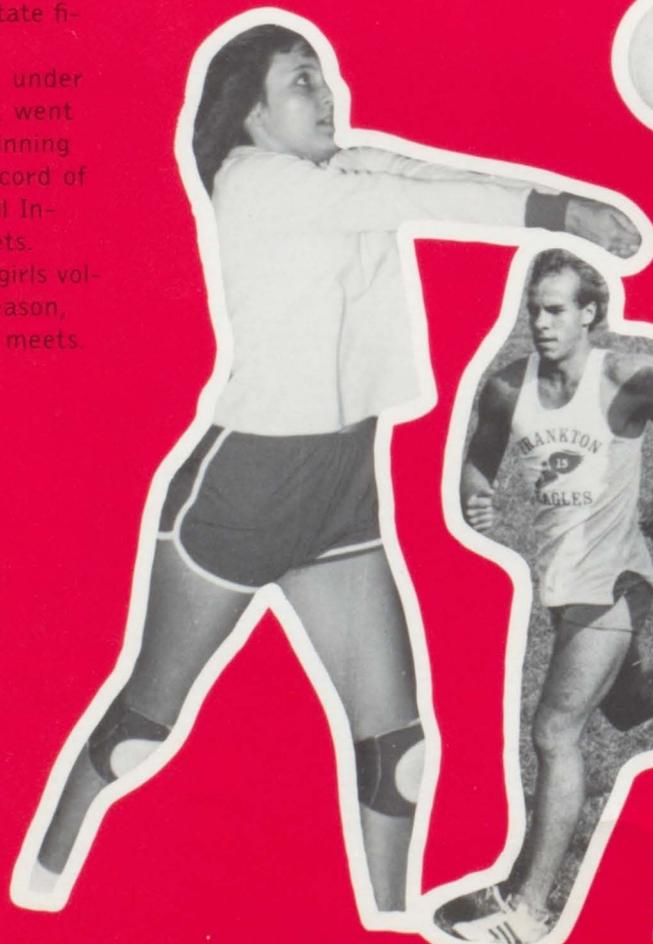

After an 0-10 season last year, the football team made it to Mr. Scharnowski's predicted 7-3 season. The boys basketball team had its first winning season in years, under coach Calvin Bayley. Mr. Cress' wrestlers had their first winning season since 1969, and sent two boys, Rick Gill and Mike Atwood to the semi-state. Rick was later to go on to the state finals.

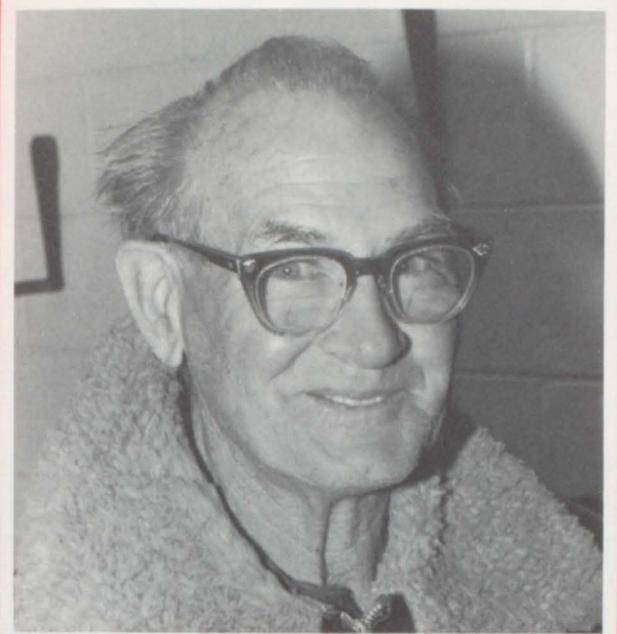

The cross-country team, under the coaching of Phil Davis, went on to have their second winning season in a row, with a record of 11-1, or 29-7, including all Invitationals and special meets. Coach Cathy Huntsinger's girls volleyball team had a .500 season, both winning and losing 9 meets.

Frankton's fans and the support of the community have been a big part of this success. They are the one's that donated the pop bottles, bought the game balls, worked on the football field and paid admission to all of the contests.

Fans are very important to a school of this size that many times just makes their athletic budget as it competes against larger schools.

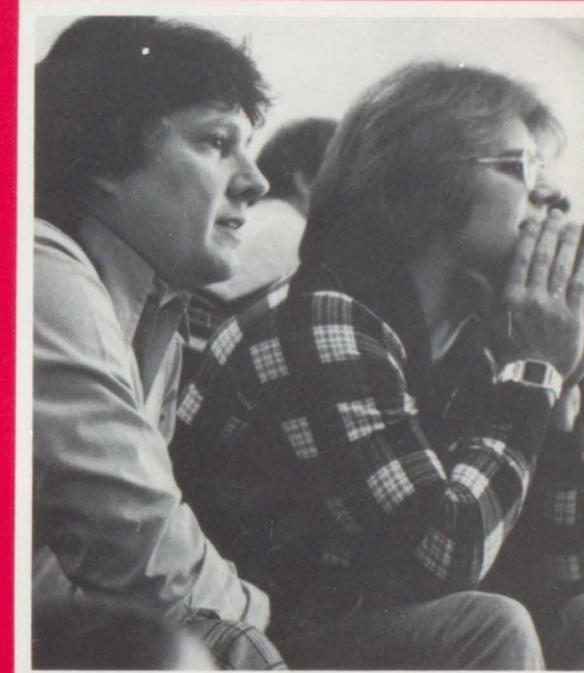

Many times this school is verbally run down for its lack of facilities for sports. I think that perhaps these accusers are overlooking our greatest facility, Our Fans. Thank you fans, the glory is yours to share.

Awards as Rewards

Last year's awards banquets were a big part of the athlete's high school sports career. Many athletes have received awards from Most Valuable, to a certificate for a year well done.

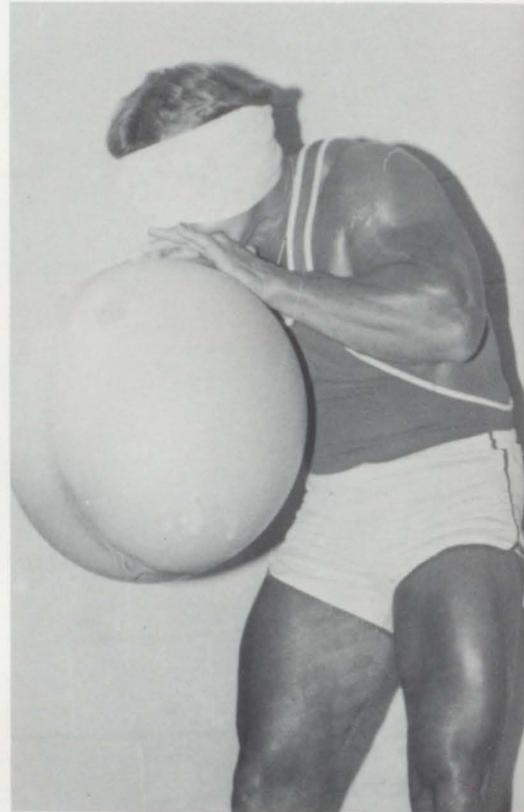

Frankton has two major banquets in the year, one is for fall sports and the other for winter and spring sports. There is also another banquet that is put on for all of Frankton's athletes by the Methodist Church.

Some of the athletes strived to achieve their goals and be recognized at the awards banquets, and this year Frankton has a lot of athletes to be proud of.

