

Feb. 12, 1945

Burma

Dearest Mary,

I was just looking at the Valentines; that you and Diana sent me. You are quite the artist! Diana must like the crayons, from the looks of the pictures.

Today has been pretty warm, and not much wind blowing. I went swimming this afternoon, the water was a little warmer than usual.

I wrote to Minnie today thanking her for the Christmas package. I didn't know that she was sending me one. I think this one makes the ninth or tenth one I've received.

Here's a joke I just read: A newly created father received the glad tidings in a telegram: "Hazel gave birth to a little girl this morning; both doing well." On the message was a sticker reading: "When you want a boy, call Western Union." Thought you might like it.

Yes, Jan. 21 was the day I left for Ft. Ben. That's one date I won't forget darling. I was on K. P. that day Russ and Wanita brought you down. Didn't we take some pictures that day? I long for the day I'll be going back there, only this time to get my discharge.

How is Russ and Wanita getting along? You haven't said anything about them lately so I suppose everything is O. K.

No mail came in today. It will be two or three day's yet before we get any. Its about 8:30 so I will stop for tonight.

I love you more each day, darling.

Yours forever,

Earl

P.S

Here's a half rupee, I will send you some more different coins soon as I get some.

Cpl. E. D. Wayne 355 71167
Co. "A" 1877 Eng. Avn.
A.P.O. 218 6/8 PM

Feb

12

1945

Earl D. Wayne
Box 518

Frankton
Indiana

Feb. 12, 1945
Burma.

Dearest Mary,

I was just looking at the Valentines that you and Diana sent me. You are quite an artist! Diana must like her crayons, from the looks of the pictures.

Today has been pretty warm, and not much wind blowing. I went swimming this afternoon, the water was a little warmer than usual.

I wrote to Minnie today thanking her for the Christmas package. I didn't know that she was sending me one. I think this one makes the ninth or tenth one she's received.

Here's a joke I just read: A newly created father received the glad tidings in a telegram: "Hazel gave birth to a little girl this morning; both doing well." On the message was a sticker reading: "When you want a boy, call Western Union." I thought you might like it.

Apr, Jan. 21 was the day I left for St. Ben. That's one date I won't forget darling. I was on K.P. that day Russ and Wanita brought you down. Didn't we take some pictures that day? I long for the day I'll be going back there, only this time to get my discharge.

How is Russ and Wanita getting along?
You haven't said anything about them
lately so I suppose everything is O.K.

No mail came in today. It will be two or three days yet before we get any. It's about 8:30 so I will stop for tonight.

I love you more each day, darling.
Yours forever,
E. A. L.

P.S.

Here's a half super, I will send you some more different coins soon as I get some.