A Homecoming

With every reserved seat filled, fans lining the fence several rows deep, and many alumni cheering their alma mater, Panther fans expected to see the Panthers' fifteenth consecutive Homecoming victory. What they witnessed was an annihilation of Madison Grant, 48-0.

The Panther gridders played an almost perfect game, allowing the Argylls to acquire only six first downs. The attack was led by a determined Coach Hughes. "I can't say enough about the players," he stated. "We played hard, and we had the intensity." The shut out of Madison Grant put the Panthers 6-0 overall and 5-0 in the C.I.C., tied with Mississinewa.

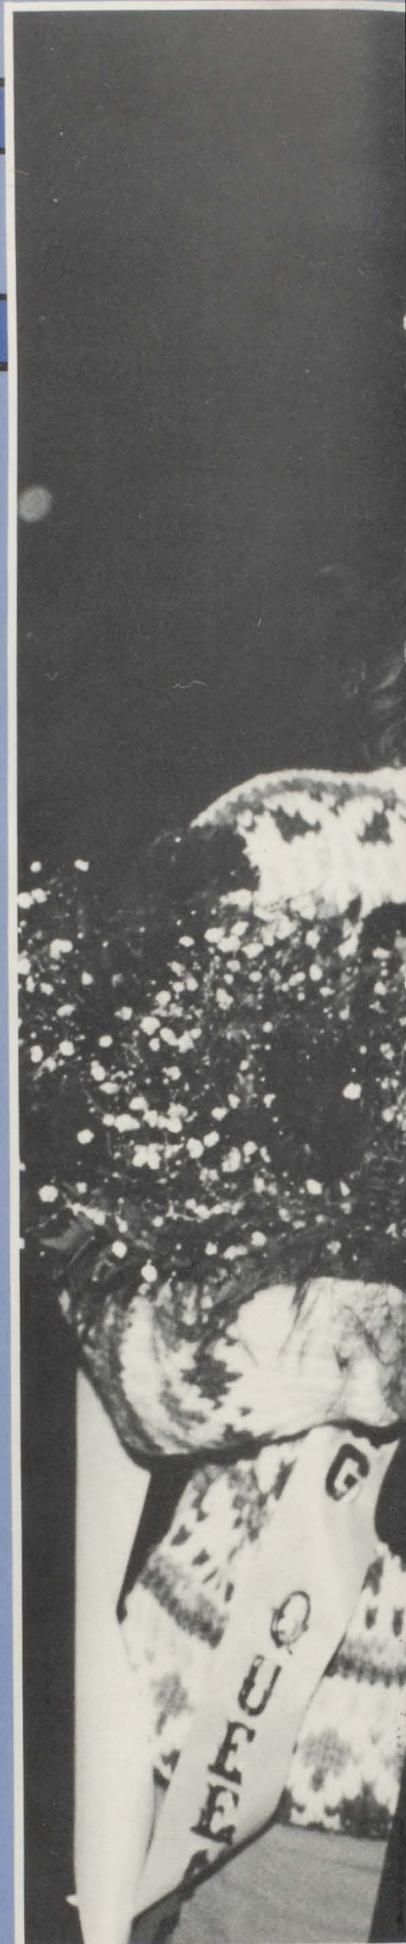

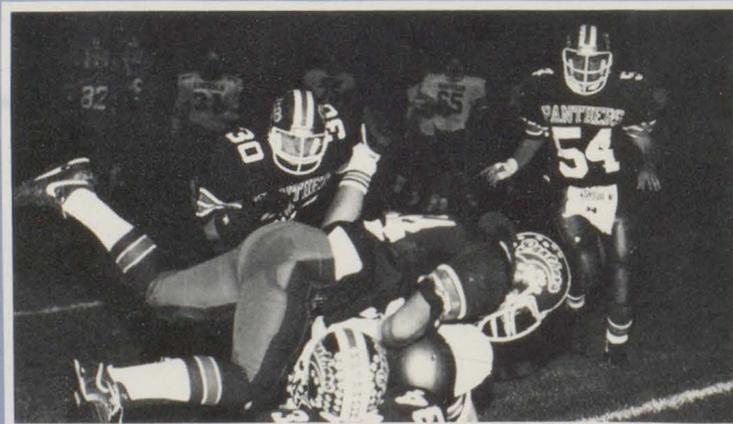

The game was not the only excitement felt in Panther Stadium Friday night, however. The tension built as everyone awaited the announcement of the 1988 Homecoming queen. The tension was relieved when Michelle McQuitty, 1987 Homecoming queen, crowned Daphne Kelich, the 1988 queen. Daphne's enthusiasm spread to everyone around her as friends and relatives congratulated her.

Red and blue balloons floating through the air, Panther fans dressed in school colors with a mum to show their support for the team, many screaming alumni, and a Panther victory are all worth recording.

Powder Puff Coaches Express Thoughts

"It was very frustrating at times, but the junior girls worked hard." Eric Caldwell

"Coaching the seniors was a memorable experience, and a feeling of closeness developed between the players and coaches." Joey Martin

"The junior girls really did well." Scott Stanley

"Being a coach is very frustrating since I ended up sitting out a varsity game for losing my temper." Ed Parsons

Seniors Staci Springer, Renee Lewis, Toni Shepard, Kim Barton, Beth Raines, and Charlotte Pavan celebrate their 8-0 win over the juniors.

Chris Noone, escorted by Daphne Kelich, was crowned the 1988 Homecoming king at halftime at the junior-senior powder puff game. "It was an honor to be selected," said Chris.

Got the Spirit

The 1988 Homecoming week was a big success. There were three dress-up days. Wednesday was scum day, and students dressed in old, torn clothes. Summer day was Thursday, and students wore summer outfits. On Friday, students displayed their Panther pride by wearing red and blue with hats and shades.

One of many activities leading up to Homecoming on Friday was the annual junior-senior powder puff game. The senior girls edged the juniors, 8-0. Approximately 450 students attended the game to cheer the powder puff teams. At halftime the Homecoming king candidates were introduced with their escorts. The candidates were Mark Courtney, Wally Moody, Chris Noone, Gabe Garner, and Matt Rice. Chris Noone was crowned the 1988 Homecoming king. Following the powder puff game was the bonfire with 250 people attending.

The announcers of the powder puff game were Rob Frye, Mike Stone, Mike Hoffman, Jason Hester, and Rich Champion. At halftime they played "We Are The Champions" to fire up the seniors. Referees for the event were Mr. Paquin, Mr. Goens, and Mr. Boley. Dress-up days, powder puff, a king, and announcers created spirit worth recording.

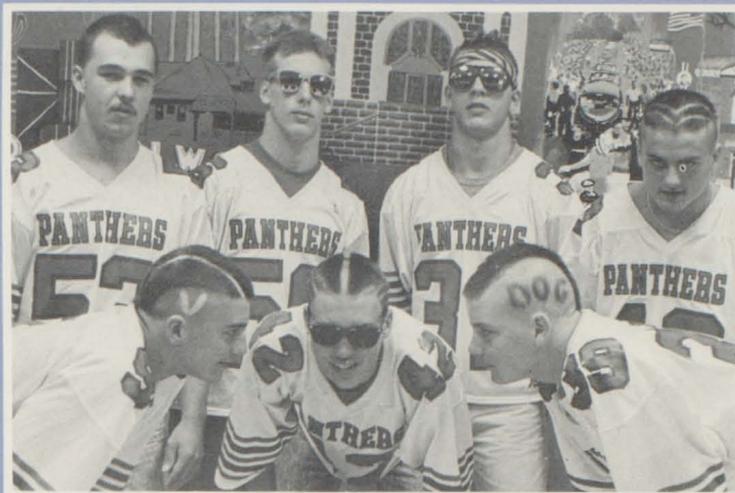

Seniors Rob Frye, Jason Hester, Mike Stone, and Mike Hoffman stop to show their spirit while announcing the 1988 junior-senior powder puff game.

Brad Arbuckle contributes his car, disguised as a Mexican sombrero, for the Homecoming parade for Spanish club. He has been a member of Spanish club for three years.

Shelley Stone and Alicia Yates exhibit a popular fad, female students wearing their boyfriend's class or athletic jackets.

Daphne Kelich, Stacey Hoppel, Amy Groover, Marci Lee, and Lynne Fettig wear plaid, big sweaters, and scarves, popular fads of the year.

Brett Mosbaugh, Mike Davis, Jamie High, William Hoss, Shawn Loar, Ed Parsons, and Todd Conwell display their creativity with lines, words, and painted heads as the new fad for this year's football season.

Class rings on chains, wrapped with angora or dental floss, are a stylish fad.

E.C.H.S Student's "Have the Look"

One of this year's biggest fads is sending balloons or flowers to friends for birthdays, big games, and holidays. Eric Caldwell, Niki Wolff, and Anita Williams prepare to make deliveries.

In the past decades fads have come and fads have gone. In the '50's bobby socks, rolled up jeans, pageboy and flat top hairstyles, and pointed, black-rimmed glasses were "IN" fads. When that decade was over, those styles were replaced with new ones.

The '70's was the wild and unforgettable decade of bell bottoms, silk shirts with pointy collars, thick heeled shoes, long straight hairstyles, mini skirts, and knee-length boots.

Fads come and fads go, but they also can return. In the 1980's they do. Everyone wears what they want, and no one is labeled "OUT" if that is his style.

People have brought back the styles of past decades with a new twist or flair. Bobby socks were white; now they are popular in multiple colors. Jeans have returned rolled up but with a new twist; they have holes and are bleached out in spots. The buzzed look is back also but with a new flair, stripes and color. In the '80's there are new fads like frosted jeans and colored socks worn outside jeans, cropped shirts, baggy sweaters and pants, biking pants, and high top tennis shoes.

Fads and styles are forever changing. Don't you wonder what your children will be wearing in the decades to come?

Sophomores Brian Coryell and Shane Webb stop at Shane's locker to change their books and prepare to go to their next class.

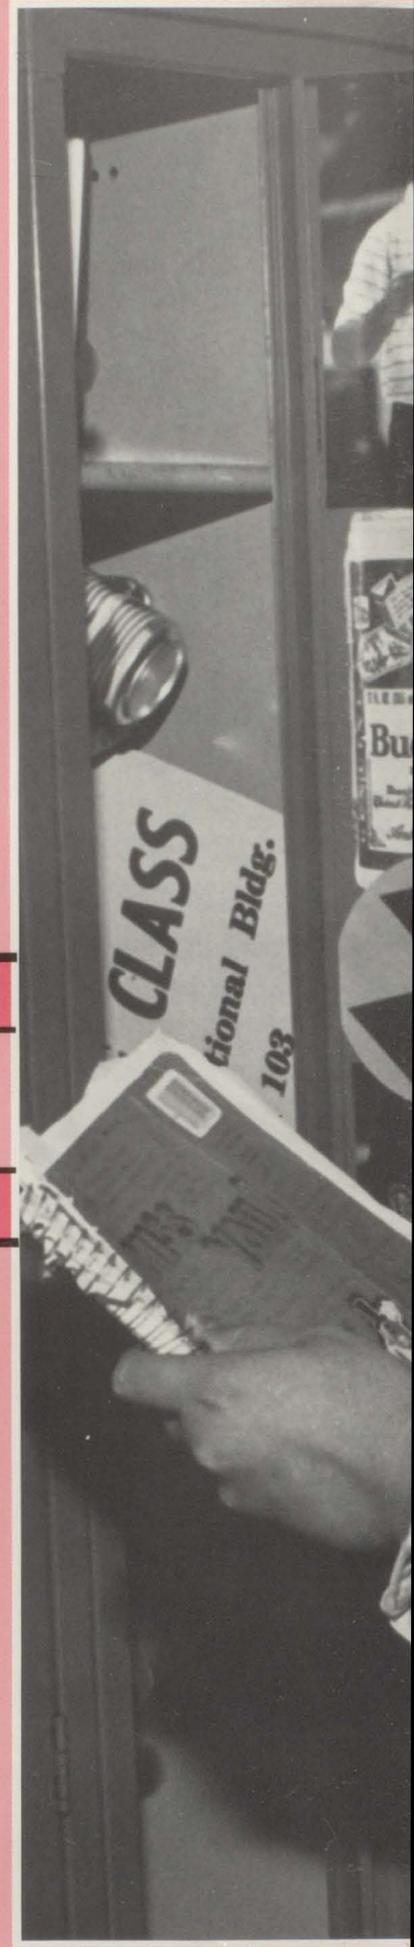

Senior Melanie Tolle and sophomore Kenny Sallee sit in the hall at lunch and discuss their weekend plans.