We Finally Did It!, 7-3

Finally. The Frankton Eagles football team finally broke a 17-game losing streak which was compiled over the previous two seasons.

Before the year began, head coach Bob Scharnowske predicted that his team would have a 7-3 season, and due to the hard work of the players and coaches, this prediction came true.

One of the highlights of the year came in the final game, which was against a southern Indiana power, the Triton Central Tigers. The Tigers were boasting of their 9-0 record, that is, boasting until they met the Frankton Eagles. The Eagles sent the Tigers back with their first and only defeat of the year hanging heavily over their heads. The Tigers' perfect season was lost in a game where the Eagles' will and want to win pulled them ahead 33-20. The 1979 football team had some terrific accomplishments—They not only ended 7-3, but won their final four games in a row, outscoring their opponents by an average of 26-9 in these last games—They won the WRC for the first time in the history of football at FHS—And, believe it or not, were awarded Honorable Mention in the Final Class A poll.

Carole O'Bryant crowned Homecoming

Homecoming was happy for some and sad for others. Football was one of the sad parts of the evening, because we lost to the Hamilton Heights Huskies 20-15. One of the most exciting moments was the crowning of the queen, Carole O'Bryant.

Another festivity was the parade which featured the floats for the class competition with the theme Bugs Bunny. The Freshman class won this competition with their Bugs Bunny, Elmer Fudd entry. The band and the cross country team were some of the other entries that dotted the parade route.

Following the game, Buster Bodine spun disco at the dance.

Two years in a row C. C. is a winner

For the second year in a row, the Frankton cross-country team has had a winning season. Their record for dual and three-way meets was 11-1, their only loss coming at the hands of Mt. Vernon.

The team did very well in large meets, with the highlight of the season being the Eagles' victory at the 9-team Sheridan Invitational. Frankton's Marty Hughes took second place overall to lead the Eagle runners to this win.

Earlier in the season, at the Pike Hokum-Karum meet, our Eagles placed 10th out of 19.

In the Conference, the team fell just 8 points shy of Shenandoah, and settled for second. At the Sectional meet, the Eagles defeated half of the starting field, and placed 6th out of 13, missing a bid for the Regional by just one place.

Congratulations are in order for senior captain Jim O'Donnell who received Most Valuable and the Workhorse awards.

Volleyball finishes .500season

The girls' varsity volleyball team had a record this year of 9-9. This .500 season was complimented by a trophy that the girls won in their own Frankton Invitational. In the first game of the Invitational, our Eagles played Tri-Central, defeating them 15 to 8 and 15 to 13. Later in the day, the girls came back to down Hamilton Heights 15 to 10 and 15 to 2. This was the second year in a row that the girls have won their Invitational. Later on in the season, the Eagles were beaten in the Sectional by the Arabians of Pendleton.

The J.V. girls had a better than .500 year, finishing 9-7, under the direction of new assistant coach Kathy Buck.

Wrestlers finish 6-5

Rick Hiatt tries desperately to get a pin.

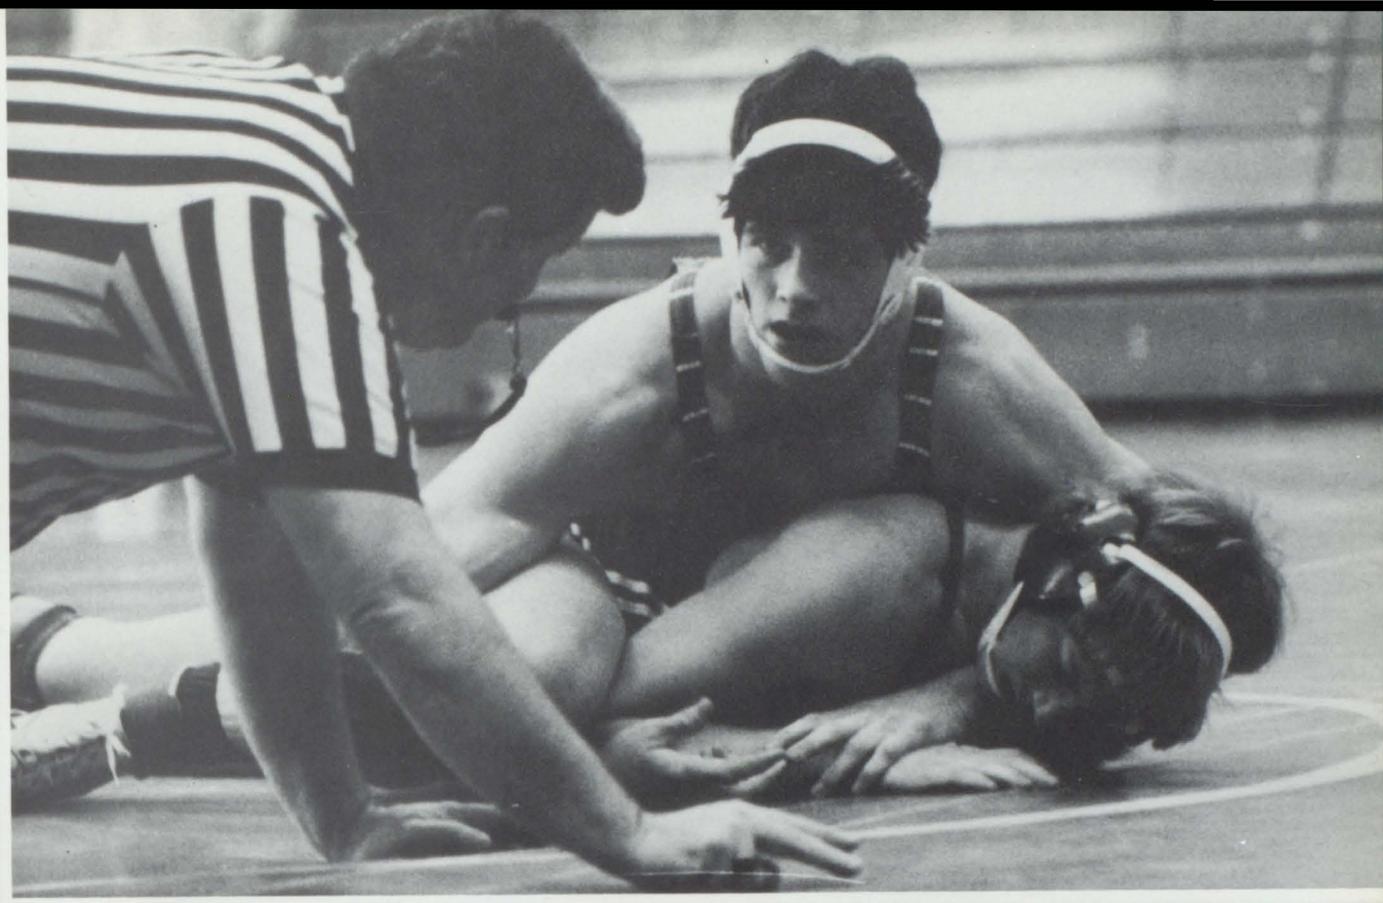

The wrestling team, with a record of 6-5, had their first winning season since new assistant coach Don Hall was a junior here at Frankton, nine years ago.

Excitement soared when two wrestlers competed in semi-state competition with one advancing to see state action. When asked his feelings about the team, one wrestler stated, "This year was good, but next year will be even better." Asked the same question, head coach Otis Cress was quoted as saying, "I was pleased with the teams accomplishments this year. I hope we can improve our dual meet record, though."

