

Somewhere in the mountains

March 16, 1944

Hi Honey,

I'm sitting on a rock enjoying the beautiful scenery while writing you this letter. I wish you could see how beautiful it is up here, this stream is so cold and clean that you can see the bottom almost any place. I have seen several fish right by our tent. I saw some deer tracks just a few yds. up stream; and I sure would like to hunt and fish some but we don't have any equipment. There is rocks up here as big as a house and in the cracks are little lizzards that can run like hell, you can hardly see them they go so fast. I see two of them on a big rock running them self's.

I shaved yesterday and boy did I have a time, this water is so cold that it just about froze my face, but I sure felt good after I finished. I washed my feet this morn in the stream too.

It rained about all day Mon., but has stopped at the present and the temp is swell during the day time. At night it frost; everything white and even freezes ice in some places.

I'm sorry I let my close get so dirty, I promise I won't do it again, often I come from the mts. How are you getting along with your new job? Don't work too hard honey.

Mr. Bean got a pass tonight. I hope to get one tomorrow or just as soon as I can. We work 8 hr shifts so as soon as I'm on the 7:00 am to 3:00 pm I should get a pass. It's about 50 mi to Fresno. I must stop honey, and eat supper.

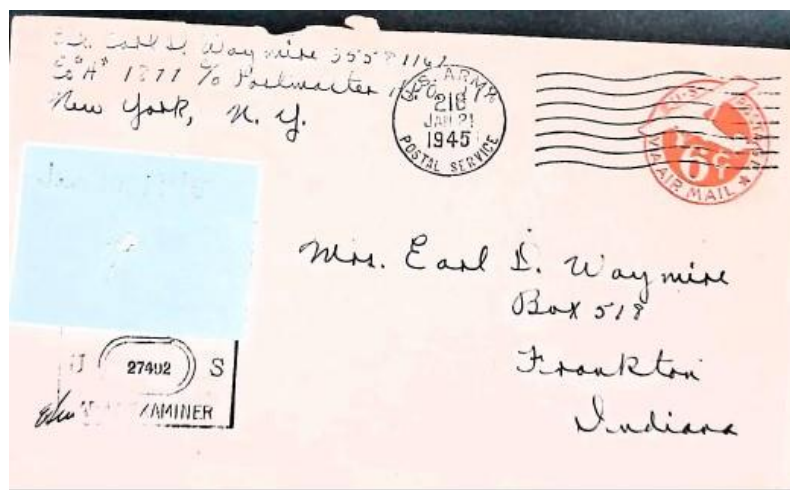

I'm on 11:00 pm tp 7:00 am tonight

Bye darling

I love you very much.

Your husband

Earl

somewhere in the mountains.

March 14, 1943

Hi Honey,

I'm sitting on a rock and enjoying the beautiful scenery while writing you this letter. I wish you could see how beautiful it is up here, this stream is so cold and clear that you can see the bottom almost any place. I have seen several fish, right by our tent. I saw some deer tracks just a few yds. up stream; and I sure would like to hunt and fish some but we don't have any equipment. There is rocks up here as big as a house and in the cracks are little lizards that can run like hell, you can hardly see them they go so fast. I see two of them on a big rock running their tails.

I shaved yesterday and boy did it have a time, this water is so cold that it just about froze my face, but I sure felt good after I finished. I washed my feet this morn in the stream too.

It rained about all day Mon., but has stopped at the present and the temp is swell during the day time. At night it frosts everything white and even freezes ice in some places.

I'm sorry I let my class get so dirty.
I promise I won't do it again, after I come from the mts. How are you getting along with your new job? Don't work too hard honey.

Mr. Bean got a pass tonight. I hope to get one tomorrow or just as soon as I can.
We work 8 hr shifts so as soon as I'm on the 1:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. I should get a pass. It's about 50 mi to Kansas.

I must stop honey, and eat supper.

I'm on 11:00 P.M. to 7:00 A.M. tonight

Bye darling

I love you very much.

Your husband

Earl.