Vehicles are in the parking lot on a daily basis. Many of these cars, trucks, vans, and jeeps belong to faculty members and administrators, but the majority belongs to the students.

Desiree Ochoa drives her mother's car around town and to school with her friends. To help pay for gas and maintenance, she works at the Marathon Service Station.

Chris Arbuckle purchased his car from his mother and father for $50. He works to pay for gas, parts, and tune-ups, and to improve his car, he has painted it, replaced the motor, carpeting, upholstery, and tires.

Bill Beeman drives "The Beast" to school every day. He bought it from a friend, and it is his car. Bill works at Jim Dandy to pay for his car's necessities and is starting to restore and repaint it.

Bob Rickabaugh received his car from his parents. Improvements include new tires, a new engine, $300 in chrome, new dome lights, a new fan clutch, and traction bars.

Rob Frye received his car from his parents. To help pay for gas, he works at Marsh Supermarket. The only addition has been new tires.

Margy Burke, Leigh Baker, Julie Bastian, Shelley Stone, and Anne Barnes display smiles as they impersonate clowns for the Dance Kaleidoscope production sponsored by the Tri-Kappa Sorority.

Shivering close together to stay warm are physical education students Stephanie Bannon, Bill Dailley, and Dora Sosbe.

Extraordinary Facilities Unveiled

Dusty Jones takes advantage of the new swimming facilities during his physical education class. Students involved were given the opportunity to make use of the facilities to fulfill their class requirements.

Mr. Richard Merritt, superintendent, Dr. Dean Evans, state superintendent of schools, and Mr. George Dudley, assistant superintendent, display their enthusiasm at the dedication.

High school and middle school students have had good experiences using the new auditorium and natatorium this year. Since the building's completion before the 1988-89 school year, school and community organizations have used the facilities for concerts, drama productions, student convocations, swim parties, the Swimmers of Elwood Aquatic League's practices, and special assemblies such as the dedication of the middle school and shared facilities.

E.E.T.C., Elwood Education Through Culture, as well as school and community organizations have planned many performances for the future, and these facilities will be enjoyed by students and community members for years to come.

Put On Your

Dances are a time for students to relax and step to the beat of the music. The publications staff sponsored a yearbook dance on September 19 which enabled students and returning graduates to receive their 1987-88 yearbooks. Approximately 235 people attended; this was an opportunity to gather with friends and sign yearbooks.

The annual Fall Fantasy dance, sponsored by Latin club, was held on November 19. The semi-formal dance was accented with carousel horses and pastel colors, a perfect background for photographs taken by Life-Touch. There were approximately 300 students attending the dance with music provided by Unique Lighting and Sound.

The Belles and Beaus Valentine's Day dance, sponsored by Spanish club, was held on February 11. Students in semi-formal wear danced to popular music offered by the disc jockeys from Dance Video while the air was filled with red streamers, balloons, and floating hearts. Pictures were taken of couples and friends to keep for future memories.

A Tom McKean dance was held on March 31. This dance was held to help students to "Say No to Drugs." There were also many after-game dances held this year.

Peter Jenson, Andy Crowder, Nathan Elsworth, Chad Woolums, and Danny Jackson look through the 1987-88 yearbooks at the annual Yearbook dance.

Edge of a Dream

"On the Edge of a Dream," held on April 29, 1989, was a big success due to much planning, long hours of work, and determination to make this the best prom. Class sponsor Mrs Diana Weddell, co-chairpersons Julie Bastian and Kim Brown, and other juniors helped to make this a prom worth recording. The colors were silver, royal blue, light blue, and navy. Juniors added a change of pace this year with over 2,000 blue and silver balloons, stars, moonbeams, clouds, and Christmas lights which were hung in the entrance and main room for the effect of stars. Also the fathers of juniors were doormen, and freshman attendants escorted the couples to their tables. Glasses were given as favors to the 250 people who attended.

At 11:30 the grand march for the king and queen candidates began. Students attending the prom elected Jenny Linder and Joby Gibbons as the royal couple. The queen's court consisted of Lisa Chriss, Rae Anne Curtis, Kari Hubble, and Staci Springer. The king's court consisted of John Bunch, Mike Peeper, and Roger York.

Tammi Collins and Chris Lovell enjoy the romantic atmosphere while dancing to a slow song.

Only Just Begun Our Future

Some assistance on the finishing touches is given to Kyle Heflin by Sean Murphy.

One hundred and fifty-three seniors graduated Sunday, June 4, 1989. Nineteen seniors graduated with an academic honors diploma, and fifteen graduated with a 3.5 or plus grade point average. Jeanne Armstrong spoke on "Everything We Ever Learned" while Wendy Cross spoke on "We've Only Just Begun." The last speaker, Rob McCord, spoke on "Love One Another." Gordon Paquin presented awards to valedictorian Jeanne Armstrong and salutatorian Amy Groover. Superintendent Richard Merritt presented the diplomas to the graduates. After the diplomas were given, Charlotte Pavan dedicated a poem to the class of 1989, and Joby Gibbons announced, "Seniors . . . Graduates!"

The wrestlers stay after school to condition for the on-coming season at a practice session.

At the Sound

When the bell rings at 3:10, many students scatter to many destinations. Some students are seen with gym bags heading for the gymnasium while others are leaving the parking lot. After hour action is greatly looked forward to by a large percentage of Elwood students.

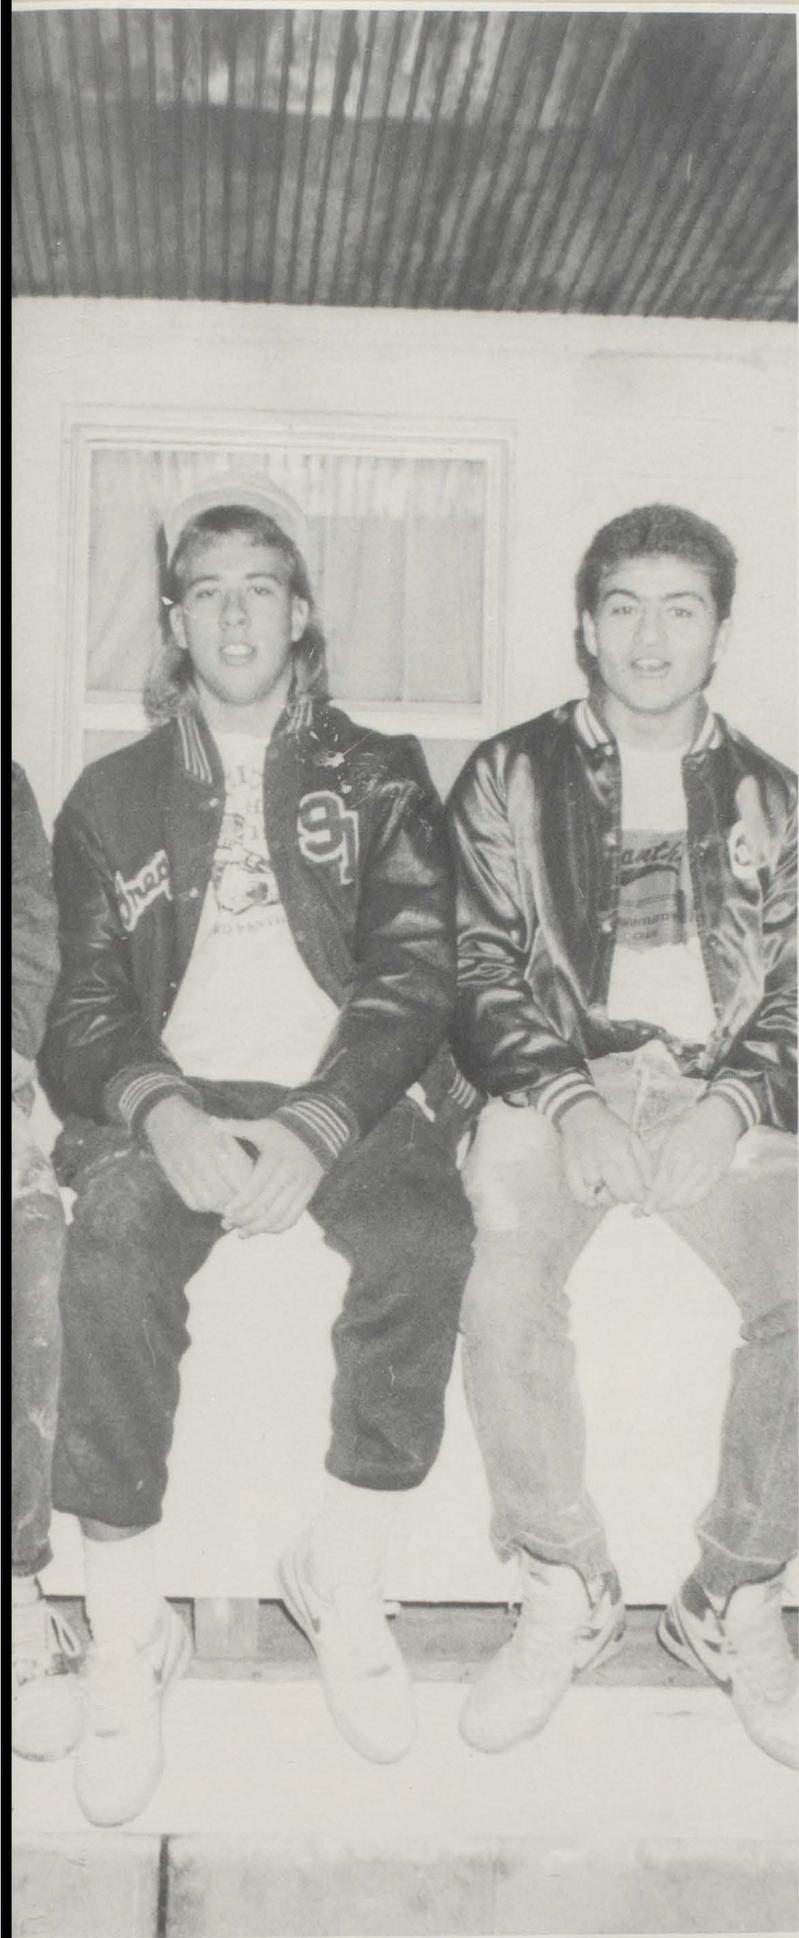

Approximately thirty percent of our students have after school jobs. Most are seen working in restaurants while others pump gas, wash cars, or work in offices. These jobs give students the opportunity to earn money, meet responsibilities, and learn to deal with people.

When the parking lot clears, some students meet their friends and go straight for the "L." This tradition is still in effect. A lot of students spend after hours riding in cars and visiting at T-Way.

There are some students who go straight home after school to do homework, babysit, sleep, watch the soaps, or raid the refrigerator. There are many other activities that students take part in after school. These include club meetings, play practice, athletic practices, and some serve detention. It's worth recording that after hour action is spent in many different ways by many different individuals.

of the Bell . . .

Pat Creamer, receiver for the Panthers, flies up to the football on the practice field.

Sophomores Toby Rickabaugh and Greg Hofer and senior Jason Hunsberger sit on the porch and watch the cars go by on the "L."

Spirit — Let's

Panther spirit hysteria swept through Elwood High School this year and with good reason. Elwood's athletic teams had much success. C.I.C. titles were won by the boys' tennis, girls' cross-country, football, wrestling, and volleyball teams. For the wrestling and volleyball teams the winning didn't stop there. The volleyball team went on to win the sectional. The wrestling team won the Madison County Tourney, sectional, and advanced Mike Cast to the regional. Many pep sessions were held for the teams, lockers were decorated, and spirit days were held to help spread spirit. Panther jams and license plates were sold to promote school spirit. Panther hysteria is here to stay!