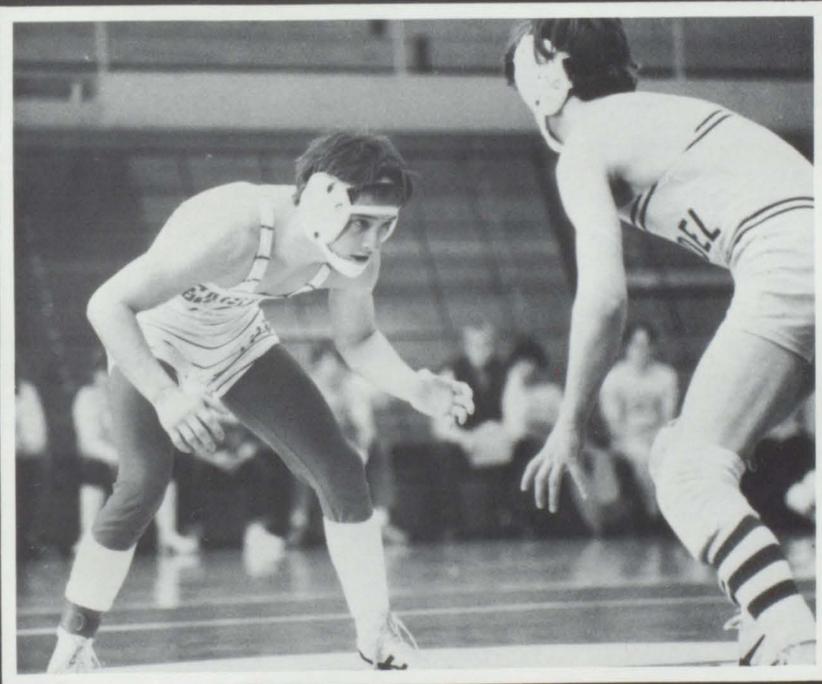

Pride was important as they watched each other grow in strength and unity. No personal achievement went by without praise.

Girls finish 4-11

The Varsity girls' basketball team ended their season 4-11. Kevin Porter was this year's coach and Kathy Buck was the assistant coach.

Although the girls had a losing season, they put in much hard work. The J.V. team with a 7-7 record, had a good season with many first year players.

This year's most valuable players were a senior, Donnesa Beaver, who also was the leading scorer and a sophomore, Cathy Bailey, who was the leading rebounder. Jennifer Brown, a senior, won the mental attitude award.

The girls had a pretty good start in the sectional. This gives us the idea that the team is building and could have a much better season next year.

Sectional Hysteria!

Coach Bailey gives the instructions for a Frankton win.

Every year, the excitement grows around sectional time. The enthusiasm is shown at school with decorated halls and "dressed up" students. This year, we had our Clash Day, 60's Day, and of course, the most famous of all, Red and White Day.

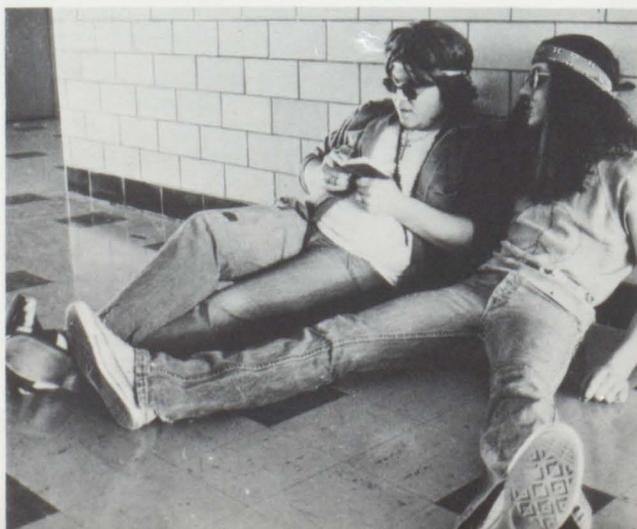

We entered the Anderson Sectional on March 5, 1980 with a winning season. We almost carried over that winning trend when we played the Lapel Bulldogs. The game proved to be about the most exciting game of the sectional. We lost the game, 53-50, but not without giving the Bulldogs a good fight. Many Frankton fans went home that night with hoarse voices and sure of one thing, we definitely have a team to be proud of.

Basketball winners, first in 11

The boys' Varsity Basketball team has made quite a comeback in the past two years, and this year was no exception.

The Eagles finished the year with a 11-10 record, making this their first winning season in 11 years. In compiling this record the team had seven consecutive victories.

This year's sectional provided a very exciting and close game for the fans, with Lapel slipping by our Eagles 53-50.

Todd Parker and Dean Riddle led the team in assist, with Riddle also leading in free throws. Joey Pedro accounted for the highest field goal percentage. Kevin Wright received M.V.P. honors and also pulled down the most rebounds.

The reserve team ended the season with a 6-14 record. Eight freshmen saw reserve action and gained valuable experience which should carry through to next year's season.

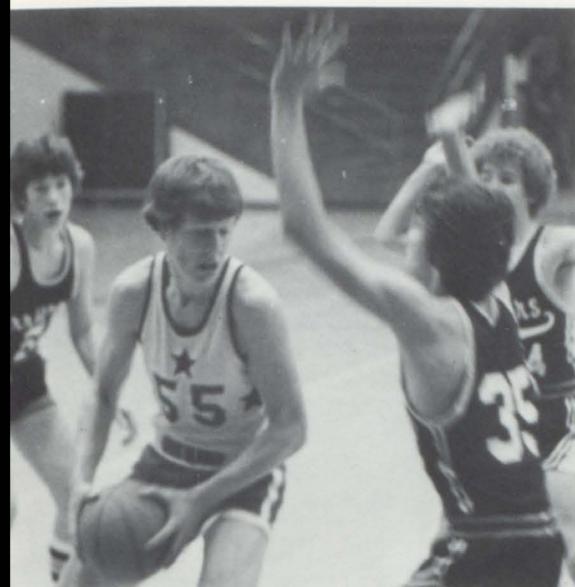

Sophomore Brian Kennedy led the team with a total of 169 points, while Freshman Kent Mosbaugh contributed 150 points. Both players averaged 8.8 points a game.

Even though many freshmen had the responsibility of playing both reserve and freshmen basketball, the freshmen team concluded the season with an impressive 10-6 record.

The track team ended its season with a 7-1-1 record. Also they tied in the WRC meet which involved whether or not a Shenandoah shot-putter should have been disqualified for wearing jewelry. The starter declared Frankton winners, which was later reversed by the athletic directors 4-0 voting. The captains were Ben Hall, Sprints; Jim O'Donnell, distance; and Rex Van-Briggle, field events. # Girls win WRC...again

The girl's track team had a very successful year with a 9-1 record. May 8, the girls traveled to Wes Del for the White River Conference. The girls walked away with top honors as they were crowned W.R.C. champions. Donnesa Beaver received the Von Jameson Award. She made all conference in three sports in one year.

In the sectional, Julie Cunningham advanced in the shotput, Donnesa Beaver in high jump, Teresa Baker in high jump and the 400, Nancy Hosier, Marcia Knepp, Melanie Jones, and Marissa Beverly in the 100 meter dash. All these girls advanced to the regionals.

Baseball moves to new field

This was the year for new, for the baseball team. They started playing on their new field, and also had a new assistant coach.

"We're three or four years away from having everything we want for the field, but its going to be a nice facility," said coach Tom Urban, "We had super help from the booster club and the community, that got us playing on the field much sooner than we alone could have."

