Dearest Mary,

No mails today; hope I have better luck tomorrow. It's only been two days since I got some so I don't look for any for a few days. Are you getting much mail?

I'm going to write to Dad tonight or tomorrow, I've not wrote to him this week. I should be getting a letter from Irsy pretty soon, he said that he was going on furlough so maybe that's the reason I have not heard from him. He is sure a lucky guy to get to stay in the States this long.

Won't be long until my birthday; next Sun, I hope my package gets here by then. I sure hope that I can be home by this time next year.

The war news sounds good. Now that they have a base within bombing range of Tokyo.

One of the boys in my tent got some film the other day, so I may have some pictures to send you pretty soon.

One of the boys in our company is from Alexandria, Ind, I talked to him the other day and he said that he knew Vi and her brothers& sisters. I can't think of him name, but soon as I find out I'm going to ask Vi if she knows him.

I went to the show last night - "Sunday Dinner for a Soldier." Ann Baxter and John Hodiak were the actors.

Tell Diana, hello.

I love you with all my heart, darling.

Your husband,

Earl

I'm going to write to Dad tonight or tomorrow, I've not wrote to him this week. I should be getting a letter from Jerry pretty soon, he said that he was going on furlough so maybe that's the reason I have not heard from him. He is sure a lucky guy to get to stay in the States this long.

Won't be long until my birthday; next week I hope my package gets here by then. I sure hope that I can be home by this time next year.