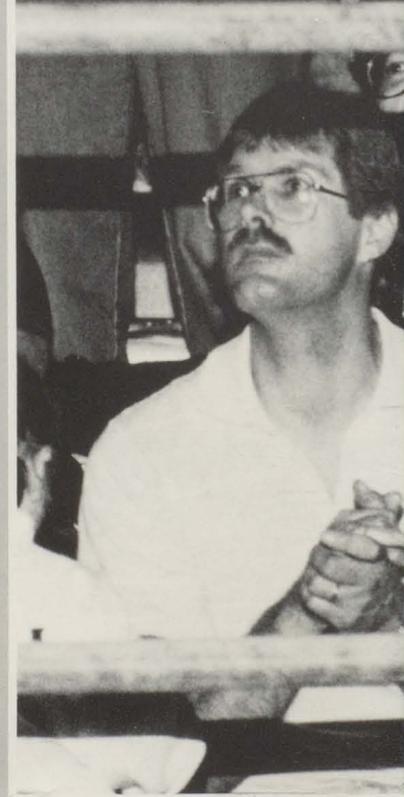

Shawn Steffler and Brad Hahn paint their faces red and blue to show their spirit for the Homecoming game.

During the volleyball pep session, the seniors stand up and "Sound Off" their school spirit.

Mrs. Mindy Parker participates in hat, shades, and button day as many teachers do to show their school spirit.

Seniors Tammy Dellinger, Stefanie Grohmann, Gabe Garner, and Rob Frye take part in hat day during spirit week.

Throughout the school year wrestling supporters and cheerleaders decorated lockers to promote spirit.

Parents and other Elwoodites are our greatest fans! They wear red and blue, clap, and cheer the teams to victory. We appreciate their support.

Olympic swimmer Janet Evans won three gold medals at the 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul, South Korea. The 17-year-old senior high school student from Placentia, California, set a world record in the 400 meter freestyle.

Olympic runner Florence Griffith Joyner, the glamour girl of track, dazzled the 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul, South Korea, with lightening speeds, flashy track outfits, and long, painted fingernails. She won three gold medals and one silver medal.

Dedicated Couple Retires

The teaching and administrative duties of Wilfred George Dudley, assistant superintendent, concluded on June 30, 1989, after 36 years of dedication to the Elwood Community School System. Mr. Dudley concluded his career which first began with a teaching assignment at LaCross, Indiana, in 1955 prior to coming to Elwood in 1956 where he taught industrial arts at the high school until he became assistant principal from 1964 to 1969 at Wendell Willkie High School. From 1969 to 1977 he was principal at Oakland Elementary School and was appointed assistant superintendent in 1977. He readily admits that he thoroughly enjoyed the years and "would do it over again." Mr. Dudley's philosophy has always been, "You have to care and love children to be a teacher."

Mr. Dudley's responsibilities as assistant superintendent involved serving as the director of the school transportation system, the school corporation lunch program, the Prime Time program, Chapter I and Chapter II programs, the Title IV programs, and the elementary curriculum. He also served as the hearing officer for the corporation.

Mr. Dudley is affiliated with several organizations including the Master Masons, the Shriners, the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis Club, and the Elwood Country Club Board of Directors. He has served on various committees at the First United Methodist Church including the board of trustees. He is a member of the Elks Lodge, the Elwood Country Club, and the American Legion. He has served on the YMCA board and was the United Way representative for the Elwood Community School System since 1977. He is also a member of Phi Delta Kappa and Epsilon Pi Tau. His hobbies include traveling, golfing, fishing, and woodcraft, and he intends to pursue these hobbies more during his retirement.

Mrs. Susan Dudley, a secretary for Elwood Community High School, retired on June 16, 1989. Mrs. Dudley was a secretary for our school system for 14 years. Her duties at the high school included being the assistant principal's secretary, being responsible for the daily attendance records, and assisting others.

Mrs. Dudley remembers many highlights of her years at the high school: she "broke in" four new assistant principals, worked with pleasant people, saw the high school and middle school buildings connect, and watched students mature through their high school career and return to visit her after graduation to express their gratitude. Mrs. Dudley also readily admits that she would definitely "do it all over again." Her philosophy is that if you're dealing with the public, you need a good sense of humor, and things will run smoothly.

Mrs. Dudley is involved in Tri Kappa Sorority, past president, Indiana Association Educational Secretaries, and a member of the First United Methodist Church where she is a member of the choir. Her hobbies include reading, golfing, yardwork, woodworking, painting, and traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley have been married for 37 years. They are the parents of two daughters, Pamula Howk, and Brenda Skarin. Pam is Grant County's health nurse. She is married to Jay Howk, a science teacher and football coach at Eastbrook High School, and they are the parents of Andrew and Sabrina. Pam and her family reside in VanBuren, Indiana. Brenda teaches at Northern Illinois University in the pathology department, and she has her own private business in pathology. Brenda is married to David Skarin, and they are the parents of a son, Evan. Brenda and her family reside in Warrington, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley plan to enjoy their hobbies more, visit with their children and grandchildren more, enjoy the lakes, and travel. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley, thank you for your contributions to our school system. You both will be greatly missed.

Mr. George Dudley

Essential to Our School

Mrs. Mary Jane Mengelt

Mrs. Debra Pearson

There are many special people at Elwood Community High School. Cafeteria workers, custodians, and substitute teachers are all the people who work behind the scenes, and play an important role in our school day. In the cafeteria there are nine workers who work hard everyday to serve lunch to the students, the faculty, and the administrators. Diana Daleure is the cafeteria manager; she orders all the food items, makes out the menus, and makes sure everything runs smoothly. Students depend on the cafeteria workers everyday for a nutritious lunch.

The custodians work hard to keep the building in good condition, and they are called upon throughout the day to make a repair or to set up for activities being held. Custodians maintain our school well.

Substitute teachers work hard to assist our faculty. Many teachers who are seen regularly are Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Scircle, Mrs. Mengelt, Miss. Kelich, and Mr. Holtzclaw.

A big thank you to all of these special people for the time and effort they give to us. They are an essential part of our school.

“This year’s team lacked in numbers but didn’t lack in desire. I enjoyed teaching these young men about Panther football, and I hope they continue with the program. — Coach Murray

Looking Toward Tradition

The junior varsity football team ended its season with a 7-0 record because of many strengths. The offense had a very strong running attack that was unbeatable. The defense was also a major strength, a defense which gave up only 24 points and attained two shutouts.

“I enjoyed playing football and plan to enjoy it more next year. This year was a great learning experience.” — Jason Springer

Some of the key players were Troy Powell, who was a major force in the defense from his nose guard position. The offense had a running attack that consisted of

Todd Conwell and Bill Shallenberger, a backfield that was unstoppable. Running the offense for the junior varsity was junior quarterback Jason Wheeler.

Due to the limited number of 17 players, the freshmen didn’t have the season they wanted. “This season’s goal wasn’t to win games but to teach the kids about Panther football and to prepare them for next year,” stated Coach Goens. They ended the season with a 3-5 record.

Jason Springer and Shane Gibson showed a lot of leadership for the freshmen and should contribute to the junior varsity team next season. “Doug Elledge was the player who would play anywhere for you and would do his best,” commented Coach Goens. Both of the coaches hope these young men continue with the program.

A Season Worth Recording

Dedication best describes the 1988 Elwood Panther football team. This dedication enabled this group of young men to be the strongest team in the conference, ending the season with a 8-0 record and C.I.C. champs.

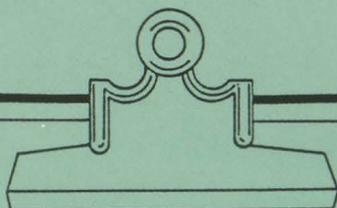

“My most enjoyable moments were probably beating Tipton for the first time since I played in high school and the Homecoming game which we have won for years.” — Mike Davis

The Panthers displayed an enormous amount of strength in their defense, a defense which only relinquished a total of 60 points and 4 shutouts. Other strong points the Panthers displayed were their depth in numerous positions, senior leadership, outstanding talent, extensive hard work in the off season, and a total team commitment.

In sectional play the Panthers won against Alexandria, 34-12, and against Winchester came a 47-10 victory. In the championship game at Mississinewa, the second time the Panthers met the Indians, Mississinewa won 20-13, and unfortunately this ended the Panthers' chances of returning to the Hoosier Dome. Coach Hughes felt that with a winning attitude his players will continue a winning tradition in Panther football.

A Season of Improvement

Although the men's cross country team did not have a winning season, 2-8 overall, they did meet the goal that they set at the beginning of the season, to win a dual meet. This accomplishment came against Shenandoah, 27-30.

“This was a very enjoyable group to coach. Not only did we have a good season, but we had fun.” — Coach Craun

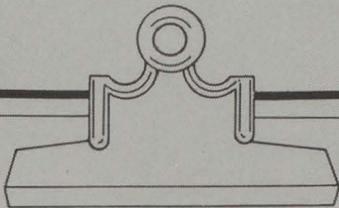

According to Coach Craun, the weakness of the men's team was the lack of runners to consistently run with the leaders of the opposing teams. The strength of the team was displayed by the leadership of senior captain Rich Champion and the outstanding ability of sophomore Robbie Barr. Robbie shows promise for the next two years.

The women's team ended with a record of 8-2 overall. Ruby Simpson led the Lady Panthers by capturing the C.I.C. crown with a time of 15:48. She also placed 7th in the sectional with a time of 15:55 and 35th, 15:54, in the regional.

The co-captains of the women's team were Melanie Tolle and Stacey Hoppe. Coach Craun stated that he was pleased with the two seniors' leadership and dedication. Both achieved their best times at C.I.C.: Melanie with a 16:50 and Stacey with a 17:41, recovering from a knee problem.

A Season to Celebrate

The senior leadership and positive attitudes were the foundation of the successful 1988 volleyball season. The varsity team ended its season with a 23-7 record as well as winning its first C.I.C. and sectional title. The dedication and determination of the varsity volleyball players enabled them to have their best season record in Elwood's history.

"In my four years of volleyball, I'm glad that we got that far in my senior year."

Amy Groover

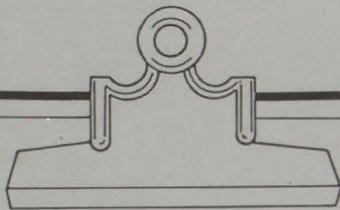

The teams started their season by setting goals that they wanted to achieve.

They accomplished the first goal by beating Peru to win the C.I.C. crown. The lady Panthers also played their best game of the year by beating Anderson Highland in three sets for their first sectional title.

The junior varsity team was victorious as they finished with an 18-4 season record and placed 2nd in the Madison County Junior Varsity Tourney.

The success of the volleyball season was due to the leadership of seniors Daphne Kelich, Rae Anne Curtis, Stacey Gosnell, and Amy Groover and the players' determination to achieve their goals. Coach Personette and Coach Murray were very pleased with the girls' performance in practice and games. The coaches believe that the entire volleyball program is on the rise and are looking forward to another great season.

Shooting Up To Par

Shooting up to par, the Panther golf team had a winning season of 8-6. The individual efforts of the players helped the team place third in the Central Indiana Conference, tying with Tipton.

“We had a winning record due to the players' individual efforts. I had a good time coaching this season.”

— Coach Hughes

Coaching golf for his first season, Mark Hughes enjoyed working with the players and preparing them for each meet. Kent John, Rob Frye, Gabe Garner, and Jim Hudson were the seniors contributing to the winning season.

The team shot its best score of the season in a meet against Tri-Central. The team won the home meet by a score of 158-186 while playing in a rain storm. Although the golf team had a winning season, the team had a major weakness with consistency in scoring well.