Rex Bauchert was the new assistant coach of the 11-14 club. He brought his expertise in baseball from Mt. Vernon. "Super Coach" was the comment from Urban.

Urban's team consisted of 18 members with 9 returned lettermen and five seniors. "I was dissapointed in our record," said Urban, "We 'beefed up' our schedule some in May, but our hitting as a team was only .220 compared to a good team's .300.

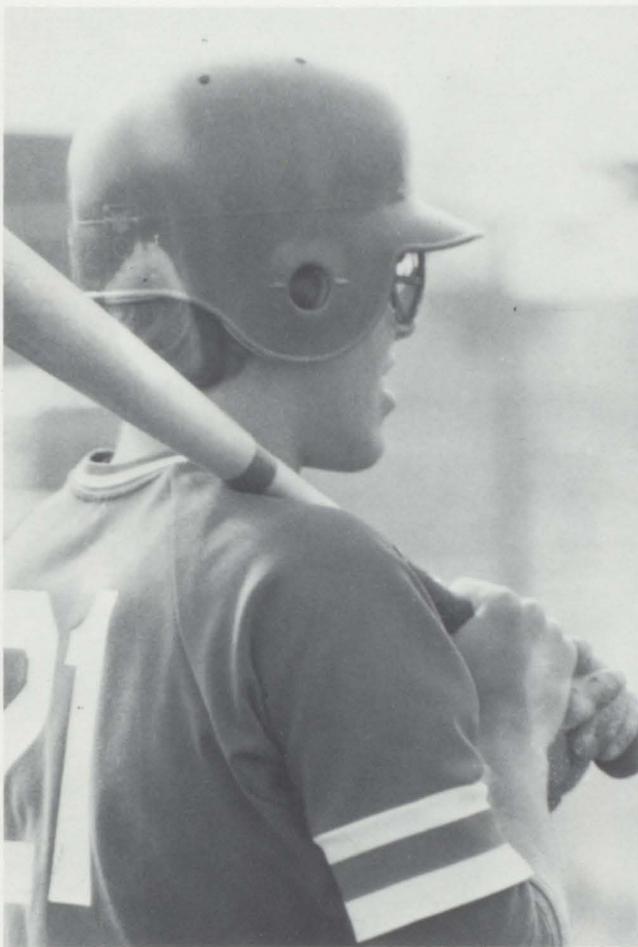

Senior Greg Mundell led the team with a batting average of .304, and Mike Atwood led in R.B.I.'s with 19. Kevin Scott and Mike Browning tied for 11 stolen bases a piece and Browning was second pitcher in the county in strike outs with 68 in 59 innings.

Sweet Tunes show their style

The School year of 79-80 brought some changes to the choirs. They had a new director, Miss Nancy Sugden to take over Mrs. Gregory's place at the beginning of second semester. There was for the first time three individual choirs. One of them was Girls Glee who changed their name to Sweet Tunes consisting mainly of juniors and seniors.

Their first performance was at Junior Miss, and following this was the Christmas Convocation and then Variety show. This group plus the other two choirs took part in the musical "The Wizard Of Oz," and the Madison County Choral Festival at Madison Grant on March 13.

Select Choir new addition

The New Horizons, the select choir consisting of freshmen and sophomores, was one of the new additions to the Frankton Music Department last year. It was no doubt a unique experience with the arrival of a new teacher the second semester. New Horizons' performances included the Christmas Convocation, the Variety Show, and County Choral Festival. "Morning Has Broken" was among the songs the group sang during the year.

David Furnish and Scott Le Veque are thoroughly engrossed in their sheet music while Mark Stanley daydreams off into space.

Drama Club has a very

The Drama Club started the year with their fall production, "Boys and Ghouls Together", an Adams Family type comedy. They spent most of the winter planning their June trip to New York complete with tours and Broadway shows. In March they presented "You Can't Take It With You", a classic zany Broadway comedy.

The Wizard of Oz

The musical Wizard of Oz was presented by the Concert Choir, November 9 and 10. Practices were hard and long and lasted anywhere from 6:30 to 11:00 every night.

A week before the play started, tension began to build, lines were forgotten, tempers were high, and tears were shed. The Jitterbugs scene gave them lots of problems because of the imagination that needed to be put into it.

The main characters were Anita Syverson, as Dorothy, John Swan as the Scarecrow, Steve Johnson as the Tin Woodman, and Alan Paschal as the Cowardly Lion.

There were more people involved in this play than just choir students. For the first time there was a pit band made up of volunteers from the Frankton band and directed by Mr. Shipley. Their playing before the show and during intermission and scene changes added much to the piano accompaniment by Mrs. Whitmer. David Hicks was the technical manager in charge of lights, crewmen on sound equipment, curtain cues, putting up props, and anything else that he and his crew were asked to do.

Aside from all the problems the musical seemed to be a success as was evident from the standing ovations that were given both nights.

The revenue from the musical was higher than years before, but the extra was spent mostly on props and costumes that were needed for such a major production.

New director, new show doesn't stop Swing Choir

The Frankton High School Swing Choir had undergone many drastic changes last year but they still came on with more shine than ever. The big change was having a new director: Miss Nancy Sugden. Miss Sugden made a big difference in the swing choir this year. They practiced twice as much and she didn't stop until perfection was at hand.

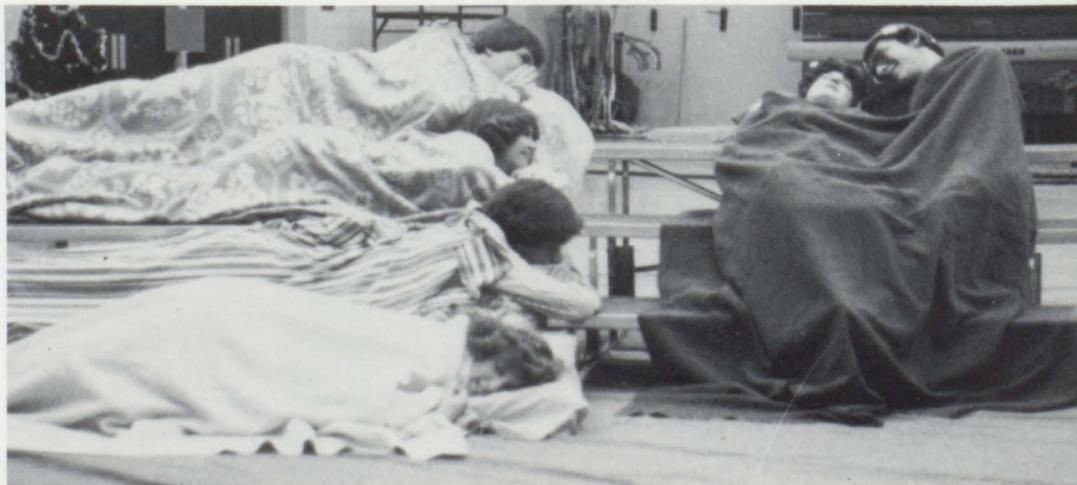

There was also a change in their tour this year. The choir usually travels out of state for their tour, but due to a lack of places to perform in Dayton, Ohio, (the originally planned tour spot) they ended up performing in Indiana. One swing choir member commented, "This way has its advantages too. You have a better chance of keeping in touch with the friends that you meet."

With their dazzling new costumes and their drive toward success, last year was a great one for our swing choir.

A song and dance routine? No, it's an emcee, (John Swan).

For French and Spanish Club members

Foreign Language is Natural

Both the French and Spanish Clubs had a busy year.

