Dearest Mary,

I received four letters from you today, there were V-mails, and the one with stationary and stamps. They were dates Jan 31, Feb 1, 2, & 3. Thanks for sending the stamps and stationary, I'm using it tonight.

I just finished eating supper, we had Vienna-sausage & cheese, boiled cabbage, green beans, pineapple, and hot chocolate.

I haven't missed a day writing to you in a long time honey, the letters I wrote between Jan 10 and 14 may have been lost somewhere. Maybe they are just delayed some place.

The fire at the Lumber Co. must have been pretty bad. I don't think John Frank will miss $5,000 very much; do you? Some things may be pretty hard to replace, though.

I'll sure be glad when the chocolate syrup gets here, I like it much better than coffee. We usually heat some water and have something hot to drink just before going to bed. One of the boys in my tent got a box of candy today, I ate two pieces - I don't care much for candy.

I should have enough flints when I get the ones you just sent me, probably enough to outlast my lighter. Tell Pat Bean thanks for me honey. I have never heard from Morris, maybe its because I haven't wrote to him. Ha! I just noticed in you Jan 1st letter that you received the letters you were asking about, that's my error for not reading your letter more closely.

I like the Yardley powder swell darling, I think it the best I ever used. My face is so tanned that powder shows up very easy.

I can't think of anything I need right now honey, I will let you know soon as I want something.

I love you more than ever, Mary.

Your husband,

Earl

I should have enough flints when I get the ones you just sent me, probably enough to outlast my lighter. Tell Pat Bear thanks for me honey. I have never heard from Morris, maybe its because I havnt wrote to him. Ha! I just noticed in your Jan 1st letter that you received the letters you were asking about, thats my error for not reading your letter more closely.

I like the spudly powder swell darling, I think its the best I ever used. My face is so tanned that powder shows up very easy.

I can't think of anything I ~~we~~ need right now honey, I will let you know soon as I want something.

I love you more than ever, Mary.