Coach Hughes often alternated the players from varsity to junior varsity throughout the season in order to give each player an opportunity to play.

The junior varsity team finished its season with a record of 10-2. The future for the golf team is very promising because of the young and experienced players who will be returning next year. Individual efforts and a winning record made the 1989 golf season worth recording.

A Bright Future

Even though the season was not very positive in terms of wins, the team, for the most part, kept their chins up.”
— Coach Hobbs

ven though Elwood High School’s boys varsity basketball team ended its regular season with a record of 6-14, there were many positive aspects of the season. With only two returning lettermen, many players were forced into a varsity situation they were not yet ready for. This allowed many players to gain varsity experience early. Another aspect of the season was the team’s ability to maintain a positive attitude throughout the rocky season. “I would have to look at our strength this season as the fact that the team kept working hard at improving,” stated Coach Hobbs. Leadership also played an important role in the development of the season. With only one senior, Joby Gibbons, it was difficult to handle the pressures of guiding the team alone. “It was a tough season on Joby, he shouldered much of the leadership in a very quiet manner. His aggressive play was important for the younger players to see. As the season drew to a close, Joby was missed, but not forgotten,” quoted Coach Hobbs.

The most outstanding event of the season was the aggressive play displayed against a tough Pendleton Heights team. Our young Panthers showed a fine effort before falling 60-56. Also, beating Frankton helped Elwood gain confidence.

Mark Thornberry, sophomore, aims for the hoop as Kenny Sallee watches from behind.

Young But Strong

The junior varsity team ended the season with a record of 8-12. One of their main strengths was that every game lost was a very close game. When they played the best team on the schedule, they were only beaten by two points. "We had everyone in the gym on their feet and 'the place was rockin,'" exclaimed Coach Williams. The biggest weakness of the team was the lack of experience. The goals they es-

"I think our biggest strength was that our kids were ready for any situation." — Coach Morris tablished were to improve and to be competitive. These goals were met due to the hard work and togetherness of the team members. Coach Morris and the boys' freshman basketball team blazed the season with victories. The A team ended their season, 12-5, and the B team ended at 8-6 which included two forfeits. This was the second, straight twenty win season for the freshmen. "I really enjoyed this group," stated Coach Morris. Without a doubt, it's worth recording that the most outstanding event of the season was winning the Tipton Tourney. It was the second time in two years that the team has won this tourney. Elwood beat Alexandria in the first game, 50-46, while winning over Tipton in the second game with a score of 54-48 in overtime.

Shooting For Goals

The varsity girls' basketball team ended its season with a 3-14 record. Even though not many experienced varsity players returned, the young team was able to compete well with other experienced teams. The varsity had a lot of sophomores expected to do the jobs of a junior or senior, and they did well. Coach Max Hoppel stated, "This group of girls tried to do everything that I asked. As a group they were very receptive to

"Our team was a young and inexperienced team, but we have a lot to look forward to our senior year."
— Stephanie Stewart

new ideas and changes." Although the team was young, there was outstanding senior leadership. Jeanne Armstrong and Stacey Hoppel were the two seniors who took initiative and led the team. Coach Max Hoppel is really looking forward to next year. With the experience and summer programs this team will be prepared for the 1989-90 season. The junior varsity team ended their season, 5-10. The team was also young because most of the sophomores were asked to play varsity or junior varsity. In November the team set a goal of seven wins and ended with five. "We had the chance to win four other games in the closing minutes but left with a loss." said Coach Frye. "The team was both fun and challenging. Dedication to the sport of basketball is the key to improvement in future years." added Coach Frye.

A Swinging Season

Swinging was definitely what the Panthers did this season, swinging to a 13-5 record and a team batting average of .348. "Going into the sectional the Panthers had all nine starters hitting above .300. This proved to be one of the best hitting teams Elwood has ever had," stated Coach Bomholt. Leading the offensive attack were Mike Davis and Johnny Bunch, and Chad Woolums contributed with four home runs. The Panthers scored an average of ten runs per game with Chris Noone leading the Panthers with most runs scored.

The only weakness was the Panthers' mental toughness and intensity on defense. Leading the pitching staff were Jason Kleinbub with 61 strike-outs in 37 innings and Bill Shallenberger with a record of 2-2-

4. Scott Smith ended with a 3-0 record and Johnny Bunch with a 4-1 record.

The junior varsity ended its season with a 4-5 record. Several players who were a part of the team's success were Ryan Robinson and Matt Davis. "Ryan recorded all the wins for the Panthers while Matt led the team in nearly all offensive categories," stated Coach Morris.

"A special thanks goes to four year manager and my right hand man, David Bowyer."
— Coach Bomholt.

Sophomores Amber Nance and Shelley Stone raise the spirit of the crowd by cheering, "Get up for the Panthers!"

For a fundraiser the cheerleaders sold Panther jams. Alicia Yates and Anne Barnes are selling a pair to Kari Hubble.

Alison Scott, junior, served as Polly Panther for the 1988-89 school year. Alison enjoyed displaying her talents and promoting spirit.

Wally Moody and Brian Parker are Elwood High School's male cheerleaders. They display their talent during home basketball games.

“Being captain of the varsity squad has made my senior year very memorable. I have enjoyed working with everyone. I’m really going to miss all the cheerleaders and cheering for the Panthers.”

— Marci Lee

Rockin' To The Top

The cheerleaders were involved in many activities and fund raisers in order to purchase new uniforms. During the summer they sold raffle tickets for a $100 gift certificate at Spurgeon's Department Store, held a “rock-a-thon,” and set up a sponge throw booth at Elwood's Glass Festival. The cheerleaders also raffled off a portable T.V./radio and sponsored many dances.

“Sponsoring the cheerleaders presented a great challenge for me! It seemed I never stopped learning things.”

— Kay Marcuson

Also, the cheerleaders participated in two competitions, the Madison County Fair and the Daleville Fair. They performed three to five minute routines consisting of many cheers and chants. The cheerleaders attended the UCA cheerleading camp at Ball State University this summer and brought home many new cheers and chants. All of the cheerleading squads were evaluated on their cheers and chants and were awarded ribbons and a spirit stick for their enthusiasm during the week.

The cheerleaders had two new sponsors, Mrs. Kay Marcuson and Mrs. Anna Brunner. These ladies accompanied the cheerleaders to all games and assisted with other activities. They also elected the male cheerleaders: Mike Leisure, Eric Caldwell, Wally Moody, and Brian Parker.

Swing Batter Batter!!!

"I enjoyed playing even though we didn't win a lot. With more experience we will be able to reach our goal by having a winning season."

— Kris Slayton

The 1989 girls' softball team ended its season with a 3-9 record. Despite the record the girls displayed improvement and dedication throughout the season. This year's team was a young team; it consisted of five juniors, nine sophomores, and three freshmen. With the whole team returning next year plus up-coming freshmen, they should have a strong and experienced team that will be able to compete well with other schools. Throughout the season the team showed that they were capable of hitting and fielding but were unable to put the two together. "At one game we would be playing well on defense and not on offense, and the next game it would be the opposite," stated Coach Bourff. The team was also acceptable to change because there were girls on the team who were put into positions that they had never played before, and they did well.

Coach Bourff decided this year that the girls should become closer as a team by spending time together, not just during games and practices, therefore; the girls swam, ate at Pizza Hut, and took turns feeding the team the night before a game by having the girls come over for dinner. The team is looking forward to reaching new goals for next year.

Triple Crown and More

Hard work does pay off! Hard work is exactly what this group of young men did this year. It showed by winning the Madison County tournament, the 1st time in 19 years, winning the sectional for the second year in a row, winning the C.I.C. title, having 12 men advance to the regional tournament and one advance to semi-state.

"I got in shape, probably the best shape I'll ever be in, in my life. The season was hard, but it was a lot of fun."
— Jason Hunsberger

The coaches feel that the program is headed in the right direction but could be more successful if more students could participate in A.A.U. wrestling because a wrestler can gain 20-30 match experience.

The seniors showed leadership in practice and in meets. All seniors won at least one match. "Mike Cast was known as the 'Comeback Kid.'" "Mike started the season by being sick for four weeks, but once he returned, he worked very hard to get in condition and won the county, conference, sectional, and regional titles and advanced to semi-state," stated Coach Boley.

This season's awards were given to Mike Cast, varsity M.V.P. and King of the Mat; Chris Lovell, junior varsity M.V.P.; David Emery, mental attitude award and Allan Hatfield, most improved wrestler.

The team would like to thank the support group which made banners, signs, and decorated lockers. This was a real motivator for the team.

Order on the Courts

“Overall, this team had the best attitude of any group that I have coached.”

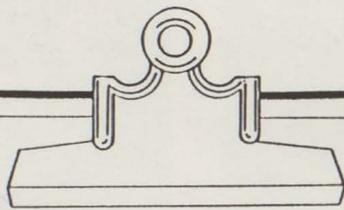

— Max Hoppel

The 1988 boys' tennis team, coached by Max Hoppel, had a very successful season. The varsity was 15-2, and the junior varsity ended with 7-3. There were many accomplishments during the season. The varsity team brought home a C.I.C. championship from Peru, Indiana, and Matt Rice, Peter Jensen, and Jason Marcuson were conference champs. “They were a group of tough little street fighters who never quit,” said Coach Hoppel.

The senior leadership seemed to be the main contributor to the success of this year's team. Matt Rice and Peter Jensen had an overall record of 20-0. Eric Smith ended at 13-5. “They had great attitudes,” said Coach Hoppel. “This was the closest team that I have coached. They truly cared, and I love these young men,” Hoppel stated.

The girls' tennis team had a favorable season where senior leadership was the main strength. The varsity ended with 4-7, and the junior varsity at 2-6. The team placed second in the C.I.C., second in the Peru Invitational, and won the first match in the sectional. “Our wins will be down next year, but we could be very competitive in two years,” stated Coach Hoppel.

Fast Times at Elwood High

The boys' and girls' track teams continued to rebuild the program. They worked hard and shattered many records.

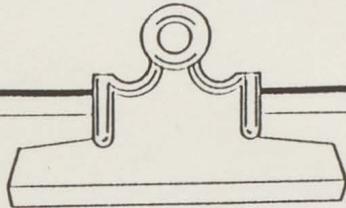

The girls' track team, which had a record of 3-5, was led by the senior leadership of Rae Anne Curtis, Stacey Hoppel, Melanie Tolle, and two foreign exchange students Sofia Johansson and Tessa Tuohikumpu. Rae Anne Curtis broke her 100 meter dash record of 12.6 with a 12.4

time. The 400 meter relay team which consisted of Julie Bastian, Sissy Beeman, Leigh Baker, and Rae Anne Curtis broke the school record three times this season with a final time of 51.2. Many girls qualified for the sectional including Rae Anne Curtis, the 400 meter relay team members, the 1600 meter relay team, Stacey Hoppel, Julie Bannister, and Ruby Simpson. Rae Anne Curtis and the 400 relay team went on to the regional to end their season there.

The boys' track team ended the season with a 1-8 record. Senior Mike Kantner was chosen as the most outstanding track member. Boys qualifying for the sectional were the 400 relay team consisting of Daniel Pantos, Doug Elledge, Jim Peters, and Greg Mengelt. Jason Kleinbub qualified in the long jump, and Jim Peters qualified in the high jump.

INTRODUCING...

T hespian Troupe #58

The drama club had a successful year in producing two plays which were A Christmas Carol and The Butler Did It. The plays together took approximately 150 hours to produce, and the total attendance of both plays was about 420.

The actors acted as their own stage crew by helping with props and furniture. Most of the props, costumes, and furniture were either rented, made, or donated.

A Christmas Carol

A Christmas Carol, written by Charles Dickens, was performed on November 26th and 27th of 1988 in the Elwood Community Auditorium. This was the first time a high school play had been performed in the new facility. Ebenezer Scrooge, portrayed by Rob McCord, was determined that all the cheer involved with Christmas was not going to change his feelings. Mrs. Cratchit's goose dinner did not convince Scrooge to celebrate Christmas. When the Ghost of Christmas Past, portrayed by Angie Brumett, Ghost of Christmas Present, portrayed by Mike Stone, and the Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come, portrayed by Tammy Heater, haunted Scrooge, he began to change his mind. The heartless and despised Scrooge became benevolent, cheerful, and loving during the recollection of past Christmases as a school-boy, young lover, and an apprentice.