The Spanish Club started the year with their annual Chili Supper before the homecoming football game. The club also traveled to the One Accord Restaurant in Muncie. In order to finance the clubs activities, a sock hop was held early in the year so that the club had money to work with.

The language clubs joined forces for a Christmas party. Members brought food that they thought represented their country. Gag gifts were also brought and exchanged. The party ended with the breaking of the pinata that the Spanish Club supplied.

For the first time, several French students attended Foreign Language Day at Purdue University. 'Breakfast at McDonalds', the search for a familiar face, and the 'bridge out' sign are just a few of the memories they took home from West Lafayette.

French students added a little culture to one pep session by doing French cheers. The Sadie Hawkins Dance was moved to Spring instead of its usual fall date and a sock hop was held after a basketball game to help pay for their night out at a French restaurant.

French and Spanish Clubs joined with the Drama Club in running the hot dog stand at home basketball games. The three clubs joined together again for an ice skating party held at May's Skating Rink.

Poultry team advances to State

The FFA poultry team may not look like a bunch of chickens, but they sure can judge chickens.

There were five different judgings at the county level: soil, poultry, dairy, forestry, and livestock. Frankton attended all but forestry.

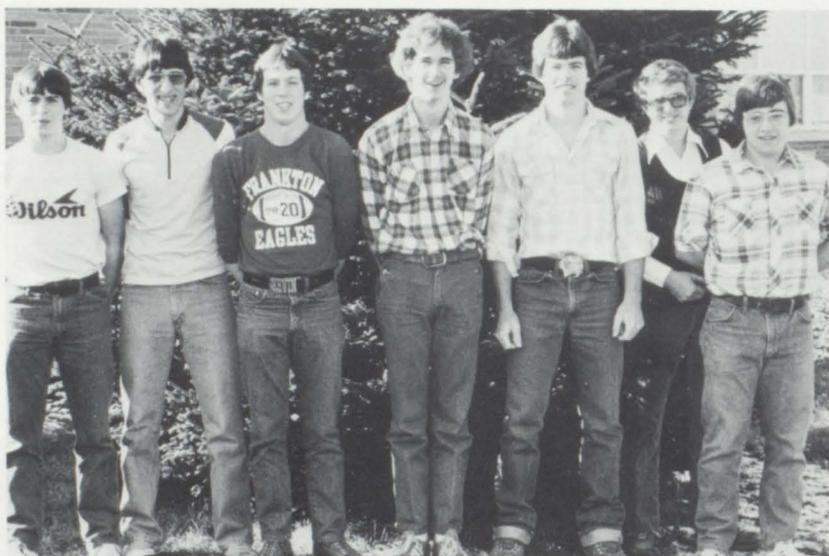

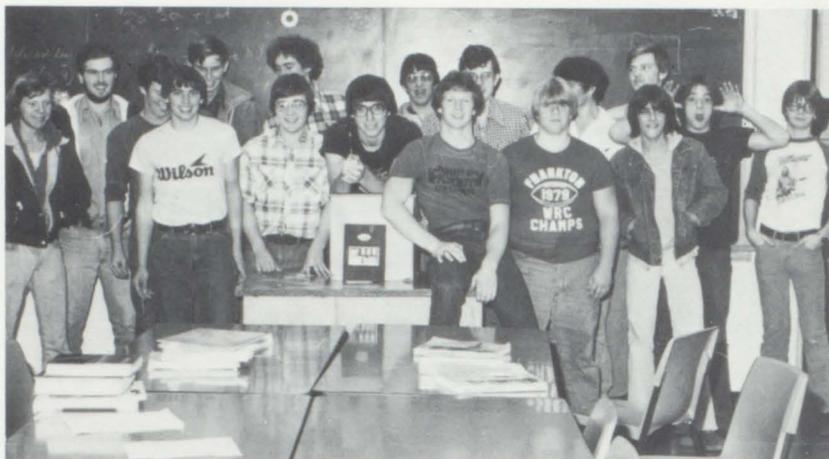

Besides the poultry team composed of: Mike Mays, Kevin Antrim, Lee Hendricks, and David Hicks, they had a livestock team qualify for the district.

On May 1, they had their annual banquet where they awarded students for excellence in judging and just being a good member of the local chapter.

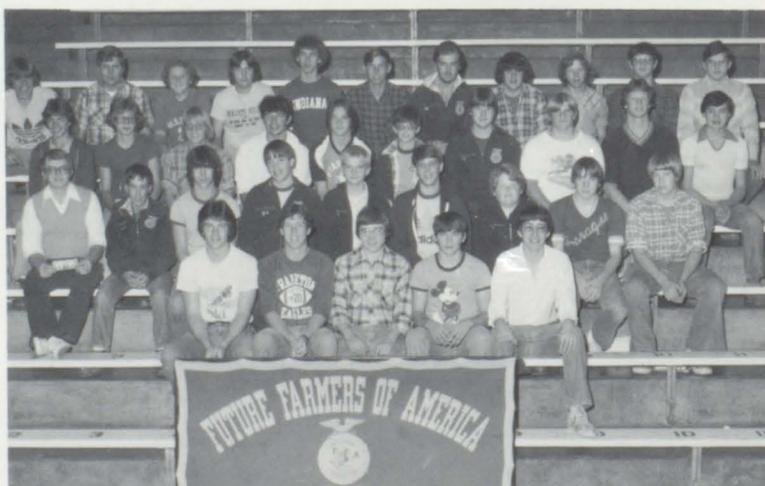

Two outings were one to Crawfordsville for the farm progress show and one to Turkey Run State Park for canoeing.

Changing advisers at semester

During first semester while Mrs. Mills was the F.H.A. sponsor, the club went skating at Star-Skate. In December, Mrs. Mills had a Christmas party at her home for the members and afterwards they went caroling.

After Christmas vacation, Mrs. Sheets was the new face in the club. Mrs. Sheets took over after Mrs. Mills resigned.

Daddy Date Night was a night where the girls could treat their fathers to an evening out. They took them to the Wooden Nickel restaurant in Muncie for dinner.

The Mr. Irresistible contest was held on Valentine's Day. Alan Paschal and Doug Furnish won the most hearts. They were presented with a cake.

The 1979-80 year for the Future Office Workers (F.O.W.) was the largest membership for the club. # Art club displays their natural talent

Just some of the class members who helped paint murals.

The art classes at Frankton High School have made one big improvement in the school this year. They painted murals on the wall of the cafeteria.

The murals consisted of businesses and other major sites in Frankton. The new 2-D art classes completed this project that took approximately seven weeks. The first semester they did miniature sculptures preparing for the murals.

Art club did some projects this year to help raise some money for a student to be sent to a art workshop. This year no one was chosen for this but the money will be put in reserve for next year. The money was raised from a car wash and poster sales.

Student Council and Honor Society are two select clubs. To be a member of Student Council you must be elected by the members of your class. Honor Society members must be in the top ten percent of their class.

Student Council organizes Homecoming festivities and also sponsors the annual Christmas dance. They selected an idea for the mural in the cafeteria after being granted permission. At the end of the year, Student Council had a picnic at Judson Hills in Anderson.

Honor Society sponsors the annual Valentine's Day dance. During Basketball season they have the coat check at the home ball games. Honor Society had a pizza party at Noble Romans after swimming and playing racquetball at the YMCA.

