

Feb. 23, 1945

Burma

Dearest Mary,

No mail came in today. I hope we get some tomorrow.

I'm going to the movie tonight. I don't know what the name of it is, I'll tell you about it in tomorrow's letter.

The weather is pretty warm today. The nights are beginning to get warmer so I suppose it won't be very long until we will really have some hot weather.

I didn't eat much dinner today, we had salmon and I don't like it very well.

I'm going to answer Mrs. Wise's letter tomorrow, soon as I answer it I will be caught up on my letter writing. I wrote Dad last night.

I will stop for now, honey.

I love you, Mary.

Your husband,

Earl

Feb. 23, 1945
Burma.

Dearest Mary,

No mail came in today. I hope we get some tomorrow.

I'm going to the movie tonight. I don't know what the name of it is, I'll tell you about it in tomorrow's letter.

The weather is pretty warm today. The nights are beginning to get warmer so I suppose it won't be very long until we will really have some hot weather.

I didn't eat much dinner today. we had salmon and I don't like it very well.

I'm going to answer Mrs. Winn's letter tomorrow, soon as I answer it I will be caught up on my letter writing. I wrote to Dad last night.

I will stop for now, Love,

I love you, Mary.

Your husband,
Earl.