Dearest Mary,

I received one letter from you today - postmarked March 6th. Also the Guide Light. My name was in the Guide paper, remember I told you that I wrote them a letter not long ago.

You mentioned getting six letters from me on March 5th that's not bad for one day. I wish I could get six from you. I wrote a letter to Dot thanking her for her Xmas presents; it must have been lost somewhere. I'll write her again soon. I must write E. Painter too, I had about forgotten him. Thanks for the reminder, honey.

If you get Millard Berry's address I will write to him, we might even get a chance to see each other. I didn't know he was over here.

I just found out who sent me the book from Hodgman Sporting Goods Co. Lambourne - he sent for one so he told them to send me one too. I was sure surprised when he told me!

The weather is sure hot today. I wish it would rain so that it would be a little cooler. Its not so bad in the evening; I have been sleeping under one or two blankets.

All my love, Mary

Your husband,

Earl