MEDIA

Serving

Last year the library club adopted a new name, the Media Club. With the new name came a new set of officers: Linda Smith—president, Joe Smith—vice president, Ronica Brashear—secretary, and Tom Harris—treasurer. The Club went to Muncie for a tour. While there they toured Bracken Library, the Arts Building, Emens Auditorium and the Student Center. We all like to be good to our stomachs and the Media Club sure was when they went to the Western Sizzler for their Valentine's celebration. Their Christmas Party was held in the library. Media Club isn't all fun. They have to deliver A.V. equipment and shelve books. It's a pretty hard job. So be thankful for these hard working people.

Health Club is a special group open to all junior and senior girls who are interested in health careers. One way they informed the girls about careers is through speakers. They had three speakers this year, one from Professional Careers Institute, one from the Kidney Foundation, and co-sponsor Ruth Bahler.

Health Club not only sits and listens to lectures, they also get out and work. They sold Tootsie Rolls and collected donations for the Kidney Foundation, carnations on Valentine's Day and baked goods to earn money for the scholarship they gave in May to a girl who was going into a health career. They ended last year's activities with a trip to Duff's in Muncie in order to honor the seniors. When asked if she liked what they did in Health Club, treasurer Patty Thomas said, "I like it. It's fun!"

Pep Club: large in spirit

This year the Frankton High School's pep club wasn't as large as it had been in the past, but the girls in the pep club went all out when it came to spirit.

There was even quite a few boys who sat with the pep club and yelled as loud or louder than the girls.

Phil Hiatt, Frankton's mascot, did a lot to boost the crowd's spirit as he danced around to the music.

This year the pep club sold pompons and made posters to help spread spirit throughout the school and at games.

Jazz Swings Into Style

Mr. Shipley enjoys directing the all-volunteer group at the Winter concert.

Jazz Band is a group of volunteer brass, saxophone, bass, and percussion musicians. This year there were 18 members in this group.

Jazz Band plays three types of jazz: (1) Swing, which is the 1940's style; (2) Rock, which is a modern style; and (3) Ballad, which is slow and soft.

The all-volunteer group is one that director Bob Shipley really enjoys. Here in this group they can have a different outlet and play only music that they enjoy.

Shipley hopes with the coming year that this group can expand their performances even more.

EIGHTEENTH IN THE STATE

The band did well in representing FHS with their 58 members.

At the Mermaid Festival in June, the band received a 3rd placing.

The band attended Camp Clements in Richmond where they worked on learning their contest routine.

The Music Boosters sponsored the ice cream social in August. There the band was able to show what they had learned at band camp.

This year the band and drill team went to the Central Indiana Band Contest and received a 2nd division rating. They soon went to John Marshall High School in Indianapolis for the district competition. They received a 1st division which won them the chance to continue competition. From there, they went to Fountain Central High School in Veedersburg for the state competition. (ISMA) They received a trophy and an 18th place in the state.

The band went to Ball State University for Solo and Ensemble Evaluation. The 1st placings were as follows: (Solos) Julie Hall, Melissa Hahn, Sherri Mann and Curt Granger. (Ensembles) Pam Abshire, Melissa Hahn and Tom Benefiel (Sax Trio). Scott Carpenter, Jim Couch, Curt Granger and Brent McClain (Drum Line).

For the first year, the band, along with Jazz Band, put on a concert for the public.

The drill team went to a contest in Alexandria where the band played for them while they marched. The drill team received a 9th placing.

The band went to Muncie South Side High School for a concert band contest and received a 2nd division.

It's Show Time !

The Frankton High School Band Department was pleased to present the 3rd Annual All-School Variety Show on April 25th and 26th. The goal of the show was to provide opportunities for students to exhibit their talents.

Each year, the show provides a wide variety of talent, with this year being no exception. The F.H.S. Band and Jazz Band played many selections during the show. The F.H.S. Majorettes also entertained us by doing a dance routine to "New York, New York." The Girls' Glee Club sang an arrangement of "I Love." We also had the individual singing of Connie Geer, Robin Hires, and Anita Syverson. We cannot forget, though, the comical skits of the show including "Mr. Bubble," by Laura Small, Debbie Knots, Beth Quarles, and Teresa Jackson, "Farmer Fat" by Todd Castor and Duane Canfield, the dance routine by the French Club, "On a Street Car" by Kathy Carter, and "The Little Lost Girl" by Linda Crowder. We also had the disco dancing of Phil Hiatt and Vonnie Whitmer. Last, but not least, we cannot forget the F.H.S. faculty as the "Village Teachers." The combination of these acts provided a very entertaining evening.

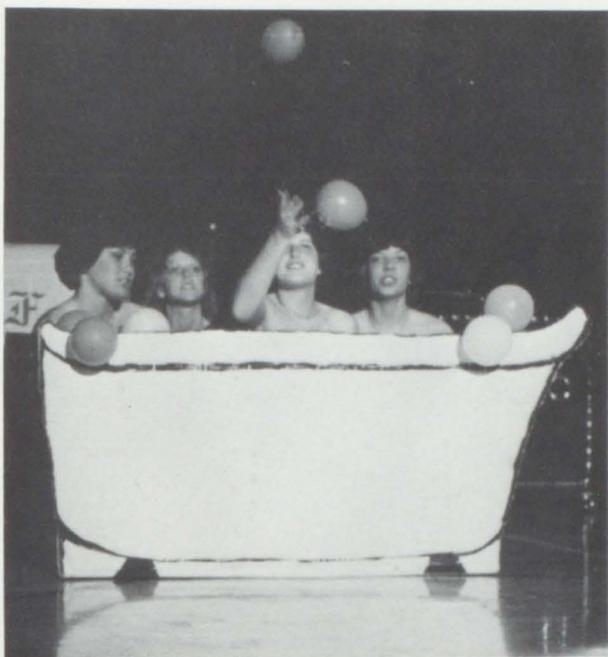

Mr. Howell, Mrs. Galbraith, Mr. Sipe, and Mrs. McClain, alias "The Village Teachers," show us their disco abilities by dancing to the song, "In The Navy."

Linda Crowder tells us about her boyfriend, Harold Jr., in her skit, "The Little Lost Girl."

Laura Small, Debbie Knotts, Beth Quarles, and Teresa Jackson sing "Mr. Bubble."

