

March 28, 1945

Burma

Dearest Mary,

I received some mail from you yesterday but I haven't had much time to answer any of your letters as yet. I'll answer your letters tomorrow.

I have some gifts for Diana and you; they are pretty hard to get over here. I'll send them to you soon as I can find a box to pack them in.

Please notice the change in my address, I'm in Co. C now; remember the letter you addressed to C when I was in A? I'm glad to hear that your mail is arriving sooner than it has been. I think I will get yours a little quicker now that I'm in Co. c. I received your Easter Card yesterday, thanks very much darling, I hope you like the one I sent you.

I must stop for tonight darling.

I love you, Mary.

Your husband,

Earl

March 28, 1945

Burma.

Dearest Mary,

I received some mail from you yesterday but I haven't had much time to answer any of your letters as yet. I'll answer your letters tomorrow.

I have some gifts for Diana and you; they are pretty hard to get over here. I'll send them to you soon as I can find a box to pack them in.

Please notice the change in my address, I'm in Co. C now; remember the letter you addressed to C when I was in A? I'm glad to hear that your mail is arriving sooner than it has been. I think I will get yours a little quicker now that I'm in Co.-C. I received your Easter Card yesterday, thanks very much darling, I hope you like the one I sent you.

I must stop for tonight darling.
I love you, Mary.

Your husband,
Earl.