Brian Blankenship, Scrooge's nephew, and Rob McCord, Ebenezer Scrooge, relate each other's thoughts concerning Christmas.

Matt Hussong, Angela Brumett, and Anna Barnett discuss the real meaning of Christmas.

Sophomore Debbie Croy, the narrator, portrays the Spirit of Christmas in the play The Christmas Carol.

Senior Angela Brumett portrays Miss Maple, a well-known society hostess, in the spring play while Anna Barnett looks on. Angie has had a lead in numerous plays during her high school career.

The Butler Did It!

The Butler Did It! was performed March 10th and 11th in the Elwood Community Auditorium. The play was a farce which poked fun at famous mystery writers.

Miss Maple, a well-known society hostess, portrayed by senior Angela Brumett, held a weekend mystery party on Turkey Island for the writers. The mystery writers came in the costume of the characters from their books. During the evening disturbing tricks occurred; therefore, the weekend didn't turn out as planned. The cast consisted of Anna Barnett, Brian Blankenship, Angie Brumett, Tiffany Crandall, Debbie Croy, Matt Hussong, Rob McCord, Heather Rogers, Rich Tippey, and Joy Wright.

ORIENTAL

Honors Project For Elementary Students

The freshman world history and English honor students studied Oriental literature and history as a major part of their curriculum this year. The students held an Oriental festival in the auditorium, and the sponsors were Mrs. Merritt and Miss Mercer. Attending the festival were approximately 108 second grade students and faculty members from Edgewood Elementary School. The second grade elementary students were pleasant, enthusiastic and cooperative, and they had prepared themselves well by studying Oriental history prior to the program. Each child was greeted by an honor student in the language of the four countries represented.

Freshman Heather Rogers taught a Phillipino stick dance, to the second grade Edgewood students.

Performing as the dragon were Heidi Huntsinger, Madonna Hahn, Cindy McCord, Carrie Hoppel, Allen Hatfield, Brian Thomas, and Chad Altherr.

Anna Barnett, dressed in an authentic kimono was the narrator of the story.

Chinese Dragon

The dragon was by far the main character of the story. The dragon story was written and performed by the freshman honor students with the Edgewood second grade students as an enthusiastic audience. The narrator was Anna Barnett. The same gorgeous, colorful, dragon outfit, used by the Elwood Community High School students Heidi Huntsinger, Madonna Hahn, Cindy McCord, Carrie Hoppel, Allen Hatfield, Brian Thomas, and Chad Altherr, was also used by the famous Mel Simon, owner of Union Station.

Every honor student wore an Oriental costume of some kind. Mrs. Merritt and Miss Mercer dressed in authentic Chinese coats which they purchased in Beijing, China. The students wore chop sticks and flowers in their hair, hats, and oriental robes. A dragon story, Oriental outfits, and freshman honor students made the Oriental festival a great success.

FESTIVAL

Students Thoughts

What did you enjoy most about the unit?

"I loved talking with the children and being in the play." — Anna Barnett

"The Oriental festival was the best part of the unit." — Julie Tunis

"I enjoyed the different types of literature that we read." — Brian Thomas

"I enjoyed studying about the different cultural backgrounds of the Orient." — Heidi Huntsinger

Back stage, Jennifer Gaddis, Angie Morris, Chad Altherr, Cindy McCord, Kristin Richwine, and Carrie Hoppel prepare for the Edgewood students and teachers.

Culture Relived

One of the main activities at the Oriental festival was the tea ceremony. Kristin Richwine and Andrea White learned every movement and motion from the movie "Karate Kid II."

"They really did a great job; they watched the movie many times and took the serious, Oriental attitude and perfected the movements," said Mrs. Merritt.

Kristin Richwine and Andrea White perform the tea ceremony.

Lessons Presented

Second grade students from Edgewood Elementary School were taught Oriental activities by members of the freshman honor classes. Yoga, a course of physical and mental discipline, practiced by the Hindus, was one of these activities. The students were also taught origami, the art of paper folding. In this activity each second grade student created a paper rabbit. They also learned how to fan-fold, and they each took a Chinese garden cart ride outside in front of the auditorium. Watching slides from various countries, listening to a panda story, and learning a Philipino, stick dance were other activities that the students were involved in. The Oriental festival was the concluding project of a unit titled Oriental Odyssey which was taught to the world history and English I honor students by Mrs. Merritt and Miss Mercer.

Opening the play by tapping the gong was Oriental musician Angie Morris.

Wake up! Campus Life

One popular activity of Campus Life was the monthly breakfasts. The following churches furnished breakfasts: First United Methodist Church, First Baptist Church, First Assembly of God Church, and the East Main Street Church. The activity consisted of eating breakfast and then having a presentation. The presentations were made by Mr. Garri George, Madison County Director of the Youth for Christ, Mr. Jon Hill, Director of the Elwood Y.M.C.A., Mr. Jim Compton, administrative assistant, and Miss Julie Johnson, high school teacher and referee for the IHSAA softball and volleyball. The members hope to continue the monthly breakfasts.

ORGANIZED

Club Opportunity

Campus Life is a Christian youth organization which was organized last year. Mr. Larry Hobbs was chosen as the director of this organization, and Mr. Garri George is the director of the Youth for Christ organization in Madison County. When Mr. George contacted him to ask if he would like to start a Campus Life organization in Elwood, Mr. Hobbs' first reaction was, "I don't have time, but then I thought, I have to make time."

Campus Life provides the opportunity for students to talk about all areas of life and to interact thoughts and feelings. Mr. Hobbs is really impressed with how the organization is growing, yet he feels it is still in its growing stage.

Officers of Campus Life for 1988-1989 are Melanie Tolle, secretary-treasurer; Katie Jones, president; and Angie Brumett, vice-president.

Mr. Larry Hobbs, sponsor and organizer of Campus Life, speaks to the group about the upcoming activities.

"I want to prove to students that this is an avenue where they belong; it's valuable," said Larry Hobbs, sponsor.

Assisting the Community

Saturday mornings, 8:00 A.M. to noon. Other members who helped were Rich Champion, Mike Stone, Laura Rice, Amber Metz, James Galbreath, Kim Townsend, and Ryan Anderson. Other activities included a super club meeting in Anderson, a bowling trip, and an after-game party at Mr. Hobb's house on December 10th. Also, Christmas cards were delivered to all teachers from Campus Life members.

FRIENDS AROUND

Peter Denmark

Peter Jensen, Denmark, resided with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brumett. Peter was a member of the tennis team; he played doubles with Matt Rice and ended the season with a record of 20-0. "Tennis was fun, and it kept me in shape," exclaimed Peter. Peter also enjoys downhill skiing, soccer, basketball, table tennis, and was manager for the boy's basketball team. Peter was involved in several clubs: art club, science club, and S.A.D.D.

When asked about school, Peter said that he liked America very much, and he also liked our school. Comparing schools, he explained that his school is very different than ours. "We don't choose very many of our own subjects. The daily schedule is different every day, and the school food is different than the food here." Peter's favorite food in America was pizza.

An absence of hamburgers in Sweden may be the reason why one of her favorite foods in America is Flakey Jakes' hamburgers. Other favorite foods were Pizza Hut's pizza and Mrs. Austin's bacon.

THE GLOBE

Tessa Finland

Tessa Tuohikumpu, Finland, resided with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reynolds. Tessa loved America because of its big cars, cities, and highways. "If I had the chance to be a foreign exchange student again, I would like to go out West and see the mountainous areas." Tessa's favorite things in the U.S. were tacos, pizza, Campus Life breakfasts, school activities, school trips, and the friendly American people.

Stefanie Germany

Stefanie Grohmann, Germany, resided with Mr. and Mrs. Don Garner. Stefanie was a member of the girls' basketball team, participated on Elwood High School's first swim team, was a member of Spanish club, Campus Life, S.A.D.D., and Latin club.

Commenting on the differences between the United States' and Germany's school systems, Stefanie explains, "The whole school system is different. Only students of the same age group have classes together. We have three school levels: 9th, 10th, and 13th. We also don't choose classes on our own."

Stefanie enjoyed her stay in the United States and would like to return. "I would like to come back to America when I have finished school. I think it was a great experience to have learned about your traditions."

Mika Japan

Mika Yamanishi, Japan, resided with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blaha. Mika was involved in band, drama, and jazz band; her favorite, however, was drama. "It wasn't easy for me to pretend to be an American, but I enjoyed trying."

Coming to America was a very different experience for Mika, as she explains, "Every day was so busy for me because I had to run around to every class. I was lost every day."

ACTIVE ART

Be Imaginative, Be Creative, and Let Yourself Be Art. Many students Take Advantage of the Great Opportunities Offered by the Art Club

The art club has been very creative and imaginative in their fund-raisers this year. The club sold personalized stationery, donuts every Tuesday and Thursday, and made buttons for businesses and sororities.

The club's activities have included going to Chicago on December 10th, holding work nights in the art room to help complete projects, and having a volleyball fun-night. In the spring the art club purchased a new painting and sculpture for the school.

A New Art Teacher Mrs. Deisler

Mrs. Annette Deisler, a graduate of Indiana Wesleyan University, was employed as the new art teacher this year. This was her first teaching job, and she taught basic design, sculpture, ceramics, crafts, and had a study hall at the high school. At the middle school she taught three 8th grade art classes.

While at college, Mrs. Deisler majored in art. She attended a few extra semesters to accumulate hours in studio art to get more experience in different areas.

“The thing I like most about Elwood is how much I am learning and all the individual personalities of the students.”

— Mrs. Deisler

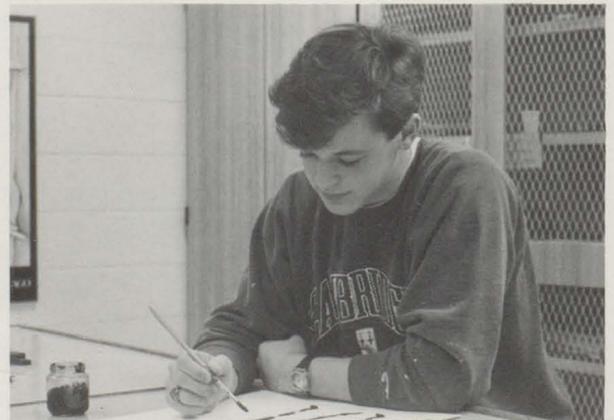

Mrs. Deisler gives advice to one of her independent art students, Dee Bryan, on her drawing of a panther.

Free to be Me Independent

Independent art students are free to be themselves. They are able to choose any project that they want to work on and then evaluate themselves for a grade when the project is completed. Before being able to enroll in this class, a student must have at least four credits in other offered art classes.

Independent art student Gabe Garner paints a silhouette of a couple in his first hour art class.

Making Room for Art

The art department has been very crowded for many years, so the idea of having two, new, art rooms and an office was very welcome. Before, project ideas were limited due to the lack of space for storage. Now, the possibilities of "creating anything" has been greatly expanded.

Mrs. McQuitty shows one of her basic design students, Autumn Cooper, how to perfect a drawing.

Trip to the Windy City . . . Chicago

On Saturday, December 10th, the art club sponsored a trip to Chicago. The students attended a variety of activities ranging from an Omnimax Theater show to the Sears Tower. The main goal of the trip was to see the art of the Post Impressionist painter, Paul Guaguin, at the Chicago Art Institute.

The first stop of the trip was the Museum of Science and Industry. Then, the students saw "Beyond the Great Barrier Reef" at the Omnimax Theater. After the show they went to the Chicago Art Institute and to the top of the Sears Tower.

"If you take art seriously, it can give you a chance to show how creative and different you are. It is a fun way of expressing yourself."