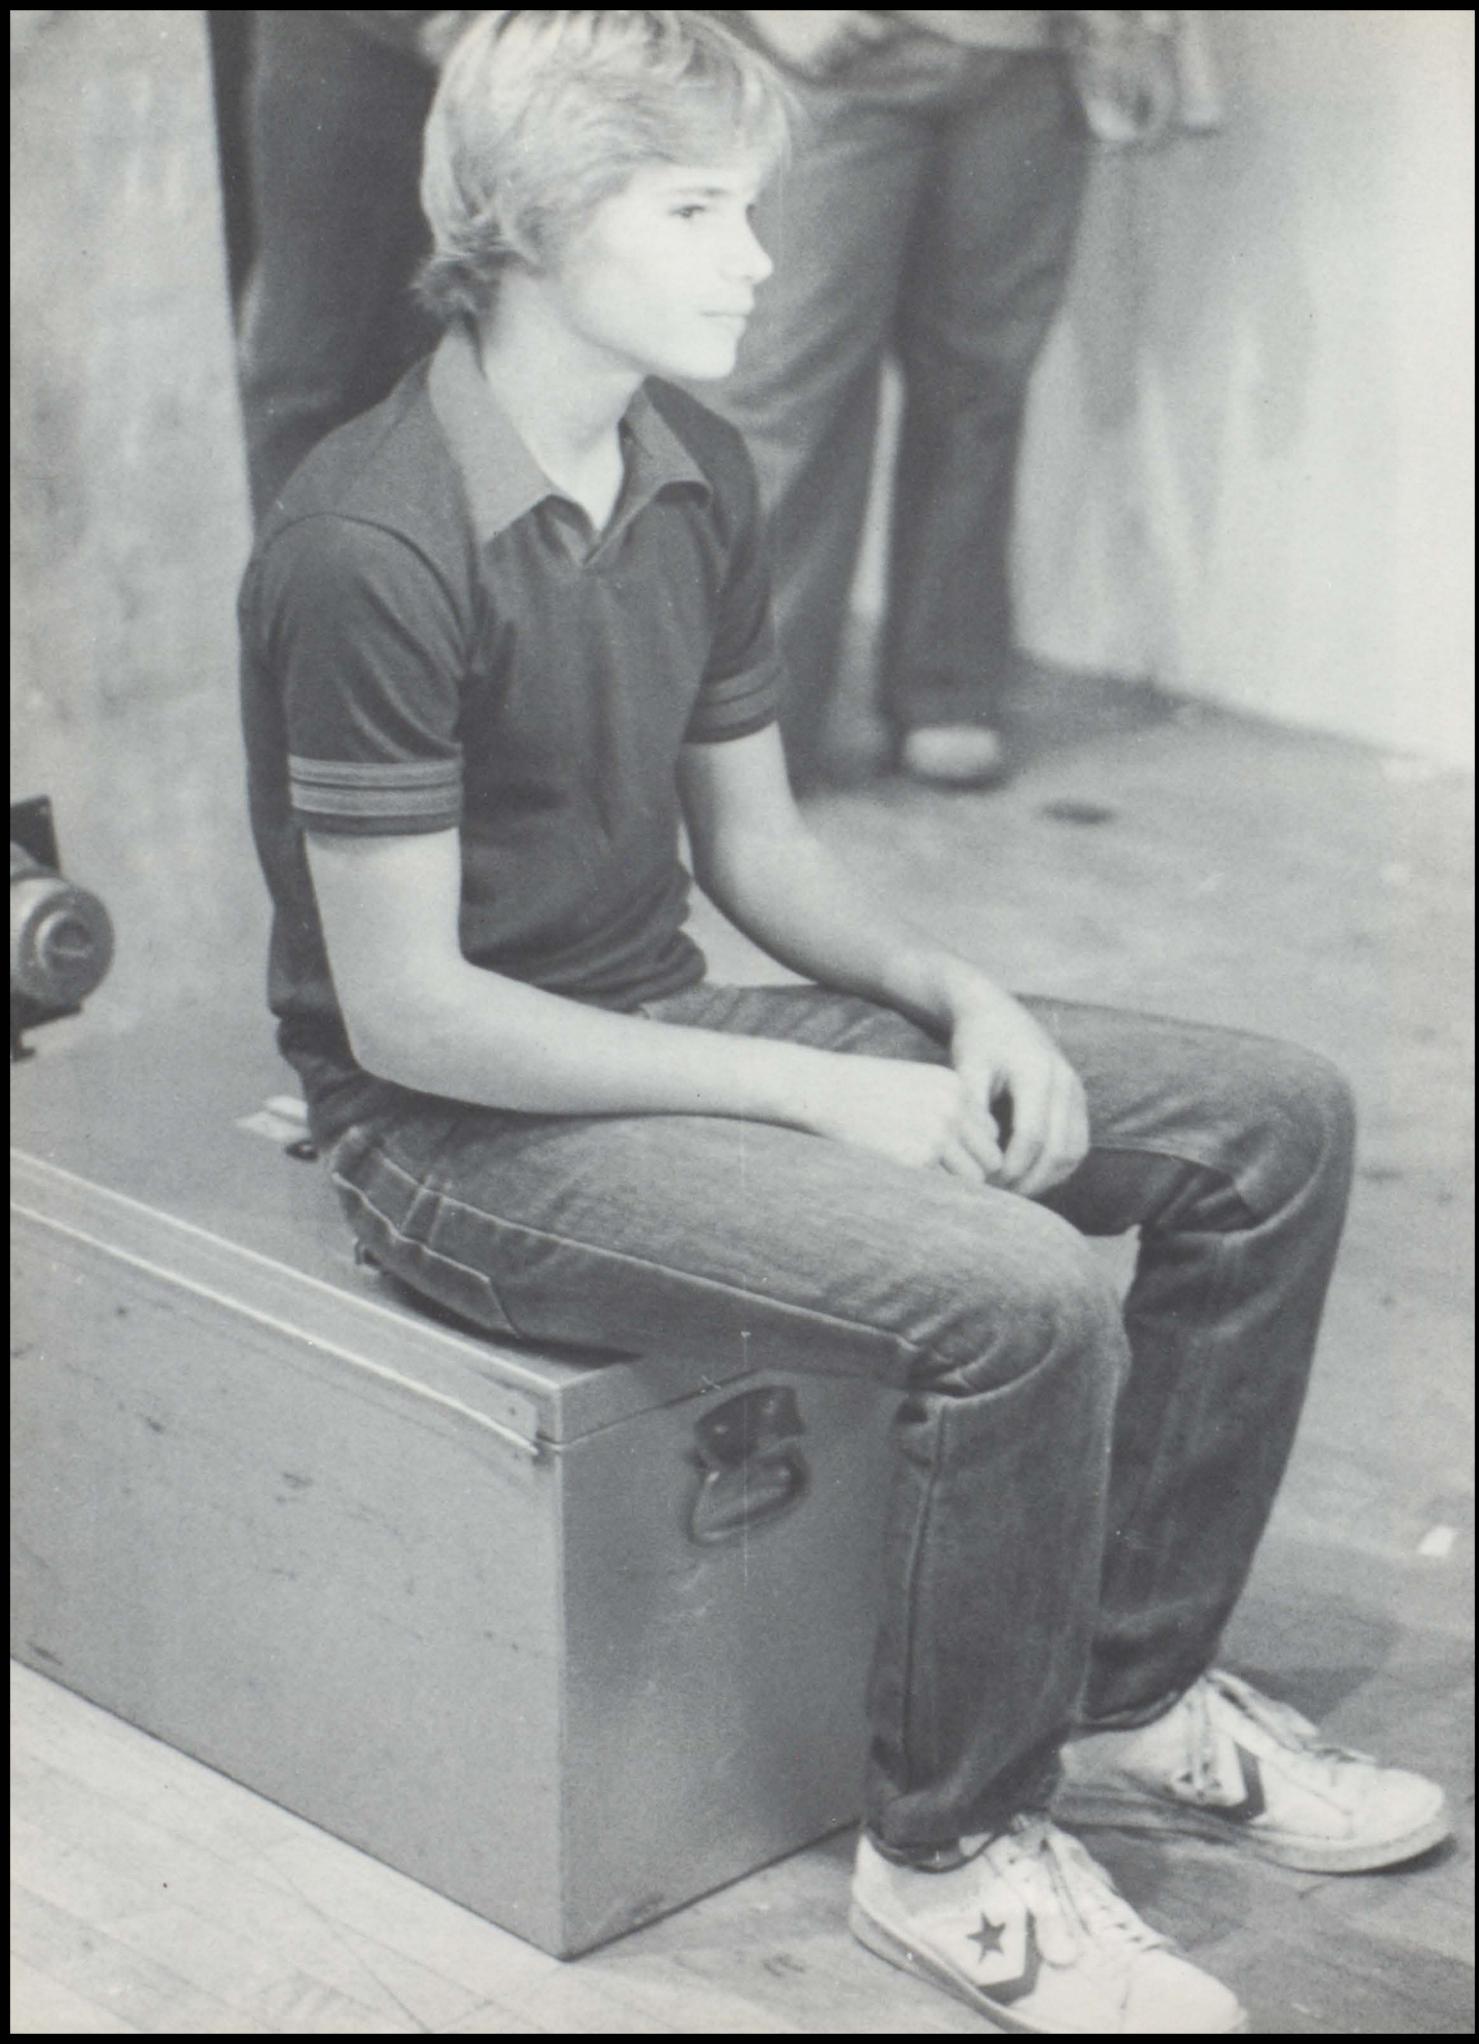

Emcees Kevin Ault and John Swan select a name for the guest director of the band.