The second hour class in room 202, taught by Mrs. Joanne Sullivan, produces cutting and clicking sounds, students with fine writing skills, and a well designed, well written school newspaper called the Megaphone.

Each month for seven months 450 copies are printed and sold to students and the faculty. The staff members, led by Rob McCord, are assigned one story from their beat and one special story each issue. Mrs. Sulli-

Skills Developed

The Megaphone staff worked hard this year to produce a paper with articles of interest to the students and faculty. Many skills were developed consisting of responsibility, cooperation, team work, and public response. Many students throughout the year developed designing skills which allowed them to lay-out their own section.

Mrs. Sullivan also appreciated the cooperation received from the students and faculty members in order to publish the paper.

Conscientious Workers

Recording the events and highlights was the goal of the yearbook staff. The skills of interviewing, lay-out designing, photographing, and taking responsibility were tasks done well this year because they had many conscientious workers and leadership ability. The staff, consisting of sixteen members, was led by Mrs. Darren Paquin, advisor, Lisa Chriss, editor, and Angie Mottweiler, assistant editor. The yearbook staff accomplished their goal by recording the school's history.

After School Commitment

Helping record the school's history is only a part of being on the yearbook staff. The staff attends camps and workshops, works late hours, and raises money by selling ads. A new fundraising project this year was a senior memory, video tape. In the summer the editors started preparing the book by attending camp held at Ball State. Editors attending were Lisa Chriss, Angie Mottweiler, Mike Stone, and photographer, Eric Collins. During the year staffers attended Ball State for seminars to gather ideas for the book. Throughout the year the staff worked hard to produce the book.

"This year's staff worked so well together, and they displayed good writing ability, time management, and an outstanding attitude of producing their best effort." — Mrs. Paquin

Music department produces variety show

"Classical Dimensions" was the theme for the 1989 variety show presented by the music department. The production was performed on May 19th and May 20th in the new auditorium and emceed by seniors Rob McCord, Rich Tippey, and Rachann Ennis.

The selections performed by the band were "Silver Quill," "Novena," "My Fair Lady," "Time of my Life," "Classics on the March," "Ritual Fire Dance," "Marching Trumpets Ole'," "Prime Time," "Preacher's Stomp," and "Gershwin." The band also accompanied the Panther guard in these selections: "If I Loved You," "Got My Mind Set On You," "Peter Gunn," and "Zip-A-Dec-Doo-Dah."

The jazz band performed two selections: "If" and "My Favorite Things." Both the choir and the Crimson Suite added choreography to the numbers "Birth of the Blues" and "60's Partyline." The choir performed "Tonight's the Night," "Phantom of the Opera," "Raisin' A Ruckus Medley," and "I'll Never Say Goodbye."

There were three solo spots in this year's variety show. Amber Young vocally performed "You've Got a Friend." Kathy Romig also sang "Wind Beneath My Wings." Chris Standridge, Wally Moody, and Joby Gibbons performed a medley of selections entitled "New Generations."

Even though the total number of members equaled 44, the Elwood Panther Band remained competitive throughout the marching season. They competed in four contests: "On the Banks of the Wabash," Bluffton; "Tournament of Champions," Kokomo; I.S.S.M.A. District Contest; "Heart of Hoosierland Classic," Elwood. In each of these contests the band performed three musical numbers: "Ritual Fire Dance," "Never Can Say Goodbye," and "I've Had the Time of my Life."

The band attended band camp at Concordia Seminary in Fort Wayne. There they learned their field show and spent many hours perfecting their music.

The drum majors for this year were Barbie Troyer and Darcy Perkins. These students were responsible for directing the band throughout marching season.

Panther Guard Grabs Your Attention

This year's guard consisted of seven members: Angie Johnson, Stasha Burton, Tammy Morris, Tonya Heater, Laura Sexton, and Margret Johnson. These girls performed routines which were learned during band camp. They performed these routines with the band during marching season at contests and at football games. New multicolored flags and metallic uniforms were purchased by the music department to be used during these events.

The Elwood Community High School Music Department hosted an I.S.S.M.A. auxiliary contest. Fourteen schools participated, and several plaques and medals were given. Individual honors were awarded to the Elwood Panther Guard. Stasha Burton received a First Division on a baton solo, Tammy Whitenack was awarded a Division Two on a dance solo, and the guard was honored a Division One on a flag and dance routine.

Reaching Out

The Crimson Suite reached out with new members and a strong sound this year. The Crimson Suite consisted of 13 girls, nine sopranos and four altos. The girls' performing group attended the district vocal contest, singing "Lift Thine Eyes" and received a Division I rating. The group advanced to the state level held at North Central High School and was awarded first place. The Crimson Suite performed at various banquets, holiday events, and special dinners.

Pat Rice competed at the state level for the solo and ensemble contest. Pat brought home a first division.

Students Excell

Several students from the choir and band attended the district contest and then advanced to the state solo and ensemble contest this year. Both choir and band individuals and groups were rewarded for their participation in the district and state competition.

Advancing to the state choral contest were soloists Kathy Romig, Amber Young, Donald Stephens, and Scott Sovern. The Crimsum Suite attended the state contest as a large ensemble group. Soloists Donald Stephens and Pat Rice attended the state contest for band.

Every individual who attended a contest and placed first or second received a medal. Only a first place at the district contest allowed a student to participate at a state level contest. Solo and ensemble contests give each student a chance to improve their personal music skills.

Choir Entertains

The choir had many opportunities to entertain audiences this year. Students enjoyed displaying their singing talents at Union Station in Indianapolis for the second year. The choir also performed at the Christmas program, Madison County Choral Festival, and the variety show.

The new music department facilities provided a new choir room which includes new chairs, carpet on the floor and walls, two practice rooms, and large mirrors for practicing choreography. The increasing number of members and the blend of new voices made choir worth recording.

The high school choral department enjoyed performing before a large audience at Union Station in Indianapolis. This was the second year for the choir to be invited to entertain at Union Station for the Christmas holiday. All choral students sang traditional as well as contemporary music for the program and featured the Crimson Suite on two selections.

Honor Society Events

The National Honor Society members had a successful year. The members were honored by the Lions Club on Tuesday, April 4th at the annual National Honor Society banquet. On Tuesday, April 11th the induction ceremony was held in the new auditorium, and at awards night on Tuesday, May 30th, National Honor Society seniors were introduced and received their gold tassels and cords to be worn at graduation.

Annual Tap Day

Tapping something doesn't usually have much meaning, but on the official National Honor Society Tap Day it means a great deal! "Tapping" signifies the notification that a junior has been chosen as a perspective National Honor Society member. On this tenth annual event twelve juniors were the stars of the day. Tappers sent balloons, made cookies, devised treasure hunts throughout the building, held a candlelight lunch, convinced students to carry signs, wear costumes, and kiss classmates.

The criteria for membership includes an application, completion of five semesters, and a minimum of a 3.5 grade point average. Scholarship, character, service, and leadership categories are the criteria used for voting students as perspective members.

Being tapped by Rich Tippey, Chad Woolums received his second clue, the sign "I am the original cud master," from Mrs. Paquin.

Banquet Highlights

The third, annual Medieval banquet was held on February 24, 1989, after studying Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales." Before the banquet the students made a pilgrimage which included visits at four locations. They began at the First Methodist Church, and then traveled to Klein's Shoe Store, Security Bank, Swick Law Office, and back to the church where the actual banquet was held. Tom Cassidy and Larry Swick were the honored guests. Faculty members assisting were Steve Patz, the wizard; Kenny Brown, the fool; Paula Simmons, the musician; James Compton, King Henry VIII; and Janet Trowbridge, Queen Ann Boleyn. Mavis Barnett, Linda Gatewood, and Karen Tunis were parents who assisted.

Tournament Competition

The honors English and world history classes added a competition to the Medieval event this year. After the banquet a tournament was held in the auxiliary gym where they were joined by the sophomore honors English class. The events were archery, jousting, and an obstacle course with the Villagers, the freshmen, against the Royals, the sophomores. Queen Ann Boleyn, portrayed by Janet Trowbridge, started the events with a drop of her handkerchief. In the archery contest the Royals captured first place, and in the jousting contest the Villagers were victorious. In the obstacle course the Villagers defeated the Royals by a score of 4-2. In the last phase of the obstacle course each girl had to kiss the king, Homecoming king, Chris Noone, and each boy had to receive a kiss from the queen, Homecoming queen, Daphne Kelich. The competition was a great success.

Mr. James Compton, administrative assistant, portrayed King Henry VIII at the Medieval banquet.

In the archery contest, Sir Theron of Strong represented the Villagers.

"I believe the banquet itself was the best part; it was quite an experience and a lot of fun." — Theron Strong

Spanish Students Study Tradition

This year Spanish students spent three days studying Spanish traditions. The students baked Spanish chocolate and bread of the kings. In Spanish tradition there is one raisin placed in the bread, and whoever gets the raisin is the king or queen of the party.

In January the Spanish club members held a fund raiser selling Valentine's Day gifts, and the fund raiser winners were taken to Chi-Chi's for dinner. Also they sponsored the annual, semi-formal Belles and Beaus dance. Another festival was attended in April which included a Mexican meal and a study of cultural events.

Junior Jason Wheeler and senior Jim Hudson are preparing churros during Spanish class for a Spanish food day.

Spanish Club Stays Busy

The Spanish club members attended many activities throughout the year. They attended a Fiesta Indianapolis at the War Memorial Pavillion where they enjoyed crafts, food, and entertainment. On September 15 and 16 members celebrated Mexican Independence Day by decorating room 208 and the hallway and having a Mexican food day. The advance classes spoke Spanish the whole day. Also the members ate at El Torito's in Indianapolis, and at Chi Chi's in Muncie. A Christmas party was held which included pizza, games, and an impromptu lip sync contest. At the end of the party students broke the pinata in Spanish tradition. In March thirty students attended the International Festival in Indianapolis where crafts, food, and entertainment were enjoyed.

Racing and Competing

Latin club members had a very active year. Members participated in the chariot race at the Lew Wallace Study in Crawfordsville, Indiana. Members also sponsored a successful, Fall Fantasy dance for the third consecutive year. Students also attended the certamen meets at Ball State University, Carmel High School, and Indiana State University. An Ides of March party was held in honor of Julius Ceasar, and on April 21 students celebrated Rome's birthday.

STUDENT LEADERS

Student leaders shine

The 1988-89 school year was worth recording for student council activities. Student council members kept busy this year by sponsoring many after-game dances. The money from dances went toward the purchase of new benches for the high school. The student council also sponsored the homecoming powder puff game and supported the student, dress code policy by attending the dress code meetings. At Christmastime student council members helped needy families by conducting a food drive. The 47 member group was sponsored by Mrs. Barbara Yates. Student council will continue to play a leadership role in guiding students, and they plan to become more involved with school activities.

Learning from the experts

Youth and Government Day was held on May 5, 1989, and was sponsored by the Elwood Elks Lodge, City Hall, and the high school social studies department. The Elks provided lunch, a presentation, a tour of government areas, and the assignment of city positions. The goal of Youth and Government Day is to instill student interest in public affairs.

Students were Jon Ash, mayor; Julie Bastian, mayor's secretary; Stacey Hoppel, city engineer; Kari Hubble and Erika McPhearson, city councilwomen; Joby Gibbons and Matt Hussong, chief of police and assistant chief of police; Jason Marcuson and Jason Hester, fire chief and assistant fire chief; Amy Groover, Anne Barnes, and Danielle Peters, city water company; Mimi Luyet and Sherae Smith, city clerk; and Daniel Pantos, city welfare office.

Social Studies

Mrs. Merritt and Mr. Brown's election unit was held for one week during the first semester, and a lot of good experience was gained. The students were to gain an understanding of the political profile of a candidate for public office. The importance of a political platform was learned. Students reviewed the total election process to gain insight into today's political methods. They set up a platform of news for two political parties. In the election unit they discussed what type of person runs for public office, the importance of television and one's image, the election day process, political party organization, and the importance of one man's vote. Students devised the ideal political party and a profile of the ideal candidate.