Kevin Ault gives a reading lesson to the younger members of the audience, or did they give him a reading lesson?

Dean Riddle helps Robin Hires with the finale of her song, "Kiss Me in the Rain."

Class of '80... "Dawn of a new decade"

The class of 80 this year made an imprint on Frankton High School and the Frankton community. They will be long remembered for helping promote spirit throughout the school. They built a pyramid at the sectional pep session and won the spirit stick. Phil Hiatt helped to make the Senior Class well-remembered, also by being the school's mascot.

They started out their busy, final year at F.H.S. by nominating Homecoming Queen candidates Nancy Hosier, Carole O'Bryant, Tammy Hall, Peggy Clark and Tracie Fincher. Carole O'Bryant was crowned queen. The theme for Homecoming was Bugs Bunny and the Seniors gave a fighting effort with "Lett-uce stir up a victory." Other queens in the class of 80 were Eran Hall—Jr. Miss and Laura Small—prom queen.

The Seniors prepared for graduation from the beginning of the year, but the real preparations started when they received their announcements in March and their caps and gowns in April.

On April 29th the Senior girls were honored at the annual Senior Girls' Tea, which was a final send-off before graduation. On May 3rd the Juniors honored the Seniors at the prom. May 16th was grad. nite at Kings Island, something everyone looks forward to from their Freshman year.

The Seniors knew the time had come for seriousness when May 18th rolled around. This day there was some crying and some laughing, but most of all they became adults.

It's over. Our long-awaited final year of high school has come and gone. We'll never have the chance to do it again; but what's worse is that we'll never be together as a whole again. Think of the person you sat by at graduation . . . chances are you'll never see him or her ever again. The only thing we can take with us is the many memories we've stored away, and what memories! All the times we worked together to get something done, the times we acted a little crazy and the times we acted A LOT crazy, but most of all the day we didn't know quite how to act: graduation. Now we are on our own; away from the group and about to face the world.

BEING A SENIOR. ○ ○ ○
Memories that last forever.

Juniors Complete Normal Activities

The juniors started the year with successful magazine sales to raise money for the May prom. The theme was Sharing The Night Together and the colors were pink and maroon with a band called Gopher Broque. The juniors showed their spirit at sectional time by decorating a hallway and yelling at the pep sessions. Unfortunately they didn't win the spirit stick.

Sophomores Keep Busy

The sophomore class accomplished many things during the 1979-80 school year. They started things off with their Homecoming Float, that said "What's up Dog?", which took a lot of work by the sophomores.

They also voted for class officers and student council members. The elected officers were Brian Kennedy—Pres., Heidi Faust—V. Pres., Laura O'Donnell—Treas., and Lisa Callahan—Sec. The chosen student council representatives were Brian Kennedy, Heidi Faust, Jami Weaver, and Jill Burwell.

The sophomores also had to vote on their class colors.

Representatives from Anderson and Elwood Vocational schools came and talked to the sophomore class about Vocational training.

Some members of the sophomore class participated in all areas of sports, clubs, and most other extracurricular activities.

Mrs. Kennedy helps Susan Haynes get ready for a big kick.

A New Beginning...

Sponsor Mr. Sipe, Melissa Landon—president, Brad Hendrick—vice-president, Becky Legg—sec. and treasurer, Mrs. Lucas, sponsor.

Marking the beginning of their first four years in high school was class elections.

Next, their enthusiastic spirit and class sponsors, Mrs. Lucas and Mr. Sipe, led them to steal first place at Homecoming with their float featuring Bugs Bunny and Elmer Fudd.

Additional spirit boosters were cheerleaders; Marissa Beverly, Carman Hastings, Colette Hastings and Tracy Mort.

As the year progressed, the freshmen purchased class rings as mementoes of all the uncertain, and happy times, new and sometimes sad experiences their first year in high school brought them.

Creature. . . uh. . . I mean Teacher Feature!

This year the faculty here at FHS underwent several personnel changes. To start off with, last year's assistant principal Mr. Hanna became the principal of Frankton Junior High this year with Mr. Trippeer from Lapel coming here in his stead. Mr. Wilson, who taught several math courses, left for Lapel and Mr. Bauchert took his place. Mr. Bayley moved over to become athletic director when Mr. Hanna left.

There were also some changes between semesters. In the Music Department Mrs. Gregory left and was replaced by Miss Sudgen and in the Home Economics Department, Mrs. Sheets replaced Mrs. Mills. Also, Ruth Culp became Mrs. Larry Fox following her February 8th wedding.

Mrs. Andrew fulfilling one of her many obligations.

Gay Forrester named

The Junior-Senior prom involved the class of 1981 starting their planning in January. They chose the theme "Sharing the Night Together", using the colors pink and maroon to accent it.

On May 3, 1980 the prom took place at the Sr. Citizen building in Anderson. Gay Forrester, escorted by Kevin Scott, was crowned 1980 prom queen by Laura Small, 1979 prom queen. The other candidates were: Julie Flora and Duane Canfield, Janet Hartle and Joey Pedro, Melanie Jones and David Paddock, and Jill Merida and Todd Parker.

Vonnie Whitmer sang the popular theme song of the dance, accompanied by the band Gopher Baroque.

what comes naturally

Some members of the study hall come to the library to study or to read.

Mike McCallister and his band played for the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Rick Taylor wires up a light socket at Vocational School.

Jennie Bond concentrates on her studies as a Freshmen.

Class of 80 Dawn's

Frankton High School class of 1980 commencement was held Sunday, May 18, 1980, in front of a packed gym. Following the band's Processional, Kevin Ault, 3rd Ranking Senior, gave the invocation. Miss Nancy Sugden and her concert choir performed "With A Voice of Love" and "If We Only Had Love".

Ben Hall, Salutatorian, gave his last suggestions to his classmates. Then Jeff Furnish, class President, introduced the speaker J.V. Boles, Judge of Hendricks Circuit Court. His speech which was brief and well written, challenged them not to forget their other, sometimes silent, classmates. Eran Hall, Valedictorian, followed speaker Boles with her traditional speech.

Gordon Kerkhoff, Principal, presented the class to Gerald Roudebush, Superintendent, who awarded diplomas to the graduating students. David Bartlow, Sponsor, instructed them to change their tassels and following the Benediction by Shelia Nigibert, 4th Ranking Senior, 149 new adults were turned out in the world. Happiness and sadness were shown on the graduates and crowd's faces, but life goes on for the new, young adults.

Valedictorian, Eran Hall, shares her wisdom with her fellow classmates.

Deena Waymire and Toni Turbeville are a few seniors that sing in the choir for their own graduation.

a New Decade

Seniors await the changing of the tassel and the long-awaited diplomas.

Ruth Evans and Kim Hancock have mixed emotions before they hear the Processional.