Students Make History

Mr. Brown's sociology class visited Parkview Nursing Home to write a case study report. One patient was assigned to two students for three days. The students were to view nursing home life, look at activities offered, and scope the medical care given. They were to get to know their patient well, gain an understanding of the elderly, and learn to cope with the aged and the problems they face.

To Prove A Point

Every twenty minutes a United States teenager is killed in an automobile accident involving a drunk driver. On Friday, December 17, twenty-eight students participated in an experiment called "Angel of Death." There were twenty-one victims who represented the dead teenagers and seven angels who represented the drunk drivers. The victims were identified by wearing a black armband, and a black symbol was attached to their lockers. Also victims were not to communicate with students and teachers unless spoken to. The experiment was to show the students the importance of driving sober.

Other activities during Student Awareness Week were a balloon launch, pin-a-friend day, skits at the elementary schools, and distribution of drug awareness stickers.

People Who Care

The annual regional blood drive was a success. It was held at the John H. Hinds Vocational School on October 4, and 60 pints of blood were donated. Donor requirements include being eighteen years old and weighing more than one hundred pounds. Out of sixty-three student volunteers fifty were eligible to donate. Ten faculty and community members also donated blood. It is a fact that after the experience of these school blood drives, several students continue to be regular donors after graduation.

“It made me feel good to know I was helping others by giving blood. I like the fact that people who don’t need help, help the ones who do.”

Business Teacher Dedicates Life To Her Students

Mrs. Marilyn Barnett has been a business teacher for 22 years. She teaches basic business, keyboarding, word processing, and accounting. When asked what her favorite class was she replied, "I really don't have one. I enjoy all my classes because they give me variety."

In addition to teaching, Mrs. Barnett is also active in extra curricular activities. She has been the F.B.L.A. sponsor for fifteen years.

She assists students in furthering their education in business by competing in contests involving several different skills. Mrs. Barnett has also been the Office Education Association sponsor for five years. Mrs. Barnett has followed her dream of teaching as a career and hopes students will follow their dreams as well. She also stated, "If students aim high, they can achieve their goals."

Mrs. Barnett is using the overhead projector to review important points with her students.

Head of the Class

Rapid heart beat, butterflies in the stomach, sweaty palms, a dry mouth, and even welts are some of the symptoms of students who encounter the "dreaded" speech class. This year 80 students were enrolled in the four classes taught by Mrs. Paquin, and they all survived!

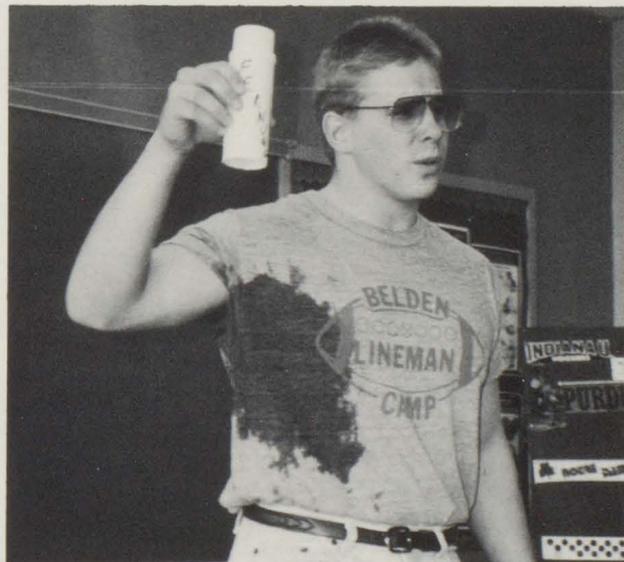

Mimes and interpretive readings introduce students to being "in front of the class" and "behind the podium." Short speeches dealing with personal experiences, pet peeves, jokes, and later the eulogy, process analysis, persuasion, and informative speeches allow students the experience needed to feel more comfortable in front of an audience.

Quite a transition takes place from the beginning of the semester to the end when for the final exam a student, once frightened to even get out of his seat, can deliver an eight to ten minute speech with poise, confidence, and a feeling of great accomplishment.

Mike Leisure enjoys himself as he demonstrates a "how to" speech by making balloon animals.

"I was very nervous the first time I got in front of the class, but as the year went along, I became very comfortable with it.

— Mark Fernung

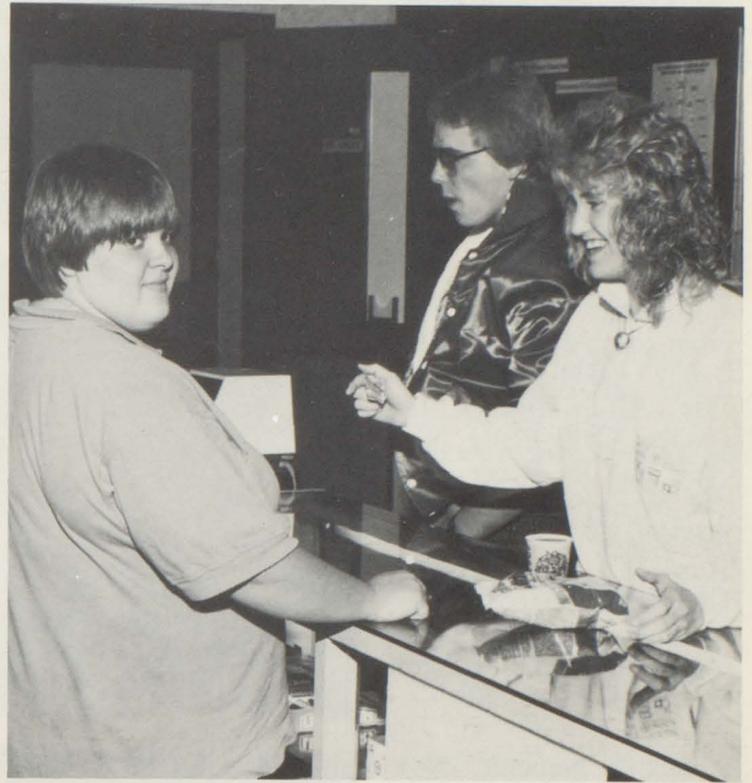

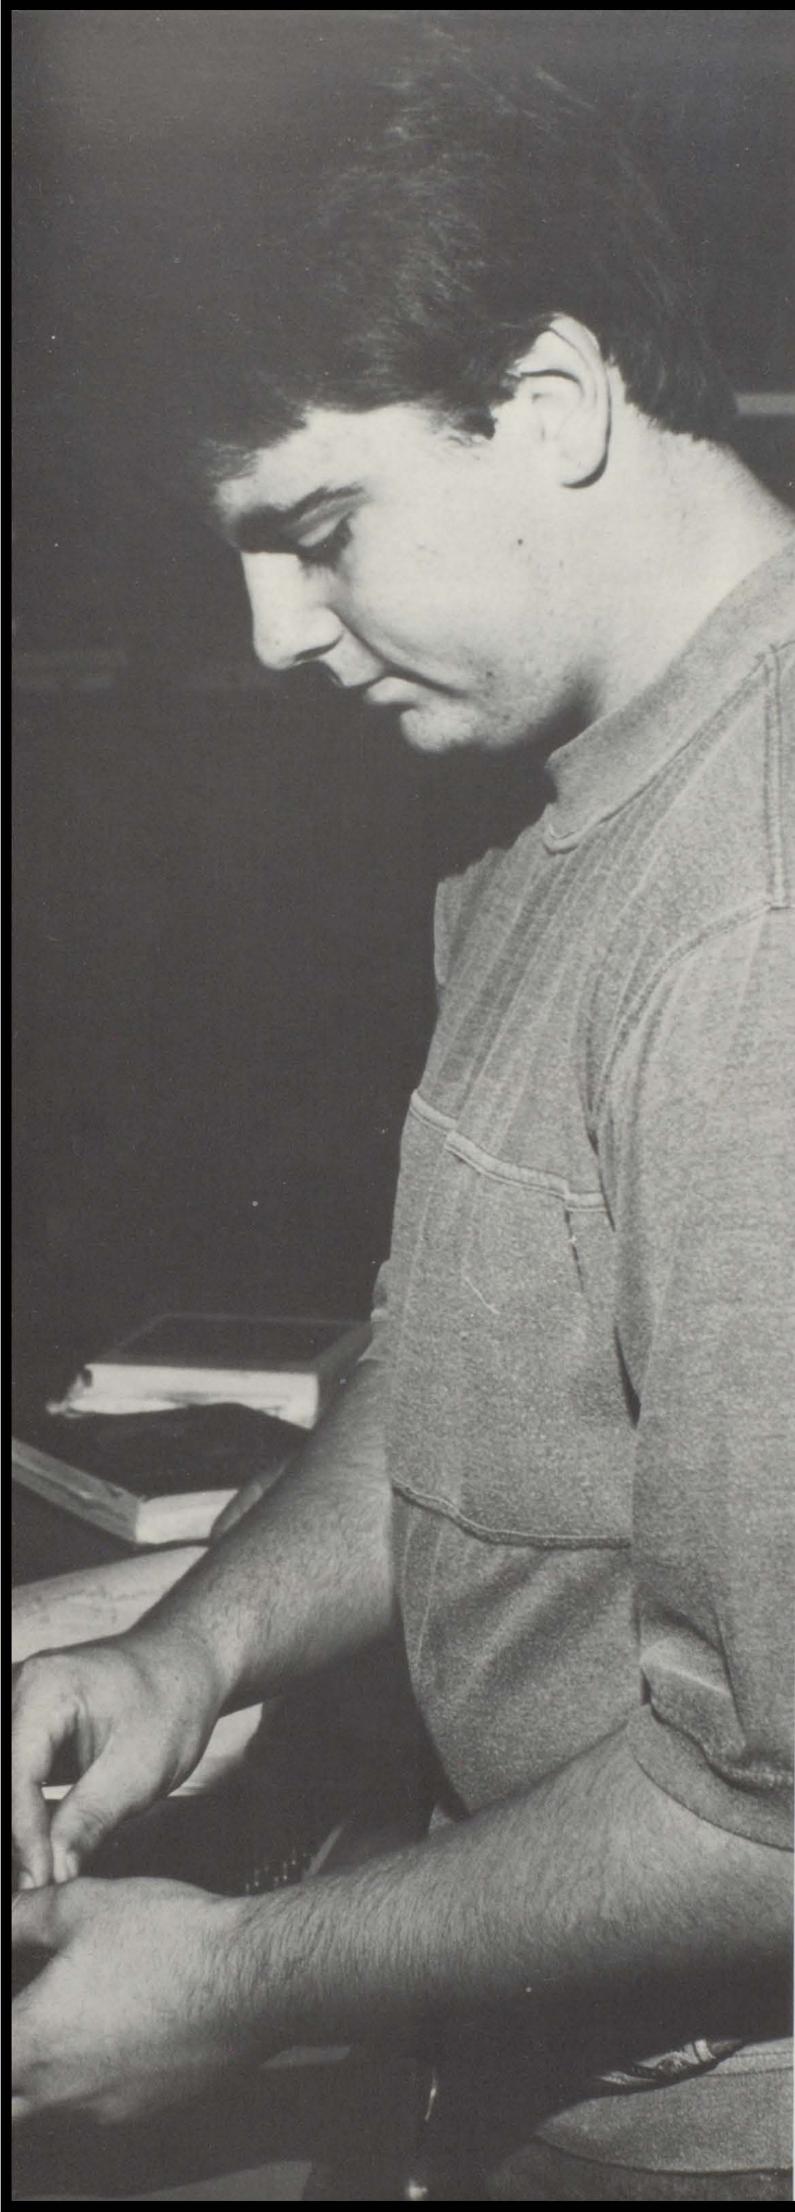

"Speech class at first was kind of scary, but as the semester went on the class grew closer and that made it fun."

— Mike Leisure

STARS RISE IN

Jeanne Armstrong was valedictorian for the class of 1989, earning a 3.933 grade point average.

Joby Gibbons, Jeanne Armstrong, and Rich Tippey were chosen by the faculty to attend Girls' and Boys' State in Terre Haute in June 1988 to learn about Indiana government.

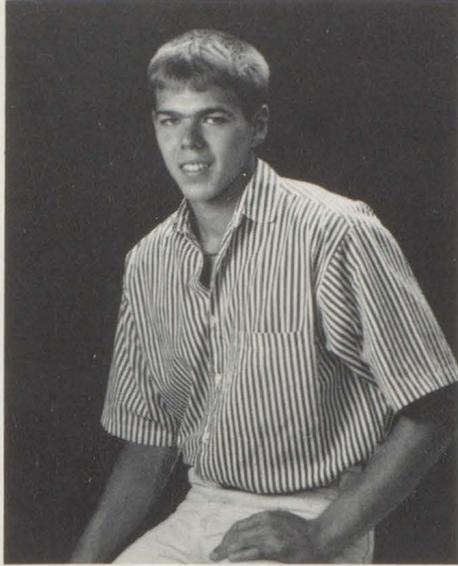

Shelly Stone represented Madison County at the first Indiana Governor's Scholars Academy.

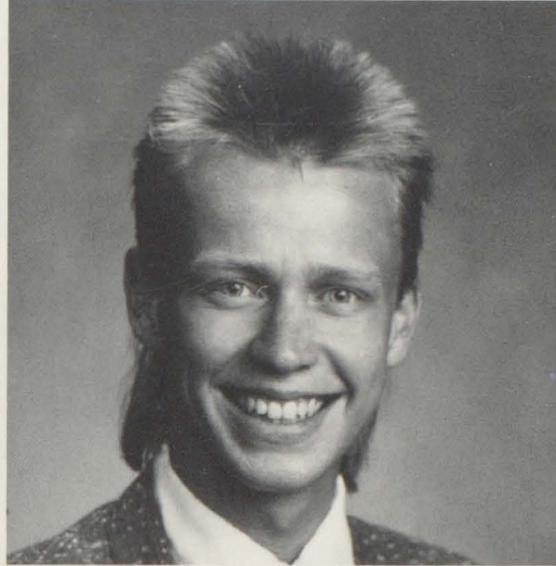

Amy Groover was salutatorian for the class of 1989. She earned a 3.931 grade point average.

ACADEMICS

Joby Gibbons was Elwood High School's Hoosier Scholar, receiving a $500 scholarship.

Senior Rob McCord was chosen as Elwood High School's Hoosier Scholar. He received a $500 scholarship.

Kim Robinson placed 23rd in the National Leadership Conference in Dallas, Texas.

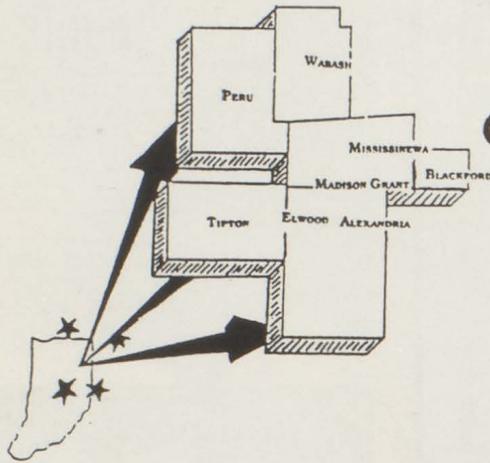

Kevin Cassidy was elected treasurer for the Junior Classical League for Latin.

Mia Roby was elected treasurer for the Senior Classical League for Latin.

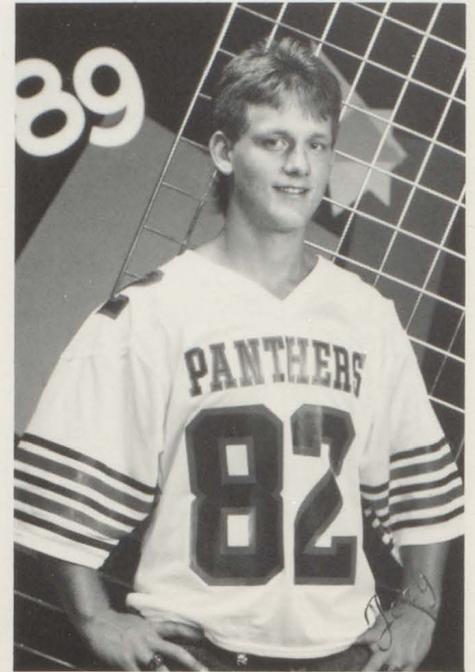

Seniors Rob McCord, Jeanne Armstrong, Charlotte Pavan, and Wendy Cross were the 1989 Commencement speakers.

STARS RISE IN

CENTRAL INDIANA CONFERENCE

Joey Martin, a senior at Elwood High School, designed the letterhead for the Central Indiana Conference. The letterhead will be used for conference stationary and as the conference design.

Jeanne Armstrong was chosen to participate in the Sertoma games. The Sertoma games are played to help benefit the Special Olympics.

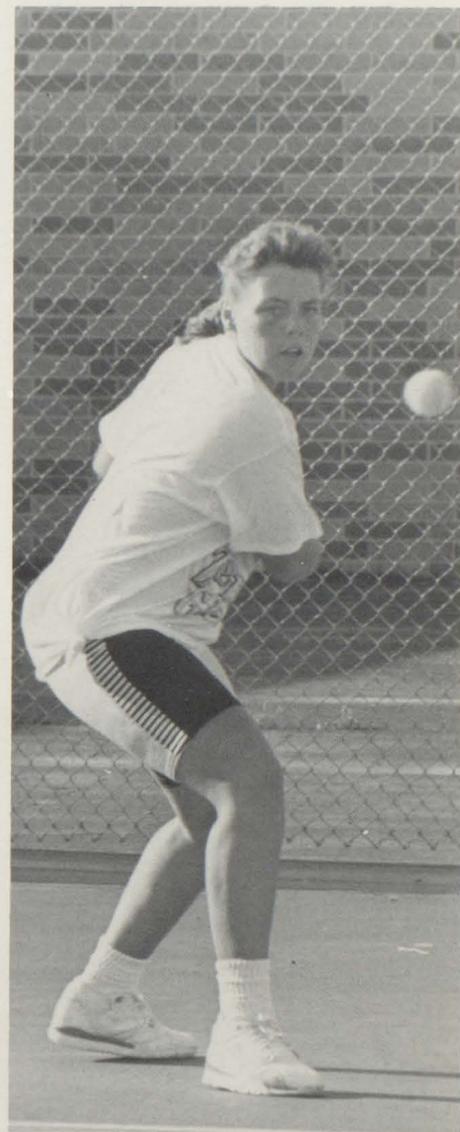

Chris Noone will be attending Indiana State University in the fall on a full athletic scholarship. Chris was co-captain of the football team, and he was also chosen to represent Elwood for the Red Haven Award.

ATHLETICS

Joby Gibbons was chosen to represent Elwood on the Sertoma All-Star basketball team. The team played two games against the Hamilton County All-Stars.

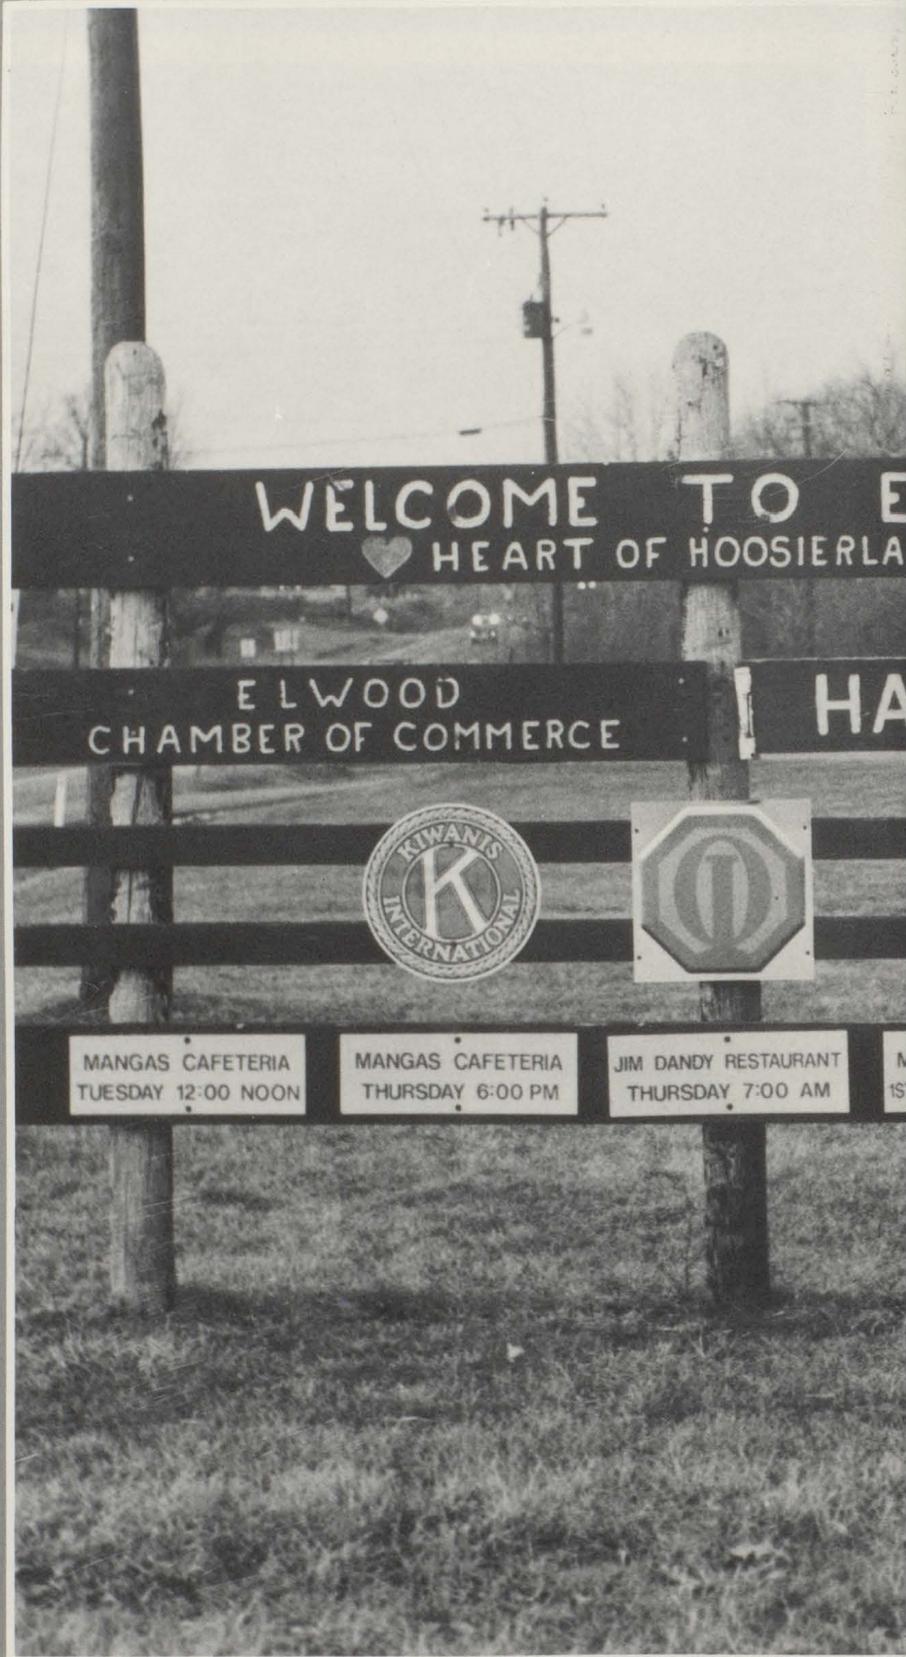

Daphne Kelich, a familiar sight on Elwood's tennis courts, proved her ability by competing in the state finals in 1988. She won another sectional title and advanced to the regional in 1989.
